DONS AT A GLANCE

- The University of San Francisco (USF) women's soccer team remains at home on Thursday, Sept. 17, welcoming Idaho to Negoesco Stadium at 6:00 p.m. The Dons enter the matchup with a 2-3-1 overall record after earning a 1-0 victory over Nevada in their last outing.
- San Francisco returned to the win column against Nevada on Sept. 6, using a late goal from Sydney Yoshida to secure its second shutout victory of the season. Yoshida broke through at 89:34 to give the Dons the 1-0 advantage.
- The Dons generated 19 shots and six shots on goal against the Wolf Pack while holding Nevada scoreless on 11 total attempts. Sydney Yoshida continues to rank among the top playmakers in the West Coast Conference, sitting tied for second in the WCC with four assists. She trails only Seattle U's Ui Kaahue, who leads the conference with five.
- Grace Wilson also ranks among the conference's top goalkeepers. Wilson is fifth in the WCC with 22 saves and ranks third in save percentage at .846.

- Wilson has allowed just four goals, which ranks fourth-lowest among WCC goalkeepers listed in the conference leaders. Hannah Burns remains one of San Francisco's most active attacking players, leading the Dons in total shots through the early portion of the season.
- San Francisco has shown balance offensively, with multiple players contributing goals through the first six matches and Yoshida serving as the team's primary creator.
- Thursday's contest will mark just the second all-time meeting between San Francisco and Idaho and the first matchup between the programs in nearly 24 years.
- The Dons own a 1-0 all-time record against the Vandals. The lone previous meeting came on Sept. 21, 2002, in San Francisco, when USF earned a 2-1 overtime victory.
- San Francisco will look to remain unbeaten all-time against Idaho while continuing its current homestand at Negoesco Stadium.

ALEXIS MATA • INTERIM HEAD COACH • HAWAII '19

Director of Athletics Brent Blaylock announced on July 2, 2026 that Assistant Coach Alexis Mata has been elevated to interim head women's soccer coach for the 2026 season.

Coming to the Hilltop in spring 2024, Mata served as an assistant coach under Pinder Nijjar for the past two seasons. She joined the Dons after serving as a volunteer assistant at the University of Oregon in 2023. While in Eugene, Mata coached at the club level locally. She holds a United States Soccer National C License, an advanced soccer coaching certification focused on U-13 to U-19 age groups.

During her first two seasons at USF, the Dons have yielded notable success, including five All-West Coast Conference (WCC) selections: Lindsey Chau (2024 - Honorable Mention, 2025 - Second Team), Tyra Bengtsson-Stenseth (2025- All-Freshman), Alicia Osegueda (2025 - All-Freshman), and Kaitlyn Sasadeusz (2025 - Honorable Mention). As a team, San Francisco recorded a notable victory with a 2-0 shutout of No. 18 Texas Tech at home on Aug. 24, 2025.

Primarily responsible for working with USF's goalkeepers, Mata helped Bengtsson-Stenseth shine in her debut season on the Hilltop as she showed her promise as one of the best backstops in the conference. The freshman started in the cage in all 18 matches for San Francisco, playing all 90 minutes in each match this season. She was one of only two Dons to play every minute this season, alongside defender Danica Lunceford. Overall, Bengtsson-Stenseth finished with 69 saves, five shutouts, and a 0.697 save percentage. She would go on to finish fourth in the WCC in saves and fourth in shutouts.

Academically, Gabby Rizzo (2024) and Natalie Drotzmann (2025) both earned spots on the WCC Women's Soccer All-Academic Team, with San Francisco also earning 10 academic honorable mentions each year. As a team, the Dons maintained a 3.74 cumulative GPA in 2024 and a 3.67 cumulative GPA in 2025.

In her playing career, Mata was a goalkeeper at the University of Hawai'i, as she was named Big West Goalkeeper of the Year in 2019 in addition to earning All-Big West honors her final two years (2018/Honorable Mention and 2019/First Team). Wrapping up her career, she was also selected to the 2019 United Coaches All-West First Team. She was named Big West Defensive Player of the Week four times. Academically, she was named to the Big West Academic All-Conference Team twice (2018 and 2019).

Following her collegiate career, Mata went overseas to pursue a professional career. Beginning at the amateur level, she started her journey in Valencia, Spain, and worked her way up to Segunda RFEF (second division in the Spanish league) playing for Levante Las Planas in Barcelona in 2022.
