War Memorial at The Sobrato Center (3,005) / San Francisco
WCC Network / Audio / Live Stats: GoPoly.com
Series Record: USF, 6-3
Division I Series Record: USF, 4-2
Winning Streak: USF, 1
Last Meeting: Dec. 4, 2020 (USF, 88-60, at Cal Poly)

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Cal Poly men's basketball program embarks on its first road trip of the regular season when visiting 2022 NCAA Tournament qualifier San Francisco on Thursday, Nov. 10. Tip time from War Memorial at The Sobrato Center is 7 p.m. for Cal Poly (1-0), which completes its two-game road swing at Stanford (Friday, Nov. 18). Returning five starters, nine letterwinners and 80.5 percent of its scoring from a year ago and welcoming four Division I transfers during the offseason, Cal Poly opened the year at home on Monday, Nov. 7, handing Bethesda University a 94-59 setback. Seeded No. 10 as an at-large selection for the 2022 NCAA Tournament – the program's first in 24 years – San Francisco fell in the opening round to Murray State, 92-87. The Dons began their season on Nov. 7, topping Texas Southern to start a three-game home stand, 90-77.

FOLLOW CAL POLY MONDAY: Zachary Anderson-Yoxsimer handles play-by-play for ESPN 1280 (San Luis Obispo County) and GoPoly.com of Thursday's matchup at San Francisco ... video and live stats will also be available via GoPoly.com.

CAL POLY VERSUS SAN FRANCISCO: Cal Poly's last visit to San Francisco – a 78-71 triumph on Dec. 15, 2014 – marks the program's only road victory versus the Dons in five previous all-time visits. San Francisco, which claimed an 88-60 victory in the last matchup – a Dec. 4, 2020 meeting in San Luis Obispo – leads the all-time series, 6-3.

KOROMA REMAINS CAL POLY'S OFFENSIVE CATALYST: One of Cal Poly's top two scorers for a third successive season, forward Alimamy Koroma opened his senior year with 15 points and game high seven rebounds against Bethesda (Nov. 7). With 37 career double-digit scoring games, Koroma is averaging 10.6 points and 4.8 rebounds per game while shooting 50.5 (306-for-606) percent through 77 collegiate outings and 49 starts. He requires 182 more points to become just the 25th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points. Koroma also ranks eighth in program history with 62 career blocks.

THE SMITHS: With the addition of Jamal Smith – son of fourth-year head coach John Smith – as director of operations, Cal Poly is one of only two Division I programs with that familial disinction. Louisiana Monroe, featuring head coach Keith Richard and director of operations Luke, remains the other.

LOOKING AHEAD (FRIDAY, NOV. 18): Following an eight-day break, Cal Poly completes its first road trip of the season at Stanford on Friday, Nov. 18. Tip time from Maples Pavilion is 7:30 p.m. with action broadcast on Pac-12 Networks. Stanford, welcoming Cal Poly for the first time in five years, opened its season with an 88-78 home victory against Pacific. The Cardinal next visit Wisconsin (Friday, Nov. 11) before hosting No. 19 San Diego State (Tuesday, Nov. 15).

ETC.: Cal Poly is in its 79th season as a four-year program and 29th at the Division I level ... since transitioning to the Division I level prior to the 1994-95 season, Cal Poly improved to 45-1 against non-Division I programs with a 94-59 home win against NCCAA Bethesda University (Nov. 7).

JOHN SMITH • HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

With more than two decades of success at the Division I and junior college levels, John Smith is in his fourth season as Cal Poly men's basketball head coach.

Last season, Cal Poly held opponents to the second lowest field goal mark among Big West programs while playing in front of the second highest average attendance in the conference. Individually, forward Alimamy Koroma earned All-Big West honors for a second successive year.

To close the 2020-21 season, Smith guided Cal Poly to the program's first Big West Tournament victory in seven years.

During Smith's initial 2019-20 season, Cal Poly recorded the program's 300th Division I win versus CSUN (Jan. 11) and its 150th Big West victory against Hawai'i (Feb. 8). With Smith earning his first victory as a Division I head coach against Simpson (Nov. 15), Cal Poly led the Big West Conference last season at 6.4 steals per game.

Cal Poly also played the toughest schedule among Big West programs during Smith's first season as the Mustangs faced two ranked opponents (No. 15 San Diego State, No. 18 Saint Mary's), two opponents who finished the year ranked in the AP Top 25 poll (No. 7 Creighton, No. 25 Iowa) and five regular season conference champions in San Diego State (Mountain West), Creighton (Big East), North Dakota State (Summit League), Siena (MAAC) and UC Irvine (Big West).

"This program has high-character players who are academically driven," said Smith, who was named Cal Poly head coach on March 28, 2019. "Those are two things that are a precursor for success. It's a competitive group of players who are capable of being successful within the Big West Conference."

Smith arrived at Cal Poly after serving as associate head coach at Cal State Fullerton from 2013-19 – a period of historic success for the Titans program. During Smith's final three seasons, Cal State Fullerton qualified for the 2018 NCAA Tournament and earned berths in the College Insider.com Postseason Tournament in 2017 and 2019. The Titans averaged 18 wins per year during Smith's final three seasons, finished among the top four programs in the Big West Conference standings each year and reached the semifinals of the Big West Tournament three times.

With Smith playing a pivotal role in Cal State Fullerton's recruiting efforts, eight Titans earned All-Big West honors during his final three seasons.

"Coach Smith is an outstanding fit for our university and our athletics department," Cal Poly director of athletics Don Oberhelman said. "His coaching and teaching experience, commitment to academic excellence and desire to lead and mentor young men have made him the clear choice for Cal Poly."

Prior to his successful tenure at Cal State Fullerton, Smith served as head coach at Riverside City College (2004-13), compiling a 196-87 (.693) overall record – the second-highest win total in school history – while leading the Tigers to four conference championships (2005, 2007, 2010-11), nine postseason berths, five 20-win seasons and the 2009 California Community College Athletic Association state championship (the school's first in 43 years).

In Smith's final season at Riverside City College, the 2012-13 Tigers finished 19-9 and posted a 9-3 mark in the Orange Empire Conference. Smith, meanwhile, earned his fifth and final Orange Empire Coach of the Year award.

As head coach and assistant athletics director at San Bernardino Valley College (2000-04), Smith posted an 88-40 overall record while directing the program to the 2003 CCCAA state tournament semifinals. He was named the 2003 Foothill Conference Coach of the Year while leading the program to a league championship.

His junior college coaching record stands at 265-118 (.692). In 2016, the California Community College Men's Basketball Coaches Association inducted Smith into its Hall of Fame for his outstanding work in building two programs and leading each to the state tournament.

Smith's coaching resume also includes positions as an assistant coach at two-year programs College of Southern Idaho and Chaffey College and J.W. North High School (Riverside) and Valley View High School (Moreno Valley, Calif.). He also spent one season as the West Coast scout for the WNBA's Detroit Shock.

As a player, Smith was a two-time all-league and all-county selection at J.W. North HS before playing at UNLV (1987-89). From there, he transferred to Dominican University (San Rafael, Calif.), where he was an NAIA All-California honorable mention selection and all-conference honoree under his brother, Steve.

He graduated from Dominican in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in psychology before earning a master's degree in kinesiology from Azusa Pacific in 2004.

Smith and his wife, Kelly, have three children. Son, Jamal, was a graduate guard for Cal Poly during the 2019-20 season after playing for Smith at Cal State Fullerton (2015-19). He spent the 2021-22 season as Montana State's director of operations and now occupies the same position with the Mustangs. Eldest daughter, Kiana, was a 2017 McDonald's All-America selection and helped Louisville to the 2022 Final Four. She was selected 16th overall in the 2022 WNBA Draft by the Los Angeles Sparks. Daughter, Kylee, played at J.W. North HS in Riverside.
