2002 OUTLOOK

2002 UTAH STATE FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Utah State will enter its third season under the direction of head coach Mick Dennehy. Dennehy, who guided the Aggies to a 5-6 record in 2000 and a 4-7 mark in 2001, has the program headed in the right direction both on the field and off.

The Aggies return seven offensive starters and eight regulars from the defensive side of the ball, as well as both punter Steve Mullins and place kicker Dane Kidman. Among the returnees are two legitimate All-America candidates in wide receiver Kevin Curtis and Mullins.

Curtis led the NCAA in receptions per game (9.1) and was third in yards per game (139.2) last season. His spectacular season, which included USU records for receptions (100) and yards (1,531), was capped with him being named a third-team All-American by the Associated Press.

Mullins, the NCAA's leading returning punter with a 44.8 average in 2001, was fourth in the country in that category last year. His school record average earned him recognition as a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award.

Utah State will once again face a challenging schedule as after playing four ranked teams at game time and five teams that played in bowl games last year, USU will meet four bowl teams in its first six games in 2002. Eight of USU's 11 opponents this season had winning records a year ago and were a combined 78-52 (60.0 percent) on the season.

OFFENSE

2001 NCAA Rankings

Total Offense — 32nd; Rushing — 77th; Passing — 13th; Scoring — 43rd

Once again, Utah State's offense was one of the most productive units in the country ranking 13th in passing and 32nd in total offense. USU threw for 288.0 yards per game en route to racking up 420.3 yards per contest. Leading the way were a trio of outstanding skill players in QB Jose Fuentes, RB Emmett White and WR Kevin Curtis.

For just the third time in school history (1995 and 2000), USU produced a 3,000-yard passer (Fuentes with 3,100 yards), a 1,000-yard receiver (Curtis with 1,531 yards) and a 1,000-yard rusher (White with 1,361 yards). Two members of that trio return in Fuentes and Curtis.

Three starters on the offensive line will be back to protect Fuentes and clear the way for any of three running backs.

CHRIS COOLEY HELPED UTAH STATE'S OFFENSE RANK 13TH IN THE NATION IN PASSING DURING THE 2001 SEASON.

Senior Jim Newton will anchor an offensive line that returns four players who have started at least two games in their careers. Newton has started 22 consecutive games at left tackle and will man that spot once again this season. Next to him at left guard is Luis Trujillo, who started five of the last six games of the year. Aric Galliano, who reshirted in 2001 is the leading candidate to start at center, while junior college transfers Trevor Hutton and Greg Vandermade will battle for the right guard position. At right tackle redshirt Grant Calverley is expected to start while Brenen Burningham, who started four of the last six games as a freshman last year, will contend for playing time as well. In addition, Barry McLaughlin started two games at tackle a year ago and will provide solid depth again this season. Mike Scheper saw action as a backup last year. USU lost three starters from the center and guard positions in Ed Powell, Jess Schuck and Jim Walker. Powell and Walker were considered the team's top linemen, while Schuck, who started 28 games in his career, including six last year, was bothered by injuries in 2001.

Gone is starting tight end J.R. Suguturaga, who pulled in 24 receptions for 201 yards and provided outstanding blocking. However, two Aggies that have seen plenty of playing time in the previous two years return in Chris Cooley and Casey Poppinga.

Poppinga started five games a year ago and had three catches for 38 yards and one touchdown. Cooley, who played on the defensive line as a freshman, pulled in three balls for 21 yards and a score as a sophomore last year. They will be pushed for playing time by redshirts Nick George and Patrick McNutt, as well as freshman Jason Stephens, who is returning from an LDS mission and JC transfer Nick King.

With five letterwinners and two starters returning to the wide receiver positions, there is some experience as well as depth. Kevin Curtis was a third-team All-American after leading the country in receptions per game (9.1) last year. The talented senior-to-be established numerous school records in his first year at the Division I level with 100 catches for 1,531 yards. Chris Stallworth, who has lettered in each of the previous two seasons, had 33 catches for 384 yards and four touchdowns last year. Gary Coleman was third on the team in receptions with 36 for 440 yards, four touchdowns and a team-long 70-yard catch. Derek Jeffery and Donta Candler also saw time. The only players lost from last year with a reception were Jason Deml, who had 11 catches for 86 yards and Marshall Sanders, who had three catches for nine yards.

Two-year starter Jose Fuentes returns to run the Aggie offense. The senior threw for 3,100 yards and completed 59.6 percent of his pass attempts. Both of those numbers rank third on the USU season lists. Last year Fuentes was fifth in the country in completions per game (23.6) and ranked 18th in total offense (265.5). Behind him are two local products in Jeff Crosbie and Travis Cox. Crosbie started 17 consecutive games before giving way to Fuentes in the 1999 season. He has thrown for 3,315 yards in his career. Cox, a sophomore was four-of-seven while playing in four games last year. Stuart Perry spent last season as the scout team quarterback, while Bryan Black is a freshman.

David Fiefia and Roger (Fernandez) Robinson are the top candidates to replace two-year starter and one of the most productive players to ever wear an Utah State uniform, Emmett White. The two-time All-American graduated with his name etched on both Utah State and NCAA record book lists. The nation's all-purpose yardage leader in 2000, White was fourth in that category last season and 11th in rushing despite missing most of the 11th game with an injury (played one play and rushed for one yard). Fiefia, a junior showed signs that he is capable of stepping into the starting role. He rushed for 187 yards on 30 attempts (6.2 average), including 116 yards on 16 carries in the finale against Fresno State. Robinson is an explosive runner and he rushed eight times for 30 yards on the season. Robinson averaged 24.4 yards on five punt returns and established a school record for season kickoff return yardage with 34 returns for 774 yards and a 22.8 average. Richard Watson, is a tough runner, who was a member of the scout team a year ago. Newcomer James Samuel will push for playing time as well. Chris Cooley, who in addition to playing tight end, will man the fullback position along with Trent Nate.

DEFENSE

2001 NCAA Rankings

Total Defense — 105th; Rushing — 76th; Passing — 110th; Scoring — 108th

The Aggie defense faced some of the most explosive offensive teams in college football a year ago. High scoring opponents like Oregon, LSU, BYU, Fresno State and Utah went up against the Aggie defense. Last year's team was decimated with injuries, which helped result in the fact that USU started 18 different players on the year.

This year, USU returns eight starters on the defensive unit and should have improved depth. Among the leaders are defensive end Nate Putnam, linebacker Jesse Busta, and safety Jamar Glasper.

USU lost two leaders up front in Ryan Duncan and Nick Onaindia. Duncan started the first six games of the year before a career-ending injury, while Onaindia was the team's third-leading tackler with 65 stops, including team-best totals in tackles for loss (14) and sacks (nine). Nate Putnam, who started in place of Duncan, despite a nagging shoulder injury, returns to anchor the line. The two tackles from a year ago are back in Ronald Tupea and Jorge Tapia. Junior college transfer Justin Jackson is the leading contender to man the left end spot. Jeremy Guenter will see plenty of playing time after recording eight tackles in a backup role last year. James Robinson worked his way into the rotation and should see a lot of time in the middle of the line.

Team-leading tackler Jesse Busta will anchor the Aggie linebackers in 2002. Busta, who recorded 100 tackles last year, including 13 for loss, has been a quiet leader for USU the last two seasons. He will be joined by Rodney Wilson, who started six games a year ago and recorded 26 tackles and Robert Watts, who had 28 stops in a backup role. USU lost Tony Newson, who recorded 53 tackles in an injury-plagued season, but the Aggies should have the depth and ability to fill those shoes. Others who

Four players that started at least four games last year return to the secondary. Among the returnees are regular starters Jamar Glasper, Bryan Jackson and Ade Jimoh, as USU started five defensive backs in most games. USU lost two talented starters in Tony Walker (a four-year starter) and Nathan Barber, who combined for seven of USU's 10 interceptions last year. Steve Tate, a key backup in 2001 went on an LDS Church mission and will not play this season. Jamar Glasper, the team's second leading tackler with 77 a year ago, has a tendency to always be around the ball as evidenced by his three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Ade Jimoh (39 tackles) started nine games at cornerback, while Bryan Jackson, who started four of the last six games, had 32 tackles. USU had five other players earn letters with extensive playing time including Derrek Shank, who started the first four games of the year and finished with 31 tackles. Others who saw a lot of game time included Andre Bala (no tackles), Jerome Dennis (11 tackles), Mark Estelle (24 tackles), and Ross Luna (five tackles). They will all be pushed by newcomers Kevin Anderson and Mike Rosencrans as well as redshirts Cornelius Lamb and Jerry May.

SPECIAL TEAMS

2001 NCAA Rankings

Net Punting — 57th; Punt Returns — 45th; Kickoff Returns — 40th

Utah State boasted solid special teams play for most of the season. However, three punts were blocked late in the year and two field goal attempts were blocked as well to diminish the previous accomplishments.

USU's punting game featured Steve Mullins, who was fourth in the NCAA in average (44.8) and landed 13 of his 50 punts inside the 20-yard line. He recorded at least one 50-yard punt in every game as well. He is back for his senior season as the nation's leading returning punter.

Dane Kidman hit seven-of-13 field goal attempts in his first year as USU's place kicker. He also made 35-of-39 extra point attempts. The senior made his first three field goal attempts of the season and was seven-of-10 until missing his final three kicks of the year. He will be challenged by redshirt Ben Chaet.

Lettermen Lost

Emmett White
Tony Walker

Roger (Fernandez) Robinson and David Fiefia proved to be extremely talented return men and will probably see more action this year with the departure of Emmett White and Tony Walker. White led the team in punt returns (16-125), while Walker returned six kickoffs for a 21.7 average. Robinson was the main kickoff returner last year establishing a school record with 774 yards. All in all he had 34 returns for a 22.8 average and a long of 70. As a punt returner, Robinson scored on a 64-yard return against Utah, the first time he touched the ball as a collegian. He averaged 24.4 yards on five punt returns on the season. Fiefia returned 14 kickoffs for a 22.2 average.

USU NOTE-ABLE

➔Utah State boasts three of the nation's returning individual statistical leaders in Kevin Curtis (receptions and receiving yards) and Steve Mullins (punting). Curtis led the country in 2001 in receptions (9.1 per game) and was third in yards per contest (139.2), while Mullins was fourth in punting at 44.8.

➔Four of USU's first six games are against teams that played in bowl games last year.

➔Five of USU's six road games will be played in the Central Time Zone (USU is in the Mountain Time Zone).

➔USU will host BYU and Utah in the same season for the first time since 1996 and only the second time since 1980.

➔Last year USU set a home season attendance average record (21,784) without the benefit of playing either Utah or BYU in Logan.

➔USU has two quarterbacks that have each thrown for more than 3,000 yards in their career in Jose Fuentes (5,900) and Jeff Crosbie (3,315).

➔The Nov. 30 finale at Middle Tennessee is the third deepest into the calendar year that the Aggies will play a regular season game (Dec. 11, 1959 and Dec. 1, 2001).

➔USU has produced a 2,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in two straight seasons. Last year Jose Fuentes, Kevin Curtis and Emmett White combined to accomplish that feat after Fuentes, Aaron Jones and White did it in 2000.
