2018 AGGIE OUTLOOK

As the 2018 softball season gets started, the Utah State program is preparing to use a combination of returning experience and newcomer talent to make its way through a successful campaign. Under the direction of fifth-year head coach Steve Johnson, the Aggies are setting out to find a new team balance and continue building on the program improvements of the last few seasons.

THE COMPETITION

Utah State's season gets underway with four preseason tournaments. The Aggies will open the year at the Titan Classic, hosted by Cal State Fullerton, with games against Pitt, Cal State Fullerton, Middle Tennessee, Loyola Marymount and Rutgers. From there, USU heads to Las Vegas for the Marucci Desert Classic for games against FIU, Seattle, Buffalo, Hawai'i and Bradley. Tournament play then continues at Texas A&M Corpus Christi, for games against the Islanders, Texas Southern and Omaha. After a single game at Pacific, the tournament season will conclude at the Aggie Invitational, hosted by UC Davis. There, USU will play the other Aggies, along with Northern Colorado and Valparaiso.

"This is a good schedule for us to get our feet wet, especially with so many new starters out there. If we have a good opening day against Pitt and Fullerton, then that will really set the tone for the rest of the weekend and the season," Johnson said. "We've got some good match-ups for us. We've got a lot of games where we can go in and be competitive and win a lot early to gain some momentum. It isn't filled with big-name teams, but given the makeup of our team right now it is a good schedule to get some wins under our belt and get some confidence going into conference play."

After concluding tournament play, Utah State will host its first home game against in-state rival Weber State. Interspersed with Mountain West play, Utah State will play several other non-conference games with multiple contests against BYU, Idaho State, Louisiana Tech and Utah Valley.

"Regional games are important because we want to showcase softball in the state of Utah. We have such a fantastic balance of teams from all levels of conferences from the Pac-12, to the Mountain West, to the Big Sky. It is a great opportunity for fans in Utah to see great college softball," Johnson said. "It is always important for us to play as many of those games as we can. We want to be the best team in the state of Utah so we need to go out and play everybody that we can. Hopefully we'll get Utah on our schedule one of these days. But, we want to do what we can with in-state scheduling. It helps us with in-state recruiting. Showcasing for the state is really important for us to have those games."

The Mountain West portion of the season will include four home and four away series. The Aggies will host Boise State, Nevada, Colorado State and defending conference champions San José State. Road league series include trips to UNLV, Fresno State, New Mexico and San Diego State.

"I don't know if there has been another year when the conference has been this wide open. A couple of teams have a lot of returners coming back defensively and offensively, but they've got big holes in the circle. Other teams have big pitchers back, but question marks on who will fill in defensively and at the plate," Johnson said. "We've got a chance, with having Kellie White and our pitchers and our staff having the most experience, that it will be a matter of who will step up offensively for us to score some runs."

Utah State was picked fourth in the Mountain West preseason poll. San Diego State was picked to finish first in the conference, claiming 63 points and seven of the league's first-place votes. San José State followed, earning the two remaining first-place votes and 57 total points. Fresno State was slated third, just ahead of the Aggies with 44 points, while USU took the fourth-place spot with 43 points. Nevada follows in fifth with 37 points, with Colorado State in sixth place with 30 points. Boise State (27 points), UNLV (14 points) and New Mexico (nine points) rounded out the 2018 preseason poll.

"I think San Diego State will be at the top,

Sophomore pitcher Kellie White

San José State has a lot of offense back, but lost its two top pitchers. They'll have to find their answers there. Fresno State had some transfers and have a lot of question marks," Johnson said. "Those three, along with us at the top, recruited well and it is just a matter of who is going to go out these first few weeks and get the positive experiences going and gain momentum heading into the conference season."

THE RETURNERS

Utah State returns six starters to the field this season, including senior third baseman Ameé Aarhus, senior catcher Brina Buttacavoli, senior outfielder Jazmin Clarke, junior outfielder Mia Maher, sophomore outfielder Riley Plogger and sophomore pitcher Kellie White. Six other experienced players also return to the diamond for the Aggies.

"We start in the circle with Kellie, the top returning pitcher in the conference right now. She has set some high goals for herself, and with that year of experience and everything that goes along with it, she's much more prepared for this year. We expect big things out of her," Johnson said. "Jordyn McCracken has come a really long way. She didn't pitch much last year, but really worked hard in the summer and the fall and will be in the rotation for us this year. That will be big for her."

Buttacavoli and junior Bailey Lewis return the most experience behind the plate this season.

"Brina and Bailey, two of our top hitters, are doing a great job behind the plate. It is great to have returners behind the plate who can run things out there," Johnson said.

Senior catcher Brina Buttacavoli

The returning experience continues in the field.

"Out in the outfield, Jazmin and Riley have both been all-conference players for us. It will be big for them to continue what they did last year without putting too much pressure on themselves to do too much," Johnson said. "In the infield, Amee is the only returner that played a lot last season. She has also stepped up her game and is more comfortable with everything. She is going to have to be the leader for us in the infield."

With some holes in the starting lineup, several returning players will get their chance to start this season.

"Bailee Trapp will be our first baseman. She has a great opportunity to go out there and take over a spot that we need filled," Johnson said. "Devan Sperry will be our starter at second base. She's another kid who learned last year watching Victoria Saucedo and Sarina Jaramillo. She really stepped up her game in the spring and will be out there at second."

THE NEWCOMERS

Joining the returning players this year are eight freshmen in Kayla Fielder (League City, Texas/Liberty Hill HS), Kennedy Hira (Mission Viejo, Calif./Capistrano Valley HS), Delaney Hull (Mission Viejo, Calif./Capistrano Valley HS), Bri Lerma (Downey, Calif./Mater Dei HS), Emery Marshall (Syracuse, Utah/Syracuse HS), Leah Molina (Mesa, Ariz./Desert Ridge HS), Stephanie Reed (Santa Fe, Texas/Santa Fe HS) and Joely Williamson (Georgetown, Texas/Liberty Hill HS). Johnson expects the freshman class to quickly make an impact and fill in some holes on the field.

"There are a few out there who will jump into some roles. Delaney is one of them and she will be our No. 2 pitcher. She has really taken leaps and bounds. She came in really green and not understanding what college was going to be like, from the playing-side of the things," Johnson said. "She had some good experiences in the fall, some really big moments and some learning moments. She is really one of the key ones."

Johnson also expects to see an impact from the freshmen in the field and in the batting lineup.

"Leah is going to be a key factor for us. Her speed is off the charts. She's going to start in right field for us and be a table-setter. She's done a great job out there," Johnson said. "Emery is going to be our starter at shortstop. Her big thing will be going out and playing ball. She doesn't have as much experience as some of the other kids, some of those game reps is where she is going to have to play catch-up on. She is really a natural athlete who can make a lot of plays. She's got to clear her mind and go out and play. It is a good mix of returners and freshmen out there and there are some kids that need to step up."

FILLING IN THE HOLES

After losing half of last year's starting lineup to graduation, the Aggies have to make adjustments in the field and the lineup this season.

"We've got talent. That senior class was very talented and played a lot of innings for us in a lot of positions, and all of them were such big personalities, in their own way. The seniors that graduated drove everything that the team did," Johnson said. "That is the biggest thing we are trying to find right now. It isn't about talent, it is about finding our personality and finding who we are as a team. Being able to be out there, be relaxed and just play the game is going to be the biggest thing. We've got some new kids stepping up and some returners who haven't been on the field before are stepping into some key positions. We've got some freshmen who are going to step in and fill some key roles for us. Overall, once the first pitch comes, what is our personality on the field?"

While the team works to find its chemistry and strengths as the season gets started, Johnson is looking forward to the makeup of the team.

"Overall, this team is going to look a lot different than last year. The last couple of years we were more of a power team, we've had speed and stole a lot bases last year. But, this year we've got much more team speed," Johnson said. "We've got five lefties in the lineup, four of them slappers. It will be a different game from what fans have seen from us in the past. Hopefully it will be an exciting one with the team speed. We'll do a lot more getting on with short game, using a lot of bunt-and-run, hit-and-run, stealing bases to try and put pressure on the defense with our speed. We've got a few power hitters mixed in there that will hopefully drive in the runs and keep us where we've been. I'm excited to see how it will take place."

GOALS & EXPECTATIONS

As the season gets underway, Utah State is setting out with the goal of a Mountain West title.

"The kids have set the goal again to win the Mountain West. That is where we are shooting. It is important for us to get out there and take it game by game," Johnson said. "Once we get out on the dirt and get rolling with things we'll quickly back into that game mode. We just need to take it one game at a time and can't look too far down the road."

After such a strong season in 2017, this season's edition of the Aggies looks to build up from there.

"The expectation has been set for this program now with winning seasons each of the past two years and a conference championship going into the final week of the season," Johnson said. "That is the standard that has been set and that is the standard these kids need to uphold. It is just time to get out there and get after it."

COACHING STAFF

STEVE JOHNSON

Head Coach

Wartburg College, 1997 • Fifth Season • 96-116

The second-winningest coach in program history, Steve Johnson is in his fifth season at Utah State, after being named the ninth head coach of the Aggie softball program on June 26, 2013.

Under Johnson, the Aggies finished the 2017 season with a 33-18 overall record, while going 14-9 in Mountain West play to finish tied for third in league standings. The 33 wins marked the most by the Utah State program since 1993, when the team posted a 39-17 record. Additionally, the 14 conference wins were the most since 1996, when the team went 17-15 in Big West action. USU also made its first postseason appearance in 24 years in 2017, playing in the inaugural National Invitational Softball Championship.

Three Utah State softball players earned all-Mountain West accolades in 2017, as pitcher Kellie White earned first-team honors, and second baseman Victoria Saucedo and outfielder Riley Plogger were named to the second team. The team shattered the program's stolen base record with 92 on the year, while several individual players earned a spot on the career record lists.

On the year, Utah State batted .309, just one point shy of tying the school record. The Aggies tallied 431 hits and scored 265 runs during the season. Off the field, nine Utah State players earned academic all-Mountain West honors, while two were named Mountain West Scholar Athletes.

Johnson led the 2016 team to a 26-25 record, while going 12-12 in Mountain West action. Utah State finished tied for third in the conference, their highest finish since joining the Mountain West and the highest overall conference finish since 1992. It is also the first time since the 1996 campaign that Utah State finished with a record above .500.

Over the course of the 2016 season, the Aggies set new program records in runs scored (281), doubles (86), home runs (50), total bases (701), RBIs (259), slugging percentage (.492) and on base percentage (.383). On an individual level, three players set or tied single-season records. Outfielder Sarah Chow hit a program-best eight triples on the year, while outfielder Jazmin Clarke shattered the stolen base record with 25 during the season. Saucedo tied the home run record, hitting 12 during her junior season.

Three Aggies earned all-Mountain West honors in 2016, as Clarke, Saucedo and outfielder/pitcher Alleyah Armendariz were each named to the second team. Additionally, 12 members of the USU roster earned academic all-conference honors and five were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes.

In 2015, Johnson coached the Aggies to a 19-36 record, going 11-13 in Mountain West action. The Aggies ended the season on a three-game winning streak in a sweep over Boise State.

Overall, the Aggies hit .254 on the year, ending the season with 439 hits and 252 runs scored. The Aggies also saw an increase in doubles from 58 in 2014 to 81.

As a team, Utah State set two then-records from the plate in 2015, with 229 RBIs and 40 home runs. Individually, outfielder Hailey Froton bested her own single-season RBI record (48), while claiming the career record (132), while Armendariz tied the single-season home run record, hitting 12.

Four Utah State players earned all-Mountain West honors following the 2015 campaign, as Froton and pitcher Noelle Johnson earned first-team honors and Armendariz and Chow were named to the second team. The four all-conference recognitions are the most for a Utah State team since 1993, when four players earned all-Big West honors. Off the field, five student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while three were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes.

In his first season at Utah State in 2014, Johnson led the team to an 18-37 record. Included in that record was a 6-18 conference record in Utah State's first year in the Mountain West.

In his USU debut, Johnson coached Saucedo to Mountain West Freshman of the Year and first-team all-conference honors, while helping Noelle Johnson to break the USU single-season strikeout record (218). Johnson also coached Froton to the then-single-season RBI record with 41.

The Aggies ended the 2014 season with a .251 batting average, improving from .237 the previous year. USU hit 32 home runs while advancing to 537 total bases.

Along with Saucedo's all-conference honors, nine players earned academic all-Mountain West accolades, while four were named Mountain West Scholar Athletes.

Johnson took over the Utah State program after five years at Auburn as the assistant head coach. Working primarily with the Tigers' hitters, slappers and infielders, Johnson helped Auburn advance to three Southeastern Conference Tournaments and NCAA Regional appearances in four years. In 2011, Auburn was ranked in both the ESPN and NFCA top 25 polls, spending 12 weeks in the NFCA poll and reaching a high of No. 21. Auburn also registered its first-ever series win over a top-five team, taking two-of-three games from No. 4 Georgia. The 2012 Tigers hit the most home runs (46) since the 2005 squad hit a program-record 68.

At Auburn, Johnson coached five players who earned all-SEC honors, and four players who earned SEC all-freshman team accolades, including tying a school record with two in 2013. In 2011, Auburn set program top-five marks in batting average (.279), runs scored (272), RBI (235), doubles (97), triples (8) and walks (160).

Johnson made his head coaching debut at the Division II level, spending the 2003-08 seasons at UNC Pembroke, where he compiled a 153-164 record.

Johnson led the Braves to a 46-14 overall record in 2008 and the Peach Belt Conference Championship, going 17-1 in league action. He also led UNC Pembroke to the program's first ever NCAA Regional appearance in 2008, earning NFCA South Atlantic Region Coaching Staff of the Year honors in 2008. That season, the Braves set or tied 33 school records, including most wins in a season (46) and most conference wins (17). UNCP players earned a total of six all-region awards and three All-America honors under Johnson's tutelage in 2008.

While at Pembroke, Johnson's teams broke 73 school records and had 39 players earn Peach Belt Academic Honor Roll accolades.

Prior to his stint at UNC Pembroke, Johnson served as an assistant coach at South Dakota State from 2000-02.

Johnson began his professional coaching career as the head coach at Kennedy High School in Cedar Rapids, Iowa from 1997-2000.

Johnson earned his undergraduate degree in U.S. history and secondary education from Wartburg College in Waverly, Iowa, graduating cum laude in 1997. Johnson earned a graduate degree in athletic administration from South Dakota State University in 2002.

A native of West Des Moines, Iowa, Johnson is married to the former Heather Wesemen and the couple has one daughter, Collette (4).

WINDY THEES

Associate Head Coach

Florida State, 1997 • Third Season

Windy Thees is in her third season at Utah State after joining the staff in August, 2015. She was promoted to associate head coach at the conclusion of the 2016 season. In her position, Thees oversees the Utah State pitchers and catchers.

Thees came to Logan with 16 years of coaching experience, including 14 years as a head coach. Thees' road to Utah State featured stops at Ole Miss, Memphis and Georgia College and State.

Thees helped the Aggies to a 33-18 overall record in 2017, including a 14-9 Mountain West ledger. Overseeing the pitching staff, Thees led her group to a 3.09 ERA, the lowest by the USU pitchers since 1998. Kellie White led the position with a 2.51 individual ERA over 178.1 innings pitched, throwing her way to first-team all-Mountain West honors. With four pitchers seeing time on the mound, the 2017 Aggies allowed 115 fewer hits and 90 fewer runs than the year prior, giving up 322 hits and 185 runs.

In her first season at Utah State in 2016, Thees helped the Aggies to a 26-25 record, the best team record seen since 1996. Thees coached the USU pitchers to a 4.98 ERA. With increased depth on the staff, April Brown led the group with a 3.79 ERA, while Katie Schroeder posted the best individual record, going 7-1, including a perfect 3-0 record in conference play. Noelle Johnson threw 130.1 innings and eight complete games on the year.

Thees joined the Aggies after three seasons as head coach at Ole Miss where she helped the team improve dramatically in several categories. The Rebels increased their win total in Thees' first two seasons and set numerous program records in 2013, including hits, walks, stolen bases and fielding percentage.

The Rebels scored 73 more runs in Thees' first year than the previous season, committed 14 fewer errors and raised the team batting average by .030. In the circle, Ole Miss pitchers lowered their team ERA from 4.64 to 4.55.

Thees arrived at Ole Miss after starting the Memphis Tigers' program from scratch in 2005 and led her squad to the school's best season in 2011 with a 36-14 record and the program's first berth in the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers finished fourth in Conference USA in 2011 with a 15-7 mark in league play, which was the best conference record in school history. In non-conference play, Memphis knocked off eventual NCAA Tournament teams Kentucky and Stanford and reeled off a school-record 10-game winning streak.

In her six seasons as head coach at Memphis, Thees coached her players to nine all-conference awards, eight all-conference freshman team selections and three NFCA All-South Region selections. While there, Thees compiled a 172-151 (.533) overall record and guided the team to the Conference USA Tournament each of the last five years.

Thees' Memphis players also found success in the classroom with all 15 of her seniors earning their diploma. Five Tigers earned Capital One Academic all-District honors, with 15 NFCA Scholar Athlete selections and six C-USA All-Academic team selections. Thees was the 2011 C-USA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee Coaches' Choice Award for fostering student-athlete development and welfare through a positive athletic and academic atmosphere among all sports.

Before her move to Memphis, Thees was the head coach and Senior Woman Administrator at Georgia College and State University (Milledgeville, Ga.) for five seasons. She led the Division II school to a runner-up finish in the 2003 Division II National Championship. Her teams set nearly every pitching, defensive and offensive record at GCSU during her years as head coach, and in doing so, helped Thees compile a record of 163-92 (.639).

Prior to her tenure at GCSU, Thees served as an assistant softball coach and wellness coordinator at Lake City Community College in Lake City, Fla., from 1998-99. LCCC was ranked No. 1 in the national poll during both the 1998 and 1999 seasons and placed second at the JUCO National Championships in 1999.

Thees was a four-year starter at both catcher and second base at Florida State from 1993-97, leading the Seminoles to three ACC Championships. She earned her bachelor's degree in marketing and multinational business from Florida State in 1997 and a master's degree in business administration from GCSU in 2002.

A native of Mesa, Ariz., Thees has twin daughters, Megan Jo and Alexandria (15).

COACHING STAFF

NATE MILLER

Assistant Coach

Dixie State, 2014 • Second Season

Nate Miller is in his second as an assistant coach at Utah State after joining the staff in July, 2016. In his position, Miller oversees the Aggie infield and assists with hitting coaching.

In his first season with Utah State, Miller helped the Aggies to a 33-18 record, including a 14-9 Mountain West ledger.

Under his direction, the USU infield posted a .964 fielding percentage, tallying 999 putouts. Second baseman Victoria Saucedo earned second-team all-Mountain West honors, putting up 88 putouts and 88 assists, along with a team-leading .380 batting average. At the plate, the Aggies batted .309, one point shy of tying the school record.

Before coming to Utah State, Miller spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Mountain West rival Boise State. In his time with the Broncos, Miller coached four players to all-Mountain West accolades, including the 2016 Freshman of the Year, Rebekah Cervantes. Cervantes also went on to be named to the all-Pacific Region Third Team by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association.

Prior to coaching at Boise State, Miller was at Dixie State, where he spent three seasons as an assistant coach. During his three seasons in St. George, the Red Storm went 129-37, shared two PacWest titles and made three NCAA Division II Tournament appearances. In 2014, Dixie State ended the year in a third-place finish at the Division II Women's College World Series.

At Dixie State, Miller served primarily as the program's hitting and infield coach. Under his tutelage, the Red Storm offense finished second among all Division II teams with a .365 team batting average in 2014. The team ranked in the top 10 nationally in three additional offensive categories, ranking eighth in on-base percentage (.426) and doubles per game (1.90), while ranking 10th in scoring (6.97 rpg). Defensively, the Red Storm set a program record with 32 double plays, an average of 0.52 per game, good for eighth nationally. That season, Miller coached two infielders to collect NFCA All-America Second-Team honors in 2014, while an outfielder earned a spot on the Daktronics All-America Second Team.

Miller played baseball at Irvine Valley College (Calif.) after prepping at Northridge High School in Layton, Utah. He then served an LDS Church mission to Des Moines, Iowa, returning to begin his coaching career. Miller began his coaching career at the prep level, serving as an assistant baseball coach at Clearfield (Utah) High School and Syracuse (Utah) High School from 2008-10. He then served as head coach of the Adidas Futures Team from New Jersey in 2011 before joining the Dixie State staff.

Miller graduated from Dixie State in 2014 with a degree in communications. He is currently pursuing a master's degree from Concordia. Miller is married to Brittne Whipple Miller, who pitched for Dixie State from 2008-11. They have two sons, Tate (5) and Swayze (4).

UTAH STATE UNIVERSITY

LaRee and LeGrand Johnson Field is the on-campus home field for Aggie softball. The complex includes a two-level press box, scoreboard, bleacher seating behind home plate and the first and third base lines, as well as grass berms for seating above each dugout. The Wasatch Front Mountain Range provides a beautiful backdrop for the softball field which is located just north of Romney Stadium, the Jim & Carol Laub Athletics Academics Complex and the ICON Sports performance Center.

LaRee & LeGrand Johnson Field

THIS IS UTAH STATE

Completed in June 2013, Utah State's $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot ICON Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The ICON Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West Conference and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai'i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

ICON Sports Performance Center

The Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center is one of the finest in the nation with over 11,000 square feet to provide maximum service to Utah State's 16 intercollegiate sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Among the many amenities are 24 treatment tables, a 2,000 square foot physical therapy and rehabilitation center, and three hydroworx therapy pools for non-weight or partial weight-bearing rehabilitation to enhance recovery. The Sports Medicine Complex also houses office space for four full-time staff members and 12 graduate assistants, a team physician examination room and physical therapy office.

With the addition of the new facilities and the continued cooperation between Utah State Athletics, Intermountain HealthCare and HPER/Exercise Science, Utah State University is becoming one of the foremost sports medicine research institutions in the intermountain west.

Aggie Spirit

During the 2016-17 academic year, Utah State ranked second in the Mountain West in number of academic all-league honorees as the Aggies had 254 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence as 148 student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while 106 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Utah State's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the Mountain West with an 89 percent graduation success rate, which is the highest in the MW, and a cumulative 3.196 grade-point average. Additionally, Utah State's athletics department recognized 195 student-athletes for achieving a 3.2 grade point average at the 23rd annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Luncheon. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters. In all, approximately 54 percent of USU's student-athletes earned a 3.2 GPA to qualify for the awards.

NOELLE E. COCKETT

University President

Noelle E. Cockett was appointed as Utah State University's 16th President in October 2016, beginning her official tenure in January 2017. She is USU's first female president and the only female president with Utah's higher education system.

Since becoming president, Cockett has worked to improve the mission and vision of the university. The dedicated and award-winning faculty at USU are scholar-educators who have shared a commitment to teaching excellence and rigorous research to help students succeed. In March 2017, Jake Christensen and Thomas Hill were named 2017 Goldwater Scholars, and fellow undergraduate A. J. Walters, received an honorable mention, in the prestigious national competition that recognizes outstanding achievements in science and mathematics. Cockett has also been working to improve the facilities students enjoy as part of their education. In April, she was proud to be a part of the ground-breaking for the new Life Sciences building on the Logan campus that will benefit students in more than 30 majors taking foundational biology classroom and lab courses housed in the new facility.

As always, friends, alumni and donors of the university contribute to the livelihood of USU. In early May 2017, the university announced a major expansion of the highly selective Huntsman Scholar Program and the launch of the Center of Growth and Opportunity thanks to a joint $50 million gift to the Jon M. Huntsman School of Business from the Huntsman Foundation and the Charles Koch Foundation. The joint gift is the largest in the school's history and enables the university to continue fostering innovative research and teaching to improve lives and communities.

Prior to being named Utah State's President, Cockett was serving as Executive Vice President and Provost at USU and has held that position since 2013. Prior to that, she served USU as Vice President for Extension from 2006 to 2013; Dean of the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences from 2002 to 2013; and Director of the Utah Agriculture Experiment Station from 2009 to 2013.

Cockett has built a distinguished career in sheep genomics research, maintaining an active research program even while serving in various leadership positions at Utah State University. Her research program has centered on the identification of genetic markers associated with economically important traits in sheep, as well as the development of resources that advance research on the sheep genome. Cockett and her colleagues published an article describing the sheep genome sequence in Science in 2014. Her current project focuses on the identification of genetic regions associated with entropion in newborn lambs. Cockett has served as the United States coordinator for sheep genome mapping since 1993 and is an active member of the International Sheep Genomics Consortium.

As an active researcher, Cockett has received many awards and accolades throughout her career including a Young Scientist Award from the Western Section of the American Society of Animal Science (ASAS), the Utah Governor's Medal for Science and Technology (2004 and 2015) and one of USU's top honors, the D. Wynne Thorne Research Award.

After receiving her master's and doctorate in animal breeding and genetics from Oregon State University in 1983 and 1985, respectively, Cockett spent five years as a research geneticist at the United States Department of Agriculture, Agriculture Research Service U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in Clay Center, Nebraska. She joined Utah State University in 1990 as a researcher and assistant professor in the Department of Animal, Dairy and Veterinary Sciences in the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences.

Cockett, who earned her bachelor's degree from Montana State in animal science in 1980, grew up on a beef cattle ranch in eastern Montana and is married to John Cockett, Director of Technology in USU's Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services. Noelle and John have two children, Dylan and Chantelle.

JOHN HARTWELL

University Vice President/
Director of Athletics

Since being named Vice President and Director of Athletics at Utah State on June 2, 2015, John Hartwell has cast his vision for Aggie Athletics, which embodies maximum effort academically, athletically and socially to ensure success in both the classroom and on the fields of competition.

Hartwell has also focused on maximizing and increasing the department's revenue streams, along with planning for future facility renovations, which includes Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

In his brief time at Utah State, Hartwell has already rebranded the fundraising arm of Utah State Athletics with the creation of Aggies Unlimited, which puts all giving under one umbrella.

Utah State also entered into a new partnership with the Larry H. Miller Sports & Entertainment Group to be its flagship radio station for Aggie Athletics, which gives USU additional advertising opportunities throughout Cache Valley and the Wasatch Front, in addition to more control over each broadcast.

Additionally, Hartwell has overseen the completion of the $36 million, 85,000-square foot West Stadium Center on the west side of Maverik Stadium, which includes 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that is also used to host a student-athlete training table. Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system, while major concourse work significantly increased restrooms and upgraded concessions.

Under Hartwell's leadership, Utah State has seen unparalleled athletic success during the past two academic years, highlighted by its men's tennis program winning the school's first Mountain West regular season and tournament championships since joining the Conference in 2013. In fact, men's tennis has won back-to-back regular season championships the past two years, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament as a team in 2017 for the first time in program history as it finished the season with a school-record 23 wins and a final national ranking of No. 45.

Aggie softball has also seen increased success over the past two seasons as they finished the 2017 campaign with a 33-18 record, including a 14-9 Mountain West mark, and advanced to the National Softball Invitational, marking the program's first postseason appearance since 1993. In fact, those 33 overall wins and 14 league victories are its most since 1996, as USU finished the 2017 season tied for third place in the league.

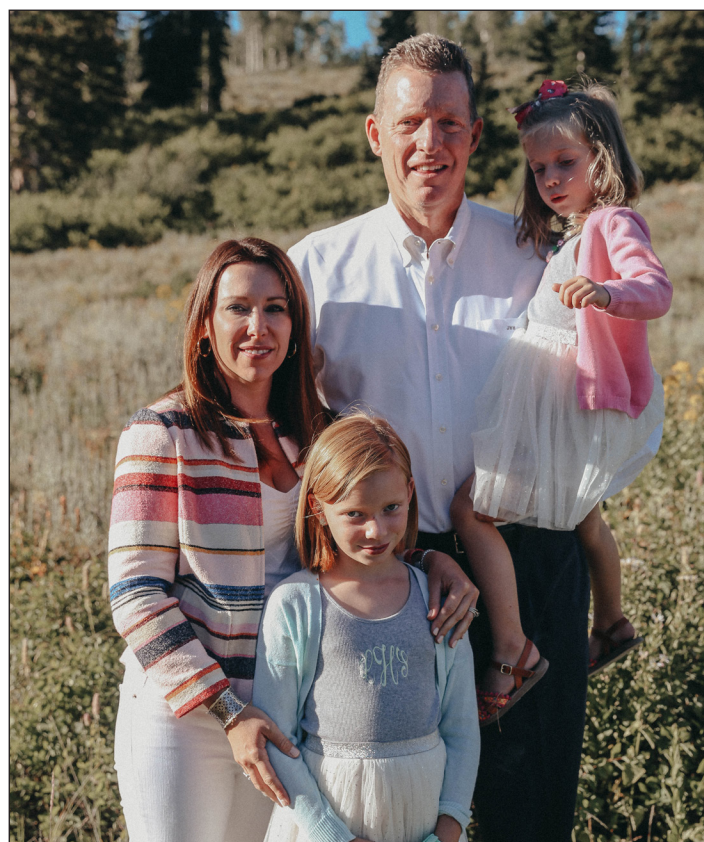

Other Utah State sports that have excelled the past two seasons in the Mountain West include its men's track & field programs, as they finished second at both the indoor and outdoor conference championships in 2016, and third at both championships during the 2017 academic year. Additionally, USU's football program played in a school-record fifth-straight bowl game in 2016.

Even more impressive is Utah State's continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom as they have an 89 percent graduation success rate, which is the highest in the Mountain West, and a cumulative 3.196 grade-point average. During the 2016-17 academic year, USU had 148 student-athletes earn academic all-Mountain West honors, while 106 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Additionally, USU recognized 195 student-athletes at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Hartwell came to Utah State after spending three years as the Athletics Director at Troy, where he laid the groundwork for the future of Trojan Athletics by spearheading several significant upgrades to its athletic facilities, including the addition of a new $2 million practice facility for the golf teams, a $3 million renovation and expansion of the softball facility and a $2.1 million improvement to Veterans Memorial Stadium, while also securing funding for lights to be installed at the soccer and track complex. Hartwell also unveiled the North End Zone Project for Veterans Memorial Stadium, a $25 million project that will be the new home for Trojan football.

Troy's athletics programs have also seen vast improvement on the fields of play due to Hartwell's leadership and oversight, including the football program that recorded its first 10-win season since joining the FBS and tied for the largest turnaround in the FBS in 2016, not to mention the Trojans being the first Sun Belt Conference team to ever appear in either the Associated Press or Coaches Poll. Men's basketball won the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Tournament and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament since 2003, while the women's basketball program has won back-to-back Sun Belt Tournament championships and appeared in two-straight NCAA Tournaments. Troy's golf programs have also excelled as the women's program has won three of the past four Sun Belt titles, while men's golf has advanced to three-straight NCAA Regionals. Troy's baseball team finished third in the Sun Belt in 2016 and defeated three ranked teams, including No. 5 Auburn.

Under Hartwell, Troy Athletics saw a significant enhancement in fundraising and external relations as he completely overhauled Troy's External Affairs division of the Athletics Department to increase revenues and enhance the fan and game day experience. As part of this makeover was the creation of a new external model, which included the addition of a Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs; bringing corporate sponsorships in house with a partnership with Rockbridge Sports Group; and the development of the Troy Affinity Program to further engage Troy students in athletics.

Hartwell's strong business background also proved to be valuable at Troy as he negotiated a new footwear and apparel deal with Adidas, while also securing home-and-home football games with Duke and North Carolina State in addition to yielding a home basketball game with Mississippi. Hartwell's tenure at Troy also saw a record number of student-athletes earn a 3.0 grade-point-average, an upward trend in APR scores and additional staff positions in Troy's academic support department. During the 2014-15 academic year, Troy student-athletes finished with a 3.01 cumulative grade-point-average and over 57 percent of Troy's student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or higher.

At Troy, Hartwell served on the NCAA Division I Basketball Issues Committee, the Division I-A Board of Trustees Executive Committee, and the NCAA Division I Council as the Sun Belt Conference representative. He has also been an instructor at the Division I-A Institute for aspiring athletic directors.

Prior to being the Director of Athletics at Troy, Hartwell spent nine-plus years at the University of Mississippi, where he was the Senior Executive Associate Athletics Director, serving as the number two administrator in athletics.

Hartwell served as the Treasurer and Chief Operating Officer of the Mississippi Athletic Association Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) organization that generated over $17 million annually for the Ole Miss Athletics Department through priority seating and major gifts.

He was responsible for the day-to-day administrative oversight of the football, men's basketball and baseball programs, along with sport oversight of the softball and men's and women's track & field and cross country programs. Hartwell also oversaw the Rebels' business office, ticket office, equipment room, merchandise sales, concessions and football scheduling. Hartwell scheduled several marquee football games for the Rebels, including a home-and-home series with Texas that began in 2012.

Hartwell managed the growth of the Ole Miss athletic budget from $26 million in the 2003 fiscal year to over $47 million in the 2012 fiscal year. He also chaired the search to hire men's basketball head coach Andy Kennedy in 2006. He was heavily involved in negotiations that increased revenues with contracts for apparel and footwear (Nike), merchandise sales (Sports Avenue/LIDS), concessions (Centerplate), wireless provider (C Spire) and video boards (Daktronics). He served on the Southeastern Conference Ticket Committee and started the annual SEC Chief Financial Officers Forum.

A 1987 graduate of The Citadel, the 52-year old Hartwell spent four-plus years as a certified public accountant with Ernst & Young before returning to his alma mater to serve as the Director of Internal Audit in 1991. From 1994 to 1997, he was in private business as the Chief Financial Officer for a $36 million beverage distributor on the South Carolina coast.

Hartwell's direct experience in athletics administration began as the Assistant Athletics Director for Business at Georgia State in 1997. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1999, and his responsibilities expanded to include sport supervision for baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's track & field and cross country. He also had oversight over the Panthers' athletic facilities and game management in addition to his previous responsibilities of all financial aspects of the department. While at Georgia State, Hartwell earned a master's degree in sports administration.

Athletics has always been a big part of Hartwell's life, starting in high school where he was an all-state basketball selection at UMS-Wright in Mobile, Ala. The 6-foot-7 forward played alongside former North Carolina State and Alabama head coach Mark Gottfried in high school. Hartwell went on to play collegiately at The Citadel, where he was a three-year starter, a four-year letterman and captain of the team as a senior in 1987.

Hartwell is married to Dr. Heather Seale Hartwell, and they have two daughters, Lauren (8) and Madison (5). Hartwell also has a 25-year old son, Hunter, a Vanderbilt graduate who works for Deloitte Consulting.

AGGIES™

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 15th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements over its first 14 years of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

HISTORY OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Craig Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002. Entering the 2013 season, the MW has six contracted bowl affiliations – the Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego Country Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl, Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Famous Potato Idaho Bowl and Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.
