TONY STUBBLEFIELD

H E A D C O A C H

4TH SEASON OVERALL // 28-52 (.367)

3RD SEASON AT DEPAUL // 26-42 (.407)

Relentless energy and enthusiasm have been evident since Tony Stubblefield was named head coach of the men's basketball program in April 2021. He is the 15th head coach in DePaul history.

Stubblefield made his DePaul debut with a 97-72 win over Coppin State on Nov. 10 at Wintrust Arena and the 97 points were just a view into the style of play that Stubblefield is looking to establish in the South Loop. Overall, the Blue Demons scored at least 84 points in nine games that includes six contests of 90 or more points in a game.

The 15 wins during the 2021-22 campaign were the most by a first-year DePaul head coach since the 2002-03 season. The Blue Demons closed the regular season by winning three of their final four games that included victories over Georgetown, St. John's and Marquette. Stubblefield and the Blue Demons opened the season with a 9-1 record that marked the best start for a first-year head coach at DePaul since Rey Meyer went 13-1 to being the 1942-43 campaign.

Stubblefield came to DePaul after spending the last 11 seasons at Oregon and has over two decades of experience in college basketball and is regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters. He helped the Ducks to 10 postseason appearances that included eight NCAA Tournament berths. The eight NCAA berths saw Oregon reach the Final Four once and Elite Eight once along with three other Sweet 16 appearances. Overall, the Ducks added four regular-season conference championships and three conference tournament championships to the trophy case in Stubblefield's 11 seasons.

In addition to the team success, Stubblefield assisted head coach Dana Altman in building the program through multiple nationally ranked recruiting classes. He helped Oregon assemble five recruiting classes that were ranked among the top 12 nationally (2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2021). Included in those classes were future NBA players Troy Brown Jr. and Louis King and NBA Draft choices Brown Jr., Bol Bol and Payton Pritchard.

Prior to Oregon, Stubblefield spent four years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator in the BIG EAST Conference at the University of Cincinnati. He also was on the staffs at New Mexico State (2000-06), UT-Arlington (1996-00), UT-San Antonio (1995-96) and at his alma mater Nebraska-Omaha (1992-95).

Before joining the staff at Cincinnati, Stubblefield served as assistant coach at New Mexico State for six seasons, one of which he served as interim head coach. Prior to the start of the 2004-05 season, he was elevated to interim head coach when Lou Henson's health forced him to miss the season.

As recruiting coordinator for the Aggies, Stubblefield attracted three national Top-100 rated players, including one McDonald's All-American, a junior college all-American, and first-team all-state high school players from six different states.

Prior to his tenure at New Mexico State, Stubblefield was the lead assistant and recruiting coordinator at the UT-Arlington for four seasons. He successfully recruited two Top-10 prospects from the state of Texas along with first-team all-region junior college players from Texas, Louisiana, Alabama, and Mississippi.

Stubblefield began his coaching career as a student assistant for two seasons at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, his alma mater, where he completed his undergraduate degree in 1995.

Stubblefield, who transferred to UNO following two years at Clinton [Iowa] Community College, earned two letters playing guard at Nebraska-Omaha where he was the team captain his senior season.

Upon graduation from UNO, he became an assistant coach at the UT-San Antonio for the 1995-96 season, where he was responsible for coaching the guards and was the program's top recruiter.

After growing up in Clinton, Iowa, Stubblefield was one of the top players in the state of Colorado. He was the runner-up for state Player of the Year honors at Bloomfield (Colo.) High School his senior season, while picking up first-team all-state and Boulder County Player of the Year accolades.
