THE FUTURE

On August 31, 2022, Vice Preseident of Athletics Michael Kelly announced a transformational Facilities Master Plan for expansion and enhancements of the USF Athletics District.

"We believe USF Athletics can grow significantly and achieve great things in the coming years and have an aggresive vision for getting there," he said. "The university is very supportive of this vision and understands Athletics' place as a key driver for one of the fastest growing universities in the nation. We will need the support of our fans, partners, community and generous donors to get there, but I believe we have the passion and will achieve great things."

FAST FACTS

MULTI-PURPOSE
The Yuengling Center is a multi-purpose facility, hosting approximately 300 different events each year, including sporting events, concerts, home and garden shows, trade shows, religious services, conventions, ethnic festivals, rodeos, bull riding competitions, youth sports camps, wrestling, boxing, gymnastics and cheerleading competitions, commencement ceremonies, lectures and political rallies among other corporate, community and university events.

GRAND OPENING
The Yuengling Center celebrated its grand opening, following a $35.6 million renovation, with a sold out Elton John show on Sept. 14, 2012.

HIGH RANKING
In 2014, the Yuengling Center was ranked as the No. 2 overall venue in the state of Florida in its capacity size for the second consecutive year.

MORE RANKINGS
The Yuengling Center has been ranked No. 2 among all venues (including non-university) in the state of Florida with its capacity size (10,001-15,000), according to Venues Today Magazine, for the past three years.

TOP EVENT VENUE
The Yuengling Center was recognized in the Tampa Bay Business Journal's August 2014 "List Issue" as a Top Event Venue in the Tampa Bay area.

The Bulls play in the 10,411-seat Yuengling Center, which went through a $35.6 million renovation prior to the 2012-13 basketball season.

| 2020-21 | Kennesaw State | Head Coach | 5-19 |
| 2021-22 | Kennesaw State | Head Coach | 13-18 |
| 2022-23 | Kennesaw State | Head Coach | 26-9 / NCAA 1st round |

Named the 11th head coach in South Florida men's basketball history on March 29, 2023, Amir Abdur-Rahim came to USF after leading one of the nation's most stunning turnarounds at Kennesaw State, which he guided from a 1-win season to a 26-9 record, ASUN Conference regular season and tournament titles and the program's first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament berth in 2022-23.

"Everything that we were looking for in a leader for our men's basketball program, we found in Amir," Kelly said. "He is a man of high character who is a proven recruiter, program-builder, and winner that creates unparalleled student-athlete experiences. In our conversations, it became clear that he has a vision for USF Basketball and his enthusiasm and tenacity will rally Bulls Nation around our men's basketball program. I welcome Amir, his wife, Arianne, and their children, Laila, Lana and Ayden to Team USF."

In four seasons at Kennesaw State (2019-23), Abdur-Rahim oversaw progressive growth in the Owls program, doubling the program's wins every season, before culminating in KSU's first winning record as an NCAA Division I program and first ASUN conference titles (regular season and tournament) in 2022-23. The former NCAA Division II power transitioned to Division I in men's basketball in 2005-06 and had peaked at a 14-18 mark in 2017-18 before Abdur-Rahim took over the program.

The Marietta, Ga. native, led the Owls, picked to finish eighth in the ASUN, to a 15-3 conference record in 2022-23 to claim the ASUN regular season crown. KSU's 15 league wins were five more than the program's previous record of 10, while the Owls tied for fourth in the nation with 10 road wins (10-6), four more than the 2016-17 team's program-record road mark of 6-13.

The Owls went on to post three wins in the conference tournament, downing Liberty (67-66) in the final to earn the tournament title and automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Tournament, the program's first-ever. KSU finished with a school-record 26-9 mark, scoring 75.0 points per game, to nearly double the program's previous high wins mark in Division I and post their first winning season in Division I. The Owls set a record as the fastest team to ever reach the NCAA Tournament after a one-win campaign, taking just three seasons. The 14th-seeded Owls took No. 3-seed Xavier to the limit in the 2023 NCAA Tournament, nearly pulling off the first-round upset in what was a one-point game in the final seconds before eventually falling 72-67.

Star guard Chris Youngblood was named a first-team All-Conference and All-District selection and became the first KSU player to be named Georgia Men's Player of the Year by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. Meanwhile, guard Terrell Burden earned second-team All-Conference and All-District honors, marking the first time in program history the Owls received district accolades of any kind. Further, Brandon Stroud was named the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year.

Abdur-Rahim earned ASUN Coach of the Year and NABC District 3 Coach of the Year honors and was named the 2023 Hugh Durham Award winner (Division I Mid-Major Coach of the Year) by CollegeInsider.com and Georgia Men's College Coach of the Year by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. He was also a finalist for the Ben Jobe National Coach of the

2023-24 USF MEN'S BASKETBALL COACHES AND STAFF

Year award. He finished his KSU tenure with a 45-74 record in four seasons, going 39-27 the last two years, doubling his win total every season on campus before culminating with a school-record 26 wins.

His 2021-22 team went 13-18 overall, which equaled KSU's second-best record in Division I and finished one game behind the previous all-time season win record at the Division I level. KSU's impressive showing against one of the toughest schedules in the nation led to what was then the school's highest-ever finish in both the KenPom (223) and NET (224) rankings. They would eclipse that in 2022-23, moving to 123 (KenPom) and 115 (NET), respectively.

Abdur-Rahim came to KSU with a proven track record of winning as a player and a coach with 13 years of experience developing and recruiting talented athletes out of the south. One of his first moves at KSU was to bring in standout freshmen Terrell Burden and Armani Harris who made an immediate impact during the 2019-20 campaign. He followed that with one of the top recruiting classes in KSU history. The Owls secured three of Georgia's top-25 recruits in three-star athletes Chris Youngblood, Brandon Stroud and Kasen Jennings in the fall of 2019, giving KSU the top class in the ASUN and the 61st-ranked class in the nation

Abdur-Rahim spent one year as an assistant coach at the University of Georgia (2018-19) under head coach Tom Crean. One of the lead recruiters for UGA, he helped the Bulldogs secure a top-10 recruiting class and was pivotal in signing Anthony Edwards, who was selected as the No. 1 overall draft pick by the Minnesota Timberwolves in the 2020 NBA Draft

He also had stints at Texas A&M (2014-18) and Murray State (2006-07 & 2008-11), where he helped develop two NBA Draft picks in Robert Williams III from TAMU and Isaiah Canaan out of MSU.

In four years as an assistant at Texas A&M, he helped lead the Aggies to three postseason appearances and two NCAA Tournament bids, including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances in 2016 and 2018. He also helped orchestrate three 20-win seasons while at TAMU, helping the Aggies to a school record 28 wins in 2016, which included a share of the SEC regular-season title, the first for the program in 30 years.

Before moving to College Station, Abdur-Rahim served as an assistant coach at the College of Charleston (2012-14) before being promoted to associate head coach for the 2013-14 campaign. The Cougars recorded an overall record of 38-29 during his two seasons, earning a 2013 CBI bid.

Abdur-Rahim also spent a year at Georgia Tech (2007-08) as director of player development.

While earning his master's degree in organizational communication, Abdur-Rahim spent two years as a graduate assistant at Murray State before being promoted to assistant coach from 2008-11. During Abdur-Rahim's tenure at Murray State, the Racers compiled a 73-26 overall record, earning two OVC Regular Season Championships and a 2010 OVC Tournament title. The Racers reached the second round of the 2010 NCAA Tournament, upsetting No. 4 seed Vanderbilt in the opening round before falling to eventual runner-up Butler. A graduate of Southeastern Louisiana University, Abdur-Rahim was a three-time All-Southland Conference guard for the Lions, finishing his career ranked seventh in the record books for points scored and second for 3-pointers made and steals. As a freshman at Garden City (Kansas) Community College, he ranked No. 24 nationally in scoring, averaging 19.1 points per game.

Married to Arianne Buchanan, he and his wife have two daughters, Laila and Lana, and a son, Aydin. Abdur-Rahim is one of 13 children born to Deborah Hester and William Abdur-Rahim and one of six brothers to play college basketball. His older brother, Shareef, was a 13-year NBA veteran and is now the President of the NBA's G-League.

BEN FLETCHER

ASSISTANT COACH | 1ST SEASON | ALMA MATER: TROY, 2003

Fletcher spent the previous four seasons as an assistant coach under Abdur-Rahim during their rebuild at Kennesaw State that saw the Owls go from one win in 2019-20 to a school-record 26 wins in 2022-23 and the program's first Division I NCAA Tournament appearance.

At Kennesaw State (2019-23), Fletcher helped guide the Owls to the fastest turnaround from a one-win team to an NCAA Tournament team, accomplishing the feat in just three seasons. Kennesaw State posted a 26-9 record in 2022-23, won the ASUN regular season and tournament championships and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. It marked the Owls' first winning record as an NCAA Division I program and first ASUN conference titles.

Kennesaw State was picked to finish eighth in the ASUN preseason poll, but tallied a 15-3 league record. KSU's 15 conference wins were five more than the program's previous record of 10, while the Owls tied for fourth in the nation with 10 road wins, four more than the 2016-17 team's program-record of six.

The Owls went on to post three wins in the conference tournament, downing Liberty (67-66) in the final to earn the tournament title and automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Tournament, the program's first-ever. KSU scored 75.0 points per game and shot 46.1 percent from the field and 36.5 percent from three to nearly double the program's previous high wins mark in Division I. The 14th-seeded Owls took No. 3-seed Xavier to the limit in the 2023 NCAA Tournament, nearly pulling off the first-round upset in what was a one-point game in the final seconds before eventually falling 72-67.

Star guard Chris Youngblood was named a first-team All-Conference and All-District selection and became the first KSU player to be named Georgia Men's Player of the Year by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. Meanwhile, guard Terrell Burden earned second-team All-Conference and All-District honors, marking the first time in program history the Owls received district accolades of any kind. Further, Brandon Stroud was named the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to Kennesaw State, Fletcher spent 14 seasons as an assistant coach at Troy University (2005-19).

The 2016-17 season was one of the most successful in Troy history. The Trojans had their most wins (22) since the 2003-04 season and the largest wins improvement in program history (9 wins in 2015-16). Troy won the Sun Belt tournament championship that season and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Fletcher was instrumental in the Trojans' rise in the Sun Belt Conference, culminating in Troy's first Sun Belt title in 2010 and second straight postseason berth. He helped guide the Trojans to a 14-4 league record during the 2008-09 campaign, highlighted by wins over every member of the Sun Belt Conference, the only team to accomplish the feat that year.

After playing in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2009, the Trojans went on to win the Sun Belt regular season championship in 2009-10 and a National Invitation Tournament (NIT) berth.

Under Fletcher's guidance in 2013-14, Hunter Williams made 98 3-pointers, setting the Troy single-season record, which was previously held by Fletcher.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Fletcher was one of the greatest players in Troy's Division I history. Fletcher played for the Trojans from 2001-03, averaging 13.4 points per game during his career.

He was named first-team All-Atlantic Sun his senior year (2002-03), helping the Trojans to their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance at the Division I level. During that season, he made a Troy Division I single-season record 92 three-pointers, eventually broken by Hunter Williams who was coached by Fletcher. Fletcher finished his career with 160 made three-pointers, the sixth most in Troy's Division I history.

Fletcher earned a B.S. in sport and fitness management from Troy in 2003. He served as a student assistant at Troy for two seasons before being named assistant coach in 2005.

Originally from Selma, Ala., Fletcher has the distinction of being a member of both Trojan squads that reached the NCAA Tournament, first as a player on the 2002-03 team and then a coach with the 2016-17 team.

DESMOND OLIVER

ASSISTANT COACH | 1ST SEASON | ALMA MATER: DOMINICAN, 1992

Oliver brings nearly 30 years of experience as both a head coach at East Tennessee State University (2021-23) and assistant coach stints at Tennessee (2015-21), Charlotte (2010-15), Canisius (2009-10), Georgia (2004-09), Rhode Island (2001-04), St. Bonaventure (2000-01), Cornell (1998-2000), Texas A&M (1997-98) and Niagara (1994-97).

Oliver coached five different players to All-SoCon honors during his two-year tenure as head coach at ETSU (2021-23).

As an assistant coach at Tennessee (2015-21), Oliver saw the Vols compile 123 wins and make three trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2019. In the 2018-19 season, the Vols were ranked as high as No. 1 in the AP Top 25 Poll and finished sixth in the country with an overall record 31-6. Tennessee, who was ranked in the top-10 all season, went a perfect 11-0 in games where Oliver had the scout.

Oliver helped direct Tennessee to the 2018 SEC Championship and a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Vols were one of the best defensive teams in the country as they finished sixth nationally in defensive efficiency and led the SEC in scoring defense (65.7 ppg).

Oliver played a critical role in Tennessee's recruiting, as the Vols' 2020 class was ranked No. 4 nationally by ESPN and their 2016-17 freshman class finished as the highest-scoring rookie class in program history with 1,040 points. Oliver coached three players who were selected in the NBA Draft, including back-to-back SEC Player of the Year and first team All-American Grant Williams. Williams was drafted 22nd overall by the Boston Celtics in 2019, while Admiral Schofield (42nd overall by Philadelphia) and Jordan Boone (57th overall by Detroit) were also taken in the 2019 Draft.

In his five-year stint at Charlotte (2010-15), the 49ers defeated three top-15 opponents – No. 7 Tennessee (49-48, 2010-11), No. 11 Butler (71-67, 2012-13), and No. 14 Michigan (63-61), when they claimed the 2013 Puerto Rico Tip-Off. A year prior, Charlotte won the 2012 Great Alaska Shootout, while finishing the 2012-13 season with 21 wins and a trip to the NIT. The 21 wins marked the most by a Charlotte 49er team since posting 22 in 2000-01. Oliver was also essential in having the 49ers post back-to-back non-BCS top-10 recruiting classes.

Prior to his one season at Canisius (2009-10), where the Golden Griffins had their highest win total over a nine-year span, Oliver had his first run as an assistant in the SEC at the University of Georgia (2004-09).

Oliver led the Bulldogs to a pair of postseason berths – a 2007 NIT appearance and a trip to the 2008 NCAA Tournament. Georgia completed a historic run to win the 2008 SEC Tournament as they had to win two games on Saturday – the quarterfinal game versus Kentucky followed by the semifinal win over Mississippi State. Georgia then defeated Arkansas in the championship, marking the Bulldogs' first SEC Tournament title since 1983. While at Georgia, Oliver recruited Travis Leslie and Howard Thompkins, who both ended up being NBA Draft picks.

Over a four-year stretch, Oliver spent time on Jim Baron's staff – one season at St. Bonaventure (2000-01), and then three years at Rhode Island (2001-04). At Rhode Island, Oliver helped guide the Rams to a 13-win improvement from 2001-02 to 2002-03. The Rams finished with 21 wins in 2002-03, and again, posted another 20-win campaign in his third and final season en route to making their second straight NIT appearance.

The Buffalo native began his collegiate coaching career in New York where he joined Jack Armstrong's staff at Niagara (1994-97). Oliver helped recruit Alvin Young to the Purple Eagles, and Young went on to lead all NCAA Division I players in scoring in 1999 (25.1 ppg) and receive MAAC Player of the Year honors.

Following his three years at Niagara, Oliver then coached one season at Texas A&M (1997-98) and two seasons at Cornell (1994-97).

Oliver, a 1992 graduate from Dominican College in Orangeburg, N.Y., was a three-year starter on the basketball team and a two-year team captain. He earned a Master's degree in student personnel administration at Buffalo State. As Oliver was working on his Master's, he started his coaching career as a varsity assistant and head junior varsity coach at Turner-Carroll High School.

Following an outstanding prep career at DeSales High School in Lockport, New York, Oliver played one year at Genesee Community College in Batavia, New York under coach Bill Van Gundy (father of NBA head coaches Jeff and Stan).

Oliver and his wife, Annette, have two sons, Dante and Dallas.

WILLIAM SMALL

ASSISTANT COACH | 1ST SEASON | ALMA MATER: BELHAVEN, 1993

Small followed Abdur-Rahim from Kennesaw State where he spent two seasons on the Owls' staff (2021-23) and helped lead the program to 26 wins and its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2022-23.

He brings more than 25 years of college coaching experience to USF and has coached eight NBA Draft picks from a career that has spanned stops at Iowa State, Murray State, UTEP, Southeastern Louisiana, Georgia State, Tulane, Troy, UT-Martin, Alabama-Huntsville, and Cowley Community College since starting in 1995.

At Kennesaw State (2021-23), Small helped lead one of the nation's most stunning turnarounds as the Owls posted a school-record 26-9 mark, ASUN Conference regular season and tournament titles and the program's first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament berth in 2022-23. It marked KSU's first winning record as an NCAA Division I program and first ASUN conference titles. The Owls were picked to finish eighth in the ASUN but posted a 15-3 conference record. KSU's 15 league wins were five more than the program's previous record of 10, while the Owls tied for fourth in the nation with 10 road wins (10-6), four more than the 2016-17 team's program-record road mark of 6-13.

The Owls went on to post three wins in the conference tournament, downing Liberty (67-66) in the final to earn the tournament title and automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Tournament, the program's first-ever. KSU scored 75.0 points per game and shot 46.1 percent from the field and 36.5 percent from three to nearly double the program's previous high wins mark in Division I. The 14th-seeded Owls took No. 3-seed Xavier to the limit in the 2023 NCAA Tournament, nearly pulling off the first-round upset in what was a one-point game in the final seconds before eventually falling 72-67.

Star guard Chris Youngblood was named a first-team All-Conference and All-District selection and became the first KSU player to be named Georgia Men's Player of the Year by the Atlanta Tipoff Club. Meanwhile, guard Terrell Burden earned second-team All-Conference and All-District honors, marking the first time in program history the Owls received district accolades of any kind. Further, Brandon Stroud was named the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his stint at KSU, Small spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Iowa State (2015-21) where he helped lead the Cyclones to three NCAA tournament appearances, two Big 12 Tournament titles, 97 wins and a trio of upper-half finishes in the Big 12 Conference, including a second-place finish in 2016-17.

The Cyclones finished ninth nationally in adjusted offense in 2019, marking the third time in Small's time at ISU in which the Cyclones ranked among the nation's top-15 on the offensive end of the floor.

The 2019-20 team had a pair of players earn All-Big 12 honors including Bob Cousy Award finalist Tyrese Haliburton.

Iowa State went 23-12 in 2018-19, making the NCAA Tournament and winning the Big 12 Tournament. The Cyclones had four players recognized by the Big 12 Conference on its all-league teams, led by All-American and Julius Erving Award finalist Marial Shayok.

The 2016-17 Cyclone team finished No. 16 in the AP poll and ranked high on its offensive statistics, finishing No. 11 nationally in both adjusted offensive efficiency three-pointers made (344).

Prior to Iowa State, Small coached for four seasons at Murray State (2011-15) where he helped the Racers to a 104-29 record and three postseason berths.

Small and MSU made a splash in his first season as the Racers were ranked as high as No. 10, including spending 13 weeks in the polls. MSU finished 31-2, including a 23-0 start which made them the nation's last undefeated team. The 31 wins were an Ohio Valley Conference record, and the Racers were the nation's only team to go undefeated in road games (13-0).

Murray State won at least 20 games in each of his four seasons as an assistant coach, which included posting a 29-6 mark and berth in the NIT quarterfinals in 2014-15. The Racers finished the OVC portion of their schedule a perfect 16-0.

Small spent one season as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky (2004-05), when the Hilltoppers finished 22-9 and made the NIT.

Small played college basketball at Belhaven College in Jackson, Miss., where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in business in 1993.

A native of Winona, Miss., he and his wife, Paula, have a daughter, Chiya. He also has a daughter ShaKima Nicholson, a son Ray Knight and grandson Roman Knight.

JOI WILLIAMS

CHIEF OF STAFF | FIRST SEASON | SOUTH FLORIDA | 1988

Williams has over 20 years of head coaching experience to her name, including 13 as a Division I head coach, while also spending time as an assistant coach in the WNBA with the San Antonio Stars, now the Las Vegas Aces.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Williams spent the 2022-23 season as the Assistant Athletic Director for Women's Basketball at Mississippi State. Prior to that, she spent four seasons as the Director of Quality Control at Clemson.

Prior to her stint in the WNBA, Williams spent nine seasons as the head coach at the University of Central Florida, where she finished as the winningest head coach in program history with 114 wins. She guided the Knights to a pair of conference tournament championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Williams also has experience with USA Basketball, where she served a four-year term with the USA Junior National Team Committee. While working with USA Basketball, Williams assisted in selecting coaches and athletes for USA Basketball's college-aged competitions. She served as an assistant coach in the summer of 2010 for the U-18 USA National Team which won the gold medal at the FIBA Americas U-18 Championship. In 2011 she coached the U-19 USA squad at the World Championships in Chile, earning a second-consecutive gold medal when the US defeated Spain.

Before Williams took the head job at UCF, she was the head coach at Murray State from 2003-07. While leading the Racers, Williams was tasked with rebuilding the program, and she did just that. In her fourth season at Murray State, Williams led her team to a 21-10 overall record and a second-place finish in the Ohio Valley Conference.

That season, Williams took Murry State to the WNIT, which was just the second postseason appearance in program history. That year her Racers led the nation in free throw percentage, field goal percentage and scoring offense.

Before serving as the recruiting coordinator at Clemson during the 2002-03 season, Williams was an assistant coach at the University of Florida for 12 seasons from 1990-2002. During her tenure with the Gators, Florida participated in nine NCAA Tournaments and tallied a 247-121 overall record. Williams recruited five All-America selections and nine WNBA Draft picks, including DeLisha Milton-Jones, the 1997 SEC Player of the Year, and a 2000 and 2008 Olympic Gold Medalist.

Williams played college basketball at the University of South Florida from 1984-88, where she was a four-year starter. She earned her bachelor's degree in Marketing in 1988.

GRIFFIN MCHONE

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT | FIRST SEASON | TEXAS A&M | 2018

Griffin McHone enters his first season as the Director of Player Development for the 2023-24 campaign.

Prior to USF, McHone served as the Director of Operations for Kennesaw State men's basketball after working as a graduate manager on the Texas A&M staff. A Boerne, Texas native, McHone graduated with a degree in exercise and sport science from TAMU.

No stranger to the ins and outs of basketball coaching, he comes from a long line of basketball coaches. His father, Kimble McHone, has coached the Boerne High School basketball team since 2009 while his grandfather Morris McHone has been a collegiate and professional basketball coach for over 40 years, including a stint as the head coach of the San Antonio Spurs in 1983.

During his prep career at Boerne High School, McHone was an all-state basketball player being named an all-region and District MVP selection three times.

TRENT PATTERSON

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS | FIRST SEASON | TROY | 2020

Trent Patterson is entering his first season as the Director of Basketball Operatoins during the 2023-24 campaign.

Patterson joins USF after spending five season at Troy University. He served as the Director of Basketball Operations the last two seasons with the Trojans.

Patterson was in charge of filming all games and practices to prepare the videos for film sessions as a manager. As a graduate assistant at Troy, Patterson handled the breakdown and analysis of the opponent film, served as the liaison with the athletic department and managed the ordering of all team gear.

Patterson's role upgraded as the video coordinator as he managed the breakdown of team and opponent video, assisted with analytics, handled all team gear necessities and helped with any administrative responsibilities assigned by the head coach. He also coordinated all team travel, managed all film operations, ordered team gear, and aided in film analysis and analytics.

Patterson earned his bachelor's degree from Troy in hospitality, sport and tourism management in 2018 and his master's degree from Troy in sport and fitness management in 2020.

DONOVAN WILLIAMS

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING & SCOUTING | FIRST SEASON | PARK UNIVERSITY | 2008

Donovan Williams is entering his first season as the Director of Recruiting and Scouting during the 2023-24 campaign.

Williams spent one season at Presbyterian as an assistant coach with 13 years of Division I coaching experience including the last three years as an assistant coach at Longwood helping the Lancers build their program which culminated in capturing the 2022 Big South Regular-Season and Conference Tournament titles. During his three seasons at Longwood, the Lancers won 52 games with 34 of those wins coming in Big South Conference play while earning NCAA Tournament and College Basketball Invitational bids.

In May of 2020, Silver Waves Media listed Williams among the 50 most impactful low-major coaches in the nation. He was one of only two Big South coaches on the list.

Before joining the Longwood coaching staff in 2019, Williams was a member of the coaching staff at Cornell, Princeton, Lafayette, and Georgia Tech. His last coaching position before Longwood was at Cornell where he spent three seasons as an assistant coach. During his time at Cornell, he played an integral role in helping the Big Red go from 10 wins in the 2015-16 season to a bid to the College Insider Tournament in 2019.

Prior to his time at Cornell, Williams spent one season at Princeton where he helped guide the Tigers to a berth in the 2016 NIT and a second-place finish in the Ivy League. He played a role in the development of two All-Ivy League selections while helping the Tigers finish the season with a 22-7 record and a 12-2 Ivy League record.

Before going to Princeton, he was an assistant coach at Lafayette College for five years where helped Lafayette turn around the program from 13-wins to a Patriot League Championship and an NCAA Tournament berth. At Lafayette, he coached three First Team All-Patriot League selections as well as players that earned Patriot League All-Rookie and League Tournament MVP honors.

Williams began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Georgia Tech where he helped the Yellow Jackets improve from 12 wins to a 23-win NCAA Tournament team in 2010.

The Columbus, Georgia native got his start in college basketball as a four-year letter winner at Park University in Parkville, Missouri. A business administration major with a concentration in management and a minor in economics, he was team captain as a senior before his graduation in 2008. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Georgia State in 2010. Williams played high school basketball at Spencer High School in Columbus, Georgia for his father George Williams, who has enjoyed a successful high school coaching career in Georgia for over 40 years.

Williams and his wife, Erica, have two daughters: Olivia and Skylar.

GREG BYRD

ATHLETIC TRAINER | USF | 2008

Greg Byrd enters his 14th year with the University of South Florida Sports Medicine staff. In his time at USF, Greg has held multiple positions and worked with a wide variety of sports, leading to his current role as the Assistant Director of Sports Medicine and Director of Basketball Sports Medicine beginning with the 2021 school year. Greg's primary sport responsibility is the Men's Basketball program with supervisory responsibility over Baseball and Men's Soccer.

Prior to his current role, he spent time as the Athletic Trainer for the Track and Field, Cross Country, and Men's Soccer programs. During this time, he has provided care for teams accom-plishing two of the highest Big East Conference finishes in USF T&F/XC history with a second place and third place finish respectively for the men's & women's outdoor teams. Byrd has also provided care for USF's two USA Olympic trial qualifiers & numerous NCAA championship quali-fiers. ## NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

1990 — USF received an automatic NCAA bid by winning the Sun Belt Conference Tournament. The No. 15 Bulls were shipped to the West Region in Long Beach, Calif., where they were defeated by the No. 2 Arizona Wildcats 79-67.

1992 — The Bulls finished the regular season with a seven-game winning streak, but that momentum was halted with a stunning double-overtime loss against Southern Miss in the Metro Conference Tournament's opening round. USF's expected NCAA bid appeared in peril, even though the Bulls boasted an array of powerful non-conference victories.

A lone television camera crew was on hand as USF players gathered to watch the NCAA Selection Show. When USF's name flashed on the screen — the Bulls were assigned a No. 11 seed and sent to Boise, Idaho to face the No. 6 Georgetown Hoyas — bedlam ensued. The clip of USF's wild celebration became the lead item on ESPN's SportsCenter program.

The Bulls were defeated 75-60 by Georgetown, which featured All-American center Alonzo Mourning.

2012 — USF has made the NCAA Tournament three times, including a 2012 run that nearly led to a Sweet 16 trip.

The Bulls surpassed expectations by finishing tied for fourth place in the Big East Conference regular-season standings. They were rewarded with a trip to Dayton, Ohio, where they defeated the California Golden Bears 65-54 in the First Four.

The No. 12-seeded Bulls were brilliant, shooting 66.7 percent in the first half against Cal and building a a 32-point lead with 8:53 remaining.

After moving to Nashville, Tenn., for the second round, the Bulls outlasted the Temple Owls 58-44 in a bizarre game. The Bulls shot a program-low 11.1 percent (3-for-27) in the first half and missed an unthinkable 22 consecutive field-goal attempts, but somehow trailed just 19-15 at halftime. The Bulls caught fire in the second half and won going away.

Staring at the possibility of a Sweet 16 trip to St. Louis and a matchup with the No. 1-ranked North Carolina Tar Heels, the Bulls fell short against the No. 13 Ohio Bobcats 62-56 in a crushing third-round game. The Bulls seemed in control, leading by five points with 9:25 remaining, but were overtaken by the Bobcats.

NIT HISTORY

USF's 12-game history with the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) began with the unforgettable night of March 12, 1981. After 10 seasons, 264 games and seven facilities that served as USF's "home court," the Bulls had finally reached the postseason.

Capping the first season of Coach Lee Rose and the on-campus Yuengling Center (then known as the Sun Dome), USF fell against UConn 65-55. Tickets sold were 10,259 (the final 800 were purchased by WTOG-Channel 44, so it could broadcast the game locally). The arena was loud as a jet engine as the Bulls cut a 13-point deficit at the 8:42 mark to just two with 47 seconds remaining.

But UConn pulled away, snapping USF's 15-game home winning streak. The Bulls, though, would make frequent return visits to the NIT.

1982-83 — Sophomore sensation Charlie Bradley had 34 points (on 14-for-21 shooting) in an 81-69 home defeat of Fordham, but the Bulls lost at Ole Miss 65-57 in the second round.

1984-85 — Senior guard Darryl "Cuda" Patterson had 25 points (on 11-for-16 shooting) and forward Curtis Kitchen grabbed 16 rebounds in a 77-66 home victory against Wake Forest for USF's first win against an ACC team. The Bulls were then defeated 68-61 in the second round at Louisville (one season before the Cardinals won the program's first national championship).

1990-91 — Featuring the foundation of players who produced USF's first two NCAA Tournament teams, the Bulls lost 76-66 at home against Fordham, which shot 60.5 percent from the field (including 9-for-11 from 3-point range).

1994-95 — The Bulls were one missed free throw away from reaching the NIT's final four at Madison Square Garden. After hitting an initial free throw with two seconds remaining in regulation, the second attempt by USF's Chucky Atkins hit the back of the rim, the front of the rim, then popped out. It went to overtime, where the Bulls fell at Marquette 57-50 in a third-round NIT game. USF got to that point by defeating St. John's (74-67) and Coppin State (75-59) at home.

1999-2000 — It was late night at the NIT with a midnight ET tip-off. The Bulls were beaten 64-58 at New Mexico.

2001-02 — In a game that resembled an old-time NBA pace, the Bulls were defeated 98-92 at Ball State. USF's Altron Jackson capped his career with a 30-point night, but it couldn't overcome the 40-point effort of Ball State's Chris Williams.

2009-10 — The Bulls dropped a heartbreaker, losing 58-57 at home against NC State, which converted a layup with eight seconds remaining. USF had a shot to win, but Augustus Gilchrist's jumper was blocked with one second left.

PRIOR HEAD COACHES

DON WILLIAMS

33-42

Don Williams became USF's first basketball coach in 1969. Williams had spent the previous seven seasons coaching at his alma mater, Milliken University in Decatur, Ill. He led Milliken to the NAIA postseason tournament in 1967-68 and 1968-69. A native of tiny Marissa, Ill., Williams coached at Tampa's Hillsborough High School from 1953 through 1962. Hillsborough advanced to the Florida Class AA state tournament five times, winning a state title in 1959 and finishing second twice. Williams guided USF's all-freshman team in 1970-71 through a schedule against other freshman teams and junior colleges. The first varsity season was in 1971-72 and the Bulls opened with a victory against Stetson. Williams was 33-42 in three varsity seasons and he announced his resignation Jan. 14, 1974. Five days later the Bulls earned perhaps their biggest win under Williams, a 95-94 overtime victory against Florida State.

BILL GIBSON

15-10

Bill Gibson, formerly the head coach at the University of Virginia, guided USF just one season. The Atlantic Conference Coach of the Year in 1971, Gibson was 222-195 at Virginia. He made an immediate impact at USF, signing an outstanding six-member recruiting class. Gibson came close to assembling a conference for USF that would have included other independents like Florida State, Georgia Tech, Jacksonville, South Carolina, Stetson and Tulane. He had a heart attack on July 4, 1974, six months before his first game at USF. Two weeks later, he was released from the hospital and guided the Bulls through a 15-10 season that included close losses to North Carolina (79-72) and Cincinnati (82-80). He suffered another heart attack July 23, 1975 and that one was fatal.

CHIP CONNER

59-62

Chip Conner came to USF with Bill Gibson and was named his successor. He had been Gibson's assistant for seven seasons at Virginia and was his top assistant at USF in 1974-75. A three-year letterman at Virginia, Conner was an All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team selection in 1964. His goals for the program included a conference affiliation and an on-campus facility. USF became a charter member of the Sun Belt Conference in 1976 and the Sun Dome was approved and expected to open in time for the 1979-80 season. Conner was fired midway through the 1979-80 season after an 84-55 loss at South Alabama. Assistant coach Gordon Gibbons was named interim coach following Conner's dismissal. USF won its first game under Gibbons but finished the season 2-13. Gibbons was a candidate for the permanent position but was not selected.

LEE ROSE

106-69

One of the biggest names in college basketball coaching circles in the late-1970s, Lee Rose took over the USF program April 3, 1980. Rose led UNC Charlotte to the Final Four in 1977 and did the same thing at Purdue University in 1980. He was 72-18 in three seasons (1975-76 through 1976-77) at UNCC and then 50-18 in two seasons (1978-79 through 1979-80) at Purdue while leading the Boilermakers to a share of the 1979 Big Ten title. The Sun Dome, though not completely finished, was opened for Rose's first game, a loss to Florida A&M. Three days later, the building's dedication game was a loss to Duke televised nationally by ESPN. The season, though, would be a positive one for USF and ended with the school's first post-season berth. The NIT bid in 1981 was the first of three under Rose (1981, 1983 and 1985). Rose was 106-69 in six seasons before leaving on July 9, 1986 to become an assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs.

BOBBY PASCHAL

127-159

Bobby Paschal was named head coach at USF six weeks following Lee Rose's departure on Aug. 21, 1986. A native of Enterprise, Ala., who played at Stetson University, Paschal was 153-85 in seven seasons at the University of Southwestern Louisiana. Paschal suffered 20-loss campaigns in each of his first three seasons in Tampa but had laid the groundwork for a sustained period of success. His fourth club won the Sun Belt Conference Tournament in 1990 and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament. A year later, the Bulls advanced to the NIT and in 1992 returned to the NCAA's in their first season in the Metro Conference. Paschal had led USL to two NCAA appearances and three NIT berths. Paschal, who guided the program through its final five seasons in the Sun Belt, through four Metro seasons and into Conference USA, became assistant to the athletic director in 1996.

SETH GREENBERG

108-100

Seth Greenberg took Long Beach State University to the post-season in three of his six seasons there and was named coach at USF on April 3, 1996. His LBSU teams posted wins against four nationally-ranked teams, including Kansas, ranked No. 1 at the time, in 1992-93. Greenberg's only sub-.500 year with USF was his first as his recruiting successes began to pay immediate dividends while the Bulls began a stretch of six winning seasons. USF's top wins in the Greenberg era were against eventual NCAA Final Four team Wisconsin in 1999-2000, and against Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament, in 2001-02. He was 108-100 in seven seasons and led the Bulls to a pair of NIT bids in 2000 and 2002. Greenberg was named coach at Virginia Tech April 3, 2003, seven years to the day after accepting the job at USF.

ROBERT MCCULLUM

40-76

Robert McCullum assumed control of the USF program April 18, 2003. McCullum, who was 44-45 in three seasons at Western Michigan University, was USF's seventh head men's basketball coach. He led Western Michigan to an opening-round NIT victory in 2003. The 2004-05 USF campaign was highlighted by a record-setting run in the Conference USA Tournament. The Bulls posted a pair of wins against higher seeds Houston and Cincinnati en route to a first-ever appearance in the event's semifinals. USF posted victories in three of its final four outings overall, including two victories over nationally ranked opponents. McCullum led the Bulls into their first-ever season in the BIG EAST in 2005-06, highlighted by a victory against nationally ranked Georgetown. Another victory against a program ranked in the top 25 (Notre Dame) occurred in the 2006-07 season and USF's roster featured a pair of All-BIG EAST performers in Kentrell Gransberry and McHugh Mattis.

STAN HEATH

97-130

Stan Heath, was named USF head coach on April 3, 2007 after previously serving as the head coach at Arkansas. In his first season at USF, Heath helped guide two players to BIG EAST all-conference honors, first team selection senior Kentrell Gransberry and record-setting freshman Dominique Jones, who captured honorable mention laurels and was a unanimous pick on the All-Rookie Team. In 2009-10, Heath led the Bulls to their first postseason appearance in eight years. Jones was selected as an All-American that season and won the BIG EAST scoring title. Heath led the Bulls to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 20 years during the 2011-12 season. He was the first USF coach to win a game in the "big dance," capturing two games before falling in the third round. He was the BIG EAST Coach of the Year in 2012. The Heath era ended with two consecutive 12-win seasons.

ORLANDO ANTIGUA

17-48

Orlando Antigua was hired on March 31, 2014 after five years as an assistant coach at Kentucky. With the Wildcats, under head coach John Calipari, Antigua went to three Final Fours over four years including the 2012 national championship. His teams were 266-67 over nine seasons as an assistant coach. In his first USF season, Antigua got off a 5-1 start but injuries and an inexperienced roster led to a nine-win campaign. In year two, USF also encountered more injuries in an eight-win season. The Bulls started 6-7 the following season before Antigua was fired on Jan. 3, 2017. Assistant coach Murry Bartow became the interim coach on the same day and finished the season with a 1-16 mark. Bartow was a candidate for the permanent position but was not selected.

BRIAN GREGORY

79-107

Gregory, who was named the program's 10th head coach on March 14, 2017, established the Bulls' record for single-season victories (24) in his second year, when South Florida won the College Basketball Invitational and engineered the NCAA's biggest turnaround that season. Under Gregory, USF teams had the two most successful conference seasons in the program's AAC tenure, eight victories in 2018-19 and seven in 2019-20. The CBI championship team captured five consecutive AAC victories, the program's longest conference winning streak since USF's 1991-92 NCAA Tournament qualifier won six straight Metro Conference games.

INAUGURAL USF ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE
CHARLIE BRADLEY (1981-85)

Charlie Bradley is considered the greatest men's basketball player ever at USF. He was the first player in program history to have his jersey number retired (Feb. 14, 1987). Bradley is USF's career scoring leader with 2,319 points. He scored in double figures in 84 consecutive games and also scored 30-or-more points 24 times. Bradley led USF to its first 20-win season in 1982-83 as the program posted a 22-10 record and earned its second post-season bid to the NIT. USF played in two NITs in the Bradley era, also earning an invitation in 1985.

USF CAREER STATS
- USF's career scoring leader with 2,319 points scored over four seasons.
- Career averages include a school record 19.7 points per game and 5.4 rebounds.
- In addition to being the all-time USF leading scorer, he is still the USF career record-holder in scoring average (19.7 ppg), field goals made (892), field goals attempted (1,966), free throws made (489) and free throws attempted (606).
- Scored a school-record 42 points against Florida State, Dec. 10, 1982.
- Averaged a school-record 28.2 points as a sophomore.
- Owns the top three positions on USF's all-time single-season scoring list with 902 points in 1982-83, 652 points in 1984-85 and 625 points in 1983-84, as he led the team in scoring in each of his final three seasons.
- Owns or shares 13 USF single-game, single-season and career records.

NATIONAL TEAM PARTICIPATION
- The first Sun Belt player to be invited to the United States Olympic Trials in 1984.

CONFERENCE HONORS
- An All-Sun Belt Conference first-team selection as a sophomore, junior and senior.
- Averaged a school-record 28.2 points as a sophomore and was named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year.
- One of 10 players selected to the Sun Belt's All-Decade Team that helped recognize the league's achievements following its first 10 years (1976-86).

PROFESSIONAL SPORTS HISTORY
- Drafted in the third round by the Sacramento Kings in 1985.
- Played professionally in Europe, South America and Venezuela.

INTANGIBLES
- The greatest men's basketball player at the University of South Florida and the first player to have his jersey number retired (Feb. 14, 1987).
- One of three USF men's players to have his jersey retired.
- Led USF to its first 20-win season in 1982-83 as the program posted a 22-10 record and earned its second post-season bid to the NIT.
- USF played in two NITs in the Bradley era, also earning an invitation in 1985.
- Scored in double figures in 84 consecutive games and also scored 30-or-more points 24 times.
- Led the nation in scoring for 11 weeks in 1982-83 and finished fifth among the national leaders.

RETIRED JERSEYS

CHUCKY ATKINS (1992-96)

Guard, Orlando, Fla., Evans High School

#12

One of college basketball's premier point guards as a senior in 1995-96... Lettered in 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 as USF moved into Conference USA toward the end of his career (1995 was the Metro Conference's final season)... Averaged a career-high 19.3 points as a senior, the highest scoring average by a Bull in 11 seasons (since Charlie Bradley averaged 21.7 ppg as a senior in 1984-85)... Became the second USF player to have his jersey number retired; number was retired Feb. 10, 2001... Ended his career as USF's third all-time leading scorer with 1,619 points... A four-year starter who missed just two starts (due to a sprained ankle his sophomore season) while playing in 111 career games... Tied the program's single-season assist record with 196 as a junior in 1994-95; assist total is now tied at No. 2 (Arthur Caldwell, 196, 1986-87) as Reggie Kohn recorded 220 assists in 2001-02... Led the Metro Conference with 6.5 assists-per-game in 1994-95... His 519 career assists ranked No. 2 on USF's all-time career list following his senior season; the figure is now No. 3 (behind Kohn's 632, 2000-03 and Radenko Dobras's 534, 1989-92)... Also USF's career 3-point leader with 244 (in 674 attempts) when his career ended; now No. 2 on the list behind Kohn's 252 (2000-03)... Still No. 1 on the 3-pointers attempted with 674... Led the Metro in 3-point shooting with 84 (219 attempts, 38.4 percent) as a junior in 1994-95, the same year he led the league in assists... Finished second among Metro scoring leaders that season with a 16.8 point-per-game average, falling one-half point shy of becoming only the second player in Metro history to lead the league in scoring and assists in the same season... Became the 11th USF player to score 1,000 points and just the fourth to do so prior to his senior season... Career averages include 14.6 points and 4.7 assists-per-game... One of two Bulls to score 1,600 points and dish out 500 assists in a career (also Radenko Dobras)... Played one season in Conference USA and earned All-C-USA second-team honors in 1995-96... Also named to the All-Metro second team in 1994-95 after collecting Metro All-Freshman Team honors in 1992-93... Averaged nine points and three assists for Team USA as the Americans claimed the gold medal at the 1995 World University Games... An eight-year NBA veteran who entered the league in 1999-00 with the Orlando Magic after playing professionally overseas three seasons (signed as a free agent Sept. 21, 1999)... Named to the Schick NBA All-Rookie Team after averaging 9.5 points and 3.7 assists-per-game in his only season with Orlando... Played with Orlando, Detroit, Boston, Los Angeles (Lakers), Washington, Memphis, Denver and Oklahoma City.

6-11, 225, Center, Ft. Pierce, Fla., Central High School

Once USF's career rebounding and blocked shots leader ... Selected Second-Team All-Sun Belt Conference as a senior, a year after earning honorable mention honors ... Also named to the Sun Belt All-Tournament Team as a senior ... Led the Sun Belt Conference in field goal percentage three times including a career-best 63.6 percent as a senior in 1981-82 that was a school-record at the time and is now the second-best ever by a Bull ... The USF career record-holder with a 59.4 field goal percentage ... Now No. 4 on the school's career blocked shot list with 155, No. 6 on the career rebounds list with 720, and No. 10 on the field goals made list with 442 ... One of just five Bulls with 150 blocked shots ... Led USF in rebounding as a freshman and a sophomore with 6.0 rpg and 5.9 rpg, respectively ... Best years on the boards were his final two as he averaged a career-high 7.4 rpg as a junior and 6.4 rpg as a senior although Vince Reynolds led the team statistically both seasons ... The team leader in blocked shots all four seasons with a career-high 50 in 1978-79; the 50 still rank ninth all-time on the USF single-season list.

GRITTY NOT PRETTY

PRESIDENT RHEA F. LAW

Rhea Law is a proud fifth-generation Floridian who is passionate about the success of the state. Actively involved in corporate, public policy, civic and charitable work, Law holds top leadership positions with many Florida-based organizations. She received gubernatorial appointments to serve on the inaugural Board of Trustees for the University of South Florida, as well as the Board of the Florida Council of 100, the public policy liaison with Florida's governor, cabinet, legislative leadership and Supreme Court. Rhea served as Chair of the Board for both organizations. Further, she served on the Presidential Search Committee for the University of South Florida in 1999 and 2019. In addition, she was a two-time Chair of the Tampa Hillsborough Economic Development Corporation and the Tampa Bay Partnership during times of reorganization and expansion. She also served as Chair of the University of South Florida Health Professions Conferencing Corporation which operates the Center for Advanced Medical Learning and Simulation and Chair of the Stetson University College of Law Board of Overseers, as well as serving on the Board of Trustees of Stetson University.

Currently, Law serves on the Board of Directors of Tampa Electric Company, which supplies electricity to the Tampa area, and Peoples Gas, which provides gas throughout Florida. She also serves on the Executive Committee of the Tampa Bay Economic Development Council, the Tampa Bay Chamber, and on the H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center Board of Directors and National Board of Advisors. As a member of the USF President's Council Society, she is among honored donors who have made a lifetime commitment of $100,000 or more or a legacy gift to USF.

Law is the former CEO and Chair of the Board of Fowler White Boggs, a Florida law firm. She led the merger of Fowler with a national firm, Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney in 2014 where she continued to serve as Chair, Florida Offices until 2021. The consolidation of the firms created a powerhouse firm with law offices throughout the country and hundreds of lawyers who specialize in a broad spectrum of business areas such as Energy, Finance, Healthcare and Life Sciences.

Her areas of practice included higher education, economic development, government, environment and land use. Over the course of her 35-year-plus career, Law has worked with clients on land use and strategic planning to meet the needs of a growing Florida.

VICE PRESIDENT OF ATHLETICS MICHAEL KELLY

Michael Kelly was named USF Vice President of Athletics on June 26, 2018, returning him to the Bay area where he previously served as an associate athletic director for USF and led efforts around a Super Bowl, the College Football National Championship and the NCAA Men's Final Four in Tampa Bay.

Upon his introduction, Kelly conveyed his vision of "building USF Athletics tradition one champion at a time," while emphasizing that "our youth is an absolute strength" in embracing an athletic program founded in 1965. Kelly's vision includes building champions in competition, the classroom, the community and in life with a guiding principle of creating an exceptional student-athlete experience in which USF's nearly 450 student-athletes can thrive. Kelly laid out his plan to engage the community and build Bulls Nation through exceptional customer service and ensuring rewarding and memorable experiences. He has led the Bulls to numerous record-breaking achievements in fundraising, in the classroom and competition during his tenure.

Kelly, the former chief operating officer of the College Football Playoff, has quickly elevated to important leadership positions nationally and within the American Athletic Conference. He was named the chair of the American's Athletic Directors Executive Committee in June 2020 and also joined the conference's Racial Equality Action Group. In 2020, he also began a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Council and on the NCAA Championship Oversight Committee which oversees all national championships except for Men's and Women's Basketball. Kelly also serves as a mentor for the National Coalition for Minority Football Coaches.

The Bulls have claimed 13 conference championships under Kelly's watch, including bringing home seven trophies in 2021, the program's most since 1996. Nine programs reached national postseason competition in 2021, with 13 Bulls earning all-America honors, 24 earning first-team all-conference and three coaches or coaching staffs selected as the best in the conference. Under Kelly, seven programs have gained a top 25 national ranking. The men's basketball program won a school record 24 games, completing the top turnaround in the NCAA with 14 more victories than the previous year while capturing the College Basketball Invitational title.

Kelly has overseen a $3 million renovation of the football locker room in the Lee Roy Selmon Athletics Center in 2021 and the construction of a $22 million Indoor Performance Facility that will open in the fall of 2022. He also co-chairs the university committee that is developing plans for an on-campus football stadium projected to open in 2026 and has overseen investments in facilities for volleyball and track and a plan for facility enhancements for all sports in the next several years.

During Kelly's tenure, USF Athletics has secured nearly $50 million in gifts and commitments – a record amount for the program within a four-year time frame. He restructured the Bulls Club, Athletics' fundraising arm, adding additional staff and broadening engagement, resulting in several gifts of $1 million or more and a record of $22 million raised in 2021-22. Kelly also oversaw the creation of the Stampede for Women, a fundraising initiative aimed at raising the level of support and empowerment of female student-athletes.

In 2021, Kelly announced the addition of women's lacrosse and beach volleyball to Bulls athletics, bringing the number of varsity programs to 21.

Kelly used his extensive connections to hire head football coach Alex Golesh to lead the Bulls program after a highly successful run as the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Tennessee. He also hired volleyball head coach Jolene Shepardson, returning her to the Bay Area and her alma mater, tabbed Erik Jenkins to lead the track and field and cross country programs after he achieved strong national success at Western Kentucky, and hired eight-time conference coach of the year Mindy McCord away from Jacksonville University to lead the Bulls' newly launched women's lacrosse program.

Kelly oversaw the launch, and then expansion, of just the second digital radio network in college sports as USF partnered with local sports giant WDAE and iHeart Radio to create Bulls Unlimited and Bulls Unlimited 2 stations carrying USF Athletics 24 hours a day and for WDAE to serve as the flagship station of USF Football. Kelly also initiated USF's membership in the Green Sports Alliance (GSA) and the implementation of green initiatives throughout the department and its athletic facilities and returned induction to the USF Athletic Hall of Fame, the first since 2013, while also reigniting the Bulls Fest annual donor auction. Following through on connecting with the community, USF started an annual Football Kickoff Luncheon in downtown Tampa. Kelly became an active and engaged voice on podcasts, launching both Bull Speed Ahead, a regular athletics update, and Kelly's Conversations, which catches up with USF Athletics greats of the past.

USF Athletics also refocused and codified its branding, narrowing logo and color usage and introducing elements that identify with the Bay area community.

Kelly continues to push USF Athletics forward, initiating construction of a $2 million broadcast facility in the Muma Center, which is the hub of USF's live streaming of all home sports events in conjunction with The American's 12-year media rights partnership with ESPN that began in 2020. Kelly also is giving USF student-athletes the tools and assets to position themselves for future NIL revenues by expanding a partnership with INFLCR. Kelly also established the USF Athletics Committee for Inclusive Excellence, a new diversity council within the athletic department. Building on his former role as an officer for the College Football Playoff Foundation, Kelly has fostered collaboration between USF Athletics and the USF College of Education which has created programs related to the annual Extra Yard for Teachers initiative and Go Teach — a program focused on providing athletic and academic departments the platform and tools to assist in the recruitment of qualified student-athletes into the teaching profession.

In the classroom, USF student-athletes have continued a record 15 straight semesters and seven academic years with more than a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average. The Bulls have logged over an 82 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) for eight straight years, including twice registering 85 percent marks under Kelly, which represents the second-highest in program history. A record five programs posted 100 percent GSR scores in 2020. A record 288 Bulls earned Athletics Honor Roll recognition in the spring of 2020, including 57 in football, and a record 237 were named to the AAC All-Academic teams in 2019-20. The Bulls' annual overall department GPA for the 2020-21 academic year came in at 3.23, just shy of the department record set the previous year (3.28) and above a 3.20 for the second straight year.

USF has also emphasized involvement in the Tampa Bay area community under Kelly, with student-athletes and staff putting in more than 4,300 hours of community service in 2018-19, the last academic year before the pandemic.

In 2018, USF football became the fastest FBS team in the state of Florida to reach 150 program wins on the way to matching the school's best-ever start at 7-0. USF posted its best season home attendance average in six seasons (38,517), which stood as the second-best mark among American Athletic Conference teams. USF student attendance at football games rose 39 percent from the 2017 season to an average of 7,797 students per game in 2018. The rise in student attendance at football games was part of an overall rise in student attendance across all of USF's fall sports.

Kelly came to USF after serving as the chief operating officer for the College Football Playoff (2012-18) and playing an instrumental role in launching the highly successful playoff. He previously served as associate athletic director for external affairs at USF under former director of athletics and Tampa Bay legend Lee Roy Selmon. Kelly returned to the university with nearly 25 years of experience in college and professional athletics.

Kelly became the COO of the College Football Playoff (CFP) in 2012 and in that role directed the organization's day-to-day operations and was instrumental in launching the playoff. In his role at the CFP, Kelly managed the site selection process for the CFP National Championship and oversaw all aspects of the National Championship Game and associated ancillary events, including the event hosted by Tampa Bay in 2017. In addition, he served as the primary liaison to ESPN and managed the CFP's relationship with the "New Year's Six" bowl games. He also participated in all meetings of the CFP selection committee.

Before his stint at the CFP, for six years Kelly served as senior associate commissioner of the Atlantic Coast Conference, overseeing football, broadcasting and communications. During his time with the ACC, he built strong relationships with coaches, media, television network partners, conference officials and university leaders throughout the country.

Kelly is the only person to ever serve as the lead local executive for three different Super Bowls in three different communities, having been president of the Super Bowl host committees in Tampa Bay (Super Bowl XXXV), Jacksonville (Super Bowl XXXIX) and South Florida (Super Bowl XLI). He was also executive director of the 1999 Men's Basketball Final Four Organizing Committee for the event held at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg.

Kelly previously worked as USF's associate athletic director for external affairs. He helped USF football transition to Division I-A and led fundraising efforts for a new athletic center now known as the Lee Roy Selmon Athletic Center. Kelly also served as director of athletic operations and facilities at Wake Forest University from 1995-1998.

Kelly earned his bachelor's degree from Wake Forest University, graduating Magna Cum Laude, and earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami Gardens. The Washington, D.C., area native began his career in sports as an intern for the Florida Marlins during their inaugural season while attending graduate school.

He and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Cara and Seana. Lisa is an instructor at the USF College of Education. Cara is attending the University of Miami and plays in the marching band and Seana is attending the University of Alabama.

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR LEE BUTLER

Named to the USF Athletics senior staff in April of 2022 by Vice President of Athletics Michael Kelly, Lee Butler assumed the newly formed role of Senior Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Success.

Additionally, he serves as the Athletic Department's Chief Diversity Officer and is the sport administrator for men's and women's basketball.

Butler, who had previously served at the Atlantic Coast Conference since 2010 and was in the role of Assistant Commissioner for Men's Basketball since 2014, assumed three main areas of oversight in USF Athletics, including student-athlete facing programs and services, sport administration for the men's and women's basketball programs, and department diversity and inclusion oversight. Several athletic department report to Butler, including Academics, Sports Medicine (including sports psychology and nutrition), Strength and Conditioning and Student-Athlete Enhancement (including the Selmon Mentoring Institute).

¨I am very excited to welcome Lee Butler to our USF Athletics family in this newly formed and very important role,¨ Kelly said. ¨A former men's basketball player at the University of Miami and a recognized rising leader in college athletics, Lee is a tremendous addition to our strong USF Athletics staff. I have known Lee for more than a decade, have seen his leadership and talent in action at the ACC, and know he will have a tremendous impact on the student-athlete experience and success at USF.¨

Prior to coming to USF, Butler joined the ACC office in 2010 and served as an Assistant Commissioner for Men's Basketball since 2014 as well as the Chair of the ACC Racial and Social Justice Committee (CORE). In his assistant commissioner role, he was responsible for promoting relationships among the conference staff and league member institution's administrators and coaching staffs. He was the primary contact for regular season administration and game management and for game operation items related to the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament while also assisting with game and television scheduling.

As Chair of CORE for the ACC, Butler was responsible for overseeing the internal and external initiatives for diversity, equity and inclusion. During Butler's involvement, CORE established hiring best practices for the conference, created mandatory annual diversity and inclusion training for member schools and the conference office, developed seasonal Unity Weeks that brought awareness and action, and created the ACC Unite Award which recognizes individuals who have made an impact in the areas of racial and social justice.

Butler worked in the ACC Championships department from 2010-2014 before focusing on men's basketball. He began as the associate director of championships in 2010, was promoted to director of championships in 2011 and again to assistant commissioner for championships in 2013. Butler was responsible for the day-to-day management of 10 Olympic sports including creation of regular season conference schedules, oversight of officiating programs, and resolution of sportsmanship violations. He also oversaw the planning and on-site management of nine Olympic sport championships.

A native of Woodbridge, Va., Butler earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration in 2006 and a master's degree in Education with an emphasis on Sport Administration in 2010, both from the University of Miami. He also played on the Hurricanes' men's basketball team from 2004-06, earning ACC Honor Roll twice.

Butler began his professional career with his alma mater, serving as the assistant director of events at Miami from 2007-2010, where he was responsible for the planning, budgeting, and game management of multiple sporting events along with ACC and NCAA Championship events hosted on campus.

Butler completed The Sport Management Institute Executive Program in January 2020 and in October 2020 was featured in The Athletic's list of 40 Under 40 in college basketball, noting 40 influential people in the sport under the age of 40. Butler is a member of CEFMA (Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association) and MOAA (Minority Opportunities Athletic Association) and obtained a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in the Workplace Certificate from the University of South Florida Muma College of Business in 2021.

Lee and his wife, Veronica, have two sons, Boss (5) and Blaze (1).

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 15 prestigious institutions: the University of Alabama at Birmingham, the University of North Carolina Charlotte, East Carolina University, Florida Atlantic University, the University of Memphis, the United States Naval Academy (in football only), the University of North Texas, Rice University, the University of South Florida, Southern Methodist University, Temple University, the University of Texas at San Antonio, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, The American has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly entrenched among the elite conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, its football and basketball postseason victories, its expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, four New Year's Six bowl champions, two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 15 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

In the 2023-24 season, The American will be the only Division I conference to have a New Year's Six bowl winner (Tulane) and an NCAA Men's Final Four participant (Florida Atlantic) in its ranks.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl eight times in the league's first 10 football seasons, including the 2022 campaign, when Tulane capped the biggest one-year turnaround in major college football history with a thrilling win against USC in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Tulane went 12-2 and earned a top-10 final ranking in 2022. Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last eight years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, women's rowing, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country, men's track and field, and women's track and field.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes including Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds, who was fifth in 2015. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship and the 2015 US Amateur before enjoying a remarkable pro career that has included the 2020 U.S. Open title. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win five Grand Slam championships in men's doubles and mixed doubles. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis and reached the fourth round of the US Open in 2019.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+.

The first eight American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Powerful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

TELEVISION AND RADIO

ESPN/ESPN+

All USF home games, and American Athletic Conferene games, will be nationally televised either through the ESPN family of networks. Games not selected for ESPN linear channels will be aired on ESPN+

Subscriptions for the ESPN+ app are $6.99 monthly or $69.99 annually and can be packaged with Hulu and Disney+ streaming services.

USF RADIO NETWORK

All games will be broadcast live on 102.5 HD-2 and USF Bulls Unlimited, the exclusive home for USF Men's Basketball, available free of charge through the TuneIn app.

A veteran Tampa Bay area radio personality, Jim Lighthall is in his 27th season calling the action. Joining Lighthall is Joey Johnston, a former Tampa Tribune writer and current USF Athletics Senior Writer, returning for his seventh season on the mic as the team's analyst.

USF Bulls Unlimited, launched in August 2017 as a 24/7 platform for USF sports, is the exclusive home for USF Athletics. The 2019-20 season saw the introduction of a second full-time channel, Bulls Unlimited 2, to handle broadcasts when two Bulls teams are playing at the same time. Both stations are available via the TuneIn app and provide static-free quality whether you're listening on your streaming device, laptop or desktop. In addition, like Bulls Unlimited, Bulls Unlimited 2 also provides feature content, game replays and daily shows on all things USF Athletics.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

To obtain credentials for a USF home contest, please make the request online at GoUSFBulls.com on the Men's Basketball Page. The request form can be found under "More Link" at "Media Credential Requests". Please contact Chad Smith if you have questions. Passes are limited to working media only. Passes may be picked up at the lower entrance near Gate C (Club) by going down the stairs on gameday beginning 90 minutes before tipoff.

YUENGLING CENTER PARKING

Parking may be requested upon applying for media credentials. If you have any questions you may also contact the Ticket Office at bullstickets@usf.edu. Media parking is via mobile pass in lot 22F at the Yuengling Center.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Under no circumstances should media members contact USF coaches or student-athletes without prior consent and approval from to Associate Director of Communications Chad Smith. The same policy applies to the family members of student-athletes. To request interviews outside of regularly-scheduled availabilities, please contact the USF communications department at least 24 hours in advance.

Regularly scheduled availability by Coach Amir Abdur-Rahim and selected players will begin during conference play prior to road games.

POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

Select USF players are generally brought first to the media room following home games. USF head coach Amir Abdur-Rahim will follow.

DOWNLOADABLE VIDEO

USF will supply downloadable video of press conferences, post-game interviews and game highlights throughout the year, upon request via a dedicated Dropbox account. Media wishing to utilize these video elements should contact Chad Smith to be added to the distribution list for Dropbox invitation.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless internet access is available throughout the Yuengling Center. Use the "USF Guest" network and follow the simple steps to be connected. It will ask for a phone number or email in order to provide a password. The access is valid for 24 hours. The wireless connection works throughout the Yuengling Center.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The media room is available to working media and photographers. Photographers can also work in one of the seats in the media overflow seating in sections 109, 112, 114 and 115.

GAME NOTES & STATISTICS

Updated game notes and statistics are maintained on the men's basketball media central page of the USF Athletics website at www.GoUSFBulls.com.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

USF uses StatBroadcast to display live statistics. Only a computer and an internet connection are needed to access live stats. Once connected to the internet, visit http://southflorida.statbroadcast.com and click on the game listed. Postgame stats and game books will be made available in the media room.

OTHER WAYS TO FOLLOW THE BULLS

Media and fans alike can follow the Bulls on Twitter, Instagram, Facebook and YouTube.

We Are USF

When referring to the University please be aware of the following policy regarding usage.

First references to the school and its intercollegiate athletics program should always be the University of South Florida.

The only secondary reference used should be USF, South Florida or Bulls.

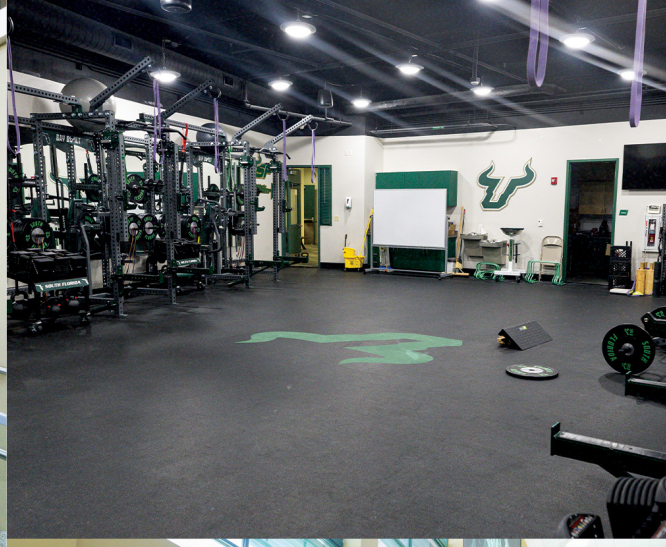

Please refrain from using S. Florida, South Fla. or any other similar combination.

Mike Radomski

Mike Radomski was a much-loved member of the USF Athletics family from 2015-17 serving as the lead communications contact for men's basketball, baseball, track and field, cross country, sailing and volleyball during his tenure. He passed away tragically in the early morning hours of Oct. 12, 2017 in a car accident as he travelled home after putting in extra hours working on his basketball media guide. He was 29 years old. His positive energy, enthusiasm and smile will long live in our hearts and memories.
