DONS AT A GLANCE:

- San Francisco (USF) began West Coast Conference (WCC) play this Wednesday, Sept. 24, as the Dons hosted LMU on the Hilltop, with the Lions outlasting USF, 1-0, in a hard-fought match. Despite the loss, San Francisco finished with new season-highs in shots and shots on goal as the Dons outshot the Lions 20-10, including a 6-3 advantage in shots on goal. Individually, Lindsey Chau and Sydney Harpster both tallied a season-high four shots. Kaitlyn Sasadeusz also recorded her second four-shot game of the season, marking her seventh consecutive match with at least two shots. In goal, Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth recorded two saves for the Dons out of 10 total LMU shots, her sixth straight match with at least two saves. Kate Zimmerman also received her first start in 2025 on Wednesday night.
- Sasadeusz remains the focal point of the offense for San Francisco through eight matches so far, ranking fourth in the conference in shots (21) heading into Saturday. Additionally, the forward is also tied for fourth in goals (four), game-winning goals (1), tied for fifth in shots on goal (10), and tied for sixth in points (7).
- In goal, Bengtsson-Stenseth is one of six goalies in the conference to have started and played in eight matches or more, as she currently is tied for second in the WCC with three shutouts. The freshman also ranks seventh in the conference with 28 saves entering the match against Saint Mary's (SMC).
- Although they have not been able to obtain the result they aspire for, the Dons have tallied two shutouts across their past four matches - UC Irvine (Aug. 31) and at UC San Diego (Sept. 14).
- San Francisco and Saint Mary's have faced off 42 times since 1985, with the Gaels holding a 25-15-2 advantage in the head-to-head series during this stretch. Most recently, SMC defeated the Dons, 2-0, on Oct. 19, 2024, in Moraga. USF had previously won two straight matches - a 1-0 win on Nov. 5, 2022 (in San Francisco) and a 2-0 win on Sept. 30, 2023 (in San Francisco).

SCOUTING THE GAELS:

- Saint Mary's enters the weekend as the top team in the WCC as the Gaels are 6-1-1 overall this season, including a thrilling 1-0 victory over Gonzaga on Wednesday, Sept. 24. With 27 seconds remaining, junior forward Brooklyn Smith fired the ball in the corner of the net, securing a game-winning goal for the Gaels. The victory extended the Gaels' winning streak and shutout streak to six straight matches. Saint Mary's six-game winning streak is the program's longest since 2011, and its six consecutive shutouts are the longest stretch since 1999.
- Sophomore goalkeeper Kate Plachy ranks among WCC leaders in save percentage (.824), goals-against average (0.75, fifth), and goals against (6, fifth).
- Offensively, two Gaels rank in the top five in the conference in points heading into Saturday - Savannah Schwarze (9, tied for second) and Sydney Middaugh (8, fourth).
- Closing out nonconference action with a statement, SMC picked up a win on the road at No. 16 Georgetown on Sept. 14 as the Gaels downed the Hoyas, 2-0. Saint Mary's has now climbed to No. 20 in the most recent Top Drawer Soccer Poll.
