DONS AT A GLANCE

-The University of San Francisco (USF) women's soccer program enters a new era this season after former head coach Pinder Nijjar stepped down from the helm to take a job as assistant coach at Stanford back in May.

-New Director of Athletics Brent Blaylock promoted Alexis Mata from assistant coach to interim head coach on July 2 after two years on the staff under Nijjar. She joined the Dons after serving as a volunteer assistant at the University of Oregon in 2023.

-Mata has built a new coaching staff over the past few months, hiring Yvan Trevino, Jason Brown, and Kieran Marshall as assistants. Dominick Aragona joined the staff as Director of Operations. USF also brings in 12 new student-athletes this year.

-San Francisco returns two of its four All-WCC selections from last year as Alicia Osegueda and Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth, who were both named to the 2025 Women's Soccer All-WCC Freshman Team, return to the Hilltop for their sophomore seasons.

-Osegueda started and played in all 18 matches last season, finishing third on the team with 27 shots and 12 shots on goal, good for a 0.444 shot percentage. Bengtsson-Stenseth shined in the cage as she started in all 18 matches, playing all 90 minutes in each match as well. She was one of only two Dons to play every minute alongside Danica Lunceford. Overall, Bengtsson-Stenseth finished with 69 saves, five shutouts, and a 0.697 save percentage. She would go on to finish fourth in the conference in saves and fourth in shutouts.

Director of Athletics Brent Blaylock announced on July 2, 2026 that Assistant Coach Alexis Mata has been elevated to interim head women's soccer coach for the 2026 season.

Coming to the Hilltop in spring 2024, Mata served as an assistant coach under Pinder Nijjar for the past two seasons. She joined the Dons after serving as a volunteer assistant at the University of Oregon in 2023. While in Eugene, Mata coached at the club level locally. She holds a United States Soccer National C License, an advanced soccer coaching certification focused on U-13 to U-19 age groups.

During her first two seasons at USF, the Dons have yielded notable success, including five All-West Coast Conference (WCC) selections: Lindsey Chau (2024 - Honorable Mention, 2025 - Second Team), Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth (2025- All-Freshman), Alicia Osegueda (2025 - All-Freshman), and Kaitlyn Sasadeusz (2025 - Honorable Mention). As a team, San Francisco recorded a notable victory with a 2-0 shutout of No. 18 Texas Tech at home on Aug. 24, 2025.

Primarily responsible for working with USF's goalkeepers, Mata helped Bengtsson-Stenseth shine in her debut season on the Hilltop as she showed her promise as one of the best backstops in the conference. The freshman started in the cage in all 18 matches for San Francisco, playing all 90 minutes in each match this season. She was one of only two Dons to play every minute this season, alongside defender Danica Lunceford. Overall, Bengtsson-Stenseth finished with 69 saves, five shutouts, and a 0.697 save percentage. She would go on to finish fourth in the WCC in saves and fourth in shutouts.

Academically, Gabby Rizzo (2024) and Natalie Drotzmann (2025) both earned spots on the WCC Women's Soccer All-Academic Team, with San Francisco also earning 10 academic honorable mentions each year. As a team, the Dons maintained a 3.74 cumulative GPA in 2024 and a 3.67 cumulative GPA in 2025.

In her playing career, Mata was a goalkeeper at the University of Hawai'i, as she was named Big West Goalkeeper of the Year in 2019 in addition to earning All-Big West honors her final two years (2018/Honorable Mention and 2019/First Team). Wrapping up her career, she was also selected to the 2019 United Coaches All-West First Team. She was named Big West Defensive Player of the Week four times. Academically, she was named to the Big West Academic All-Conference Team twice (2018 and 2019).

Following her collegiate career, Mata went overseas to pursue a professional career. Beginning at the amateur level, she started her journey in Valencia, Spain, and worked her way up to Segunda RFEF (second division in the Spanish league) playing for Levante Las Planas in Barcelona in 2022.
