DONS AT A GLANCE:

- San Francisco continued its winning ways in its last time on the pitch as the Dons knocked off CSU Bakersfield, 1-0, on Monday, Sept. 1 at Negroesco Stadium. David Raphael's penalty kick goal at 9:00 proved to be all the green and gold would need to secure the victory, as the sophomore forward is now 2-2 in penalty kicks this season. Notably, the victory marked the second consecutive win for USF and the second shutout, both overall and at home on the Hilltop this fall.
- San Francisco and San Jose State (SJSU) will meet for the second time this season on Thursday night, having already squared off in a preseason exhibition on Aug. 16. The Dons and Spartans tied 1-1 in the exhibition match at Negroesco Stadium. Historically, the two teams have faced off in six of the last seven seasons (did not play each other in the COVID shortened 2020-21 season). During this stretch, San Francisco has compiled a 3-1-2 record against San Jose State, most recently defeating the Spartans 4-0 at home last year on Sept. 23, 2024. Head coach Chris Brown, who is now in his fifth year at the helm of the green and gold, has not lost to SJSU in three matches (1-0-2).
- Sitting close behind the conference leader, San Francisco is currently in second place in the West Coast Conference (WCC) at 3-1 behind No. 24 Portland (4-0). The Dons are one of only four teams in the WCC with one loss or less as of Wednesday, Sept. 3: Portland (0), San Francisco (1), San Diego (1), and Santa Clara. (1).
- Brayden Beason and David Raphael remain dangerous on the attack for the Dons to start the season, as the duo are both tied for third in the conference in goals (2) and points (5).
- In the cage, San Francisco has split duties between two individuals through four matches so far: two for Lucas Jones and two for William Krause. Both have impressed in their time on the pitch to begin the season, with Jones (1) ranking third and Krause (3) ranking fourth in the WCC in goals against. Additionally, Jones is fourth in the conference in goals-against average (0.50).
- Thursday will mark another early challenge for San Francisco as this match is the third of four road matches across a five-game stretch for the Dons. Previously, USF narrowly fell at No. 11 Indiana, 3-2, before taking down No. 17 California, 2-1.

SCOUTING THE SPARTANS:

- San Jose State has begun the season 3-0 for the first time since 2001, with wins over Cal Poly (2-0), Saint Mary's (2-1), and CSU Bakersfield (2-0). With a win over San Francisco on Thursday night, SJSU would move to 4-0 for the first time since 2000, the same season in which they started 7-0 and finished 20-1-1. Notably, two of SJSU's first three wins have come via shutout, with the Spartans allowing only one goal so far.
- San Jose State received three votes in last week's United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Men's Rankings, but the Spartans did not receive any votes in the latest poll this week. The last time SJSU was ranked nationally was in 2005.
- Making his collegiate debut this season, Arnold Matshazi has scored in each match for San Jose State so far. Alongside Matshazi, Ruben Flores-Thomas, Angel Fernandez, and Anthony Guzman have all scored once each.
- Head coach Simon Tobin will retire at the end of the 2025 season. This fall marks his 39th season as a head coach and 12th as head coach at SJSU. Previously, Tobin was the head coach at CSU Bakersfield from 1987 to 2013.
- Edgar Guerra has been the lone man in the cage for SJSU through three matches this season as the redshirt senior has compiled eleven saves while only allowing one goal across 270 minutes. Overall, he heads into Thursday with a .917 save percentage.
