DONS AT A GLANCE:

- San Francisco continued its unbeaten streak last time out as the Dons finished in a hard-fought scoreless draw (0-0) at Cal Poly on Thursday, Sept. 11. Lucas Jones tied his season-high by recording four saves against the Mustangs as he picked up his second straight and third overall clean sheet of the season. With the draw at Cal Poly, San Francisco's only loss this fall remains a narrow 3-2 loss at No. 11 Indiana on Aug. 24.
- Lucas Jones has been a force to be reckoned with so far for the green and gold, as the Manhattan transfer has guided the Dons to shutouts in three of the four matches he has played in this season. Starting and playing a full 90 minutes in all four matches, Jones has compiled 12 saves, tied for sixth in the West Coast Conference (WCC). Notably, Jones is currently second in the WCC in save percentage (.923), goals against (1), and goals against average (0.25) as of Sunday, Sept. 14.
- As a team, San Francisco is currently second in the West Coast Conference (WCC) in goals against average (0.67), just behind No. 9 Portland, which has yet to give up a goal this season. USF also ranks in the top ten nationally in shutouts (4) as of Sunday.
- With a 4-1-1 record, San Francisco is ranked No. 20 in the most recent United Soccer Coaches Top 25 Rankings, marking the first time that the Dons have been nationally ranked under head coach Chris Brown. San Francisco was last nationally ranked on Sept. 11, 2018, when the Dons were No. 22 in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25 Rankings. Among other polls, the Dons are also ranked No. 17 in this week's Top Drawer Soccer Rankings. Shutting out their opponent for a second consecutive match, the Dons are tied for 36th in the nation in shutout percentage (.500) and tied for 14th across Division I in shutouts (three).
- After notching his first career brace against San Jose State last week, Brayden Beason is tied for the conference lead in goals alongside Arnau Farnos (Oregon State), Joe Highfield (Portland), and Yeider Zuluaga (Seattle U). Beason also ranks fourth in the WCC in points (9) heading into Monday night's matchup.
- Monday night's matchup will mark the 23rd meeting all-time between San Francisco and Sacramento State. The Dons currently hold a 10-8-4 advantage all-time over the Hornets, but Sacramento State most recently defeated USF, 1-0, last year (9/12/24).

SCOUTING THE HORNETS:

- Sacramento State is closing out its nonconference slate this fall with three consecutive WCC opponents as the Hornets were victorious on the road at Pacific, 2-1, on Thursday, Sept. 11. In the win over the Tigers, Allbrantly Gue scored a penalty kick goal in the 59th minute to level the match before Zac Giles punched home the eventual game-winner less than two minutes later in the 60th minute. Sacramento State will face off against San Francisco on Monday night before closing out its nonconference schedule with a home match against Saint Mary's on Friday, Sept. 19.
- Historically, Sacramento State is 4-7-2 on the road at San Francisco, including dropping its last two contests on the Hilltop - Sept. 17, 2023 (L, 1-0) and Aug. 26, 2021 (L, 2-1).
- Goalkeeper Lucas Bost currently ranks fourth in the Big West in both saves (19) and saves per game (3.80), having started in four of the five matches he has appeared in for Sacramento State this season. Andres Rosales has also seen time in the cage for the Hornets, picking up 14 saves in the three matches he has appeared in.
- Five different student-athletes have scored for Sacramento State so far this year: Gue, Giles, Donovan Sessoms, Sean Battitessa, and Nick Strangio. Sessoms leads the team with four points, tallying assists against Utah Tech (8/24) and Grand Canyon (8/28).
