THE OPENING TIP

- The University of San Francisco women's basketball team, coming off a 22-point victory over UC Santa Barbara in the home opener, returns to the Hilltop to take on Portland State at 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 12 at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center.
- San Francisco enters the second week of the season with a record of 1-1 after defeating UC Santa Barbara, 53-37, on Saturday, Nov. 9. Debora dos Santos led the team in scoring with 14 points on 57.1 percent shooting and grabbed nine rebounds.
- In a team-high 32 minutes, Freja Werth and Angeliki Ziaka combined for 17 points, while Ziaka added four blocks and three steals.
- Emma Trawally Porta led the Dons in rebounding, collecting 10 and adding five offensive boards. Trawally Porta was also active offensively, scoring nine points and leading the team with two three-pointers.
- Portland State dropped its season opener at home, falling to Hawaii, 72-50, on Saturday, Nov. 9, at Viking Pavilion.
- Jamia Carter led the Vikings offensively against the Rainbow Wahine, scoring 15 points as she was the lone player to reach double figures.
- Defensively, Rhema Ogele recorded nine rebounds to lead the team, while Laynee Torres-Kahapea posted four steals and a block.
- San Francisco and Portland State have faced off three times in program history, with the Dons holding a 2-1 advantage. The Dons handled the Vikings last season, earning a 74-63 win on the road.

MOLLY GOODENBOUR

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO:

Molly Goodenbour, a two-time national champion at Stanford with over a decade of head coaching experience on the collegiate level, was named the ninth head coach in University of San Francisco women's basketball history on Sept. 28, 2016. This is Goodenbour's third coaching stint on the Hilltop, where she served as an assistant coach with the Dons during the 1994-95 and 2005-06 seasons.

In 2023-24, Goodenbour led San Francisco to a second-half resurgence as the team finished in a tie for third place in the West Coast Conference standings after starting the season with a 4-9 record. The program posted double-digit victories in WCC play for the fifth time in Goodenbour's tenure as the team finished at 10-6, highlighted by season sweeps of Pacific, Saint Mary's, Pepperdine, and LMU.

San Francisco also finished the season strong, rolling eventual WCC Tournament Champions Portland on the road, earning a 59-47 victory at Chiles Center. Under Goodenbour's guidance, Jasmine Gayles and Debora dos Santos earned All-WCC First Team honors. Dos Santos recorded a career season, averaging a double-double with 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, while Gayles led the squad in scoring at 16.8 points per game. Gayles also recorded the second 40-point game in program history, dropping 40 points in an 81-68 win at Pacific on January 13.

The 2022-23 season, under Goodenbour's leadership, concluded with an overall record of 19-13. Three Dons earned All-WCC selections, while two Dons earned WCC All-Academic Honors. The Dons also participated in their third straight WNIT.

Within the first six years on the Hilltop, Goodenbour posted impressive numbers, including becoming the winningest coach in San Francisco history through 50 games (27-23), as well as through two seasons at 34-28 (.548). Goodenbour quickly built up her impressive resume at USF, becoming the first coach to post winning overall and conference records in her first two seasons on the job.

Building off the program's strong start to the new decade, the Dons were once again punching a postseason ticket as they battled through a grueling non-conference schedule that kept them away from the Hilltop from Thanksgiving until after New Year's Day. Following an 0-4 start to WCC play, battling through injuries and COVID-19-related pauses, the Dons went on to rattle off wins in six of their next seven games and finished with the third seed heading into the WCC Tournament. USF would go on to defeat Santa Clara in Vegas before returning home to host Air Force in the WNIT. Since the start of the 2020-21 season, Goodenbour's Dons have made consecutive WNIT appearances and won at least one game in back-to-back WCC Tournaments. Led by two-time All-WCC First Team selection Ioanna Krimili, USF's 2020-21 team led the conference in total points and points per game while being a top-four program in team plus/minus.

Goodenbour's third WCC Tournament in 2019 saw her lead the Dons to a first-round victory over Portland, marking the seventh year in a row the Dons advanced beyond their opening game. Goodenbour's 2017-18 squad placed three WCC All-Conference and All-Academic honorees. Anna Seilund earned First-Team All-WCC and Second-Team All-WCC recipients Michaela Rakova and Kalya Simon.

She finished her first year on the Hilltop in 2016-17 with an 18-13 overall record that included an 11-7 mark in West Coast Conference play, enough for a fourth-place finish, the Dons' highest since the 2002-03 season. In the process, Goodenbour became the first USF head coach since Sue Rojewicz in 1982-83 to post a winning record in her first year at the helm and compiled the second-best record by a first-year coach in program history. In addition, USF's 11 WCC wins under Goodenbour were the most since the 1996-97 campaign. Under Goodenbour, the Dons led the conference in free-throw percentage at 77.8%, which stands as the best single-season percentage in program history. Goodenbour's team also led the WCC in 3-point shooting (34.6%) in 2016-17.

Their 217 three-pointers made were the most in program history, including a program-best 15 3s in a win over Portland on Feb. 18, 2017. Goodenbour's squad placed four student-athletes on the WCC All-Academic team in 2016-17 and boasted a pair of All-WCC honorees in first-teamer Rachel Howard and second-team recipient Anna Seilund.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Goodenbour came to USF from Cal State East Bay, where she was named head coach in June of 2016. She has previous head coaching experience at Santa Rosa Junior College, Cal State-Chico, UC Irvine, and Cal-State Dominguez Hills. Her overall career record, including two seasons at Santa Rosa JC, stands at 222-142 (.610).

Before her appointment at Cal State-East Bay, Goodenbour spent four seasons as the head coach at Cal State-Dominguez Hills. After taking over a program that had posted a 7-48 record in the previous two seasons, Goodenbour led the Toros to a 77-34 (.694) record in her four seasons. Under her guidance, the Toros won California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Tournament Championships in 2013-14 and 2014-15 and CCAA regular season titles in 2014-15 and 2015-16 and made three consecutive NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship appearances from 2013-16. Her 2014-15 squad won a school-record 26 games and earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional.

Goodenbour began her career at Santa Rosa Junior College in 2002-03. After one season as an associate head coach, she took over the head coaching duties for two seasons (2003-05), leading the Bear Cubs to a 69-21 record, two conference championships, and a quarterfinal appearance in the California state championship.

Her second coaching stint at San Francisco came during the 2005-06 season when she served as an assistant on Mary Hile-Nepfel's staff. Following the season, she was appointed head coach at Chico State where she led the Wildcats to a 52-11 record and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2007-08, she was named the CCAA's Coach of the Year after guiding her team to a 28-6 overall record, regular season and conference tournament titles along with a Sweet 16 appearance. The Wildcats finished the year ranked No. 17 in the nation among all Division II teams.

Goodenbour's first Division I head coaching job came at UC Irvine, where she served as the Anteater's coach from 2008-12. The Anteaters qualified for the Big West Tournament in her four seasons at the helm, posting the highest single-season win total (15 in 2010-11) in nearly a decade and had eight players earn all-conference honors during her four-year tenure.

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS:

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Goodenbour was a standout performer at Stanford, where she was a four-year letterwinner under Tara VanDerveer from 1989-93. She helped the Cardinal to four straight Pac-10 championships, three NCAA Final Fours, and a pair of NCAA Championships in 1990 and 1992. Goodenbour was named the most valuable player of the 1992 Final Four after setting an NCAA Tournament record for most postseason three-pointers made with 18. She finished her collegiate career with 1,040 points and still ranks among the school's career top-10 in three-pointers made (178), assists (441), and free throw percentage (.793).

She embarked on her professional playing career in 1995-96 with Linkspring of the Swedish Basketball Federation. A year later, Goodenbour returned to the United States, where she played for the Richmond Rage (1996-97) and Portland Power (1997-98) of the American Basketball League. She also played one season with the WNBA's Sacramento Monarchs before retiring to pursue her coaching career.

OTHER NOTABLES:

After graduating from Stanford with a degree in biology, Goodenbour was selected to the U.S. National team, which won a gold medal at the 1993 World Championship Qualifying Tournament in Brazil.

Goodenbour is married to Pat Fuscaldo, a former USF men's assistant coach who also served as head men's basketball coach at Sonoma State University for 26 seasons.

GAME ONE NOTES:*THEY TURNED THE SEASON AROUND:

Despite a slow start to the 2023-24 season, starting 4-9, San Francisco strung together 10 wins in the following 16 games to finish the regular season 14-15 to finish in a tie for third place in the WCC standings. Despite earning the No. 4 seed in the West Coast Conference Tournament, the green and gold ultimately fell to Pacific 76-71 in the quarterfinal round.

DOUBLE-DIGIT LEAGUE WINS:

San Francisco finished the 2023-24 season in a tie for third place in the WCC standings with a 10-6 record. The Dons' 10 wins marks the 11th time in program history the team has accumulated a double-digit win total in league play.

CONSISTENCY LED TO SUCCESS:

In all 16 WCC games, San Francisco used the same starting lineup of Luana Leite, Jasmine Gayles, Cami Fulcher, Freja Werth, and Debora dos Santos. During league play, the starters contributed to 86 percent of the team's scoring, averaging 57 points per game. As a team, the Dons averaged 66.3 points per game during WCC play.

2023-24 WCC ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS:

Jasmine Gayles and Debora dos Santos earned WCC All-Conference First Team honors at the end of the 2023-24 regular season, becoming the first two players to receive First Team recognition in the same season since 2005 when Mary Jane Krueger and Dominique Carter made the All-WCC First Team.

DOS SANTOS HAD A CAREER YEAR:

Debora dos Santos posted career numbers during the 2023-24 season, finishing the campaign averaging 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game. Becoming the only player in the WCC to average a double-double last season, dos Santos also ranked nationally in total rebounds (33rd - 317), rebounds per game (t-15th - 10.6), and double-doubles (t-19th - 17).

A force on the offensive end, dos Santos totaled 25 double-digit scoring performances, reaching the 20-point threshold seven times, including three straight to end the season against Saint Mary's, San Diego, and Pacific.

She also contributed on the boards, posting double figures in rebounding 19 times while ranking first in the WCC in total rebounds at 317. Her career-high 18 rebounds at LMU on January 4, 2024, marked the WCC-single game high for rebounds during the 2023-24 season.

WCC NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR:

In her first season on the Hilltop, Freja Werth established herself as a significant piece to the program's success, serving as the Dons' third-leading scorer at a career-high 9.7 points per game. Earning the start in all 30 games, Werth totaled 15 double-digit scoring performances, including posting a season-high 20 points against Columbia on December 28, knocking down six of her eight attempts from the three-point line in the process.

A strong rebounder, Werth ranked second on the team at 5.7 per game while posting two games with double-digit boards. Notably, she recorded 12 rebounds along with 13 points for her second-career double-double in a 75-70 win over Brown on January 1.

2024-25 SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON NOTES/NEWS

7

NOTABLE RETURNERS:

Notable returners for the Dons include reigning WCC Newcomer of the Year Freja Werth and All-WCC First Team selection Debora dos Santos. Werth ranked third on the team in scoring, averaging 9.9 points per game, while dos Santos averaged 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds, the lone player in the league to average a double-double.

THE NEWCOMERS:

Along with returning 12 players from last season, including four starters, San Francisco welcome graduate transfer Emma Trawally Porta (Detroit Mercy) and true freshmen Angeliki Ziaka (Athens, Greece) and Kiana Moniz (San Francisco, Calif.) as newcomers to the program.

NEW COACHING STAFF:

Following a handful of coaching departures, Molly Goodenbour has hired four new coaches to join her and Associate Head Coach Janell Jones on staff. Jamie Turner (former head coach at Sacramento State and San Jose State), Greg Rahn (former associate head coach at Dominican), Isaac Lu (former head coach at Western Nebraska Community College), and Jasmine Gayles (former player) enter their first season as coaches on the Hilltop.

PICKED TO FINISH SIXTH:

San Francisco, selected sixth in the 2024-25 WCC Preseason Coaches Poll, received 53 points, while Gonzaga (92 points), Washington State (91 points), Portland (84 points), Oregon State (77 points), and Pacific (63 points) were slotted as the league's top teams.

WCC PRESEASON HONORS:

For the fourth consecutive season, a member of the program was named to the West Coast Conference All-Conference Preseason Team. Debora dos Santos earned the honor ahead of the 2024-25 season after averaging a career-best 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game in 30 contents to guide the Dons to a tie for third place in the conference standings.

NONCONFERENCE PLAY IS ON THE ROAD:

San Francisco's eight-game nonconference slate features five true road games and a matchup against Boise State at Chase Center on November 21. The Dons face off against four teams that made postseason appearances, including Columbia (NCAA), Boise State (WNIT), Northern Arizona (WNIT), and Seton Hall (WBIT).

A VETERAN ROSTER:

The 2024-25 San Francisco's roster features eight upperclassmen, seven seniors (Cami Fulcher, Debora dos Santos, Lorena Barbosa, Freja Werth, Aya Keita, Luana Leite, and Mia Vuksic) and one junior (Marina Hernandez). The Dons also have three graduate students on the roster (Emma Trawally Porta, Seynabou Thiam, and Sol Castro).

MORE OPTIONS IN 2024-25:

Last season in 2023-24, San Francisco only had six players on the 13-player roster to compete in all 30 games. Notable players who missed the entire season were Elle Papahronis and Sol Castro, while Mia Vuksic (24 games) and Lorena Barbosa (15 games) also missed time due to injury.

SEASON OPENERS:

Heading into the 2024-25 season, San Francisco has won six of the last eight season openers, with the only losses coming to UC Davis (2020-21) and UC Santa Barbara (2023-24) during the Molly Goodenbour era. In eight season openers, the Dons are averaging 80.9 points per game while holding opponents to 38.9 percent shooting.

AN INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE:

San Francisco features 12 players from countries outside the United States, including Argentina, Brazil, Croatia, Greece, Hungary, Senegal, Spain, and Sweden.

GAME TWO NOTES:*REBOUNDING STOLE THE SHOW:

San Francisco recorded 52 rebounds in the narrow five-point loss at Colorado State to open the season. As a team, the Dons reached the 50-rebound threshold for just the 16th time in the Molly Goodenbour era, and the 52 against the Rams marked the most since recording 53 in an 80-79 win at Santa Clara during the 2022-23 season.

16 OFFENSIVE BOARDS:

Active on the offensive side at Colorado State, San Francisco totaled 16 offensive rebounds, the seventh straight game the Dons have reached double-digit offensive boards dating back to February 15 of the 2023-24 season.

THE DEFENSE HELD ITS GROUND:

San Francisco held Colorado State to just 29.3 percent shooting, the lowest since the team held LMU to 23.6 percent shooting in a 63-38 win on January 1, 2024. The Dons also forced nine turnovers, blocked four shots, and tallied three steals.

FREJA LED THE WAY:

Freja Werth scored a team-high 13 points against Colorado State, shooting four-for-nine from the field. Werth is averaging 14.0 points per game while shooting 54.0 percent (27-for-50) from the field in the last five games.

THE FRESHMAN CAN SHOOT:

Angeliki Ziaka scored her first two collegiate baskets from long range, connecting on two of her four three-point attempts to finish the game with six points.

A SOLID DEBUT FOR EMMA:

Emma Trawally Porta, playing her first game as a Don following three seasons at Detroit Mercy, scored nine points, collected two rebounds, and shot 50 percent from the field. Her shooting percentage marked the second highest in a season opener in her career. She shot 62.5 percent last season, scoring 10 points, against Eastern Michigan on November 6, 2023.

A FAMILIAR FOE:

During her time in the Division II ranks, Molly Goodenbour coached against UC Santa Barbara's Renee Jimenez while Jimenez was at the helm of CSUSB, Cal State Monterey Bay, and Cal State San Marcos. Goodenbour holds a 6-3 overall record over Jimenez in her career at Cal State Dominguez Hills, going 4-1 against CSUSB, 2-0 against Cal State San Marcos, and 0-2 against Cal State Monterey Bay.

GAME THREE NOTES:*SUCCESS IN HOME OPENERS:

Since becoming head coach before the 2016-17 season, Molly Goodenbour has guided San Francisco to an 8-1 record in home openers following the 59-37 win over UC Santa Barbara on Saturday, Nov. 9.

ANOTHER STRONG DEFENSIVE PERFORMANCE:

San Francisco held UC Santa Barbara to 37 points and 20.8 percent (11-for-53) shooting. The last time the Dons had a team to under 40 points and 25 percent shooting was LMU on January 4, 2024, in a 63-38 win at Gersten Pavilion. The Gauchos' 20.8 percent from the field marked the lowest shooting percentage by an opponent of the Molly Goodenbour era.

A SHUT DOWN DEFENDER:

Angeliki Ziaka shut down UC Santa Barbara, as she recorded four blocks and three steals in just her second collegiate game, becoming the first player to record at least four blocks and three steals in a game since Mikayla Williams totaled six blocks and three steals in a 79-61 win over CSUN on November 16, 2019.

ELLE IS ON THE BOARD:

Elle Papahronis scored her first career points in the win over UC Santa Barbara, finishing the game with 10 points while going five-for-six at the free throw line.

DOUBLE-DIGIT REBOUNDS:

Emma Trawally Porta recorded 10 rebounds in the win over UC Santa Barbara, the first time recording double-digit rebounds this season and the 16th time in her career.

SCOUTING THE VIKINGS

BLOWN OUT IN SEASON OPENER:

Portland State enters the week with an 0-1 record after dropping a 72-50 decision to Hawaii at home on Saturday, Nov. 9. The loss marked the first time the Vikings dropped their season opener since the 2017-18 season when the team lost at UNLV 88-80 in overtime.

THE ROSTER:

Portland State enters the season with eight newcomers, joining eight returning players from last season's roster. Ogele and Alaya Fitzgerald will be starting for a fourth straight season, while Lana Wenger enters her second year in the Vikings' starting five.

A DOUBLE-DIGIT SCORER:

Jamia Carter led the Vikings offensively against Hawaii, scoring 15 points as she was the lone player to reach double figures. Carter, a community college transfer, played two seasons at Seward County Community College and Salt Lake Community College before coming to Portland State.

A HIGH END RETURNER:

Rhema Ogele returns as the team's second-leading scorer from a season ago, averaging 9.7 points per game while shooting 51.3 percent from the field. Ogele reached double figures 11 times during the 2023-24 season, including recording a season-high 27 in the first round of the Big Sky Tournament against Weber State. In the loss to the Rainbow Wahine, Ogele scored eight points and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds.

SERIES HISTORY

- San Francisco holds a 2-1 advantage against Portland State in three all-time meetings. Following a 36-year hiatus, the Dons earned a 74-63 victory last season on the road, the lone win for the Dons at Viking Pavilion on December 16, 2023.
- In the win last season, Luana Leite led the Dons offensively, scoring a season-high 23 points while shooting 64.2 percent (nine-for-14) from the field.
- Debora dos Santos added a 19-point, 17-rebound double-double in the win over the Vikings, shooting 61.5 percent (eight-for-13) from the field.
- Previous to the meeting last season, San Francisco and Portland State faced off two other times during the 1983-84 and 1987-88 seasons. The Dons won the first-ever meeting, 70-61 in 1983, on the Hilltop.

SAN FRANCISCO NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY*1995*NCAA First Round – March 16, 1995 - Seattle, Wash.

Arkansas 67, San Francisco 58

USF made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1995 as the No. 11 seed in the West Region. The Dons traveled to the University of Washington in Seattle to face Arkansas. Brittany Lindhe led the way with 21 points, while Jamie Shadian and Renee Demirdjian each added 11 as the Dons got its first taste of the Dance.

Team highlights:

16-game winning streak • Finished with a 24-5 overall record • West Coast Conference Champions • Posted a perfect 13-0 record at home • Program's first NCAA appearance

1996*NCAA First Round – March 16, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

San Francisco 68, No. 16 Florida 51

San Francisco earned its second NCAA appearance as the No. 12 seed in the Mideast Region. The Dons started their Cinderella run with a 68-61 victory over then-No. 16 Florida. Valerie Gillon dominated with a 28-point, nine-rebound performance, while Andrea Kagie added 15 points off the bench. USF led 31-29 at halftime and never trailed in the second half.

NCAA Second Round – March 18, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

San Francisco 64, No. 13 Duke 60

San Francisco garnered the biggest win in school history as the Dons shocked regional host, then-No. 13 Duke, 64-60, at Cameron Indoor Stadium. For the Blue Devils, it was the first non-conference loss at home since 1991. Brittany Lindhe led the Dons with 17 points, Julie Murgent scored 14 points off the bench, and Renee Demirdjian added a dozen in the victory.

NCAA Sweet Sixteen – March 23, 1996 - Chicago, Ill.

No. 2 Connecticut 72, San Francisco 44

The eyes of the country were on San Francisco as the team faced defending national champions, Connecticut, in the Sweet Sixteen. In front of the largest crowd (7,190) to watch a women's basketball game in Illinois, the Dons fell short, dropping the 72-44 decision to the Huskies. The game was tied 13-13 midway through the first half before UConn pulled away for a 37-28 halftime lead. Valerie Gillon scored 13 points in her final collegiate contest, while Julie Murgent came off the bench to add 10 points.

Team highlights:

NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance, its longest run in the tournament in USF history • Ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today/CNN women's basketball poll • NCAA Tournament wins over nationally ranked Duke and Florida • WCC Tournament Champions • WCC Regular Season Co-Champions • Nine- and seven-game winning streaks • Single-season records for blocks (147) and rebounds (1,302) • Won 20 of the final 23 contests • Played before four crowds of 3,500 or more • posted a final record of 24-8, and a 12-2 WCC record

1997*NCAA First Round – March 15, 1997 - Gainesville, Fla.

Southern California 68, San Francisco 55

The Dons were awarded a No. 11 seed in the Mideast Region and were slated to face No. 6 USC in the opening round. San Francisco came out of the gates strong and trailed by only six at halftime. The Dons eventually fell 68-55 to the Women of Troy. Brittany Lindhe paced USF with 15 points, while Renee Demirdjian added 13 in her final game wearing Green and Gold.

Team Highlights:

Third-straight NCAA appearance • Third-consecutive WCC title • 25-6 overall record, marking third-straight season with at least 24 victories • Three all-WCC First Team selections, marking a program first • Record-setting home attendance, including two games with 4,000 plus fans • Ranked as high as No. 21 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches' Poll • Nine-game winning streak

2016*NCAA First Round - March 19, 2016 - Stanford, Calif.

Stanford 85, San Francisco 58

The Dons' first NCAA appearance in almost a decade was especially poignant given that head coach Jennifer Azzi would be matching up with her former coach at Stanford, Tara Vanderveer. USF garnered a No. 13 seed, but the contest ended up lopsided as the No. 4 seed Cardinal came away with an 85-58 victory on their home floor of Maples Pavilion. Rachel Howard was the Dons' top scorer with 14 points, while Taylor Proctor (13 pts., two reb) and Michaela Rakova (12 pts., four reb) were the other Dons in double figures.
