DONS AT A GLANCE

- San Francisco is coming off a successful 2024 campaign, ending the season with a 17-13 overall record – the most wins by the program since 2015 – and finishing in fifth place in the West Coast Conference standings at 10-8. The team earned multiple victories over high-end opponents, including a sweep of LMU at home and a five-set thriller against San Diego, marking the first win over the Toreros in 11 years.
- Despite a handful of departures from last season's roster, the Dons welcome five talented transfers: Cagla Bengi (Coastal Carolina), Maeve Bailey (Holy Cross), Hannah Taylor (Saint Mary's), Hokulani Perez (Arizona State), and Sina Toroslu (Siena), while Emilija Arsic, Andrea Fabikovicova, Kayla Ostovar, Taylor Mendez, Madison McPherson, and Beata Bohmova join the program as freshmen.
- Offensively, Astrid Puig led all returners in kills, ranking third on the team with 266, as she was one of four Dons to surpass 200 kills. The former WCC All-Freshman honoree reached record offensive numbers against California, posting a career-best 24 kills in the five-set affair while swinging at a .383 clip. The junior from Lleida, Spain, registered double-digit kill performances 12 times in 2024, with three occurring in the final four matches of the season. She also added 90 total blocks, 79 digs, and a .963 reception percentage.
- Overall, last season, San Francisco ranked first in the WCC in total blocks (301), second in hitting percentage (.233) and digs (1,734), fifth in assists per set (11.49) and points per set (16.40).
- Entering the new season, San Francisco was slated to finish eighth in the 2025 West Coast Conference Volleyball Preseason Coaches Poll, picked ahead of Santa Clara, Portland, Gonzaga, and conference newcomer Seattle U.
- In its first action of the fall, the program earned a come-from-behind five-set exhibition victory over UC Davis on Saturday, Aug. 23, at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center. Hannah Taylor led the Dons offensively, accumulating 12 kills while swinging at a .281 clip. Defensively, Emilija Arsic and Abby Wadas combined for 16 digs apiece to lead the team.

SCOUTING THE AZTECS

- San Diego State enters the 2025 season after earning its first 20-win season in 12 years. The Aztecs' 20-10 overall record marked their highest winning percentage in a season since 2012, when the program finished 23-8 and won its first-ever Mountain West Volleyball Championship title.
- The program finished fifth in the Mountain West standings with an 11-7 conference record, defeating Fresno State in the first round of the MW Championship before falling to eventual champion Colorado State in the semifinals.
- San Diego State was also selected to finish third in the 2025 MW Preseason Coaches Poll, while Taylor Underwood earned a place on the Preseason Team. Underwood, one of 10 letterwinners returning from last season's roster, led the Aztecs offensively in 2024, starting 20 of 28 matches, posting team highs in kills (356) and kills per set (3.18), the latter of which ranked 10th in the league. She also collected 60 digs (0.54/set) and finished third on the team with a career-high 59 blocks (0.53/set), including a collegiate-best six solo blocks.
- Defensively, Gianna Bender returns for her sophomore season as she anchored an Aztec defense that ranked fourth in the conference in both digs (13.83/set) and opponent hitting percentage (.198) in 2024.
