THE OPENING TIP

- Following the 2024-25 season opener on the road, the University of San Francisco women's basketball team returns to the Hilltop to take on UC Santa Barbara at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9, at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center.
- San Francisco enters the home opener following a narrow 52-47 loss at Colorado State on Monday, Nov. 4, at Moby Arena. Freja Werth led the Dons in scoring, posting 13 points while shooting 44.4 percent (four-for-nine) from the field. Werth was also active on the glass, tying Debora dos Santos in rebounding with a game-high nine.
- The team had a solid defensive presence during the contest, holding the Rams to just 29.3 percent shooting, the lowest since the team held LMU to 23.6 percent shooting in a 63-38 win on January 1, 2024. The Dons also forced nine turnovers, blocked four shots, and tallied three steals, led by Emma Trawally Porta and Sol Castro, posting two blocks apiece.
- UC Santa Barbara is coming off a 44-point win at home, defeating Claremont-Mudd-Scripps, a Division III program, 70-26 on Wednesday, Nov. 6. Four players reached double figures for the Gauchos, with Anya Choice and Jessica Grant posting 12 points apiece.
- Defensively, Laurel Rockwood led the team with 10 rebounds, while Skylar Burke and Zoe Borter combined for four steals and four blocks.
- San Francisco and UC Santa Barbara have faced off nine times in program history, with the Dons holding a narrow 5-4 advantage. The Gauchos have held the recent success, winning four in a row, including an 87-75 win over the Dons on November 7, 2023, at The Thunderdome.

MOLLY GOODENBOUR

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO:

Molly Goodenbour, a two-time national champion at Stanford with over a decade of head coaching experience on the collegiate level, was named the ninth head coach in University of San Francisco women's basketball history on Sept. 28, 2016. This is Goodenbour's third coaching stint on the Hilltop, where she served as an assistant coach with the Dons during the 1994-95 and 2005-06 seasons.

In 2023-24, Goodenbour led San Francisco to a second-half resurgence as the team finished in a tie for third place in the West Coast Conference standings after starting the season with a 4-9 record. The program posted double-digit victories in WCC play for the fifth time in Goodenbour's tenure as the team finished at 10-6, highlighted by season sweeps of Pacific, Saint Mary's, Pepperdine, and LMU.

San Francisco also finished the season strong, rolling eventual WCC Tournament Champions Portland on the road, earning a 59-47 victory at Chiles Center. Under Goodenbour's guidance, Jasmine Gayles and Debora dos Santos earned All-WCC First Team honors. Dos Santos recorded a career season, averaging a double-double with 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, while Gayles led the squad in scoring at 16.8 points per game. Gayles also recorded the second 40-point game in program history, dropping 40 points in an 81-68 win at Pacific on January 13.

The 2022-23 season, under Goodenbour's leadership, concluded with an overall record of 19-13. Three Dons earned All-WCC selections, while two Dons earned WCC All-Academic Honors. The Dons also participated in their third straight WNIT.

Within the first six years on the Hilltop, Goodenbour posted impressive numbers, including becoming the winningest coach in San Francisco history through 50 games (27-23), as well as through two seasons at 34-28 (.548). Goodenbour quickly built up her impressive resume at USF, becoming the first coach to post winning overall and conference records in her first two seasons on the job.

Building off the program's strong start to the new decade, the Dons were once again punching a postseason ticket as they battled through a grueling non-conference schedule that kept them away from the Hilltop from Thanksgiving until after New Year's Day. Following an 0-4 start to WCC play, battling through injuries and COVID-19-related pauses, the Dons went on to rattle off wins in six of their next seven games and finished with the third seed heading into the WCC Tournament. USF would go on to defeat Santa Clara in Vegas before returning home to host Air Force in the WNIT. Since the start of the 2020-21 season, Goodenbour's Dons have made consecutive WNIT appearances and won at least one game in back-to-back WCC Tournaments. Led by two-time All-WCC First Team selection Ioanna Krimili, USF's 2020-21 team led the conference in total points and points per game while being a top-four program in team plus/minus.

Goodenbour's third WCC Tournament in 2019 saw her lead the Dons to a first-round victory over Portland, marking the seventh year in a row the Dons advanced beyond their opening game. Goodenbour's 2017-18 squad placed three WCC All-Conference and All-Academic honorees. Anna Seilund earned First-Team All-WCC and Second-Team All-WCC recipients Michaela Rakova and Kalya Simon.

She finished her first year on the Hilltop in 2016-17 with an 18-13 overall record that included an 11-7 mark in West Coast Conference play, enough for a fourth-place finish, the Dons' highest since the 2002-03 season. In the process, Goodenbour became the first USF head coach since Sue Rojewicz in 1982-83 to post a winning record in her first year at the helm and compiled the second-best record by a first-year coach in program history. In addition, USF's 11 WCC wins under Goodenbour were the most since the 1996-97 campaign. Under Goodenbour, the Dons led the conference in free-throw percentage at 77.8%, which stands as the best single-season percentage in program history. Goodenbour's team also led the WCC in 3-point shooting (34.6%) in 2016-17.

Their 217 three-pointers made were the most in program history, including a program-best 15 3s in a win over Portland on Feb. 18, 2017. Goodenbour's squad placed four student-athletes on the WCC All-Academic team in 2016-17 and boasted a pair of All-WCC honorees in first-teamer Rachel Howard and second-team recipient Anna Seilund.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Goodenbour came to USF from Cal State East Bay, where she was named head coach in June of 2016. She has previous head coaching experience at Santa Rosa Junior College, Cal State-Chico, UC Irvine, and Cal-State Dominguez Hills. Her overall career record, including two seasons at Santa Rosa JC, stands at 222-142 (.610).

Before her appointment at Cal State-East Bay, Goodenbour spent four seasons as the head coach at Cal State-Dominguez Hills. After taking over a program that had posted a 7-48 record in the previous two seasons, Goodenbour led the Toros to a 77-34 (.694) record in her four seasons. Under her guidance, the Toros won California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Tournament Championships in 2013-14 and 2014-15 and CCAA regular season titles in 2014-15 and 2015-16 and made three consecutive NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship appearances from 2013-16. Her 2014-15 squad won a school-record 26 games and earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional.

Goodenbour began her career at Santa Rosa Junior College in 2002-03. After one season as an associate head coach, she took over the head coaching duties for two seasons (2003-05), leading the Bear Cubs to a 69-21 record, two conference championships, and a quarterfinal appearance in the California state championship.

Her second coaching stint at San Francisco came during the 2005-06 season when she served as an assistant on Mary Hile-Nepfel's staff. Following the season, she was appointed head coach at Chico State where she led the Wildcats to a 52-11 record and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2007-08, she was named the CCAA's Coach of the Year after guiding her team to a 28-6 overall record, regular season and conference tournament titles along with a Sweet 16 appearance. The Wildcats finished the year ranked No. 17 in the nation among all Division II teams.

Goodenbour's first Division I head coaching job came at UC Irvine, where she served as the Anteater's coach from 2008-12. The Anteaters qualified for the Big West Tournament in her four seasons at the helm, posting the highest single-season win total (15 in 2010-11) in nearly a decade and had eight players earn all-conference honors during her four-year tenure.

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS:

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Goodenbour was a standout performer at Stanford, where she was a four-year letterwinner under Tara VanDerveer from 1989-93. She helped the Cardinal to four straight Pac-10 championships, three NCAA Final Fours, and a pair of NCAA Championships in 1990 and 1992. Goodenbour was named the most valuable player of the 1992 Final Four after setting an NCAA Tournament record for most postseason three-pointers made with 18. She finished her collegiate career with 1,040 points and still ranks among the school's career top-10 in three-pointers made (178), assists (441), and free throw percentage (.793).

She embarked on her professional playing career in 1995-96 with Linkspring of the Swedish Basketball Federation. A year later, Goodenbour returned to the United States, where she played for the Richmond Rage (1996-97) and Portland Power (1997-98) of the American Basketball League. She also played one season with the WNBA's Sacramento Monarchs before retiring to pursue her coaching career.

OTHER NOTABLES:

After graduating from Stanford with a degree in biology, Goodenbour was selected to the U.S. National team, which won a gold medal at the 1993 World Championship Qualifying Tournament in Brazil.

Goodenbour is married to Pat Fuscaldo, a former USF men's assistant coach who also served as head men's basketball coach at Sonoma State University for 26 seasons.

GAME ONE NOTES:THEY TURNED THE SEASON AROUND:

Despite a slow start to the 2023-24 season, starting 4-9, San Francisco strung together 10 wins in the following 16 games to finish the regular season 14-15 to finish in a tie for third place in the WCC standings. Despite earning the No. 4 seed in the West Coast Conference Tournament, the green and gold ultimately fell to Pacific 76-71 in the quarterfinal round.

DOUBLE-DIGIT LEAGUE WINS:

San Francisco finished the 2023-24 season in a tie for third place in the WCC standings with a 10-6 record. The Dons' 10 wins marks the 11th time in program history the team has accumulated a double-digit win total in league play.

CONSISTENCY LED TO SUCCESS:

In all 16 WCC games, San Francisco used the same starting lineup of Luana Leite, Jasmine Gayles, Cami Fulcher, Freja Werth, and Debora dos Santos. During league play, the starters contributed to 86 percent of the team's scoring, averaging 57 points per game. As a team, the Dons averaged 66.3 points per game during WCC play.

2023-24 WCC ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS:

Jasmine Gayles and Debora dos Santos earned WCC All-Conference First Team honors at the end of the 2023-24 regular season, becoming the first two players to receive First Team recognition in the same season since 2005 when Mary Jane Krueger and Dominique Carter made the All-WCC First Team.

DOS SANTOS HAD A CAREER YEAR:

Debora dos Santos posted career numbers during the 2023-24 season, finishing the campaign averaging 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game. Becoming the only player in the WCC to average a double-double last season, dos Santos also ranked nationally in total rebounds (33rd - 317), rebounds per game (t-15th - 10.6), and double-doubles (t-19th - 17).

A force on the offensive end, dos Santos totaled 25 double-digit scoring performances, reaching the 20-point threshold seven times, including three straight to end the season against Saint Mary's, San Diego, and Pacific.

She also contributed on the boards, posting double figures in rebounding 19 times while ranking first in the WCC in total rebounds at 317. Her career-high 18 rebounds at LMU on January 4, 2024, marked the WCC-single game high for rebounds during the 2023-24 season.

WCC NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR:

In her first season on the Hilltop, Freja Werth established herself as a significant piece to the program's success, serving as the Dons' third-leading scorer at a career-high 9.7 points per game. Earning the start in all 30 games, Werth totaled 15 double-digit scoring performances, including posting a season-high 20 points against Columbia on December 28, knocking down six of her eight attempts from the three-point line in the process.

A strong rebounder, Werth ranked second on the team at 5.7 per game while posting two games with double-digit boards. Notably, she recorded 12 rebounds along with 13 points for her second-career double-double in a 75-70 win over Brown on January 1.

2024-25 SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON NOTES/NEWS

7

NOTABLE RETURNERS:

Notable returners for the Dons include reigning WCC Newcomer of the Year Freja Werth and All-WCC First Team selection Debora dos Santos. Werth ranked third on the team in scoring, averaging 9.9 points per game, while dos Santos averaged 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds, the lone player in the league to average a double-double.

THE NEWCOMERS:

Along with returning 12 players from last season, including four starters, San Francisco welcome graduate transfer Emma Trawally Porta (Detroit Mercy) and true freshmen Angeliki Ziaka (Athens, Greece) and Kiana Moniz (San Francisco, Calif.) as newcomers to the program.

NEW COACHING STAFF:

Following a handful of coaching departures, Molly Goodenbour has hired four new coaches to join her and Associate Head Coach Janell Jones on staff. Jamie Turner (former head coach at Sacramento State and San Jose State), Greg Rahn (former associate head coach at Dominican), Isaac Lu (former head coach at Western Nebraska Community College), and Jasmine Gayles (former player) enter their first season as coaches on the Hilltop.

PICKED TO FINISH SIXTH:

San Francisco, selected sixth in the 2024-25 WCC Preseason Coaches Poll, received 53 points, while Gonzaga (92 points), Washington State (91 points), Portland (84 points), Oregon State (77 points), and Pacific (63 points) were slotted as the league's top teams.

WCC PRESEASON HONORS:

For the fourth consecutive season, a member of the program was named to the West Coast Conference All-Conference Preseason Team. Debora dos Santos earned the honor ahead of the 2024-25 season after averaging a career-best 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game in 30 contents to guide the Dons to a tie for third place in the conference standings.

NONCONFERENCE PLAY IS ON THE ROAD:

San Francisco's eight-game nonconference slate features five true road games and a matchup against Boise State at Chase Center on November 21. The Dons face off against four teams that made postseason appearances, including Columbia (NCAA), Boise State (WNIT), Northern Arizona (WNIT), and Seton Hall (WBIT).

A VETERAN ROSTER:

The 2024-25 San Francisco's roster features eight upperclassmen, seven seniors (Cami Fulcher, Debora dos Santos, Lorena Barbosa, Freja Werth, Aya Keita, Luana Leite, and Mia Vuksic) and one junior (Marina Hernandez). The Dons also have three graduate students on the roster (Emma Trawally Porta, Seynabou Thiam, and Sol Castro).

MORE OPTIONS IN 2024-25:

Last season in 2023-24, San Francisco only had six players on the 13-player roster to compete in all 30 games. Notable players who missed the entire season were Elle Papahronis and Sol Castro, while Mia Vuksic (24 games) and Lorena Barbosa (15 games) also missed time due to injury.

SEASON OPENERS:

Heading into the 2024-25 season, San Francisco has won six of the last eight season openers, with the only losses coming to UC Davis (2020-21) and UC Santa Barbara (2023-24) during the Molly Goodenbour era. In eight season openers, the Dons are averaging 80.9 points per game while holding opponents to 38.9 percent shooting.

AN INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE:

San Francisco features 12 players from countries outside the United States, including Argentina, Brazil, Croatia, Greece, Hungary, Senegal, Spain, and Sweden.

GAME TWO NOTES:REBOUNDING STOLE THE SHOW:

San Francisco recorded 52 rebounds in the narrow five-point loss at Colorado State to open the season. As a team, the Dons reached the 50-rebound threshold for just the 16th time in the Molly Goodenbour era, and the 52 against the Rams marked the most since recording 53 in an 80-79 win at Santa Clara during the 2022-23 season.

16 OFFENSIVE BOARDS:

Active on the offensive side at Colorado State, San Francisco totaled 16 offensive rebounds, the seventh straight game the Dons have reached double-digit offensive boards dating back to February 15 of the 2023-24 season.

THE DEFENSE HELD ITS GROUND:

San Francisco held Colorado State to just 29.3 percent shooting, the lowest since the team held LMU to 23.6 percent shooting in a 63-38 win on January 1, 2024. The Dons also forced nine turnovers, blocked four shots, and tallied three steals.

FREJA LED THE WAY:

Freja Werth scored a team-high 13 points against Colorado State, shooting four-for-nine from the field. Werth is averaging 14.0 points per game while shooting 54.0 percent (27-for-50) from the field in the last five games.

THE FRESHMAN CAN SHOOT:

Angeliki Ziaka scored her first two collegiate baskets from long range, connecting on two of her four three-point attempts to finish the game with six points.

A SOLID DEBUT FOR EMMA:

Emma Trawally Porta, playing her first game as a Don following three seasons at Detroit Mercy, scored nine points, collected two rebounds, and shot 50 percent from the field. Her shooting percentage marked the second highest in a season opener in her career. She shot 62.5 percent last season, scoring 10 points, against Eastern Michigan on November 6, 2023.

A FAMILIAR FOE:

During her time in the Division II ranks, Molly Goodenbour coached against UC Santa Barbara's Renee Jimenez while Jimenez was at the helm of CSUSB, Cal State Monterey Bay, and Cal State San Marcos. Goodenbour holds a 6-3 overall record over Jimenez in her career at Cal State Dominguez Hills, going 4-1 against CSUSB, 2-0 against Cal State San Marcos, and 0-2 against Cal State Monterey Bay.

5

44-POINT WIN:
UC Santa Barbara enters the weekend following a 44-point win over Claremont-Mudd-Scripps on Wednesday, Nov. 6, 70-26. Four players reached double figures for the Gauchos as Aya Choice (12 points), Jessica Grant (12 points), Martha Pietsch (11 points), and Skylar Burke (10 points) guided the team offensively.

DOUBLE-DIGIT BOARDS:
Laurel Rockwood led UC Santa Barbara on the glass against Clarmont-Mudd-Scripps, totaling 10 rebounds. Rockwood, who averaged 4.2 rebounds per game last season, reached double-digit rebounds in a game for the first time since recording 12 against Cal Lutheran on December 21, 2022.

FIRST DIVISION I WIN:
Head Coach Renee Jimenez picked up her first Division I victory when UC Santa Barbara defeated Claremont-Mudd-Scripps. Jimenez's previous stops include Division II programs, Cal State San Marcos, Cal State Monterey Bay, and CSUSB.

A VETERAN TEAM BUT LOSS CONTRIBUTION:
Despite returning 11 players from the 2023-24 roster, UC Santa Barbara lost its leading scorer from a season ago, Alexis Whitfield. Whitfield averaged 15.1 points per game for the Gauchos, reaching double figures 21 times.

PRESEASON ALL-BIG WEST:
Alyssa Marin was named one of five Preseason All-Big West selections heading into the 2024-25 season. An All-Big West Honorable Mention, Marin averaged 12.1 points, 3.3 assists, and 2.3 rebounds per game a season ago.

PICKED TO FINISH SEVENTH:
Following a disappointing 2023-24 season, finishing sixth in the Big West standings, UC Santa Barbara was slotted to finish seventh in the 2024-25 Big West Preseason Coaches Poll.

SERIES HISTORY

- San Francisco has faced off against UC Santa Barbara nine times in program history, holding a 5-4 record since the first-ever meeting during the 1980-81 season.
- The Dons were successful at the start of the series, winning five straight from 1980-1995 before the Gauchos have posted wins in the last four meetings.
- The two teams faced off in the season opener last season, with the Gauchos coming out with a convincing 87-75 victory on November 7, 2023, at the Thun-derdome. Jasmine Gayles shined for the Dons, scoring 30 points while Debora dos Santos added 11 points and 12 rebounds.

SAN FRANCISCO NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY1995*NCAA First Round – March 16, 1995 - Seattle, Wash.

Arkansas 67, San Francisco 58

USF made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1995 as the No. 11 seed in the West Region. The Dons traveled to the University of Washington in Seattle to face Arkansas. Brittany Lindhe led the way with 21 points, while Jamie Shadian and Renee Demirdjian each added 11 as the Dons got its first taste of the Dance.

Team highlights:

16-game winning streak • Finished with a 24-5 overall record • West Coast Conference Champions • Posted a perfect 13-0 record at home • Program's first NCAA appearance

1996NCAA First Round – March 16, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

San Francisco 68, No. 16 Florida 51

San Francisco earned its second NCAA appearance as the No. 12 seed in the Mideast Region. The Dons started their Cinderella run with a 68-61 victory over then-No. 16 Florida. Valerie Gillon dominated with a 28-point, nine-rebound performance, while Andrea Kagie added 15 points off the bench. USF led 31-29 at halftime and never trailed in the second half.

NCAA Second Round – March 18, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

San Francisco 64, No. 13 Duke 60

San Francisco garnered the biggest win in school history as the Dons shocked regional host, then-No. 13 Duke, 64-60, at Cameron Indoor Stadium. For the Blue Devils, it was the first non-conference loss at home since 1991. Brittany Lindhe led the Dons with 17 points, Julie Murgent scored 14 points off the bench, and Renee Demirdjian added a dozen in the victory.

NCAA Sweet Sixteen – March 23, 1996 - Chicago, Ill.

No. 2 Connecticut 72, San Francisco 44

The eyes of the country were on San Francisco as the team faced defending national champions, Connecticut, in the Sweet Sixteen. In front of the largest crowd (7,190) to watch a women's basketball game in Illinois, the Dons fell short, dropping the 72-44 decision to the Huskies. The game was tied 13-13 midway through the first half before UConn pulled away for a 37-28 halftime lead. Valerie Gillon scored 13 points in her final collegiate contest, while Julie Murgent came off the bench to add 10 points.

Team highlights:

NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance, its longest run in the tournament in USF history • Ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today/CNN women's basketball poll • NCAA Tournament wins over nationally ranked Duke and Florida • WCC Tournament Champions • WCC Regular Season Co-Champions • Nine- and seven-game winning streaks • Single-season records for blocks (147) and rebounds (1,302) • Won 20 of the final 23 contests • Played before four crowds of 3,500 or more • posted a final record of 24-8, and a 12-2 WCC record

1997NCAA First Round – March 15, 1997 - Gainesville, Fla.

Southern California 68, San Francisco 55

The Dons were awarded a No. 11 seed in the Mideast Region and were slated to face No. 6 USC in the opening round. San Francisco came out of the gates strong and trailed by only six at halftime. The Dons eventually fell 68-55 to the Women of Troy. Brittany Lindhe paced USF with 15 points, while Renee Demirdjian added 13 in her final game wearing Green and Gold.

Team Highlights:

Third-straight NCAA appearance • Third-consecutive WCC title • 25-6 overall record, marking third-straight season with at least 24 victories • Three all-WCC First Team selections, marking a program first • Record-setting home attendance, including two games with 4,000 plus fans • Ranked as high as No. 21 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches' Poll • Nine-game winning streak

2016NCAA First Round - March 19, 2016 - Stanford, Calif.

Stanford 85, San Francisco 58

The Dons' first NCAA appearance in almost a decade was especially poignant given that head coach Jennifer Azzi would be matching up with her former coach at Stanford, Tara Vanderveer. USF garnered a No. 13 seed, but the contest ended up lopsided as the No. 4 seed Cardinal came away with an 85-58 victory on their home floor of Maples Pavilion. Rachel Howard was the Dons' top scorer with 14 points, while Taylor Proctor (13 pts., two reb) and Michaela Rakova (12 pts., four reb) were the other Dons in double figures.
