MEDIA GUIDE CREDITS

COVERING UTAH STATE

TO THE MEDIA

The 2009 Utah State football media guide has been prepared to assist you in covering the Aggies this season. Additional information is available by contacting the Athletic Media Relations Office at (435) 797-2066 or through USU's web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Monday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on the Utah State University athletic web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com. This release will also be e-mailed and/or faxed to media requesting this service on Monday.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Gary Andersen will hold a press conference in Logan each Monday during the season at 11:30 a.m. at The Copper Mill Restaurant (55 North Main). Selected players will also be available at the press conference. Quotes from the press conference will be available on USU's web site (www.UtahStateAggies.com) each Monday afternoon and will also be faxed and/or e-mailed per request.

WAC TELECONFERENCES

Each Monday during the season, the Western Athletic Conference will host a weekly media teleconference featuring the head coach from each team. Gary Andersen will be on the call from 10:53 to 11 a.m. Contact the conference office at (303) 799-9221 for a complete schedule.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Utah State players and coaches should be made directly through the Athletic Media Relations Office (435) 797-2066 and should be made at least one day in advance. The best time for player interviews is before or after practice, while head coach Gary Andersen should be available in the mornings as well as before or after practice. Player interviews will be conducted through Wednesday each game week.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

PARKING

Credentialed media will be allowed access to the parking lot on the west side of the stadium (Blue Lot). A parking pass is required for admittance to that area and should be requested at least one week in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Access to the press box is limited to those with working credentials. A pregame meal will be served approximately one hour prior to kickoff.

Game programs, game notes and flip cards will be provided prior to the game. Statistics and play-by-play information will be provided during the game. At the conclusion of the game a complete statistical book, typed quotes and postgame notes will be available.

Final game statistics will be faxed to media requesting the service.

Wireless internet will be available to media at the game. A limited number of telephones will also be available in the press box on a first-come, first-serve basis. Requests for personal phones should be made through USU Telephone Services at (435) 797-3201 at least one week prior to the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' ACCESS

Photographers are allowed to shoot on the sidelines outside the team bench area (team bench areas are between the 25-yard lines). Photographers must remain outside of the team bench area. Photographers may also shoot from the photo decks on top of or below the Romney Stadium press box. Team rosters are provided in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Utah State locker room is closed to the media on game days. Postgame interviews will take place after a brief cooling off period in the Spelman Auditorium, located on the second floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Spelman Auditorium has wireless internet, so media can file their stories from there or return to the press box.

ELECTRONIC SERVICES

ON THE AIR

Utah State football games are broadcast on KVNU (610 AM) and KLZX (95.9 FM) in Logan, Utah, KFAN (1320 AM) and ESPN Radio (1230 AM) in Salt Lake City, and KLZX (105.3 FM) in Montpelier, Idaho, as well as on the internet at www.UtahStateAggies.com. Al Lewis serves as the play-by-play announcer while Craig Hislop serves as the analyst.

ON THE INTERNET

All of Utah State's home games, along with selected Western Athletic Conference games are available to view live via the internet at utahstate.tv.

GAMETRACKER

Aggie fans will be able to follow Utah State home games through the USU web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com, via GameTracker, a program that documents each play and updates statistics.

GARY ANDERSEN ON THE AIR

The Gary Andersen radio show, hosted by Lewis, and held at various campus locations each week, will be broadcast on Thursdays on KVNU, from approximately 6-7 p.m.

DIRECTIONS TO LOGAN

Logan, Utah is home to Utah State University and is located approximately 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. From Salt Lake International Airport: Take I-80 East out of the airport to 215 North, which will run into I-15 North. Follow I-15 North to exit 362 (Highway 89-91) at Brigham City. Follow Highway 89 into Logan, where it becomes Main Street. Stay on Main Street until you reach 1000 North and turn right. Turn left at 800 East and the football stadium will be on your right. The parking lot is located on the west side of the stadium just off 800 East.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials for media members are issued at the discretion of the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Daily newspapers regularly covering Utah State University, the current opponent or another WAC school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
2. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
3. Officially recognized Utah State University student publications or student electronic media outlets.
4. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
5. Non-originating radio and television.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

- ▶ Utah State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information.
- ▶ Credentials will be issued to web sites that are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsportsline.com, etc., non-conference opponents, and for the Western Athletic Conference.
- ▶ Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
- ▶ Utah State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- ▶ All credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

Named for E.L. "Dick" Romney, Utah State's all-time winningest football coach and former athletics director, Romney Stadium was officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Romney Stadium history came on Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12.

There has been one major stadium addition since 1969. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl which brought the capacity of the stadium to 25,513.

Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chairback seats replaced wooden bleachers on the west side of the stadium.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003 that project expanded to the upper sections.

In the summer of 2004, the bent bluegrass field was replaced with a state of the art synthetic turf by SprinTurf.

Prior to the 2005 season a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north endzone complex was torn down and replaced with a three-story, 55,000 square foot facility. The Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex serves to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility houses the Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Hall of Fame, equipment room, lockerrooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms, luxury suites and a student-athlete academic center.

A future phase of improvement will include a new press box and luxury suites on the west side of the stadium.

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The glass-enclosed press box, located on the stadium's west side, was renovated in 1997 and features closed-circuit television monitors for replays. The press box can comfortably accommodate 36 writers with facilities for radio and TV broadcasters.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Romney Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball, gymnastics and volleyball teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of Coach Romney's lasting contributions to Utah State football. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships, compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). Utah State played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Over the past 41 seasons, Utah State has compiled a 105-88 mark (.544 winning percentage) in Romney Stadium. Only 13 times in the 40-year history of the stadium has Utah State experienced a losing record at home.

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Romney Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

ROMNEY STADIUM

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State will be taking the field for the 111th season of football in 117 years. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892 and defeated intra-state rival Utah, 12-0.

Show 'Em Your "A"

In 1909, the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

Utah State's student section, known simply as The HURD, supports the Aggies football team every home game, as many as 4,000 strong, and some selected road games. The HURD is Utah State's spirit club for all athletics. It is currently the largest club of Aggie students at Utah State. The HURD attends Coach's Shows, Sports Nights, tailgate parties, pre, post and away-game parties, pep-rallies, and even road trips are just some of the activities that The HURD provides at-least once a week for all of its members.

"Our student-section, cheerleaders and band are electric. They generate so much excitement and they are so loud. They have our back and support us a ton. Our students do a great job of being in the game and knowing what's going on and staying supportive. It's awesome to play in front of them."

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggiettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities.

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories.

Utah State adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

"Meet the Challenge," a 2,500-pound bronze sculpture by former Utah State football player Mike Hamby is located across the street from Romney Stadium.

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890's.

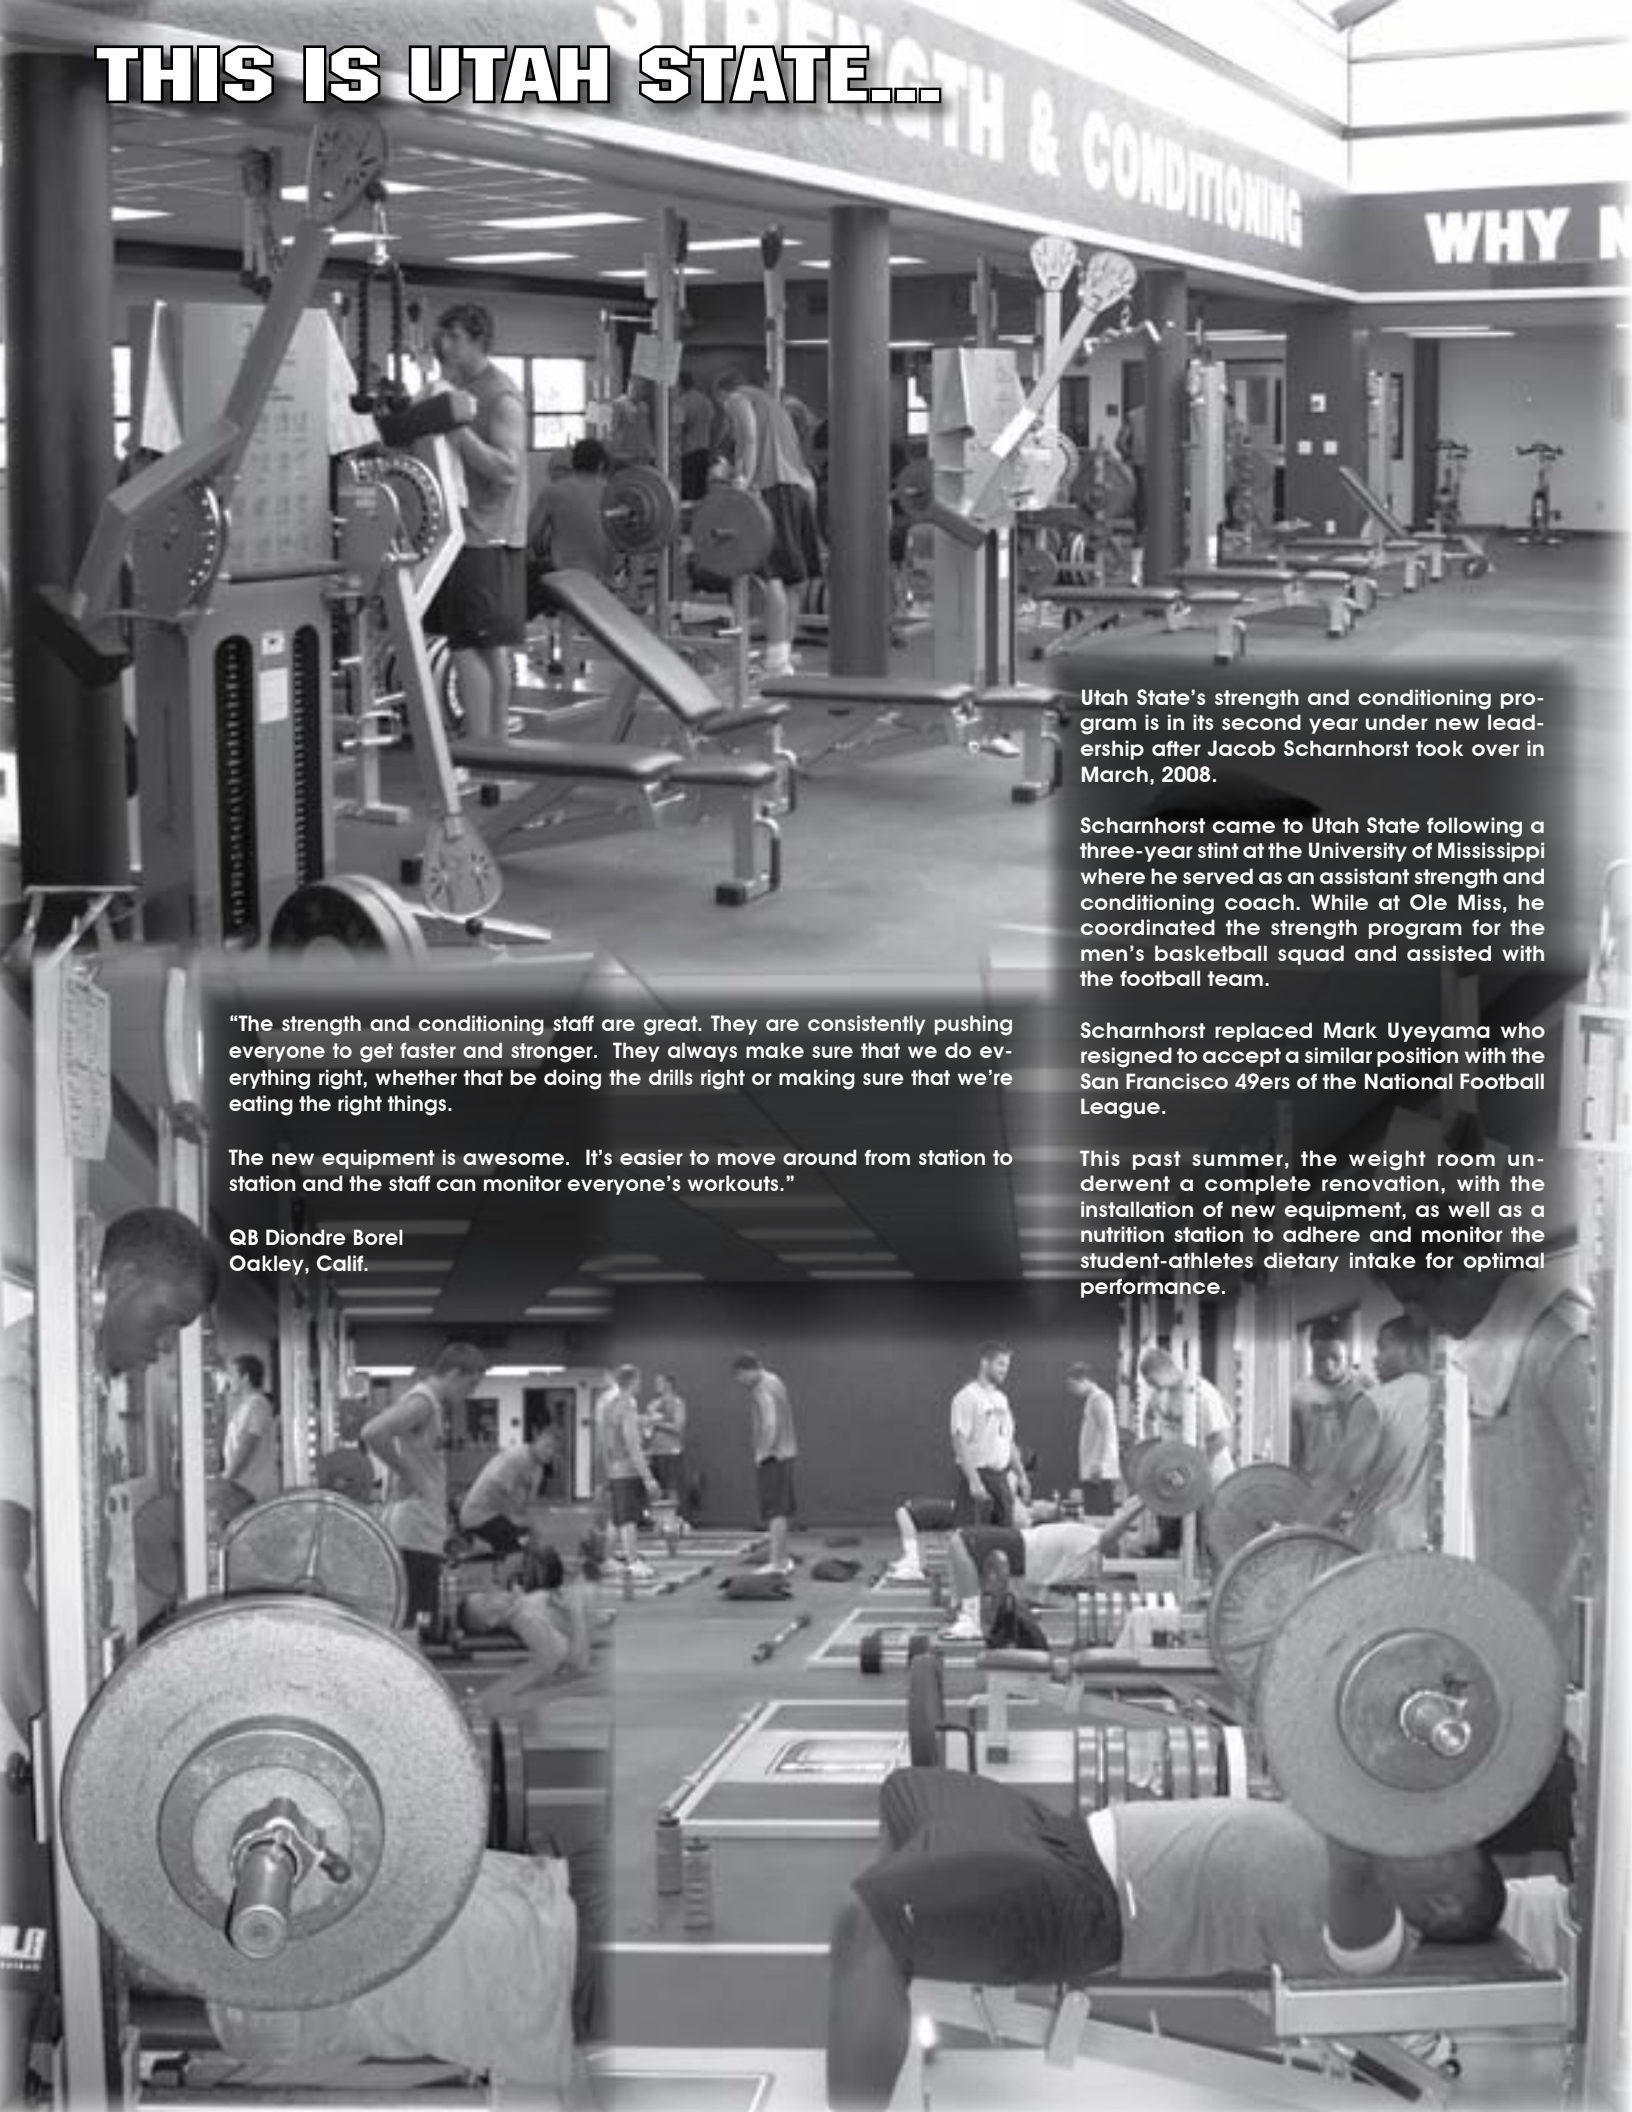

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
Utah State, Hey!
Aggies all the way!
Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
Hey! Hey! Hey!

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's strength and conditioning program is in its second year under new leadership after Jacob Scharnhorst took over in March, 2008.

Scharnhorst came to Utah State following a three-year stint at the University of Mississippi where he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. While at Ole Miss, he coordinated the strength program for the men's basketball squad and assisted with the football team.

Scharnhorst replaced Mark Uyeyama who resigned to accept a similar position with the San Francisco 49ers of the National Football League.

This past summer, the weight room underwent a complete renovation, with the installation of new equipment, as well as a nutrition station to adhere and monitor the student-athletes dietary intake for optimal performance.

"The strength and conditioning staff are great. They are consistently pushing everyone to get faster and stronger. They always make sure that we do everything right, whether that be doing the drills right or making sure that we're eating the right things.

The new equipment is awesome. It's easier to move around from station to station and the staff can monitor everyone's workouts."

UTAH STATE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING MISSION STATEMENT:

"A strength and conditioning coach is vital to the development of collegiate athletes. As strength and conditioning coaches, our two main objectives are to improve performance capabilities and to reduce the likelihood of injuries. These objectives are achieved through a multi-faceted program, working to challenge and develop athletes in a variety of different areas. We work to develop better all-around athletes, in the effort to give sport coaches a better product on the court or field. All areas of the strength and conditioning program requires an athlete's maximal effort and focus to obtain the desired results.

The foundation of the strength-training program resides in ground-based, multi-joint exercises utilizing free-weights. Variations of the Olympic lifts, squatting, pressing and pulling exercises will develop strength, power, balance and coordination. Speed, footwork, plyometrics and agility drills will increase straight-ahead speed, foot-speed, explosive power and change of direction capabilities. Proprioception drills will work to increase an athlete's balance and body awareness, while static and dynamic flexibility exercises will improve joint range-of-motion and help reduce the probability of soft tissue injuries. Sport-specific conditioning will prepare athletes to compete at their highest level, utilizing work-to-rest ratios and drills specific to game competition.

A well designed and coached strength and conditioning program will build mentally and physically tough student-athletes. In addition, the program will constantly strive to build team cohesiveness, accountability and athletes with a strong work ethic.

As a strength and conditioning staff we are always striving to improve our knowledge base and coaching abilities in order to enhance our program and in turn provide our student-athletes with all the resources possible to meet their potential as individuals and as a team."

Utah State's new state-of-the art Dale Mildner Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, were officially dedicated by USU President Stan Albrecht in a ceremony in February, 2008. The 11,000 square-foot facility is one of the finest sports medicine areas in the country, featuring 30 athletic training tables, three hydro treatment pools and an on-site rehabilitation area.

"The athletic training staff is completely dedicated to helping us recover from our injury and get back to action as soon as we can. I felt a lot stronger after my injury than I did before. The technology that they use is phenomenal and ranks among the best in the nation."

"Our athletic training facilities are incredible and are equivalent of a big-time program. They're the best in the state as well as the conference."

LB Jacob Atkinson
Grapevine, Texas

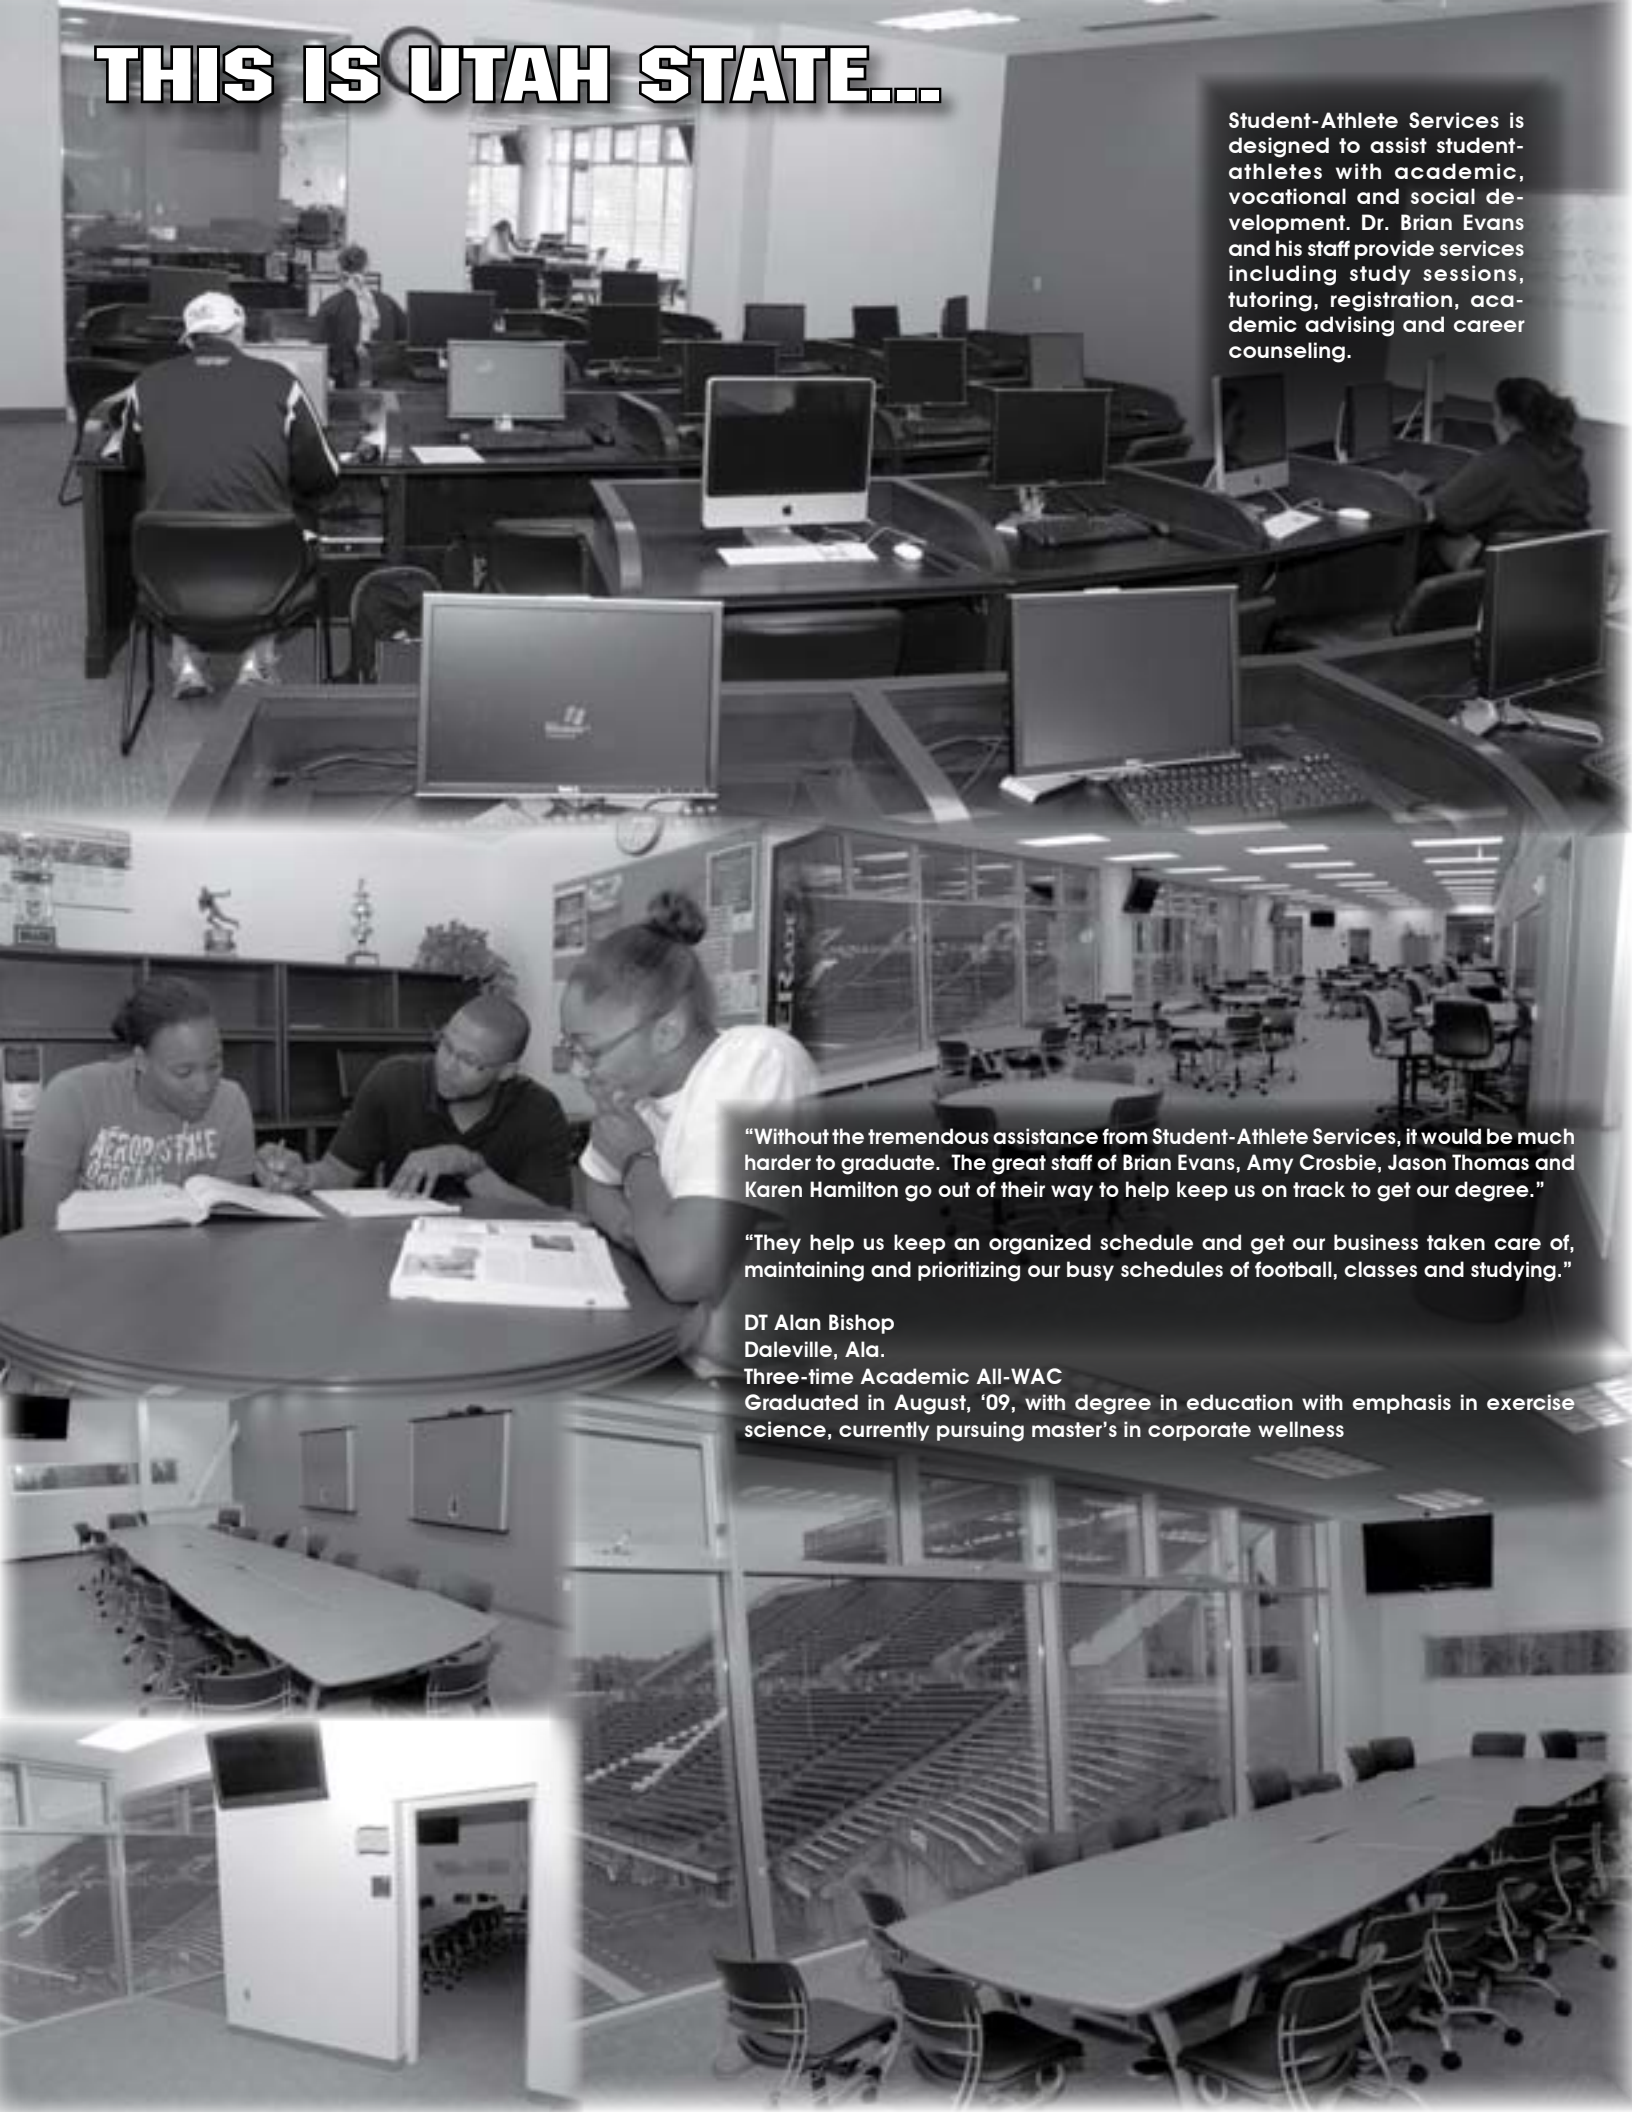

USU's athletic training staff has nearly 74 combined years of experience. Hall of Fame trainer Dale Mildenberger (center) heads a staff of three full-time staff members, including Fawn Michel (left) and Mike Williams, and a number of graduate assistants.

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration, academic advising and career counseling.

"Without the tremendous assistance from Student-Athlete Services, it would be much harder to graduate. The great staff of Brian Evans, Amy Crosbie, Jason Thomas and Karen Hamilton go out of their way to help keep us on track to get our degree."

"They help us keep an organized schedule and get our business taken care of, maintaining and prioritizing our busy schedules of football, classes and studying."

For the fourth straight year, Utah State led the Western Athletic Conference in number of academic all-league honorees as the Aggies landed 181 student-athletes on the academic all-WAC teams in 2008-09. USU has only been in the league four years as it joined the conference in July, 2005.

Overall, it is the 10th time in the last 11 years that Utah State has had the most academic all-league honorees as it led the Big West Conference in 2000 and 2002-05. In 2001, the Aggies ranked second in the Big West in academic selections.

Additionally, Utah State's athletics department recognized 150 student-athletes for achieving a 3.2 grade point average at the 15th annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Luncheon. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters.

In all, approximately 45 percent of USU's student-athletes earned a 3.2 GPA to qualify for the awards.

"The Student-Athlete Services office provides student-athletes with every resource to succeed in the classroom. They help us set up meetings with professors, advisors and tutors, as well as helping us plan and set goals so that we can graduate with our degree."

"They are pivotal in keeping us on the right track with which classes to take at the right time, and they watch our back so that we can remain eligible. I would say that they are the hammer behind the nail for our academic success and they don't get acknowledged enough for the countless hours that they work with us."

The USU Student-Athlete Services office also administers USU's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program and coordinates Aggie Ambassadors, Utah State's student-athlete outreach program.

Additionally, the office works with USU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and Student-Athlete Mentors Program (SAMs).

This past summer, USU hosted the WAC SAAC summer meetings, where USU football player, senior WR Nnamdi Gwacham was elected as President of the WAC SAAC. Gwacham also is President of the USU SAAC.

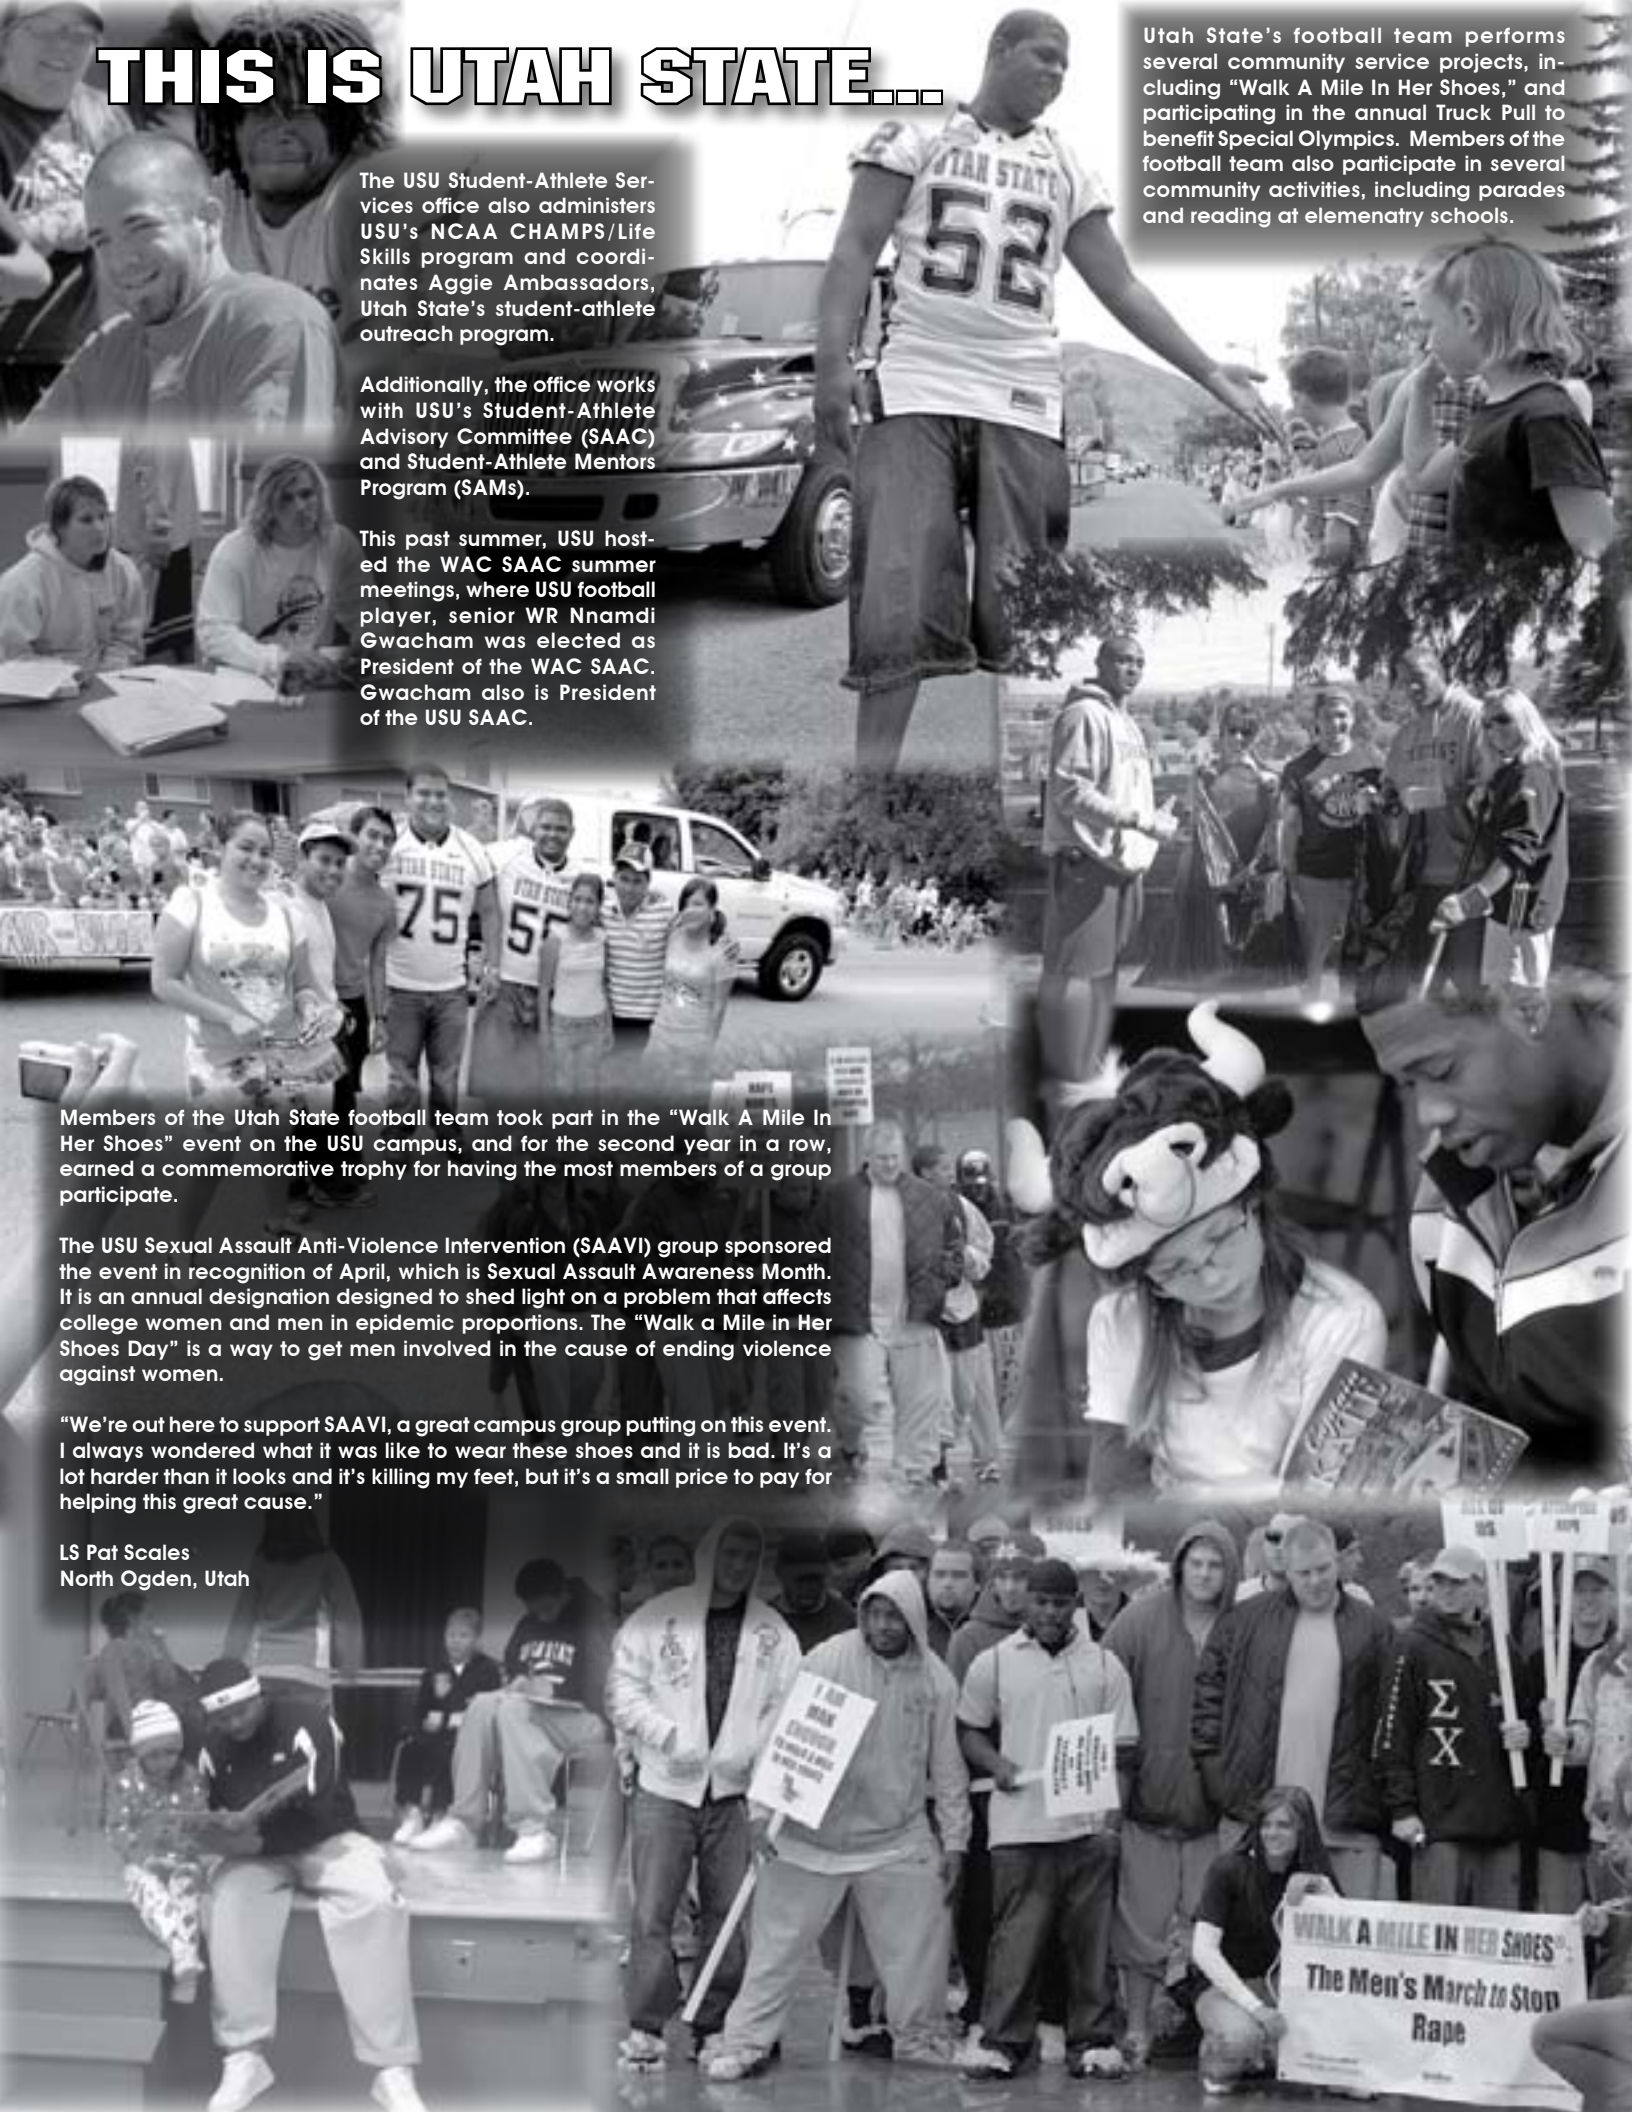

Utah State's football team performs several community service projects, including "Walk A Mile In Her Shoes," and participating in the annual Truck Pull to benefit Special Olympics. Members of the football team also participate in several community activities, including parades and reading at elementary schools.

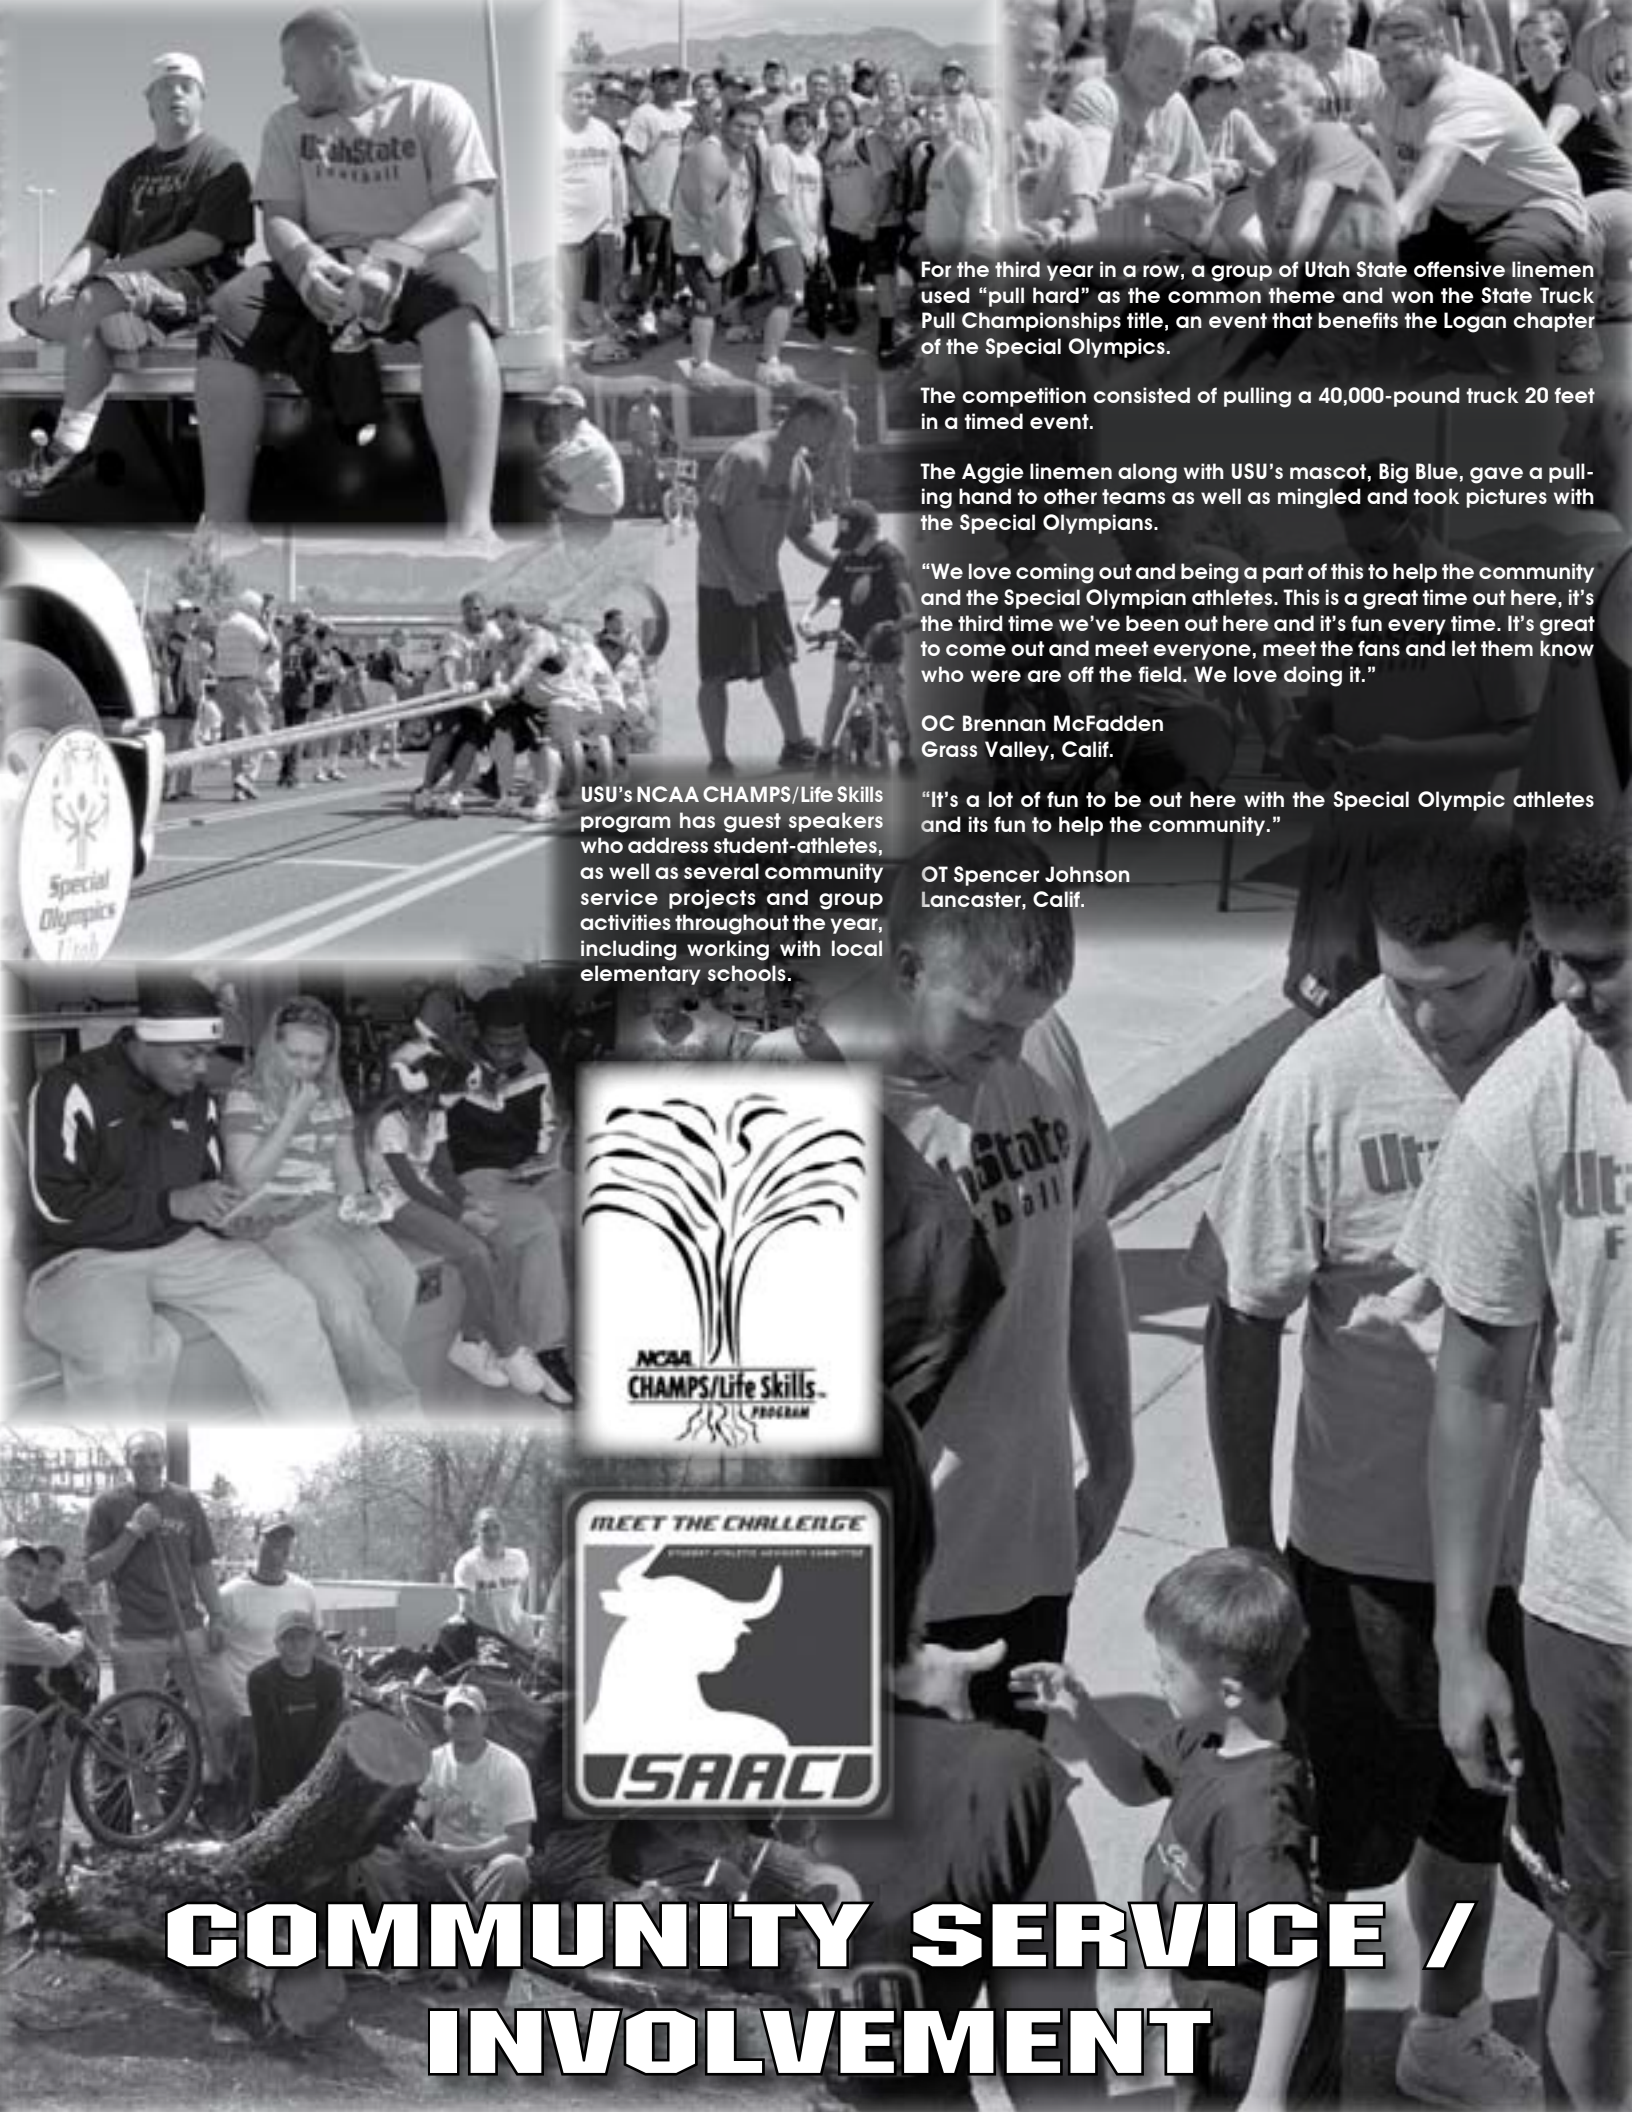

Members of the Utah State football team took part in the "Walk A Mile In Her Shoes" event on the USU campus, and for the second year in a row, earned a commemorative trophy for having the most members of a group participate.

The USU Sexual Assault Anti-Violence Intervention (SAAVI) group sponsored the event in recognition of April, which is Sexual Assault Awareness Month. It is an annual designation designed to shed light on a problem that affects college women and men in epidemic proportions. The "Walk a Mile in Her Shoes Day" is a way to get men involved in the cause of ending violence against women.

"We're out here to support SAAVI, a great campus group putting on this event. I always wondered what it was like to wear these shoes and it is bad. It's a lot harder than it looks and it's killing my feet, but it's a small price to pay for helping this great cause."

For the third year in a row, a group of Utah State offensive linemen used "pull hard" as the common theme and won the State Truck Pull Championships title, an event that benefits the Logan chapter of the Special Olympics.

The competition consisted of pulling a 40,000-pound truck 20 feet in a timed event.

The Aggie linemen along with USU's mascot, Big Blue, gave a pulling hand to other teams as well as mingled and took pictures with the Special Olympians.

"We love coming out and being a part of this to help the community and the Special Olympian athletes. This is a great time out here, it's the third time we've been out here and it's fun every time. It's great to come out and meet everyone, meet the fans and let them know who we are off the field. We love doing it."

USU's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program has guest speakers who address student-athletes, as well as several community service projects and group activities throughout the year, including working with local elementary schools.

COMMUNITY SERVICE / INVOLVEMENT

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

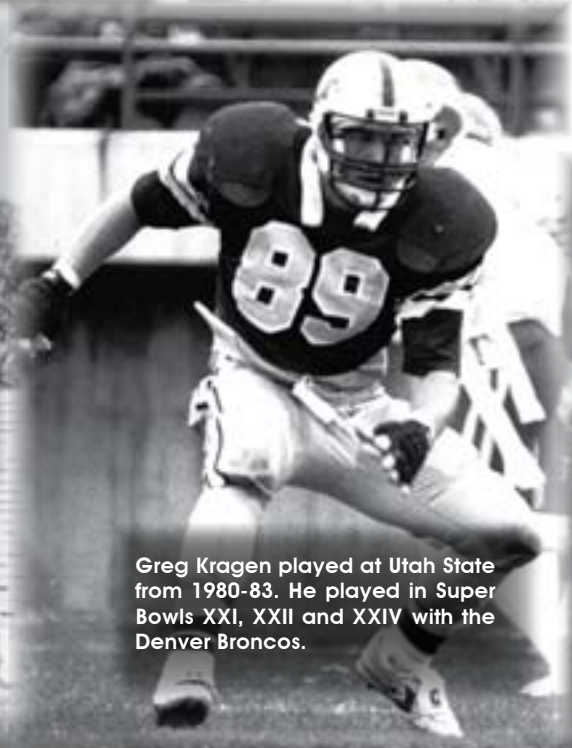

The 1907 Aggies were the first USU team to post a perfect season — 7-0.

Cornell Green played basketball at USU, but was a five-time NFL Pro Bowl selection and played in two Super Bowls for the Dallas Cowboys.

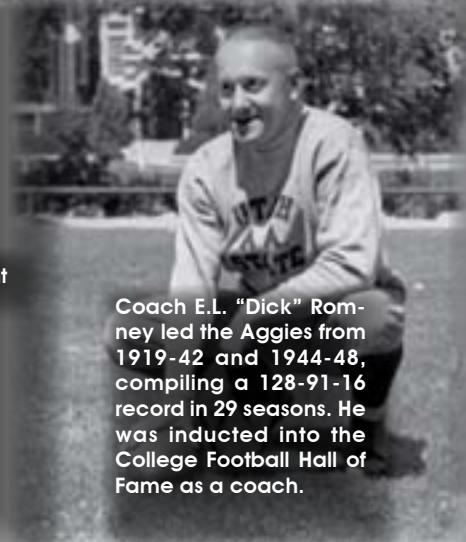

MacArthur Lane was the St. Louis Cardinals' first-round pick in 1968.

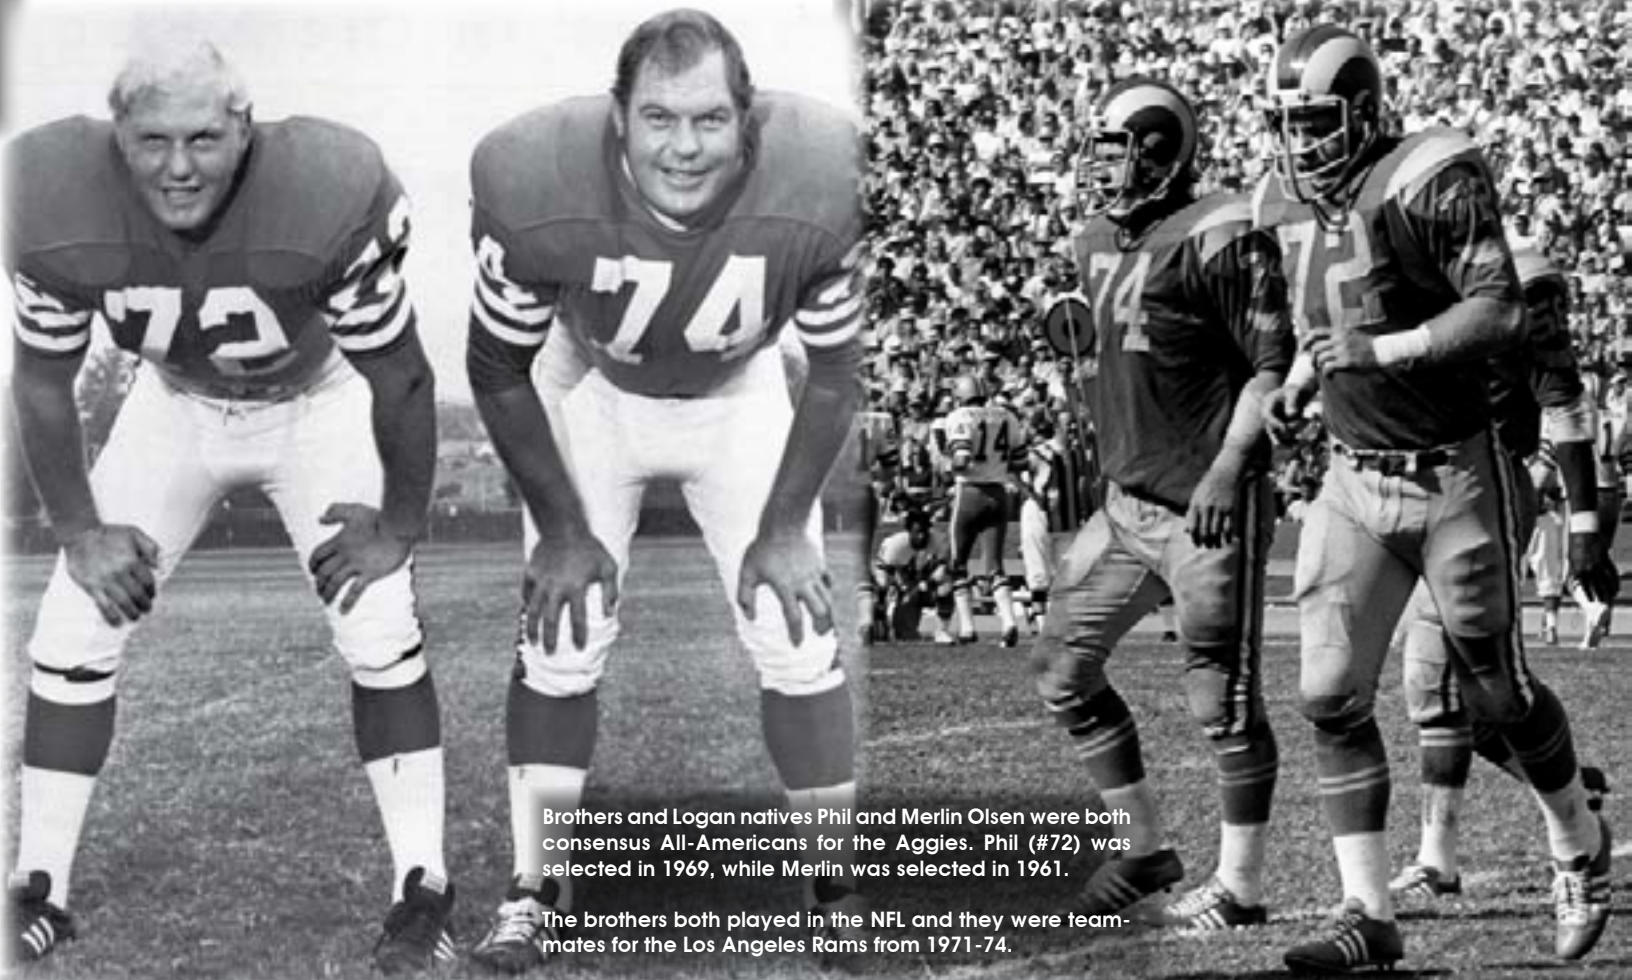

Greg Kragen played at Utah State from 1980-83. He played in Super Bowls XXI, XXII and XXIV with the Denver Broncos.

Coach E.L. "Dick" Romney led the Aggies from 1919-42 and 1944-48, compiling a 128-91-16 record in 29 seasons. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a coach.

Brothers and Logan natives Phil and Merlin Olsen were both consensus All-Americans for the Aggies. Phil (#72) was selected in 1969, while Merlin was selected in 1961.

The brothers both played in the NFL and they were teammates for the Los Angeles Rams from 1971-74.

Jose Fuentes holds the USU career records for passing yardage, passing completions, passing attempts and touchdown passes.

Emmett White set the NCAA record for all-purpose yards in game with 578 against New Mexico State during the 2000 season.

Kevin Robinson established a new NCAA career all-purpose yards per play record with 16.16 during his time as an Aggie from 2004-07.

HISTORY

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

In the last six years, more than a dozen Aggies have signed free agent contracts with NFL teams. In 2003, Kevin Curtis was the 74th overall pick, going to St. Louis in the third round. Chris Cooley was the 81st overall pick by Washington in 2004. Two Aggies were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft, in Shawn Murphy and Kevin Robinson. Murphy, an offensive guard, was picked by the Miami Dolphins in the fourth round as the 110th overall selection, while Robinson, a wide receiver and kick returner, was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the sixth round with the 182nd pick overall. This past summer, Rob Myers signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets while safety De'von Hall inked a free agent deal with the Minnesota Vikings.

Nov. 26, 2006 was a notable day in the NFL for Utah State alums, as both Kevin Curtis and Chris Cooley caught game-winners. Curtis caught a game-winning five-yard touchdown pass with :27 remaining as St. Louis defeated San Francisco, 20-17. Cooley caught a game-winning touchdown with 4:26 left, scoring on a 66-yard pass as Washington defeated Carolina, 17-13.

Utah State's annual Pro Timing Day regularly draws a number NFL scouts, monitoring and evaluating the Aggies' pro prospects.

A second-round draft pick in 1980, Rulon Jones played for the Denver Broncos from 1980-88, helping lead them to two Super Bowls. Jones earned Pro-Bowl honors in 1985 and '86, as well as an All-Pro selection in 1986. In his career, Jones recorded 73.5 sacks, ranking fourth on Denver's all-time list.

After four years with the St. Louis Rams, Kevin Curtis is entering his third season with the Philadelphia Eagles. On Sept. 23, 2007, Curtis tied an NFL record and went on to have a career day in the Eagles' 56-21 rout of the Detroit Lions. Curtis tied an NFL record for yards receiving in a first half with 205 yards on nine catches with three of them touchdowns and finished the day with 11 receptions for 221 yards and three TD's.

Curtis is one of only two players in NFL history to have two back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in the playoffs before ever recording one in the regular season. {Photo courtesy of the Philadelphia Eagles}

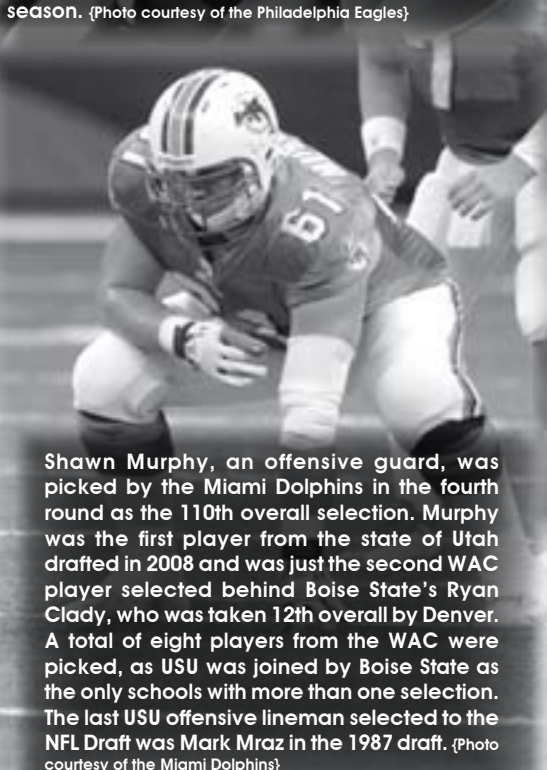

Chris Cooley is entering his fifth season with the Washington Redskins. He was named third alternate to the 2006 Pro Bowl before being selected in 2007, becoming the first former Utah State player selected to the Pro Bowl since Greg Kragen represented Denver in 1990. He also became the first Redskins tight end to make the Pro Bowl since Stephen Alexander in 2000. He was a repeat selection in the 2008 Pro Bowl, becoming USU's first alum to go to back-to-back Pro Bowls since Rulon Jones in 1985-86.

Jarrett Bush enters his fourth season with the Green Bay Packers. He played in every game and ranked second on the team with career-high 17 special teams tackles in 2008. In 2007, Bush played in 14 regular-season games and one playoff game, amassing 30 tackles and a fumble recovery which set up a game-winning field goal in the season-opener. Bush was one of four Packers rookies to play in every game during the 2006 season. {Photo courtesy of the Green Bay Packers}

Shawn Murphy, an offensive guard, was picked by the Miami Dolphins in the fourth round as the 110th overall selection. Murphy was the first player from the state of Utah drafted in 2008 and was just the second WAC player selected behind Boise State's Ryan Clady, who was taken 12th overall by Denver. A total of eight players from the WAC were picked, as USU was joined by Boise State as the only schools with more than one selection. The last USU offensive lineman selected to the NFL Draft was Mark Mraz in the 1987 draft. {Photo courtesy of the Miami Dolphins}

Donald Penn is in his fourth year in the NFL, signing with the Minnesota Vikings as a free agent, before joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and starting the last two seasons. Last season Penn started all 16 games at left tackle, helping lead the Tampa offense to 5,456 total yards, the highest single-season total in franchise history as well as 361 points, the second-highest single-season total in team history. For his career, he has played in 32 games with 28 starts.

Anthony Calvillo, a 16-year veteran of the Canadian Football League, is the No. 2 career leading passer in the CFL, surpassing the milestone in the summer of 2008. Calvillo is only one of four players all-time to reach the 50,000 yard milestone. In 2002, Calvillo led the Montreal Alouettes to the CFL Grey Cup title, earning the Grey Cup Most Outstanding Player award. He was the Most Outstanding Player of the CFL in 2003 and the East Division Most Outstanding Player from 2002-04, as well as a three-time CFL All-Star. In 2008 he set a CFL record with 44 completions in a game and set a team record with 472 completions in a season, leading the CFL for most TD passes and most completions. He also led the league in QB rating. {Photo courtesy of Montreal Alouettes, Benoit Pelosse}

John Chick helped the Saskatchewan Roughriders win the 2007 CFL Grey Cup. During the playoffs, Chick had six tackles, including three sacks, the second-most in the CFL during the playoffs, along with one forced fumble. On the year, Chick started eight of 11 games played at defensive end. He recorded 23 tackles, five quarterback sacks and also had a 70-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown. {Photo courtesy of Saskatchewan Roughriders}

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Founded in 1888, Utah's land-grant institution, the Utah Agricultural College, opened for instruction in September, 1890. More than 637,000 students have since enrolled at the institution, which officially became Utah State University in March, 1957.

USU occupies 7,000 acres, 400 of which are on campus, with more than 200 buildings, 63 of which are devoted to academics. USU also has three branch campuses and Extension offices in all of Utah's 29 counties.

The Merrill-Cazier Library opened in September, 2005 and houses materials in the arts, humanities, social sciences, agriculture, life and physical sciences, medicine and engineering. The new library building (305,000 sq. ft.) was constructed from the existing Cazier Science and Technology Library, expanding the original building of 116,000 sq. ft. with an additional 189,000 sq. ft., thus replacing the 202,000 square feet of the Merrill Library building.

Surrounded by the majestic Rocky Mountains, the University Inn is nestled into the beautiful campus of Utah State University (USU) overlooking charming Cache Valley, Utah.

USU CAMPUS

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

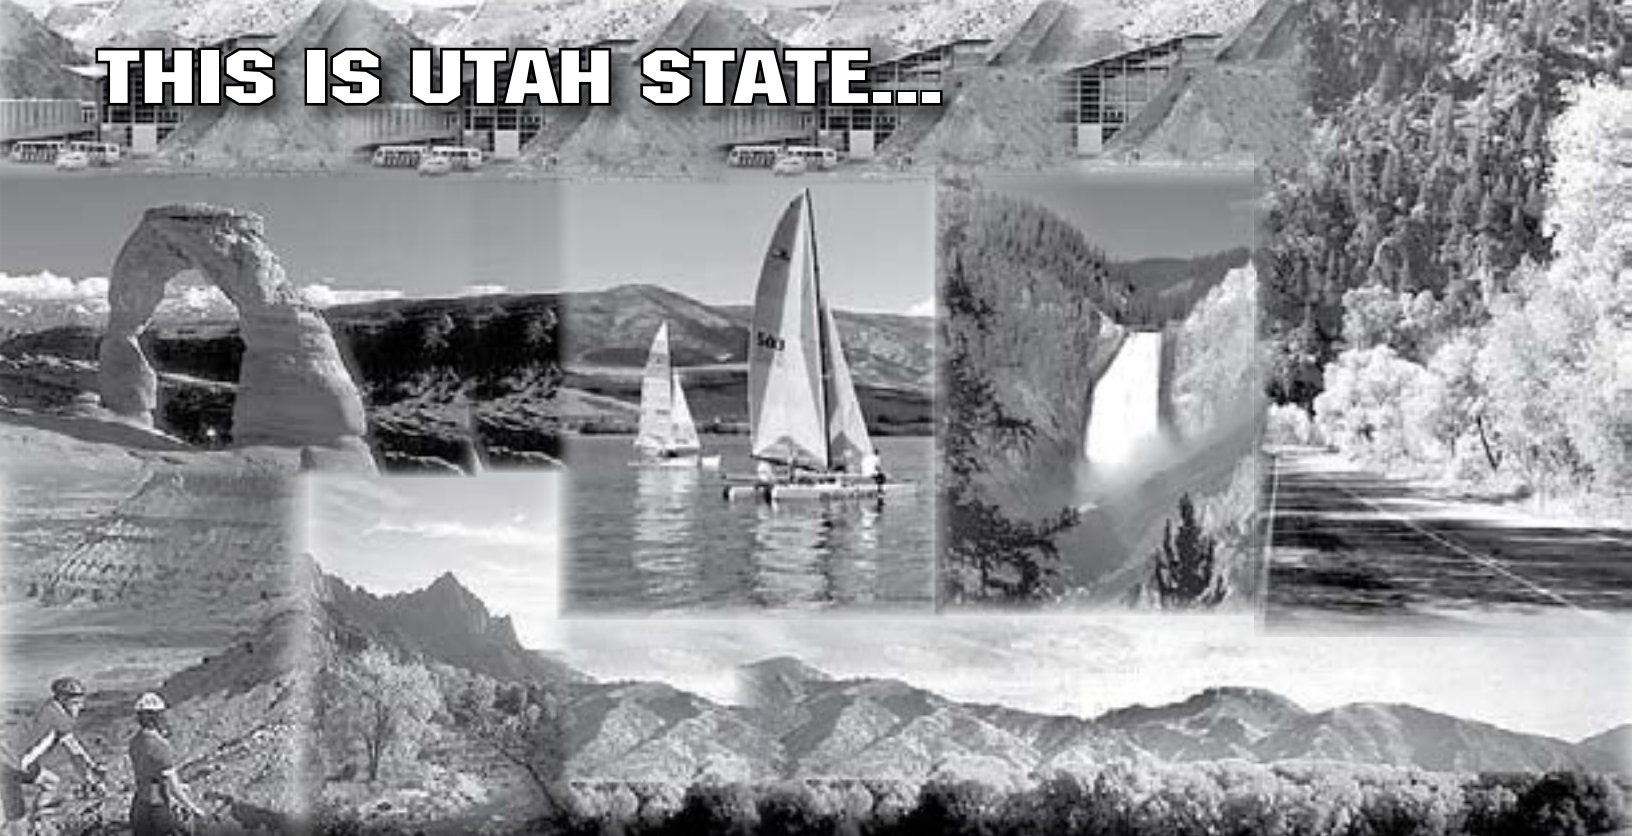

With a population of 101,811, nearly 50,000 of whom live in Logan, Cache County is a growing area 80 miles north of Salt Lake City. The Cache Valley itself is 60 miles long and 15 miles wide and experiences each of the four seasons.

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

Utah State athletic events, whether football, basketball, volleyball, soccer, softball or gymnastics, are popular entertainment options for Cache Valley citizens and Utah State students alike.

LOGAN / CACHE VALLEY

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Fifteen national parks, including Zion, Arches and Yellowstone are within a day's drive of Logan.

Salt Lake City combines the amenities of a major metropolitan area with the friendliness of a small, western city. Hosting the Olympic Winter Games of 2002 enhanced the community's profile as a world-class travel destination.

Eleven airlines serve Salt Lake International Airport, offering nonstop service to more than 68 destinations. By air, more than half the U.S. population is within 2 1/2 hours.

Salt Lake City is home to four professional teams, including the NBA's Utah Jazz and the MLS' Real Salt Lake, who began play in 2005. The Bees are the Triple-A affiliate of the Anaheim Angels, and the Utah Grizzlies are part of the Elite Competition Hockey League.

UTAH

SEASON PREVIEW

2009 UTAH STATE FOOTBALL
SEE IT. HEAR IT. FEEL IT.
BELIEVE IT.

On a brisk December afternoon, at the press conference announcing his hiring, new Utah State head coach Gary Andersen made the proclamation, "Why not us, Why not now?"

That statement has not only heated up Utah State football, firing up the enthusiasm to levels that had not been felt among the Aggie faithful in quite some time, but has been the mantra through the spring and summer, gearing up for a sizzling fall.

Andersen takes over the reins of an Aggie squad that posted a 3-9 overall and 3-5 Western Athletic Conference record in 2008, marking the first time since 2005 that the Aggies had three wins in a season. USU also won three WAC games in a season for the first time in the Aggies' four years in the league. It is also the first time since 2003 that USU won three conference games and just the third time in the 2000's.

The cupboard was well-stocked for Andersen's arrival at the helm of the Aggies, as Utah State has 21 starters returning (10 offense, seven defense and four special teams), which are a portion of USU's 48 returning lettermen.

Among the returners are all five of the top rushers from last season, who helped the Aggies amass 1,653 rushing yards, the most since 1,941 in 1999.

Technically speaking, one of the returning running backs isn't returning to the offensive backfield, as former running back Curtis Marsh will be roaming USU's defensive backfield, one of 15 position changes made by the defensive-minded Andersen regime during spring drills. One of the main purposes of these changes was getting speed in the appropriate places to fit into Andersen's aggressive defensive scheme, under the direction of defensive coordinator Bill Busch.

USU's defense returns seven starters, anchored by linebacker Paul Igboeli and safety James Brindley. Igboeli, a returning all-WAC honoree, is expected to be on the Butkus Award Watch List as he was last year, which is among his growing preseason accolade collection. Brindley has shown steady progress throughout his career and is expected to have a big season, guiding the defensive backfield.

On the other side of the ball, the offense is led by junior quarterback Diondre Borel and sophomore running back Robert Turbin, who will pass behind and run through holes created by the senior center Brennan McFadden-led offensive line.

The talented, explosive duo of junior QB Dinodre Borel (#12) and sophomore TB Robert Turbin (#6) are expected to have big seasons in the new spread offense implemented by offensive coordinator and spread offense mastermind Dave Baldwin.

The versatile Borel is expected to continue his impressive progress in the Aggies' new spread offense, under the direction of offensive guru Dave Baldwin. Borel was one of seven QB's in the country to lead their respective teams in both rushing and passing in 2008, and is figured to have bigger numbers this year, especially since he will be the full-time starter after coming in as a back-up in the first part of last season.

Turbin is a powerful, speedy runner who is dangerous out of the backfield as a receiver as well. Returning all-WAC center McFadden anchors an offensive line that has plenty of experience back, returning eight players who started at least two games last season.

Last year, USU had two wins in its grasp, but a last second 58-yard field goal and yielding a TD late in the game dealt the Aggies losses to Fresno State and Louisiana Tech, respectively. This season, the Andersen-led Aggies are focused on finishing, and have veteran experience on both sides of the ball, as well as special teams.

The strong-footed duo of senior Chris Ulinski and junior Peter Caldwell give USU solid weapons in the kicking game as both are interchangeable between punting and placekicking duties. The Aggies' return game is also anchored by a veteran in senior Kejon Murphy, who will return punts and kickoffs. Sophomore Chris Harris, junior Michael Smith and senior Omar Sawyer will also be returning kickoffs, while senior James Brindley will back-up Murphy on punt returns.

After averaging just 24.0 points and 334 yards per game on offense during the 2008 season, Andersen and his staff are in the process of upgrading Utah State's offense and installing one of the most exciting and fast-paced offensive schemes in college football today - The Spread Offense, guided by offensive coordinator Baldwin, who comes to USU from New Mexico.

The Spread Offense utilizes the no-huddle with the quarterback in shotgun formation much of the time with three, four or even five wide receivers. The goal of the spread offense is to open vertical seams for both the running and passing game, and force the defense to spread itself horizontally across the field in an attempt to cover everyone.

With its new offense, Utah State is hopeful that its offensive production will be comparable to other school's that utilize a version of the Spread Offense, including WAC foe Nevada, who has traditionally been one of the top offensive teams in the nation with its 'Pistol' attack.

Despite all the terminology and schemes that go into implementing a new offense, Utah State's learning curve shouldn't be as long as normal as it returns 10 starters and 21 lettermen on the offensive side of the ball.

Among those returning for Andersen and Baldwin is Borel, who is just as effective running the ball as he is throwing it. During the 2008 season, Borel started the final nine games and led the team with 1,705 passing yards and 632 rushing yards, while throwing for 11 TDs and rushing for five more. Borel was one of seven quarterbacks in the entire country to lead their respective teams in both rushing and passing.

Highlighting the talented group of running backs that Andersen and Baldwin were impressed with in the spring is Turbin, who rushed for 485 yards last year, scored a team-high eight touchdowns, and averaged 4.6 yards per carry.

Turbin will be joined in the backfield by junior transfer Michael Smith, a 1,000-yard rusher last season at Eastern Arizona.

Other returnees include sophomore Marquis Butler who ran for 171 yards and scored two touchdowns last year, and fellow sophomore Ronald Scott, who had 141 rushing yards and averaged 9.4 yards per attempt in 2008. Junior Derrvin Speight, who led the team in rushing as a freshman in 2007 as he gained 504 yards on 129 carries, returns to the backfield after an injury-plagued 2008 season.

Another offensive group that returns a wealth of experience in 2009 is at wide receiver/tight end as Utah State returns four starters in all, including three wide outs in seniors Xavier Bowman and Nnamdi Gwacham, along with sophomore Stanley Morrison, who had a combined 55 catches for 762 yards and five scores a year ago. Senior tight end Jeremy Mitchell also returns for the Aggies after recording 66 yards last season on six receptions, while junior Jerome Barbour and sophomore Tarren Lloyd give USU multiple options at tight end.

Utah State also returns four starters and eight letterwinners on the offensive line, including senior Brennan McFadden who earned second-team all-WAC honors a year ago after starting the first seven games of the season at right guard before moving to the center position. That experience and versatility up front for the Aggies will definitely be a factor in how quickly they grasp the new offense.

Returning all-WAC honoree, senior OC Brennan McFadden (#61) anchors an Aggie offensive line that returns four starters and eight letterwinners. All eight of them started at least two games in 2008.

McFadden will be joined by junior left tackle Spencer Johnson, who has 19 career starts, while the sophomore guard duo of Funaki Asisi and Philip Gapelu have five each. Junior Tariq Polley has two starts at right tackle.

Even with seven starters, the Utah State defense has a long road ahead of them for the 2009 season. Along with the offense, the defense is drastically changing the way they play under Andersen, by implementing a pressure defense featuring man-to-man coverage.

Using a pressure defense is a new experience for the returning players. In the past, the team played a more conservative defensive style but now they need to learn to be more aggressive and gain speed, something that Andersen implemented immediately upon his arrival on the USU campus.

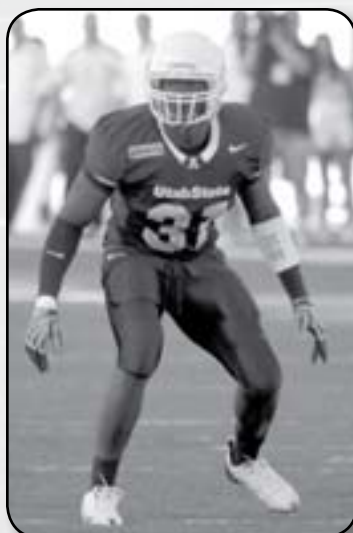

Andersen knows a thing or two about defense, as he was defensive coordinator at Utah for five years, shining in last season's Sugar Bowl, holding then No. 4 ranked Alabama to 31 yards rushing in the game, 165 yards below its average, as well as sacking the Crimson Tide eight times. Utah finished the season ranked No. 2 in the AP Polls, as well as 11th in the NCAA in total defense.

The Utah State defense, whose seven returning starters are part of 24 returning defensive lettermen, will try to put more pressure on the opposing offense and the quarterback to make perfect plays. But doing this leaves fewer players on the field to cover the receivers, and this is where speed comes in.

Andersen and Busch have moved some players around in the defensive scheme, where their speed will be utilized.

As the defense pressures the other team's offense, they need to have the speed to cover the receivers and make the plays.

One of such players is Brindley, who enters his senior season ranked No. 2 on USU's career interception return list with 186 yards on six interceptions. Last season Brindley had three interceptions, which led USU and was tied for eighth in the WAC along with tied for 96th in NCAA. He also made 75 tackles (44 solo, 31 assists), which was third for USU needing 63 more tackles to make to the conference's top-10 list and 85 more to reach Utah State's career top-10 tackles list.

Returning all-WAC senior LB Paul Igboeli (#31) is one of seven returning starters for the Aggie defense. Igboeli enters his senior season in hot pursuit of both USU's and the WAC's career tackles list.

Last year, Igboeli was second on the team and 12th in the WAC with 78 tackles (42 solo, 36 assists). He also had six tackles for loss, four pass break-ups, two fumble recoveries, one interception and a blocked field goal.

Igboeli will be joined by junior Jordan Glass, who returns to action after his 2008 season was cut short with a broken leg. Glass notched 26 tackles in only three games and he's expected to resume that tear in 2009. Also returning to USU's lineup is sophomore Kyle Gallagher, who redshirted last season, but had 47 tackles in 2007. The linebacking corps is bolstered by junior college transfer Reuben Willis, who posted 72 stops at El Camino JC, along with junior Maxim Dinka, who is moving forward from safety.

The Aggie defensive line is anchored by a three seniors in Alan Bishop, Casey Davis and Darby Golden, along with junior Nathan Royster and sophomores Bobby Wagner and Quinn Garner, who are both moving from linebacker. All of whom will push the team and help create wins in the fall.

Wagner is third among returners in tackles, behind Igboeli and Brindley, as he had 51 (20 solo, 31 assists) in his freshman season, while Bishop is the top returning defensive lineman with 37 stops (13 solo, 24 assists), including 4.5 tackles for loss and one sack a year ago. Golden added 26 tackles (10 solo, 16 assists) with four tackles for loss and two sacks, while Davis had 17 stops (7 solo, 10 assists) with 1.5 TFL and one sack before a knee injury halted his season after only six games.

and tops for an Aggie defensive back, ranking 14th in the WAC statistics.

With returning players like Brindley and Murphy at cornerback, speed should not be a problem. They may be small in stature but they are tough and capable of getting the job done.

In 2008, Murphy ranked 10th overall on the team and fourth among defensive backs with 30 tackles (19 solo, 11 assists), including 1.5 tackles for loss (4 yards), and he also had two interceptions and two pass break-ups.

Along with speed, a defense also needs to be tough and experience never hurts. Igboeli brings this toughness and experience back to the team, anchoring not just the linebacking corps but the entire Aggies' defense.

Igboeli has 242 career tackles under his belt and earned second-team All-WAC honors in 2008. He enters his senior season in hot pursuit of both USU's and the WAC's career tackles list, Sophomore DE Quinn Garner (#37) is one of 15 players who are changing positions from last year. Garner played linebacker last season.

Caldwell is climbing his way up USU's career record list for field goals and extra points, as he ranks seventh on USU's career field goals made list with 23 and eighth on the career field goals attempted list with 33, ranking fifth in the career field goal percentage list (.700). In 2008, Caldwell was 10-of-12 (.833) on field goals, leading the WAC in field goal percentage as well as No. 3 on USU's single-season field goal percentage list.

After making the first 57 PAT's of his career, Caldwell missed on his final attempt of last year in the waning second's of USU's season-finale win against New Mexico State. Caldwell also had a 41.9 yards per punt average with a long of 60 yards as part of 15 punts over 50 yards.

Ulinski booted a WAC-best 21 touchbacks last season, which not only ranked 13th in the NCAA last year, but are more than USU's three previous seasons combined. He was also 2-of-2 on field goals, booming a 56-yarder in the New Mexico State game, which was the second-longest in the WAC and at Romney Stadium in 2008 behind the 58-yarder by Kevin Goessling of Fresno State as time expired to beat USU, 30-28. It was also the fourth-longest field goal in the NCAA of the season.

Murphy will handle punt return duties and share kickoff return action with Harris, Smith and Sawyer. Murphy had a 24.2 ypr on kickoffs and an 9.8 punt return average, while Harris had a 20.1 kickoff return average.

Speedy CB/KR Kejon Murphy (#1) had all of USU's punt returns last season with an 8.8 ypr average, as well as a team-leading 24.2 ypr kickoff return average.

Aggies Lead WAC, Tied For Third In NCAA In Red Zone Efficiency

Utah State led the WAC and was tied for third in the NCAA with a 94.1 percent red-zone scoring efficiency in 2008, scoring on 32 of its 34 possessions in the red zone... USU was tied with Miami (Fla.), who was 44-of-47, while Ohio State (39-of-41) and UNLV (35-of-37) tied for the nation's lead at 95 percent... The Aggies were the only team in the conference in the 90's percentage, as Fresno State was second at 88.9 percent (40-of-45)... USU and Fresno State were also the only two teams in the league without a turnover in the red zone and the Aggies were one of four teams in the conference who didn't turn the ball over on downs... Utah State's two non-scoring red zone attempts came in the Idaho game on Sept. 20 with a missed field goal and against BYU on Oct. 3 when the game ended while the Aggies were driving.

Junior PK/P Peter Caldwell (#8) made 10 field goals last season capping USU drives in the red zone, as the Aggies led the WAC and ranked tied for third in the NCAA in red zone efficiency, scoring on 94 percent of their red zone possessions. Caldwell is climbing his way up USU's career field goals and PAT lists.

Seven Of Utah State's 2009 Opponents Went To Bowl Game

A total of seven of Utah State's 2009 opponents went to a bowl game... The list includes five Western Athletic Conference teams in addition to two non-conference foes, including Utah who was selected to a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) game and won the Sugar Bowl... The WAC tied a conference record by having five teams selected to a bowl game, last happening in 1992... There were six bowl eligible teams and only San Jose State did not get selected, while Boise State, Fresno State, Hawai'i, Louisiana Tech and Nevada were all selected for postseason play.

AGGIE-BITS

- Sophomore RB Robert Turbin had three rushing TD's vs. Louisiana Tech last season, becoming the first USU RB to have three rushing TD's in one game since Emmett White had three on Nov. 17, 2001 against Weber State... The last three-rushing TD outing against a Division I team was also by White, against Arkansas State on Oct. 28, 2000.

- Turbin's eight rushing TD's last season put him five shy of USU's career top-10 list, trailing three players with 13 each in Jerry Cox (1973-74), Jerry Hughes (1971-72) and Altie Taylor (1966-68).

- Sophomore QB Diondre Borel smashed USU's single-season rushing yards by a QB record with 632 yards... The previous record was 338 by Leon Jackson III in 2007... His 632 yards rushing puts him over two-thirds of the way to Jackson's career record of 814 yards from 2004-07.

- Borel's 1,705 passing yards is the most by a USU QB since Travis Cox's 1,908 yards in 2004... Borel's total offense sum of 2,337 yards is No. 13 on USU's single season total offense list, becoming the 17th Aggie overall in school history to reach the 2,000-yard plateau and the first since Cox with 2,844 in 2003.

- Borel's single-game rushing high was 93 yards, 28 yards shy of the USU single-game record for a QB of 121 yards, held by Tony Adams from 1972.

• Butkus Award Watch List member, senior LB Paul Igboeli is closing in on the USU and WAC career tackles top-10 lists, currently with 242 stops... He needs 85 tackles to tie Al Smith (1984-86) for No. 10 on the Aggies' career list, as well as needing 63 stops to tie Bryce McGill (1999-2003) from Fresno State on the WAC list.

• Senior S James Brindley enters his senior season No. 2 on USU's career interception return yards with 186 yards on six career interceptions, needing four to crack the top-10 list.

For the first time ever, Utah State and Romney Stadium will host a game on the ESPN family of networks when ESPN2 will air the Boise State-USU game on Nov. 20.

• The 2009 ledger marks the third time in last four years that the Aggies have had five home games in a season after six home games on the slate last year.

• Utah State will play a 12-game schedule for the fourth year in a row and the seventh time in the program's history.

• The 2009 season marks the second time in the last three years that Utah State has opened the season with two-straight road games.

• The Aggies play four of their first five games away from home, matching the 2003 season, which opened with three consecutive road games.

• For the first time since 2001, Utah State will play at both Utah and BYU in the same season.

• USU will face three teams who finished in the AP Top 25, leading off with No. 2 Utah on Sept. 3, followed by No. 25 BYU on Oct. 2 and No. 11 Boise State on Nov. 20.

Senior S James Brindley (#3) will lead the USU Aggies against two other Aggies this season when USU plays at the Aggies from Texas A&M and New Mexico State.

• Utah State plays Southern Utah in its home opener on Sept. 26, marking the Aggies' first I-AA (Football Championship Series) opponent since 2002 (Idaho State).

• The Sept. 26 home opener is tied with San Jose State for the latest home opener in the WAC and is tied with four others for the second-latest home opener in the country... Florida Atlantic has the latest home opener of Oct. 3.

• The Utah State Aggies will face two others Aggies this season, first against the Texas A&M Aggies on Sept. 19, then the New Mexico State Aggies on Oct. 10... USU is the only school in the country to play its same mascot two other times this season.

• This will be the first meeting between Utah State and Texas A&M, and completes USU against the current schools of the Big 12 Conference... It is only the second conference that the Aggies have played a league's complete membership, joining the Mountain West Conference.

ANDERSEN NOTE-ABLE

• New Utah State head coach Gary Andersen will be reaching a rare plateau in USU's season-opener on Sept. 3, when he leads the Aggies into action against his former team Utah... Since 1982, only two other head coaches in college football have began the season against their former team from the season before.

Virginia - In 1982, George Welsh coached his first game at Virginia against Navy, the school he coached at before going to UV.

Northwestern - In 1999, Randy Walker opened his Northwestern head coaching career by facing his former school, Miami (Ohio). He was the head coach at Miami from 1990-98.

Toledo - In 1991, Gary Pinkel of Toledo played at Washington in the fifth game of the season, where he was defensive coordinator the previous season.

• Andersen will be trying to become the first new Aggie head coach to win in his debut since Phil Krueger in 1973, as his eight predecessors all lost their debuts.

• Andersen is the second coach in USU history to open their coaching career against Utah, as Dave Arslanian began his Aggie tenure against the Utes on Sept. 5, 1998.

• Andersen also faces another former team when he and the Aggies make their home debut against Southern Utah on Sept. 26... Andersen was head coach at Southern Utah in 2003.

• At 45, Andersen is the second-youngest head coach in the WAC behind Boise State's Chris Peterson, by six months.

SCHEDULE NOTE-ABLE

• For the first time ever, Utah State will have a home game on the ESPN family of networks when ESPN2 will air the Boise State-USU game on Nov. 20.

• It is the first time that the Aggies have been on national television since the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl game in Boise, Idaho, as that game was televised on ESPN2.

SCHEDULE NOTES

At Utah (Sept. 3) - This marks the 19th time in USU history that the Aggies have opened the season against Utah, the 10th time at Salt Lake City and the second time that the clash between the Aggies and Utes has fallen on Sept. 3... USU has lost 11 straight to its in-state rivals and trail the all-time series, 28-76-4, including 17-51-4 at Salt Lake City, last winning there in 1997, which was also the Aggies' last win in the series... After facing each other for the last 65 years in a row, the series will take a two-year hiatus before resuming in 2012 at Logan... It is the 12th-longest rivalry in the nation at 108 games.

At Texas A&M (Sept. 19) - It will be Utah State's first-ever visit to College Station and the first meeting with Texas A&M... It will be USU's second Big 12 opponent in three years after the Aggies played at Oklahoma in 2007... Overall, Utah State is 9-40-1 all-time against teams in the current Big 12 Conference... USU's last win vs. a Big 12 school was a 28-16 win over Kansas State in 1992... USU is an even .500 against teams from Texas, going 13-13-1 all-time.

Senior WR Xavier Bowman (#17), a Houston, Texas native, will lead his 13 fellow Aggie Texans into action against Texas A&M on Sept. 19... This will be the first-ever meeting between Utah State and Texas A&M.

Southern Utah (Sept. 26) - USU faces in-state foe SUU for only the second time ever and the first since 2000, when the Aggies hosted the Thunderbirds and won 30-14, which was also USU's home opener that season... SUU is USU's first I-AA (Football Championship Series) opponent since 2002 (Idaho State)... The Aggies are a combined 74-17-6 against FCS teams... USU head coach Gary Andersen was 4-7 as SUU head coach in 2003, his lone season in Cedar City, bettering the T-Birds' win total of the previous three seasons combined... USU is 48-28-2 (.628) all-time on Homecoming.

At Brigham Young (Oct. 2) - The BYU series is USU's second-longest with the 79th meeting, trailing the 108 meetings with Utah... USU trails the series 33-42-3, including 16-24-1 at Provo, last visiting there in 2006... The Aggies have lost nine in a row in the series, with the last win coming in 1993... USU has lost 14 in a row at Provo, last winning there in 1978... USU and BYU played every year from 1946 to 2003 with two exceptions (1995 and 1998), but have only played twice since, a 38-0 BYU win at Provo in 2006 and a 34-14 win at Logan last season.

At New Mexico State (Oct. 10) - The clash of the Aggies had been USU's season-finale in three of the last four years, coincidentally the four years that both USU and NMSU have been in the WAC... However, this season the teams square-off in USU's league-opener... The navy Aggies are 27-6 vs. the maroon Aggies, winning six of the last nine meetings after a stretch of 19 wins in a row... USU is 2-2 at Las Cruces, winning its last two visits there, 24-21 in 2005 and 35-17 in 2007.

Nevada (Oct. 17) - The visiting team in the USU-Nevada series has won eight of the last 10 meetings, with Nevada's 2006 and 2008 wins the only home victories in that stretch... The Wolf Pack have won the last four meetings overall, leading 15-4 all-time.

Senior DT Alan Bishop (#96), and the Aggies will face three teams who finished in the 2008 AP Top 25, leading off with No. 2 Utah on Sept. 3, followed by No. 25 BYU on Oct. 2 and No. 11 Boise State on Nov. 20.

Louisiana Tech (Oct. 24) - After USU won the first two meetings of the series, LA Tech has won the last four in a row, including the last two at Logan, holding a 4-2 advantage overall and 2-1 on the Aggies' turf.

Fresno State (Oct. 31) - Based on the recent pattern, USU is due for a win in this series, after a USU win is followed by two losses in the last seven meetings, as the Aggies have lost the last two to the Bulldogs... USU is 10-13-1 all-time vs. FS, including 2-10-1 at Fresno... The last three Aggie wins in the series have been by a combined six points with a pair of one-point victories following a four-point win.

At Hawai'i (Nov. 7) - Last year's USU win snapped a three-game losing skid to UH, and the Aggies now lead the series, 5-4... The Warriors hold a 3-2 lead on the islands, winning the last two after USU won the previous two games there, last winning in 1966... The Aggies and Warriors first met in 1927, did not play each other from 1966-2005, and have played the last four seasons since as WAC foes.

San Jose State (Nov. 14) - USU is 1-10 against SJSU in the last 11 meetings, last winning in 2005, as the Spartans have won 12 of the last 14 match-ups with the Aggies and lead the all-time series, 20-10-1... USU is 7-8 vs. SJSU in Logan, winning 24-17 in 2005 but dropping a 23-20 game in 2007.

Boise State (Nov. 20) - Boise State has won eight-straight in the series after the Aggies beat the Broncos in both 1996 and 1997... USU is 2-5 vs. BSU in Logan, losing the last three in a row... The Broncos have been nationally ranked in each of the last three meetings, ranked No. 9 last year, No. 19 in 2007 and No. 13 in 2006.

At Idaho (Nov. 28) - Utah State and Idaho either open conference action or close out the season against each other, as they face each other in the regular-season finale for the second time in the last three years, but have opened league action the other time in that stretch four seasons out of the previous five... The Aggies lead the series 17-16-2, winning the last two in a row and nine of the last 14 meetings... USU is 8-9-1 at Moscow, holding on for a 24-19 win there in 2007.

Quickly: Talented, powerful running back who had breakout season last year and is expected to continue progress and success this season. 2008 (Fr.-RS): Played in all 12 games, making six starts... Was second on team with 499 yards rushing (40.4 ypg / 4.6 ypg), ranking 12th in the WAC in rushing... Was tied for ninth in the conference in scoring, with 5.0 ppg on 10 total TD's, scoring eight rushing TD's and two receiving TD's... The eight rushing TD's were the most since Emmett White's 13 rushing scores in 2001... With three rushing TD's vs. Louisiana Tech, became the first USU RB to have three rushing TD's in one game since Emmett White had three on Nov. 17, 2001 against Weber State... The last three-rushing TD outing against a Division I team was also by White, against Arkansas State on Oct. 28, 2000... Also ranked fourth on the team in receiving with 256 yards, ranking tied for third with 20 receptions... Had season-high 123 yards rushing vs. Idaho, for USU's lone 100-yard rushing outing of the season... Added 99 yards at LA Tech... Had season-long rush of 49 yards in Idaho game... Tied with Diondre Borel for team lead in rushing explosives of over 20 yards with five, including three of 40 yards or more... Added five receiving explosives with a long of 29 yards, which went for a TD in Boise State game... Had total of 20 catches for 256 yards (12.8 ypc) with two TD's. 2007 (Fr.): Granted medical redshirt due to foot injury... Saw action in only one game, tallying three carries for 17 yards with a long of 12 at Oklahoma.

High School: A first-team all-league running back as well as an all-league defensive back as a senior... Was the league's Defensive Player of the Year... Also earned first-team all-metro honors offensively and defensively... Rushed 143 times for 1,232 yards and 14 touchdowns and had nine receptions for 103 yards... Defensively, he recorded six interceptions... Also a two-year letterwinner in basketball as well as track & field. Personal: Born Dec. 2, 1989 in Oakland, Calif... Son of Ronald Turbin and Lovie Mae Jones... Has two brothers and two sisters... Major is business management... Hobbies include playing basketball and music.

Quickly: Last name is pronounced U-lynn-skee... Came to USU in spring of 2007 in time to participate in spring drills after not playing in 2006... For second season in a row, will handle the kickoff duties and be a backup for placekicking duties. 2008 (Jr.): Appeared in all 12 games on kickoff duty... Totaled 21 touchbacks of 55 kickoffs (.381)... The 21 touchbacks was tops in the WAC and tied for 13th in the NCAA... Booted season-high five touchbacks vs. New Mexico State for second year in a row... Was 2-of-2 on field goals, booming a 56-yarder in the New Mexico State game... That was the second-longest in the WAC behind the 58-yarder by Kevin Goessling of Fresno State as time expired to beat USU, 30-28... It was also the fourth-longest field goal in the NCAA of the season... The 56-yarder is tied for the third-longest in USU school history, tying Micah Knorr's 56-yard boot against Northern Illinois in 1995... Added 42-yard field goal at Nevada, as well as one punt on the season at Oregon. 2007 (So.): Kicked PAT's in first two games... Handled kickoff duties entire season... Tallied nine touchbacks on season including season-high three at New Mexico State. 2006 (Fr.): Went to the University of Nevada-Reno, but did not play football... Was on Nevada's club rugby team. High School: Senior season at Nevada Union HS was his only year of playing football... Booted a 56-yard field goal, the second-longest in school history... Was a three-year letterwinner and captain of the soccer team... Also a three-year letterwinner on the volleyball team and ski team, as well as playing tennis for one year. Personal: Born March 16, 1987 in Dallas, Texas... Son of Michael and Mary Ulinski... Has one brother, Matt, and one sister, Chelsea... Majoring in business finance... Hobbies include snowboarding and sailing... DID YOU KNOW?

Chris Ulinski's WAC-leading 21 touchbacks in 2008 were three more than USU's three previous years combined total of 18 consisting of nine in '07 (by Ulinski), one in '06 and eight in '05, especially impressive since kickoffs were moved back from the 35-yard line to the 30-yard line prior to the 2007 season.

GARY ANDERSEN

Utah, 1986

First Year at Utah State

Gary Andersen was named Utah State head football coach on Dec. 4 by USU Athletics Director Scott Barnes. Andersen becomes the 26th head coach in 115 years of Aggie football.

Andersen comes to Utah State after five seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Utah, where he helped guide the Utes to a 13-0 record last season. Utah finished the season ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll after winning the BCS Sugar Bowl with a dominating 31-17 victory against Alabama. Andersen was a part of seven bowl teams as Utah has an 8-0 bowl record since 1999, giving the Utes the nation's longest bowl winning streak.

"Obviously, Gary's vast knowledge of the state of Utah coupled with his overall recruiting success will pay long-term dividends to our program. He will be focused and tireless in his approach to building and sustaining a winning program here at Utah State. We are all very excited to have Coach Andersen leading this program to the next step," Barnes said.

Overall, Andersen spent 11 seasons as an assistant coach at Utah after coaching for the Utes from 1997-2002 before becoming the head coach at Southern Utah in 2003 and then returning to Utah in 2004.

"It's a great opportunity and it's been a longtime goal of mine to be a Division I head football coach. I think every football coach has a niche as to where they want be a head coach and where they belong. I feel that Utah State is a perfect fit for my niche and what I believe in," Andersen said.

Andersen was named a finalist for the 2008 Broyles Award, honoring the top assistant coach in college football. He was also tabbed as the No. 1 non-BCS recruiter by Rivals.com in 2005 and was named a Rivals.com top 10 non-BCS recruiter in 2008.

"Utah State fits everything from a recruiting standpoint, to the student-athletes that we'll be dealing with on a daily basis as well as from a well-rounded academic viewpoint. At the end of the day, the best way to sum that up is when you're a head football coach, you need to look at what you need to do to be successful," Andersen said. "Without a doubt, Utah State has all the tools needed to recruit quality student-athletes socially, academically and athletically. These tools will allow us to build a successful program and continue the success that Utah State provides not just for football but for life for our players, as well as my staff, my family and myself."

Andersen is the architect behind Utah's vaunted defense during the 2008 season, which led the Utes to their second BCS bowl in five years after winning the 2004 Fiesta Bowl championship, capping another perfect 12-0 season and becoming the first non-BSC team to play in a BCS bowl game. This past year, Utah ranked 11th in rushing defense (99.2) and total defense (289.2), and 12th in scoring defense (17.2). In the Sugar Bowl, Utah held an Alabama team that came into the game averaging 196.5 rushing yards per game to a meager 31 yards. The Utes nearly halved Alabama's point production as well, as the 17 points against Utah was 14 below the Crimson Tide's season average.

In each of the past three seasons, the Andersen-led Utah defense has been in the top three of the Mountain West Conference in scoring defense, including a No. 1 league ranking last year, ranking No. 5 in the NCAA. Last season, the Utes' defense posted the top pass efficiency defense in the country and also led the conference in pass defense, ranking No. 11 in the nation. The past two seasons, Utah has led the league in turnover margin, ranking No. 13 in the country a year ago after No. 22 in 2007.

Last season, Andersen coached defensive end Paul Kruger and cornerback Sean Smith who both had standout seasons and were second-round NFL Draft selections. Kruger was on the Ted Hendricks Award watch list, and led the Utes in 2008 in tackles for loss (16.5) and sacks (7.5). Those totals ranked second and third, respectively in the Mountain West Conference. Kruger also contributed 61 tackles, an interception (which he returned 30 yards), seven pass breakups, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Kruger was tied for 31st in the NCAA in tackles for loss.

Smith led Utah and tied for the league lead with five interceptions, one which he returned for a touchdown. His 151 yards on interception returns led the league. Smith also led Utah in pass breakups with nine and had 46 tackles, two tackles for loss (one a sack) and a forced fumble. Smith's five interceptions was tied for 28th in the NCAA.

Against Utah State on Sept. 13 of last year, Andersen's defense held the Aggies' offense to 116 total yards, a season low, in then No. 22 Utah's 58-10 win.

First joining Utah in 1997, Andersen coached defensive tackles and strong side ends for five seasons before being elevated to assistant head coach and adding special teams to his duties in 2001. He took over responsibility for the entire defensive line in 2002.

In 2003, Andersen migrated south to become the head coach at Southern Utah, guiding the Thunderbirds to a 4-7 record and bettering their win total of the previous three seasons combined. He turned around a program that was 102nd in the nation in the final 2002 I-AA Gridiron Power Index, which is used to determine playoff selections, into the No. 36-ranked team in his lone season.

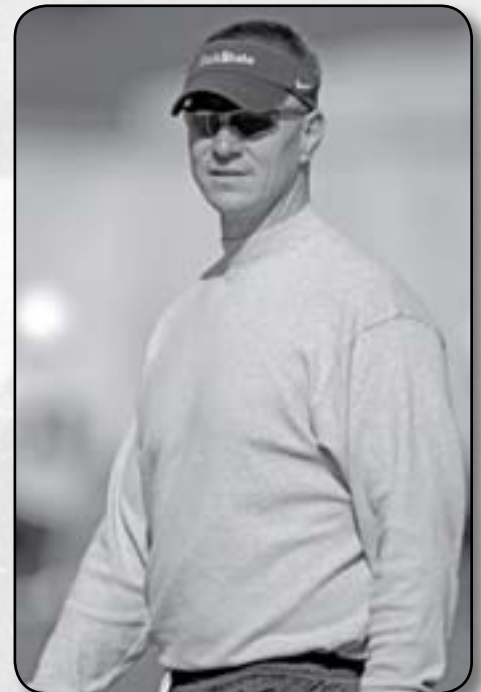

He then returned to Utah in 2004 as the defensive line coach before taking over as the Utes' defensive coordinator in 2005.

During his tenure at Utah, Andersen coached 14 first-team all-conference players (three this season), including two Mountain West Conference defensive players of the year in John Frank (1999) and Eric Weddle (2005 and 2006), as well as a consensus All-American in Weddle in 2006. Andersen has also coached 10 players drafted in the NFL in Richard Seals, John Frank, Lauvale Sape, Sione Pouha, Jonathan Fanene, Eric Weddle, Paul Soliai, Sean Smith, Brice McCain and Paul Kruger, in addition to several other players who made NFL rosters as free agents.

Andersen's coaching career began in 1988 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Southeastern Louisiana, where he coached for one season before going to Ricks College (now BYU-Idaho) from 1989-92 as the offensive line coach. His other coaching stints include Idaho State (1992-94, defensive line), Park City HS (1994-95, head coach) and Northern Arizona (1995-96, assistant head coach/defensive line/special teams).

A 1986 graduate of Utah, Andersen earned his bachelor's degree in political science. He played center for Utah from 1985-86 after garnering first-team juco All-America honors in 1984 at Ricks College.

Andersen is married to the former Stacey Lambert, and they have three children: Keegan and twins Chasen and Hagen.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT GARY ANDERSEN...

Kyle Whittingham

Utah Head Coach, 2008 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year

"Gary has been instrumental to our success here at Utah. We want to thank him for his hard work and dedication to the University of Utah football program, and we wish him well in his head coaching career."

Eric Weddle

Second-year San Diego Chargers strong safety, 2006 Consensus All-American, two-time MWC Defensive Player of the Year

"He's one of the best coaches I've ever been around. He's an intense, passionate coach. He cares not only for the player inside the program but when they're outside the world of football as well. I look up to him immensely and wouldn't have gotten as far as I have without his coaching and his guidance. Utah State made a great hire in making him their head coach. He's a great motivator, he's passionate and he loves coaching kids. I look for bright things from him in making Utah State a winning program."

Steve Tate

Utah three-year starter, First-Team All-Mountain West Conference Selection, played one season at USU in 2001 before going on an LDS Church Mission and then transferring to Utah

"Coach Andersen is exactly what Utah State needs. He understands the state of Utah and the caliber of players that are in the state, and the talent that they provide. He's a recruiting genius. When he's in the homes of recruits, the parents and the kids fall in love with him. He knows how to get the best talent from each and every player every week of the season. I'm thrilled for him, he has mentored me not just as a player, but a person. It's an added bonus that he was a head coach. He's proven that he can be successful as a defensive coordinator and a head coach with what he was able to do in just one season at Southern Utah. I'm excited to watch him build a successful program at Utah State and carry on that success for the Aggies into the future."

Kelly Talavou

First-year Baltimore Ravens defensive nose tackle, First-Team All-Mountain West Conference Selection

"Coach Andersen is a great coach. Utah State is lucky to get a terrific coach like him. He was my D-line coach at Utah and cared for me and made me be the best player I could be. He always made sure I did everything to the best of my abilities on and off the football field. His defenses get better every season and are one of the best in the country. Utah State is fortunate to get a great coach like him. He's coached a lot of great defensive linemen in his career. He's one of the best recruiters I know. Utah State is getting one of the best coaches around and hopefully he can turn that program around."

DAVE BALDWIN

Offensive Coordinator

Cal State Northridge, 1978 - First Year at Utah State

Dave Baldwin is entering his first season as Utah State's offensive coordinator.

"Dave has been a Division I offensive coordinator for eight and has 11 years of head coaching experience," Andersen said. "He always finds a way to get the best out of his offensive personnel. Coaching against him for the last two years, while I was defensive coordinator at Utah was a major task. His running of the spread offense is one of the best in the country. Dave's extensive coaching background, especially his head coaching experiences, will be a tremendous asset to me as a head coach."

Baldwin comes to Utah State from New Mexico, where he spent two seasons as offensive coordinator for the Lobos.

"I'm extremely excited for the opportunity to coach along side Gary Andersen," Baldwin said. "I've coached against him for two years, and I have tremendous respect and appreciation for him as a coach and as a person. I'm excited about the magnificent facilities that Utah State has to offer and am anxious to continue and build on their success. This is a wonderful opportunity to regain Utah State's national exposure."

Baldwin was offensive coordinator at New Mexico for two seasons, after spending four years (2003-06) as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Michigan State. His coaching resumé includes 11 years of head coaching experience at San Jose State (1997-2000) and Cal State Northridge (1995-96) plus five years as a head coach at the junior college level.

The 2008 Baldwin-directed New Mexico offense was third in the Mountain West Conference and 16th in the NCAA in rushing at 208.3 yards per game.

Last season, Baldwin's offense produced two all-Mountain West Conference performers in second-team honorees senior running back Rodney Ferguson and junior center Erik Cook. Ferguson was second in the MWC and 24th in the NCAA in rushing with 100.5 yards per game, including a league-high 13 rushing touchdowns, ranking third in the conference in TD scoring (7.1 ppg) as well as sixth in overall scoring.

In 2007, New Mexico was one of just three Football Bowl Subdivision schools to produce a 3,000-yard passer (Donovan Porterie 3,006), a 1,000-yard rusher (Rodney Ferguson 1,177) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Marcus Smith 1,125 and Travis Brown 1,031). Smith led the MWC in receiving (seven per game) and yards (86 per game), while setting a school record with 91 receptions.

Baldwin coached seven all-Mountain West Conference selections in Ferguson, Smith and Brown, as well as center Vince Natali and offensive tackle Devin Clark, who were all named first team all-MWC in 2007.

In his first season as the Lobos' offensive coordinator, he increased their numbers in rushing, passing, scoring and total offense from 2006. Porterie finished third in the MWC in passing yards (231.2 ypg) and total offense (228.6 ypg) and was named the MVP of the New Mexico Bowl after throwing for a career-high 354 yards and 2 TDs to lead UNM to a 23-0 victory against Nevada in the 2007 New Mexico Bowl, marking the Lobos' first bowl win since the 1961 Aviation Bowl.

At Michigan State, Baldwin mentored Spartan QB Drew Stanton, who in 2006, was one of five finalists for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, presented annually since 1987 to the nation's top senior quarterback. Stanton finished his MSU career setting a school record for completion percentage (.642), and second in pass completions (543), pass attempts (846), passing yards (6,524) and total offense (8,036).

Additionally, Baldwin coached wide receiver Kerry Reed, who ranked second in the Big Ten in 2006 in receptions per game (5.33) and was fifth in receiving yards per game (64.58). Wide receiver Matt Trannon set a single-game school record with 14 catches against Eastern Michigan, and left MSU as the program's all-time receptions leader with 148 career catches.

In 2005, Michigan State ranked among the NCAA leaders in four offensive categories: No. 20 in rushing (201.8 yards per game), No. 11 in passing (school-record 295.5 ypg.), No. 5 in total offense (school-record 497.3 ypg.), and No. 18 in scoring (33.8 ppg).

In 2004, Stanton became the first QB in Spartan history to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game.

Stanton completed 67 percent of his attempts for 3,077 yards and a school-record 22 touchdowns in 2003, becoming just the second quarterback in Spartan history to reach the 3,000-yard passing milestone in a season, joining Jeff Smoker who threw for 3,395 yards in 2003. Stanton completed 67 percent of his attempts for 3,077 yards and a school-record 22 touchdowns. He ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in passing efficiency with a 153.4 rating.

Five Spartans had at least 28 receptions and two TDs in 2005 as Michigan State was the only NCAA I-A team to have five players with at least 400 receiving yards.

Prior to Michigan State, Baldwin spent one season at Baylor where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Kevin Steele. In 2002, senior wide receiver Reggie Newhouse earned second-team all-Big 12 honors and set Baylor single-season records for receptions (75) and receiving yards (1,140).

Baldwin spent the 2001 season as offensive coordinator at Cincinnati under Rick Minter, helping the Bearcats to a 7-5 record and a trip to the Motor City Bowl. Cincinnati ranked among the Conference USA leaders in every offensive category, finishing second in passing offense, third in total offense, third in scoring offense and fourth in rushing offense. Baldwin coached Gino Guidugli, who finished second in the league in passing and third in passing efficiency, earning 2001 C-USA Freshman of the Year accolades. The Bearcat offense also produced C-USA's leading receiver in LaDaris Vann, who caught 6.64 passes per game.

Baldwin previously served as head coach and offensive play-caller at San Jose State for four years (1997-2000), where he compiled an 18-27 record, including three straight wins against Stanford (1998-2000).

In 2000, San Jose State beat Stanford as well as ninth-ranked TCU to end the nation's longest winning streak at 12 games. The Spartans featured the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Deonce Whitaker, who averaged 157.7 yards.

Baldwin's 1999 San Jose State team knocked off Rose Bowl-bound Stanford, 44-39. The Spartans again finished among the national leaders in passing offense, ranking No. 30 at 249.0 yards per game. San Jose State opened the 1998 season with a 35-23 victory at Stanford - its first win over a Pac-10 opponent in eight years.

In 1997, San Jose State posted its first win over a ranked opponent since 1990, upsetting No. 24 Air Force, 25-22.

Prior to taking over the head coaching duties at San Jose State, Baldwin posted a 9-12 record in two seasons at Cal State Northridge (1995-96). In 1996, he guided Northridge to a 7-4 mark - the school's first winning season in four years.

Baldwin produced a 31-21 record in five years as a head coach at the junior college level. In 1994, he led Santa Rosa (Calif.) Junior College to an 8-3 ledger, including a trip to the Lions Bowl. He went 23-18 in four seasons at Santa Barbara City College (1990-93). In 1991, Baldwin earned California Community College Region III Coach of the Year honors after a 9-2 record and a berth in the Potato Bowl.

He spent 10 years as an assistant coach under Jack Elway, first as a graduate assistant at Cal State Northridge in 1979 and then as receivers coach at San Jose State for four years (1981-84) and Stanford for four seasons (1985-88). While coaching at San Jose State, he also worked alongside offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Dennis Erickson. In 1988, Baldwin became the Cardinal passing game coordinator.

The 1986 Stanford team finished 8-4 and earned a trip to the Gator Bowl. It marked the only postseason appearance for the Cardinal in the 1980's.

During his four-year stint as an assistant at San Jose State, the Spartans produced three winning seasons, including the 1981 Pacific Coast Athletic Association championship and a berth in the California Raisin Bowl. Baldwin also tutored four Spartan receivers that went on to play in the National Football League: Mark Nichols, Stacey Bailey, Mervyn Fernandez and Tim Kearse.

Baldwin began his coaching career in 1978 as an assistant coach at Granada Hills (Calif.) High School.

In 1978, Baldwin earned his bachelor's degree in physical education, health and recreation from Cal State Northridge. He was a three-year letterman for the Matadors at wide receiver from 1976-79. Baldwin received a master's degree in physical education administration from St. Mary's College (Calif.) in 1986.

Baldwin is married to the former Kathleen Keiley, and they have three children, Sean and wife Lindsay, who were married on June, 7, 2008, along with son Ryan and daughter Keiley. The youngest Baldwin child, Keiley, is enrolled at Utah State and working in the USU Athletic Media Relations office.

BILL BUSCH

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Nebraska Wesleyan, 1988 - First Year at Utah State

Bill Busch will be entering his first season as Utah State's defensive coordinator.

Busch's most recent coaching job was at Nebraska from 2005-07, where he was assistant coach for safeties and special teams coordinator. Busch coached with USU head coach Gary Andersen at both Northern Arizona and Utah. He and Andersen were at NAU together from 1995 to 1996, with Busch serving as secondary coach in 1995 and co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996, while Andersen was assistant head coach and defensive line as well as special teams coach.

"The excitement for me is two-fold. For one, it's a great opportunity to coach at such as great university like Utah State due to the fact of the tremendous commitment that the administration is making to football. Secondly, getting the chance to work with Gary Andersen is very exciting. He's obviously a great friend but also for the opportunity to work with him again are major reasons why I can't wait to get back into coaching," Busch said.

After Busch's four-year stint as secondary coach at New Mexico State from 1997-2000, Busch and Andersen joined up again at Utah in 2001 when Busch was safeties coach until taking over the entire secondary in 2003. He then went to Nebraska in 2004 where he coached outside linebackers and was the special teams coordinator, before moving to safeties in 2005 while remaining special teams coordinator until 2007.

"Coach Andersen and I have worked together at two different programs at Northern Arizona and Utah, so we have a great feel for each other. I know exactly what he wants from me and vice versa, and what we can do for each other with what exactly our schematic plan is," Busch said. "I'm thrilled for the chance to work in a program with the great potential that Utah State has and in a great conference like the WAC, as well as to work with Coach Andersen again."

In his year away from full-time coaching, Busch worked with some NFL and college teams in addition to spending time with his family in Nebraska, but he is excited about the chance to return to college football and the state of Utah.

"In this profession, everything is short-lived and you're back and going again, so it was nice to do some things outside of football, but I'm very excited to get back into coaching and return to Utah. I love the state of Utah and am looking forward to being a part of the Logan community as we continue to develop the Utah State football program," Busch said.

While at Nebraska, Busch's safeties were consistently among the team's top athletes. In 2006, Husker safeties recorded six of Nebraska's 12 interceptions. The 2005 Nebraska defense toted a No. 10 national pass efficiency defense ranking and the No. 2 ranking in the Big 12 Conference. The Huskers held six opponents to less than 200 yards passing and nine to one or fewer passing touchdowns in 2005. Busch had two players selected in the NFL Draft as Josh Bullock was selected by the New Orleans Saints in 2005 and his twin brother Daniel was chosen in the 2006 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions in the second round. Ironically, each Bullocks brother was taken with the 40th pick.

Busch's coaching talents also paid dividends for the Huskers on special teams. During his time there, the Huskers blocked 16 kicks, including seven in 2005. NU's special teams recorded two important plays in the final minutes of a contest - a 40-yard field goal to beat Kansas State and a block of a Pitt field-goal attempt - that proved to be game winners.

Nebraska ranked in the top 25 nationally in net punting (24th in 2006) and punt returns (17th in 2005) under Busch as well. NU's kickoff coverage unit ranked 15th nationally in 2006 after finishing 22nd the previous year.

Busch is a Pender, Neb., native and earned his bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska Wesleyan in 1988 and added a master's degree from Nebraska-Kearney in 1990.

Busch began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Nebraska-Kearney in 1989, after playing wide receiver at Nebraska Wesleyan from 1985 to 1987.

Busch was a graduate assistant at Nebraska from 1990 to 1993, assisting with the defensive backs. Among the defensive backs Busch worked with at Nebraska were all-league performers Tyrone Byrd, Barron Miles, Tyrone Williams and Mike Minter.

In addition to his many coaching and recruiting duties, Busch also coordinates USU's annual Ladies Clinic, and the event was a huge success on June 11, drawing its largest turnout ever with 127 participants. The clinic, sponsored by America First Credit Union, was designed to teach participants football skills, techniques and the ins-and-outs of the game. Participants also had the opportunity to meet the new Aggie football coaching staff, along with selected players.

KEVIN CLUNE

Linebackers

Cal State Fullerton, 2000 - First Year at Utah State

Kevin Clune (pronounced Kloon) is in his first year with the Utah State football staff and will serve as the Aggies' linebackers coach.

Clune was Weber State's defensive coordinator from 2005-08. He comes to Utah State after four years at Weber State, recently helping the Wildcats to a share of the Big Sky Conference title and advancing to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs, where they lost at No. 5 Montana, 24-13, on Dec. 6, 2008.

Clune's defense was fourth in the Big Sky Conference and 76th in FCS in total defense (363.9 yards per game), as well as leading the Big Sky in pass defense (208.4 ypg), good for 69th in FCS. Weber State also led the league in pass efficiency defense (109.4), which ranks 17th in FCS.

"I'm very excited about the opportunity to work with Coach Andersen again," Clune said. "I'm looking forward to the challenge of building on the success that Utah State has had and turning that program into one with continued success. I believe in Gary Andersen 110 percent and know that he will get that done."

Clune was Andersen's defensive coordinator at Southern Utah in 2003 and was at SUU through 2004 until joining the Weber State staff in 2005.

"Kevin and I worked together when he was my defensive coordinator at Southern Utah so our defensive beliefs are extremely close. He brings coordinator experience to us, something that is invaluable to a program, and he will only strengthen our defensive staff," Andersen said. "Kevin is very familiar with the state of Utah and everything that it has to offer. He's a terrific recruiter and will help us maintain our goal of continuing to build a successful program here at Utah State and pursue a conference championship."

Under Clune, Weber State's defense was ranked second in the Big Sky in both 2006 and 2007. The 2007 Wildcat defense yielded an average of just 348.4 yards per game. Weber State also ranked first in the league in pass defense (212.2 ypg) and third in rushing defense (136.2 ypg). Weber State's 23-0 win at Northern Colorado on Oct. 13, 2007 was the Wildcats' first shutout of a league opponent since 1980 and the first shutout of a league opponent on the road since 1966.

During his tenure at Weber State, Clune coached 15 all-Big Sky Conference winners, including nine this past season, as tackle Bryce Scanlon, end Kevin Linehan, linebacker J.D. Folsom, cornerback Josh Morris and safety Beau Hadley all earned first-team accolades, while tackle Ryan Eastman, end Pate Moleni, linebacker Biff Swan and safety Scotty Goodloe were on the honorable mention list. In 2005, defensive end Brady Fosmark was a second-team All-American and first-team all-Big Sky selection.

While at Southern Utah, Clune mentored outside linebacker Nick DiPadova, who earned second-team NCAA Division I-AA All-American honors in 2004 and was honorable mention in 2003. Marques Harris also earned third-team NCAA Division I-AA All-American accolades in 2004 as well.

Clune was a graduate assistant coach on the Utah staff in 2001 and 2002, spending the 2001 season with the running backs before shifting to the defensive side of the ball where he worked with the linebackers, where he coached with Andersen who was the defensive tackles coach for the Utes that season. Clune also assisted with special teams preparation and scouting.

Clune also spent time on the football staffs at Occidental College and Fullerton Junior College. At Occidental, his primary responsibility was the defensive line, while coaching the linebackers at Fullerton JC as well as the special teams coordinator. Clune also coached at Dos Pueblos High School and Palma High School.

Clune was a defensive lineman at Fullerton JC for one year and spent one season at the University of San Diego.

He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Cal State Fullerton in 2000.

ALEX GERKE

Offensive Line

Utah State, 1995 - First Year at Utah State

Alex Gerke (pronounced gur-Key) is the Aggies' new offensive line coach.

"Alex has spent years coaching the spread offense, so he is very knowledgeable and well-rounded on the type of offense we're going to run here at Utah State," USU head coach Gary Andersen said. "He is an excellent offensive line coach and an exceptional recruiter, with significant experience recruiting the state of Utah, California, as well as Polynesian players in addition to all over the country. His coaching beliefs are the same as mine as far as taking quality care of the current players in the program and recruiting high-caliber players for our program."

"I can't wait to work with Gary Andersen," Gerke said. "I think that Utah State has the right guy for their program. He understands Utah and knows what type of players to recruit here to make a successful program. I look forward to being a spoke in the wheel as we get the USU program rolling towards continued success."

Gerke is familiar with the Western Athletic Conference, spending last season at Hawai'i, coaching the running backs and assisting with the offensive line. He helped guide the Warriors to a 7-7 record, losing to Notre Dame, 49-21, in the Hawai'i Bowl.

Prior to his stint at Hawai'i, Gerke spent two seasons at Weber State, where coached the offensive line with current USU quarterbacks coach Kevin McGiven, who was the Wildcats' offensive coordinator at the time. At Weber State, Gerke also coached with current USU linebackers coach Kevin Clune and defensive line coach Chad Kauha'aha'a.

"I'm excited to be back in Utah," Gerke said. "I have a strong affinity for the state, I love it. I'm extremely honored to help Utah State achieve its goals for success."

While at Hawai'i, Gerke helped coach three-time first-team all-WAC honoree John Estes, who was on last year's Rimington Award Watch List for best center, the Outland Trophy Watch List for best interior lineman and the Lombardi Award Watch List for best lineman/linebacker. Estes was a three-time Rimington Award Watch List member.

At Hawai'i, Gerke also coached running back Daniel Libre, who in limited action, led UH with 443 yards on 99 carries and six TD's.

At Weber State, Gerke coached right tackle Dave Hale, who earned All-America honors for Football Championship Subdivision (former Division I-AA) and Dimitri Tsoumpas, the second overall pick in the 2008 Canadian Football League Draft. The Wildcat offensive line allowed only 12 sacks and their offense featured the Big Sky's leading rusher.

Gerke's coaching career began in 1985 at South High School in Salt Lake City, where he coached both the offensive and defensive line. The following year, he went to Golden West Junior College to serve as the assistant offensive line coach and weight training coach.

In 1994, Gerke returned to the state of Utah where he coached the offensive and defensive line at East HS in Salt Lake City. The next year, he was a guest coach with the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders before returning to coach the offensive and defensive lines at Hunter HS in Salt Lake City for three years.

Gerke served as a graduate assistant for Utah in 1998, coaching the Utes' offensive tackles and tight ends for two years. In 2000, he joined the Cal Poly staff as offensive line coach, mentoring All-American Dustin Kroeker. The Mustangs ranked 15th in Division I-AA in passing offense and quarterback Seth Burford ranked sixth in passing efficiency.

Gerke's stint with Cal Poly was a short one as the following year he returned to Utah's staff to serve as offensive line coach for two years. Gerke returned to Golden West and was head coach from 2003-05. From 2003-05, Gerke also worked with NFL Draft Prospects for Athletes' Performance.

Additionally, Gerke has also coached several players who have earned All-America accolades and have gone on to play professionally. Notables include Jordan Gross (Utah), a 2003 first round draft choice of the Carolina Panthers and Outland Trophy runner-up. Chris Kemoeatu (Utah) was a sixth-round pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers, while Ed Taamu (Utah) was a 2002 fourth round pick by Minnesota. Glen Parker (Golden West JC), an All-American at Arizona, later played for the New York Giants, Buffalo Bills and Kansas City Chiefs. Alfred Pupunu (South High) was a member of the San Diego Chargers Super Bowl team and also played for the Chiefs and Giants.

Gross and Doug Kaufusi, both of Utah, were named to the Mountain West 10th Anniversary Football Team, and were both Gerke coached.

Gerke, a native of Westminster, Calif., was a two-year starter on the offensive line at Golden West Junior College in 1980-81. In 1982 he signed with Utah where he was a two-year offensive lineman.

CHAD KAUKA'AHA'A

Defensive Line

Utah, 1996 - First Year at Utah State

Chad Kauha'aha'a (pronounced Cow-ha-a-ha-a) is entering his first season with the Utah State coaching staff, and will be USU's defensive line coach.

Kauha'aha'a comes to Utah State after four years at Weber State, helping the Wildcats to a share of the 2008 Big Sky Conference title and advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2008 Football Championship Subdivision playoffs, where they lost at No. 5 Montana, 24-13.

Kauha'aha'a was Weber State's defensive line coach all four years he was there, helping guide the Wildcats to 2.1 sacks per game in 2008, good for tied for 42nd in FCS.

"In my opinion, Chad is one of the best recruiters in the country. He has vast knowledge of recruiting all types of players, especially Polynesian players," Andersen said. "He has also coached in basically the same defensive scheme from working under Coach Clune, so he understands our defensive goals and objectives. He's a young, passionate and aggressive coach, and I'm excited to work with him in making Utah State a great football program."

Last season, one of Kauha'aha'a's pupils, first-team all-Big Sky selection Kevin Linehan was second in the Big Sky and tied for 16th in FCS in sacks with 10.5 (0.75 pg). Linehan was also fourth in the Big Sky in tackles for loss with 14.5 and second in the league with five forced fumbles. Another first-team all-Big Sky honoree, Bryce

Scanlon was 38th in the league with 67 tackles (4.8 pg) with seven and half tackles for loss including one sack.

"I've very thankful for the opportunity that Gary Andersen has given me to coach at Utah State," Kauha'aha'a said. "I'm anxious for the challenge and can't wait to get started and take the Aggies to the next level. While at Weber State, I saw the progress that Utah State has made and am looking forward to being part of Coach Andersen's staff to expand on that success."

Under Kauha'aha'a, the 2007 Weber State defensive line was also greatly successful, ranking second in the Big Sky in overall defense (348.4 ypg) and third in rushing defense (136.2 ypg). Scanlon also earned first-team all-Big Sky accolades, while defensive tackle Derek Johnson and Linehan were honorable mention selections.

In 2006, defensive tackle Rio Stotler earned first-team all-conference honors, while Pate Moleni and Patrick O'Keefe garnered honorable mention all-Big Sky accolades. The 2005 Kauha'aha'a-led defensive line also collected several awards as defensive end Brady Fosmark was second-team All-America and first-team all-Big Sky selection and defensive tackle Shane Barkdull was also a first-team all-conference honoree.

Prior to Weber State, Kauha'aha'a was head coach at Baldwin High School on the island of Maui, Hawai'i, where he posted a 25-5-2 record in three seasons, winning two Maui Interscholastic League championships. His teams finished ranked among the top five in the state each of those three seasons.

Kauha'aha'a was a three-year letterwinner at Utah, playing linebacker in 1993 before redshirting in 1994. Moving to defensive line in 1995, Kauha'aha'a was a second-team all-Western Athletic Conference selection in 1995 after posting seven sacks as part of his 70 tackles. In 1996, he garnered second-team all-WAC accolades, despite missing three games with a knee injury, leading Utah with six tackles for a loss, including four sacks. He was a two-time recipient of Utah's Walt DeLand Award, presented each year to the Ute football player who overcomes adversity to make a contribution. His 110 career tackles for loss yardage is No. 11 on Utah's career list.

Earning his bachelor's degree in sociology, Kauha'aha'a graduated from Utah in 1996. He and his wife, the former Walene Reyes, have two children, Walter and Chaseten.

KEVIN MCGIVEN

Quarterbacks

Utah Valley, 2001 - First Year at Utah State

Utah State head coach Gary Andersen announced on Dec. 10 that Kevin McGiven has been hired as the Aggies' quarterbacks coach.

McGiven was Weber State's offensive coordinator for three seasons, recently helping the Wildcats to a share of the Big Sky Conference title in 2008 and advancing to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoffs, where they lost at No. 5 Montana, 24-13.

"Having grown up in Utah, I'm familiar with Utah State's history. It's a school and a program with a great deal of tradition and promise. I'm excited to get the pieces together and get the Aggies back on the winning track," McGiven said.

Weber State improved from fifth in the Big Sky in 2007 in total offense to leading the league and ranking seventh in FCS in 2008 with 455.4 yards per game. The McGiven-led Wildcat offense also led the conference and ranked 12th in FCS in scoring offense at 35.1 points per game, improving from 27.2 ppg last year and fifth-best in the league. McGiven's offense was also second in the conference and fifth in the FCS in passing offense (324.3 ypg) and fifth in the league and 70th in the nation in rushing offense (131.0 ypg).

Under McGiven, Weber State had seven offensive players earn first-team all-Big Sky Conference honors in 2008, part of a Big Sky record 12 players on the first-team overall.

Quarterback Cameron Higgins was not only a first-team selection and the Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Year, but he was also a candidate for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the top offensive player in FCS. Higgins led the Big Sky and ranked third in FCS in passing efficiency (166.26) as well as leading the league and ranking fourth in FCS in total offense (314.3 ypg).

"What Kevin has done the last few years at Weber State is extremely impressive," Andersen said. "He has taken a young quarterback and developed him into one of the best in the country. He is a bright, young talented coach and his potential is immeasurable."

While defensive coordinator at Utah, Andersen was able to see McGiven's coaching talents first hand on Sept. 27, when Utah hosted Weber State, and the Utes beat the Wildcats, 37-21.

"When Weber State faced Utah this season, the scheme that Kevin had for that game was one of the best that I faced while defensive coordinator," Andersen said.

In 2007, McGiven mentored Higgins into a season of accolades, including the 2007 Big Sky Conference Newcomer of the Year along with being an honorable mention all-Big Sky selection after ranking second in the league with a 143.20 passing efficiency rating.

In addition to Higgins' standout seasons, McGiven has led Weber State's offense to additional notables, as running back Trevyn Smith, a unanimous first-team all-conference selection, has led the Big Sky in rushing each of the last three seasons. Smith's 113.2

ypg this season ranked 16th in FCS.

McGiven joined the Weber State coaching staff in 2006 after one season at Southern Utah, where he was the Thunderbirds' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Beginning his coaching career in 2002, McGiven was a graduate assistant at BYU, coaching the wide receivers for the 2002 and 2003 seasons before moving to quarterbacks in 2004.

McGiven grew up in Orem, Utah, and graduated from Mountain View High School in 1995. He played one season at Eastern Arizona Junior College and later played wide receiver at Louisiana Tech before finishing his bachelor's degree in business from Utah Valley State College in 2001.

He and his wife, the former Lindsay Loveridge, have four children, sons Peyton, K.J. and Beau, and daughter Ireland.

COREY RAYMOND

Cornerbacks

LSU, 1992 - First Year at Utah State

Entering his first season as USU cornerbacks coach is Corey Raymond.

"Corey brings a great deal of coaching and playing experience to our program. He's a great teacher and a great technician. He's a high-energy coach and puts the players first, which is vital on my staff," Andersen said. "His college and professional experience will be beneficial to our players here at Utah State. He's also a terrific recruiter, and he has ties throughout Texas."

Raymond replaces John Rushing, who left the Aggies' program for the Green Bay Packers. Raymond comes to USU after three seasons at Louisiana State, where he worked with the LSU cornerbacks and their strength and conditioning program.

"I'm very happy to join a staff that is committed to turning this program around," Raymond said. "I hope I can pass on my knowledge, both as a player and as person, to help our players both in football and life. I've learned a lot as a professional player and a college graduate, and I intend to share that knowledge with the student-athletes of Utah State."

A six-year NFL player, Raymond was with the New York Giants from 1992-1995 and the Detroit Lions from 1995-1998. For his career, Raymond played in 90 games, registering 279 tackles, as well as snaring 11 interceptions, including one for a touchdown. He also had three sacks and one fumble return.

Raymond is a native of New Iberia, La., and he was a four-year starter at cornerback for LSU.

He began his coaching career in 2003 at New Iberia HS as secondary coach before becoming defensive coordinator and head strength and conditioning coach at Westgate High School in his hometown of New Iberia, La.

Raymond's coaching accolades include a 2007 internship with the Minnesota Vikings, part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Internship Program.

Raymond was in the personal business sector from 1999-2002

A 1992 graduate of LSU, Raymond earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts.

He has four children: Chris, Cody, Madison and Ariel.

ILAISA TUIAKI

Running Backs

Southern Utah, 2006 - First Year at Utah State

Ilaisa Tuiaki (pronounced E-lye-sa Too-ee-ah-kee) is entering his first season as Utah State's running backs coach.

Tuiaki follows Andersen to Utah State from Utah, where he was a graduate assistant for the Utes' defense, coaching the strong side linebackers. Tuiaki played running back at Southern Utah. He'll shift back to the offensive side of the ball, coaching USU's running backs as well as assisting with special teams.

"Ilaisa played for me at Southern Utah, and I've been impressed with him as a player and a coach ever since," Andersen said. "He's a young, passionate coach that puts the players first, and I know he'll do great things with our young, talented running backs here at Utah State, as well as working on special teams. His recruiting skills will also be a big asset for us. While at Utah, he did a great job recruiting Polynesian players, and he will help us tremendously as we work toward expanding on the number of Utah and Polynesian players in our program."

Tuiaki played for Andersen at Southern Utah and is excited to continue to be part of his staff.

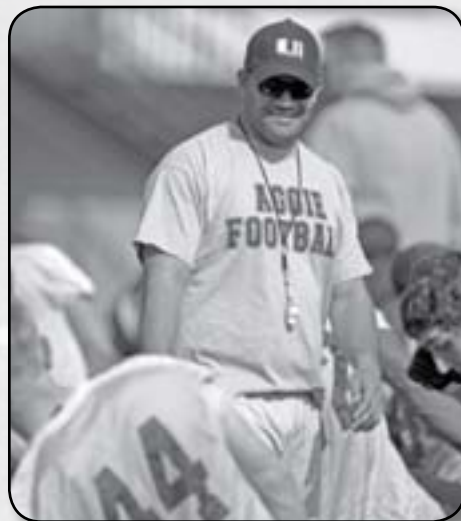

"I'm really excited to be part of Gary Andersen's staff. I'm extremely honored that he has the faith in me, and I know what's expected of me," Tuiaki said. "I'm flattered that Coach Andersen selected me to be Utah State's running backs coach. I'm excited to meet and work with the players. Utah State has a lot of talent at running back. I'm also anxious to help recruit Polynesian players to Cache Valley and Utah State. The area and campus are great places."

Tuiaki spent one year as graduate assistant coach at Utah, where he worked with the strong side linebackers on defense, assisting defensive coordinator Andersen.

Last season at Utah, Tuiaki coached second-team all-Mountain West honoree junior linebacker Stevenson Sylvester, as well as honorable mention selection junior linebacker Mike Wright. Tuiaki also helped guide the Utes to a 13-0 record last season as they finished the season ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll after winning the BCS Sugar Bowl with a dominating 31-17 victory against Alabama.

Tuiaki also played for Andersen at Southern Utah in 2003, as he was a running back for the Thunderbirds for two seasons, joining SUU after two years at Snow College. While at Southern Utah, Tuiaki scored two rushing TD's, as well as three receiving TD's in addition to serving as team captain. One of his TD catches was the game-winner in Southern Utah's 19-15 upset of No. 25 UC Davis for SUU's first Great West Football Conference win. Off the field, Tuiaki was an academic all-conference selection as well as a two-time winner of a Utah Coalition for the Advancement of Minorities in Higher Education (UCAHME) scholarship. Additionally, Tuiaki played rugby at SUU and was his club team's captain.

Tuiaki began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Kearns High School, where he coached the wide receivers and outside linebackers in 2006 and was the offensive coordinator in 2007. He also taught sophomore English at Kearns for those two years.

A 2006 graduate of Southern Utah, Tuiaki earned a double-major degree in English and physical education. Tuiaki currently is finishing a master's degree in education policy and leadership at Utah.

A native of Provo, Utah, Tuiaki is married to the former Viola Wolfgramm and they have five children, sons Laveatu'u and Lolo, and daughters Uini, Leisinia and Heilala.

T.J. WOODS

Tight Ends

Azuza Pacific, 2002 - First Year at Utah State

T.J. Woods is entering his first season at USU and coaches the Aggies' tight ends.

"I'm extremely excited for the opportunity to coach with Gary Andersen. What he accomplished at Utah was extraordinary. I look forward to continuing the success here at Utah State," Woods said. "I'm extremely honored to be part of this community and Utah State University."

Woods comes to USU from New Mexico, where he spent two seasons along side current Aggies offensive coordinator Dave Baldwin where he was in the same position.

"He's been involved with Coach Baldwin's offense for a number of years, and we want someone who is familiar with the spread offense that we're going to run here at Utah State," Andersen said. "Coach Woods is a great recruiter. He's from the Southern California area having grown up there and played there so that will be his recruiting area and will use his ties to recruit some high-caliber players to Utah State."

While at New Mexico, Woods mentored junior center Erik Cook, who earned second-team all-Mountain West Conference honors and is considered to be a pro-prospect, as well as offensive tackle Byron Bell, who was named to the 2008 CollegeFootballNews.com All-Freshman team.

Last season, Woods coached center Vince Natali and offensive tackle Devin Clark, who both garnered first-team all-MWC accolades.

Woods was an assistant coach at Citrus Junior College in Glendora, Calif., for one season before joining the New Mexico staff. At Citrus, he was the offensive line coach/running game coordinator, helping the Fighting Owls to the Western States Conference south division title.

Prior to Citrus and beginning his coaching career at his alma mater of Azuza Pacific, Woods was the offensive line assistant coach for one season before spending two seasons as tight ends coach. While at Azuza Pacific, Woods helped the Cougars to the NAIA national semifinals, as well as mentoring 2005 NAIA All-American tight end Ricky Burgan.

Woods, a native of San Dimas, Calif., was a two-year letterwinner at offensive tackle at Azuza Pacific, garnering NAIA first-team All-America accolades as well as being named to the first-team Don Hansen's Football Gazette NAIA All-America list in 2002. That season he anchored a Cougar offense that amassed 400 yards per game, ranking 13th in the country and the offensive line unit only gave up 12 sacks all season, the fewest allowed by a Cougar team in six seasons.

Prior to Azuza Pacific, Woods was at Iowa State for one season, signing with the Cyclones after two standout seasons at Citrus College, where he earned National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) All-America honors in 1999.

Woods earned his bachelor's degree in business from Azuza Pacific in 2002 and his master's degree in physical education in 2005, also from Azuza Pacific.

Woods is married to the former Kelly Williams.

ASSISTANT COACHES

STEVE MATHIS

Director of Football Operations
Snow College, 1980 - First Year at Utah State

JOVON BOUKNIGHT

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Wyoming, 2006 - First Year at Utah State

Steve Mathis is entering his first season as USU's director of football operations.

Mathis, who worked with Andersen at Utah for the last four years as the Utes' defensive administrative assistant, will be the director of football operations, handling the program's daily operations as well as coordinating recruiting campus visits.

While at Utah, Mathis worked with the defensive coaching staff, handling office duties in addition to scout team cards at practice and game day charting.

"I'm extremely excited that Steve will be joining our program. He will handle all of the behind the scenes tasks, that are vital to our program's operating at the high level that it does," Andersen said. "Not only has he been a long-time friend, he is passionate and dedicated about what he does and he does them exceptionally well."

A native of Salt Lake City, Mathis has owned Abbey Carpets for the last 26 years. He was named Businessman of the Year from 2003-05. Mathis also serves on numerous business advisory boards and councils.

Mathis was an assistant coach at Alta High School from 2002-04. He was also a little league coach, and as head coach of the Alta Ute Conference eighth and ninth grade team, his squads captured five state titles and won a National Youth Football League championship.

He graduated from Snow College in 1980, where he competed with the basketball team. He then attended Weber State and worked as an athletics trainer for the Wildcats, before getting into the business realm.

Mathis has six children: J.D., Nic, Tim, Cassandra, Chandra and Emma.

Jovon Bouknight (pronounced Bo-night) is in his first season with the USU football program, and will serve as the Aggies' offensive graduate assistant.

He comes to USU after one season at his alma mater of Wyoming, where he was offensive graduate assistant, working with the Cowboys' wide receivers.

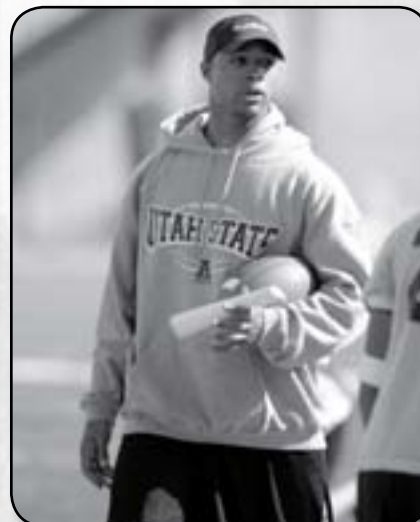

He concluded his college career ranked No. 20 in NCAA history in both career receiving yards (3,626) and career receptions (250). After graduating from UW in the spring of 2006, Bouknight signed a free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers and went to camp with the Panthers in the summer of 2006. He later played in NFL Europe in the summer of 2007, before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers later that summer and attended camp with Tampa in 2007.

During his senior season, he was one of only 15 semifinalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the nation's top college receiver each season. He also earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Football News in 2005. He earned first-team all-Mountain West Conference honors as a senior in voting by MWC coaches and media. The College Football News also selected him to its all-Mountain West Conference first-team. For the 2005 season, he ranked No. 9 in the NCAA in average receiving yards per game (101.45 yards per game), No. 15 in total receiving yards (1,116), No. 10 in all-purpose yards (160.45), No. 12 in average receptions per game (7.00 catches per game) and No. 11 in kickoff returns (27.75 yards per return). He concluded his career ranked No. 2 in Mountain West Conference history in both receptions (250) and receiving yards (3,626).

In Wyoming school history, Bouknight ranks No. 3 in career receiving yards behind former All-Americans Marcus Harris (No. 1 with 4,518 receiving yards from 1993-96) and Ryan Yarborough (No. 2 with 4,446 from 1990-93). Harris was the 1996 Biletnikoff Award winner. Bouknight ranks No. 2 in school history in career receptions, trailing only Harris with 259. Bouknight also completed his career as Wyoming's all-time all-purpose yardage leader (5,921 all-purpose yards) and career kickoff return leader (2,016 kickoff-return yards). He caught at least one pass in 47 consecutive games, which was also every game of his college career and is the UW school record. He actually caught at least two passes in each of those 47 career games.

A native of Denver, Colo., Bouknight was an outstanding quarterback at Manual High School in Denver. He received his bachelor's degree from Wyoming in 2006.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BEN BARTON

Defensive
Administrative Assistant
San Diego, 2008
First Year at USU

Ben Barton is entering his first season with the Aggie football program, serving as the defensive administrative assistant. He'll assist the defensive coaches with daily football operations.

Barton comes to USU after one season at San Diego, where he served as the Toreros' defensive administrative assistant.

A native of Tyler, Texas, Barton attended Lubbock Coronado 5A High School where he played football and graduated in 2003. Following two years at Lake Tahoe Community College, he transferred to the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. In 2005 he was a student assistant for the Cornhusker football program and head coach Bill Callahan. Over the next two seasons he was a special teams and defensive assistant for current USU defensive coordinator Bill Busch.

Last May, Barton earned his bachelor's degree in industrial technology education from San Diego.

RYAN ZIMMERMAN

Offensive
Administrative Assistant
First Year at USU

Ryan Zimmerman is entering his first season with the Aggie football program, serving as the offensive administrative assistant. He'll assist the offensive coaches with daily football operations.

A native of Providence, Utah, Zimmerman played for USU head coach Gary Andersen at Southern Utah in 2003, before switching to baseball, where he was selected in the Major League Baseball draft by the Tampa Bay Rays in 2004. He was in the Tampa farm system until this past summer, when a shoulder injury put his baseball career on hold.

The well-decorated Mountain Crest alum led the Mustangs to the 2001 state championship and he was named Gatorade Player of the Year for the state of Utah.

Zimmerman's mother, Linda, is the Aggies' Spirit Squad advisor.

TONY FLORES

Staff Administrative Assistant
Utah State, 2003
Fifth Year at USU

In his fifth year with the Utah State coaching staff is Tony Flores, who will serve as the staff administrative assistant and he'll assist the coaching staff with daily football operations, as well as assisting with special teams.

In 2007, Flores mentored Peter Caldwell, who was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-American list as an honorable mention after hitting 13-of-21 field goals. Caldwell was also a perfect 25-of-25 on PAT's, one of only three kickers in the WAC with a perfect PAT percentage.

Last season, placekicker Chris Ulinski boomed a WAC-best 21 touchbacks.

Flores also coached punter Leon Jackson III, who was tied for second in the WAC and tied for 50th in the NCAA with a 41.3 yards per punt average with 16 of his 62 punts inside the 20.

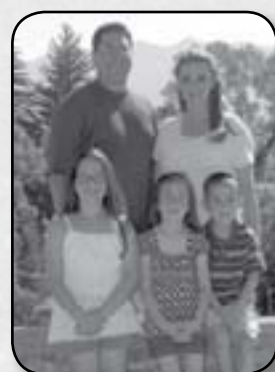

Prior to coming to USU, Flores helped coach the freshman football team at North Cache High School and the team was 27-0 in his three years working with the secondary.

After graduating from Grantsville (Utah) High School in 1989, Flores attended USU before joining the military for three years. He then worked in the real estate field before returning to school and coaching football.

Flores' nephew Josh is a sophomore tailback for Utah State.

Flores earned a bachelor's degree from USU in liberal arts and sciences in 2003.

Born Feb. 12, 1971 in Harbor City, Calif., he and his wife Taya have three children, Olivia, Katie and Gabe, who were all bat kids for the USU softball team last year.

S James Brindley (#26) was third on the team and 14th in the WAC overall, ranking fourth among DB's on the league tackles list with 75 stops... Brindley also led the Aggies and was tied for eighth in the WAC in interceptions with three.

DL Darby Golden (#46) led USU and ranked second in the WAC in fumbles forced (2, 0.18 pg).

DL Ben Calderwood (#58) led USU and ranked tied for eighth in the WAC with 4.5 sacks in 2008... Calderwood also led the Aggies and ranked 11th in the league in tackles for loss with 8.5... Calderwood was named the WAC Defensive Player of the Week on Dec. 1, 2008 for his performance against New Mexico State in which he had three sacks and one fumble recovery... The three sacks tied the WAC-best for the 2008 season.

LB Jake Hutton (#53) earned second-team all-WAC honors in 2008 after finishing second in the WAC and 26th in the NCAA in tackles with 110 total (9.2 per game)... His 110 stops led USU as well as ranking second on the team with eight tackles for loss and tying for the team lead with two forced fumbles... Hutton's 110 tackles is the most for an Aggie individual since Robert Watts tallied 118 stops in 2003.

Ryan Tonnemacher, C

- Preseason and Midseason Rimington Trophy Watch List (2007 & 2008)
- Fourth-Team Phil Steele's College Football Preview Preseason All-WAC (2008)

OC Ryan Tonnemacher (#56) finished his USU career with 33 career starts, tied for second-most among the 2008 seniors... Tonnemacher was named to the 2007 & 2008 Preseason and Midseason Rimington Trophy Watch List, honoring the nation's best college football offensive center... Additionally, Tonnemacher was a fourth-team Phil Steele's College Football Preview Preseason All-WAC selection in 2008... Tonnemacher's senior season was cut short with a knee injury.

TE Rob Myers (#86) had 21 receptions for 320 yards with three touchdowns, leading the nation's tight ends with 15.2 yards per catch his junior season of 2007... His season was highlighted by being named the John Mackey National Tight End of the Week on Nov. 21, 2007 for his career-best outing of 117 yards on four catches with two TD's in USU's win at New Mexico State... However, Myers missed his senior season of 2008 with a preseason injury... Nonetheless, he signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets.

WR Otis Nelson (#14) finished his career with at least one catch in 30 consecutive games, the third-longest streak in the WAC at the end of the 2008 season, trailing New Mexico State's A.J. Harris (45) and Chris Williams (31)... Nelson made 29 career starts, ranking fourth among the 2008 seniors... Off the field, Nelson was a four-time academic all-WAC selection, joining OT Derek Hoke as the only two members of the 2008 senior class to accomplish that feat.

2008 GAME SUMMARIES

UNLV 27, UTAH STATE 17

August 30, 2008 • Las Vegas, Nev. • Sam Boyd Stadium

GAME ONE RECAP

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - UNLV's Omar Clayton threw for 192 yards (17-29-0) and a career-high three touchdown passes, and Frank Summers added 87 yards on the ground to lead the Rebels to a season-opening 27-17 win against Utah State on Aug. 30. It was the 11th straight year that USU has opened the season with a loss. The win was UNLV's first in nine games dating back to the 2007 season and two of its last three victories have come against USU. The Aggies entered 2008 on a two-game winning streak as it ended the 2007 campaign with a pair of road wins at New Mexico State and at Idaho. Sophomore QB Diondre Borel highlighted Utah State's offense as he gained 70 yards rushing on 15 carries and added 80 yards passing (8-16-0) after entering the game early in the third quarter. Borel also threw his first career TD, completing a six-yard pass to junior WR Nnamdi Gwacham late in the fourth quarter to make the final margin 10 points. It was also Gwacham's first career TD. Senior QB Sean Setzer started the game by completing nine of his first 10 passes for 114 yards for Utah State and led the Aggies on a 12-play, 82-yard drive that spanned 6:21, culminating with a one-yard touchdown run by Robert Turbin to tie the game at seven-all early in the second quarter. Utah State dominated the first quarter as it held the ball for 12:38 and outgained UNLV, 114-44, but trailed 7-0 as the Rebels turned an Aggie turnover into seven points on a 5-play, 47-yard drive midway through the opening quarter. Following the Aggies' first touchdown, UNLV scored 17-straight points over the next two periods to put the game away. UNLV finished the game with 353 yards of total offense (221 passing, 153 rushing) and Utah State recorded 314 total yards (203 passing, 130 rushing). The Aggies finished the game by possessing the ball for 30:46 and ran eight more offensive plays (70-62), but they also committed two turnovers in the contest that led to 10 Rebel points, which proved to be the difference in the game. UNLV finished the game with zero turnovers. Senior LB Jake Hutton had a team-high 12 tackles to lead a trio of Aggie defenders with double-digit stops. The 12 tackles for Hutton marked the third-straight game he recorded at least 10 tackles dating back to 2007.

#18 OREGON 66, UTAH STATE 24

September 6, 2008 • Eugene, Ore. • Autzen Stadium

GAME TWO RECAP

EUGENE, Ore. - Behind 132 rushing yards from LeGarrette Blount and 173 passing yards from Justin Roper, 18th-ranked Oregon rolled up a school record 688 yards of total offense in its 66-24 non-conference win against Utah State at Autzen Stadium on Sept. 6. For the second straight week, Diondre Borel came off the bench to lead Utah State's offense as the sophomore signal-caller finished the game with 157 yards passing (16-24-0) and 31 yards rushing. Borel also had a career-high two TD passes in the game, completing a 15-yard pass to sophomore TB Curtis Marsh in the second quarter and later a one-yard toss to senior WR Otis Nelson in the fourth quarter. Senior FS Caleb Taylor stopped Oregon's first drive of the game in the redzone with his fifth career interception. However, following a three-and-out on USU's first offensive series, the Ducks responded with touchdowns on each of their next five possessions to take a commanding 38-14 lead into the locker room at halftime. Utah State got on the board early in the second quarter on a seven-play, 75-yard drive that was capped off with Borel's 15-yard TD pass to Marsh. USU then scored its first defensive touchdown of the season late in the second quarter as junior DL Antonio May recovered a fumble in the endzone. Following touchdowns on Oregon's first three possessions of the second-half, Utah State's Peter Caldwell made a 33-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter and USU added another score on Nelson's one-yard TD reception to give the Aggies 24 points. Nelson finished the game with a career-high seven receptions and a career-high 72 receiving yards. Freshman LB Jordan Glass had a career-best 11 tackles while Taylor had eight stops in the game to lead USU's defense. Utah State finished the game with 306 yards of total offense (218 passing, 88 rushing), while Oregon had 408 rushing yards and 280 passing yards.

2008 GAME SUMMARIES

#22 UTAH 58, UTAH STATE 10

September 13, 2008 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME THREE RECAP

LOGAN, Utah - In the 108th meeting with its in-state rival and the 12th-longest rivalry in the country, Utah State lost to 22nd-ranked Utah, 58-10, on Sept. 13 at Romney Stadium in the Aggies' home-opener. The Aggies have now lost 11 in a row to the Utes and trail the all-time series, 76-28-4. The Utes amassed 461 yards of total offense while limiting the Aggies to 116 yards. Just like its first two games of the season, Utah State was led by sophomore QB Diondre Borel off the bench with 62 yards passing and 23 yards rushing. Sophomore RB Curtis Marsh had three catches for a career-high 51 yards including a 31-yard reception. The Aggies took a 7-0 lead on a nine-yard pass from senior QB Sean Setzer to classmate WR Otis Nelson after the Aggies recovered a muffed Utah punt return at the USU 24. It was Setzer's first USU career TD pass. Utah had 248 rushing yards, led by 75 by Darrell Mack while Eddie Wide had 69 yards and Matt Asiata had 56 yards and three TD's. Brian Johnson was 22-of-31 passing for 204 yards with two TD's, with Bradon Godfrey snagging game highs of six catches for 57 yards. USU senior LB Jake Hutton made a game-high 11 tackles while fellow LB, sophomore Jordan Glass logged 10 stops, one shy of his career-high from last week. After the Aggies' first quarter lead, which was their first of the season, the Utes reeled off 30 unanswered points, taking a 30-7 lead into halftime. The avalanche started on the ensuing kickoff after Utah took a 10-7 lead, when USU fumbled and Utah's Elijah Wesson recovered and ran in from the 20 to put UU up 17-7 and USU never recovered. Utah State opened the third-quarter scoring on a 20-yard field goal from sophomore PK Peter Caldwell before Utah scored on four more TD's.

UTAH STATE 42, IDAHO 17

September 20, 2008 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME FOUR RECAP

LOGAN, Utah - Freshman Robert Turbin rushed for 123 yards, including 106 in the second-half, as Utah State rolled up 580 yards of total offense in a convincing 42-17 WAC win against Idaho on Sept. 20. The 42 points scored for USU was the most under head coach Brent Guy, as was its 25-point margin of victory. Utah State, who won three straight league games dating back to 2007, improved to 1-3 overall and 1-0 in the WAC. Utah State's 580 yards of total offense was its most since gaining 684 against Weber State in 2001, while its 356 rushing yards is the most since the 1999 season when it had 388 at Nevada. Turbin's 123 yards on the ground are the most for an Aggie since the 2006 campaign. Sophomore QB Diondre Borel scored Utah State's first touchdown on a 33-yard run in the second quarter and finished the game with 93 rushing yards. He also had 191 passing yards (12-21-1) and two TDs, which tied his career-high. Idaho scored on its first possession of the game and led 17-14 late in the third quarter following a 43-yard field goal from Tino Amancio. USU then exploded for 28 points in the final 15:34 of the game to record its largest margin of victory since it defeated Arkansas State, 49-0, on Oct. 25, 2003 in Logan. USU's first score of the second-half came on a 46-yard pitch and catch from Borel to freshman WR Stanley Morrison to tie the game at 14. The Aggies then took their first lead of the game with :34 seconds to play in the third quarter as junior TE Jeremy Mitchell hauled in a 15-yard scoring strike from Borel. USU's next score came via its defense as junior DE Darby Golden sacked Idaho's Nathan Enderle in the end zone, forcing a fumble that was recovered by senior DT Ben Calderwood. On the Vandals' next possession, junior S James Brindley intercepted a fourth-down pass and returned it 34 yards to the Vandals' 41. USU quickly turned that INT into seven points as sophomore RB Curtis Marsh raced 41-yards down the right sideline on the Aggies' first play from scrimmage for the score. Utah State's final series of the game was its most impressive going 97 yards in 12 plays, 10 of which were runs, in 6:05 culminating with a 26-yard scoring run by Turbin.

#8 BYU 34, UTAH STATE 14 Oct. 3, 2008 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME FIVE RECAP

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State outscored No. 8 Brigham Young 14-10 in the second half. However the Aggies were down 24-0 at halftime and lost to the Cougars in a closer than the score reflects contest, 34-14, on Oct. 3 at a packed and rowdy Romney Stadium. USU slid to 1-4 on the year while BYU improved to 5-0 overall, extending the nation's longest winning streak to 15 in a row. Aggie redshirt freshman running back Robert Turbin led USU for the second game in a row on the ground with 74 yards on eight carries. Sophomore quarterback Diondre Borel added 40 yards rushing to go with 10-of-15 passing for 114 yards and one TD, a five-yard strike to redshirt freshman tight end Tarren Lloyd for his first career TD catches. Senior wide receiver Otis Nelson had 72 yards on six receptions. Defensively, the senior tandem of linebacker Jake Hutton and linebacker/safety De'von Hall led USU with a game-high 10 tackles each while junior cornerback Kejon Murphy and fellow cornerback, senior Roy Hurst had an interception each. Murphy's came in the endzone to thwart a BYU drive after the Cougars took over at the USU 20 following an Aggie fumble. After BYU scored on its first offensive series of the game, the Aggies then coughed up three costly turnovers in the first quarter. USU's two fumbles and one interception were converted into 17 more points by BYU for a 24-0 first quarter lead. Neither team scored in the second quarter and the Cougars tacked on 10 points in the third quarter before the Aggies rallied with 14 fourth-quarter points. Turbin scored on a 40-yard running, spinning dash to cap a seven-play, 80-yard drive with 13:47 left in the game. After the Aggie defense held the Cougars to a three-and-out, Borel led USU's march down the field and capped the drive by hitting Lloyd in the back of the endzone. Utah State attempted an onside kick following the score but could not recover. At the end of BYU's ensuing drive, redshirt freshman defensive end Junior Keiaha burst through the line and blocked the field goal attempt. The Aggies drove to the BYU 7-yard line, but could not get the ball in the endzone before the game ended.

SAN JOSE STATE 30, UTAH STATE 7 October 11, 2008 • San Jose, Calif. • Spartan Stadium

GAME SIX RECAP

SAN JOSE, Calif. - Utah State saw its Western Athletic Conference win streak come to a halt with a 30-7 loss to San Jose State on Oct. 11 at SJSU's Spartan Stadium. USU, which came into the game with a three-game WAC win streak, the longest of the league at the time, and the Aggies fell to 1-5 overall and 1-1 in WAC action. SJSU improved to 2-0 in WAC play and 4-2 overall. The game was scoreless through the first quarter with USU gaining its first first down of the quarter with three minutes left and SJSU notched its initial first down on the ensuing possession, as both teams combined for nine punts in the opening quarter. USU sophomore P Peter Caldwell had five in the first stanza, matching its total from the previous two games combined after one in the Idaho game and four in the BYU game. Caldwell ended the game with 10 punts, the Aggies' most since 11 at Clemson in 2004. The Aggies were held to 190 yards of total offense, with 142 coming after half-time, meanwhile the Spartans amassed 401 yards, including 314 yards passing. USU was led by sophomore QB Diondre Borel with 43 rushing yards and 66 passing yards on 8-of-21. Senior QB Sean Setzer was 5-of-9 for 53 yards with a two-yard TD pass to freshman RB Ronald Scott with 1:50 left in the game to prevent the shutout. Defensively, senior CB Caleb Taylor had 10 tackles while senior LB Jake Hutton had nine stops, including four tackles for loss. Senior CB Roy Hurst had an interception for the second game in a row. San Jose State was led by QB Kyle Reed's 300 yards passing on 28-of-40 for three TD's. David Richmond led the Spartans' receivers with eight catches for 89 yards with one TD.

NEVADA 44, UTAH STATE 17

October 18, 2008 • Reno, Nev. • Mackay Stadium

GAME SEVEN RECAP

RENO, Nev. - Despite forcing four turnovers on defense and amassing 333 yards of total offense, Utah State lost to Nevada, 44-17, on Oct. 18, as USU suffered its fourth loss in a row to Nevada. The Aggies dropped their third in a row overall in falling to 1-6 overall and 1-2 in Western Athletic Conference action while the Wolf Pack won for the third time in their last four games in improving to 4-3 overall and 2-1 in WAC play. USU had 333 yards of offense, as sophomore QB Dione Borel threw for a season-high 262 yards on 19-of-39, tossing two TD's for the third time this season. Borel also had 50 rushing yards on 21 carries, as USU had 71 total rushing yards. Senior WR Otis Nelson had a career-best 86 receiving yards on four catches with two TD's. Redshirt-freshman TE Tarren Lloyd added four receptions for 69 yards. Defensively, USU was led by junior LB Paul Igboeli with 10 tackles and a fumble recovery while junior S James Brindley added eight stops. Senior S/LB De'von Hall and junior CB Kejon Murphy each snagged an interception. Nevada had 523 yards of total offense, including 284 rushing, led by RB Vai Tauda's 122 and a TD. QB Colin Kaepernick was 10-of-20 passing for 197 and had 48 yards rushing on six carries with two TD's. Borel hit Nelson with a 16-yard TD in the second quarter to pull USU to 13-7, but then Nevada reeled off 27 unanswered points to open a 30-7 lead. Junior K Chris Ulinski filled in for sophomore Peter Caldwell for field goals, booting a 42-yarder in the third quarter. After the Wolf Pack scored again on a Kaepernick rush, Borel hit Nelson again with a 52-yard strike to pull the Aggies within 37-17, but Nevada tacked on a 47-yard INT return for a TD to cap the scoring.

FRESNO STATE 30, UTAH STATE 28

October 28, 2008 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME EIGHT RECAP

LOGAN, Utah - Fresno State's Kevin Goessling booted a 58-yard field goal as time expired to give the Bulldogs a 30-28 victory over Utah State on Oct. 25, spoiling USU's Homecoming. The Aggies rallied from a 24-13 early fourth-quarter deficit with 15 points, taking a 28-27 lead with 38 seconds left after freshman RB Marquis Butler's one-yard plunge. Sophomore PK/P Peter Caldwell split the uprights with the go ahead PAT. Fresno State's Rashad Evans returned the ensuing kickoff 27 yards and three pass completions by Tom Brandstater put the Bulldogs into Goessling's range, and he drilled the kick to stun the spirited Aggie Homecoming crowd. It was the Bulldog's first win on the Aggies' home field since 1989, as USU is now 8-3 vs. FS in Logan, but Fresno State leads the all-time series, 13-10-1, winning five of the last six meetings overall. USU nearly re-created the magic from 2006, when the Aggies scored in the waning seconds to beat the Bulldogs, 13-12, also on USU's Homecoming, but Goessling's boot gave Fresno State the victory. The Aggies amassed 399 yards of total offense on the day, with 206 on the ground and 193 through the air. Fresno State had 411 total offense yards with 257 passing and 154 rushing, the Bulldogs' second-lowest rushing output of the season. Borel led USU with 15-of-24 passing for 193 yards and one TD while adding 74 rushing yards and a TD, as well as a two-point conversion in the fourth quarter after tossing a 20-yard scoring pass to junior WR Xavier Bowman to pull the Aggies to 24-21. Butler had a season-high 55 rushing yards, while junior WR Nnamdi Gwacham had 72 yards on two catches, including a career-long 52-yard reception to set up Bowman's TD catch. Defensively, senior LB Jake Hutton had a game-high 13 tackles while junior S James Brindley added 10 stops. Brandstater was 25-of-36 passing for 257 yards with a TD, hitting Seyi Ajirrotutu with six of those passes for 58 yards while Devon Wylie also had six receptions for 54 yards. Ben Jacobs led Fresno State with 10 tackles while three others added nine stops. USU took the opening kickoff and marched down the field, scoring on its opening possession for the first time on the season, taking a 7-0 lead on a three-yard scoring scamper by Borel. Fresno State countered with a 19-yard run by Lonyae Miller to tie it at 7-all. Caldwell gave USU a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter on a 35-yard field goal but Fresno State scored on a seven-yard Brandstater to Wylie pass to put the Bulldogs up 14-10. Caldwell pulled the Aggies to 14-13 at the half on a 20-yard upright split as the second-quarter clock expired, at the same end as Goessling's second half ending field goal to win the game. The Bulldogs opened a 24-13 lead on a four-yard TD run by Ryan Matthews followed by a 43-yard Goessling field goal. After Bowman's TD drew USU to 24-21, Goessling booted a 44-yarder to put FS ahead, 27-21, setting up the final drama.

UTAH STATE 30, HAWAII 14

November 1, 2008 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME NINE RECAP

LOGAN, Utah - Behind sophomore QB Diondre Borel's 310 yards of total offense and some pivotal turnovers by the defense, Utah State knocked off defending Western Athletic Conference champion Hawaii, 30-14, on Nov. 1 at Romney Stadium. Borel helped the Aggies celebrate National College Football Day and USU Military Appreciation Day by passing for 223 yards on a 14-of-19 effort with two TD's while rushing for 87 yards on 14 carries to give USU its first WAC win over Hawaii in four tries. Utah State now leads its series with Hawaii, 5-4, as the Aggies' last win over the Warriors was in 1966, as the two teams did not play from 1966 until 2005. USU's first season in the WAC. The USU defense and special teams played a huge role in the Aggies' success, blocking two field goals, recovering a fumble inside the five, as well as forcing and recovering a fumble on a kickoff return following USU's final score. USU amassed 368 yards of total offense, as Borel led USU in both rushing and passing for the fourth game in a row and the sixth time this season. The Aggies had 145 rushing yards to go with the 223 passing yards. UH had 374 total offense yards with 141 rushing and two different QB's combined for 233 yards. Sophomore PK/P Peter Caldwell made all three of his field goal attempts as well as all three extra points. It was a total team effort on defense as four players: senior CB Roy Hurst, junior LB Paul Igboeli, junior S James Brindley and senior LB Jake Hutton, shared honors for leading tackles with six each. Igboeli had the first blocked field goal of the game and also recovered the Hawaii fumble inside the five, thwarting the Warriors' third-quarter opening drive with USU holding its 13-7 lead. The Aggies scored first on a 34-yard field goal from Caldwell on USU's opening drive of the game, marking the second time in as many games to score on its initial possession after failing to do so in the previous 14 games. On the Warriors' ensuing possession, Igboeli ended the drive by blocking the field goal. Early in the second quarter, Hurst sped around the edge to block UH's next field goal attempt. USU went up 10-0 on the very next play on a 62-yard scoring strike from Borel to junior WR Nnamdi Gwacham. On its very next possession, UH scored on a 34-yard pass from starting QB Greg Alexander to Michael Washington to pull within, 10-7. That would be the closest the Warriors would get as Caldwell booted another 34-yard field goal on the first half's final play to send USU into intermission with a 13-7 lead, the Aggies' first halftime lead of the season and just the sixth in the last three seasons. Hawaii closed to 20-14 with seven minutes remaining in the game on a 9-yard run by Alexander but USU tacked on a 21-yard Caldwell field goal to take a 23-14 advantage. Facing a fourth-and-10 from the USU 20, Hawaii went for it, but senior S De'von Hall broke up his second-straight pass and third of the day. The Aggies punched it in from there, with a six-yard rumble by Turbin and Caldwell's PAT capped the scoring at 30-14. The scoring wasn't almost done though, as Malcolm Lane had a 91-yard kickoff return, but a gutsy effort by USU senior CB Joshua Taylor denied Lane, as Taylor forced the fumble. Redshirt freshman WR Austin Alder scooped the ball and ran it out to the USU 22 where the Aggies ran out the clock and sparked the celebration.

GAME 10 RECAP

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State was bucked by the ninth-ranked Broncos of Boise State, 49-14, on Nov. 8 at BSU's Bronco Stadium, dealing the Aggies their second loss to a Top 10 team this season. USU fell to 2-8 overall and 2-4 in Western Athletic Conference play while the Broncos remained undefeated at 9-0 overall and 5-0 in WAC action. The Aggies have lost their last five trips to Boise and eight in a row to the Broncos overall in falling to 4-11 vs. Boise State. It marked just the second time ever and the first since 1972 that USU has played two top 10 teams in the same season. Boise State was USU's fourth top 25 opponent this year, marking the first time since 2001 and just the second time since 1957 that the Aggies have faced that many top 25 ranked teams. USU had 305 yards of total offense, but six turnovers and a season-high 13 penalties thwarted any chance the Aggies had of an upset. Boise State amassed 458 passing yards on the way to 563 yards of total offense. Senior QB Sean Setzer came off the bench to throw for a career-best 226 yards with two TD's on 19-of-33 passing, including a 51-yard scoring strike to sophomore TE Doug Barbour late in the second half. That pass sent USU into halftime trailing, 28-7. Barbour was one of a season-high 12 different receivers to catch a pass for a total of 261 yards, USU's second-best passing total behind 262 at Nevada on Oct. 18. It was Barbour's first career TD. USU now has 10 different receivers with a TD catch, doubling last year's total and the most since at least 1978. Junior WR Omar Sawyer had a team-high four catches for 37 yards while redshirt freshman RB Robert Turbin added three receptions for 51 yards, including a career-long 29-yard TD catch from Setzer. Turbin's TD catch on the Aggies' opening drive of the second half pulled USU within 28-14 with 13:41 to go in the third quarter, but did not score again as BSU pulled away with 21 unanswered points. USU recovered a BSU fumble on the Broncos' next drive at the Aggies' 27. After driving out to midfield, a USU fumble gave the ball back to Boise State. The Broncos capitalized six plays later on a 17-yard end-around TD pass. Kellen Moore threw for 362 yards on 27-of-36 passing for Boise State, tossing two TD's passes, as four different players had TD throws, including two wide receivers and the back-up QB, part of the Broncos' traditional bag of razzle-dazzle trick plays. Jeremy Childs had two TD catches as part of his seven receptions for 135 yards, while Ian Johnson led the Boise State rushing attack with 10 carries for 35 yards and a TD. Defensively, Utah State was led by senior LB Jake Hutton's season-high 14 tackles, two off his career-best. It was Hutton's fifth double-digit tackle outing this season and the seventh in the last 13 games, as well as the 12th of his career. Senior DT Ben Calderwood and senior LB Paul Igboeli added eight stops each, with Calderwood recording a tackle for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery while Igboeli notched a pass break-up. Junior S James Brindley tallied seven stops and had his second interception of the season.

LOUISIANA TECH 45, UTAH STATE 38

November 15, 2008 • Ruston, La. • Joe Aillet Stadium

GAME 11 RECAP

RUSTON, La. - Utah State battled back from a 35-17 deficit and took a 38-35 fourth-quarter lead only to be overtaken by Louisiana Tech, losing 45-38, on Nov. 15 in a hard-fought Western Athletic Conference battle. The Aggies fall to 2-9 overall and 2-5 in WAC action while the Bulldogs became bowl eligible with the win, improving to 6-4 overall and 4-2 in WAC play. USU out-gained LTU, 368-345, including 99 rushing yards and three TD's by redshirt-freshman Robert Turbin, becoming the first Aggie running back since Emmett White in 2001 with three rushing TD's. Turbin scored on a one-yard TD, a 47-yard scamper for a score and a two-yard run. Freshman LB Bobby Wagner led the Aggie defense with 10 tackles, while senior LB Jake Hutton added nine stops. Senior S De'von Hall, junior DT Alan Bishop and junior DE Antonio May tallied seven tackles each, as May notched a sack. Sophomore QB Diondre Borel added 56 yards rushing and two TD's as well as throwing for 204 yards on 12-of-18 passing. However, Borel threw three interceptions, two of which were returned for touchdowns in the first half, as La Tech built a 28-17 halftime lead. The Bulldogs tacked on a TD early in the third quarter to go up 35-17, before the Aggies rebounded with an 11-yard run by Borel. On LTU's next possession, redshirt-freshman DE Junior Keiaho blasted La Tech QB Ross Jenkins, forcing a fumble that senior DE Ben Calderwood recovered, giving USU the ball at the LTU 18. Two plays later, Turbin bulled in for a two-yard rush, but USU's two-point conversion came up short, leaving the Aggies down, 35-30. The USU defense held LTU to a three-and-out to get the ball back going into the fourth quarter. Borel spearheaded the Aggies' drive and capped it with a 13-yard scamper for a score and then darted in for the two-point conversion, his second of the season. USU's 38-35 lead was short-lived though, as LTU countered with a six-play scoring drive that Daniel Porter ended with a 22-yard TD run to put the Bulldogs back ahead, 42-38. However, the USU offense couldn't counterattack, punting it away. The Aggie defense bent but didn't break and held the Bulldogs to a field goal to open a 45-38 lead. On USU's ensuing possession, Borel's pass was intercepted by LTU and the Bulldogs took three knees to end the game.

UTAH STATE 47, NEW MEXICO STATE 2

November 22, 2008 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME 12 RECAP

LOGAN, Utah - Behind a tenacious defense and a season-high scoring offense led by five rushing touchdowns, Utah State blasted New Mexico State, 47-2, on Nov. 22 at Romney Stadium in the season and WAC final for both teams. Utah State ended its season with a 3-9 overall and 3-5 WAC ledger, marking the first time since 2005 that the Aggies had three wins in a season. USU won three WAC games in a season for the first time in the Aggies' four seasons in the league. It was also the first time since 2003 that USU won three conference games and just the third time in the 2000's. The home team scored 21 first quarter points and had a 28-zip halftime lead, and the 28 first half points were USU's most in a first half since Oct. 25, 2003 vs. Arkansas State. The skunk was run out of the stadium on a defensive safety early in the fourth quarter, but the navy Aggies tacked on nine points after that, including a 56-yard field goal by junior PK Chris Ulinski. Ulinski's field goal was the second-longest in the WAC last season behind the 58-yarder by Kevin Goessling of Fresno State as time expired to beat USU, 30-28, on Oct. 25. It also was the fourth-longest field goal in the NCAA last season. The 56-yarder is tied for the third-longest in USU school history, tying Micah Knorr's 56-yard boot against Northern Illinois in 1995. Dene Garner has the top two longest FG's in the school record books with a 59-yarder against the same NMSU Aggies as well as a 58-yarder against JSU in 1985. USU's 47 points was the most under former head coach Brent Guy and the most since it scored since 49 points against Arkansas State in 2003. In their final games as USU Aggies, seniors LB Jake Hutton and DT Ben Calderwood anchored the USU defense which held NMSU to negative seven yards rushing and 156 yards of total offense. Hutton tied a game-high with 10 tackles while Calderwood only had three tackles, but they were all sacks for a total loss of 30 yards. Calderwood added a fumble recovery to boot. It was the first time USU has held an opponent to negative rushing yards since Sept. 19, 1998 at Colorado when it held the Buffaloes to negative two rushing yards. The negative seven rushing yards is the sixth-best rushing defense output in school history. The Aggie offense had five different players score rushing TD's, led by freshman RB Ronald Scott's 64-yard scamper. It was a season-long rush for USU and the longest since a 69-yard run by Travis Davis vs. Middle Tennessee State on Nov. 1, 2003. Scott ended with a game-high 73 yards rushing while sophomore QB Diondre Borel added 53 yards including a 6-yard TD run. Redshirt-freshman RB Robert Turbin added 50 yards and a TD while freshman RB Marquis Butler tallied 43 yards and another score. Borel was 14-of-24 passing for 118 yards while senior QB Sean Setzer was 4-of-5 for 51 yards including a 10-yard TD pass to junior WR Xavier Bowman. Senior WR Otis Nelson led USU with 53 yards receiving on three catches, ending his Aggie career with at least one catch in 30 consecutive games, the third-longest active in the WAC, behind NMSU's A.J. Harris (45) and Chris Williams (31). Utah State had 17 seniors play their final game in a USU Aggie uniform, and were recognized with a pre-game ceremony.

Kevin Robinson (#6) set a new NCAA career all-purpose yards per play record with 16.16 during his time as an Aggie from 2004-07.

Kevin Curtis (#3) averaged 7.9 receptions per game during the 2001 season, which ranks seventh all-time in the NCAA.

Emmett White's NCAA Record-Setting Day

On Nov. 4, 2000, Utah State running back Emmett White produced one of the greatest single-game performances in NCAA history. The then-Aggie junior not only broke the NCAA single-game all-purpose yardage record, he demolished it.

The national record of 435 yards held by Brian Pruitt of Central Michigan, set against Toledo in 1994, was broken by an astonishing 143 yards as White accumulated 578 yards against New Mexico State.

White rushed 34 times for a school-record 322 yards, added 134 yards on seven receptions, had one punt return for two yards and four kickoff returns for 120 yards. That added up to 578 yards on 46 touches of the football that November night.

Not only did White amass all of those yards, he scored four touchdowns, including the game-winner, a nine-yard run, with just :28 left in the game as USU won the contest in Las Cruces 44-37.

He finished the season as the nation's all-purpose yardage leader averaging 238.9 yards per game (39 yards more per game than NCAA runner-up LaDainian Tomlinson of TCU). That average is still the sixth-best average in NCAA history.

White's 120.2 yards per game rushing that year ranked 13th in the country and his 322 yards on the ground against NMSU were the second most in a game in Big West history, as well as the most in USU history by 30 yards.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1946 RAISIN BOWL

San Jose State	20
Utah State	0

A powerful San Jose State college grid team shut out Utah State, 20-0 in the second Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif. San Jose devastated the Aggies 16 to seven in first downs, 177 to 74 in yards rushing and 110 to 49 in yards passing. Utah State's all-conference center, Ralph Maughan, could not offset San Jose's halfbacks Bert Robinson and Babe Nomura. San Jose did all of its scoring in the second and third quarters. Bill Schembel, a substitute halfback, passed to quarterback Bill Jackson for the opening touchdown, then took an aerial from Jackson for score number two. Bill Rhyne, another substitute halfback, crossed the goal line from the one yard line scoring the third touchdown. Through the entire game, Utah State threatened to score twice, once in the first quarter when it reached the San Jose one-yard line, and again at the end of the fourth quarter when the Aggies were again within a yard of the goal. Both attempts were denied and Utah State was confined to its own territory throughout most of the game.

1947 GRAPE BOWL

Pacific	35
Utah State	21

All-American quarterback Eddie LeBaron led his Pacific Tigers onto victory, defeating the Utah State Aggies, 35-21 in Lodi's first inaugural Grape Bowl football game. Only six minutes into the game, Pacific fullback Harry Kane scored on a 72-yard run. Utah State answered with a 70-yard drive to land on Pacific's 1-yard line. Right halfback John Worley fumbled, allowing halfback Bruce Orvis to recover the ball and run it back 99 yards for Pacific's second score. Early in the second quarter, LeBaron scored on a quarterback sneak from the one, and then threw for a 14-yard TD pass to left end John Rohde a few minutes later. Sub halfback Wayne Hardin completed all five conversion attempts. Utah State came back from halftime facing a 28-0 deficit. Quarterbacks John Caputo and John Sorensen helped the Aggies with two touchdowns, and in the final period, halfback Ernie Groll intercepted a long pass by LeBaron on the Pacific 42 and ran it back into the end zone. Fullback Buss Williams converted all three attempts. Utah State ran up 15 first downs against the College of Pacific's 17. On the ground the Tigers gained 278 yards against the Aggies' 85.

1960 SUN BOWL

Utah State	13
New Mexico State	20

New Mexico State, in winning its 15th-straight game, overcame Utah State, 20-13, in a bruising Sun Bowl football battle. USU owned a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when halfback Tom Larscheid ran for 13 yards and a touchdown. The score was set up with a 53-yard punt return by Ernie Reese, which set a Sun Bowl record.

New Mexico State answered right back in the second quarter. Quarterback Charley Johnson's three-yard pitch to Pervis Atkins along with Atkins' subsequent kick, tied the score in the second period.

USU then regained the lead by driving 80 yards in 15 plays with Dolph Camilli scoring from the 11. New Mexico State took the lead for the first time in the third quarter when Bob Gaiters ran for a 32-yard touchdown. Johnson led the offense by completing 18-of-26 passes, including two for touchdowns.

Utah State's final effort for victory was denied in the fourth quarter when fullback Doug Mayberry was stopped short of a first down on a fourth down play. New Mexico State then ran out the clock.

NMSU quarterback Charley Johnson threw for 190 yards and was tabbed the Sun Bowl's MVP for the second straight year. Johnson is the only player to earn the Sun Bowl's MVP honor twice.

The NMSU defense held the nation's top offense to just 268 total yards.

Utah State's defense was equally as impressive. USU, led by future Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, held the NMSU offense to only 224 yards, including just 44 rushing yards on 32 carries.

1961 GOTHAM BOWL

Baylor	24
Utah State	9

Converting four-of-five fumble recoveries into three touchdowns provided Baylor with the win over previously unbeaten Utah State, 24-9. Baylor's Ronnie Bull, picked up a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Quarterback Don Trull contributed a two-yard scoring plunge and a 39-yard touchdown pass to end Tom Plumb. Carl Choate kicked all three conversions and added three points with his 22-yard field goal. Utah State's first score came in the third quarter when Jim Turner kicked a 36-yard field goal. Midway through the final quarter, Ronnie Stanley's pass was intercepted by Utah State's Bob Novotny on the Baylor 16. In three plays, Utah State produced a touchdown with Munson scoring from the four. An attempted conversion run failed.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1993 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah State	42
Ball State	33

Anthony Calvillo tossed three touchdown passes and Profail Grier ran for two scores as Utah State defeated Ball State, 42-33 in Las Vegas Bowl II. It marked Utah State's first bowl victory in its 96-year football history. Utah State scored on its first two possessions with drives of 73 and 82 yards, respectively. Calvillo, who completed his first seven pass attempts, hit Cotle McMahon from 22 yards out for the first score. Eight minutes later, Grier reached the end zone on a three-yard run. With :24 remaining in the first half, Aubrey Thompson scored on a three-yard pass from Calvillo. The Aggie offense rolled up 329 total yards in the first half and produced 18 first downs. Ball State scored 10 straight points to open the third quarter, but Utah State got a 15-yard touchdown run from Grier and another TD pass from Calvillo, this time to Mike Lee good for 16 yards. Donald Toomer iced the game when he returned an interception 32 yards for a score to give the Aggies a 42-19 lead with 11:34 left. Calvillo completed 25-of-39 passes for 286 yards to earn MVP honors.

1997 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Cincinnati	35
Utah State	19

Utah State spotted Cincinnati a 28-point advantage before scoring 19 of the game's final 26 points as the Aggies fell 35-19 in the first Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, Idaho on Dec. 29, 1997. The Aggies suffered through their second-lowest offensive output of the season in both scoring (16 at Oregon State) and yardage (283 vs. New Mexico) in the game. USU did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage. USU warmed up in the second half, scoring three touchdowns in an eight minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. Steve Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas. Cincinnati's Chad Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP in the game after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards.

STAN ALBRECHT

University President

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

During his tenure as President, Albrecht has announced a comprehensive fund-raising campaign with an official fundraising goal of $200 million. In March 2008, President Albrecht announced that the university had exceeded the campaign's public phase.

In August of 2008, the campaign goal was officially doubled from $200 million to $400 million and the closing date for the campaign was extended to July 2012.

Albrecht said the campaign's success in its first year is impressive, but the real message lies outside the numbers of dollars raised.

"The real message is in the lives of our students that have been changed by the opportunities created for them as a result of the generous gifts to our scholarship programs," he said. "The real message is that we are continuing to build a university of excellence, a university of imagination, a university of promise and a university that epitomizes leadership in all senses of the term."

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Albrecht served as an administrator and professor at the University of Florida from 1993-98. He also served for 18 years at Brigham Young University (1974-92), including three years as academic vice president and associate provost. He began his career as an assistant professor of sociology at Utah State University in 1970 through 1974.

A sociologist, Albrecht has written extensively, including as a co-author of the textbooks Social Psychology and Social Science Research Methods, both published by Prentice-Hall. He has authored numerous scholarly papers on a wide range of topics, including the environment, energy development and rural health.

SCOTT BARNES

Athletics Director

Since being named Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Utah State University on March 7, 2008, Scott Barnes has worked tirelessly to improve the landscape of Aggie Athletics and has cast a vision that includes progress toward meeting many intercollegiate athletic priorities. And despite the instability within the American economy since his arrival at USU, Barnes' list of accomplishments has generated a newfound hope and excitement for USU Athletics.

During his first year on the job, Barnes has successfully negotiated several new initiatives and has created a new intercollegiate athletics-funding plan to include self-generated revenue, student fees, and future institutional support to first stabilize and then grow the annual operating budget.

Among Barnes' many accomplishments thus far at Utah State include a new student-fee referendum that will annually generate $2.1 million for Aggie Athletics. He has also overhauled USU's development operations to include a 100 percent increase in Big Blue Scholarship Fund dollars and membership over the next four years, and created a new development position within the athletics department to expand major gift and overall fund-raising efforts.

Another priority for Barnes during his first year on the job at Utah State was improving the overall look of the football program. Plenty of progress has already been made in this area as Barnes conducted a very successful football coaching search that resulted in the hiring of Gary Andersen, and has already raised over $1.2 million toward a five-year goal of $2.5 million to improve the football program through the creation of a Competitive Excellence Plan that calls for a new scheduling philosophy, increased operational support and further facilities developments.

As for facilities, Utah State continues to see constant improvement under Barnes as its new Aggie Sports Hall of Honor, located on the first floor of the new Jim & Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex, will open in the fall of 2009. Construction for a new state-of-the-art off-court facilities complex within the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum began in the summer of 2009. These enhancements include new locker rooms and lounge areas for men's and women's basketball and volleyball, and a new film room for women's basketball and volleyball.

Along with upgrades to facilities and increased donations under Barnes, Utah State also flourished athletically during the 2008-09 academic year as it claimed five Western Athletic Conference team championships – men's and women's cross country, women's soccer, men's basketball, men's outdoor track and field – which is the most in its four years in the WAC and tied for the most in a single-season in school history as USU also won five Big West Conference championships in 1994 and 1998.

During the 2008-09 seasons, Utah State claimed its first-ever women's soccer championship as it won a school record 13 matches, including a perfect 7-0 record in league play. Its men's basketball program won a school record 30 games, claimed its second-straight WAC Championship, and advanced to its 18th NCAA Tournament in school history. And its track and field/cross country programs continued to dominate the WAC as men's cross country won its fourth-straight WAC Championship, and women's cross country and men's outdoor track and field both won its second WAC Championship in the last three years.

Even more impressive than Utah State's athletic achievements during the past year are its continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom. Overall, USU's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the WAC with an 82 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.04 grade-point average. During the 2008-09 academic year, USU had 181 student-athletes earn academic all-WAC honors to lead the league, and 150 were recognized at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Utah State has also been recognized nationally under the leadership of Barnes as it was named the most economically efficient athletics department in the nation in June, 2009 following a study done by Texas A&M's Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Barnes himself has also garnered national attention as he has been selected to be a faculty member for the Division I Athletics Director Association Institute in 2009.

Prior to joining the Aggie Family, Barnes spent over two years (2005-07) as senior associate athletics director for advancement at the University of Washington and was responsible for all external operations for the athletics department with specific emphasis on fundraising, ticket sales, multi-media rights management, marketing, event promotion and communications.

Prior to working at Washington, Barnes spent six years (1999-2005) as the athletics director at Eastern Washington University. During his tenure at EWU, the Eagles experienced unparalleled success, becoming the first athletics program in Big Sky Conference history to win championships in football, men's basketball, women's volleyball and women's soccer in one calendar year. While at Eastern Washington, he hired six head coaches and witnessed four of them earn Big Sky Coach of the Year honors.

Barnes also had tremendous success at Eastern Washington increasing operating funds for the athletics department by securing the single-largest gift for athletics in EWU history for football stadium renovations and a $3 million university soft drink contract. During his time at Eastern Washington, Barnes was recognized by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) as the Division I-AA West Region AD of the Year.

Barnes began his career in athletics as the director of athletic development at the University of San Diego from 1989-90. From 1990-94, Barnes held the position of executive director of the Pacific Athletic Foundation and associate athletics director at the University of the Pacific. Barnes then spent the next four years at Iowa State University where he served as the director of athletic development from 1994-95 and then associate athletics director for development and special projects from 1995-97. Following his stint at Iowa State, Barnes served as athletics director at Humboldt State in Arcata, Calif., from 1997-99.

Barnes, 47, received his bachelor's degree from California State University, Fresno in 1986, as well as his master's degree in 1993 in physical education with an emphasis in athletic administration. He and his wife, Jody, were both student-athletes at Fresno State, as he was a member of the basketball team, while she was a member of the track team.

Barnes played professional basketball in Germany from 1985-86. He has also coached basketball at the high school and club levels and was the general manager of the Fresno Flames of the World Basketball League from 1988-89.

Barnes was born June 23, 1962 in Spokane, Wash. He and his wife have one daughter, Milanna (13) and one son, Isaac (11).

Prior to her current position, Doggett spent 11 years in the athletics department at San Diego State, from 1993-2003, including six years as an associate director of athletics. She also worked at the National Multiple Sclerosis Society San Diego Area Chapter and for the City of San Diego in the Corporate Sponsorship and Development Program.

At San Diego State she supervised all 16 of the athletic department's head coaches as well as the ticket office, marketing and promotions, financial aid, academics, compliance, event management, video production, weight and equipment rooms, sports medicine and business services.

Doggett graduated with a degree in speech communication from San Diego State University. She was born and raised in Nezperce, Idaho before moving to Visalia, Calif., for her high school years.

KEVIN DUSTIN

*Associate Athletics Director
Development
14th Year at USU*

Kevin Dustin is in his fourth year as Associate Athletics Director for Development at Utah State and 14th year overall working in the athletics department.

Prior to his current position, Dustin spent seven years as the Associate Athletics Director for External Operations. In his current role he is responsible for major gifts and capital projects for the athletic department.

Dustin began his affiliation with Utah State in 1997 as an assistant basketball coach under Larry Eustachy, and served in that capacity for two years. In 1998 the Aggies won the Big West Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1988.

Prior to coming to Utah State, he was a high school basketball coach and teacher and led Sky View (Smithfield, Utah) High School to the 1994 state championship and was named Utah 4A Coach of the Year.

Dustin graduated from Utah State University with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983 and a master's degree in education in 2000.

Born August 7, 1959 in Logan, Utah, Dustin attended North Rich High School in Laketown, Utah. He is married to Danene, who earned a master's degree from USU in 2007, and together have five children, Danielle (27), Scott (22), Shelby (19), Keaton (16) and Riley (14).

DR. BRIAN EVANS

*Associate Athletics Director
Student-Athlete Services
10th Year at USU*

Beginning his 10th year at Utah State as Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services is Dr. Brian Evans. Evans joined the USU staff in July, 2000 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Athletic Academic Services at Texas Tech from 1997-2000. Previously he was the Academic Coordinator at Montana State from 1995-97.

Evans oversees the student-athlete services unit, directing academics and certification of initial and continuing eligibility of Utah State student-athletes. He directs a staff of three full-time assistants and two graduate interns, and also oversees the gymnastics program at USU.

Under Evans' guidance, Utah State has led the Western Athletic Conference in number of academic all-league honorees in each of its four years in the league, including the 2008-09 academic year as the Aggies landed 181 student-athletes on the academic all-WAC teams. Overall, USU has led its conference in most academic all-league honorees 10 times in the last 11 years as it led the Big West Conference in 2000 and 2002-05. In 2001, the Aggies ranked second in the Big West in academic selections.

The 1987 Colorado journalism graduate, earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 1988 and a doctorate of higher education administration from Montana State in 2000.

Fourth Year at USU*

Scott Randall is entering his fourth year at Utah State as an Assistant Athletics Director for Internal Operations. Randall's primary responsibilities include game-day operations, event management and facilities oversight.

Prior to his current position at Utah State, Randall spent three years as the Senior Public Event Manager at the University of California, San Diego. He began his career in athletics at San Diego State University where he was the Assistant Director of Facilities and Operations from 1999 to 2003. While at SDSU, he was responsible for hosting the 2001 NCAA Volleyball Championships and the 2001 NCAA Men's Basketball West Regional first and second rounds.

Randall, a native of Champaign, Ill., graduated from the University of Illinois in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in history.

KENT STANLEY

*Sr. Associate Athletics Director
Development
Second Year at USU*

Kent Stanley is entering his second year at Utah State as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Development after joining the staff in July, 2008. At USU, he is responsible for the overall administration, management and supervision of athletic development and fundraising efforts, and associated personnel for the athletics department. He will also focus on planning and executing capital and annual fund initiatives for athletics in conjunction with the University foundation. Stanley also oversees the men's and women's track & field/cross country programs at USU, along with men's golf.

Prior to joining Utah State, Stanley spent two years as the Director of Athletics at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colo. While at Fort Lewis, Skyhawk teams had the most successful two-year span in school history with 12 teams making NCAA postseason play, while football won its first-ever postseason bowl game.

Stanley also increased the number of major gifts for athletics by 50 percent and increased revenue by 100 percent as he implemented a four-tiered corporate partnership model to increase partner options. He also increased licensing revenue 45 percent and increased scholarship funding for athletics by 25 percent.

Before being named Director of Athletics at Fort Lewis College, Stanley spent five years at Eastern Washington as Associate Athletics Director for Development. At EWU, he oversaw record growth in external revenue while managing the annual fund, major gifts and corporate partnerships.

Stanley began his administrative career as the chief enrollment officer at Simpson University from 2000-01. He also spent eight years as a women's basketball coach at Fresno Pacific University (1987-95) as his teams made five NAIA National Tournament appearances while winning four conference championships. He left Fresno Pacific with the most wins and highest winning percentage of any basketball coach in school history.

He also won consecutive NAIA National Championships (1999, 2000) as the head coach at Oklahoma City University and was honored as NAIA National Coach of the Year both seasons.

Stanley earned his undergraduate degree in psychology and physical education from Trinity Western University and then earned his graduate degree from Fresno State in 1988 in athletic administration.

A native of British Columbia, Canada, Stanley and his wife Hollie have two children, Zachariah (10) and Mikayla (7).

In its fourth year as a member of the Western Athletic Conference, Utah State continued its overall athletic success as its 16 varsity teams combined to win five team championships, while finishing second and fourth in five other sports. Overall, 111 Utah State student-athletes received all-WAC honors. Not only did USU prosper in athletic competition, but it also excelled in the classroom with 181 academic all-WAC selections.

Men's & Women's Cross Country - Utah State's men's cross country team won its fourth straight WAC Championship in 2008 as junior Jason Holt was named the Male Athlete of the Year, while the Aggie women won their second WAC Championship in the last three years. Head coach Gregg Gensel was also honored as he was named both the men's and women's cross country Coach of the Year. Joining Holt on the WAC's first-team list were Ben Kessen and Steve Strickland, while Dan Howell earned second-team all-WAC honors. As for the women, Ashley Johnson garnered first-team all-WAC honors, while Kim Quinn, Caroline Berry, Ruth Hilton and Alicia Holt were all second-team honorees.

Football - Utah State finished the 2008 season with a 3-8 record, including a seventh-place finish in the WAC (3-5). All three of the Aggies' wins were at home against Idaho (42-17), Hawai'i (30-14) and New Mexico State (47-2). USU had three players earn second-team all-WAC honors in senior linebacker Jake Hutton, junior linebacker Paul Igboeli, and junior offensive lineman Brennan McFadden, while 13 players earned academic all-WAC honors. Sophomore quarterback Diondre Borel also excelled as he was one of just seven players in the nation to lead their team in both rushing (632) and passing (1,705).

Volleyball - Under third-year head coach Grayson DuBose, Utah State rebounded from an 0-8 start to the season to finish with an 11-17 record and a fourth-place finish in the WAC (9-7). USU had five players earn postseason honors as senior outside hitter Melissa Osterloh was named first-team all-WAC, while sophomore middle blocker Katie Astle, sophomore setter Chelsea Fowles, and sophomore libero Christine Morrill all earned second-team all-WAC honors. Freshman outside hitter Emily Kortsen was named to the WAC's all-freshman team.

Women's Soccer - In its 13th year, Utah State's soccer program had another outstanding season as it won its first-ever regular season conference championship with a 7-0 WAC record. USU also advanced to the championship game of the WAC Tournament, losing to Fresno State, 2-1, in double-overtime. Utah State set a school record with 13 wins during the year and was the first WAC school to go undefeated in league play since SMU in 2001. USU had a school-record seven players earn all-WAC honors, while head coach Heather Cairns was named the WAC Coach of the Year. First-team players included senior Candice Clark, junior Lindsey Smart and freshman Chandra Salmon, while seniors Alyssa Lowry and Ali Griffin, sophomore Lauren Hansen and freshman Shantel Flanary all earned second-team honors. Flanary was also named the WAC's Freshman of the Year.

Men's Basketball - Led by All-American and WAC Player of the Year Gary Wilkinson, Utah State's men's basketball team won its second-straight WAC regular season championship and its first WAC Tournament championship. USU also set a school record with 30 wins during the season (30-5, 14-2), notched its 10th straight 23-win season, and advanced to its 10th straight postseason as it played Marquette in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Junior guard Jared Quayle was also honored as he earned second-team all-WAC honors and was named to the league's all-newcomer team in his first year at USU. Wilkinson was also named the MVP of the WAC Tournament, while Quayle and sophomore forward Tai Wesley were both named to the all-tournament team.

Women's Basketball - Utah State had its best season since being reinstated in 2002 as it finished the year with a 16-15 record, tied for fifth in the WAC with a 9-7 league record and won its first-ever WAC tournament games as it advanced to the semifinals. Senior guard Danyelle Snelgro became the first player ever to earn first-team all-WAC honors, while fellow senior guard Ana Pares was named to the league's second-team. Snelgro was also a member of the WAC's all-defensive team.

Gymnastics - Utah State finished the 2009 season with a sixth-place finish at the WAC Championships after posting a 1-19 record during the season. Senior Nicki Felley (all-around) and sophomore Nicole Simoneau (bars, beam) both earned second-team all-WAC honors. USU finished the year by sending five individuals (Lyndsie Boone, Jackie Dillon, Felley, Erica Huelsmann and Simoneau) to the NCAA North Central Regional meet.

Men's & Women's Tennis - Both of Utah State's tennis programs performed well during the year as the men finished with an 8-13 record, while the women were 5-20. At the 2009 WAC Championships, both programs tied for fifth after losing in the first round.

Men's Golf - Utah State's golf team had its best conference finish since 1997 as it placed fourth at the 2009 WAC Championships. Individually, seniors Devin Daniels and Tyler Labrum tied for ninth at the WAC Championships with four-over 220's to lead the Aggies.

Softball - Utah State's softball team finished the year with a 10-37 record and an eighth-place WAC finish (3-17). USU had nine players earn academic all-WAC honors.

Indoor & Outdoor Track & Field - Utah State's track and field teams had an outstanding year as the Aggie men won the WAC's outdoor championship and placed second during the indoor season, while the women finished fourth during both the indoor and outdoor seasons. During the indoor season senior John Strang (heptathlon) and sophomore Clint Silcock (high jump) both earned All-America honors, while senior Krista Larson (hammer) earned All-America honors during the outdoor season. The USU men also had the WAC Freshman of the Year during the outdoor season in Brian McKenna.

USU Athletic Hall of Fame

Following the reinstatement of the Utah State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006 with five inductees, The Hall welcomed six members in 2007 and five more in 2008, including the first team to be inducted in the 1978 National Championship Volleyball team.

In July, 2008, The Hall announced the Class of 2009 which was officially inducted in February, 2009. The newest members to Utah State's Athletic Hall of Fame are Bob Carlson, Greg Grant, Dave Kragthorpe, Tom Larscheid, Alica Nicodemus, John Pappas and Ralph Roylance to increase the number of members to 50.

The Hall was founded in 1993 with 12 initial members. In 1994 the school added eight more members and in 1995, seven more honorees were selected.

The addition of any Hall of Fame selections was stopped until 2006 when Marvin Roberts, Al Smith, Kris Stano Lilly, John Clyde Worley and Dr. John Worley were inducted in February of that year.

In its 48th year, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best intercollegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the nine schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success. The WAC has sent a total of 27 teams to bowl games since 2001, including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record-tying five teams. Boise State has won 88 football games since joining the conference, the second most in the nation during that time span (2001-08). The conference sent teams to back-to-back BCS games as Hawai'i earned a bid to the 2008 Sugar Bowl following Boise State's unforgettable victory in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 23 of the past 26 seasons. Every current school in the WAC has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003 including Fresno State's College World Series victory in 2008. In women's sports, Fresno State softball has competed in every NCAA Tournament ever held while Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three. Current WAC alums have made their presence felt as well. David Carr (Fresno State) was the first player selected in the 2002 NFL Draft. Cheryl Ford (Louisiana Tech) was named the WNBA Rookie of the Year and helped the Detroit Shock win the league's championship in 2003. In 2004, the United States' softball team won the Olympic gold medal with former Fresno State players Laura Berg and Lovie Jung. Jeff Weaver (Fresno State) earned the win in the St. Louis Cardinals' World Series clinching victory in 2006. Quarterback Colt Brennan (Hawai'i) finished third in the 2007 Heisman Trophy voting, and in 2008, Natasha Kai (Hawai'i) helped the United States to a gold medal in soccer at the Olympics in Beijing.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. An extension was signed in 2008 that guarantees over 300 regular season WAC contests and 45 championship events will be aired on the ESPN networks through the spring of 2017. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, gymnastics, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew.

The WAC has had just five commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94) and Karl Benson (1994-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

Karl Benson

WAC Commissioner

When Karl Benson was named the fifth commissioner in the history of the Western Athletic Conference on April 20, 1994, he brought with him a wealth of experience and a personal history of success to the position.

Since that time, Benson not only has laid a strong foundation for the WAC's future, he also steered the conference through unsettled times during the late 1990s and again a few years later when the defection of member institutions threatened the WAC.

Through his leadership and vision, it didn't take long for the WAC to regain its place among the nation's top Division I conferences. Benson has spearheaded conference expansion with the additions of Nevada, Boise State and Louisiana Tech earlier this decade and an additional round of expansion with the invitations of New Mexico State, Utah State and Idaho a few years ago.

Nationally, Benson has earned the respect of his peers after serving on the NCAA Management Council from 1999-2002, and a five-year term on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee from 2002-06.

Benson hit the ground running when he was hired in 1994 and initiated several programs that improved the conference's national position in virtually every category. He was instrumental in developing multi-year agreements with the Holiday Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Copper Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Silicon Valley Football Classic, GMAC Bowl and currently, the Roady's Humanitarian Bowl, Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl and New Mexico Bowl.

In the summer of 2005, he implemented "Play Up" a new marketing campaign to improve the public and private perceptions of the WAC and its members through national, local and regional touch points. The conference officially added WAC.tv prior to the 2006-07 season, giving fans streaming video access to many of the postseason championships of the sports offered by the WAC.

In 1995-96, the WAC signed an exclusive multi-year agreement with ESPN for the unprecedented live telecast of its basketball and football. Included in that deal was a women's basketball contract, the first in conference history. In 2008, Benson negotiated an extension with ESPN that gives the WAC over 300 regular season contests and 45 championship events that will be aired through the 2016-17 season.

Benson came to the WAC after four successful years as the commissioner of the Mid-American Conference. There, he implemented several innovative projects and was instrumental in the formation of the Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to taking the reins of the MAC, Benson served on the NCAA staff for more than four years where he was the director of NCAA championships when selected as MAC commissioner.

Benson joined the NCAA staff in January, 1986, as a compliance representative and was appointed assistant director of championships in June, 1987. He was promoted to director of championships in 1988. In that position, Benson actively supervised eight assistant directors in their administration of 68 NCAA championships.

A native of the state of Washington, Benson graduated from high school in Pullman in 1970, attended Spokane Falls Community College and then received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Boise State University in 1975. He has also completed course work toward his master's degree in athletics administration at the University of Utah.

Benson played baseball at both Spokane Falls Community College and Boise State University before serving as the baseball coach at Fort Steilacoom Community College in Tacoma, Wash., for eight years and as the director of athletics at Fort Steilacoom from 1979-84. From 1984-86, he was an assistant baseball coach and an administrative assistant in the athletics department at Utah.

He received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Boise State in April of 2006.

Benson was born on December 1, 1951 and has one daughter, Jessie, 17.

LB Jake Hutton (#53) earned second-team all-WAC recognition during the 2008 season... Hutton also earned second-team all-WAC accolades by Phil Steele... Additionally, Hutton was received USU's Defensive MVP Award, the Iron Eagle Award for work in the weight room, and the John Hill Award, which is presented for overcoming an injury, named after former Aggie linebacker John Hill, who was seriously injured in his freshman season of 1981 and was physically unable to play football again but stayed on scholarship and acted as student assistant coach for the team.

OL Brennan McFadden (#61) was a second-team all-WAC honoree in 2008.

LB Paul Igboeli (#31) collected second-team all-WAC accolades in 2008.

Student-Athlete services has helped me in so many ways. One of the biggest things is their communication and involvement with the professors. I've learned that communication is effective and you need to communicate with people, especially the ones who hold your academic future in their hands."

"My scholarship means a lot to me, especially after being a walk-on for the first two years I was here. I have more time for studying and learning and the extra time makes all the difference in being successful academically."

S Adrian Bybee

Pocatello, ID

Academic All-WAC

expected to graduate Dec., '09 with degree in business administration with a minor in personal financial planning

The Student-Athlete Services staff helps out as much as possible. The endless tutoring helps us student-athletes excel to our top potential in the classroom."

"Without my scholarship I wouldn't be where I am today and have a positive foundation for the rest of my life, especially after my football career is over. I am greatly appreciative of my scholarship."

S James Brindley

Grass Valley, Calif.

Academic All-WAC

expected to graduate May, '10 with degree in business finance with a minor in entrepreneurship - will pursue M.B.A.

Utah State had 13 Academic All-WAC selections for football, part of USU's 42 fall academic all-conference honors, which led the WAC.

Overall, USU had 181 student-athletes recognized by the league office for academic achievements during the 2008-09 academic year, as Utah State has led the WAC in all-conference honors all four years that it has been in the league.

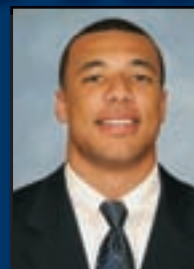

A total of 21 football players were recognized with the Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Award. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters.
