THE OPENING TIP

The University of San Francisco women's basketball team (14-10, 7-6) wraps up its homestand with a 5:00 p.m. showdown against Pepperdine (15-10, 6-7) on Saturday, Feb. 14, at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center.

The green and gold are eager to respond after a 72-55 setback against Saint Mary's on Saturday, Feb. 7.

Mara Neira provided an offensive spark for the Dons against the Gaels, leading all scorers with 18 points on 42.8 percent (six-for-14) shooting. She knocked down four three-pointers and added three rebounds and a steal in a confident, high-energy performance.

Candy Edokpaigbe powered the offense with 17 points on six-for-13 shooting and two rebounds. Her consistent scoring presence continues to stand out, as she ranks second in the West Coast Conference with 17.0 points per game.

Noelia Mouriño delivered a dominant all-around performance, grabbing a game-high 12 rebounds and recording a near triple-double with six points and a career-high six assists. Reinforcing her strong presence on the glass, she ranks fourth in the WCC at 7.1 rebounds per game and is one of only two freshmen averaging seven or more boards per game.

MOLLY GOODENBOUR

HEAD COACH | 10TH SEASON AT SAN FRANCISCO | 20TH OVERALL

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS AT SAN FRANCISCO:

Molly Goodenbour, a two-time national champion at Stanford with over a decade of head coaching experience on the collegiate level, was named the ninth head coach in University of San Francisco women's basketball history on Sept. 28, 2016. This is Goodenbour's third coaching stint on the Hilltop, where she served as an assistant coach with the Dons during the 1994-95 and 2005-06 seasons.

Goodenbour completed her ninth season on the Hilltop following the conclusion of the 2024-25 season, leading San Francisco to a 15-16 overall record and a fifth-place finish in the West Coast Conference standings at 11-9. The Dons' 11 league wins last season marked the most victories in WCC play since 2016-17, when the program compiled an 11-7 record in Goodenbour's first season at the helm.

Guiding the program to one of its best-ever starts in conference play, Goodenbour led the Dons to a perfect 5-0 record, defeating teams by an average of 13.8 points. During the five-game winning streak, the green and gold earned convincing triumphs over Gonzaga, LMU, Santa Clara, Saint Mary's, and Pepperdine.

In 2023-24, Goodenbour led San Francisco to a second-half resurgence as the team finished in a tie for third place in the West Coast Conference standings after starting the season with a 4-9 record. The program posted double-digit victories in WCC play for the fifth time in Goodenbour's tenure as the team finished at 10-6, highlighted by season sweeps of Pacific, Saint Mary's, Pepperdine, and LMU.

San Francisco also finished the season strong, rolling eventual WCC Tournament Champions Portland on the road, earning a 59-47 victory at Chiles Center. Under Goodenbour's guidance, Jasmine Gayles and Debora dos Santos earned All-WCC First Team honors. Dos Santos recorded a career season, averaging a double-double with 15.3 points and 10.6 rebounds per game, while Gayles led the squad in scoring at 16.8 points per game. Gayles also recorded the second 40-point game in program history, dropping 40 points in an 81-68 win at Pacific on January 13.

The 2022-23 season, under Goodenbour's leadership, concluded with an overall record of 19-13. Three Dons earned All-WCC selections, while two Dons earned WCC All-Academic Honors. The Dons also participated in their third straight WNIT.

Within the first six years on the Hilltop, Goodenbour posted impressive numbers, including becoming the winningest coach in San Francisco history through 50 games (27-23), as well as through two seasons at 34-28 (.548). Goodenbour quickly built up her impressive resume at USF, becoming the first coach to post winning overall and conference records in her first two seasons on the job.

Building off the program's strong start to the new decade, the Dons were once again punching a postseason ticket as they battled through a grueling non-conference schedule that kept them away from the Hilltop from Thanksgiving until after New Year's Day. Following an 0-4 start to WCC play, battling through injuries and COVID-19-related pauses, the Dons went on to rattle off wins in six of their next seven games and finished with the third seed heading into the WCC Tournament. USF would go on to defeat Santa Clara in Vegas before returning home to host Air Force in the WNIT. Since the start of the 2020-21 season, Goodenbour's Dons have made consecutive WNIT appearances and won at least one game in back-to-back WCC Tournaments. Led by two-time All-WCC First Team selection Ioanna Krimili, USF's 2020-21 team led the conference in total points and points per game while being a top-four program in team plus/minus.

Goodenbour's third WCC Tournament in 2019 saw her lead the Dons to a first-round victory over Portland, marking the seventh year in a row the Dons advanced beyond their opening game. Goodenbour's 2017-18 squad placed three WCC All-Conference and All-Academic honorees. Anna Seilund earned First-Team All-WCC and Second-Team All-WCC recipients Michaela Rakova and Kalyn Simon.

She finished her first year on the Hilltop in 2016-17 with an 18-13 overall record that included an 11-7 mark in West Coast Conference play, enough for a fourth-place finish, the Dons' highest since the 2002-03 season. In the process, Goodenbour became the first USF head coach since Sue Rojcewicz in 1982-83 to post a winning record in her first year at the helm and compiled the second-best record by a first-year coach in program history. In addition, USF's 11 WCC wins under Goodenbour were the most since the 1996-97 campaign.

Under Goodenbour, the Dons led the conference in free-throw percentage at .778, which stands as the best single-season percentage in program history. Goodenbour's team also led the WCC in three-point shooting (.346) in 2016-17.

Their 217 three-pointers made were the most in program history, including a program-best 15 three-pointers in a win over Portland on February 18, 2017. Goodenbour's squad placed four student-athletes on the WCC All-Academic team in 2016-17 and boasted a pair of All-WCC honorees in first-teamer Rachel Howard and second-team recipient Anna Seilund.

OTHER CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

Goodenbour came to USF following previous head coaching experience at Santa Rosa Junior College, Chico State, UC Irvine, and Cal State Dominguez Hills. Her overall career record, including two seasons at Santa Rosa JC, stands at 222-142 (.610).

Before her appointment at Cal State-East Bay, Goodenbour spent four seasons as the head coach at Cal State-Dominguez Hills. After taking over a program that had posted a 7-48 record in the previous two seasons, Goodenbour led the Toros to a 77-34 (.694) record in her four seasons. Under her guidance, the Toros won California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Tournament Championships in 2013-14 and 2014-15 and CCAA regular season titles in 2014-15 and 2015-16 and made three consecutive NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Championship appearances from 2013-16. Her 2014-15 squad won a school-record 26 games and earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional.

Goodenbour began her career at Santa Rosa Junior College in 2002-03. After one season as an associate head coach, she took over the head coaching duties for two seasons (2003-05), leading the Bear Cubs to a 69-21 record, two conference championships, and a quarterfinal appearance in the California state championship.

Her second coaching stint at San Francisco came during the 2005-06 season when she served as an assistant on Mary Hile-Nepfel's staff. Following the season, she was appointed head coach at Chico State where she led the Wildcats to a 52-11 record and a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2007-08, she was named the CCAA's Coach of the Year after guiding her team to a 28-6 overall record, regular season and conference tournament titles along with a Sweet 16 appearance. The Wildcats finished the year ranked No. 17 in the nation among all Division II teams.

Goodenbour's first Division I head coaching job came at UC Irvine, where she served as the Anteater's coach from 2008-12. The Anteaters qualified for the Big West Tournament in her four seasons at the helm, posting the highest single-season win total (15 in 2010-11) in nearly a decade and had eight players earn all-conference honors during her four-year tenure.

PERSONAL HIGHLIGHTS:

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Goodenbour was a standout performer at Stanford, where she was a four-year letterwinner under Tara VanDerveer from 1989-93. She helped the Cardinal to four straight Pac-10 championships, three NCAA Final Fours, and a pair of NCAA Championships in 1990 and 1992. Goodenbour was named the most valuable player of the 1992 Final Four after setting an NCAA Tournament record for most postseason three-pointers made with 18. She finished her collegiate career with 1,040 points and still ranks among the school's career top-10 in three-pointers made (178), assists (441), and free throw percentage (.793).

2025-26 SEASON NOTES

A NEW GROUP FOR A NEW CAMPAIGN:

Notable returners from last season's roster include Sol Castro and Paula Tirado, while San Francisco added six talented transfers, including Olivia Williams (UC Irvine), Mara Neira (Presbyterian/Appalachian State), Meghan McIntyre (Southern Oregon), Nevaeh Ferrara Horne (North Dakota), Michelle Ugwah (Morehead State), and Candy Edokpaigbe (Seattle U). Noelia Mourão, Aina Cargol, Amy Pateman, Nataša Taušová, and Sophia Priestley join the team on the Hilltop as freshmen.

AN INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE:

San Francisco features 11 players from countries outside the United States, including Argentina, Canada, Ireland, Italy, New Zealand, Norway, Slovakia, and Spain. San Francisco's 11 international players rank tied with Hawaii for third in Division I, while the nine total represented countries (including the United States) are the second most in the nation, tied with Columbia, Washington State and Xavier.

STUDS PLAYING OVERSEAS:

San Francisco had four incoming student-athletes compete for their national teams last summer. Freshmen Aina Cargol and Noelia Mourão guided Spain to a first-place finish at the FIBA U18 Women's EuroBasket in La Palma, Spain. Olivia Williams appeared in two games for New Zealand in the FIBA Women's Asia Cup Division A. Candy Edokpaigbe guided Italy to a third-place finish and averaged 13.9 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 1.6 assists at the FIBA U20 Women's EuroBasket in Matosinhos, Portugal.

CANDY PUT ON A SHOW IN PORTUGAL:

Candy Edokpaigbe competed for Italy in the 2025 FIBA U20 Women's EuroBasket this past summer and averaged an impressive 13.9 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 1.6 assists per game in seven games. In her second game of the tournament, Edokpaigbe put on a show with 23 points, seven rebounds, and one assist in a win over the Czech Republic. She finished the tournament with five double-digit scoring games, shooting 47.7 percent (32-for-67) in those contests.

AINA AND NOELIA WIN GOLD:

Incoming freshmen Aina Cargol and Noelia Mourão helped lead Spain to the gold medal in the FIBA U18 Women's EuroBasket in La Palma, Spain, last summer. The title marks the first gold medal Cargol and Mourão have earned with their country. The duo helped guide Spain to a bronze medal at the 2024 FIBA U17 Women's Basketball World Cup.

CONTRACT EXTENSION:

Last May, Head Coach Molly Goodenbour signed a three-year contract extension, extending her through the 2027-28 season. Through 20 seasons as a head coach with nine on the Hilltop, Goodenbour has compiled a 307-274 record, with 134 victories coming at San Francisco. She has totaled five 20-win seasons and has guided the green and gold to six straight seasons with double-digit wins.

AINA CAME TO PLAY:

Aina Cargol reached the 20-point threshold in a game on Friday, Nov. 14, scoring 20 points against Seton Hall at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center. Posting her best shooting performance in just her third-career game, Cargol shot 58.3 percent (seven-for-12) from the field and knocked down two of her three three-point attempts. She is the second player this season to score 20 or more points in a game, with Candy Edokpaigbe registering 26 in the 64-40 win over UNC Greensboro in the season opener.

A CANDY DOUBLE-DOUBLE:

Candy Edokpaigbe posted an impressive 24-point, 10-rebound double-double in the win over UC San Diego on Sunday, Nov. 16, her first as a Don and third of her career. In 38 minutes in the win over the Tritons, Edokpaigbe shot 47.4 percent (nine-for-19) from the field, connected on six of her seven free-throw attempts, and registered two steals. Her accomplishment marks the highest scoring double-double for the program since Freja Werth recorded a 30-point, 10-rebound double-double in the win over San Diego on March 1, 2025.

NOELIA BROKE OUT:

Noelia Mouriño reached career-highs in just her fourth-career game as she scored 16 points and grabbed eight rebounds. She had her best shooting performance to date, connecting on eight of her 14 shot attempts, with seven coming at the rim.

WCC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK:

After two impressive performances at home, Aina Cargol was named West Coast Conference Freshman of the Week on Monday, Nov. 17. In two games on the Hilltop against Seton Hall and UC San Diego, Cargol averaged 15.5 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 4.5 assists. She broke out offensively against Seton Hall on Friday, Nov. 14, scoring a career-high 20 points on 58.3 percent (seven-for-12) shooting, while adding three rebounds and three assists. She followed with 11 points and a career-best six assists in San Francisco's 80-69 victory over UC San Diego on Sunday, Nov. 16.

ACTIVE ON THE GLASS:

Noelia Mouriño registered impressive numbers in San Francisco's road game at Long Beach State on Thursday, Nov. 20, guiding the team with nine points, 17 rebounds, and three assists in a 68-55 victory. Her rebounding effort marked the first time she has posted double-digit boards in a game and set the West Coast Conference's single-game high to this point this season to date, passing Oregon State's Néné Sow (15).

SHE'S BACK:

After missing the majority of the 2024-25 season due to injury, Sol Castro made her season debut and scored 14 points and eight rebounds in 15 minutes off the bench. Her 14 points mark the most Castro has scored in a season debut in her career, surpassing her 12-point performance at St. Bonaventure in the opening game of the 2021-22 season when she played at Robert Morris.

BACK-TO-BACK WCC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOREE:

Candy Edokpaigbe led San Francisco in scoring in two wins last week over Lehigh and CSU Monterey Bay, averaging 19.5 points per game on an impressive 73.9 percent shooting. Registering her fourth 20+ scoring performance of the season in the win over Lehigh on Tuesday, Nov. 25, Edokpaigbe scored a team-best 25 points and knocked down a career-high 11 field goals in 38 minutes of action. Playing 14 minutes against CSU Monterey Bay on Sunday, Nov. 30, she posted 14 points while only missing three shots, as she went six-for-nine from the field, with two three-pointers.

NEARLY AT FULL STRENGTH:

Following missing the first six games of the 2025-26 season, Olivia Williams, the transfer guard from UC Irvine, recorded seven points, three rebounds, and two steals in 14 minutes off the bench in the 92-52 victory over CSU Monterey Bay on Sunday, Nov. 30. The last game Williams appeared in before making her season debut for the green and gold was last season in the Big West Championship Semifinals where she totaled one assist in 11 minutes.

CAREER HIGH FOR NATAŠA

Nataša Taušová showed out against Colorado State on Saturday, Dec. 13, leading the team with a career-high 14 points. Taušová shot 44.4 percent from the floor and knocked down two three-pointers. She also matched career-highs in rebounds with five.

MONEY AT THE FREE THROW LINE:

In the last five games, Candy Edokpaigbe is shooting 96.0 percent from the free throw line, knocking down 24 of her 25 attempts. In the West Coast Conference opener against Oregon State on December 28, Edokpaigbe connected on all eight of her attempts from the charity stripe, setting a new season-high. Through 12 games this season, she leads the team in free-throw percentage at 79.6 percent.

MARA FOUND HER SHOT:

Breaking out in the Dons' 28-point third quarter in the win over Portland on Tuesday, Dec. 30, Mara Neira scored all 16 of her points in the 10-minute period. In the third, Neira went six-for-eight from the field and four-of-five from the three-point line. In 23 total minutes played throughout the contest, Neira shot 54.5 percent (six-for-11) from the field and knocked down four three-pointers.

OT THRILLER:

San Francisco earned a come-from-behind 85-82 overtime victory at LMU on Sunday, Jan. 4 at Gersten Pavilion. Trailing 74-71, Aina Cargol drained a game-tying three-pointer in the final seconds to force the extra period. Since Molly Goodenbour took over the program before the 2016-17 season, San Francisco is 7-6 in overtime games during the regular season (7-7 overall). The team dropped a 72-65 decision to Santa Clara in the first round of the West Coast Conference Championship in 2020.

ANOTHER WEEKLY HONOR FOR THE FRESHMAN:

For the second time this season, Aina Cargol has been named West Coast Conference Co-Freshman of the Week, shared with Gonzaga's Lauren Whittaker. Cargol paced San Francisco in three wins, averaging 12.7 points, 3.7 rebounds, and 6.7 assists per game in wins over Portland, San Diego, and LMU. Recording back-to-back double-digit games, Cargol finished the week with a 17-point, eight-assist performance in an 85-82 overtime victory at LMU on Sunday, Jan. 4. Scoring 13 of her 17 points in the second half and overtime, Cargol connected on the game-tying three with 14 seconds left to send the contest into an extra period. In the overtime period, she knocked down six of her eight free-throw attempts to help seal the victory.

FIRST-CAREER DOUBLE-DOUBLE:

Noelia Mouriño recorded her first-career double-double with 16 points and 12 rebounds in San Francisco's 85-72 victory at Washington State on Saturday, Jan. 17. Mouriño becomes the third player this season to record a double-double and the program's first freshman since Ioanna Krimili totaled 13 points and 11 assists in the Dons' 108-82 win at Sacramento State on December 22, 2020.

CAREER-HIGHS FOR PAULA AND AINA:

Aina Cargol and Paula Tirado recorded career-highs in points, with Cargol totaling 21 and Tirado with 15 off the bench at Washington State. Cargol also posted highs in rebounds (six), three-pointers (four), and minutes (40), while Tirado shot 75 percent (six-for-eight) from the floor, her best shooting percentage in a game with at least eight shots in her career.

THE SPANIARDS WENT OFF:

San Francisco is the only Division I program to date that had three or more players from Spain score in double figures during a single game against another Division I opponent this season. Specifically, in the green and gold's victory at Washington State on January 17, Aina Cargol (21), Noelia Mouriño (16), and Paula Tirado (15) reached double figures. While FIU had four players from Spain—Judit Valero (Sant Feliu de Llobregat, Barcelona, Spain), Adama Badjie Coly (Mataro, Spain), Caludia Marina (Madrid, Spain), and Grecia Ferrer Leal (Baladona, Spain)—score 10 or more points in a game on December 30, that performance came in a 122-30 victory over Florida National, an NAIA team, rather than a Division I opponent.

TAUŠOVÁ CONTINUES TO SHOW GROWTH:

Nataša Taušová recorded multiple career-highs in the 68-61 victory over Pacific on Saturday, Jan. 24, as she totaled 15 points on 50 percent (six-for-12) shooting, three three-pointers, and two blocks. Her six made field goals matched a career-best, and she shot 50 percent or better from the floor for the sixth time this season.

SCOUTING THE REDHAWKS

WAVES STRUGGLE ON THE ROAD:

Pepperdine arrives on the Hilltop following a 72-62 loss to LMU on Thursday, Feb. 12, that snapped a four-game winning streak. The setback continued a season-long trend away from Malibu, as the program is 4-7 in road games this season.

GUINEY PACES THE WAVES' SCORING:

Elli Guiney has emerged as a primary offensive option for Pepperdine, leading the team with 14.2 points per game in her first season playing significant minutes after transferring from UNLV, where she averaged 4.4 minutes per contest last year. The sophomore guard scored 22 points in the Waves' most recent game, including 16 in the fourth quarter, and ranks 11th in the WCC in scoring. She has set four career highs this season and is shooting 39.3 percent from three-point range, sitting four made threes shy of entering the program's single-season record book.

GREEN PROVIDES BENCH PRODUCTION:

Graduate forward Bella Green has been a key contributor off the bench for the Waves over the last five games, leading the team shooting 61.3 percent from the floor while averaging 8.8 points, the most among reserves during that stretch. In Pepperdine's recent matchup against LMU, Green also surpassed the 1,000-career rebound milestone.

PRESTON ANCHORS THE DEFENSE:

Shorna Preston remains the defensive centerpiece for the Waves, leading the squad in rebounds at 9.0 per game, while also topping the team in blocks and steals. Her performance ranks her second in the WCC in rebounding and fourth in blocks, where she averages 1.4 per game.

SERIES HISTORY

- Saturday's contest marks the 92nd time San Francisco and Pepperdine have faced off, with the Dons holding the all-time series lead over the Waves, 49-42.
- San Francisco is currently on a four-game winning streak and has defeated Pepperdine in nine of the last 10 contests dating back to the 2020-21 season.
- In their two meetings last season, San Francisco won 76-60 at home and 72-48 on the road. This week's matchup is the only regular-season meeting between the teams.

SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

1995

NCAA First Round – March 16, 1995 - Seattle, Wash.

No. 6 Arkansas 67, No. 11 San Francisco 58

San Francisco made its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1995 as the No. 11 seed in the West Region. The Dons traveled to the University of Washington in Seattle to face Arkansas. Brittany Lindhe led the way with 21 points, while Jamie Shadian and Renee Demirdjian each added 11 as the Dons got its first taste of the Dance.

Team Highlights:

16-game winning streak • Finished with a 24-5 overall record • West Coast Conference Champions • Posted a perfect 13-0 record at home • Program's first NCAA appearance.

1996

NCAA First Round – March 16, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

No. 12 San Francisco 68, No. 5 Florida 51

San Francisco earned its second NCAA Tournament appearance as the No. 12 seed in the Mideast Region. The Dons started their Cinderella run with a 68-61 victory over then-No. 16 Florida. Valerie Gillon dominated with a 28-point, nine-rebound performance, while Andrea Kagie added 15 points off the bench. USF led 31-29 at halftime and never trailed in the second half.

NCAA Second Round - March 18, 1996 - Durham, N.C.

No. 12 San Francisco 64, No. 4 Duke 60

San Francisco garnered the biggest win in school history as the Dons shocked regional host, then-No. 13 Duke, 64-60, at Cameron Indoor Stadium. For the Blue Devils, it was the first nonconference loss at home since 1991. Brittany Lindhe led the Dons with 17 points, while Julie Murdent scored 14 points off the bench, and Renee Demirdjian added 12.

NCAA Sweet Sixteen – March 23, 1996 - Chicago, Ill.

No. 1 Connecticut 72, No. 12 San Francisco 44

The eyes of the country were on San Francisco as the team faced defending national champions, Connecticut, in the Sweet Sixteen. In front of the largest crowd (7,190) to watch a women's basketball game in Illinois, the Dons fell short, dropping the 72-44 decision to the Huskies. The game was tied 13-13 midway through the first half before UConn pulled away for a 37-28 halftime lead. Valerie Gillon scored 13 points in her final collegiate contest, while Julie Murdent came off the bench to add 10 points.

Team Highlights:

NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance, its longest run in the tournament in program history • Ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today/CNN women's basketball poll • NCAA Tournament wins over nationally ranked Duke and Florida • WCC Tournament Champions • WCC Regular Season Co-Champions • Nine- and seven-game winning streaks • Single-season records for blocks (147) and rebounds (1,302) • Won 20 of the final 23 contests • Played before four crowds of 3,500 or more • posted a final record of 24-8, and a 12-2 WCC record.

1997

NCAA First Round – March 15, 1997 - Gainesville, Fla.

No. 6 Southern California 68, No. 11 San Francisco 55

The Dons were awarded a No. 11 seed in the Mideast Region and were slated to face No. 6 USC in the opening round. San Francisco came out of the gates strong and trailed by only six at halftime. The Dons eventually fell 68-55 to the Women of Troy. Brittany Lindhe paced USF with 15 points, while Renee Demirdjian added 13 in her final game wearing Green and Gold.

Team Highlights:

Third-straight NCAA appearance • Third-consecutive WCC title • 25-6 overall record, marking third-straight season with at least 24 victories • Three all-WCC First Team selections, marking a program first • Record-setting home attendance, including two games with 4,000 plus fans • Ranked as high as No. 21 in the USA Today/CNN Coaches' Poll • Nine-game winning streak.

2016

NCAA First Round - March 19, 2016 - Stanford, Calif.

No. 4 Stanford 85, No. 13 San Francisco 58

The Dons' first NCAA appearance in almost a decade was especially poignant given that Head Coach Jennifer Azzi would be matching up with her former coach at Stanford, Tara Vanderveer. San Francisco garnered a No. 13 seed, but the contest ended up lopsided as No. 4 seed Stanford came away with an 85-58 victory on their home floor of Maples Pavilion. Rachel Howard was the Dons' top scorer with 14 points, while Taylor Proctor (13 pts., two reb) and Michaela Rakova (12 pts., four reb) were the other Dons in double figures.
