Lions Leave Los Angeles For First Time in a Month to Play WCC Unbeaten Dons

LOS ANGELES - LMU men's basketball's six game homestand came to an end with Saturday's 17-point win over Pacific. Now, the Lions leave home for the first time since mid-December to play just the second true road game of the season and look to defeat the San Francisco Dons.

These two teams have only met one time in each of the last two seasons, with San Francisco taking the last two games after the Lions won the first three matchups between the two WCC teams since taking the LMU head coaching job following the 2019-20 season.

This year's Lions are built with a focus on depth. LMU has six players averaging between 9.3 and 14.4 points per game. Seven of players on this year's team average between 19.8 and 28.3 minutes per game. The Lions are second in the conference at 27 bench points per game.

Dominick Harris continues to lead the WCC from long range. Harris is making a leaguebest 2.53 threes per game at a conference-leading 41 percent from three.

LMU leads the league in getting to the free throw line and made free throws, averaging 20.4 attempts per game with over 14 makes.

San Francisco leads the WCC in several statistical categories, including a top-10 national field goal percentage at just shy of 50 percent. No conference team records more steals than the Dons, which will be paired against LMU's ball control. The Lions turn the ball over 11.5 times per game, which is second in the conference.

CBS Sports Network will broadcast the game on television and across its digital platform. Carter Blackburn and Pete Gillen have the call for CBS Sports Network. Jesse Kass returns as the voice of LMU Men's Basketball and can also be heard on KXLU 88.9 FM Los Angeles.

LMU 2023-24 LMU GAME NOTES WHAT EXCITES US

RAISE THE STANDARD

Coach Stan Johnson is changing the culture of LMU Men's Basketball in what he called "A New Standard" in his first season. Now, he is in his fourth year and taking it to the next level in what he refers to as "Raise The Standard". This approach includes connecting with people around the campus and alumni community in new and innovative ways. Through his monthly blog, facility renovations, and meeting students and facultily on campus, Coach Stan Johnson is putting his mark on the program.

Standard

TRANSFER MARKET IN 2023-24

This offseason, Coach Stan Johnson's roster brought in a number of new players to help build a team that finished with 19 wins and fourth in the WCC just a season ago.

Issues Addressed:

Guard Depth - Last year, LMU's Cam Shelton led the conference with over 21 points per game. Now that he has graduated, Coach Johnson brought in four high-level guards that can all contiribute either as starters or off the bench, and can score, pass, and run.

Justice "Juice" Hill - Maybe the quickest player in the country, Juice led Murray State to the NCAA Tournament in 2022 after a season in which he was named First Team All-OVC, NABC All-District 18, OVC All-Tournament, and OVC Tournament MVP.

Will Johnston - Don't sleep on this JUCO product turned Division I scorer. In his first season at Division 1 last year, Johnston led UTRGV in three pointers, assists, assist-toturnover ratio, and free throw percentage.

Justin Wright - A scorer and a winner. Wright scored 16.1 points per game last season on 47.3 percent shooting to lead North Carolina Central to MEAC semi-finals and earn All-Tournament honors.

Dominick Harris - After three seasons at Gonzaga, Dom Harris has returned home to Southern California and is ready to proove why he was a decorated high school career that inlcuded being named a 2020 McDonald's All-American Game Nominee.

Center Depth - In 2022-23, LMU brought in a pair of centers to fill a need and move Keli Leaupepe back to his natural position of power forward. This season, the Lions added even more height with the addition of another 7-footer.

Lars Thiemann - A four-year player in the Pac-12, Thiemann started 70 games and played in over 120 while at Cal. The 7-1 German is coming off a career year which included high marks in scoring, rebounding, blocks, and minutes played.

LEAUPEPE'S IMPRESSIVE CAREER

The man with the mullet, Keli Leaupepe became a member of the 1,000+ point and 500+ rebound milestone during his fourth season of play at LMU. Even before electing to use his fifth year of eligibility, the Aussie has been a staple in the LMU lineup between 2019 and 2023. Leaupepe is a two-time All-WCC Honorable Mention team performer and a member of the WCC All-Academic team, and ranks 25th all-time in scoring, 30th all-time in field goals made, 12th all-time in field goals made, 12th all-time in field goal percentage, and sixth all-time in 3-point field goal percentage. At 6-6, Leaupepe played the 3, 4, and 5 while with the Lions and grabbed the 22nd most rebounds through his first four years.

BOXING THIS SUMMER

As part of the offseason program, Coach Stan Johnson brought the guys to a series of boxing trainings to work on speed, agility, power, fitness, and more. Everyone from players to coaches looked forward to the summer Friday program and stepping into the ring with their brothers.

2023-24 LMU GAME NOTES GET TO KNOW US OFF THE COURT

COACH STAN JOHNSON ESCAPED WAR

At 10 years old, Head Coach Stan Johnson and his family escaped a civil war that broke out in his home country of Liberia, West Africa. With his younger brother and sister, Stan and his family relocated to Salt Lake City, Utah where his dad was able to find work.

RICK ISSANZA HASN'T SEEN HIS FAMILY IN OVER 14 YEARS

At 7-1, Rick Issanza has different perspective than most. For Issanza, now in his first year at LMU after transferring in from University of Oklahoma, he hasn't seen one thing that most of his teammates have in a long time. It has been over 13 years that Rick has seen his family in person. After attending high school in Arizona, where he learned English as his fourth language, Issanza enrolled at Oklahoma for two years before becoming a Lion in Los Angeles. His family in Congo has never seen him play basketball, but Issanza is hoping that a reunion will come soon.

Issanza's Four Languages

- Lingala is a language which gained its modern form in the colonial period, with the push of missionaries to standardize and teach a local lingua franca. It was originally spoken in the upper Congo river area but rapidly spread to the middle Congo area and eventually became the major Bantu language in Kinshasa.
- Tshiluba is chiefly spoken in a large area in the Kasaï Occidental and Kasaï Oriental provinces of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. However, the differences in Tshiluba within the area are minor, consisting mostly of differences in tones and vocabulary, and speakers easily understand one another. Both dialects have subdialects.
- French is the official language of the country since its colonial period under Belgian rule. Therefore, the variety of French used in the DRC has many similarities with Belgian French. French has been maintained as the official language since the time of independence because it is widely spoken in the capital of the country-Kinshasa.
- English is Issanza's fourth language, which he learned after moving to the United States in high school.

DIET AND MIND

This offseason, Coach Stan Johnson also dressed two significant areas that go into building a winning team. The LMU men's basketball program added experts in the their fields with the addition of Dietitian Shannon Kelly and Mental Performance Coach Russ Rauch. Both have started quickly and are constantly working with the players to get their bodies and minds right for the long college basketball season.

RAISING THE ACADEMIC STANDARD

LMU's academic records across the board: Four Dean's List Member and Team-Record GPA

2024 WCC TOURNAMENT

 The 2024 University Credit Union WCC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament will be held from March 7-12, with the men's and women's champion earning an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

• This is the first season that the WCC men's basketball schedule has returned to a true round robin since the 2015-16 season. All nine teams will play each opponent twice in conference play, one time at home and one time on the road. The WCC Championship seeding will be based on the final records at the conclusion of the regular season. The top two seeds will receive a triple-bye to the tournament semifinals, the third and fourth place teams will receive a double-bye to the quarterfinals, and the fifth, sixth, and seventh, place teams will receive a single bye.

DAVID CARTER HAS 98 WINS AS HEAD COACH OF NEVADA

When Stan Johnson was hired, he wanted to make sure to bring in coaches with elite experience. One of those hires was former head coach of University of Nevada, David Carter. His resume includes a conference championship and 98 wins as a head coach.

2023-24 LMU GAME NOTES

Stan Johnson Head Coach

Loyola Marymount University named Stan Johnson as its new men's basket-ball head coach on March 20, 2020.

In Johnson's third season at LMU, he did something that no other coach in West Coast Conference history has ever done. Johnson's Lions beat Gonzaga, Saint Mary's, and BYU all in the same season, with two of those wins coming with the Zags and Gaels holding top-15 rankings. The Lions earned the highest ranked win in program history on Jan. 19, 2023, by defeating the sixth-ranked Gonzaga Bulldogs in Spokane and ending GU's 75-game home win streak, run of 93 straight wins over unranked teams, and 25 consecutive wins over the Lions. Johnson's Lions beat their second nationally ranked team on Feb. 9, 2023, as LMU defended home court and beat 15th-ranked Saint Mary's at Gersten Pavilion becoming the first LMU basketball team with multiple wins over top-15 programs and multiple wins over ranked teams for the first time in over a decade. In total, LMU beat four NCAA Tournament teams in 2022-23, with LMU defeating both Nevada and Grand Canyon in consecutive games in the non-conference. The Lions also won the Jamaica Classic in November of 2022 with wins over Georgetown and Wake Forest in Montego Bay.

LMU won 19 games in Johnson's third year, the third-most since 1990. By the numbers, 2022-23 saw achievements that few LMU team had done in over three decades. The Lions won 10 non-conference games for just the third time since 1988 and won nine WCC contests for the second time since 1991. The success in conference play resulted in a fourth-place finish and LMU's first double-bye into the WCC Tournament in 11 seasons. Johnson is the first LMU coach with a third and fourth place finish on his resume since 1992.

Under Johnson's tutelage, Cam Shelton was named to the All-WCC First Team after leading the WCC in overall scoring at 21.23 ppg and scoring in conference games at 23.31 ppg. Shelton had the most 30-point games in the WCC in 2022-23 and became the first LMU player since Terrell Lowery in 1992 to score 40-points in a game. Shelton was WCC Player of the Week three times, named as a Lou Henson Award National Player of the Year finalist, and was named the Lou Henson Award National Player of the Week after leading LMU to the win over Gonzaga in Spokane.

Keli Leaupepe was named to the WCC Honorable Mention Team, and both of Johnson's captains, Shelton and Leaupepe, were named to the WCC All-Academic Team. The Lions set another new program-record team GPA in Winter of 2022 and had four players make the Dean's List that semester.

The 2020-21 season saw meteoric growths across the board for LMU men's basketball. The Lions finished in the top three of the West Coast Conference standings for the first time since 2005-06. In his first season as head coach, Stan Johnson guided his team through the COVID-19 pandemic and posted a winning record in the WCC for the first time since 2011-12.

LMU has posted a top-100 ranking in the NCAA's NET, college basketball's comprehensive metric that takes into account record, quality opponents faced, and game location, among others. LMU's 95 ranking is the highest NET (or RPI at that time) since the Elite Eight season of 1990.

Four Lions received All-WCC recognition this season, including Eli Scott's selection as a First Team All-Conference selection, Jalin Anderson being named to the All-Freshman team, and Dameane Douglas and Keli Leaupepe each receiving honorable mention team selections. As a team, the Lions posted the most 20+ point wins since 1990-91.

Johnson coached five seasons at Marquette University and was promoted to associate head coach in June of 2017 after helping guide the Golden Eagles to a NCAA tournament trip in 2016-17. Marquette also made a run to the NIT quarterfinals in 2017-18 and returned to the NCAAs in 2018-19.

Johnson arrived in Milwaukee after working the previous two seasons at Arizona State and was on the opposing bench in a pair of matchups against the Golden Eagles. The Sun Devils, who went 16-1 at home, participated in the NCAA tournament in 2013-14 in his first campaign with the program and earned a spot in the National Invitation Tournament in 2014-15.

Education: Bimidji State University (2002-03)

Southern Utah University (1998-2001), B.A. in Communication '03 Family: He and his wife Brittany have three children, Brooklynn, Myles and Braylon.

Johnson also spent two seasons (2011-13) at Drake University after a three-year stint at the University of Utah, which advanced to the NCAA tournament in 2009. During his two seasons at Drake, he helped coach Ben Simons and Joey King to Missouri Valley Conference honors with Simons earning All-MVC second-team honors each of the final two seasons and King earning all-freshman honors in 2012-13. In Johnson's first season with the Bulldogs in 2011-12 he helped guide Drake to its second-highest conference finish (tied for third) since 1986, and a victory in the postseason for the first time since 1975. Two Bulldogs were named second-team All-Missouri Valley Conference (Simons and Rayvonte Rice), and Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team.

During his three-year stay at Utah, Johnson was part of a staff that coached the Utes in 2008-09 to a 24-10 record, a share of the Mountain West Conference Championship and the postseason conference tournament title. Utah finished the season ranked No. 25 in the AP poll and earned a No. 5 seed in the Midwest Region, at the time the highest seed ever given to a Mountain West team.

Johnson came to Utah after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Cal State Northridge in 2007-08. The Matadors finished 20-10 overall and earned a share of their first Big West Conference regular season championship with Johnson on the staff.

Prior to his year at Cal State Northridge, Johnson spent three seasons (2004-07) on the bench at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo. The Bearcats were 50-30 in that period, with three-consecutive winning seasons for the first time in school history. The 2005-06 squad posted a 27-5 record, including a school-record 14 wins in a row to open the season. Southwest Baptist captured the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association title that year and made a trip to the NCAA Division II tournament, finishing No. 6 in the national rankings.

Johnson started his coaching career at Bemidji (Minn.) State University in 2003-04. In his lone season at Bemidji, Johnson helped coach the Beavers to a 20-10 mark and their first-ever 20-win season. Bemidji State was 14-2 in conference play that season, earning a berth to the NCAA Division II tournament and leading the nation in 3-pointers per game, with 11.7.

As a player, Johnson was a three-year letterman at Southern Utah University. He was a team captain and starter in 2000- 01 and helped lead the Thunderbirds to the Mid-Continent Conference (now Summit League) title and a berth in the NCAA tournament, where they dropped a close 68-65 decision to No. 3 seed Boston College. Johnson was a three-time member of the Mid-Continent Conference All-Academic Team and earned a bachelor's degree in communication from SUU in 2003.

Johnson played his senior season of college basketball at Bemidji State (2002-03), where he served as a team captain and earned honorable mention all-conference accolades. He averaged 13.5 points and distributed a team-high 114 assists during his one season with the Beavers.

Johnson is a graduate of Taylorsville (Utah) High School. He and his wife Brittany have three children, Brooklynn, Myles and Braylon.
