DONS AT A GLANCE:

- Returning to the pitch after 11 days off, the University of San Francisco men's soccer team will open conference action on Saturday night, hosting Oregon State in a 7:30 p.m. match at Negoesco Stadium. The Dons carry a five-game unbeaten streak heading into West Coast Conference play, holding the second-best record in the league behind No. 2 Portland (6-0-1). USF's lone loss in nonconference play came against current No. 3 Indiana (then-No. 11) in a narrow 3-2 defeat on Aug. 24 in the Hoosier State.
- Last time out, the green and gold shutout Sacramento State in a 3-0 victory on Monday, Sept. 15, on the Hilltop in the final game of nonconference action. Owen Benson, Zane Alafanji, and Chris Maldonado each netted their first goal of the season in the win, with Adrian Medina logging his first assist in a Dons uniform in the 87th minute, setting up Maldonado.
- In goal, Lucas Jones tallied three more saves in the win over the Hornets, as the San Francisco native has established himself as one of the nation's premier goalkeepers this season, ranking fourth across Division I in both save percentage (.938) and goals against average (0.200).
- Offensively, Brayden Beason leads the green and gold with four goals, good for fifth-most in the conference. Ben Norris' team-best three assists on the season are also good for fifth-most in the WCC.
- As a squad, San Francisco has been one of the nation's elite defensive teams as the Dons rank eighth in Division I in shutout percentage (.714) and 16th in the nation in team goals against average (0.571). Additionally, USF's .786 win percentage this year is tied for 23rd-best among all D-1 programs.
- Saturday night's conference opener will mark Oregon State's first-ever visit to the Hilltop as the Dons and Beavers will face off for just the second time in program history, having battled for the first time last year on Nov. 3, 2024, in a scoreless tie at Paul Lorenz Field in Corvallis.

SCOUTING THE BEAVERS:

- Set to begin its second and final conference slate as affiliate members of the WCC, Oregon State will head into Negoesco Stadium for the first time in program history on Saturday, carrying a 4-3 record in nonconference action this season, good for fourth-best in the league.
- The Beavers' match against the Dons will be the second stop of a two-game Bay Area road trip, having lost to No. 6 Stanford in their most recent match on Wednesday, Sept. 24, in a narrow 3-2 defeat. Oregon State was on the doorstep of upsetting the Cardinal, holding a 2-1 lead in the 61st minute, but Stanford battled back to snatch the victory with the game-winning goal coming with just 36 seconds remaining on the clock.
- Oregon State looks to continue its WCC success after accumulating a 5-2-1 record in conference action last season, the third-best record in the league behind San Francisco (2nd, 5-2-1) and San Diego (1st, 7-1).
- Freshman Arnau Farnos has led the offensive attack for the Beavers this season, leading the conference with five goals (T-1st) and 36 shots (1st), and ranking second in the league in total points (13).
- Before the start of the regular season, Oregon State was picked to finish second in the 2025 WCC Preseason Poll.
