Sophomore quarterback Chuckie Keeton (16) was 21-of-34 passing for a career-high 404 yards in Utah State's 35-13 Homecoming win against UNLV. Keeton also had four touchdown passes in the game, which are the second-most in his career, to go along with four rushing yards on six carries.

LOGAN, Utah - Career nights from senior running back Kerwyn Williams and sophomore quarterback Chuckie Keeton led Utah State to a 35-13 Homecoming win against UNLV on Sept. 29, 2013. With the win, the Aggies improve to 4-1 on the year, their best start since 1978, by amassing 564 total yards, the second-most this season and 17th-most in school history.

With career-highs of seven catches for 147 yards with one score, Williams amassed the most receiving yards by a non-receiver since running back Tom Larscheid had 172 receiving yards in 1959. Williams added 20 rushes for 113 yards to also become the first USU player with 100 yards rushing and 100 yards receiving in the same game since Robert Turbin with 116 yards receiving and 104 yards rushing against Southern Utah in 2009.

Keeton threw for a career-best 404 yards on 21-of-34 passing with four touchdowns, one to Williams for 74 yards. The 404 passing yards is the 10th-most in school history and the most since Jose Fuentes threw for 426 against Middle Tennessee in 2002.

Two of Keeton's touchdown tosses went to senior wide receiver Chuck Jacobs, who finished with four receptions for a career-high 101 yards, scoring on a 50-yard pass play and a 17-yard catch. The 100-yard receiving tandem of Williams and Jacobs are the first pair of Aggies with 100-yards receiving since 2002 when Chris Cooley (5-105) and Kevin Curtis (13-177) accomplished the feat against Middle Tennessee.

Utah State ended the night with 426 yards passing, which is the eighth-best mark in school history and the most since throwing for 442 yards against Middle Tennessee in 2002.

The stout Aggie defense was led by the linebacker tandem of junior Jake Doughty and sophomore Zach Vigil, as Doughty had a career-high 13 tackles and Vigil tied his career-high with 10, while senior cornerback Terrence Alston recorded his first-career interception.

The Rebels had 188 yards passing and 117 yards rushing for 305 total yards.

After USU's defense pitched its fifth-straight first quarter shutout of the season, the Aggies got on the board first with a 32-yard field goal from sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson just 44 seconds into the second quarter for a 3-0 Aggie advantage. UNLV countered on its ensuing drive with a 3-yard scoring pass for the Aggies' first touchdown yielded in the first half and a 7-3 Rebels' lead, only the second time this season that USU has trailed.

The Aggies responded by marching down the field, with Keeton capping the drive with a 1-yard toss to junior tight end D.J. Tialavea. After the USU defense forced a three-and-out, the home team took over at midfield and on its second play, Keeton hit Jacobs down the middle for a 50-yard catch and run for a 17-7 lead.

With 31 ticks on the clock, USU took over at its own 18 and four plays later, Thompson split the uprights from 31-yards for a 20-7 USU lead at the half.

Utah State fumbled on their first play in the second half at their own 22, but the Aggie defense held strong, forcing a UNLV field goal for a 20-10 deficit. The Rebels added another third-quarter field goal to make the score, 20-13.

The Aggies started the fourth quarter scoring on Williams' 74-yard scoring pass play from Keeton. On USU's next possession, Keeton hit Jacobs across the middle in the end zone for a 17-yard toss to put the Aggies ahead, 33-13, with 10:47 remaining in the game. Fackrell and Doughty's safety capped the scored with 5:10 to go.

Junior linebacker Jake Doughty (51) had a then career-high 13 tackles, including one for loss, against the Rebels.

Sophomore quarterback Diondre Borel (12) was 8-of-16 passing for 80 yards, including his first career touchdown pass, in Utah State's 27-17 loss at UNLV. Borel also carried the ball 15 times for 70 yards.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - UNLV's Omar Clayton threw for 192 yards (17-29-0) and a career-high three touchdown passes, and Frank Summers added 87 yards on the ground to lead the Rebels to a season-opening, 27-17, win against Utah State in Las Vegas at Sam Boyd Stadium on Aug. 30, 2008.

The Aggies entered 2008 on a two-game winning streak as it ended the 2007 campaign with a pair of road wins at New Mexico State and at Idaho.

Sophomore quarterback Diondre Borel highlighted Utah State's offense as he gained 70 yards rushing on 15 carries and added 80 yards passing (8-16-0) after entering the game early in the third quarter. Borel also threw his first career touchdown, completing a 6-yard pass to junior wide receiver Nnamdi Gwacham late in the fourth quarter to make the final margin 10 points. It was also Gwacham's first career touchdown.

Senior quarterback Sean Setzer started the game by completing nine of his first 10 passes for 114 yards for Utah State and led the Aggies on a 12-play, 82-yard drive that spanned 6:21, culminating with a 1-yard touchdown run by Robert Turbin to tie the game at seven-all early in the second quarter. Turbin finished the game with 34 rushing yards on 13 carries, and added three receptions for 39 yards.

Utah State dominated the first quarter as it held the ball for 12:38 and out-gained UNLV, 114-44, but trailed 7-0 as the Rebels turned an Aggie turnover into seven points on a 5-play, 47-yard drive midway through the opening quarter.

Following the Aggies' first touchdown, UNLV scored 17 straight points over the next two periods to put the game away.

UNLV finished the game with 353 yards of total offense (221 passing, 153 rushing) and Utah State recorded 314 total yards (203 passing, 130 rushing). The Aggies finished the game by possessing the ball for 30:46 and ran eight more offensive plays (70-62), but they also committed two turnovers in the contest that led to 10 Rebel points, which proved to be the difference in the game. UNLV finished the game with zero turnovers.

Setzer finished the game completing 10-of-17 passes for 123 yards with no touchdowns and one interception. Sophomore tight end Doug Barbour caught four passes for 41 yards, while senior wide receiver Otis Nelson had four catches for 32 yards and redshirt freshman wide receiver Stanley Morrison caught three passes for 47 yards.

MATT WELLS

HEAD COACH
UTAH STATE, 1996

First Season as Utah State Head Coach
Third Season Overall at Utah State

Aggie alumnus Matt Wells was named Utah State's 27th head football coach on Dec. 20, 2012 after serving as the team's offensive coordinator in 2012, and quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator in 2011.

The 39-year old Wells, who is now the 11th-youngest head coach at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level, replaces Gary Andersen who accepted the head coaching position at the University of Wisconsin. Dating back to 1919, Wells is just the second Utah State graduate to be appointed its head football coach joining Chris Pella who graduated from USU in 1965 and coached the Aggies from 1983-85.

Wells, a former Aggie quarterback and three-year letterwinner from 1994-96, was a member of two conference championship teams as a student-athlete as he was a redshirt freshman in 1993 when Utah State tied for first in the Big West Conference and defeated Ball State, 42-33, in the Las Vegas Bowl for its first-ever bowl win. As a senior in 1996, Wells helped USU to another share of the Big West Conference title.

Wells has spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach at Utah State, including serving as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2012 campaign. In 2011, Wells coached USU's quarterbacks and was the team's recruiting coordinator.

Utah State concluded its most successful season in school history in 2012 as it went 11-2 and set school records for wins (11) and home wins (6), while being nationally ranked in the Associated Press poll for three-straight weeks for the first time in school history. USU also won its first outright conference championship since 1936 during the 2012 campaign and just its third in school history joining the 1921 and 1936 teams that both won Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference titles. All-time, Utah State has won or shared 11 league championships.

During his two years at Utah State, Wells has been part of a Utah State team that went to back-to-back bowl games for just the third time in school history, while posting an 18-8 record. Furthermore, USU's 41-15 win against Toledo in the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was the school's second-ever bowl victory.

As offensive coordinator this past season, Wells directed an Aggie offense that set single-season school records for total points (454), total offense (6,108 yards), completions (285) and total yards per game (469.8), while ranking second in points per game (34.9) and total passing yards (3,445).

Nationally, Utah State's 2012 offense ranked second in the Western Athletic Conference and 23rd in the country in total offense (469.8 ypg), second in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (153.21), second in the WAC and 25th in the nation in rushing offense (204.8 ypg), third in the WAC and 31st in the nation in sacks allowed (1.38 pg), third in the WAC and 33rd in the nation in scoring offense (34.9 ppg), and third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in passing offense (265.0 ypg).

Under Wells, Utah State finished the 2012 season scoring 38 or more points in each of its final seven games, bettering the previous school record of 38-plus points in three-straight games accomplished six times and most recently in 2000.

Utah State also finished the 2012 season winning its final seven games, which is tied for the fourth-longest active winning streak in the nation and tied for the third-longest winning streak in school history.

In 2012, Wells coached current Aggie junior quarterback Chuckie Keeton who earned first-team all-WAC honors after setting single-season school records for touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,373), completion percentage (.676), completions (275) and total offense (3,992 yards). Keeton also earned WAC Offensive Player of the Week honors four times in 2012, which is a single-season school record.

As the quarterbacks coach in 2011, Wells helped Utah State's offense establish then-school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

Under Wells' tutelage during his first two seasons at Utah State, Keeton has emerged as one of the top quarterbacks in the nation and currently ranks first in school history in career completion percentage (.656),

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT MATT WELLS...

Gary Andersen, Wisconsin Head Football Coach and Former Utah State Head Football Coach:

"Matt will be a great leader for Utah State football moving forward. Being on our staff for the last two years, he is prepared and will continue to implement the same philosophies with his own style."

Chuckie Keeton, Utah State Junior Quarterback:

"I'm very excited for him and happy for what he has accomplished, moving up the coaching ranks. I anticipate Coach Wells doing great things for Utah State University and this community. I am definitely happy about him becoming head coach after spending my first two years in college working with him as my position coach. We return a lot of players on both sides of the ball and it is going to be fun to watch how this team progresses under his leadership."

Steve Kragthorpe, LSU Quarterbacks Coach - Former Tulsa and Louisville Head Football Coach:

"This is a home run hire for Utah State. Matt was an integral part of our turnaround at the University of Tulsa, and did a tremendous job for me not only there, but at the University of Louisville as well. Utah State is not only hiring a great coach, but a great man and a true Aggie. He will do a tremendous job as the head football coach at Utah State and will continue the great tradition of football in Cache Valley."

Ken Niumatalolo, Navy Head Football Coach:

"Utah State could not have hired a more qualified head coach to lead their program than Matt Wells. Matt is an Aggie to the core. From an X's and O's standpoint, Matt is an exceptional football coach, but more importantly, he is a family man of the highest character."

Freshman quarterback Darell Garretson (6) was 28-of-41 passing for 370 yards with three touchdowns and one interception in Utah State's 47-10 win against Hawai'i. Garretson, who also rushed for 22 yards, set the USU single game passing yards record by a freshman quarterback against UH.

LOGAN, Utah - Quarterback Darell Garretson set a school record for passing yards by a freshman in helping Utah State post a 47-10 win against Hawai'i on Nov. 2, 2013.

Utah State improved to 5-4 overall and 4-1 in Mountain West action. Hawai'i dropped to 0-8 overall and 0-6 in MW play with the loss.

Garretson threw for 370 yards on 28-of-41 passing with three touchdowns, setting a school record for most yards by a freshman and is the first Aggie freshman to throw for 300 yards since Brett Stevens in 1985. Those 370 passing yards by Garretson are the most by an Aggie quarterback this year.

Utah State ended the game with 533 yards of total offense, its fourth game this season with 500-plus yards of total offense, getting a season-high 370 yards passing to go with 163 yards rushing. Senior running back Joey DeMartino led the rushing attack with 104 yards on a career-high 20 carries and a touchdown, for his fourth 100-yard rushing outing this season, including in each of his last two games.

Senior wide receiver Travis Reynolds had a career-high 152 receiving yards on a career-high tying eight catches with a third-quarter touchdown, as his 152 receiving yards are the most by an Aggie wide receiver since 2002. Sophomore wide receiver Bruce Natson notched seven catches for 34 yards with a touchdown, which was USU's first of the game.

Sophomore linebacker Kyler Fackrell led the Utah State defense with nine tackles and snared an interception near the Hawai'i goalline and scampered 99-yards for a touchdown, for the third-longest interception return in school history. The linebacker duo of senior Jake Doughty and junior Zach Vigil had eight stops apiece. Junior safeties Brian Suite and Frankie Sutera also had interceptions.

Utah State also kicked four field goals in the game, getting three from junior placekicker Nick Diaz, while freshman placekicker Jake Thompson boomed a 52-yarder late in the first half which is tied for the 10th-longest field goal in school history.

Hawai'i had 319 yards of total offense with 260 passing and 59 rushing, which is a season-low allowed by USU.

The Aggies scored their first touchdown of the afternoon on an 11-yard pass from Garretson to Natson and Diaz split the uprights for a 7-0 lead. Following a 33-yard field goal from Hawai'i, Diaz drilled a 40-yard field goal to give USU a 10-3 lead after the first quarter.

DeMartino darted in on a 4-yard scamper for a 17-3 lead just 33 seconds into the second quarter and Diaz added a 32-yard field goal to increase its lead to 20-3. With 50 seconds to go in the half, Thompson came on and booted a 52-yard field goal to give the Aggies a 23-3 advantage at intermission.

Hawai'i scored its only points of the second half on a touchdown on its first series of the third quarter before USU scored the final 24 points of the game.

Following UH's final score, Diaz split the uprights from 32-yards out with 9:51 to go in the period for a 26-10 lead, and Garretson connected with Reynolds for a 30-yard scoring strike at the 6:20 point of the third quarter to give the home team a 33-10 advantage. Later in the third, Fackrell returned an interception 99 yards for the third-longest interception return in school history.

Garretson hit freshman tight end Wyatt Houston on a pass, catch and run for a 44-yard touchdown to cap the Aggies' scoring with 10:29 left in the game.

Sophomore linebacker Kyler Fackrell (9) had nine tackles and returned an interception 99 yards for a touchdown against the Rainbow Warriors.

The win was USU's fifth-straight in the series and the longest in series history, while its 28-point margin of victory was also its largest in series history.

Utah State's 520 yards came on 260 through the air as Keeton was 29-of-42 passing with three touchdowns. Keeton also rushed for 52 yards on 12 carries with another score, as part of the Aggies' 253 yards on the ground.

Fackrell, who tied his career-high with 11 stops, also registered his fourth sack of the season and seventh of his career. It was Vigil's third double-digit tackle outing of the season and eighth of his career. Vigil also recovered his second fumble of the year and his career.

Utah State's defense entered the game without any interceptions, but left the game with three, as senior safety Maurice Alexander, senior cornerback Nevin Lawson and junior cornerback Jeremy Morris all snared oskies. It was Lawson's third interception of his career and his second at Spartan Stadium. Alexander and Morris posted their first interceptions of their career.

San José State was led by David Fales who was 25-of-48 passing for 314 yards, but threw three interceptions and was sacked once. Chandler Jones snared seven passes for 115 yards for the Spartans, while Jason Simpson rushed for 48 yards on 15 carries with one score.

Utah State took the opening kickoff and Keeton guided the charge down the field, resulting in a 3-yard pass to senior tight end D.J. Tialavea for a 7-0 lead less than four minutes into the game.

On SJSU's ensuing possession, the Spartans marched down the field in a 15-play drive resulting in a 31-yard field goal with 8:01 left in the quarter to pull within, 7-3.

The Aggies opened up a 14-3 lead later in the quarter after a 5-yard pass from Keeton to junior tight end Keegan Andersen.

Senior wide receiver Travis Reynolds (8) had 70 receiving yards on a career-high tying five receptions in Utah State's 17-14 loss at USC. Reynolds also had a 10-yard touchdown reception against the Trojans.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. - Utah State football fought tooth and nail with the Trojans of USC, but came up short in a 17-14 loss at USC on Saturday, Sept. 21, 2013. The loss slips USU to an even 2-2, while USC improves to 3-1.

Utah State totaled a season-low 285 yards of total offense, but still out-gained USC by three yards. The Aggies' yards came by way of 179 passing and 106 on the ground. Junior quarterback Chuckie Keeton was 21-of-39 for 179 yards with two touchdown passes.

Senior wide receiver Travis Reynolds tied a career-high with five catches for 70 yards, including a 10-yard touchdown catch from Keeton to tie the game at 14-14 with 6:51 to play in the third quarter. Sophomore wide receiver Brandon Swindall snared Keeton's other touchdown pass on an 8-yard second-quarter catch.

Senior running back Joey DeMartino gained 72 yards on nine carries, including a 55-yard dash to set up USU's first touchdown of the game. Junior running back Joe Hill added 51 yards rushing on five carries.

The linebacker duo of senior Jake Doughty and junior Zach Vigil posted 12 tackles each, for a new career-high by Vigil. It was also Doughty's third double-digit tackle outing of the season and seventh of his career, while Vigil now has two double-digit tackle outings this year and seventh of his career.

USC's Cody Kessler was 13-of-27 passing for 164 with one touchdown and was sacked by the Aggie defense three times, including twice by sophomore linebacker Kyler Fackrell, while Doughty logged the other. Tre Madden posted 93 rushing yards on 24 carries and had the game's lone rushing score with a 1-yard plunge in the first quarter. Marqise Lee caught six passes for 72 yards.

The Trojans totalled 282 yards of total offense with 164 passing and 118 rushing.

USC got on the board first with a 1-yard run by Madden with 5:41 to go in the first quarter for a 7-0 Trojan lead. That would remain the score through the end of the quarter, marking the first time in the last 12 games that the Aggies did not score in the opening stanza.

Utah State tied the score at 7-all with an 8-yard pass from Keeton to Swindall and an upright split by junior placekicker Nick Diaz at the 13:17 mark of the second quarter. The Trojans took a 14-7 lead with 5:13 to play in the second quarter on a 30-yard pass from Kessler to Xavier Grimble. USC's 14-7 advantage held up through the remainder of first half action and into halftime.

That would remain the score until part-way through the third stanza when Keeton connected with Reynolds to tie it up at 14-14 at the 6:51 mark of quarter number three.

After a short USU punt, the Trojans took advantage of the short field, but the Aggie defense held them to a field goal after driving to get a first-and-goal at the USU 8-yard line. Andre Heidari's 25-yard field goal with 13:35 left in the fourth quarter proved to be the difference.

The Aggies' final scoring chance came midway through the fourth quarter, getting to the USU 41. Utah State went for it on fourth-and-nine, but the play was denied, turning the ball over to USC and the Trojans ran out the clock for the victory.

Junior linebacker Zach Vigil (53) had a career-high 12 tackles and recovered a fumble against the Trojans.

On USU's next possession, DeMartino darted in from 11-yards out, and then Keeton hit Reynolds for a 39-yard scoring pass play for a 21-0 USU lead after the first quarter.

USU's second quarter scoring started with a 4-yard pass from Keeton to sophomore line-backer/tight end Kyler Fackrell, then hit junior wide receiver Ronald Butler with a 15-yard strike. DeMartino later scored on a 7-yard scamper and Tialavea capped the first half scoring with an 8-yard catch from Keeton.

Five plays later, Utah scored another touchdown for a 24-23 Utah lead with 1:29 to go in the frame.

On its next drive that overlapped the end of the third quarter and the start of the fourth, Utah State drove deep into Utes' territory before the drive slowed, and Diaz drilled a 24-yard field goal to give USU a 26-24 lead with 10:39 remaining.

Utah took the kickoff and marched down the field, capping the drive with a 19-yard field goal with 6:38 for the Utes' lead and the Aggies couldn't counter. USU used its timeouts to hold the Utah drive, but the Utes kicked a 38-yard field goal with 19 seconds left for a 30-26 lead.

USU had a last chance, but Keeton's heave to the end zone fell to the turf incomplete as time expired.

Senior linebacker Jake Doughty (51) recorded 16 tackles against the Utes.
