GAME NOTES

Dons return home to host USF Tournament

SAN FRANCISCO—After a split in the opening weekend, the Dons return to Negroesco Stadium to open the home schedule as they host the USF Tournament this weekend and will take on Portland State and LIU Brooklyn.

The two-day, four-team tournament will play on Friday and Sunday and begin when No. 21 California takes on LIU Brooklyn at 4:30 p.m., followed by the Dons facing Portland State. California will start Sunday's matches against Portland State at 12 p.m. and USF will wrap up the weekend with LIU Brooklyn.

San Francisco swept through the USF Tournament last season with 1-0 wins over UC Davis and Harvard with goals from Rochelle Weerackoon and Jaciara Mello, giving the Dons a 4-1-0 record.

LAST TIME OUT

The Dons jumped on Nevada early and got two goals a minute apart from each other in the 21st and 22nd minutes from Jaciara Mello and Jessica Nakae, which gave them a 2-0 lead. Freshman Maddy Glaser chipped in with her first collegiate goal in the 89th minute of the contest. The shutout was Madalyn Schiffel's first of the season.

WHITTLE ON ATTACK

Sophomore Amanda Whittle came out strong in the first weekend of play as she recorded a goal to tie the team's match against California and then chipped in with the assist on the game-winning goal against Nevada last Sunday. She already has three points on the season after picking up six in her freshman campaign.

PROTECTING NEGUESCO

The Dons return home for the first time this season and have played well in home openers in recent years. Since 2008, San Francisco is 4-1-1 with three shutouts in home openers with wins over Fresno State and Nevada. The Dons played its first home match against Nevada last season and won 2-0.

DONS ON THEW.TV

All eight Dons home matches this season will be aired on TheW.tv, the West Coast Conference's online broadcasting network. Charles Wollin will be behind the mic again this season.

COACHING AND SUPPORT STAFF

Head Coach Jim Millinder
Cal State Dominguez Hills '93
Record at USF: 13-18-8 (two seasons)
Coaching Record: 265-132-66, 156-115-33
NCAA Division I

After a productive first year, two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year Jim Millinder enters his second season at the helm of the University of San Francisco women's soccer program.

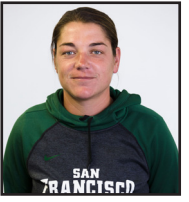

Millinder guided the women's soccer team to a 7-8-4 record in his first season, only one year after the Dons finished 6-14. That first season also produced All-WCC performers Mackenzie Krieser (second team), Megan Connor and Christina Moberg (honorable mention). The seven wins was the most for the program since the 2009 season when USF finished 7-7-5.

Millinder came to the Hilltop with a wealth of experience and success. With stops at the University of Southern California, Loyola Marymount University and El Camino College, he compiled an overall record of 252-114-58. Prior to his appointment at USF, Millinder spent four seasons as head coach with the South Bay Force club team.

In his 11 seasons at USC Millinder led the Women of Troy to a record of 135-70-21 (.645) and eight NCAA Tournament appearances. He also guided the team to a school-record 16 wins in 1997 and is USC's all-time leader in wins. USC went 14-7-1 on route to earning a share of the 1998 Pac-10 title and making its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Maite Zabala, Associate Head Coach
California '01
- Entering eighth season with Dons.
- Spent nine seasons with Cal as a player and coach, helped team reach NCAA Tournament eight times.
- In 2005, helped guide Cal goalkeepers to a 0.475 GAA, seventh in nation and matched a program-best with 14 shutouts.

Katie Burton, Assistant Coach
Sacramento State '08
- Entering fourth season with Dons.
- Spent the 2010 season with UNLV, where the Rebels finished with an 11-8-1 record.
- Served as Director of Soccer Operations for men's and women's soccer programs while at UNLV.

DONS NOTES

INTERNATIONAL PLAY

Junior defender Leticia Torres will be leaving the team following its match at Harvard on Sept. 5 to join the Chilean National Team as they compete in Brazil in the World Cup qualifying matches. Torres was with the Chilean Team during the spring and helped guide it to an appearance in the South American Cup final. She has started both contests thus far this season.

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED GOALIE

Madalyn Schiffel, who was named to the All-WCC honorable mention team last season, participated in the Team USA U-20 camp in April with some of the best college players in the country. She recorded six shutouts last season and had 10 other matches where she only allowed one goal.

RETURNING ALL-LEAGUE PLAYERS

The Dons have five returning players who have earned All-WCC honors and among those are three who earned honors last season. Madalyn Schiffel and Halle Bissin earned honorable mention honors and Jessica Nakae was selected to the All-Freshman Team. Jaciara Mello (2011 All-Freshman Team) and Mackenzie Krieser (2012 All-WCC Second Team) also return for the Dons.

ABOUT PORTLAND STATE

The Vikings opened their season with a 1-0-1 record, collecting a 1-0 win over Utah Valley last Friday and a 1-1 draw with Boise State on Sunday. Portland State was on the doorstep of the NCAA Tournament and finished the 2013 season with a 8-0-1 record in the Big Sky but lost in penalty kicks in the Big Sky championship match to Weber State. San Francisco and Portland State met last season and played to a 0-0 draw in Portland on Sept. 22.

ABOUT LIU BROOKLYN

LIU Brooklyn has been picked to finish second in the Northeast Conference but has gotten off to a sluggish start. They dropped both contests in their opening weekend by a combined score of 8-0,
