THE OPENING TIP

Defending the Hilltop this past week, USF won 2-0 in its first home stand of conference action, most recently taking down Portland, 73-68, on Sunday night at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center. Trail- ing by as many as 17 points in the first half, the win over the Pilots marked the largest comeback victory for the Dons this season, and the largest comeback win for the program since USF's 19-point comeback victory over Santa Clara (W, 71-70) on Feb. 10, 2024.

San Francisco dominated the offensive glass against Portland, grabbing a season-high 20 offensive rebounds, with David Fuchs tying his career-high with six offensive boards en route to his second double-double (15 points, 10 rebounds) in the last three games and third overall this season. Providing a spark off the bench, Veniamin Abosi led the green and gold against the Pilots with a career-high 16 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the field and 3-of-4 shooting from deep in a season-high 29 minutes. The sophomore excelled on the glass in USF's home stand, grabbing a career-high nine rebounds against both San Diego (11/2) and Portland (11/4).

After winning the rebounding battle on Sunday night (43-26), San Francisco improved to 10-1 on the season when outrebounding its opponent as the Dons look to continue dominating the glass, with Fuchs leading the WCC in rebounds per game within conference play at 9.3 rebounds per contest. Following the first week of WCC play, San Francisco is one of five teams with at least three victories through the first four games of conference action, proving themselves as one of the best defensive teams in the league early on. Heading into Thursday, USF leads the league in opponent three-point percentage in WCC games, holding opponents to just 26.4 percent shooting from beyond-the-arc so far. San Francisco also ranks in the top three in the conference in opponent points per game (second, 65.3), opponent field goal percentage (third, 40.4), and rebounds per game (third, 39.5).

CHRIS GERLUFSEN

HEAD COACH | FOURTH SEASON AT SAN FRANCISCO | FIFTH OVERALL

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO:

Chris Gerlufsen enters his fourth year as the head coach of San Francisco after being elevated from associate head coach on March 18, 2022. This past season, Gerlufsen guided the Dons to an eighth straight full season of 20+ wins as the Dons finished 25-10 overall and 13-5 in conference play in 2024-25.

Last season, San Francisco finished third in the final West Coast Conference (WCC) regular season standings, earning back-to-back top-three finishes in the conference for the first time in 22 years (2001-02 and 2002-03). USF's 13 conference victories marked the most in a single season since 2013-14, when the green and gold also finished 13-5.

In postseason play, San Francisco reached the semifinal round of the WCC Tournament for the fourth consecutive season in 2024-25. The Dons earned a spot in the National Invitational Tournament (NIT) for the second straight season, being awarded the No. 1 seed in the San Francisco region of the 2025 NIT. USF took care of business in the opening round, defeating Utah Valley, 79-70, on Mar. 19 before narrowly falling to Loyola Chicago, 77-76, on Mar. 23.

Three Dons earned All-WCC honors in 2024-25 as Malik Thomas and Marcus Williams were both named to the All-WCC First Team while Tyrone Riley IV was named to the All-WCC Freshman Team. Notably, Williams earned a spot on the All-WCC First Team for the second straight year after also earning First Team honors in 2023-24. Thomas was also named a Lou Henson Award Finalist by Colleg Insider. com, which is presented annually to the top mid-major player in college basketball. Academically, Robby Beasley was named to the WCC All-Academic team last season.

Through his first three seasons as head coach on the Hilltop, Gerlufsen is 68-35 (.660) overall, including a 31-19 (.620) record in conference action. Each year, Gerlufsen has improved his win total, climbing from 20 wins in year one to 23 wins in year, and most recently 25 wins in year three.

In June 2024, Jonathan Mogbo became the first student-athlete from San Francisco drafted into the NBA since 1982 as the dynamic forward was selected with the 31st pick overall in the second round of the 2024 NBA Draft. With his selection, Mogbo became the first student-athlete from San Francisco to be drafted into the NBA since the trio of Quintin Dailey (Round 1, Pick 7/Chicago Bulls), Wallace Bryant (Round 2, Pick 30/Chicago Bulls) and John Hegwood (Round 9, Pick 186/San Diego Clippers) were selected in 1982. Overall, Mogbo became the 39th student-athlete from the university to be drafted into the NBA and the first under Gerlufsen. With his selection by Toronto, he is also the eighth Don all-time to be drafted in the second round. Additionally, Mogbo was the first West Coast Conference player taken off the board in the 2024 NBA Draft. It is just the second time since 2001 that a WCC school other than Gonzaga was the first to have a player selected (2023 - Brandin Podziemski/Santa Clara). Prior to the draft, Mogbo was one of 78 players invited to the 2024 NBA Draft Combine in Chicago from May 12-19.

Gerlufsen's inaugural season in 2022-23 began with a 7-1 start, a stretch highlighted by San Francisco winning the 2022 Hall of Fame Classic championship in Kansas City, MO. The Dons would finish nonconference play with a record of 11-4, which tied the most preseason win total by a first-year head coach at USF since 1980-81.

The team's 2022-23 campaign featured a 37-point win over #25 Arizona State - the largest victory over a ranked team in program history. That final margin also represents the fourth-biggest win for an unranked team over an AP Top 25 opponent in the past 31 seasons.

Gerlufsen's analytically-driven offensive system produced the 17th-most made threes per game in college basketball in 2021-22. When he was elevated to head coach in 2022-23, that number jumped to seventh in the country (out of 363 teams).

San Francisco's starting backcourt of Khalil Shabazz and Tyrell Roberts experienced significant success in 2022-23. Shabazz and Roberts were both selected as All-WCC First Team performers. Each of them improved their scoring outputs by over four points per game under Gerlufsen. Shabazz was named the Hall of Fame Classic MVP and a WCC All-Tournament team selection in his final season on the Hilltop. Roberts was selected to the Hall of Fame Classic All-Tournament team.

On March 18, 2022, Gerlufsen became the 21st head coach of the storied USF program, which has won two national championships (1955 & 1956) and one National Invitational championship (1949). In 2021-22, he was an integral part of San Francisco's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1998, serving as Todd Golden's associate head coach.

During the 2021-22 season, San Francisco won 24 games - the most victories by a Dons team since the men's basketball program was reinstated from shutdown in 1985. The team's at-large NCAA Tournament berth was the program's first since the bracket was expanded to its modern format of 64+ teams.

In Gerlufsen's first year on staff, USF finished among college basketball's elite in many metric-based rankings, including a 23rd place finish in KenPom and 26th in the NCAA's NET rankings. Following a successful 2021-22 campaign, USF star guard Jamaree Bouyea became the first San Francisco Don to play in the NBA since Bill Cartwright in 1995.

Prior to Gerlufsen's arrival on the Hilltop, he spent two seasons as the top assistant to head coach Eran Ganot at Hawaii. During the 2019-20 season, he served as the acting head coach for Hawaii's first 13 games and compiled an 8-5 record (.615). His winning percentage at Hawaii currently ranks 2nd all-time in their school's Division I history. Among Gerlufsen's signature wins was an 85-75 upset victory over previously undefeated San Francisco. While at Hawaii, Gerlufsen coached All-Big West First Team guard Eddie Stansberry.

Before Hawaii, Gerlufsen spent four seasons as an assistant coach in the WCC with the University of San Diego. During his time at USD, the Toreros posted back-to-back 20+ win seasons for the first time ever. Gerlufsen's final season at San Diego saw the Toreros earn a bid to the 2019 NIT - the only NIT invitation in USD history. While coaching with the Toreros, Gerlufsen helped forward Isaiah Pineiro develop into a two-time All-WCC First Team performer.

Gerlufsen was particularly instrumental in San Diego's turnaround from an international recruiting standpoint, signing more than a half dozen foreign players during his tenure. One notable recruit, Yauhen Massalski, would play for Gerlufsen at both San Diego and San Francisco, where he blossomed into an All-WCC First Team selection on the Dons' 2021-22 NCAA Tournament team.

From 2006-15, Gerlufsen spent nine seasons on the bench at the University of Hartford. After seven years as an assistant coach, he was promoted to associate head coach for the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons. Gerlufsen served as the program's recruiting coordinator during that time. While at Hartford, Gerlufsen designed the team's perimeter-oriented motion offense. His system triggered six consecutive seasons with 225+ made 3's. In 2007-08, Hartford set an America East Conference record by connecting on 312 made 3's - a number which ranked 10th nationally.

From 2001-06, Gerlufsen spent his five seasons coaching at The Citadel under Pat Dennis. On January 2, 2004, Gerlufsen served as interim head coach for one game. He began his head coaching career 1-0 with a 82-58 win over Army. Before working in the Division I ranks, Gerlufsen got his start with coaching jobs at Southwestern from 1999-2001 and Washington College (Maryland) in 1998-99.

As a player, Gerlufsen was a four-time letter winner for Randolph-Macon College, a Division III school in Virginia. While playing for the Yellow Jackets, he was named team captain for a squad that advanced to the NCAA Division III tournament twice. He graduated in 1998 with a B.A. in business and economics. Gerlufsen currently resides in San Francisco, CA with his wife Ila.

CONTINUED SUCCESS ON THE HILLTOP:

San Francisco has won 20+ games in the last eight full seasons dating back to 2016-17. The only season in which the Dons have not reached the 20-win mark was 2020-21, when the schedule was shortened to 25 total games (without fans in attendance) due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Last year, USF won 25 games, the most wins for the program in a single-season since San Francisco went 25-6 in 1981-82.

POSTSEASON REGULARS:

San Francisco has reached a postseason tournament in three of its last four seasons, beginning with the program's first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1998 in March 2022. The Dons have been selected to participate in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) the past two seasons. Last year, USF earned a No. 1 seed in the San Francisco region, taking down Utah Valley (79-70) in the opening round of the tournament before narrowly falling to Loyola Chicago (77-76) in the second round. In 2024, USF dropped an overtime contest on the road at Cincinnati (73-72) in the opening round.

DON'T SLEEP ON THE DONS:

San Francisco was picked to finish third in this year's West Coast Conference Men's Basketball Preseason Poll, earning 98 total points, including one first-place vote, to finish behind Gonzaga (119 points) and Saint Mary's (109 points). Ryan Beasley and Tyrone Riley IV were named to the Men's Basketball Preseason Team. Notably, four schools had two representatives on the Preseason Team: San Francisco, Gonzaga, Saint Mary's, and Santa Clara, along with Elias Ralph of Pacific.

BACK AND HUNGRY FOR MORE:

Seven student-athletes return from last year's team: Veniamin "Ben" Abosi, Ryan Beasley, Saba Gigiberia, Ndewedo Newbury, Tyrone Riley IV, Isa Silva, and Junjie "Barry" Wang. Beasley aims to be the head of the snake for San Francisco this season, having been named the WCC Freshman of the Year in 2023-24 followed by ending last year in the starting lineup.

SEASONED VETERANS:

The Dons bring in a wealth of experience through the transfer portal in the additions of Aidan Braccia (Belmont), Mookie Cook (Oregon), David Fuchs (Rhode Island), Guillermo Diaz Graham (Pittsburgh), and Vukasin Masic (Portland/Maine/Hofstra). Masic is a familiar face for USF fans, having played at Portland the past two seasons. Diaz Graham aims to be a pivotal piece for the green and gold, having averaged 5.0 rebounds in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) last season.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR:

USF rosters student-athletes from nine different countries this season: United States (Ryan Beasley, Sean Blakely Drummond, Aidan Braccia, Mookie Cook, Tyrone Riley IV, Isa Silva, Legend Smiley), Austria (David Fuchs), China (Junjie "Barry" Wang), England (Ndewedo Newbury), Georgia (Saba Gigiberia), Greece (Veniamin "Ben" Abosi), Italy (Weilun Zhao), Serbia (Vukasin Masic), and Spain (Guillermo Diaz Graham).

SCOUTING THE LIONS

- LMU has opened WCC action with a 1-3 record through the first week of conference play, most recently falling to No. 7/7 Gonzaga, 82-47, on Sunday. Prior to the loss in Spokane, the Lions' two other conference losses were by five points or less, including a nail-biting 78-73 defeat at home against Saint Mary's on Dec. 28 that came down to the final seconds.
- The offensive output has been balanced for LMU this season as four Lions are averaging double-figures, led by junior guard Rodney Brown's 14.6 points per game (10th in the WCC). Brown has been the WCC's best shooter from distance this season as he leads the league in both three-point percentage (40.8) and three-pointers made per game (3.2). Right behind Brown, redshirt senior guard Myron Amey, Jr. is averaging 14.1 points (11th in WCC) and 2.8 threes per game, good for second in the league.
- Slovenian junior Jan Vide has upped his aggressiveness offensively to open league play as he leads LMU in scoring in WCC action, averaging 16.5 points per game (fifth in the WCC) on 48.2 percent shooting from the floor. Vide's 28-point performance on Jan. 2 at Washington State is tied for the second-highest scoring game of WCC action this season (30, SMC's Paulius Murauskas on Jan. 2 vs. Seattle U).
- In his sixth season as head coach at LMU, Stan Johnson looks to lead the Lions to back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in his tenure as head coach, finishing with a 17-15 record last season in 2024-25. Johnson is hungry to take LMU to its first postseason berth since its CBI appearance in 2019.

SERIES HISTORY

- Thursday night's nationally televised contest in L.A. will be the 172nd all-time meeting between San Francisco and LMU, with the Dons holding a 122-49 record in the all-time series. Last season, the green and gold completed the season sweep over the Lions, first securing a 70-55 victory on the Hilltop on Dec. 28, 2024, followed by a 72-66 road victory at Gersten Pavilion on Feb. 8, 2025. San Francisco has won its last six meetings against LMU, with head coach Chris Gerlufsen holding a perfect 5-0 record against the Lions.
