DONS AT A GLANCE

- San Francisco showed promise in its home opener this past Sunday, Aug. 24, as the Dons bounced back from two straight losses to open the regular season by upsetting No. 18 Texas Tech, 2-0, at Negoesco Stadium. The victory over the Red Raiders marked the first win over a ranked team for second-year head coach Pinder Nijjar and the first time the Dons have defeated a ranked team since USF defeated No. 13 Santa Clara (1-0) on Oct. 18, 2023. In the win over Texas Tech, junior Kaitlyn Sasadeusz starred by scoring both goals for the Dons, with one coming in each half. Freshman Shanti Ng also picked up her first collegiate assist on Sasadeusz's first goal in the 28th minute.
- For her efforts last week, Sasadeusz was named West Coast Conference (WCC) Offensive Player of the Week on Monday, Aug. 26. The forward tallied three overall goals and six points during two matches last week, including the brace against Texas Tech. Notably, she has already tied her total in goals (3) from last fall while sitting just two points shy of her point total (8) through three matches in 2025.
- Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth picked up her first win on the Hilltop as the goalkeeper logged her first clean sheet in the green and gold against Texas Tech, playing a full 90 minutes and recording three saves on twelve shots faced.
- Lindsey Chau, who was named a WCC Honorable Mention for the second time last season, scored her first goal of 2025 on the road at California last Thursday, Aug. 21. In 2024, Chau finished with two goals, two assists, and six points while also leading the Dons with 38 shots and 13 shots on goal. She also finished fifth on the team in minutes with 1,186.
- San Francisco will face Boston U for just the second time in program history, with USF being victorious, 1-0, in their lone match-up previously on Sept. 7, 2014, in Boston.
- Thursday's match against Boston U will mark the second of four consecutive home matches for San Francisco, a stretch where the Dons play six of seven at Negoesco Stadium. Looking ahead, UC Irvine will visit the Hilltop this Sunday (Aug. 31), followed by matchups with Dartmouth (Sept. 4), LMU (Sept. 24), and Saint Mary's (Sept. 27).

SCOUTING THE TERRIERS

- Boston U has started its 2025 campaign with a handful of successes as the Terriers split their first two home matches of the year before most recently picking up their first road victory. To open the season, Boston U blanked New Hampshire, 3-0, on Sunday, Aug. 17, behind goals from Georgia Prouty and Juliana Osterman (the third goal was an own goal).
- On Aug. 21, Boston U fell at home to Fairfield, 2-1, before getting back in the win column with a 3-1 win at reigning America East champion Maine on Sunday, Aug. 24. Guilanna Gianino was the star for the Terriers offensively as the midfielder found the back of the net twice against the Black Bears to record her first brace of the fall. For Gianino, who recently moved into tenth place all-time in the Boston U record book in career goals (20) and career points (53), currently paces the Patriot League in points per game (2.33) and shots per game (4.0).
- San Francisco will be the first of two consecutive WCC opponents that Boston U is traveling to as the Terriers will also square off against Saint Mary's in Moraga this Sunday, Aug. 31. Thursday's match will mark the Terriers' eighth contest against a WCC opponent all-time as they hold a 3-3-1 record overall against the WCC, with wins against Portland, Saint Mary's, and Santa Clara. The last victory came against the Pilots on Sept. 4, 2011. Overall, Boston U is playing its first game in California since 2012, when it squared off against Stanford and Santa Clara in the Stanford Nike Invitational.
