DONS AT A GLANCE:

- The University of San Francisco (USF) men's soccer team dropped its most recent match, falling 3-1 on the road to No. 9 Portland on Saturday, Nov. 1, at Merlo Field. After the Pilots opened the scoring in the 12th minute, the Dons equalized in the 33rd when junior forward Brayden Beason scored his seventh goal of the season off assists from freshman Jameson Raby and senior David Raphael. As a team, the Dons finished with 15 total shots, four on goal, marking their fifth match this season with 15 or more attempts. The match was tied at halftime before Portland scored twice in the second half to earn the win. Beason led San Francisco with three shots, including two on target (one goal). Raphael registered four shots and tallied his fourth assist of the season, while Raby recorded his first collegiate assist while tying his season-high with two shots.
- Climbing back up the rankings, San Francisco comes into the match receiving votes in the latest United Soccer Coaches Men's Rankings, as well as sitting at No. 33 in the NCAA's latest RPI update.
- As of Friday night, Beason ranks fifth in the West Coast Conference (WCC) with seven goals on the season. Raphael is fifth in the conference in total points (16), having tallied five goals and six assists. The duo has combined for 13 goals and five assists overall this season.
- In goal, Lucas Jones currently ranks third in the WCC in save percentage (.764), third in goals against (13), and fourth in goals-against average (1.08). Jones has recorded
- Saturday will mark the 58th meeting all-time between San Francisco and Saint Mary's (SMC), with the Dons holding a 30-20-7 advantage in the all-time series. Last season, USF defeated SMC, 3-2, on the road in Moraga on Nov. 9, 2024. The Dons have not defeated the Gaels in San Francisco since a 4-2 win on Oct. 21, 2017.

SCOUTING THE GAELS:

- Saint Mary's enters Saturday's match following a 1-0 road victory over Gonzaga last Saturday, Nov. 1. The result marked the Gaels' first road win of the season and second win in conference play. The Gaels outshot Gonzaga, 16-7, and scored the match's only goal late in the first half after sustained pressure inside the box forced an own goal. Gaige Gibbs and Kayvon Monfared were involved in the buildup to the scoring play. In goal, senior goalkeeper Sean Bentley recorded his fourth shutout of the season in the win over the Bulldogs.
- Bentley comes into the match currently ranked second in the West Coast Conference (WCC) in total saves (49) and fifth in save percentage (.700). Saint Mary's has limited opponents to one goal or fewer in eight matches this season.
- Offensively, Bastian Toelhof leads the Gaels with five goals so far this year, with Sam Danner and TJ Dilly coming in second with two goals each. Eleven different student-athletes have recorded at least one assist for Saint Mary's this season, with Bentley leading the charge with two assists. Toelhof also leads the team in shots with 22.
- Former Don TJ Knight will return to familiar territory on Saturday, having played at USF from 2022 to 2024.
