DONS AT A GLANCE:

- Last week, San Francisco fell on the road, 7-0, at No. 7 Stanford in the team's 2025 season opener. Despite the loss, Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth drew her first collegiate start in the cage. Offensively, Isabella Ayau (2) led the Dons in shots while Lindsey Chau and Hannah Burns also each recorded a shot of their own.
- Head coach Pinder Nijjar took the reins of the University of San Francisco women's soccer program last summer after longtime coach Jim Millinder retired. In his first year at the helm of the Dons, San Francisco finished 5-11-2 overall, including a 1-7-2 record in the West Coast Conference (WCC).
- USF returns 21 student-athletes from last year's team, including all four who scored two or more goals last fall: Kaitlyn Sasadeusz (3), Lindsey Chau (2), Kate Zimmerman (2), and Olivia Lukrofka (2). These four also led the Dons in points: Sasadeusz (8), Chau (6), Zimmerman (5), and Lukrofka (4).
- San Francisco will have a new face in the cage this season as Hailey Patlan (So.), Hayden Rallo (So.) Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth (Fr.) and Lydia Martin (Fr.) make up the goalkeeper room.
- Earning All-WCC honors for the second time in her career, Lindsey Chau is a player to watch for San Francisco this season as the senior is coming off being named a WCC Honorable Mention after playing in all 18 matches for USF last season, including making 17 starts. Across these matches, Chau finished with two goals, two assists, and six points while also leading the Dons with 38 shots and 13 shots on goal. She also finished fifth on the team in minutes with 1,186. Previously, Chau was also named an Honorable Mention in 2022, alongside being named to the WCC All-Freshman Team.
- San Francisco has another loaded nonconference schedule this year as the green and gold will begin the year on the road at two Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) opponents - at No. 7 Stanford (Aug. 14) and at California (Aug. 21). The Dons will open their home schedule with a matchup against a Big 12 foe when they welcome Texas Tech to the Hilltop on Aug. 24. USF will also battle Big West members UC Irvine and UC San Diego during its nonconference slate.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN BEARS:

- California has played three matches so far this season as the Golden Bears unofficially began their 2025 season with a 2-2 draw in their exhibition against Saint Mary's on Aug. 8. Just six days later, Cal kicked off the regular season with a 3-2 win at UC San Diego on Aug. 14, which included goals from Coco Thistle, Luci Kostmayer, and Soleil Dimry. Most recently, the Bears finished in another draw, this time a 0-0 tie at Cal State Fullerton on Aug. 17.
- Thursday's matchup with San Francisco will mark the home opener for Cal this season and the first of two consecutive games against West Coast Conference (WCC) opponents (will host Pepperdine next on Sunday, Aug. 24). In their last two meetings with the Dons, California is 2-0 with an 11-2 goal differential.
- Earning the honor for the second consecutive season, goalkeeper Teagan Wy was named to the Preseason All-ACC team, which was voted on by the conference's 17 head coaches. Despite missing a large chunk of last season to lead Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2024 U20 FIFA World Cup, Wy was named Second Team All-ACC in 2024. She ranked in the top 10 of the ACC with a .788 save percentage and 1.14 goals against average for the overall season.
- Cal enjoyed a successful season in its first season in the ACC last fall, including the program's first NCAA Tournament victory (2-1 2OT win over Pepperdine) in ten years. The Bears finished 13-6-2 overall, including a 5-4-1 mark in ACC play.
