DONS AT A GLANCE

- Wrapping up its nonconference slate, the University of San Francisco women's volleyball team will close out the USF Challenge on Saturday afternoon, in a rematch with San Jose State in a 1:00 p.m. match at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center.
- San Francisco is looking for its first win of the tournament, having lost against San Jose State on Wednesday night, 3-2, and against CSUN on Thursday night, 3-1. Overall, the Dons are looking to snap a four-game losing streak and a three-game home skid.
- On Thursday night against the Matadors, the green and gold took the first set in a tight 25-23 victory, but ultimately dropped the following three sets, 25-13, 25-16, and 25-17, respectively.
- Junior Astrid Puig led the Dons offensively against CSUN with a team-high eight kills, and freshman Andrea Fabikovicova once again led the program in assists with a team-best 27.
- Overall, this season, Puig leads San Francisco in both total points (104.0) and total kills (89). Defensively, junior Hokulani Perez leads the Dons in total blocks with 37, ranking sixth-best among West Coast Conference defenders.

SCOUTING THE SPARTANS

- After defeating San Francisco in its USF Challenge opener, San Jose State dropped its second match of the tournament on Friday night against CSUN, 3-1.
- In the loss over the Matadors, junior Fatimah Hall notched her third double-double of the campaign with 26 assists and 11 digs, and freshman Talita dos Santos Goncalves tallied 21 digs, the most by a Spartan this season.
- Offensively, redshirt junior Lolo Fonua and freshman Morgan Graves both lead San Jose State in total kills this season with 96 apiece.
- Saturday's contest against the Dons will mark the final match of nonconference action for San Jose State, as the Spartans are set to begin conference play on Thursday, Sept. 25, hosting UNLV.
