DONS AT A GLANCE:

- Despite a solid offensive performance, San Francisco (USF) is coming off a 3-0 loss at home to Dartmouth on Thursday, Sept. 4, at Negroesco Stadium. The Dons accumulated nine shots in the loss to the Big Green, two coming on goal. Hannah Burns led the team in shots with three (a new career-high), putting one on frame. Kate Zimmerman also added a shot on goal of her own for USF.
- Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth recorded six saves in the loss to Dartmouth at home, the second-most saves in a game this season. She previously totaled a season-best eight at Stanford in the season opener on Aug. 14.
- San Francisco and UC San Diego faced off last season on the Hilltop, with the Dons picking up a 3-0 shutout of the Tritons on Aug. 18, 2024. In the win, Kaitlyn Sasadeusz and Lindsey Chau both scored while Sydney Harpster found the back of the net for the first time at the collegiate level. Overall, the two teams have faced off four times since 1990, with San Francisco holding a 3-1 record over UC San Diego during the stretch.
- Bengtsson-Stenseth, in her first season with the program, has totaled 23 saves in the first six games of the season, which ranks seventh in the West Coast Conference (WCC) as of Friday, Sept. 12.
- Kaitlyn Sasadeusz remains one of the most versatile players in the league on the attack as the forward still ranks in the top three (tied for third) in goals (3) heading into the weekend. Within the WCC, the junior also ranks in the top ten in game-winning goals (1/fourth), points (6/tied for sixth), and shots (14/tied for ninth).
- USF has seen success driving down the field offensively, but has not been able to convert its attacks as much as desired. San Francisco has forced 22 corner kicks on the season, good for sixth in the conference.
- San Francisco's matchup at UC San Diego on Sunday marks the program's final nonconference contest this fall.

SCOUTING THE TRITONS:

- Following a five match unbeaten streak, UC San Diego (UCSD) has dropped their two most recent contest as the Tritons fell at Colorado State, 2-1, on Sunday, Sept. 7 before dropping a match at home to Washington State, 1-0, on Thursday, Sept. 11. Natalie Abel scored the lone goal, her second of the season, for UCSD across the two matches.
- UC San Diego forward Ava Tibor has been named Big West Freshman of the Week twice so far this season. She scored two goals, one coming on a penalty kick, as the Tritons defeated UNLV, 3-2, on Aug. 24. Tibor's brace was her second of the season in just three matches played. Out of the seven braces by a Triton in UC San Diego's Division I history (2021-present), Tibor now boasts two of the seven.
- UC San Diego and San Francisco will be facing off more regularly in the years to come as UCSD recently accepted a bid to join the WCC in 2027-28. The Tritons first began competing at the Division I level in 2020-21 after 20 successful at the Division II level.
- Before the start of the regular season, UC San Diego was picked to finish seventh in the Big West Preseason Poll.
- UCSD returns nine student-athletes from last year's team: Abel, Andrea Guillen, Alexis Nguyen, Lindsey Park, Lana Gilligan, Kat Harris, Talissa Lin, Allie Luo, and Karize Madero.
