THE OPPONENT...

The Dons finished non-conference play with an 11-4 record that included some big victories over No. 25 Arizona State, Wichita State, Fresno State and UNLV. Led by first year head coach, Chris Gerlufsen, USF is averaging 75.6 ppg while allowing just 66.6, good for second-best in the WCC. The Dons are averaging 10 treys per game, which leads the conference and is 15th nationally. Khalil Shabazz and Tyrell Roberts have been a solid 1-2 punch for the Dons with 14.7 and 14.5 ppg, respectively.

As the Broncos' most consistent opponent throughout the years, this will be the 231st meeting between the programs in a rivalry that dates back to 1908. Santa Clara holds the slim advantage 116-114, but the Dons won both games a year ago, including a 74-58 final in the Leavey Center.

LAST TIME OUT...

Santa Clara wrapped up non-conference play with arguably their best win of the season as they took down Boise State for a 15-point victory. Trailing by two at the half, SCU went on a furious run to open the second half as they cruised their way to a 73-58 victory. Carlos Stewart scored 25 points to lead all scorers while Brandin Podziemski scored 18 to go with 10 rebounds for his sixth double-double on the year.

STEWART PLAYING AT A HIGH LEVEL...

Sophomore guard Carlos Stewart has undoubtedly played his best ball as a collegiate in the last few weeks. In fact, the Baton Rouge product had a six-game stretch in which he averaged 21.5 ppg and has scored 16 or more in seven of the last eight games. Stewart has nine double-figure scoring games on the year with five 20-point outings.

He has topped 20 points three times in the last four games beginning with 24 points vs. Portland State and following with a career-high 29 points vs. UC Irvine. After a down game against Cal, Stewart returned to the 20s in the Broncos last outing vs. Boise State, scoring a game-high 25 points.

Stewart currently ranks third in the WCC in free throw percentage at 86.0 and is eighth at 14.7 ppg.

NONCONFERENCE SUCCESS...

For the second-straight season, Santa Clara finished non-conference play with 10 or more wins and with an 12-3 mark this year, the Broncos tied for their second-most non-conference wins in program history and their most since winning a program-record 13 in 2019-20.

This is the first time that the Broncos have tallied 10-plus wins in non-conference play in back-to-back seasons since 1984-85 (11-5) and 1983-84 (12-4).

JUSTICE BACK TO FORM...

Graduate forward Keshawn Justice shook off a sluggish start to his final campaign and is on fire as of late, scoring 10 or more in nine of the last 11 games. The Madison, Wisc. product has nine games in double figures with a pair of 20-point games, including a career-high-tying 26 points against UC Irvine. Justice knocked down a career-best seven triples on the winning performance.

Justice has put up 118 3-PT attempts, which is fourth-most nationally. He has made 40 of them to pace the WCC and rank 17th nationally. His 2.67 treys per game rank second in the league.

Justice has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 4.00, which leads the WCC and ranks fourth nationally.

3-PT CONSISTENTLY FALLING FOR TIGGO...

Keshawn Justice is one of the best 3-point shooters in program history, without question. He currently ranks fourth in school history in both career 3-point makes and attempts. Justice has 249 career 3-pointers made, just 14 shy of tying Steve Nash for third-most all-time.

Justice has 72 career games with multiple 3-point field goals. He also has 41 games with at least three treys, 21 games of four treys or more and seven games with at least five triples, including three this season.

CLOSING IN ON TOP-20 CAREER SCORING...

With 1,365 career points, Keshawn Justice currently sits in 21st on the program's all-time scoring list. He needs just 15 points to tie Travis Niesen (2002-06) for 20th.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY...

The Broncos have kept the same starting lineup in every game this season: Stewart, Podziemski, Justice, Bediako and Braun.

BLOC(K) PARTY..

The Broncos are averaging 3.9 blocks per game, good for third in the WCC and boasts a couple of the conference's top shot blockers. Jaden Bediako is 2nd in the WCC with 18 on the year while Parker Braun is tied for seventh with 14.

GOOD THINGS HAPPEN WHEN YOU SHOOT EFFICIENTLY...

It's a tale as old as time, but when you score efficiently, your chances of winning increase dramatically. That's the case for the Broncos as they are 9-0 in games in which they shoot better than opponent. SCU is also 3-0 on the year when shooting better than 50 percent from the field. It should also be stated that the Broncos are 12-0 when scoring more points than their opponents.

MORE GOOD THINGS HAPPEN WHEN TWO SCORE 20+...

The Broncos are 3-0 when multiple players score 20 or more points.

vs. Eastern Washington - Podziemski (30) and Stewart (20)

vs. Sacramento State - Podziemski (27) and Stewart (22)

vs. UC Irvine - Stewart (29) and Justice (26)

SCORING MACHINE...

Brandin Podziemski has been on a tear to open the season, scoring at least 11 points in all but two games and tallying six games of 20 or more points. That includes a pair of 30-point games which came in back-to-back outings, making him the first Bronco since Jared Brownridge to have both back-to-back and multiple 30 point games in a season.

Podziemski has already tallied six double-doubles on the year, which ranks second in the WCC and ranks 10th nationally. He currently ranks fourth in the WCC in scoring (18.3) and second in rebounding (8.7).

CRASHING THE BOARDS..

The Broncos have been cleaning up on the glass exceptionally well through 15 games. SCU is second in the WCC and 34th nationally with 39.9 rebounds per game, and is 21st nationally with 28.7 defensive boards. A big reason for their success is the emergence of Brandin Podziemski as the team's top rebounder. He currently ranks 2nd in the WCC with 8.7 boards per game and is 11th nationally with 130 total rebounds.

SCU has outrebounded their opponents in all but four games and is 10-1 when doing so.

A THEIF IS AMONGST US...

Brandin Podziemski has a knack of finding ways to get the ball back. The sophomore ranks fourth nationally with 35 steals on the year. He leads the WCC and is 28th nationally with an average of 2.3 per game.

JB PUTTING IN THE WORK...

Senior Jaden Bediako has put in some solid work in the first 15 games of the season. The big man has tallied four double-figure scoring games, including a double-double of 15 pts and 11 reb in the win over Wyoming. He had 10 pts with a career-high tying four assists against UC Irvine. Bediako is second in the WCC with 18 blocks on the year.

BRAUN PUTTING UP EFFICIENT NUMBERS...

Senior forward/center Parker Braun has quietly put together a nice start to his final campaign. The big man is averaging 8.1 points, 6.1 rebounds and 2.3 assists per game, and is tied for the seventh-most blocks in the league with 14, including four against NMSU. He has posted four double-figure scoring games, including a season-best 17 points to go with seven rebounds in his last outing vs. Cal.

EFFICIENT AT THE STRIPE...

SCU shot 89.7 percent from the charity stripe against Iona, knocking down 26-of-29 attempts. It is the best percentage (min. 20 attempts) for the Broncos since going 21-for-22 on the road against LMU on Feb. 28, 2019.

The Broncos also turned in an impressive free throw clip against Portland State, knocking down 22 of 26 attempts.

In total, Santa Clara ranks third in the WCC with a 72.2 percent clip from the line.

NOT CAUSING ANY TROUBLE...

The Broncos rank first in the WCC and 21st nationally in fewest fouls committed at a mark of just 13.8 per game.

WCC PLAYER OF THE WEEK...

After becoming the first Bronco since Dec. 24, 2018 to win WCC Player of the Week honors (Trey Wertz), Brandin Podziemski has repeated the feat following another big offensive showing against Wyoming and Sacramento State. The sophomore averaged 23 ppg over the span, tallying a double-double of 19 pts and 10 rebounds vs. Wyoming before turning in a game-high 27 pts on 5-of-9 3pt shooting against the Hornets. Podz is the first Bronco since Jared Brownridge in 2016-17 to win multiple WCC POTW honors in one season.

JUSTICE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-WCC...

Keshawn Justice rightfully earned a spot on the WCC's 10-man preseason all-conference team. The graduate earned second team honors last season after finishing fourth in the league with four double-doubles and sixth in 3pt shooting (42.3).

GATORADE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR...

For the first time in program history, Santa Clara has a pair of Gatorade State Players of the Year on their current roster - sophomores Carlos Stewart (Louisiana) and Brandin Podziemski (Wisconsin).

A STAR IS BORN...

Brandin Podziemski's introduction to both Santa Clara and WCC fans couldn't have gone much better. After dazzling in his Bronco debut vs. Eastern Washington by stuffing the stat sheet with 30 points, nine rebounds, five steals, two assists and a block, the Illinois transfer followed with an even better performance in his second game with the program. The sharpshooter secured a double-double of 34 pts and 11 reb while shooting 75 percent from beyond the arc (6-8) and 62.5 percent from the floor (10-16). 25 of his points came in the opening half, the most points scored by a Bronco in a half since Jared Brownridge dropped 28 in the second half against Vanderbilt on Nov. 25, 2016. The combined efforts are not only among the most impressive in school history, but in all of NCAA D1 basketball over the last few seasons.

- First in program history and in the WCC since at least 2000 to open the season with back-to-back 30 pt games.
- First player in program history* to score 30 or more points in his SCU debut (*game records date back to 1950).
- One of just four players in NCAA D1 to avg. 30 pts and 10 reb through the first two games of the season (Christian Lutete, UMASS-Lowell in 2019-20, Nick Mayo, Eastern Kentucky in 2018-19, and Malcolm Hill, Illinois in 2016-17.
- First Bronco since Jared Brownridge in 2016-17 with multiple 30 pt games. Also first since Brownridge in 2013-14 with multiple 30 pt games in debut season.
- First Bronco since Brownridge (2014) with back-to-back 30 pt games.
- Earned WCC Player of the Week honors (first for a Bronco since 2018).
- Was named the National Transfer of the Week by The Portal Report.

SUCCESS UNDER SENDEK...

- Herb Sendek, now in his seventh season at the helm of SCU Men's Hoops, is one of just two coaches in the WCC with 500 career victories (Mark Few). Sendek currently has 522 career wins, good for 66th most in NCAA D1 history.
- Sendek has a 109-87 record at Santa Clara, and is the eighth coach in program history with 100 wins.
- The Broncos have posted winning seasons in five of the last six years. It's the first time they have done that in 21 years (1995-96-2000-01)
- SCU has posted four-straight winning seasons for the first time in 24 years (1994-95-1997-98).
- SCU has posted two 20-win seasons in a span of three years for the first time since 2010-11-2012-13. This includes the 20-game covid season.

HOME COOKING...

Santa Clara has fared well inside the Leavey Center in recent years. Since 2019-20, the Broncos are 43-12 in home contests. This includes a 4-2 mark in the covid-shortened 2020-21 campaign. Last season, the Broncos were 14-4 with key home victories over No. 22 Saint Mary's, BYU, Stanford, Nevada, San Diego and Portland.

SCU is 9-1 at home this year and 23-5 since the start of last season. The Broncos are in the midst of a stretch of nine-straight inside the Leavey Center that will span the entire month of December.

THIS YEAR'S ROSTER...

Santa Clara will have a healthy mix of old and new faces on their 2022-23 roster. The Broncos return seven from last season, not including redshirt freshman Brenton Knapper who will make his collegiate debut this year. SCU signed five newcomers, including transfers Brandin Podziemski (Illinois) and Carlos Marshall (Tennessee State), and three freshmen (Kosy Akametu, Jake Ensminger and Christoph Tilly). Key returnees include forward Keshawn Justice (2nd team All-WCC in 21-22), centers Jaden Bediako and Parker Braun, and guard Carlos Stewart.

ABOUT THE RETURNERS...

Santa Clara returns a wealth of returners, including Keshawn Justice, a fifth-year player with 72 career starts and 111 appearances, who gave SCU some outstanding news in the offseason when he announced that he would be taking advantage of his final year of eligibility and returning for the 2022-23 season. He is coming off his best year as a Bronco in which he was a second team All-WCC selection after finishing fourth in the league with eight double-doubles. Justice was one of just two Broncos to start every game (Jalen Williams), was sixth in the WCC in 3-point shooting (42.3 percent) and had 25 double-figure scoring efforts. He was third on the team with 13.0 ppg and led the team with 6.7 rebounds per game. Also returning are guards Carlos Stewart (33 appearances) and Giordan Williams (33 appearances), and forwards Jacob Holt (21 appearances) and Camaron Tongue (19 appearances). Big men Jaden Bediako and Parker Braun also return for their senior seasons. The pair each had significant impacts on last season's success with Bediako filling in for an injured Josip Vrankic to start seven games at forward, and Braun starting 32-of-33 games at center.

ABOUT THE NEWCOMERS...

Santa Clara brought in five newcomers in their 2022 signing class:

- Brandin Podziemski (poe-GEM-ski) is a sophomore transfer from the University of Illinois where he played in 16 games last season as a true freshman. A former 4-star recruit, he was ranked No. 63 overall by Rivals, No. 70 in the Top247 and No. 107 in the 247Sports Composite rankings for the 2021 cycle. Played just three seasons of varsity basketball at St. John's Northwestern in Muskego, Wisc., but became the first player in state history to amass 2,000 career points in just three years. Averaged 35.1 points, 10.0 rebounds, 4.0 steals and 5.6 assists as a senior en route to being named the 2021 Wisconsin Mr. Basketball and the Wisconsin Gatorade Player of the Year.

Prior to his stint with the Tigers, Marshall was a first team all-region selection after one season at Southwest Tennessee Community College.

- The Broncos also signed three freshmen - guards Jake Ensminger and Kosy Akametu, and 7-foot-0 center Christoph Tilly. Both Ensminger and Tilly join the Broncos from Germany where they excelled in the German Pro League.

- Santa Clara also recently added a pair of walk-on guards: Malachi Douyon from Santa Cruz, Calif. and Brendan Yarusso from Lombard, Ill. to fill out the 15-man roster.

ABOUT THE LOSSES...

Despite the great news of Keshawn Justice returning for one more ride, the Broncos saw three key starters depart the roster - first team All-WCC picks Jalen Williams (NBA Draft) and Josip Vrankic (graduation), and guard PJ Pipes (graduation).

EUROTRIP..

Like many teams, Santa Clara took advantage of the offseason by going on an overseas excursion for a 10-day trip full of team bonding, sightseeing and basketball. The Broncos had extended stays in the cities of Madrid and Barcelona, Spain, as well as Paris, France. Santa Clara played a game in each city, finishing with a 2-1 record. SCU defeated Baloncesto Estudiantes, 77-63, in Madrid and took down Joventut, 65-57, in Barcelona before falling to the tremendously talented Paris Basketball, 122-88.

Herb Sendek

Head Coach

Seventh Season
Carnegie Mellon '85

With a resume that includes 19 postseason appearances and three conference coach of the year awards, along with demonstrated player and staff development, Herb Sendek is entering his seventh season as Santa Clara's head men's basketball coach in 2022-23. In his six previous seasons, he has accumulated a 97-84 (.536) record.

He was hired on March 29, 2016 as the 15th head coach in school history.

Sendek, who was one of the three youngest coaches with 400 or more career victories, has had tremendous success in all four of his head-coaching tenures. He is in his 29th season as a collegiate head coach with stops at Arizona State, North Carolina State and Miami (Ohio). In those three stints, Sendek compiled a 413-295 (.583) record, including 39 victories against top 25 teams. He earned coach of the year in the Pac-10, Atlantic Coast Conference and Mid-American Conference.

During his time at the helm at Santa Clara, he has led the Broncos to five winning seasons, including four-straight. That serves as the longest winning season stretch since Dick Davey led the team to seven-straight from 1994-95 through 2000-01. Sendek is coming off the best win total of his six-year career at SCU with 21 victories in 2021-22, and has now guided the program to two 20-win campaigns in the last three seasons. It is the first time the program has had multiple 20-win seasons in a span of three years since 2010-11 and 2012-13.

The 2021-22 season was certainly one to remember for the Pittsburgh native. The Broncos finished the year with a 21-12 record and earned a bid to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) for the program's first postseason appearance in either the NCAA Tournament or NIT since 1996. Among those 21 wins was victory No. 500 for his illustrious career, making Sendek one of just two active coaches in the West Coast Conference to reach the 500-win mark (Gonzaga's Mark Few). The team posted 10 victories in conference play, the most for Sendek since his first season in 2016-17, and closed the regular season with a 12-3 record over the last 15 games to lock up third place in the WCC standings, Santa Clara's best finish in the WCC since 2006-07.

Last season also saw another major milestone for the program as Sendek guided the Broncos to their first victory over an Associated Press ranked opponent since 2004. The Broncos defeated No. 22 Saint Mary's at home, 77-72, on February 8th, breaking a streak of 43 consecutive losses to AP-ranked teams. The victory over the Gaels was just one of many standout wins for the Broncos in 2021-22. The team also took down Stanford, TCU, Nevada and BYU (first time since 2017) for marquee victories. The team was one of the top shooting teams in all of NCAA Division I, finishing the year ranked 11th in field goal percentage (48.4) and 16th in 3-point shooting percentage (37.8). Three players earned All-WCC honors with Jalen Williams and Josip Vrankic earning a spot on the first team and Keshawn Justice securing a place on the second team. The Broncos were one of just four WCC teams with multiple players on the first team, joining Gonzaga, Saint Mary's and San Francisco.

Williams would go on to be selected 12th overall in the 2022 NBA Draft by the Oklahoma City Thunder, becoming Santa Clara's highest draft pick of the modern era and second-highest pick of all time. He was Santa Clara's first draft pick since 1996 when Steve Nash was picked 15th overall.

In 2019-20, Sendek guided the program to its first 20-win campaign in seven years and only the fourth in the previous 19 seasons. The team also had an historic run at home as it continued a 17-game winning streak, which is the third-longest in school history and the most ever in Toso Pavilion/Leavey Center. Despite players missing nearly 80 total games to injury, the Broncos, who did not feature a senior on the roster, downed

Washington State and Cal, which gave them a pair of victories against the Pac-12 Conference in back-to-back years for the first time in school history. Three players earned All-West Coast Conference honors at the end of the season highlighted by Josip Vrankic (second team) and Jaden Bediako (all-freshman).

In the shortened 2020-21 campaign, despite navigating COVID-19 restrictions and a relocation for more than six weeks to practice and play in Santa Cruz, California, the Broncos were able to post a 12-8 record, which included winning their opening two games in the WCC Tournament for the first time since 2003-04.

Sendek and his staff navigated through an injury-filled 2018-19 season to post a 16-15 overall mark, including two wins over Pac-12 schools (USC and Washington State) for the first time since 1997-98. Six players missed time, including three (KJ Feagin, Matt Hauser and Juan Ducasse) who combined to suit up for only two games. With a starting lineup that featured two sophomores (Vrankic and Tahj Eaddy) and two freshmen (Trey Wertz and Guglielmo Caruso), the Broncos still managed to finish tied for fifth in the WCC. Wertz was voted to the WCC All-Freshman team, Eaddy claimed a second-team nod and Vrankic earned all-league honorable mention.

Despite having seven players miss more than a combined 70 games due to injury, Santa Clara posted a 17-16 record in 2016-17 and reached the WCC Tournament semifinals for the first time in six years. Sendek led the Broncos to a five-game overall improvement, tied for the best in the league with Gonzaga at the conclusion of the WCC Tournament. The Broncos, who were tied for fourth in the conference standings, finished above .500 in league play for just the third time in the last 10 years, including first since 2012-13. They also had the best turnaround in league play with a three-game improvement (7-11 in 2015-16).

A native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Sendek has recruited or coached a number of standout players, including NBA first-round draft choices James Harden (Arizona State), Julius Hodge (NC State) and Wally Szczerbiak (Miami). Sendek also has nine former assistant coaches, administrative assistants or graduate assistants serving as Division I head coaches (see chart below). In addition, there are nine other former head coaches - Jim Christian (Kent State, TCU, Boston College), Charlie Coles (Miami [Ohio]), Larry Hunter (Western Carolina), Thad Matta (Xavier, Ohio State), Dave Manzer (Messiah College), Archie Miller (Dayton, Indiana), Sean Miller (Xavier, Arizona), Mark Phelps (Drake) and Lamont Smith (San Diego) - who served under Sendek.

SENDEK'S COACHING TREE

Herb Sendek has not only been successful on the court, but he has also prepared many individuals for collegiate head coaching positions. There are currently 12 former Sendek assistants, administrative assistants or graduate assistants who are head coaches on the Division I level. In addition, there are six other former head coaches - the late Charlie Coles (Miami [Ohio]), Larry Hunter (Western Carolina), Thad Matta (Ohio State), Dave Manzer (Messiah College), Mark Phelps (Drake) and Lamont Smith (San Diego) - who served under Sendek.
