UTAH STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL DEFEATS SANTA CLARA IN NON-CONFERENCE ROAD FINALE

SANTA CLARA, Calif - Utah State men's basketball (10-1, 0-0 MW) wrapped up its non-conference road slate with an 84-82 win over Santa Clara (7-4, 0-0 WCC) Wednesday evening at the Leavey Center.

Led by a career-best 28-point scoring performance by senior guard Ian Martinez, the Aggies picked up their ninth-straight win to improve to 10-1 overall, matching the team's best start to a year since the 2012-13 season. This is also the best coaching start in program history for first-year head coach Danny Sprinkle, who surpassed the previous best mark of 9-1, set by Ladell Andersen in 1961-62.

After getting off to a sluggish offensive start and making just one of its first 11 shots of the night, Utah State relied on defense as it forced 10 Santa Clara turnovers in the first 20 minutes of action to remain in the contest. Martinez sparked the Aggie offense as he matched his season-high of 15 points on an efficient 6-of-9 shooting from the floor and 3-of-5 shooting from 3-point range in just 16 first-half minutes.

Graduate guard Darius Brown II also got off to a strong start for USU, going for 11 points in the first half as Aggies made eight of their final nine shots of the half to hit the locker room with a 43-43 tie. Brown would be the second Utah State player to finish with 20-plus points as he finished the night with a season-high 23 points to go along with four boards and a team-high seven assists.

The second half featured nine ties and seven lead changes as the teams exchanged baskets throughout. The Aggies opened up their largest lead of the contest with an 80-75 advantage with 1:03 remaining, and remained on top with four made free throws by Martinez in the final 21 seconds.

On the night, Utah State scored 21 points off of 19 Santa Clara turnovers, while committing just nine turnovers itself. The Aggies tallied 10 steals, including four from Brown and three from Martinez.

The Aggies dominated the offensive glass, bringing down a season-high 17 offensive boards while limiting the Broncos to just four. Junior Wing Great Osobor led the team's rebounding efforts with 10 boards to go along with nine points, as he fell just a point shy of his sixth double-double of the season.

USU shot 37.3 percent (28-of-75) from the field, 39.3 percent (11-of-28) from downtown and 68.0 (17-of-25) at the charity stripe. The Broncos shot 57.1 percent (32-of-56) from the field, 42.1 percent (8-of-19) from 3-point range and 76.9 percent (10-of-13) at the free-throw line.

Santa Clara was paced by Adama Bal, who finished the night with a team-high 18 points.

DANNY SPRINKLE

Head Coach • 91-44 (Five Seasons) • First Season at Utah State • Montana State (2000)(1996)

Danny Sprinkle was named the head men's basketball coach at Utah State on April 7, 2023. Sprinkle is 91-44 (.674) in five years as a head coach and has 23 years of collegiate coaching experience.

Sprinkle comes to Utah State after spending the past four years as the head coach at Montana State, leading the Bobcats to an 81-43 (.653) record, including 49-23 (.681) in the Big Sky Conference. He led MSU to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2022 and 2023 as the Bobcats were the regular season Big Sky Champions in 2022 and won the Big Sky Tournament in both the 2022 and 2023 campaigns. It was just the fourth- and fifth-ever NCAA Tournament appearances in program history and first since 1996.

In his four years at Montana State, Sprinkle led the Bobcats to back-to-back Big Sky Championships and three-straight conference championship game appearances for the first time in school history, and consecutive 25-win seasons for the first time since 1927-29.

This past season, Sprinkle led Montana State to a 25-10 overall record and its second-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked the first time the Bobcats had back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1994-96. Three Bobcats earned all-conference honors, while two players garnered individual accolades (Defensive Player of the Year and Top Reserve). Two Montana State players earned all-tournament honors, including Big Sky Tournament MVP RaeQuan Battle.

In 2021-22, Montana State wrapped up a 27-8 overall record and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament in 26 years after winning both the Big Sky regular season and tournament championships. The 27 victories were the most for the program since the Golden Bobcats era, which saw the 1928 and 1929 teams each go 36-2, while the 1927 squad went 30-7.

Sprinkle was honored for his 2021-22 squad's achievements by being named the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year. He also was named a Hugh Durham Award finalist, presented annually to the top Division I mid-major coach in college basketball. MSU also finished the season in the CollegeInsider.Com Men's Mid-Major Top 25 poll for the first time in 20 years.

Montana State's rise among its Big Sky peers was on display to end the 2020-21 season as the Bobcats returned to the Big Sky Conference tournament championship game for the first time in 12 years. Sprinkle became the first Montana State head coach to lead the program to the Big Sky Championship game during his opening two seasons at the helm. The Bobcats had three players selected to all-Big Sky Conference teams, which were the most for Montana State since 2006.

Sprinkle's tenure got off to a strong start as MSU completed its 2019-20 schedule with a 16-15 overall record, its first winning record in 10 years. The 16 wins tied for the most for the program since the 2001-02 season, which had been the last year MSU won a Big Sky regular season title. He was named a finalist for the 2020 Joe B. Hall Award, which is given annually to the nation's top first-year coach in Division I college basketball.

A Helena (Montana) High School graduate, Sprinkle's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at CSUN in 2000-01. He spent five more seasons with the Matadors before spending two years in Bozeman as an assistant coach. Sprinkle returned to CSUN for five more season as an assistant coach and then spent six seasons as an assistant at Cal State Fullerton.

Sprinkle added duties as recruiting coordinator at each of his coaching stops. He helped lead Cal State Fullerton to the NCAA Tournament in 2018 for just the third time in program history. The year before that, the Titans competed in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament. He was also part of CSUN's 2001 and 2009 NCAA Tournament teams, with the Matadors winning the Big Sky regular season crown in 2001 and the Big West title in 2009.

As a Bobcat freshman in 1996, Sprinkle was a starter during the team's magical run to Big Sky regular season and tournament championships, landing all-Big Sky Tournament honors for his 30-point performance in the championship game. Sprinkle earned Big Sky Freshman of the Year honors in 1996 and was all-league three consecutive seasons, including his first-team selection in 1997. He held the MSU career and season 3-point records upon graduation and remains the ninth-leading scorer in school history with 1,497 points. Sprinkle was a member of the 1996 team inducted into the Montana State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006 and was formally inducted for his individual efforts in 2021.

Born in Pullman, Washington, Sprinkle enjoyed an outstanding career at Helena HS, which included earning all-state honors twice in basketball, while also competing in football and track. He graduated from Montana State in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in health and human development.
