MOLLY GOODENBOUR

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO:

Molly Goodenbour, a two-time national champion at Stanford with over a decade of head coaching experience on the collegiate level, was named the ninth head coach in University of San Francisco women's basketball history on Sept. 28, 2016. This is Goodenbour's third coaching stint on the Hilltop, where she served as an assistant coach with the Dons during the 1994-95 and 2005-06 seasons.

In 2023-24, Goodenbour led San Francisco to a second-half resurgence as the team finished in a tie for third place in the West Coast Conference standings after starting the season with a 4-9 record. The program posted double-digit victories in WCC play for the fifth time in Goodenbour's tenure as the team finished at 10-6, highlighted by season sweeps of Pacific, Saint Mary's, Pepperdine, and LMU.

San Francisco also finished the season strong, rolling eventual WCC Tournament Champions Portland on the road, earning a 59-47 victory at Chiles Center. Under Goodenbour's guidance, Jasmine Gayles and Debora dos Santos earned All-WCC First Team honors. Dos Santos recorded a career season, averaging a double-double with 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, while Gayles led the squad in scoring at 16.8 points per game. Gayles also recorded the second 40-point game in program history, dropping 40 points in an 81-68 win at Pacific on January 13.

The 2022-23 season, under Goodenbour's leadership, concluded with an overall record of 19-13. Three Dons earned All-WCC selections, while two Dons earned WCC All-Academic Honors. The Dons also participated in their third straight WNIT.

Within the first six years on the Hilltop, Goodenbour posted impressive numbers, including becoming the winningest coach in San Francisco history through 50 games (27-23), as well as through two seasons at 34-28 (.548). Goodenbour quickly built up her impressive resume at USF, becoming the first coach to post winning overall and conference records in her first two seasons on the job.

Building off the program's strong start to the new decade, the Dons were once again punching a postseason ticket as they battled through a grueling non-conference schedule that kept them away from the Hilltop from Thanksgiving until after New Year's Day. Following an 0-4 start to WCC play, battling through injuries and COVID-19-related pauses, the Dons went on to rattle off wins in six of their next seven games and finished with the third seed heading into the WCC Tournament. USF would go on to defeat Santa Clara in Vegas before returning home to host Air Force in the WNIT. Since the start of the 2020-21 season, Goodenbour's Dons have made consecutive WNIT appearances and won at least one game in back-to-back WCC Tournaments. Led by two-time All-WCC First Team selection Ioanna Krimili, USF's 2020-21 team led the conference in total points and points per game while being a top-four program in team plus/minus.

Goodenbour's third WCC Tournament in 2019 saw her lead the Dons to a first-round victory over Portland, marking the seventh year in a row the Dons advanced beyond their opening game. Goodenbour's 2017-18 squad placed three WCC All-Conference and All-Academic honorees. Anna Seilund earned First-Team All-WCC and Second-Team All-WCC recipients Michaela Rakova and Kalya Simon.

She finished her first year on the Hilltop in 2016-17 with an 18-13 overall record that included an 11-7 mark in West Coast Conference play, enough for a fourth-place finish, the Dons' highest since the 2002-03 season. In the process, Goodenbour became the first USF head coach since Sue Rojewicz in 1982-83 to post a winning record in her first year at the helm and compiled the second-best record by a first-year coach in program history. In addition, USF's 11 WCC wins under Goodenbour were the most since the 1996-97 campaign. Under Goodenbour, the Dons led the conference in free-throw percentage at 77.8%, which stands as the best single-season percentage in program history. Goodenbour's team also led the WCC in 3-point shooting (34.6%) in 2016-17.

Their 217 three-pointers made were the most in program history, including a program-best 15 3s in a win over Portland on Feb. 18, 2017. Goodenbour's squad placed four student-athletes on the WCC All-Academic team in 2016-17 and boasted a pair of All-WCC honorees in first-teamer Rachel Howard and second-team recipient Anna Seilund.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Goodenbour came to USF from Cal State East Bay, where she was named head coach in June of 2016. She has previous head coaching experience at Santa Rosa Junior College, Cal State-Chico, UC Irvine, and Cal-State Dominguez Hills. Her overall career record, including two seasons at Santa Rosa JC, stands at 222-142 (.610).

Before her appointment at Cal State-East Bay, Goodenbour spent four seasons as the head coach at Cal State-Dominguez Hills. After taking over a program that had posted a 7-48 record in the previous two seasons, Goodenbour led the Toros to a 77-34 (.694) record in her four seasons. Under her guidance, the Toros won California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Tournament Championships in 2013-14 and 2014-15 and CCAA regular season titles in 2014-15 and 2015-16 and made three consecutive NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship appearances from 2013-16. Her 2014-15 squad won a school-record 26 games and earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional.

Goodenbour began her career at Santa Rosa Junior College in 2002-03. After one season as an associate head coach, she took over the head coaching duties for two seasons (2003-05), leading the Bear Cubs to a 69-21 record, two conference championships, and a quarterfinal appearance in the California state championship.

Her second coaching stint at San Francisco came during the 2005-06 season when she served as an assistant on Mary Hile-Nepfel's staff. Following the season, she was appointed head coach at Chico State where she led the Wildcats to a 52-11 record and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2007-08, she was named the CCAA's Coach of the Year after guiding her team to a 28-6 overall record, regular season and conference tournament titles along with a Sweet 16 appearance. The Wildcats finished the year ranked No. 17 in the nation among all Division II teams.

Goodenbour's first Division I head coaching job came at UC Irvine, where she served as the Anteater's coach from 2008-12. The Anteaters qualified for the Big West Tournament in her four seasons at the helm, posting the highest single-season win total (15 in 2010-11) in nearly a decade and had eight players earn all-conference honors during her four-year tenure.

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS:

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Goodenbour was a standout performer at Stanford, where she was a four-year letterwinner under Tara VanDerveer from 1989-93. She helped the Cardinal to four straight Pac-10 championships, three NCAA Final Fours, and a pair of NCAA Championships in 1990 and 1992. Goodenbour was named the most valuable player of the 1992 Final Four after setting an NCAA Tournament record for most postseason three-pointers made with 18. She finished her collegiate career with 1,040 points and still ranks among the school's career top-10 in three-pointers made (178), assists (441), and free throw percentage (.793).

She embarked on her professional playing career in 1995-96 with Linkspring of the Swedish Basketball Federation. A year later, Goodenbour returned to the United States, where she played for the Richmond Rage (1996-97) and Portland Power (1997-98) of the American Basketball League. THE NEWCOMERS:

Along with returning 12 players from last season, including four starters, San Francisco welcome graduate transfer Emma Trawally Porta (Detroit Mercy) and true freshmen Angeliki Ziaka (Athens, Greece) and Kiana Moniz (San Francisco, Calif.) as newcomers to the program.

NEW COACHING STAFF:

Following a handful of coaching departures, Molly Goodenbour has hired four new coaches to join her and Associate Head Coach Janell Jones on staff. Jamie Turner (former head coach at Sacramento State and San Jose State), Greg Rahn (former associate head coach at Dominican), Isaac Lu (former head coach at Western Nebraska Community College), and Jasmine Gayles (former player) enter their first season as coaches on the Hilltop.

PICKED TO FINISH SIXTH:

San Francisco, selected sixth in the 2024-25 WCC Preseason Coaches Poll, received 53 points, while Gonzaga (92 points), Washington State (91 points), Portland (84 points), Oregon State (77 points), and Pacific (63 points) were slotted as the league's top teams.

WCC PRESEASON HONORS:

For the fourth consecutive season, a member of the program was named to the West Coast Conference All-Conference Preseason Team. Debora dos Santos earned the honor ahead of the 2024-25 season after averaging a career-best 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game in 30 contents to guide the Dons to a tie for third place in the conference standings.

NON-CONFERENCE PLAY IS ON THE ROAD:

San Francisco's eight-game nonconference slate features five true road games and a matchup against Boise State at Chase Center on November 21. The Dons face off against four teams that made postseason appearances, including Columbia (NCAA), Boise State (WNIT), Northern Arizona (WNIT), and Seton Hall (WBIT).

A VETERAN ROSTER:

The 2024-25 San Francisco's roster features eight upperclassmen, seven seniors (Cami Fulcher, Debora dos Santos, Lorena Barbosa, Freja Werth, Aya Keita, Luana Leite, and Mia Vuksic) and one junior (Marina Hernandez). The Dons also have three graduate students on the roster (Emma Trawally Porta, Seynabou Thiam, and Sol Castro).

MORE OPTIONS IN 2024-25:

Last season in 2023-24, San Francisco only had six players on the 13-player roster to compete in all 30 games. Notable players who missed the entire season were Elle Papahronis and Sol Castro, while Mia Vuksic (24 games) and Lorena Barbosa (15 games) also missed time due to injury.

SEASON OPENERS:

Heading into the 2024-25 season, San Francisco has won six of the last eight season openers, with the only losses coming to UC Davis (2020-21) and UC Santa Barbara (2023-24) during the Molly Goodenbour era. In eight season openers, the Dons are averaging 80.9 points per game while holding opponents to 38.9 percent shooting.

BATTLE OF SOLID DEFENSIVE TEAMS:

In San Francisco's win over Santa Clara, both teams struggled from the field as the Dons shot 31.9 percent while the Broncos connected on 31.7 percent of their attempts. The Dons and Broncos rank in the top 50 in the nation in opponent field goal percentage defense, with the Dons in 41st (36.3 percent) and the Broncos in 45th (36.4 percent).

DEB HELD A BLOCK PARTY:

Debora dos Santos recorded a career-high five blocks in the win at Santa Clara on Monday, Dec. 30, surpassing her previous best of four. Dos Santos also becomes the first player to record five or more blocks in a game for the Dons since Lucija Kostic also totaled five in a win over Morgan State on November 9, 2021. Overall, dos Santos leads the team and ranks fifth in the WCC in total blocks with 19.

ANOTHER 20 PIECE:

Freja Werth reached the 20-point threshold for the third time this season as she posted 22 points while adding eight rebounds, two assists, three steals, and one block in the win at Santa Clara. In her previous three seasons of collegiate basketball, Werth has only scored 20 or more points in a game once, with 20 against Columbia in the 2023-24 season.

AUTOMATIC FROM THE LINE:

Freja Werth was also a perfect six-for-six at the free-throw line against the Broncos, increasing her conference-leading percentage to 96.7 percent. Only missing one free throw this season, Werth is the lone player in the WCC with at least 32 free-throw attempts, and only one miss this season.

EMMA CONTINUES TO SCORE EFFICIENTLY:

Emma Trawally Porta scored 17 points on 50 percent shooting in the win at Santa Clara. For the third straight game, ninth overall, Trawally Porta shot 50 percent or better from the field. In three WCC games, she ranks third in the conference in field-goal percentage at 55.9 percent.

ON THE RISE IN THE NET RANKINGS:

San Francisco is the second-highest-ranked team in the WCC as it lands at 104th following its victory over Santa Clara last Monday. The green and gold only trail Portland as the Pilots rank 68th.

GAME FOURTEEN NOTES:FOUR STRAIGHT WCC BLOWOUTS:

In the first four games of conference play, San Francisco has earned double-digit wins over Gonzaga, LMU, Santa Clara, and Saint Mary's, marking the first time in program history that the Dons have won four WCC games in a row by double-digits.

FIVE IN DOUBLE FIGURES:

In San Francisco's 87-73 win over Saint Mary's last Thursday, five players scored in double figures for the first time this season. Angeliki Ziaka led the team with 22 points off the bench, while Emma Trawally Porta (21 points), Freja Werth (15 points), Debora dos Santos (12 points), and Luana Leite (11 points) helped pace the team.

The last time the Dons had five players reach double-digit points in a game was on February 10, 2024, when Cami Fulcher (15 points), Luana Leite (14 points), Debora dos Santos (14 points), Jasmine Gayles (13 points), and Freja Werth (12 points) guided the green and gold to a win over Pacific.

SHE CAN PASS IT:

Luana Leite posted a career-high 13 assists in the win over Saint Mary's, marking the fourth time she has recorded double-digit assists in a game. Her 13 assists also mark the WCC single-season high in assists, passing LMU's Naudia Evans and Saint Mary's Zeryhia Aokuso who tallied 12 earlier in the season.

A BREAKOUT GAME FOR THE FRESHMAN:

Angeliki Ziaka recorded a career-high 22 points in 25 minutes off the bench in the Dons' fifth-straight win last Thursday. Ziaka's point tally marks the first time she has surpassed the 20-point threshold in a game. Her career-best six-made three-pointers fell just three short of tying the USF single-game record for three-point baskets held by Ioanna Krimili (She totaled nine three-pointers on January 30, 2021, at LMU).

SECOND IN SCORING DURING CONFERENCE PLAY:

Emma Trawally Porta posted a season-high 21 points in the win over Saint Mary's, her second 20+ point game of the season. In four WCC games, she ranks second in scoring, averaging 18.5 points per game, and in field-goal percentage at 58.0 percent.

FINDING THEIR RANGE:

San Francisco continues to succeed from beyond the three-point line at the start of league play, leading the WCC at 39.0 percent (41-for-105). Shooting 28.7 percent (50-for-174) from three during the non-conference slate, the Dons' 10.3 percent difference marks the most significant change by any team from non-conference to WCC play.

GAME FIFTEEN NOTES:ANOTHER DOUBLE-DIGIT WIRE-TO-WIRE VICTORY:

San Francisco dropped Pepperdine by 16 points, 76-60 last Saturday, and never trailed during the contest. The wire-to-wire win marks the third time the Dons have defeated a WCC opponent while leading the entire game this season.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK:

After setting career highs in multiple statistical categories and guiding San Francisco to two conference victories, Angeliki Ziaka was named West Coast Conference Freshman of the Week. Ziaka shined in two home wins over Saint Mary's and Pepperdine, averaging 15.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 3.5 assists per game while shooting 52.4 percent from the floor and 50 percent from beyond the three-point line.

DEB BROKE OUT:

Debora dos Santos totaled a season-best 26 points on 62.5 percent (10-for-16) shooting in 30 minutes of action. Her 10 made field goals also matched a season-high while guiding the Dons defensively with eight rebounds and four blocks.

SECOND-HALF SURGE:

After scoring just eight points on three-of-five shooting against Pepperdine, Freja Werth guided the team with 14 second-half points to finish the game with 22. Recording her best shooting performance of the season, Werth connected on seven of her 10 field-goal attempts, shooting a season-high 70 percent from the floor.

SHE DOESN'T MISS:

Freja Werth ranks first in the WCC and second in the nation with a 97.7 free-throw percentage. She only trails New Mexico's Viane Cumber (97.9 percent) for the top spot in Division I. Werth has connected on 43 of her 44 attempts this season and matched a career-high with seven in the win over Pepperdine.

GAME SIXTEEN NOTES:TOUGH NIGHT ON THE ROAD:

San Francisco's six-game winning streak was snapped when it dropped a 64-57 decision at Oregon State on Thursday, Jan. 9. Freja Werth led the team in scoring with 18 points, while Emma Trawally Porta posted a 10-point, 11-rebound double-double.

A FULCHER SIGHTING:

Cami Fulcher scored a season-high 17 points in the loss at Oregon State, shooting 50 percent (six-for-12) from the field and knocking down four three-pointers. Coming up one point shy of her career-high, Fulcher scored in double figures for the first time since February 29, 2024, when she posted 15 in an overtime win at Saint Mary's.

TURNOVERS WERE AT A MINIMUM:

San Francisco committed only six turnovers at Oregon State, a season-low for the program. The six turnovers also mark the team's lowest number in a game since February 25, 2023, when it committed six at LMU.

GAME SEVENTEEN NOTES:WERTH HAS BEEN SOLID:

Leading the offensive charge for the green and gold last week, Freja Werth averaged 19.0 points per game, shooting seven-for-15 from beyond the arc. The senior continues to be one of the WCC's best in conference play, ranking third in scoring (16.9 PPG), second in both three-point percentage (40.9) and free throw percentage (88.2), and eighth in field goal percentage (43.8). On a national scale, Werth ranks tied for 13th in the country in free throw percentage, shooting 92.9 percent from the line throughout the season, missing just four out of 56 shots from the charity stripe.

TWO PASSERS ON THE RISE:

During WCC play, Luana Leite and Angeliki Ziaka rank in the top 10 in assist/turnover ratio. Leite enters the week second at 3.6, and Ziaka is sixth at 1.7. Leite is also second in the WCC in total assists with 40, while Ziaka ranks 12th overall with 22 in six games played.

PLENTY OF STEALS:

San Francisco is the only team in the WCC with five players in the top 20 in steals during league play. Freja Werth, Debora dos Santos, Angeliki Ziaka, Luana Leite, and Emma Trawally Porta all have at least nine steals through seven games. Werth leads the way with 14, ranking seventh, while Leite (11th - 12), Ziaka (13th - 11), dos Santos (16th - 10), and Trawally Porta (20th - nine) have contributed defensively.

SOLID OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE UNIT:
In conference action, Villa has fronted the Cougars' offensive effort, ranking top-10 in the WCC in points per game (9th, 15.1), field goal percentage (8th, 43.8), and three-pointers made per game (T-7th, 1.9). As a team, Washington State has been one of the conference's best defensive squads in WCC action, leading the league in opponent points per game (57.1), opponent field goal percentage (34.4), and blocks per game (6.86).

THE TOP LEADING SCORERS:
Sophomore guard Eleonora Villa and senior guard Tara Wallack have led Wazzu in scoring this season, averaging 14.5 and 13.1 points per game, respectively. Last time on the hardwood, Villa scored a season-high 24 points on nine-of-19 shooting and five-of-nine shooting from three in the loss to Gonzaga.

STACKING BLOCKS:
Washington State has been one of the top blocking teams in the nation, ranking third in all of Division I with 121 total blocks behind only Southern California (124) and TCU (124), and third in blocks per game (6.7) behind Kentucky (7.4) and Southern California (7.3). The team's 121 blocks leads the WCC by a margin of 39 blocks over Portland (82), and its 6.7 blocks per game is 2.1 blocks ahead of the second-highest number of 4.6 per game, also held by Portland.

NEW FACES:
WSU has six players this season earning minutes for the first time in a Cougar uniform as junior transfer Jean Chiu, redshirt freshman Candace Kpetikou, and true freshmen Charlotte Abraham, Marta Alsina, Alice Dart and Dayana Mendes have all made an impact already in 2024-25. Of these new faces, Abraham and Mendes have accrued the most minutes thus far, averaging 17.4 and 13.6 minutes, respectively. Abraham is shooting 36.8 percent from the floor and 36.2 percent from deep, while Mendes is averaging 5.7 points and 3.6 rebounds per game while shooting at a 36.1 percent clip from the floor.

SERIES HISTORY

- San Francisco and Washington State have faced off 11 times in program history, with the Cougars holding a 9-2 advantage over the Dons.
- The Dons and Cougars are set to compete for the eighth time since 2008, with the Cougars having won each of the last seven matchups. The two teams last faced off two seasons ago on November 11, 2022, on the Hilltop, with WSU taking a close 69-63 victory.

Valerie Gillon scored 13 points in her final collegiate contest, while Julie Murgent came off the bench to add 10 points.

Team highlights:

NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance, its longest run in the tournament in USF history • Ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today/CNN women's basketball poll • NCAA Tournament wins over nationally ranked Duke and Florida • WCC Tournament Champions • WCC Regular Season Co-Champions • Nine- and seven-game winning streaks • Single-season records for blocks (147) and rebounds (1,302) • Won 20 of the final 23 contests • Played before four crowds of 3,500 or more • posted a final record of 24-8, and a 12-2 WCC record

1997NCAA First Round – March 15, 1997 - Gainesville, Fla.

Southern California 68, San Francisco 55

The Dons were awarded a No. 11 seed in the Mideast Region and were slated to face No. 6 USC in the opening round. San Francisco came out of the gates strong and trailed by only six at halftime. The Dons eventually fell 68-55 to the Women of Troy. Brittany Lindhe paced USF with 15 points, while Renee Demirdjian added 13 in her final game wearing Green and Gold.

Team Highlights:

Third-straight NCAA appearance • Third-consecutive WCC title • 25-6 overall record, marking third-straight season with at least 24 victories • Three all-WCC First Team selections, marking a program first • Record-setting home attendance, including two games with 4,000 plus fans • Ranked as high as No. 21 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches' Poll • Nine-game winning streak

2016NCAA First Round - March 19, 2016 - Stanford, Calif.

Stanford 85, San Francisco 58

The Dons' first NCAA appearance in almost a decade was especially poignant given that head coach Jennifer Azzi would be matching up with her former coach at Stanford, Tara Vanderveer. USF garnered a No. 13 seed, but the contest ended up lopsided as the No. 4 seed Cardinal came away with an 85-58 victory on their home floor of Maples Pavilion. Rachel Howard was the Dons' top scorer with 14 points, while Taylor Proctor (13 pts., two reb) and Michaela Rakova (12 pts., four reb) were the other Dons in double figures.
