LAST TIME VS. THE DONS: San Francisco 78, Utah Valley 73 (March 19, 2018)

SAN FRANCISCO - After falling behind by 22 points, the Utah Valley University men's basketball team stormed back to make it a three-point game with under two minutes to play, but ultimately fell to San Francisco, 78-73, as the season came to a close in the College Basketball Invitational quarterfinals at War Memorial Gym on March 19, 2018.

Utah Valley ended the year with a 23-11 record, which was a school record for wins in a season at the time. Despite the setback, UVU outshot San Francisco with a 46 percent clip to the Dons' 43 percent mark. The Wolverines also outrebounded the Dons 35-33 and won the battle down low with 34 points in the paint against USF's 28.

The offense was clicking early for Utah Valley as it opened the game with back-to-back layups from Akolda Manyang and Kenneth Ogbe. Manyang then knocked down a pair of free throws to give the Wolverines a 6-0 lead and Ogbe drilled a three to cap a 9-2 run. San Francisco would quickly catch up though as it began hitting threes and strung together a 12-4 run to grab its first lead.

A layup from Conner Toolson ended the Dons' run and the teams traded baskets for the next several minutes. The score remained a one-possession game until USF finally rattled off 10-straight points and claimed a 30-21 lead. Jake Toolson hit a tough layup and Brandon Randolph and Ogbe dropped in consecutive threes in response.

Utah Valley spent the remainder of the half chipping away at the deficit and was able to get the margin down to three. The Dons would not surrender their lead though and used a short burst to take a 39-31 lead into halftime. Ogbe's 10 points led the Wolverines in the first half while Randolph added nine.

San Francisco opened the second half with a 10-2 burst on its way to grabbing a 16-point lead. Randolph hit a three to end the drought for UVU, but the Dons answered right away with a three of their own. Overall, USF pulled off an 18-5 run coming out of the locker room.

By the time UVU's offense warmed up, it was facing a 22-point deficit. The Wolverines then came alive as they ripped off a 21-1 run. USF finally ended the run and knocked down three-straight threes, but Ogbe had the answer with deep, back-to-back triples of his own to keep it a one-possession contest. Utah Valley had multiple opportunities to tie the game or pull within one but was unable to convert. San Francisco then hit its free throws and closed

Quoting Phillips....

About the WAC Tournament Championship loss to Grand Canyon

"It was a heck of a ball game," said Phillips. "Two big-time teams going at it. I'm really proud of our guys tonight. They fought through adversity and made a lot of big plays. Grand Canyon made a couple more big plays than we did, and we've got to be a little bit better from the foul line. That was big. We won the rebound battle, but we just couldn't get the stops we needed in the second half. We came up short, but I'm really proud of the way we fought."

About the WAC Tournament semifinal win over Seattle U

"Our defense was huge tonight. Points in the paint were big for us, but just being on the glass and keeping them off the glass—they're such a good rebounding team. We preach blockouts every day, and we work on blackout drills. I'm really proud of the guys who stepped up. There were two big stretches where we got what we call a 'kill,' where we got three stops in a row, and that really helped us extend the lead. Late in the game, we got another 'kill,' which was huge in pushing the lead out even further."

Manyang recorded one last double-double for the Wolverines with 10 points and 11 rebounds for the game.

UTAH VALLEY'S NATIONAL INVITATION TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Utah Valley is making its third appearance in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The Wolverines earned an automatic bid after a historic season, finishing with a 25-8 record and winning the outright WAC regular-season title. UVU's first appearance in the NIT came in 2014, where the Wolverines fell to California in the first round. In 2023, Utah Valley made a deep run in the NIT, defeating New Mexico, Colorado, and Cincinnati before falling to UAB in overtime in the semifinals.

UVU's NIT history has been marked by progress and success, including a strong postseason showing in 2023. Now, the Wolverines look to continue their success as they face San Francisco in the first round of the 2025 NIT.

UTAH VALLEY STRENGTHENS WAC LEGACY WITH FOURTH REGULAR SEASON TITLE

ABOUT UVU ATHLETICS' NCAA HISTORY

Until 2003, Utah Valley University competed as a NJCAA athletic program. The 2003-04 season was the school's first competing at an NCAA Division I level. In 2004-05, UVU played its first full Division I schedule. As a program transitioning from junior college to DI, UVU was termed "provisional" and remained that way until 2009. UVU's provisional status was lifted and the program became a full member of NCAA Division I on July 8, 2009. Until then, UVU teams and individuals were not eligible to compete in NCAA championship events.

The Wolverines spent six seasons as an independent before the Great West Conference became an all-sports league in 2008 and began its first full season in 2009. UVU also became a university in 2008, changing its name from Utah Valley State College (UVSC) to Utah Valley University (UVU). UVU joined the Western Athletic Conference on July 1, 2013. Joining the WAC gave UVU teams the opportunity to play for NCAA automatic bids for the first time in program history.
