DONS AT A GLANCE

-The University of San Francisco (USF) men's soccer team continued its recent success against Bay Area opponents on Wednesday, Sept. 16, erasing a two-goal halftime deficit with three unanswered second-half goals to defeat California, 3-2. With the victory, the Dons improved to 4-3-1 overall and extended their winning streak over the Golden Bears to four straight meetings dating back to 2022. -David Raphael led the comeback effort for San Francisco, recording one goal and two assists while contributing to all three second-half scores. Raphael cut the deficit to one in the 55th minute before assisting on Brayden Beason's equalizer in the 65th minute and Sammy Long's game-winning goal less than five minutes later. -Beason finished the match with one goal and one assist, heading home the equalizer before setting up Long's eventual game winner. Long's strike in the 70th minute marked the first collegiate goal of the freshman's career. Lucas Jones finished with three saves in goal while holding California scoreless throughout the second half. -The victory marked the first time in the last 20 years that the Dons overcame a 2-0 deficit to earn a win. San Francisco also recorded 11 shots on goal and kept the Golden Bears off the scoreboard over the final 45 minutes. -With the win, San Francisco improved to 4-0 against California in its last four meetings and 6-1 against California and Stanford combined over that span. -Through eight matches this season, Raphael totals five goals while continuing to rank among the team leaders in points and shots. -Isaiah Easley has also remained a key part of the attack, ranking among San Francisco's leaders in goals, assists and total points. -In the West Coast Conference (WCC) David Raphael ranks tied for second in the conference with four goals, fourth with nine points and third with 19 shots.
