COVERING UTAH STATE

TO THE MEDIA

The 2012 Utah State football guide has been prepared to assist you in covering the Aggies this season. Additional information is available by contacting the Athletic Media Relations Office at (435) 797-3714 or through USU's web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Monday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on the Utah State University athletic web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com. This release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service on Monday.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Gary Andersen will hold a press conference in Logan each Monday during the season at 11:30 a.m. on the second floor of The Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. Selected players will also be available at the press conference. Quotes from the press conference will be available on USU's web site (www.UtahStateAggies.com) each Monday afternoon and will also be e-mailed per request.

WAC TELECONFERENCES

Each Monday during the season, the Western Athletic Conference will host a weekly media teleconference featuring the head coach from each team. Gary Andersen will be on the call from 11-11:07 a.m. Contact the conference office at (303) 799-9221 for a complete schedule.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Utah State players and coaches should be made directly through the Athletic Media Relations Office (435) 797-3714 and should be made at least one day in advance. The best time for player interviews is before or after practice, while head coach Gary Andersen should be available in the mornings as well as before or after practice. Player interviews will be conducted through Wednesday each game week.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

PARKING

Credentialed media will be allowed access to the parking lot on the west side of the stadium (Blue Lot). A parking pass is required for admittance to that area and should be requested at least one week in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Access to the press box is limited to those with working credentials. A pregame meal will be served approximately one hour prior to kickoff.

Game programs, game notes and flip cards will be provided prior to the game. Statistics and play-by-play information will be provided during the game. At the conclusion of the game a complete statistical book, typed quotes and postgame notes will be available.

Final game statistics will be e-mailed to media requesting the service.

Wireless internet will be available to media at the game. A limited number of telephones will also be available in the press box on a first-come, first-serve basis. Requests for personal phones should be made through USU Telephone Services at (435) 797-3201 at least one week prior to the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' ACCESS

Photographers are allowed to shoot on the sidelines outside the team bench area (team bench areas are between the 25-yard lines). Photographers must remain outside of the team bench area. Photographers may also shoot from the photo decks on top of or below the Romney Stadium press box. Team rosters are provided in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Utah State locker room is closed to the media on game days. Postgame interviews will take place after a brief cooling off period in the Spelman Auditorium, located on the second floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Spelman Auditorium has wireless internet, so media can file their stories from there or return to the press box.

ELECTRONIC SERVICES

ON THE AIR

Utah State football games are broadcast on KVNU (610 AM/102.1 FM) and KLZX (95.9 FM) in Logan, KZNS (97.5 FM) in Salt Lake City, KZNU (1450 AM) in St. George, KVEL (920 AM) in Vernal, KRPX (95.3 FM) in Price, and KLZX (105.3 FM) in Montpelier, Idaho, as well as on the internet at www.UtahStateAggies.com. Al Lewis serves as the play-by-play announcer while Craig Hislop serves as the analyst.

GARY ANDERSEN ON THE AIR

The Gary Andersen radio show, hosted by Lewis, and held at various locations each week, will be broadcast on Thursdays on KVNU, from approximately 6-7 p.m.

ON THE INTERNET

All of Utah State's home games, along with selected Western Athletic Conference games are available to view live via the internet by clicking on the "Watch Live" links at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

GAMETRACKER

Aggie fans will be able to follow Utah State home games through the USU web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com, via GameTracker, a program that documents each play and updates statistics.

DIRECTIONS TO LOGAN

Logan, Utah is home to Utah State University and is located approximately 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. From Salt Lake International Airport: Take I-80 East out of the airport to 215 North, which will run into I-15 North. Follow I-15 North to exit 362 (Highway 89-91) at Brigham City. Follow Highway 89 into Logan, where it becomes Main Street. Stay on Main Street until you reach 1000 North and turn right. Turn left at 800 East and the football stadium will be on your right. The parking lot is located on the west side of the stadium just off 800 East.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials for media members are issued at the discretion of the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Daily newspapers regularly covering Utah State University, the current opponent or another WAC school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
2. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
3. Officially recognized Utah State University student publications or student electronic media outlets.
4. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
5. Non-originating radio and television.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

- Utah State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information.
- Credentials will be issued to web sites that are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsportsline.com, etc., non-conference opponents, and for the Western Athletic Conference.
- Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
- Utah State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- All credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

MERLIN OLSEN FIELD

To honor one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history, Utah State University named the playing field inside Romney Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field," making the announcement at halftime of a men's basketball game in December, 2009. Olsen was in attendance for the ceremony. He passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010 after a courageous battle with cancer.

An official dedication ceremony took place on Oct. 23, 2010 as part of Homecoming festivities in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Utah State's 1960 Sun Bowl Team, led by Olsen. During the official dedication of Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium, a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Olsen, which was sculpted by nationally renowned artist Blair Buswell, was unveiled in the southeast corner of the stadium.

Named for E.L. "Dick" Romney, Utah State's all-time winningest football coach and former athletics director, Romney Stadium was officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Romney Stadium history came on Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12.

There has been one major stadium addition since 1969. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl which brought the capacity of the stadium to 25,513.

Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chairback seats replaced wooden bleachers on the west side of the stadium.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003, that project expanded to the upper sections.

Prior to the 2005 season, a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north endzone complex was torn down and replaced with a three-story, 55,000 square foot facility. The Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex serves to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility houses the Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Hall of Honor, J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room, locker rooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms, luxury suites, a student-athlete academic center and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor.

In December 2009, USU Athletics renamed the playing field inside Romney Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field."

In the summer of 2012, the synthetic Sprinturf, which was installed in 2004, was replaced with a state-of-the-art AstroTurf. The Sprinturf was installed in 2004 replacing the existing bent bluegrass field.

A future phase of improvement will include a new press box and luxury suites on the west side of the stadium.

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The glass-enclosed press box, located on the stadium's west side, was renovated in 1997 and features closed-circuit television monitors for replays. The press box can comfortably accommodate 36 writers with facilities for radio and TV broadcasters.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Romney Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball, gymnastics and volleyball teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of Coach Romney's lasting contributions to Utah State football. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships, compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). Utah State played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Over the past 44 seasons, Utah State has compiled a 115-95 mark (.548 winning percentage) in Romney Stadium. Only 13 times in the 44-year history of the stadium has Utah State experienced a losing record at home.

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Romney Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's student section, known simply as The HURD, supports the Aggies football team every home game. The HURD is Utah State's spirit club for all athletics. It is currently the largest club of Aggie students at Utah State. The HURD attends Coach's Shows, sports nights, tailgate parties, pre, post and away-game parties, pep-rallies, and even road trips are just some of the activities that The HURD provides at least once a week for all of its members.

Show 'Em Your "A"
In 1909, the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

Utah State will be taking the field for the 114th season of football in 120 years in 2012. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892 and defeated intra-state rival Utah, 12-0.

GAME DAY

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories. USU adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggieettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities. The USU Pep Band leads the Spirit Squad and the crowd with the "Hail The Utah Aggies," "The Scotsman" and other musical selections.

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890's.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
Utah State, Hey!
Aggies all the way!
Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
Hey! Hey! Hey!

UTAH STATE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING MISSION STATEMENT:

"The Utah State Strength & Conditioning Department plays a critical role in the development of the student-athlete. Each training program is designed to improve athletic performance by decreasing the risk of injury through increasing strength, power, speed and conditioning to the proper levels for each athlete and sport. This is achieved through performing a needs analysis for each sport which looks at energy system demands, force patterns, planes of movement, muscle contraction/fiber usage, and force vectors leading to a program which provides high sport correspondence. Areas of pre-habilitation, mobility/flexibility, nutrition and mental toughness are also addressed to provide a balanced all around training program. With all training programs the welfare of our student-athletes is the first thing addressed. As an Aggie in the strength and conditioning program, you will be challenged at all times to become a better person and athlete."

– Evan Simon, Strength & Conditioning Head Coach

JR OL JAMIE MARKOSIAN
Salt Lake City, Utah

"Our weight room along with our strength and conditioning services are great. The staff does a great job of keeping us motivated and mixing things up with different workouts. They inspire us to compete against ourselves to improve and get bigger, faster and stronger."

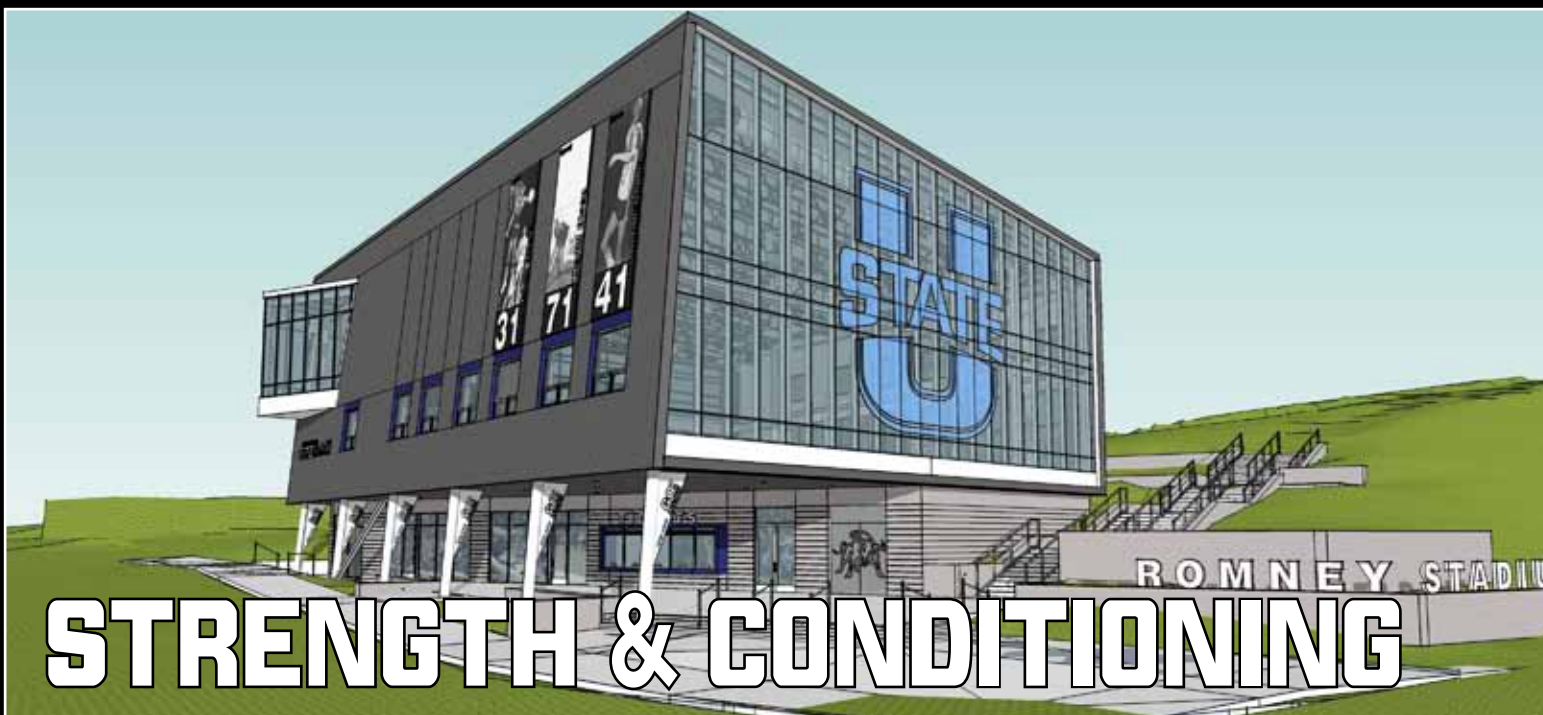

"We lift together as position groups, working together for one common goal, to get better each and every day. The strength and conditioning staff cover all aspects of improvement, from lifting to conditioning to eating right, doing everything they can to help us get better."

Scheduled for completion in April 2013, Utah State's new $6.4 million, 21,000 square-foot strength and conditioning center will feature areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Romney Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility will alleviate overcrowding in the existing 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and will accommodate almost 400 athletes from 16 sports programs.

When the building opens it will be the largest such facility in the Mountain West Conference and rival any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State will be competing against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai'i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San Jose State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

The three-story, 69,000 square-foot, Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex is a state-of-the-art multi-purpose facility that meets all of the athletic and academic needs of Utah State's 16 sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Within the facility, which was completed in the summer of 2008, is the 11,000 square foot Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Athletics Hall of Honor and the 7,000 square-foot J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room. Also located on the first floor is locker rooms for football, The second floor houses coaches offices and meeting rooms for football, including a 120-seat auditorium, and the student-athlete academics center is located on the third floor which includes numerous study hall and tutor areas, a computer lab and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academics Hall of Honor.

The Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center is one of the finest in the nation with over 11,000 square feet to provide maximum service to Utah State's 16 intercollegiate sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Among the many amenities are 24 treatment tables, a 2,000 square foot physical therapy and rehabilitation center, and three hydrotherapy pools for non-weight or partial weight-bearing rehabilitation to enhance recovery. The Sports Medicine Complex also houses office space for three full-time staff members and 12 graduate assistants, a team physician examination room and physical therapy office.

With the addition of the new facilities and the continued cooperation between Utah State Athletics, Intermountain HealthCare and HPER/Exercise Science, Utah State University is becoming one of the foremost sports medicine research institutions in the intermountain west.

Monrovia, Calif.

"Our athletic training staff is fantastic. Throughout the recovery from my injury, they worked with me a lot with physical therapy and treatments. They stay on top of student-athletes and are as dedicated to taking care of us as the coaches are. They'll call us and remind us about our appointments and treatments. They're very on top of things."

"They helped me a lot recover from my injury and got me back on my feet running and working out and were there for me with anything and everything I needed."

"The athletic training facilities are among the best around. They have everything that athletes need to recover and get back to playing faster. The water pool is fantastic. It's fun and you get a rehab workout in at the same time. They're always updating things and staying up with the different treatments. They're top notch."

Behind it, a row of wooden lockers is visible, some with football jerseys hanging on them. To the right, a wall is decorated with a large blue and white banner that reads "UTAH STATE FOOTBALL". Below the banner, there is a large flat-screen TV displaying a logo with a red heart and the letters "LC". To the left of the TV, there are two smaller posters: one titled "BALL SECURITY" and another titled "PLAN TO WIN". To the right of the TV, there is a poster titled "CORE VALUES" with a list of principles. A small wooden shelf with two black speakers sits on the floor in front of the TV. The room has a drop ceiling with square light fixtures.

Utah State University's football team revealed its full line of 2012 Nike uniforms along with the school's new logos on Saturday, April 28, 2012 as part of the athletic department's new brand and identity program. In all, Utah State will have nine different jersey and pant combinations manufactured by Nike, to go along with two different helmet options for a total of 18 different uniform combinations. Along with its traditional Blue and White uniforms, a new 'Pewter' uniform was also unveiled. Two helmet options were displayed as well including a new diamond pattern blue and black helmet with a black face mask, along with its traditional white helmet with a blue face mask. Utah State's helmets, which feature the new 'U-State' logo are manufactured by Schutt and Riddell.

Home uniform options feature a traditional combination of blue jersey with blue or white pants, as well as an option of blue jersey and pewter pants. Road uniform combinations can be built around the newly-designed pewter jersey for 2012 or the traditional white jersey. The road pewter jerseys can be combined with pewter, blue or white pants, while white jerseys can be worn with white, blue or pewter pants.

Both helmet options will also be utilized with the various uniform combinations for both home and away games.

The new "UTAH STATE" wordmark is featured in Pewter letters on the home jersey, while blue letters are displayed on the white and pewter jerseys. All jerseys feature the distinctive Nike "Swoosh" on the left front shoulder. All pants feature the Nike "Swoosh" at the top of the right leg, while Utah State's new secondary bull mark is displayed at the top of the left leg.

The third floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex houses the academic center for student-athletes. This center consists of a 24-unit computer center, a spacious study center, and several individual one-on-one tutor rooms. Additionally, there are three smaller classrooms that can be used for group study sessions, group tutoring, tutor meetings, and general meeting and study needs. Two of the classrooms can be opened to create one larger classroom. All classrooms have television monitors installed and have data connectivity for PowerPoint, internet and other useful presentations. The study center is completely wireless for student-athletes to connect to the internet anywhere in the facility, but also has sub-floor electrical and data connections throughout. The student-athlete services staff are also housed within the academic center.

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration, academic advising and career counseling.

Three-time Academic All-WAC (2008, 2009, 2010) - only the 11th player in USU history to be a three-time academic all-conference selection

The Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor opened in September of 2010. Inside the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor are four permanent displays to feature CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Award winners, current academic all-WAC honorees and current Aggie Athletics Endowed Scholarships donors and recipients.

"The student-athlete services offices provides student-athletes with all the help that we need to have success in the classroom. They provide us with tutors and help for every class. They do a great job of keeping up with everything and making sure that we take care of our business in the classroom. The staff is tremendous and they give us a ton of support and make sure that we succeed academically. It's something that we as Utah State student-athletes and Utah State football players are very privileged to have."

For the seventh-straight year, Utah State led the Western Athletic Conference in number of academic all-league honorees as the Aggies landed 185 student-athletes on the academic all-WAC teams in 2011-12. Overall, it is the 13th time in the last 14 years that Utah State has had the most academic all-league honorees as it led the Big West Conference in 2000 and 2002-05, and in each of its seven years in the WAC (2006-12). In 2001, the Aggies ranked second in the Big West in academic selections. Utah State's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the Western Athletic Conference with an 84 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.17 grade-point average. Additionally, Utah State's athletics department recognized 197 student-athletes for achieving a 3.2 grade point average at the 18th annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Luncheon. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters. In all, approximately 51 percent of USU's student-athletes earned a 3.2 GPA to qualify for the awards.

The Utah State Student-Athlete Services office administers USU's NCAA Student-Athlete Affairs: Life Skills program and coordinates Aggie Ambassadors, Utah State's student-athlete outreach program.

Additionally, the office works with USU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and Student-Athlete Mentors Program (SAMs).

USU's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program has guest speakers who address student-athletes, as well as several community service projects and group activities throughout the year, including working with local elementary schools.

"It is very important to me to give back to the community, and help people that need to be helped. I think it is great that we are able to support the people that support us and show our appreciation for their support."

Utah State's football team performs several community service projects, including "Walk A Mile In Her Shoes," and participating in the annual Truck Pull to benefit Special Olympics. Members of the football team also participate in several community activities, including parades and reading at elementary schools.

Elmer "Bear" Ward was Utah State's first-ever first-team All-American in 1934 as named by the Newspaper Enterprise of America.

Coach E.L. "Dick" Romney led the Aggies from 1919-42 and 1944-48, compiling a 128-91-16 record in 29 seasons. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a coach.

Brothers and Logan natives Phil and Merlin Olsen were both consensus All-Americans for the Aggies. Phil (#72) was selected in 1969, while Merlin was selected in 1961. The brothers both played in the NFL and were teammates for the Los Angeles Rams from 1971-74.

Utah State University honored one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history with the unveiling of a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Merlin Olsen on Oct. 23, 2010 with a special ceremony on the South Plaza of Romney Stadium prior to USU's Homecoming football game against Hawai'i. A large crowd attended the ceremony, featuring Olsen's family, friends, former teammates and former USU players among the dignitaries in attendance. Guest speakers for the ceremony included USU President Dr. Stan Albrecht, USU Director of Athletics Scott Barnes, Steven Perry from the National Football Foundation, the statue's sculptor Blair Buswell, Douglas Mayberry, who was one of Olsen's USU teammates, along with Olsen's widow, Susan. Perry noted that the Super Bowl Pro Football Hall of Fame Luncheon, held the Friday prior to the Super Bowl, will be named after Olsen, one of only two Hall of Fame events named after former players. Buswell singled out his time spent with Olsen while working on the statue, noting that Olsen wanted the sculpture to show his pride in Utah State and Logan. Mayberry told a story about Olsen's hospitality before nearly knocking off your chin strap, noting the only time he saw Olsen relax was when he scored a rushing touchdown. Susan Olsen thanked Olsen's former teammates, friends and the University for their support of the family. She also read a eulogy written by Merlin Olsen prior to his death that wasn't found until after his passing, which talked about Merlin's appreciation of the love and concern from his supporters, former teammates and family throughout his time growing up in Logan, at Utah State, in the NFL and his broadcasting and acting career.

NFL Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, the greatest athlete in Utah State University history, passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010 after a courageous battle with cancer. Olsen was a three-year letterman on the offensive and defensive lines for Utah State's football team from 1959-61, earning All-American honors during both his junior and senior seasons. During his senior season in 1961, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior defensive lineman. Olsen also was a three-time academic All-American at Utah State and graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Kappa Phi in 1962 with a degree in finance.

Merlin Olsen's statue was created by nationally renowned Utah artist Blair Buswell and is 25 percent larger than Olsen's 6'4" frame. When mounted on its base the statue is over 11 feet high. The statue depicts Olsen during his college playing days at Utah State, in full uniform and pads, with his helmet under his arm. The base of the statue is adorned with two plaques. One lists many of Olsen's accomplishments as a college and pro football player, as an actor and member of the media, and as a philanthropist and humanitarian. The other plaque lists Olsen's personal mission statement, an inspiring list of Olsen's personal priorities. Additionally a list of all donors to the Merlin Olsen Field Campaign whose gifts were received prior to August 1, 2010 are mounted adjacent to the statue base. The statue, when set on its base, has at least one unique element. According to Google maps, Olsen's gaze directly faces toward the Olsen family home in Logan where he grew up, roughly two miles in a direct line from where the statue rests. In preparation for the statue to be installed a small courtyard was created with seating areas for contemplation. The block cement was used to convey Olsen's personal strength, and the vertical columns represent his personal mission to celebrate others.

The Merlin Olsen Field Campaign began on December 5, 2009 when Aggie legend Merlin Olsen was introduced before a packed Dee Glen Smith Spectrum basketball crowd. Director of Athletics Scott Barnes announced that "from this point forward the field at Romney Stadium will be named Merlin Olsen Field." The Merlin Olsen Field Campaign raised over $600,000. These funds will start an endowed scholarship in the name of Merlin and Susan Olsen, support the Football Competitive Excellence Fund, and allowed for the creation of a bronze statue of Aggie legend Merlin Olsen.

As part of Homecoming 2010, the final two Utah State teams Merlin played on (1960, 1961), were honored as Grand Marshals. The greatest two-year stretch in Utah State Football history was in 1960 and 1961, when these two teams, led by head coach John Ralston, combined for an 18-3-1 record and claimed back-to-back co-Skyline Conference Championships. The 1960 team (pictured below) finished the year 9-2 and played in the Sun Bowl, while the 1961 squad went 9-1-1 and played in the Gotham Bowl. That 1961 team featured Olsen at senior tackle, a consensus first-team All-American and the 1961 Outland Trophy winner. Almost two dozen other members of these teams played professional football in either the NFL or CFL. Roughly 30 of the players and coaches from those teams took part in the weekend's ceremonies and Homecoming activities.

THIS IS UTAH STATE... Aggie Hall of Honor

Utah State University's Athletics Department unveiled the Steve Mothersell Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor on Sept. 26, 2009. In all, approximately 150 Aggie alumni and friends donated to the 1,800 square-foot Hall of Honor including 115 former student-athletes. The Hall of Honor is housed on the first floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex, which is located in the north end zone of Romney Stadium. Inside Utah State's Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor, fans will find various displays and trophy cases celebrating over 100 years of Aggie sports history. Among the items displayed within the venue are trophies from the 1978 national championship volleyball team, and the 1980 and 1981 national championship softball teams. Other items on display include the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl II championship trophy, the 1961 Outland Trophy presented to Merlin Olsen as the nation's top defensive lineman and a discus donated by L. Jay Silvester from the 1968 Summer Olympics held in Mexico City. As fans tour the Hall of Honor, they will see exhibits displaying Utah State's 16 current sports, a display honoring its past sports and a display highlighting some "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics. Fans will also see a display paying tribute to those select few former Aggie Greats who are now members of USU's Hall of Fame, the most prestigious honor afforded an Aggie athlete. Another key feature within the venue are two interactive video displays that will give fans an opportunity to watch video highlights of "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics as well as highlights of members of USU's Hall of Fame.

HALL OF HONOR

Starting in 2010, USU had former players serve as Honorary Captains for each home game. They were introduced to the crowd prior to the coin toss, and accompanied the Aggie Captains to the coin toss, and a reserved space on the Aggie sideline.

Following USU's 2010 Spring Game, numerous alumni were on hand to meet and speak to the 2010 Aggie team, telling them stories and giving them advice and wisdom on football, school and life. Additionally, USU head coach Gary Andersen had three legendary coaches, including USU alumni Dave Kragthorpe and LaVell Edwards, along with Utah Jazz legendary coach Frank Layden. On separate occasions, the legendary coaches watched practice, worked with USU coaches and players and spoke to the team.

Utah State's annual Pro Timing Day regularly draws a number NFL scouts, monitoring and evaluating the Aggies' pro prospects.

In the last eight years, over a dozen Aggies have signed free agent contracts with NFL teams. In 2003, Kevin Curtis was the 74th overall pick, going to St. Louis in the third round. Chris Cooley was the 81st overall pick by Washington in 2004. Two Aggies were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft, in Shawn Murphy and Kevin Robinson. Murphy, an offensive guard, was picked by Miami in the fourth round as the 110th overall selection, while Robinson, a wide receiver and kick returner, was selected by Kansas City in the sixth round with the 182nd pick overall. In the summer of 2009, Rob Myers signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets while safety De'von Hall inked a free agent deal with the Minnesota Vikings. In the spring of 2010, James Brindley signed a free agent deal with the Seattle Seahawks. In 2011, Cornerback Curtis Marsh was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles with the 26th pick of the third round, the 90th overall selection, and in 2012, Utah State had three players selected in the NFL Draft as Bobby Wagner was chosen in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks, Robert Turbin was selected in the fourth round (106) by the Seattle Seahawks and Michael Smith was taken in the seventh round (212) by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Tarren Lloyd also signed a free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers.

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Since its founding in 1888, Utah State University, located in Logan, Utah, has evolved from a small, agricultural college to one that is nationally and internationally recognized for its intellectual and technological leadership in land, water, space and life enhancement. As Utah's land grant institution, the university has 850 faculty who provide education for more than 25,000 undergraduate and graduate students. With eight colleges, more than 200 majors and 130 research-related classes, Utah State counts seventeen Goldwater Scholars and a Rhodes Scholar among its graduates in the past ten years.

CAMPUS

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

LOGAN / CACHE VALLEY

Fifteen national parks, including Zion, Arches and Yellowstone are within a day's drive of Logan.

Salt Lake City is home to four professional teams, including the NBA's Utah Jazz and the MLS' Real Salt Lake, who began play in 2005 and won the MLS Cup in 2009. The Bees are the Triple-A affiliate of the Anaheim Angels, and the Utah Grizzlies are part of the Elite Competition Hockey League. The Bees were host to the 2011 Triple-A All-Star Game in July.

Salt Lake City combines the amenities of a major metropolitan area with the friendliness of a small, western city. Hosting the Olympic Winter Games of 2002 enhanced the community's profile as a world-class travel destination.

Eleven airlines serve Salt Lake International Airport, offering nonstop service to more than 68 destinations. By air, more than half the U.S. population is within 2 1/2 hours.

OVERVIEW

After playing in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, its first bowl game since 1997, Utah State football is looking to build upon that success under fourth year head coach Gary Andersen with a plethora of returning talent to go along with yet another highly-touted recruiting class.

In 2012, its final season in the Western Athletic Conference, Utah State has its sights set not only a league championship but another bowl appearance as well which would mark just the second time in school history that USU has played in consecutive bowl game, joining the 1960 Sun Bowl and 1961 Gotham Bowl teams.

To achieve its goals during the 2012 season, Coach Andersen will look to a roster that returns 48 lettermen (20-offense; 22-defense; 6-special teams) and 19 starters (8-offense; 6-defense; 5-special teams) from a 2011 team that won its final five regular season games to finish with a 7-6 record and a 5-2 WAC mark to tie for second in the league.

QUARTERBACKS

Utah State is in a position it has quite possibly never been in before under center with the return of two tested and proven starting quarterbacks in sophomore Chuckie Keeton and senior Adam Kennedy.

Keeton, who became the first-ever true freshman to start at quarterback for Utah State in last season's opener at defending BCS National Champion Auburn, started the first eight games of the year before suffering an injury at Hawai'i. Kennedy then started the final five games of the season and led Utah State to five-straight WAC wins and its first bowl game since 1997.

As a true freshman, Keeton completed 60.9 percent of his passes (106-174) for 1,200 yards (133.3 ypg) and 11 touchdowns with just two interceptions in nine games. The freshman signal-caller also finished fourth on the team in rushing with 293 yards on 68 carries (4.3 ypc) with four touchdowns. Keeton finished the year ranking fourth in the WAC and 46th in the FBS with a passing efficiency rating of 137.41. In his first-ever start, Keeton was named Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week as he was 21-of-30 passing for 213 yards, to go along with 33 rushing yards and two touchdowns in Utah State's 42-38 loss at No. 19 Auburn. Four games later, Keeton was named an honorable mention national Quarterback of the Week by CollegeFootballPerformance.com and the WAC's Player of the Week as he threw for 228 yards on 15-of-20 passing and a school-record tying five touchdowns in the Aggies' dominating 63-19 home win against Wyoming.

K. Williams

Kennedy completed 69.1 percent of his passes (76-110) for 972 yards (121.5 ypg) with 11 touchdowns and just four interceptions as a junior college transfer. He was also fifth on the team in rushing with 239 yards on 55 carries (4.3 ypc). Kennedy would have led the conference and ranked fifth in the country in passing efficiency at 169.04 percent but did not meet the required minimum of 15 attempts per game.

Under Keeton and Kennedy's signal-calling in 2011, Utah State established new offensive school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

Joining Utah State's two proven starters here are will be a high school standout in Jeff Manning who was named the Region 11 Offensive MVP as a senior at Logan (Utah) High School in 2008, before serving a two-year LDS Church Mission.

RUNNING BACKS

Utah State's running game in 2011 proved to be unstoppable at times and statistically was the best-ever in school history, setting USU records for rushing yards (3,675) and finishing second all-time in rushing touchdowns (37).

Unfortunately, Utah State must replace its two most productive backs here from a year ago in 2012 NFL Draft selections Robert Turbin (Seattle Seahawks) and Michael Smith (Tampa Bay Buccaneers). Turbin ended his junior season as the WAC's Offensive Player of the Year, while Smith was USU's Offensive MVP in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, along with earning Offensive MVP honors for the North squad in the Players All-Star Classic.

Despite losing its two most productive backs from the 2011 season, Utah State still boasts plenty of backfield talent on its roster this fall in senior Kerwynn Williams, junior Robert Marshall and sophomore Joe Hill. Williams, who has played in 36 games, including five starts in his first three years on campus, has career totals of 164 carries for 1,003 yards (6.1 ypc) with seven touchdowns. Marshall has played in 22 games as an Aggie and has rushed for 207 yards on 46 attempts (4.5 ypc) with two touchdowns, while Hill saw action in seven games as a redshirt freshman in 2011 and finished the year with 24 yards on seven carries (3.4 ypc) with one score.

TIGHT ENDS

Despite the graduation of Tarren Lloyd, who started 10 games at tight end a year ago and earned second-team all-WAC honors, Utah State returns an outstanding crop of talent here highlighted by the return of arguably one of the best tight ends in the WAC in senior Kellen Bartlett, who was forced to redshirt in 2011 following an injury. As a junior in 2010, Bartlett caught 15 passes for 222 yards, including five receptions for 121 yards, both single-game career-highs, at Nevada (10/30/10). For his career, Bartlett has appeared in 30 games for Utah State with 11 starts.

Utah State has another talented tight end who could also emerge as one of the best in the WAC at his position in junior D.J. Tialavea. Tialavea caught seven passes for 74 yards (10.6 ypc) with one touchdown as a sophomore appearing in all 13 games and has played in 22 games during his Aggie career.

Joining Bartlett and Tialavea here is junior Brad Theurer and sophomore Keegan Andersen. Theurer has played in 18 games during his first two years in the program and Andersen played in all 13 games as a redshirt freshman catching one pass for six yards.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Much like the quarterback position, Utah State returns an abundance of talent and experience at wide receiver in 2012 highlighted by a pair of seniors in Matt Austin and Chuck Jacobs.

In 2011, Austin led Utah State with 34 receptions for 465 yards (13.7 ypc) with six touchdowns, including game-winners in the final minute against both San Jose State and New Mexico State. Jacobs ended the season with 20 receptions for 218 yards (10.9 ypc) and two touchdowns, while also carrying the ball seven times for 49 yards (7.0 ypc).

With the experience of Austin and Jacobs returning, Utah State must still replace a pair of productive wideouts from a year ago in Stanley Morrison and Eric Moats, who combined for 46 receptions for 631 yards and four touchdowns.

Other returning letterwinners who are expected to provide significant contributions in 2012 include juniors Travis Reynolds and Travis Van Leeuwen and redshirt freshman Brandon Swindall. Reynolds has played in 17 games in his first two years at Utah State and has caught 12 passes for 100 yards (8.3 ypc),

C. Jacobs

while Van Leeuwen has appeared in 23 games overall with 31 catches for 385 yards (12.4 ypc) to go along with two touchdowns. As a prep senior in 2010 at Millwood High School in Oklahoma City, Okla., Swindall was named a Parade All-American with 46 catches for 1,204 yards (26.2 ypc) with 17 touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Another strength for Utah State heading into the 2012 season will be at offensive line as it returns three starters and four lettermen from last year's team and that quartet has combined for 65 career starts and 95 career games played while at USU.

Headlining this group is junior center Tyler Larsen who is on the preseason Rimington Trophy Watch list for the second consecutive season after earning first-team all-WAC honors as a sophomore. Overall, Larsen has started all 25 games during his collegiate career.

Joining Larsen as returning starters on the offensive line in 2012 are senior right tackle Oscar Molina-Sanchez who has started 20 games (13 consecutive) and played in 28 during his Aggie career, and junior right guard Eric Schultz who has started 19 consecutive games and played in 24 overall. Joining this group of veterans is junior guard Jaime Markosian who started one game a year ago, but played in all 13 at both guard and tackle.

Gone from this group are a trio of four-year lettermen in Funaki Asisi, Philip Gapelu (who earned first-team all-WAC honors in 2011) and Robert Hill, and the leading candidates to fill the void on the left side of the line are Markosian at guard and redshirt sophomore Kevin Whimpey at tackle. Other players here with experience in the program include sophomores Josh Larmay and Bryce Walker, and freshmen Taani Fislau and Jordan Mattinson who both redshirted a year ago, while junior Kyle Whimpey was on the team but did not play. Another player who figures into the mix here will be true freshman Logan Molohifo'u who participated in spring practice after returning from an LDS Church Mission.

OFFENSIVE NOTABLES

* Utah State established school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60) during the 2011 season. Furthermore, USU's 37 rushing touchdowns in 2011 were the second-most in school history trailing the 1961 team who still holds the school record at 39.

* Utah State averaged 282.7 rushing yards per game in 2011 to rank second all-time in school history behind the 1960 team that averaged 312.0 rushing yards per game. USU also averaged 457.3 total yards of offense in 2011 to also rank second all-time in school history behind the 1996 team that averaged 468.5 yards of total offense per game. And finally, USU's 33.6 points per game average in 2011 tied the 1997 team for second all-time in school history behind the 1961 team that averaged 38.7 points per game.

* Utah State returns one all-WAC player from the 2011 season in junior center Tyler Larsen. Larsen earned first-team all-conference honors as a sophomore and has also been named to the Rimington Trophy Watch list twice in his career.

* In his first-ever start, freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton was named Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week as he was 21-of-30 passing for 213 yards, to go along with 33 rushing yards and two touchdowns in Utah State's 42-38 loss at No. 19 Auburn. Four games later, Keeton was named an honorable mention national Quarterback of the Week by CollegeFootballPerformance.com and the WAC's Player of the Week as he threw for 228 yards on 15-of-20 passing and a school-record tying five touchdowns in the Aggies' dominating 63-19 home win against Wyoming.

* Junior running back Robert Turbin was named the WAC's Offensive Player of the Year, marking the first time in its seven years in the league and just the second time in school history that USU has had an offensive player of the year in its league joining Kendall Smith (WR) who was the Big West Conference Offensive MVP in 1988.

* Utah State had two running backs selected in the 2012 NFL Draft as Robert Turbin was chosen in the fourth round (106) by the Seattle Seahawks and Michael Smith was picked in the seventh round (212) by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

* Utah State made some changes to its offensive coaching staff following the 2011 season as quarterbacks coach Matt Wells was promoted to offensive coordinator, replacing Dave Baldwin, and former UNLV head coach Mike Sanford was hired as an assistant head coach working with the running backs and tight ends.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Probably the biggest question mark and concern heading into fall camp is at defensive line after the graduation of a pair of key contributors here in Quinn Garner and Levi Koskan. Garner, who started 12 games up front in 2011, finished the year with 31 total tackles, including 5.0 for loss to go along with two sacks. Koskan, who played in 47 games during his Aggie career, earned second-team all-WAC honors as a senior after recording 27 tackles, including 10.0 for loss to go along with a team-leading 5.5 sacks to rank eighth in the WAC.

Despite the loss of Garner and Koskan, Utah State does welcome back some experience and plenty of size on the defensive front highlighted by the return of senior Al Lapuaho who started 12 games at end a year ago and finished the season with 31 tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one quarterback sack.

Joining Lapuaho as returning letterwinners here include senior Havea Lasike, junior Connor Williams, and sophomores B.J. Larsen, Elvis Kamana-Matagi and Tevita Vaifo'ou. Lasike and Williams both played in all 13 games in 2011 as Lasike registered 17 tackles to go along with 1.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks, while Williams finished the year with 28 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. Vaifo'ou also played in all 13 games for Utah State a year ago and had nine tackles to go along with 0.5 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery.

Utah State will also look to a pair of redshirts to provide significant contributions here in freshmen Travis Seefeldt and Jordan Nielsen.

During the 2011 season, Utah State's defense ended the year ranking first in the WAC and 50th in the nation in total defense (366.23 ypg), second in the WAC and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.70 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd nationally in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (125.58), and third in the WAC and 59th in the nation in sacks (1.92 pg).

LINEBACKERS

Utah State must replace its best defensive player at one of its inside linebacker positions in Bobby Wagner who ended his Aggie career with 446 career tackles to rank first all-time in the WAC and tied for first all-time in school history. Wagner, who was drafted in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks, earned first-team all-WAC honors in 2011 as he led the league and ranked eighth in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in tackles with 11.3 per game, ranking tied for third in the FBS in total tackles with 147. Wagner also led the team with 11.5 tackles for loss and two interceptions as a senior to go along with 4.0 sacks.

Also gone here is Kyle Gallagher who played in 49 games during his career, including 33 starts. As a senior, Gallagher ranked second on the team with 100 tackles to go along with 4.0 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks and one interception.

Even with the loss of Wagner and Gallagher, Utah State appears to be well-equipped to continue to excel at linebacker with a plethora of talent.

Highlighting Utah State's linebacker group in 2012 will be senior Bojay Filimoeatu who is moving from the defensive line to an outside linebacker position for his senior season. As a down lineman during his junior campaign, Filimoeatu started all 13 games and ended the season with 41 tackles, including 11.0 for loss to go along with 3.0 sacks and one fumble recovery.

Another starter returning here is sophomore Tavaris McMillian who played in all 13 games a year ago with seven starts and registered 45 total tackles including 7.5 for loss.

Other letterwinners returning at the linebacker position include senior Forrest Dabb, juniors Jake Doughty and Zach Vigil, and sophomore Parker Hausknecht.

Doughty saw action in all 13 games in 2011 and posted 26 total tackles to go along with 3.0 tackles for loss. Dabb also appeared in all 13 games and had five tackles, while Vigil played in four games and recorded four tackles to go along with 1.0 tackle for loss. Hausknecht also played in four games during the year and had two stops.

Other returning players who should see playing time here include senior Terrell Thompson, and redshirt freshmen Jefferson Court and Kyler Fackrell. Thompson played in just two games in 2011 and registered four tackles before suffering a season-ending injury. Court was a three-time all-state selection at Alta (Utah) High School, while Fackrell earned 5A-I all-region honors as a prep senior at Mesa (Ariz.) High School.

2012 SEASON PREVIEW

M. Brady

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Utah State's strength on the defensive side of the ball will be in the defensive backfield when fall camps starts as USU returns three starters here from a year ago in senior cornerback Jumanne Robertson, senior strong safety McKade Brady and junior cornerback Nevin Lawson.

Overall, the only defensive back that Utah State must replace is Alfred Bowden who started the final five games of the season at free safety and ended the year with 45 tackles, including 1.5 for loss, and three pass break-ups to go along with one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

As for its returning starters, Brady started all 13 games at strong safety in 2011 and finished the year third on the team with 86 tackles, including 1.0 for loss. Brady also had six pass break-ups during the season and forced one fumble.

Lawson also started every game for Utah State during the 2011 season at cornerback and was fourth on the team with 73 tackles. He also had one of Utah State's four interceptions during the year and added 10 pass break-ups to go along with a forced fumble and fumble recovery.

Utah State's third returning starter in the defensive backfield is Robertson who started 10 games at cornerback in 2011 and led the team with 12 pass break-ups, while ranking fifth overall with 48 tackles.

Along with its three returning starters, Utah State also returns seven other letterwinners here in seniors Terrance Alston, Quinton Byrd, Will Davis and Jamaine Olson, junior Cameron Sanders and sophomores Rashard Stewart and Frankie Sutura.

In 2011, Davis started three games at cornerback and played in all 13 as he recorded 35 tackles, including 3.5 for loss and six pass break-ups. Alston and Byrd also both appeared in all 13 games a year ago and recorded 12 tackles apiece. Sutura played in 10 games and had six stops, while Sanders had four tackles in the final four games of the season after recovering from injury. Olson added four stops as he appeared in 11 games during the year, and Stewart had six tackles in 11 appearances in 2010 before redshirting last season.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Utah State's special teams should be a strength in 2012 as it returns six letterwinners, including senior running back/kick returner Kerwynn Williams, who set a WAC record in 2011 for career kick return yards with 3,349. Williams also set single-season school and WAC records as a sophomore in 2010 with 1,444 career kick return yards, not to mention WAC and FBS records with 53 kick returns during the 2010 campaign.

As a junior in 2011, Williams ranked seventh in the WAC and 79th in FBS with 22.69 yards per return on 36 kicks. Williams also returned seven punts in 2011 for 98 yards (14.0 ypr).

Joining Williams as a kick/punt returner will be senior wide receiver Chuck Jacobs who had 18 kick returns in 2011 for 441 yards (24.5 ypr).

Along with its talented return group back, Utah State also returns all of its specialist starters from the 2011 season in senior punter Tyler Bennett, junior placekicker Josh Thompson, sophomore kicker Jacob Haueter, sophomore long snapper Nate Needham as well as sophomore holder Jaron Bentrude.

During his junior year, Bennett ranked third in the WAC and 16th in FBS with a 43.83 punting average. He finished the year with 2,542 punt yards on 58 attempts with a career-long of 67 and 15 punts of 50-plus yards. Bennett also had 21 punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line.

Thompson set single-season school records for extra-points made (57) and attempted (58) during his sophomore season, while his extra-point percentage (.983) in 2011 ranks fifth all-time at USU for a single-season. Thompson also made 60.0 percent (6-10) of his field goals last year with a long of 43 yards.

Overall, Thompson ranks fourth at Utah State for career extra-point percentage (.983) and seventh in career extra points made (57). During his sophomore season, Thompson ranked sixth in the WAC in field goals per game (0.46) and 12th in the WAC in scoring (5.77).

During the 2011 season, Utah State ranked fourth in the WAC and 29th in FBS in net punting (38.20 ypp), third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in kickoff returns (22.80 ypr), and seventh in the WAC and 67th in the nation in punt returns (7.81 ypr). Overall, Utah State's net punting average improved 49 spots in the NCAA FBS rankings from 2010, ranking No. 29 in 2011 with a 38.20 net average after ranking No. 78 in 2010 with a net average of 35.49.

DEFENSE/SPECIAL TEAMS NOTABLES

* Utah State's defense ended 2011 ranking first in the WAC and 50th in the nation in total defense (366.23 ypg), second in the WAC and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.70 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd nationally in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (125.58), and third in the WAC and 59th in the nation in sacks (1.92 pg).

* Utah State's special teams ranked fourth in the WAC and 29th in FBS in 2011 in net punting (38.20 ypp), third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in kickoff returns (22.80 ypr), and seventh in the WAC and 67th in the nation in punt returns (7.81 ypr).

* Utah State had one defensive player selected in the 2012 NFL Draft as linebacker Bobby Wagner was chosen in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks.

* Wagner earned first-team all-WAC honors each of his final three seasons at Utah State and is one of just eight players in school history to be a three-time first-team all-conference selection. Wagner ended his career with 446 career tackles to rank first all-time in WAC and tied for first all-time in school history.

* Utah State made a change to its defensive coaching staff following the 2011 season as former Hawai'i defensive coordinator Dave Aranda was hired as USU's defensive coordinator, a position that was held by Coach Andersen last season.

TERRENCE ALSTON

CORNERBACK

5-9 • 176 • Sr. • 1L
Richmond, Calif.
(Vaden HS/Solano CC)

UTAH STATE: Had a very good spring... Has quick feet and a lot of confidence... Has a knack for making plays and being around the football... Switching jersey to No. 5 for his senior season after wearing No. 21 as a junior.

2011 (JR): Played in all 13 games, logging 12 tackles and one pass break-up... Top game was against Ohio in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl with two stops... Lone pass break-up came in Fresno State game.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Earned honorable mention All-American accolades as well as first-team all-Region III and first-team all-conference honors at Solano (Calif.) CC... Was also selected for the Junior College All-American bowl roster, but the game was postponed due to the Metrodome collapse... Helped Solano CC to a 9-2 record in 2010, winning the South Division Bay Valley Conference title, as the Falcons earned a berth in the Breath for Life Bowl in Monterey, falling to San Jose City College, and finished the year ranked No. 13 in Northern California and No. 25 in the state... Tallied five interceptions with 12 pass break-ups, along with 45 tackles (28 solo, 17 assists), including three tackles for loss... As a freshman in 2008, logged five pass break-ups with 16 tackles (11 solo, five assists), including one tackle for loss... Also had three rushes for a total of 21 yards along with one kick return for 29 yards... Was also a first-team all-conference selection his freshman season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Was an all-league, all-city, all-county and all-region selection at Vaden (Calif.) High School, as well as being voted the Vikings' defensive MVP after posting 73 tackles (39 solo, 34 assists) with two interceptions, one pass break-up and two forced fumbles in senior season.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 24, 1990... Son of Scott Alston and Angela Alston... Has two older brothers... Cousin, Stevie Johnson is wide receiver for Buffalo Bills... Majoring in sociology... Chose USU because of the up-and-coming status of the program, the coaching staff, the facilities and the team's family atmosphere.

COACHING STAFF

2012 UTAH STATE FOOTBALL BELIEVE IT.

GARY ANDERSEN

Utah, 1986

Fourth Year at Utah State

Fifth Year as a Collegiate Head Coach

Gary Andersen was named Utah State's 26th head coach on Dec. 4, 2008, and since that day Andersen and his staff have worked non-stop to create a culture of accountability and responsibility that would translate into success both on and off the field.

And in 2011, Aggie fans saw that plan pay dividends as USU produced a 7-6 record (5-2 Western Athletic Conference) and participated in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, the school's first bowl game since 1997.

In his first three years at Utah State, Andersen has compiled a 15-22 (.407) record including a 10-13 (.435) WAC mark as those 15 wins are the most by an Aggie coach in his first three years since John L. Smith went 16-18 (.471) from 1995-97. Furthermore, Andersen has coached 10 players who have earned first or second team all-WAC honors and six players who are currently on NFL rosters, including Michael Smith, Robert Turbin and Bobby Wagner who were all selected in the 2012 NFL Draft. That trio of Aggies drafted in 2012 is the most selections in one year since five USU players were chosen in 1980. Wagner, who was drafted in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks, becomes the highest drafted Aggie since Rulon Jones was the 42nd overall pick in the second round in 1980 by the Denver Broncos.

Along with playing in its first bowl game in over a decade during the 2011 season, Utah State's seven overall wins and five league victories were its most since 1993, while its second-place conference finish was its best since the 2000 team ended the year second in the Big West. Furthermore, those five league wins in 2011 were tied with five other teams (1953, 1960, 1990, 1991, 1993) for the most in school history, while its seven overall wins are tied for the 10th most all-time at Utah State.

Utah State also won its final five games of the regular season in 2011, which is tied for the eighth-longest winning streak in school history and the longest since the 1993 squad won its final six games of the year. USU's three-win turnaround from four wins in 2010 to seven wins in 2011 was among the top 15 in the Football Bowl Subdivision for the year.

During the 2011 season, Andersen's high-octane spread offense was statistically one of the best in the country as it led the WAC and ranked sixth in the nation in rushing offense (282.69 ypg). USU also ranked first in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (151.8), first in the WAC and 23rd in the nation in scoring offense (33.62 ppg), second in the WAC and 20th in the nation in total offense (457.31 ypg), and second in the WAC and 33rd in the nation in fewest sacks allowed per game (1.38 pg).

In 2011, Utah State also established school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

Highlighting Utah State's offense in 2011 was junior running back Robert Turbin who ended the season as the WAC's Offensive Player of the Year, USU's first in its six years in the league, and just its second such offensive award in school history. During the season, Turbin ranked first in the WAC and eighth in the nation in scoring (10.62 ppg), second in the WAC and 13th in the nation in rushing (116.69 ypg), and sixth in the WAC and 40th in the nation in all-purpose yardage (129.85 ypg). He ended the year setting single-season school records for rushing touchdowns (19), total touchdowns (23) and points scored (138), while his 1,517 rushing yards rank third all-time at USU for a single-season.

Turbin, who was drafted in the fourth round (106) of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks, ended his Aggie career ranking first in both total touchdowns (51) and points scored (308), while his 3,315 career rushing yards ranks fifth all-time in school history.

Andersen's defense was also formidable during the 2011 season as it ended the year ranking first in the WAC and 50th in the nation in total defense (366.23), second in the WAC and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.70 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd nationally in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (125.58), and third in the WAC and 59th in the nation in sacks (1.92 pg).

Utah State's top defensive player in 2011 was Wagner who earned first-team all-WAC honors after ranking first in the league and eighth nationally with 11.31 tackles per game. Wagner, who is one of just eight players in school history to be a three-time first-team all-conference selection, ended his career with 446 career tackles to rank first all-time in WAC and tied for first all-time in school history.

Along with all of his Utah State accolades, Wagner also received some national exposure after being named the Most Valuable Player of the 2012 Senior Bowl, leading the North to a 23-13 win. Smith was also recognized for his performance in the Players Classic All-Star Game as he was named the North's Offensive MVP.

Other Aggies to earn first-team all-WAC honors under Andersen's tutelage include offensive linemen Phillip Gapelu (2011) and Tyler Larsen (2011), while those who have been named to the league's second-team include defensive end Levi Koskan (2011), tight end Taren Lloyd (2011), defensive back Curtis Marsh (2010) and Turbin (2009).

Under Andersen's leadership in 2010, Utah State gained possession of the historic Beehive Boot trophy (the symbol of gridiron supremacy in the state of Utah) with a 31-16 win against BYU in front of a national ESPN audience, its first victory against the Cougars since 1993. USU's win against BYU also earned the Aggies possession of the Old Wagon Wheel (the traveling trophy between USU and BYU) for the first time since 1993, and marked only the sixth time ever that Utah State has had both the Beehive Boot and the Old Wagon Wheel in its possession at the same time.

Utah State's top NFL draft pick in 2011 was Marsh who was selected in the third round (90) by the Philadelphia Eagles. As a collegiate senior in 2010, Marsh ranked second in the WAC and sixth in the country in passes defended with 1.25 per game with 13 pass break-ups and two interceptions. Marsh ended his collegiate career playing in the Senior Bowl.

In Andersen's first year at Utah State in 2009, he mentored an Aggie offense that amassed a then school-record 5,272 yards of total offense. Quarterback Diondre Borel also set single-season school records for total offense in 2009 with 3,343 yards, along with the school record for fewest interceptions thrown with four.

Along with all of Utah State's success on the field under Andersen, there has been just as much success in the classroom as 66 Aggies have earned academic all-WAC honors, while another 84 have graduated from the University. Furthermore, Utah State had 18 football players earn academic all-WAC honorees this past year to rank first in the conference.

"It's a great opportunity and it's been a longtime goal of mine to be a Division I head football coach. I think every football coach has a niche as to where they want be a head coach and where they belong. I feel that Utah State is a perfect fit for my niche and what I believe in," Andersen said upon his hiring.

"Utah State fits everything from a recruiting standpoint, to the student-athletes that we'll be dealing with on a daily basis as well as from a well-rounded academic viewpoint. At the end of the day, the best way to sum that up is when you're a head football coach, you need to look at what you need to do to be successful," Andersen added. "Without a doubt, Utah State has all the tools needed to recruit quality student-athletes socially, academically and athletically. These tools will allow us to build a successful program and continue the success that Utah State provides not just for football but for life for our players, as well as my staff, my family and myself."

Andersen came to Utah State after five seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Utah, where he helped guide the Utes to a 13-0 record in 2008. Utah finished the season ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll after winning the BCS Sugar Bowl with a dominating 31-17 victory against Alabama.

In 2008, Andersen was named a finalist for the Broyles Award, honoring the top assistant coach in college football. He was also named a Rivals.com top 10 non-BCS recruiter in 2008 and tabbed as the No. 1 non-BCS recruiter by Rivals.com in 2005.

Overall, Andersen spent 11 seasons as an assistant coach at Utah after coaching for the Utes from 1997-2002 before becoming the head coach at Southern Utah in 2003 and then returning to Utah in 2004. During his tenure at Utah, Andersen was a part of seven winning bowl teams, including two BCS Bowls as Utah went 12-0 in 2004 and won the Fiesta Bowl, along with its perfect record and Sugar Bowl win in 2008.

During his tenure at Utah, Andersen coached 14 first-team all-conference players (three in 2008), including two Mountain West Conference Defensive Players of the Year in John Frank (1999) and Eric Weddle (2005 and 2006), as well as a consensus All-American in Weddle in 2006. Andersen also coached 10 Ute players drafted in the NFL in Richard Seals, John Frank, Lauvale Sape, Sione Pouha, Jonathan Fanene, Eric Weddle, Paul Soliai, Sean Smith, Brice McCain and Paul Kruger, in addition to several other players who made NFL rosters as free agents.

Andersen's coaching career began in 1988 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Southeastern Louisiana, where he coached for one season before going to Ricks College (now BYU-Idaho) from 1989-92 as the offensive line coach. His other coaching stints include Idaho State (1992-94, defensive line), Park City HS (1994-95, head coach) and Northern Arizona (1995-96, assistant head coach/defensive line/special teams).

A 1986 graduate of Utah, Andersen earned his bachelor's degree in political science. He played center for Utah from 1985-86 after garnering first-team junior college All-American honors in 1984 at Ricks College.

Andersen is married to the former Stacey Lambert, and they have three sons: Keegan (21) and twins Chasen and Hagen (17). Keegan is currently a sophomore tight end on Utah State's football team, while Chasen and Hagen are both seniors at Logan High School. Andersen's brother, Mark, is USU's director of football operations.

ANDERSEN TIDBITS

• Andersen was named Utah State's head football coach on Dec. 4, 2008, becoming the 26th head coach in 115 years of Aggie football.

• Andersen has coached a total of 25 players on NFL rosters, including Bobby Wagner (2nd/47th), Robert Turbin (4th/106th) and Michael Smith (7th/212th) who were all selected in the 2012 Draft, while Curtis Marsh (3rd/90th) was drafted in 2011.

• Andersen has coached 18 first-team all-conference players, including three-time first-team all-WAC linebacker Bobby Wagner. Other USU notable players coached by Andersen include first-team all-WAC running back Robert Turbin who was also named the WAC's Offensive Player of the Year in 2011, first-team all-WAC offensive lineman Philip Gapelu and first-team all-WAC center Tyler Larsen.

• In 2011, Andersen led Utah State to its first bowl game, the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, since the 1997 season. Furthermore, USU's seven overall wins and five league wins in 2011 were its most since 1993, while its second-place conference finish was its best since 2000.

• Utah State's five league wins in 2011 were tied with five other Aggie teams (1953, 1960, 1990, 1991, 1993) for the most in school history.

• Utah State won its final five games of the regular season in 2011, which is tied for the eighth-longest winning streak in school history and the longest since the 1993 squad won its final six games of the year.

• Utah State's three-win turnaround from four wins in 2010 to seven wins in 2011 was among the top 15 in the Football Bowl Subdivision for the year.

• Under Andersen, Utah State has had 66 players earn academic all-WAC honors, including a league-leading 18 during the 2011-12 academic year.

• Under Andersen, Utah State has graduated 84 players, including 26 who graduated during the 2011-12 academic year.

• At Utah, Andersen coach two players who earned Mountain West Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors three times in John Frank (1999) and Eric Weddle (2005, 2006). Weddle was also a consensus first-team All-America in 2006, while Morgan Scalley earned second-team All-American honors in 2004.

• Andersen was a part of two Utah teams that went 2-0 in BCS action, finishing No. 2 in the 2008 AP Poll and No. 4 in 2004.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT GARY ANDERSEN...

ROBERT TURBIN, Seattle Seahawks 2011 WAC Offensive Player of the Year

"Coach Andersen has been an amazing coach personally for me during the three years I was with him, but off the field he was just as involved as he was on, with team activities which helped build our camaraderie as a team. He's been a great teacher and has been much involved with my path to the next level."

BOBBY WAGNER, Seattle Seahawks 2009, 2010, 2011 First-Team All-WAC

"Coach Andersen is a great coach. He was a big asset to me in helping me through the whole process of getting drafted and everything that goes with it. He helped me have a better understanding of the game and my position. Off the field, he helped me stay focused in school and made me see the importance of graduating."

KOA MISI, Miami Dolphins 2009 First-Team All-WAC

"When you are looking at colleges, you are also looking at coaches. A good coach is someone that is not only looking out for you as a player but a person too. Coach Andersen was that guy for me. I knew from the first time I met him in the meeting room that he was my guy. He is a coach that will give it to you how it really is and be direct and to the point about it. He is by far the best coach I have had the privilege to play under. He basically taught me most of what I know now. I swear sometimes he would lose his voice yelling at me on the practice field, but I knew it was just to make me a better player and I liked that about him. He is a coach you can go to for anything, one you can count on. To tell you the truth, he was like a second father to me when I was in college and if that doesn't say enough I don't know what will. He is a guy that stuck behind his word when I was getting recruited and I appreciate everything that he did for me. If there was a coach to get the coach of the year award every year he would definitely have my vote. I love that guy!"

ERIC WEDDLE, San Diego Chargers 2006 Consensus All-American; 2005 & 2006 Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year

"He's one of the best coaches I've ever been around. He's an intense, passionate coach. He cares not only for the player inside the program but when they're outside the world of football as well. I look up to him immensely and wouldn't have gotten as far as I have without his coaching and his guidance. Utah State made a great hire in making him their head coach. He's a great motivator, he's passionate and he loves coaching kids. I look for bright things from him in making Utah State a winning program."

STEVENSON SYLVESTER, Pittsburgh Steelers 2008 Second-Team All-MWC

"I feel like I wouldn't be where I am today if it weren't for Coach Andersen. His willingness to take a chance on me when no one else would made my career. He is the ultimate coach. He is very personable and his unparalleled ability to connect with his players is what sets him apart from any other coach. His winning attitude rubs off onto all of his players, and it brings the best out of each and every one of them. Not only did he teach me to better understand the game of football, but he also played a major role in my development as a young man. I am very thankful to have been coached by Coach Andersen, and fortunate to know him at all. I wish him much success in all that he does."

PAUL KRUGER, Baltimore Ravens 2008 All-American & First-Team All-MWC

"If it were not for Gary Andersen I don't believe I would be in the position I'm in today, he changed the way I played the game. More than a outstanding coach, he is a great example of how to take care of business on and off the field."

DAVE ARANDA

Defensive Coordinator / Defensive Line
California Lutheran, 1999 - First Year at Utah State

Entering his first year as Utah State's defensive coordinator and defensive line coach is Dave Aranda (pronounced a-ran-da) who officially joined the staff in January, 2012.

"I'm very excited for the opportunity to be able to coach with Coach Andersen and his staff. I have a great deal of respect for Utah State football. They play a hard, physical style of football, and I believe it is an up-and-coming program and I'm proud and very happy to be a part of it. I want to do whatever it takes to get us to the next level," Aranda said.

Aranda comes to Utah State after four years at Hawai'i, the last two spent as the Warriors' defensive coordinator after coaching UH's defensive line his first two years.

During the 2011 season at Hawai'i, Aranda's defense led the Western Athletic Conference and was tied for 15th in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in sacks with 35 (2.7 pg), led by linebacker Art Laurel who ranked third in the WAC and tied for 24th in the nation with nine sacks.

"We were looking for a talented coach with defensive coordinator experience and we have found that with Dave Aranda. He was mentored by former Hawai'i head coach Greg McMackin who has an excellent track record defensively. Dave's defenses speak for themselves with the numbers and talented players they have. Last season alone, three seniors from Aranda's defense were invited to various senior all-star games. Coach Aranda's defenses are fundamentally sound and are excellent technicians. His defenses consistently play hard and at an extremely high-level," USU head coach Gary Andersen said. "We are excited to have him and his family be a part of our Aggie football family."

At Hawai'i, Aranda also coached two-time all-WAC honoree Corey Paredes and 2011 all-WAC linebacker Aaron Brown, who was drafted in the seventh round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams. In 2010, Paredes had the second-highest single-season tackles total in school history with 151 stops. Aranda also coached defensive lineman David Veikune, an NFL second-round draft pick.

In 2010, Aranda's Hawai'i defense led the nation in turnovers caused (38), while ranking second in the nation in interceptions (23) and ninth in fumbles recovered (15), as well as tying the school record for most defensive touchdowns with five.

"The dynamic of the WAC has changed, but the fact that he is familiar with the conference and he understands the level and quality of play within the WAC is a very valuable resource. He knows the types of players to recruit to play in this conference which is a big advantage for us and puts us even more so on the same page," Andersen added.

Aranda takes over the reins of a Utah State defense that led the WAC and ranked 50th in FBS in total defense (366.2 ypg) in 2011. USU also ranked second in the league and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.8 ypg) last season, as well as third in the conference and 76th in the country in passing defense (238.5 ypg).

"I think there is a lot of experience here with the defensive staff and that was a big plus when looking at this job. I can bring some different ideas that will mesh with the ideas that are here. I think there will be a lot of different hand writing up on the white board with ideas from everyone, which is a very good thing," Aranda said.

Prior to being defensive coordinator at Hawai'i, Aranda, a native of Redlands, Calif., coached the UH defensive line, helping put together game plans throughout the season, including the Warriors' 24-17 win over Navy, in which Hawai'i held the Midshipmen's vaunted rushing attack to 248 yards and scoreless in the second half.

In 2008, Aranda coached a unit that included David Veikune, Joshua Leonard, and all-WAC second-team pick Keala Watson. Veikune was taken in the second round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns with the 52nd overall pick, while Leonard signed as a free agent with the Houston Texans.

"I think our schemes fit well with each other as far as where we have been in the past and what we have done defensively. He is extremely organized and a quality leader. Anytime you look for a new coach, the number one priority is to put the kids first and Dave does a tremendous job of that," Andersen said. "Spending four years in Hawaii, he has developed lots of ties that will be a great asset to us in continuing to recruit in Hawaii and recruit Polynesian kids. He has a tremendous track record as a great recruiter."

Prior to Hawai'i, Aranda coached at Delta State University in 2007, where he served as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Following the season, he signed on to become Southern Utah's defensive coordinator for new head coach Ed Lamb and was on the job for one month before head coach Greg McMackin called and asked Aranda to join the Hawai'i staff. In one year at Delta State, Aranda helped the school win the Gulf South Conference and lead the

ASSISTANT COACHES

NCAA Division II in pass efficiency defense, ranking second in total and scoring defense, and third in run defense.

Before Delta State, Aranda spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, where the Kingsmen led the conference in scoring defense and total defense. It was his second go-around with California Lutheran after serving as an assistant from 1996-99, while finishing his degree.

From 2002-03, Aranda was the linebackers coach at the University of Houston. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant at Texas Tech and was mentored by then-defensive coordinator McMackin. The Red Raiders competed in three bowls during his tenure (2000 GalleryFurniture.com Bowl, 2001 Alamo Bowl and 2002 Tangerine Bowl). At TTU, Aranda coached Aaron Hunt, who finished as the Big 12's all-time sack leader.

After he graduated from Redlands High School in 1994, numerous surgeries followed and ended his playing career. In 1995, he started his coaching resume at Redlands as an assistant coach. Aranda graduated from California Lutheran in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in philosophy. In 2002, he earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies at Texas Tech.

Aranda and his wife, Dione, have two daughters, Jaelyn (7) and Jordyn (5), and a son, Ronin (3).

BILL BUSCH

Associate Head Coach / Special Teams Coordinator / Safeties
Nebraska Wesleyan, 1988 - Fourth Year at Utah State

Bill Busch is entering his fourth season on the Utah State staff, and his second as associate head coach and special teams coordinator, as well as coaching the USU safeties. Busch spent his first two seasons at Utah State as the defensive coordinator.

As special teams coordinator in 2011, Busch's punt unit ranked fourth in the WAC and 29th in the NCAA FBS with a net average of 38.20 yards per punt. USU's kickoff return unit was also among the national leaders in 2011 under Busch, ranking third in the WAC and 39th in the FBS with an average of 22.80 yards per return.

As special teams coordinator, Busch mentored Tyler Bennett who ranked third in the WAC and 16th in the NCAA FBS in punting at 43.83 yards per punt.

As a team, Utah State's net punting average improved 49 spots in the NCAA FBS rankings from 2010, ranking No. 29 in 2011 with a 38.20 net average after ranking No. 78 in 2010 with a net average of 35.49.

In his third year coaching USU's safeties in 2011, Busch helped the Aggie defense rank first in the WAC and 50th in the NCAA FBS in total defense (366.23 ypg), second in the WAC and 31st in FBS in rushing defense (127.7 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd in FBS in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the FBS in pass efficiency defense (125.58), third in the WAC and 59th in FBS in sacks (1.92 pg), third in the WAC and 68th in FBS in scoring defense (33.62 ppg) and third in the WAC and 76th in FBS in passing defense (238.46 ypg).

As defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2010, Busch coached first-team all-WAC linebacker Bobby Wagner, who led the league and ranked eighth in the NCAA FBS with 11.1 tackles per game, earning first-team all-WAC honors for the second-straight season. Wagner's 133 tackles as a junior not only led the team, but were the most by an Aggie since 2002.

Busch also coached second-team all-league cornerback Curtis Marsh, who ranked second in the WAC and sixth in FBS in passes defended with 1.25 per game with 15 total on 13 pass break-ups and two interceptions.

Marsh was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles with the 26th pick of the third round, the 90th overall selection in the 2011 NFL Draft, while Wagner was drafted in the second round with the 47th overall pick in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Other defensive highlights from 2010 include USU ranking fourth in the WAC in pass defense efficiency (128.42).

Highlights from the 2009 Busch-led Aggie defense included first-team all-WAC linebacker Bobby Wagner, who led the WAC and ranked tied for 22nd in FBS in tackles with 115, a 9.6 per game average. Wagner also led the league in WAC only games with 71 stops (8.9 pg). Wagner's 115 tackles ranked as the second-most by a USU sophomore, behind the record of 138 in 1996 by John Dale Carty. Wagner was the first sophomore to lead the Aggies in tackles since 1994.

Busch also coached safety James Brindley in 2010, who signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks. Brindley was eighth in the WAC overall in tackles with 7.8 per game, ranking third among defensive backs. Additionally, Brindley ranked third overall in passes defended with nine on six pass break-ups and three interceptions. Brindley was the top ranked defensive back in the WAC for combined tackles and passes defended. For his career, Brindley ranked 12th on USU's career interceptions list with nine, but is second on the Aggie career list for interception return yardage with 210.

The 2009 Busch-led USU defense had three games of forcing three turnovers, with a season-best of holding San Jose State to 56 yards rushing and New Mexico State to 81 yards passing.

Busch's most recent coaching job before Utah State was at Nebraska from 2005-07, where he was an assistant safeties coach and special teams coordinator.

Busch coached with current Utah State head coach Gary Andersen at both Northern Arizona and Utah. He and Andersen were at NAU together from 1995 to 1996, with Busch serving as secondary coach in 1995 and co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1996, while Andersen was assistant head coach and defensive line as well as special teams coach.

"The excitement for me is two-fold. For one, coaching at such a great university like Utah State is exciting due to the fact of the tremendous commitment that the administration has made to football. Secondly, getting the chance to work with Gary Andersen is so exciting. He's obviously a great friend but also for the opportunity to work with him again are major reasons why I couldn't wait to get back into coaching," Busch said when hired.

After Busch's four-year stint as secondary coach at New Mexico State from 1997-2000, Busch and Andersen joined up again at Utah in 2001 when Busch was safeties coach until taking over the entire secondary in 2003. He then went to Nebraska in 2004 where he coached outside linebackers and was the special teams coordinator, before moving to safeties in 2005 while remaining special teams coordinator until 2007.

"Coach Andersen and I have worked together at two different programs at Northern Arizona and Utah, so we have a great feel for each other. I know exactly what he wants from me and vice versa, and what we can do for each other with what exactly our schematic plan is," Busch added. "I'm thrilled to work in a program with the great potential that Utah State has and in a great conference like the WAC."

In his year away from full-time coaching, Busch worked with some NFL and college teams in addition to spending time with his family in Nebraska, but he was excited about the chance to return to college football and the state of Utah.

"In this profession, everything is short-lived and you're back and going again, so it was nice to do some things outside of football, but I was excited to get back into coaching and return to Utah. I love the state of Utah and am excited about being a part of the Logan community. This is a terrific community and is very supportive of the Utah State football program," Busch said when hired.

While at Nebraska, Busch's safeties were consistently among the team's top athletes. In 2006, Husker safeties recorded six of Nebraska's 12 interceptions. The 2005 Nebraska defense toted a No. 10 national pass efficiency defense ranking and the No. 2 ranking in the Big 12 Conference. The Huskers held six opponents to less than 200 yards passing and nine to one or fewer passing touchdowns in 2005. Busch had two players selected in the NFL Draft as Josh Bullock was selected by the New Orleans Saints in 2005 and his twin brother Daniel was chosen in the 2006 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions in the second round. Ironically, each Bullock brother was taken with the 40th pick.

Busch's coaching talents also paid dividends for the Huskers on special teams. During his time there, the Huskers blocked 16 kicks, including seven in 2005. NU's special teams recorded two important plays in the final minutes of a contest - a 40-yard field goal to beat Kansas State and a block of a Pitt field-goal attempt - that proved to be game winners.

Nebraska ranked in the top 25 nationally in net punting (24th in 2006) and punt returns (17th in 2005) under Busch as well. NU's kickoff coverage unit ranked 15th nationally in 2006 after finishing 22nd the previous year.

Busch is a Pender, Neb., native and earned his bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska Wesleyan in 1988 and added a master's degree from Nebraska-Kearney in 1990.

Busch began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Nebraska-Kearney in 1989, after playing wide receiver at Nebraska Wesleyan from 1985 to 1987.

Busch was a graduate assistant at Nebraska from 1990 to 1993, assisting with the defensive backs. Among the defensive backs Busch worked with at Nebraska were all-league performers Tyrone Byrd, Barron Miles, Tyrone Williams and Mike Minter.

MIKE SANFORD

Assistant Head Coach / Running Backs / Tight Ends
Southern California, 1978 - First Year at Utah State

Mike Sanford is entering his first season as Utah State's assistant head coach after officially joining the staff in March, 2012. At USU, Sanford will coach the Aggies' running backs and tight ends.

Sanford and Andersen will be reuniting after being together on the University of Utah staff in 2004, when Andersen was the Utes' defensive line coach and Sanford was offensive coordinator and running backs coach.

"I'm extremely honored and excited to be a part of Utah State football. I believe that Utah State is one of the top programs on the rise in the country, especially the western United States. Last season was definitely a strong indicator of that. I have tremendous respect for Gary Andersen and to be a part of his staff is a great privilege, and I'm thrilled to be coaching with him again. I had the opportunity to be on the same staff as him while at Utah and coaching against him when I was at UNLV, and I have a lot of respect and admiration for him as a football coach. It is a great honor to be a part of not only his staff but a part of Utah State Aggie football," Sanford said when hired.

Sanford comes to Utah State after two seasons at Louisville, where as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach he helped improve the Cardinals' offensive passing, improving from nine touchdown passes in 2009 to 20 in 2010. Louisville scored 23 or more points in nine games, including 56 in a win against Memphis. Sanford also mentored Louisville tight end Cameron Graham to earn first-team all-Big East Conference accolades after catching 40 passes for 470 yards and five touchdowns.

Prior to Louisville, Sanford was head coach at UNLV from 2005-09, where he took over a program that was coming off four consecutive losing seasons. His five seasons at UNLV tied for the third-longest coaching stint in Rebel football history. The Sanford-led Rebels made national headlines in 2008 with an upset win at No. 13 Arizona State. Under Sanford, UNLV's offense set several school records in 2008, highlighted by tying for the top redzone scoring offense percentage (.950) in the nation, matching Ohio State. UNLV's offense was also 15th in the nation in sacks allowed (1.2 pg).

While at UNLV, Sanford faced Utah State three times, losing, 31-24 in 2005, before bouncing back with a 23-16 win in 2007 and a 27-17 victory in 2008.

During his time at UNLV, Sanford coached 29 all-Mountain West Conference honorees, including 2007 MWC Defensive Player of the Year Beau Bell, and 2006 MWC Freshman of the Year Ryan Wolfe, who went on to earn three first-team selections. In Sanford's offense, Casey Flair set a school record and tied a MWC record with 47 consecutive games with a reception.

Sanford took over the UNLV program after two years at Utah as offensive coordinator and was part of the Utes' 21-2 overall and 13-1 Mountain West two-year stretch, including a 12-0 overall and 7-0 league mark and victory in the 2004 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

After finishing last in the Mountain West in scoring offense the season before Sanford's arrival, he led Utah to the No. 3 ranking in the nation at 43.3 points per game, third in total offense (499.8 ypg), third in passing efficiency (173.41) and boasted Heisman Trophy finalist Alex Smith, who went on to become the top pick in the 2005 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers. Smith was second in the NCAA in passing efficiency (176.52) and fifth in total offense (298.6 ypg).

Before Utah, Sanford was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Stanford in 2002, returning to the college ranks after three seasons in the NFL as wide receivers coach with the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001. Sanford's NCAA Division I coaching experience includes stints at Notre Dame, USC, Purdue, Long Beach State, Virginia Military Institute and Army.

As an assistant coach, Sanford has participated in 11 bowl games with four programs. As the wide receivers coach at USC from 1989-96, Sanford assisted in two Pac-10 championships and two Rose Bowl victories (vs. Michigan in 1990 and Northwestern in 1996). Three of his Trojan receivers were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft: Curtis Conway in 1992, Johnnie Morton in 1993 and Keyshawn Johnson, the No. 1 overall pick in the 1996 draft and a consensus All-American in 1995.

Sanford began his coaching career at Southern California in 1977, as a graduate assistant, before earning his bachelor's degree from USC in 1978. Later that year, Sanford started his first full-time coaching position as the defensive coordinator at San Diego City College.

"When hiring an assistant coach, you always want to find someone who puts the student-athletes first and is the best coach out there, and Coach Sanford definitely fits both of those. I am extremely familiar with his coaching style and philosophies from coaching with him as well as coaching against him throughout the years. He brings a wealth of coaching knowledge and experience to our program having been at every level from the small college, all the way through to the NFL. He is a great addition to our staff and we're excited to have him join our Aggie football family," USU head coach Gary Andersen said.

As a player, Sanford was a reserve quarterback for USC's 1973 and 1974 Rose Bowl teams (the 1974 team beat Ohio State for the national championship). He played free safety in 1976 when USC beat Michigan in the Rose Bowl and finished second in the nation.

Sanford and his wife, Melinda, have two grown children, daughter, Lindsay, and son, Mike, Jr., who is currently the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Stanford.

MATT WELLS

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks
Utah State, 1996 - Second Year at Utah State

Entering his second season at Utah State, and first as offensive coordinator, is Matt Wells who returned to his alma mater in January, 2011 following a standout career as an Aggie quarterback. Along with his coordinator responsibilities, Wells will also coach USU's quarterbacks for the second-straight season.

"Matt is very prepared for this position, and he's youthful. While he's 38-years old, he has a lot of coaching experience, he's a first-time coordinator, but he's well-prepared to take the next step," USU head coach Gary Andersen said. "He has a great staff surrounding him with T.J. Woods, Jovon Bouknight and Mike Sanford. They all work extremely well together. It will definitely be a group effort, but Matt has a lot of experience. He has been in several different programs, so he has a lot to pull from to be a great coordinator and is excited for the opportunity. I believe that he is well-prepared for the position. If I ever have the opportunity to promote from within, whether it is a coordinator or assistant coach position, I will always look within first, and this is a perfect fit for our philosophy."

Wells is a 1996 Utah State alum and was a three-year letterman at quarterback for the Aggies.

"I'm very excited and humbled for this opportunity that Coach Andersen has given me to lead the Utah State offense," Wells said. "We will continue to emphasize the physicality and importance of the run game that we have established, and will place greater emphasis on the vertical passing game and taking shots down field. We want to be a dynamic offense that is up-tempo and aggressive in all areas that is exciting to watch and for our players to play in."

During his first year at Utah State, Wells mentored a pair of successful Aggie quarterbacks in freshman Chuckie Keeton and junior Adam Kennedy.

Keeton, who is the first-ever freshman to start a season-opener for Utah State, completed 60.9 percent of his passes (106-174) for 1,200 yards (133.3 ypg) and 11 touchdowns with just two interceptions in eight-plus games. The freshman signal-caller also finished fourth on the team in rushing with 293 yards on 68 carries (4.3 ypc) with four touchdowns. Keeton finished the year ranking fourth in the WAC and 46th in the NCAA FBS with a passing efficiency rating of 137.41.

In his first-ever start, Keeton was named Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week as he was 21-of-30 passing for 213 yards, to go along with 33 rushing yards and two touchdowns in Utah State's 42-38 loss at No. 19 Auburn. Four games later, Keeton was named an honorable mention national Quarterback of the Week by CollegeFootballPerformance.com and the WAC's Player of the Week as he threw for 228 yards on 15-of-20 passing and a school-record tying five touchdowns in the Aggies' dominating 63-19 home win against Wyoming.

Kennedy, who started the final five games of the season filling in for an injured Keeton, led Utah State to five-straight wins to rank tied for the eighth-longest winning streak in Utah State history. Those five-straight victories also made Utah State bowl-eligible as it played in its first bowl game since 1997 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

During the season, Kennedy completed 69.1 percent of his passes (76-110) for 972 yards (121.5 ypg) with 11 touchdowns and just four interceptions. He was also fifth on the team in rushing with 239 yards on 55 carries (4.3 ypc). Kennedy would have led the conference and ranked fifth in the country in passing efficiency at 169.04 but did not meet the required minimum of 15 attempts per game.

Under Wells' guidance, Utah State's passing efficiency improved from 108th in FBS in 2010 to No. 18 in 2011 (151.89). The Aggies' quarterbacks also improved in fewest interceptions thrown, tying for 70th in 2010 to being tied for third in 2011 with four and was the fewest in the nation of any bowl-eligible team.

As the quarterbacks coach in 2011, Wells helped Utah State's offense established school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

A total of four offensive players earned first-team all-WAC honors in 2011, including running back Robert Turbin, who collected the WAC Offensive Player of the Year award as well as first-team all-WAC recognition. Offensive linemen Tyler Larsen and Phillip Gapele were also first-team all-WAC honorees, while tight end Tarren Lloyd was a second-team selection.

Wells came to Utah State from the University of New Mexico, where he coached the wide receivers and kickoff return unit in 2010. In addition to coaching the Lobo wide receivers, Wells coordinated a kickoff return unit that finished 27th in the FBS with a 23.5 yards per return average. The kickoff return unit established six new school records, while tying one. Under Wells' tutelage, his kickoff return units broke or tied 16 school records as well as breaking or tying four NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) records.

In 2009, Wells was the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Louisville. In his one season at Louisville, Wells directed a passing game that amassed 2,507 yards and nine touchdowns. The Cardinals averaged 208.9 yards passing per game and was led by quarterback Adam Froman, who connected on 111-of-185 passing with six touchdowns. Froman had at least one scoring toss in each of the last six games of the season.

In 2007 and 2008, Wells was New Mexico's wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator, coaching alongside current Aggie offensive line coach T.J. Woods with the Lobos.

In his first coaching stint at New Mexico, Wells coached the Lobo wide receivers, including a pair of first-team all-Mountain West Conference receivers in Travis Brown and Marcus Smith in 2007. Smith led the MWC in receiving, setting a school record with 91 receptions for 1,125 yards and four touchdowns, while Brown tallied 76 catches for 1,031 yards with six scores. It was the first time in New Mexico history that two different receivers had 1,000 receiving yards in the same season. Smith was a fourth-round draft pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 2008.

Prior to New Mexico, Wells was tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa from 2002-06. Wells was a part of three bowl trips for the Golden Hurricane in four seasons from 2003-06, including helping Tulsa to its first back-to-back bowls since 1964-65 by making repeat bowl trips in 2005 and 2006.

In 2005, Wells mentored Tulsa tight end Garrett Mills, who established an NCAA single-season record for receiving yards by a tight end with 1,235 yards. Mills ended his Tulsa career ranked as the top receiving tight end in school history with 2,389 career yards, which also placed him sixth on the school's all-time receiving list.

Wells also coached Caleb Blankenship at Tulsa, an honorable mention all-conference selection in 2003 and 2004.

Under Wells' guidance, Tulsa's tight ends caught the most passes in the nation in 2003 with 89 catches for 855 yards and 12 touchdowns, as well as combining for 83 receptions and 919 yards in 2004.

Before his stint at Tulsa, Wells was an assistant coach at the U.S. Naval Academy from 1997-2001, serving as a service academy assistant coach for the varsity in 1997, assisting with coaching the quarterbacks and fullbacks. Wells also mentored the varsity fullbacks for three seasons (1998-2000) and the wide receivers in 2001.

During the 1998-2000 seasons, Wells also served as the head junior varsity coach and offensive coordinator. The Navy J.V. teams posted an overall record of 20-2 during that span.

Overall, Wells has coached nine all-conference players, two All-Americans and two NFL Draft picks in the last nine years.

Wells, a 38-year old native of Sallisaw, Okla., received his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Utah State in 1996, graduating cum laude. He has also taken courses at the Huntsman School of Business in pursuit of his MBA.

Wells and his wife, Jen, have two daughters, Jadyn (10) and Ella (7), and a son, Wyatt (4).

JOVON BOUKNIGHT

Wide Receivers

Wyoming, 2006 - Fourth Year at Utah State

Jovon Bouknight (pronounced Juh-vonn Bo-night) is in his fourth season with the Utah State football program, going into his third year as wide receivers coach after serving as the Aggies' offensive graduate assistant in 2009.

"Jovon has done a tremendous job in the years that he has been with us. He has tremendous potential and upstart as a coach. He has shown terrific ability and knowledge on and off the field, always wanting to learn and improve as a coach," USU head coach Gary Andersen said.

During the 2011 season, Bouknight's receiver corps helped Utah State establish school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60). In 2011, USU's offense was statistically one of the best in the country as it led the WAC and ranked sixth in the nation in rushing offense (282.69 ypg). USU also ranked first in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (151.8), first in the WAC and 23rd in the nation in scoring offense (33.62 ppg), and second in the WAC and 20th in the nation in total offense (457.31 ypg).

In all, seven different receivers made receptions during the 2011 season including Matt Austin who ranked 21st in the WAC in receiving yards per game (35.77). Austin finished the year leading the team in receptions (34) receiving yards (465) and touchdowns (6), including game-winners in the final minute against both San Jose State and New Mexico State.

In 2010, Bouknight coached a total of nine different wide receivers who had at least one reception, including Dontel Watkins who ranked 15th in the WAC in receiving yards per game (41.0) as well as tying for 15th in receptions per game (3.5).

In 2009, Bouknight helped coach Stanley Morrison, who led USU and ranked 12th in the WAC with 616 yards on 33 receptions (18.7 ypc) with three touchdowns. The 18.7 yards per catch average ranked Morrison second in the WAC and 11th in FBS. Morrison's 51.5 yards per game ranked 14th in the WAC, while his 2.75 receptions per game was 16th in the league.

Bouknight came to Utah State after one season at his alma mater of Wyoming, where he was offensive graduate assistant, working with the Cowboys' wide receivers.

Bouknight concluded his college career ranked No. 20 in NCAA history in both career receiving yards (3,626) and career receptions (250). After graduating from Wyoming in the spring of 2006, Bouknight signed a free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers and went to camp with the Panthers in the summer of 2006. He later played in NFL Europe in the summer of 2007, before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers later that summer and attended camp with Tampa in 2007.

During his senior season, he was one of only 15 semifinalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the nation's top college receiver each season. He also earned honorable mention All-American honors from College Football News in 2005. He earned first-team all-Mountain West Conference honors as a senior in voting by Mountain West coaches and media. The College Football News also selected him to its all-MWC first-team. For the 2005 season, he ranked No. 9 in the NCAA in average receiving yards per game (101.45 ypg), No. 15 in total receiving yards (1,116), No. 10 in all-purpose yards (160.45), No. 12 in average receptions per game (7.00) and No. 11 in kickoff returns (27.75). He concluded his career ranked No. 2 in Mountain West history in both receptions (250) and receiving yards (3,626).

In Wyoming school history, Bouknight ranks No. 3 in career receiving yards behind former All-Americans Marcus Harris (No. 1 with 4,518 receiving yards from 1993-96) and Ryan Yarborough (No. 2 with 4,446 from 1990-93). Harris was the 1996 Biletnikoff Award winner. Bouknight ranks No. 2 in school history in career receptions (250), trailing only Harris with 259. Bouknight also completed his career as Wyoming's all-time all-purpose yardage leader (5,921) and career kickoff return leader (2,016). He caught at least one pass in 47 consecutive games, which was also every game of his college career and is the UW school record. He actually caught at least two passes in each of those 47 career games.

A native of Denver, Colo., Bouknight was an outstanding quarterback at Manual High School in Denver. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and health promotion from Wyoming in 2006.

KEVIN CLUNE

Linebackers

Cal State Fullerton, 2000 - Fourth Year at Utah State

Kevin Clune (pronounced Kloon) is entering his fourth year with the Utah State football staff as the Aggies' linebackers coach.

In 2011, Clune coached first-team all-WAC linebacker Bobby Wagner, who led the league and ranked eighth in Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in tackles with 11.3 per game, ranking tied for third in the FBS in total tackles with 147. Wagner earned first-team all-WAC accolades for the third-straight season becoming just the eighth player in school history to be named first-team all-conference three times.

Wagner also led the Utah State defensive unit with 11.5 tackles for loss, adding four sacks and two interceptions. Wagner was also named the North's Most Outstanding Player in the 2012 Senior Bowl, snaring an interception to go along with seven tackles, tying for game-high honors.

Wagner, who ended his career with 446 career tackles to rank first all-time in the WAC and tied for first all-time in school history, was drafted in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks and becomes the highest drafted Aggie since Rulon Jones was the 42nd overall pick in the second round in 1980 by the Denver Broncos.

Clune also mentored Kyle Gallagher, who ranked tied for 12th in the WAC during the 2011 season in tackles per game (7.69). Gallagher finished his Aggie career with 291 total tackles, ranking just outside of USU's career top 10 lists.

In 2011, Clune helped Utah State lead the WAC in total defense (366.2 ypg), ranking 50th in the FBS, as well as ranking second in the league in both rushing defense (127.7 ypg) and tackles for loss (5.9 pg). The rushing defense also ranked 31st in FBS, an improvement of 57 spots from 2010, while the total defense's ranking was an improvement of 52 spots from the 2010 FBS rankings. The Aggies also were second in the WAC in opponent third-down conversions in 2011 as USU's opponents converted just 69 third downs on 195 attempts (.354).

In 2010, Clune mentored Wagner to lead the WAC and rank eighth in the FBS with 11.1 tackles per game. Wagner's 133 tackles were the most by a USU defender since 2002.

Under Clune's coaching in 2009, Wagner led the league and ranked tied for 22nd in FBS in tackles with 115, a 9.6 per game average. Wagner's 115 tackles ranked as the second-most by a USU sophomore, behind John Dale Carty's record of 138 set in 1996. Wagner was the first sophomore to lead the Aggies in tackles since 1994.

Clune came to Utah State after four years as Weber State's defensive coordinator (2005-08), helping the Wildcats to a share of the 2008 Big Sky Conference title and advancing to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs.

During the 2008 season, Clune's defense was fourth in the Big Sky in total defense (363.9 ypg), as well as leading the Big Sky in pass defense (208.4 ypg). Weber State also led the league in pass efficiency defense (109.4), which ranked 17th in FCS.

Under Clune, Weber State's defense was ranked second in the Big Sky in both 2006 and 2007. The 2007 Wildcat defense yielded an average of just 348.4 yards per game. WSU also ranked first in the league in pass defense (212.2 ypg) and third in rushing defense (136.2 ypg).

During his tenure at Weber State, Clune coached 15 all-Big Sky Conference winners, including nine in 2008 and a second-team All-America in 2005 in Brady Fosmark.

Clune was Andersen's defensive coordinator at Southern Utah in 2003 and was at SUU through 2004 until joining the Weber State staff in 2005.

While at Southern Utah, Clune mentored outside linebacker Nick DiPadova, who earned second-team NCAA Division I-AA All-American honors in 2004 and was honorable mention in 2003. Marques Harris also earned third-team NCAA Division I-AA All-American accolades in 2004 as well.

"Kevin and I worked together when he was my defensive coordinator at Southern Utah so our defensive beliefs are extremely close. He has coordinator experience, something that is invaluable to a program, and he is a vital part of our strength as a defensive staff," Andersen said. "Kevin is very familiar with the state of Utah and everything that it has to offer. He's a terrific recruiter and will help us maintain our goal of continuing a successful program here at Utah State and pursue a conference championship."

Clune was a graduate assistant coach on the Utah staff in 2001 and 2002 working with both the running backs and linebackers.

He also spent time on the football staffs at Occidental College and Fullerton Junior College coaching the defensive line and linebackers as well as the special teams coordinator. Clune also coached at Dos Pueblos High School and Palma High School.

Clune was a defensive lineman at Fullerton JC for one year and spent one season at the University of San Diego.

Clune earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Cal State Fullerton in 2000.

FRANK MAILE

Defensive Line

Utah State, 2007 - Fifth Year at Utah State

Frank Maile (pronounced My-leh) is entering his fifth season on Utah State's coaching staff including his second year in charge of the defensive line after being promoted from a defensive graduate assistant in 2010.

Prior to being a graduate assistant, Maile spent two years (2008-09) serving as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant coach at Utah State.

"Frank has been here on our staff and has worked very hard to work his way up the ranks and become a coach. He's done everything we've ever asked of him and more," USU head coach Gary Andersen said.

During the 2011 season, Maile helped Utah State's defense end the year ranking first in the WAC and 50th in the nation in total defense (366.23 ypg), second in the WAC and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.70 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd nationally in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (125.58), and third in the WAC and 59th in the nation in sacks (1.92 pg).

Maile also coached Levi Koskan during the 2011 season as the senior defensive end earned second-team all-WAC honors after finishing the year with 27 tackles, 10.0 tackles for loss and a team-best 5.5 sacks, not to mention six quarterback hurries. Overall, Koskan ranked eighth in the WAC in sacks and 12th in tackles for loss.

Maile also coached Quinn Garner and Al Lapuaho in 2011 and both tied for team highs amongst defensive lineman with 31 stops. Garner added 5.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks during the year, while Lapuaho had 2.5 tackles for loss and 1.0 sacks.

In 2010, Maile worked with the Aggies' defensive line, including linemen Garner (43 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, two sacks) and Levi Koskan (41 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks). Koskan was also a nominee for the Rudy Award and the Bursworth Trophy, honoring a former walk-on. Koskan led the team in both tackles for loss and sacks, ranking 11th in the WAC in sacks and 17th in tackles for loss.

Maile was a standout defensive lineman for the Aggies from 2004-07, making 21 starts in playing 42 career games. He posted 71 total tackles (45 solo, 26 assists) with 19 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery. In his senior season of 2007 as team captain, Maile accounted for eight tackles for loss, tying for second on the team.

A native of West Valley City, Utah, Maile was a first-team all-state defensive lineman at Alta (Utah) High School. He went on an LDS Church Mission to the Dominican Republic from 2001-03.

Maile earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Utah State in 2007 and earned his master's in education in 2010.

Maile, and his wife, Heather, have three sons, Maximus (8), Samson (4) and Titan (1), and one daughter, Cecilia (6).

KENDRICK SHAVER

Cornerbacks

Missouri State, 2002 - Second Year at Utah State

Kendrick Shaver is entering his second year at Utah State after joining the Aggie staff in February, 2011. Prior to his current position, Shaver spent four years (2007-10) as the secondary coach at Northern Colorado.

"We wanted to make sure that we found the right coach that we wanted for the position, someone who is a talented, passionate coach who has recruiting experience and we feel we have found a great fit with Kendrick," USU head coach Gary Andersen said when announcing Shaver's hiring. "He came very, very highly recommended and the interview process was easy, as we quickly could tell that he was a great fit for the USU program and Utah State University."

During his first year at Utah State in 2011, Shaver's cornerbacks helped anchored an Aggie defense that finished the year ranking first in the WAC and 50th in the nation in total defense (366.23 ypg), second in the WAC and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.70 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd nationally in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (125.58), and third in the WAC and 59th in the nation in sacks (1.92 pg).

Under Shaver, Utah State's cornerbacks had three of the top five tacklers on the team in 2011 led by Nevin Lawson and Jumanne Robertson who ranked fourth and fifth on the team in stops with 73 and 48, respectively.

Robertson ended the season leading the team with 12 pass break-ups, while Lawson was second with 10 and Brady was third with six. Lawson also had one interception and one fumble recovery in 2011.

At Northern Colorado, Shaver coached two all-Big Sky Conference players, as cornerback Korey Askew earned first-team all-BSC honors in 2010 after being a second-team selection in 2009. Safety Max Hewitt was a three-time honorable mention all-BSC honoree in 2008, 2009 and 2010. Both Askew and Hewitt earned Phil Steele's Preseason all-Big Sky accolades with Askew named to the first-team and Hewitt collecting second-team honors.

Under Shaver's tutelage in 2010, Askew tallied 58 tackles to rank fourth on the team. He also recorded two tackles for loss, three interceptions for 18 yards and a touchdown, two fumble recoveries for 28 yards and one touchdown, one pass break up and one quarterback hurry. Hewitt was third on UNC with 65 tackles, including seven tackles for loss along with 1.5 sacks, while also notching five pass break-ups, two interceptions and one fumble recovery.

In 2009, Askew led all players in the Big Sky with 12 passes defended and his 112 interception return yards and 41 fumble recovery yards were also both the best marks in the league. Hewitt tied for third on the team with 74 total tackles in 2009 and he and Askew shared the team lead with three interceptions apiece.

Prior to Northern Colorado, Shaver was the secondary coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 2006.

homa A&M in 2006.

Before Northeastern Oklahoma A&M, Shaver spent two years as a graduate assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky University from 2004-05, where he worked with the defensive backs and assisted with the special teams.

In 2002, Shaver was the defensive backs and receivers coach at Hillcrest High School in Springfield, Mo.

A native of Eufaula, Okla., Shaver played two seasons (1998-99) at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College before transferring to Missouri State, where he was a free safety and cornerback in 2000 and 2001. With 11 pass break-ups in 2001, Shaver is presently tied for No. 6 on MSU's single-season pass defense list. Shaver spent the 2003 season playing for the Sioux Falls Storm of the NIFL before committing to coaching full-time.

Shaver graduated from Missouri State with a bachelor's degree in business in 2002 and went on to earn his master's degree in physical education in 2005 from Eastern Kentucky.

T.J. WOODS

Offensive Line

Azuza Pacific, 2002 - Fourth Year at Utah State

T.J. Woods is entering his fourth season at Utah State and second in charge of the Aggies' offensive line after coaching USU's tight ends and special teams his first two years.

"He's been involved with our offense for a number of years, so he is familiar with what we do and how we do it here at Utah State," USU head coach Gary Andersen said. "Coach Woods is a great recruiter. He's from the Southern California area, and having grown up there and played there so that is his recruiting area and he has used his ties to recruit some high-caliber players to Utah State."

In 2011, the Aggies' offensive line cleared the way for a Utah State offense that established new school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60). Two of the Aggies' first-team all-WAC honorees were offensive linemen as center Tyler Larsen and guard Philip Gapelu collected first-team all-WAC accolades. The offensive line duo are the first pair of Aggie offensive linemen to earn first-team all-conference honors since 1997.

During the 2011 season, Utah State's offense led the WAC and ranked sixth in FBS in rushing offense (282.7 ypg), as well as second in the conference and 20th in the country in total offense (457.3 ypg), along with first in the league and 23rd in the nation in scoring offense (33.6 ppg). The offensive line led USU to ranking second in the WAC and 33rd in Football Bowl Subdivision in sacks allowed, a significant improvement from 2010 when they were ranked 71st in the country.

In 2009 and 2010, Woods coached Utah State's tight ends and kickoff return unit, highlighted by Kerwyn Williams setting several FBS and WAC records, including single-season kickoff return yards (1,444) and single-season kickoff return yards per game (120.3). Williams led the WAC and ranked sixth in FBS in all-purpose yards per game (170.2) and also led the conference and ranked 21st in the country in kickoff return average (27.3), posting the ninth-best single-season all-purpose mark in the WAC with 2,042 yards. Williams was named to Phil Steele's College Football Review first-team all-WAC list at kick returner.

Woods came to Utah State from New Mexico, where he spent two seasons along side current Aggies offensive coordinator Matt Wells.

At New Mexico, Woods mentored junior center Erik Cook, who earned second-team all-Mountain West honors, as well as offensive tackle Byron Bell, who was named to the 2008 CollegeFootballNews.com all-Freshman team.

Cook is currently playing for the Washington Redskins, while Bell is starting on the Carolina Panthers' offensive line.

In 2007, Woods coached center Vince Natali and offensive tackle Devin Clark, who both earned first-team all-MWC accolades. Natali is now entering his first season as an offensive graduate assistant with USU.

Prior to working at New Mexico, Woods was an assistant coach at Citrus Junior College in Glendora, Calif., for one season. At Citrus, he was the offensive line coach/running game coordinator, helping the Fighting Owls to the Western States Conference South Division title.

Woods began his coaching career at his alma mater of Azuza Pacific as the offensive line assistant coach for one season before spending two seasons as tight ends coach. While at Azuza Pacific, Woods helped the Cougars to the NAIA national semifinals, as well as mentoring 2005 NAIA All-American tight end Ricky Burgan.

Woods, a native of San Dimas, Calif., was a two-year letterwinner at offensive tackle at Azuza Pacific, garnering NAIA first-team All-America accolades as well as being named to the first-team Don Hansen's Football Gazette NAIA All-America list in 2002. That season he anchored a Cougar offense that amassed 400 yards per game, ranking 13th in the country and the offensive line unit only gave up 12 sacks all season, the fewest allowed by a Cougar team in six seasons.

Prior to Azuza Pacific, Woods was at Iowa State for one season, signing with the Cyclones after two standout seasons at Citrus College, where he earned National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) All-America honors in 1999.

Woods earned his bachelor's degree in business from Azuza Pacific in 2002 and his master's degree in physical education in 2005, also from Azuza Pacific.

Woods is married to the former Kelly Williams.

ASSISTANT COACHES

STEVE MATHIS

Director of Football Operations/Team Coordinator
Snow College, 1980
Fourth Year at Utah State

Steve Mathis is entering his fourth season at Utah State, serving as the Aggies' team coordinator and Director of Football Operations.

Mathis, who worked with Gary Andersen at Utah for four years as the Utes' defensive administrative assistant, handles the program's daily operations as well as coordinating recruiting campus visits.

While at Utah, Mathis worked with the defensive coaching staff, handling office duties in addition to scout teams at practice and game day charting.

A native of Salt Lake City, Mathis has owned Abbey Carpets for the last 29 years. He was named Businessman of the Year from 2003-05. Mathis also serves on numerous business advisory boards and councils.

Mathis was an assistant coach at Alta High School from 2002-04. He was also a little league coach, and as head coach of the Alta Ute Conference eighth and ninth grade team, his squads captured five state titles and won a National Youth Football League championship.

He graduated from Snow College in 1980, where he was a member of the basketball team. He then attended Weber State and worked as an athletics trainer for the Wildcats, before getting into the business realm.

Mathis is married to the former Kari Handley and the couple has eight children: J.D., Nic, Tim, Cassandra, Chandra and Emma Mathis, and Cadon, Parker and Tyson Handley.

MARK ANDERSEN

Director of Football Operations
Westminster College, 1993
Third Year at Utah State

Mark Andersen is in his third year with the Utah State football program, serving as Director of Football Operations, joining his brother Gary Andersen's staff in mid-February, 2010.

Andersen is reuniting with his brother after previously working together at Utah and Southern Utah.

Andersen comes to Utah State after working at Utah since 2004, where he worked on the Utes' football operations staff. While at Utah, Andersen was in charge of team travel, game day operations, camps, public relations and many behind the scenes duties.

Prior to Utah, Andersen was at Southern Utah in 2003, serving as Director of Football Operations on Coach Andersen's staff.

A native of Salt Lake City, Andersen worked in the telecommunications engineering industry for 30 years in Salt Lake City and Denver, retiring in 2002. He earned his business/marketing degree from Westminster College in 1993.

Andersen has a son, Trent, a daughter, McCall, and one grandson, Alani.

ASSISTANT COACHES

VINCE NATALI

Offensive Graduate Assistant
New Mexico, 2008
First Year at Utah State

SPENCER TOONE

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Utah, 2005
Second Year at Utah State

Vince Natali (pronounced na-TAW-lee) is entering his first season on Gary Andersen's staff, serving as an offensive graduate assistant.

With Utah State, Natali will assist the offensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with offensive coordinator Matt Wells and the Aggie offensive line, working with USU offensive line coach T.J. Woods.

Prior to his current position at Utah State, Natali worked for two of the world's largest accounting and advising firms as he spent two years (2008-09) with KPMG in Albuquerque, N.M., and two years (2010-11) with PricewaterhouseCoopers in Chicago, Ill.

Natali, who was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner (2004-07) at center for the University of New Mexico, played for current Aggie coaches Wells and Woods during his senior season in 2007 as Wells was the wide receivers coach for the Lobos and Woods was an offensive line graduate assistant.

At New Mexico, Natali earned first-team all-Mountain West Conference honors during his senior season as he led the team with 118 knockdowns and allowed just one sack. During the year, Natali anchored an offensive line that led the Mountain West in scoring offense and ranked second in total offense.

During his senior season, Natali was the team's top-graded lineman as he posted an 80 percent overall performance grade in each game, including six games with 90 percent marks. He finished the season with double-digit knockdown blocks in eight games.

Natali was also a tremendous performer in the weight room during his collegiate career as he earned the team's Beefmaster Award for players weighing 276 pounds and above in 2007.

Along with earning first-team all-MWC honors, Natali was a second-team ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America during his senior year. Overall, Natali was a three-time academic all-MWC honoree and graduated in 2006 from UNM with a degree in finance as he posted a 3.86 GPA. He then earned his M.B.A from New Mexico in 2008.

Natali was born Feb. 10, 1985, in Park Ridge, Ill. His older brother, Steve, was an offensive lineman at Northwestern (2000-02). His parents Fausto and Nicolina were both born in Italy and he is fluent in the language.

Spencer Toone is entering his second season on the Aggie staff, but is no stranger to Gary Andersen's system, as Toone was a three-year starter under Andersen at Utah.

At Utah State, Toone serves as a defensive graduate assistant, working with Andersen as well as focusing on the Aggies' linebackers with linebackers coach Kevin Clune.

Toone is entering his second year as a coach after a two-year stint in the NFL with the Tennessee Titans. Toone was selected by the Titans with the 37th pick of the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft. He played three games for the Titans in 2006.

As a three-year starter at Utah, Toone earned first-team all-Mountain West Conference honors in his senior season of 2005, after tying for the league lead in tackles with 113, including five tackles for loss with 2.5 sacks. A team captain as a senior, Toone started all 12 games at rover and played every defensive snap in the first eight games of the season. As a junior, Toone earned honorable mention all-MWC honors after tying for second in the conference with 115 tackles. Toone finished his Utah career with 293 tackles, ranked 10th all-time in school history.

Off the field, Toone was a second-team ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America in 2005. He was a two-time academic all-District VIII first-team selection as a junior and senior after earning second-team accolades as a sophomore, as well as a three-time academic all-MWC honoree. He was also a member of Utah's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and Football Leadership Committee. Toone also earned Utah's President's Award as the team's best athlete with the highest GPA. Toone also attended the NCAA Leadership Conference in Orlando in May, 2003.

Prior to his time at Utah, Toone played one year at Ricks (Idaho) Junior College, leading Ricks in tackles and kickoffs returned for touchdowns in 1999, including a 97-yard kickoff return. He helped Ricks win the 1999 Real Dairy Bowl. Toone then went on an LDS Church Mission to Australia from 2000-02.

A native of Blackfoot, Idaho, Toone was a letterman in basketball, baseball and track & field at Snake River High School, and was an all-state free safety in 1997 and an all-state running back in 1998, leading Snake River to the 1997 and 1998 state championships.

Toone earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication science from Utah in 2005.

He is married to the former Kristen Brown and they have one daughter, Brooklyn.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ZACH NYBORG

Recruiting Coordinator /
Offensive Graduate Assistant
BYU, 2011
Third Year at Utah State

Zach Nyborg (pronounced Nye-borg) is in his third season with the Aggie football program, serving as the assistant to the head coach, recruiting coordinator, and as an offensive graduate assistant.

Nyborg continues to serve as Coach Andersen's assistant in the daily operations of the football program. He has added the title of recruiting coordinator, and will work with associate head coach/special teams coordinator Bill Busch to coordinate all the recruiting activities. Nyborg's duties include recruiting administration, organization, managing all official and unofficial visits, creating all outgoing recruiting campaigns, tracking all recruiting paperwork, and other assignments designated by the head coach. He is also the summer camp director for the youth and high school camps.

Nyborg, who worked with the defense in 2011, will move back to the offensive this year working with the quarterbacks as an offensive graduate assistant.

Nyborg joined the Utah State staff after two years as an assistant on the Timpview (Utah) High School staff. In those two years, Timpview won its third and fourth consecutive state championships and set a Utah HS record for consecutive wins with 36. During that time, Timpview was ranked 21st in the nation.

A Centerville, Utah native, Nyborg was a three-sport standout at Viewmont HS, lettering in football, basketball and track & field. After earning seven varsity letters, a back injury shortened his career. Nyborg was an all-region selection at quarterback, and a captain for the football team for one season. He was also a two-year captain for the track & field team and an academic all-state selection in basketball.

Nyborg, who served an LDS Church Mission to Knoxville, Tenn., from 2006-08, earned his bachelor's degree from Brigham Young in business management in the summer of 2011 and is currently pursuing a master's in physical and sport education at Utah State.

DAVID FIEFLA

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Utah State, 2003
First Year at Utah State

David Fiefla (pronounced Fee-eh-fee-uh) is in his first year with Utah State's football program and will be a graduate assistant coach for the Aggies' offense in the fall.

A native of West Valley City, Utah, Fiefla joins the Utah State staff after spending time away from football in the professional field.

Fiefla was a four-year letterwinner at running back with Utah State from 2000-03, earning first-team all-Sun Belt Conference honors as an all-purpose player in 2003, while also earning second-team all-Sun Belt accolades as both a running back and kick returner that same season. He was named Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 15, 2003, after recording 159 yards from scrimmage as he rushed 19 times for 77 yards and caught six passes for 82 more yards. He became the first Utah State player to record at least 70 rushing and 70 receiving yards in the same game since 2001.

After backing up Aggie legend Emmett White his first three seasons, Fiefla rushed for 967 yards with seven touchdowns as a senior, finishing his career with 1,193 yards and nine scores. He also caught 80 passes for 707 yards with two touchdowns and had 37 career punt returns for 366 yards as well as 37 kick returns for 791 yards.

As a running back at Hunter (Utah) High School, Fiefla was a two-time all-state honoree and the Mr. Football Award recipient in 1998.

He is married to the former Celestia Roberts of Lindon, Utah, and they have five children, Skyla (14), Mele (8), Afu (6), Kava (4) and Ezra (2), and are expecting another baby girl in August.

Fiefla earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Utah State in 2003 and is pursuing his master's of education in physical education/sports education.

Assistant
Nebraska, 2009
Third Year at Utah State

Hunter Teafatiller (pronounced Tee-fuh-tiller) is entering his third season with the Utah State coaching staff, serving as an offensive administrative assistant for the second year in a row after being a defensive administrative assistant in 2010.

Teafatiller will assist the offensive coaches with daily football operations, primarily working with USU offensive coordinator Matt Wells and specifically working with the Aggie tight ends.

Prior to Utah State, Teafatiller was a volunteer assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, in 2009, working with the tight ends and special teams.

Teafatiller played under current Utah State special teams coordinator Bill Busch at Nebraska, where Teafatiller was a four-year letterwinner from 2005-08, playing H-back. For his career, Teafatiller caught 12 passes for 139 yards (11.6 ypc) with four career touchdowns, which all came in his sophomore season.

A native of Kingsburg, Calif., Teafatiller played tight end and defensive end at San Joaquin Memorial High School. Teafatiller helped his team to the 2004 Valley championship. In the process, Teafatiller earned NYL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was also a first-team NYL selection at tight end and defensive end.

Teafatiller earned his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 2009.

KITE AFEAKI

Defensive
Administrative Assistant
Utah, 2006
First Year at Utah State

Kite Afeaki (pronounced kee-tay ah-fee-ah-kee) is beginning his first year with Utah State's football program as a defensive administrative assistant. In his role, Afeaki will assist the defensive coaches with the daily operations of the defensive unit. Duties include film breakdown, compilation of reports, and any other administrative duties as assigned by the coordinators or position coaches.

Prior to joining the Aggie football coaching staff, Afeaki spent over three years working for the state of Nevada.

As a collegiate defensive lineman, Afeaki spent two years (2004-05) at Utah where he played in 22 games and made seven career starts. During his senior season, Afeaki recorded 14 total tackles, including 3.0 for a loss of 12 yards. He also had 1.5 sacks during the year. His best outing during his senior season was versus Arizona as he made four stops, including two tackles for loss and one sack.

As a junior at Utah, Afeaki recorded 12 tackles including one for loss.

Before joining Utah's football program, Afeaki spent the 2003-04 academic year at Salt Lake Community College.

Afeaki began his collegiate career at Weber State (2000-01) as he appeared in nine games and recorded 12 tackles.

Afeaki prepped at West High School in Salt Lake City, Utah where he was second-team all-state and a two-time first-team all-region selection.

Afeaki, who was born April 19, 1982 on the island of Tonga, graduated from Utah with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2006 with a minor in criminology and corrections.

Afeaki is married to the former Uina Mokofisi and the couple has five girls, Finau (12), Henilieta (10), Matamoana (5), Sela (4) and Lataheanga (1), and one boy, Seleti (7).

NICK SCHINDLER

Special Teams
Administrative Assistant
Second Year at Utah State

Nick Schindler is in his second season as an administrative assistant for Utah State. In his role, Schindler will assist the special teams coaches with the daily operations of the special teams. Duties include film breakdown, compilation of reports, and any other administrative duties as assigned by the coordinators or position coaches.

Schindler, who is currently a senior at Utah State majoring in mathematics, began his collegiate career at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa where he spent three seasons playing tight end for the Mustangs Football team.

Schindler is originally from Creighton, Neb., and attended Creighton High School where he was a four-year letterman in football, basketball, baseball, and track & field. During his senior season, he earned all-state honors as an offensive tackle on the football team.

MIKE BAIR

Director of Equipment Operations
Utah State, 1995
15th Year at Utah State

Entering his 16th year as the athletic department's supervisor of athletic equipment is Mike Bair, who joined the staff in August, 1997.

In his role, Bair services all 16 sports with athletic equipment, uniforms and clothing, while also supervising student managers for many of the sports. He served on the Schutt Sports Athletic Council from 2003-05.

In January, 2010, Bair was named the District 8 Athletic Equipment Managers of America (AEMA) Equipment Manager of the Year.

A Lewiston, Utah native, Bair, who was born August 20, 1966, graduated from Sky View High School in Smithfield, Utah and Utah State with a business management degree in 1995.

Prior to coming to Utah State, Bair worked in the sporting goods industry doing retail and team sales.

Away from the equipment room, Bair works in the community with youth sports programs.

He and his wife, the former Michelle Parker, have three children, Makayla (18), Nick (16) and Adelynn (8). Makayla will be a junior at Utah State this fall.

BILL GARREN

Video Coordinator
Idaho State, 2002
Seventh Year at Utah State

Bill Garren is in his seventh year as the video coordinator for the Utah State athletics department.

Garren is responsible for managing all aspects of athletic video and editing within the athletics department, which includes training and supervising a staff of student assistants to shoot all the football practices and games along with men and women's basketball games. His responsibilities also include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the video room and assisting with the video needs of USU's 16 intercollegiate sports. Garren also provides technical support and training for coaches and support staff.

For the past three years, Garren has been voted the Western Athletic Conference Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA).

Prior to his current role at Utah State, Garren served as the video coordinator at Idaho State in 2000 and 2001 before moving to San Jose State for the 2002 season. He was then an assistant football and track coach at his high school in Montrose, Colo., in 2003 before spending the 2004 and 2005 seasons as video coordinator at Idaho State.

Garren earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 2005.

Garren, who was born April 3, 1976 in Grand Junction, Colo., was an all-conference football player at Montrose High School. He played two seasons at Ricks College (currently BYU-Idaho) and then one season at Idaho State before beginning his video career. He and his wife Melinda have three children, Maia (13), Milly (8) and Tyler (4).

EVAN SIMON

Strength & Conditioning
Head Coach
Frostburg State, 2002
Fourth Year at Utah State

Evan Simon is in his fourth season as Utah State's strength and conditioning head coach.

Simon came to Utah State after three years at the University of Utah where he was the Utes' associate director of strength and conditioning. During his time at Utah, he assisted with the conditioning workouts for the football and men's basketball teams, as well as coordinating workouts for softball, women's basketball and women's track and field in addition to developing rehabilitation programs for football and softball.

Simon is familiar with the Utah State football coaching staff, re-uniting with Aggie head coach Gary Andersen, who also came to USU from Utah.

Prior to Utah, Simon was the head strength and conditioning coach at Davidson College from 2004-06, where he coordinated the strength programs for the Wildcats' 21 Division I sports.

Before his stint at Davidson, Simon was a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kentucky from 2002-04, working with the football, baseball, men's soccer, and volleyball teams.

A native of Lexington Park, Md., Simon earned his health and physical education bachelor's degree from Frostburg State (Md.) in 2002. Simon also earned a master's of science degree in exercise physiology from Kentucky in 2004.

Simon is married to the former Linda Kyte. The couple has one daughter, Abbi (4).

2011 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1

Sept. 3

at Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium

#23 AUBURN 42, UTAH STATE 38

AUBURN, Ala. - Utah State had the defending national champions, No. 23/19 Auburn, on the ropes on Sept. 3, taking a 38-28 lead with 3:38 left, but the Aggies' upset bid came up short with a 42-38 loss on Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium. USU took a 38-28 lead with 3:38 to play on a one-yard touchdown plunge by senior running back Robert Turbin, his second of the day in his return to the USU lineup after missing the 2010 season with an injury. Auburn marched down the field and scored with 2:07 to go to make the score 38-35. On the ensuing kick, the Tigers recovered an on-side kick. Eight plays later, Auburn's Michael Dyer scored the game-winning touchdown with 30 seconds left. Freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton was 21-of-30 passing for 213 yards and added two rushing touchdowns as part of 33 rushing yards in his Aggie debut. Turbin rushed for 70 yards on 22 carries with two scores while junior running back Kerwynn Williams had 69 yards on the ground, including a 43-yard touchdown to open USU's scoring. Junior wide receiver Matt Austin had six catches for 67 yards, both career-highs. Senior wide receiver Stanley Morrison also returned to action after missing the 2010 season with an injury and had two catches to go along with an eight-yard pass on a fake field goal to set up USU's final touchdown. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner led the USU defensive unit with 10 tackles, including two for loss with one being a sack. Fellow senior linebacker Kyle Gallagher notched seven stops and junior safety McKade Brady logged six tackles. USU had 227 yards rushing and 221 passing yards for 448 yards of total offense. The Aggie defense held Auburn to just 78 rushing yards, while the Tigers threw for 286 yards, finishing with 364 total offensive yards. The Aggies got on the board first, as Williams scored from 43-yards out. Auburn tied it on a 56-yard pass play by Emory Blake from Barrett Trotter. Keeton scored his first career touchdown on a three-yard scamper on a fourth-and-goal play, one of three fourth downs converted by the Aggies, and Turbin scored his first touchdown of the game. Sophomore place-kicker Josh Thompson's PAT made it 21-7 in the Aggies' favor with 7:58 to go. Keeton's run capped a 15-play, 80-yard drive that ate up 7:27 on the clock, while Turbin's run ended a 16-play, 75-yard drive that took 6:52. Tre Mason returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown with 7:46 on the first half clock, and the score remained 21-14 with USU ahead at the half. Auburn tied it at 21-all on a Dyer 11-yard run, but USU later took a 24-21 lead on Thompson's first field goal of his Aggie career, splitting the uprights from 34-yards out with 4:52 remaining in the third quarter. Trotter later hit Travante Stallworth with a 39-yard pass play for a score with 1:57 to play in the third stanza, giving the Tigers a 28-24 lead. Keeton darted in from seven-yards out for his second score of the day that was the 14th play of an 80-yard drive, taking 5:37 off the clock for a 31-28 Aggie advantage. After the USU defense forced its fourth three-and-out of the game, the Aggie offense got the ball back. Keeton led the USU charge deep into Auburn territory, before facing a fourth-and-three from the AU 5, USU took a delay of game penalty to get a better angle for the field goal, going back to the AU 10. The Aggies lined up for the field goal, but faked it, with Morrison rolling out and hitting sophomore tight end D.J. Tialavea with a diving catch just shy of the goal line. After an official review confirmed the catch, two plays later Turbin plowed over from a yard out, giving USU a 38-28 lead with 3:38 to go, setting up the game's final drama.

GAME #2

Sept. 10

at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium

UTAH STATE 54, WEBER STATE 17

LOGAN, Utah - Robert Turbin rushed for a season-high 180 yards on 18 carries and Utah State rolled up 635 yards of total offense as the Aggies scored the final 44 points in a 54-17 blowout win against Weber State on Sept. 10 in USU's home opener. In all, Utah State scored on six-straight possessions in the second and third quarters, including four-straight touchdowns in posting its largest margin of victory under third-year head coach Gary Andersen. The 54 points scored by Utah State are its most since defeating Weber State, 56-43, on Nov. 17, 2001, the last meeting between the two teams. USU's 635 total yards rank as the sixth-most in school history and the most since racking up a school-record 684 yards against the Wildcats in 2001. The Aggies also grounded out 440 rushing yards in the game to rank as the fourth-most in school history and the most since running for 467 yards against Denver during the 1960 campaign. Utah State improves to 1-1 on the season with the win and is now 12-1 all-time against Weber State, who falls to 0-2 with the loss. Turbin's 180 yards were 10 yards shy of his career-high 190 yards, but pushed the junior past the 2,000-yard mark for his career, becoming just the eighth USU running back in school history to reach the 2,000-yard plateau. Utah State trailed 17-10 with 4:42 to play in the first-half following a 45-yard field goal from Weber State's Shaun McClain, but tied the game at 17-17 on Turbin's first of two touchdown runs in the game from 14 yards out with 53 seconds to play in the half. The second half began just the way the first half ended as Utah State went 90 yards on nine plays and capped its drive with a five-yard touchdown run by freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton. Turbin scored his second touchdown of the night on USU's next possession from 31-yards and Keeton connected with senior wide receiver Matt Austin for a 49-yard score on its next series. Utah State then scored on a 39-yard field from sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson and concluded the romp with a pair of four-quarter touchdowns as junior wide receiver Chuck Jacobs scored on a 29-yard strike from Keeton capping a three-play, 99-yard drive and redshirt freshman running back Joe Hill scored his first career touchdown on a 14-yard scamper. Keeton finished the game completing 10-of-15 passes for 166 yards and two scores, for his first touchdown passes of his Aggie career. The freshman added 53 rushing yards on nine carries. Senior linebackers Bobby Wagner and Kyle Gallagher each had 10 tackles to lead Utah State's defense, while junior defensive tackle Al Lapuaho finished with one sack and six total stops. Weber State forced Utah State into a pair of first-half turnovers and scored on three of four possessions in the first and second quarter as the Wildcats amassed 139 yards of offense and possessed the ball for 17:51 as it led for much of the half. The Aggies were also called for seven first-half penalties for 70 yards before being whistled for just one infraction in the second-half. WSU managed just 74 yards and four first downs in the second 30 minutes, while USU produced 382 yards and out-scored the visitors 54-17.

GAME #3

Sept. 24

at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium

COLORADO STATE 35, UTAH STATE 34

LOGAN, Utah - Junior running back Robert Turbin scored a career-high four rushing touchdowns, including a 25-yard burst in the second overtime to bring Utah State within one, but he was stopped on his two-point conversion and USU dropped a heartbreaker to Colorado State, 35-34, on Sept. 24 in front of 22,599 Homecoming fans. Utah State, who had four turnovers on the night including two muffed punts, falls to 1-2 on the season with the loss and Colorado State improves to 3-1 with the win. USU appeared to be on its way to a fourth-quarter win as it lead 21-13 with just over two minutes remaining and Colorado State punting, but the Aggies muffed the punt and the Rams recovered the ball at Utah State's 15-yardline. Four plays later, CSU's Chris Nwoke scored on a one-yard rush and quarterback Pete Thomas hit Crockett Gillmore for the two-point conversion with 36 seconds to play, sending the game into overtime. Both teams registered touchdowns in the first overtime as Utah State scored first on a nine-yard run from Turbin, but Colorado State answered on a touchdown pass from Thomas to Gillmore. In the second overtime, Colorado State had the ball first and scored on a two-yard run from Nwoke. USU quickly answered as Turbin scored his fourth touchdown of the night on the first play of the drive from 25 yards out. Utah State then decided to go for the two-point conversion and the win as freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton's pass to senior wide receiver Matt Austin was incomplete, but CSU was called for pass interference. With the ball moved from the three to the one-and-half following the penalty, Turbin rushed left but was stopped short of the goal. Turbin finished the night with 115 yards on 24 carries for his 10th-career 100-yard rushing game and Utah State ended the game with 281 rushing yards on 52 carries. Senior running back Michael Smith added 77 rushing yards on nine carries, including a 51-yard scamper in the second quarter highlighting a 3-play, 68-yard drive that was capped off with a 14-yard run from junior running back Kerwynn Williams for the Aggies first score of the night. Keeton was 9-of-15 passing for 86 yards and added 44 yards on the ground on 13 carries as Utah State finished the game with 367 total yards. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner finished the game with 17 tackles, tying his career-high for the third time, while fellow senior linebacker Kyle Gallagher added 10 stops. Senior defensive end Levi Koskan added two sacks, and senior safety Alfred Bowden registered the team's first turnover of the year with a fumble recovery. Colorado State, who won the time of possession battle 34:19 to 25:41, had 232 yards of total offense as it rushed for 168 yards and passed for 108. CSU also won the turnover battle as it forced USU into four miscues and committed just one of its own, a fumble in the fourth quarter that resulted into an eight-play, 27-yard drive that Turbin capped with a one-yard run to give the home team a 21-13 advantage.

GAME #4

Sept. 30

at LaVell Edwards Stadium

BRIGHAM YOUNG 27, UTAH STATE 24

PROVO, Utah - Robert Turbin rushed for 123 yards including an 80-yard touchdown burst on the first offensive play of the game, but BYU scored the final 14 points, including the winning touchdown with 11 seconds remaining as the Cougars rallied for a 27-24 win against Utah State at LaVell Edwards Stadium on Sept. 30. Utah State, who has now lost three games in the waning seconds, falls to 1-3 on the season with the loss, while BYU improves to 3-2 with the win. Leading 14-13 at halftime, Utah State scored on its first possession of the second-half as freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton hit Turbin on a screen pass that resulted in a 24-yard touchdown capping off a 12-play, 89-yard drive that took 4:49 off the clock. USU later added a 21-yard field goal from sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson early on in the fourth quarter to give the visitors their largest lead of the game at 24-13 with 12:43 remaining. BYU answered with an 8-play, 60-yard drive that concluded with a 24-yard touchdown strike from Riley Nelson to Cody Hoffman to cut the deficit to 24-20 with 10:05 to play in the game. After Utah State failed on a fake field goal attempt on its next possession, BYU drove inside the USU 30-yard line before senior safety Chris Harris forced and recovered a JJ DiLuigi fumble. Utah State could not pick up a first down on its next series but received a 67-yard punt from junior Tyler Bennett that was downed at the four-yard line. With 2:36 to play, BYU drove 96 yards in nine plays that culminated with a 13-yard touchdown pass from Nelson to Marcus Mathews with 11 seconds remaining to cement the comeback. On its final drive, Nelson completed a 40-yard pass that moved the ball from the BYU 34 to the USU 26. Utah State finished the game with 294 yards rushing as part of its 406 yards of total offense. BYU amassed 451 yards (200-rushing, 251-passing), including 198 yards in the final quarter. BYU also won the time of possession battle, 34:13 to 25:47, and had 11 more first downs (29-18). Keeton finished the game 13-of-25 passing for 122 yards including two touchdowns, while senior tight end Tarren Lloyd caught a team-best three passes for 24 yards. Turbin also had two catches for 22-yards on the night, including his 24-yard score. Senior running back Michael Smith had another productive night for the Aggies as he carried the ball nine times for 85 yards, including a 53-yard scamper in the fourth quarter. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner had a game-high 11 tackles and senior safety Walter McClenton added nine stops. After Utah State's initial touchdown in the first quarter, BYU scored 10-straight points and held the lead until late in the second half when Keeton hit senior wide receiver Eric Moats for a 13-yard strike to cap off a 13-play, 78-yard drive that took 4:01 off the clock. BYU ended the scoring in the first half with a 29-yard field goal to make the score 14-13 at intermission.

2011 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #5

Oct. 8

at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium

UTAH STATE 63, WYOMING 19

LOGAN, Utah - Freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton threw for 213 yards and a school-record tying five touchdowns and junior running back Robert Turbin rushed for 111 yards and added two more scores as Utah State scored the final 42 points in a dominating 63-19 home win against Wyoming on Oct. 8, inside Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium. In all, USU scored touchdowns on its first eight possessions of the game. For Utah State, the 63 points scored are its most since winning at Idaho, 63-17, on Oct. 25, 1997, while its 44-point margin of victory is its largest since defeating New Mexico State at home, 47-2, on Nov. 29, 2008. With the five touchdowns, Keeton becomes the fourth different Aggie quarterback to hit the school record, and the sixth time, and the first since Anthony Calvillo threw for five scores against BYU in 1993. Calvillo and Tony Adams had accomplished the feat twice each while Brent Snyder reached it once. Keeton finished the game completing 15-of-20 passes and added 44 rushing yards on four carries, while Turbin posted his fourth-straight 100-yard rushing game. Senior running back Michael Smith added a career-best three touchdowns during the game as he finished with 51 rushing yards on eight carries and one reception for 53 yards. Smith's three touchdowns are the most since Turbin had five total scores in the Idaho game in 2009. Wagner led Utah State's defense with 12 tackles and added his third career interception late in the second quarter. Wagner's oskie was the first interception of the season for the Aggie defense. Wyoming took the opening kickoff and drove 77-yards on seven plays to take a 6-0 lead after its two-point conversion attempt failed. On the ensuing kickoff, USU's Kerwynn Williams was unable to gain possession of the ball and UW recovered it in the end zone for a 12-0 lead just 2:54 into the game after missing the extra point. Williams followed up his miscue with a 50-yard return on Wyoming's next kickoff, leading to a one-yard touchdown run by Turbin for Utah State's first score of the night. USU took its first lead of the game on its next possession as it went 80-yards in just six plays, culminating with a 53-yard screen pass from Keeton to Smith giving the home team a 14-12 lead. Both teams traded touchdowns early on in the second quarter as Utah State went 99-yards in just seven plays and Wyoming answered with a five-play, 60-yard drive to make the score 21-19 Utah State with 12:54 remaining in the first half. From there on it was all Aggies, as Utah State scored the final 21 points of the first half on touchdown passes of 18 yards to D.J. Tialavea, eight yards to Stanley Morrison and six yards to Tarren Lloyd to make the score 42-19 at intermission. Tialavea's touchdown catch was not only the first of his career, but the first by a tight end this season, and Lloyd's was the second. Utah State opened the second half just as it ended the first as Smith scored on a 14-yard rush to cap a three-play, 33-yard drive. Smith scored his second touchdown of the quarter and third of the game on USU's next possession from one-yard out to cap an 11-play, 82-yard drive. Following a fumble recovery by Tevita Vaifoou in the fourth quarter, Utah State scored its final touchdown of the night on a four-yard run by Robert Marshall with 2:53 remaining in the game. Utah State finished the game with 548 yards of total offense (318-rushing, 230-passing) and Wyoming produced 394 yards (129-rushing, 265-passing). The Aggies' 548 yards is tied for the seventh-most in school history and the most since 567 yards versus Montana in 1968. USU, who averaged 6.0 yards per play on the night, finished with 29 first downs and converted its first eight third downs. UW won the time-of-possession battle, 31:06 to 28:54.

GAME #6

Oct. 15

at Bulldog Stadium

FRESNO STATE 31, UTAH STATE 21

FRESNO, Calif. - Utah State opened the game with a 14-0 first quarter lead, but could not hold on, falling to Fresno State, 31-21, on Oct. 15 at Bulldog Stadium. USU falls to 2-4 overall and 0-1 in WAC action. Fresno State moves to 3-4 overall and 2-0 in league play. The Aggies amassed 454 yards of total offense, including 260 on the ground, led by junior running back Robert Turbin's 155 yards rushing with one touchdown, his fifth-straight 100-yard rushing outing. Senior running back Michael Smith added 71 yards and a score, while adding 52 yards receiving with another score. Freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton was 15-of-31 passing for 194 yards with one touchdown. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner totalled eight tackles, his first game this season without double-digit tackles. Fellow senior linebacker Kyle Gallagher and sophomore cornerback Nevin Lawson had six stops apiece. Fresno State's Robbie Rouse ran for 140 yards on 24 carries while Derek Carr was 23-of-39 passing for 248 yards with two touchdowns. USU opened the scoring with a 47-yard pass play from Keeton to Smith. After junior safety McKade Brady recovered a fumble to thwart a Fresno State drive at the Bulldogs' six yardline, the Aggies marched down the field and scored on Turbin's 59-yard dash down the sideline. Fresno State countered to get on the board with a 23-yard pass play from Derek Carr to Isaiah Burse to pull the Bulldogs within 14-7 with 4:07 on the first quarter clock. After holding USU to a punt, Fresno State's drive closed out the first quarter and overlapped into the second quarter, with Carr capping the drive with a one-yard plunge. Sophomore running back Kerwynn Williams had a 52-yard return on the ensuing kick to give USU good field possession, followed by a 46-yard touchdown from Smith for a 21-14 Aggie lead with 11:24 left in the first half. After the teams exchanged punts to open the second half, Fresno State closed the gap to 21-17 with 7:47 remaining in the third quarter with a 39-yard field goal. USU drove down and were threatening to score, but the drive stalled to end the third quarter and the fourth frame opened with a blocked field goal attempt by sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson. The Bulldogs countered with an 80-yard drive, capped by a wild 23-yard pass play from Carr to Saunders for a 24-21 Fresno State lead. USU fumbled on its next possession, giving Fresno State a short field with only 23 yards to go, needing seven plays to reach payturf as Rouse darted in from nine-yards out for a 31-21 Bulldogs' lead with 8:05 left, for the final scoring. USU tried a 53-yard field goal in the waning minutes, but freshman PK Jacob Heauter's kick hit the upright, and Fresno State ran out the clock.

GAME #7

Oct. 22

at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium

LOUISIANA TECH 24, UTAH STATE 17

LOGAN, Utah - Freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton threw for 128 yards and added 27 yards on the ground and senior linebacker Bobby Wagner posted a career-high 20 tackles, but Utah State was out-scored 10-0 in the fourth quarter leading to a 24-17 home loss to Louisiana Tech on Oct. 22. USU falls to 2-5 overall and 0-2 in WAC play with the loss, while LTU improves to 3-4 on the season and 2-1 in league play with the win. All five off USU's losses have been by 10 points or less, including four by one score. Utah State, who entered the game as the sixth-best rushing offense in the nation averaging 297.2 yards per game, was held to a season-low 166 rushing yards. USU also ranked 19th in the country in total offense entering Saturday's game averaging 476.0 yards per game, but was held to a season-low 294 yards as it finished with 128 passing yards. Utah State's 17 points were also a season-low after entering the week ranking 18th in the nation with an average of 39.0 points per game. Louisiana Tech had just 232 yards of total offense in the game (86-rushing, 146-passing) and lost the time of possession battle, 31:11 to 28:49, but converted a USU interception and illegal kicking penalty deep in its own end of the field for 10 points. Junior running back Robert Turbin finished with just 81 yards on 16 carries, marking the first time since the season-opener at Auburn that he didn't rush for a 100 yards. Turbin did score on a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner posted a career-high 20 tackles, which included two sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss. Wagner also had two quarterback hurries in the game. It was Wagner's sixth double-digit tackle outing in the Aggies' seven games and he now has 20 career games with double-figure stops. Louisiana Tech was led by Lennon Creer's 62 yards rushing on 17 carries with one touchdown, while quarterback Nick Isham was 10-of-22 for 63 yards before being relieved by Colby Cameron, who finished 4-of-6 passing for 38 yards. Adrian Cole led the Bulldogs' defense with 14 tackles. Louisiana Tech got on the scoreboard first with its initial drive of the game, going 87-yards in 10 plays that was capped with a three-yard touchdown run by Creer. Utah State scored the next 10 points on Turbin's one-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter and a career-long 43-yard field goal from sophomore kicker Josh Thompson in the second to make the score 10-7 at halftime. Both teams traded touchdowns in the third quarter as LTU's Terry Carter intercepted Keeton and returned it 22-yards to make it 14-10 visitors. It was Keeton's first interception this season. On the ensuing possession, USU drove 87-yards in nine plays, culminating with a career-long 29-yard touchdown run by Keeton. Trailing 17-14, Louisiana Tech marched 58-yards in eight plays on its first possession of the fourth quarter that resulted in an eight-yard touchdown run by Hunter Lee to give the Bulldogs a 21-17 advantage. LTU added three more points late in the quarter on a 24-yard field goal by Matt Nelson after Aggie punter Tyler Bennett fumbled the snap on a fourth-and-one and was penalized for an illegal kick, giving the Bulldogs the ball at the USU 11 yard-line with just under five minutes to play in the game. Utah State had one last chance to drive the field and score the tying touchdown after junior kick returner Kerwynn Williams returned LTU's kickoff back to the USU 41 with 2:39 to play, but the Aggies were stopped just four plays later on a fourth-and-six, turning it over on downs.

GAME #8

Nov. 5

at Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium

UTAH STATE 35, HAWAII 31

HONOLULU - Junior quarterback Adam Kennedy rallied Utah State from a 28-7 halftime deficit for a wild 35-31 win at Hawai'i on Nov. 5 at a rainy Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium. USU's comeback from a 28-7 deficit was its largest since 2001, rallying from a 27-0 deficit against Idaho State and was the Aggies' largest comeback against an FBS team since at least 1990 according to available records. Kennedy replaced freshman starting quarterback Chuckie Keeton who suffered a neck injury at the end of the first half and was 8-of-12 passing for 163 yards with his first two touchdown passes of his Aggie career, including a 71-yard strike to senior wide receiver Stanley Morrison to pull USU within 31-28 with 12:39 left in the fourth quarter. The Kennedy-led Aggie offense also guided the winning drive that was capped by junior running back Robert Turbin's game-winning score from one-yard out with 14 seconds to play. It was Utah State's first win at Hawai'i since 1966 as USU had lost its last three games at UH. Turbin scored two rushing touchdowns as part of his 96 yards on the ground, as his one-yard game-winning score was joined by a 48-yard dash to open USU's second-half scoring. Morrison finished with 105 yards, one of three Aggie receivers to snare a touchdown catch. Senior Matt Austin had a nine-yard catch from Keeton on USU's second possession of the game that gave the Aggies a 7-0 lead. Austin finished with three receptions for 51 yards. Junior wideout Chuck Jacobs had three catches for 50 yards, both career highs, including a 37-yard strike from Keeton. The Aggie defense was steadfast and resolute throughout the night, holding off three Hawai'i fourth-down attempts, and keeping the UH offense in check in the second half. Junior cornerback McKade Brady posted a game-high 13 tackles (nine solo, four assists). Lawson and junior cornerback Jummane Robertson added three pass break-ups each, while junior defensive end Bojay Filimoeatu had two tackles for loss, including one sack. Senior linebacker Kojay Gallagher added 1.5 tackles for loss with half a sack, as part of his six tackles, matching Lawson's half-dozen tackles. Senior defensive end Levi Koskan added a sack while junior defensive lineman Havea Lasike added half a sack, combining with Gallagher. Hawai'i was led by Moniz with 27-of-43 passing for 227 yards, 111 yards below his season average, throwing for two scores, but was sacked by the USU defense three times. Moniz added a team-high 75 yards rushing on 12 carries, with two of them being touchdown scampers. Jeremiah Ostrowski had eight catches for 76 yards and one score, while Billy Ray Stutzmann added six catches for 36 yards and Justin Clapp had five receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown. Corey Paredes led the UH defense with 10 tackles.

GAME #9

Nov. 12

at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium

UTAH STATE 34, SAN JOSE STATE 33

LOGAN, Utah - Junior quarterback Adam Kennedy threw a pair of late fourth quarter touchdowns rallying Utah State to a come-from-behind victory for the second time in as many weeks with a 34-33 win against San Jose State on a snowy Nov. 12 at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium. Utah State, who scored the final 21 points last week in defeating Hawai'i (35-31), scored the final 13 points Saturday to erase a late 12-point deficit. USU entered its game against the Warriors last week having blown fourth-quarter leads in five of its first seven games. Utah State, who has won back-to-back games for the first time this year, improves to 4-5 on the season and 2-2 in WAC action. San Jose State, who has held double-digit leads in each of its last two games, falls to 3-7 overall and 2-4 in league play with the loss. Kennedy finished the game with 255 passing yards and two touchdowns as he was 21-for-27 with one interception. Junior running back Robert Turbin added 128 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 22 carries giving him 1,049 yards on the season marking the 15th time in school history that a USU player has hit the century mark in a single-season and just the fifth to do it twice in a career. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner also had a milestone game for Utah State as he finished with 12 tackles for his 21st-career double-digit tackle game. Following 10 fourth quarter points from San Jose State to give the Spartans a 33-21 advantage midway through the final period, Kennedy led Utah State on an 11-play, 65-yard drive that culminated in a 14-yard touchdown pass to sophomore wide receiver Travis Van Leeuwen with 5:19 remaining to make the score 33-28 JSU. On the ensuing possession, Utah State's defense forced the Spartans into a three-and-out and the Aggies got the ball back on its own 25-yardline with 3:43 remaining. On its game-winning drive, Utah State ran the ball on its first five plays with three rushes from Turbin and two from Kennedy moving the ball down to the San Jose State 45. Kennedy then hit sophomore wide receiver Travis Reynolds for 17 yards and senior running back Michael Smith rushed for seven yards before Kennedy connected with senior wide receiver Matt Austin from 21 yards out with 47 seconds to play for the winning score. USU couldn't connect on its two-point attempt leaving the home team with a slim one-point advantage. Utah State's final drive covered 75 yards in eight plays and took 2:56 off the clock. On its last possession of the game, San Jose State drove from its own 28 to the 50 and attempted a game-winning 67-yard field goal on the final play of the game, but the kick was blocked by senior tight end Tarron Lloyd and returned by Wagner to the Spartans 24-yardline as time expired. Utah State finished the game with 541 yards of total offense (286-rushing, 255-passing) and San Jose State had 394 total yards (54-rushing, 340-passing). USU also converted 9-of-14 third downs, but also lost four fumbles on the afternoon and had five total turnovers in the game. San Jose State converted a pair of field goals on its first two possessions before Utah State took its first lead of the game on a 39-yard touchdown run by Turbin. JSU immediately answered the Aggies' score with a 95-yard kick return and later scored again from five-yards out giving the visitors a 20-7 lead after the first 15 minutes. Utah State took advantage of a short field early in the third quarter as senior defensive end Levi Koskan forced and recovered a fumble following a sack on San Jose State quarterback Matt Faulkner. Turbin then scored his second touchdown of the game from four yards out. After San Jose State increased its advantage to nine at 23-14 following a 21-yard field goal, senior running back Michael Smith raced for a 77-yard touchdown run to get the Aggies within two late in the third quarter. Smith finished the game with 91 rushing yards on just eight carries.

GAME #10

Nov. 19

at Kibbie Dome

UTAH STATE 49, IDAHO 42

MOSCOW, Idaho - Utah State registered its third-straight game-winning touchdown in the final minute or with no time on the clock with a wild 49-42 double-overtime win at Idaho on Nov. 19. Junior running back Robert Turbin rushed for a career-high 208 yards with three rushing touchdowns, two coming in overtime while senior linebacker Bobby Wagner gathered in a deflection and collected an interception at the goal-line to seal the win. The victory evens USU's record at 5-5, the Aggies' first season with five wins since 2000 and best record through 10 games since that same 2000 season. Utah State has also won three in a row for the first time since 2001, in addition to being the Aggies' first three-game conference and FBS win streak since 2000. The Aggies improve to 3-2 in WAC action, their best WAC mark through five games in its seven years in the league and best conference ledger through five games since a 3-2 Big West record in 2003. Saturday was USU's third-straight game in which the Aggies scored in the final minute or with no time on the clock as in overtime, and was also USU's seventh game this season decided by one score. With the loss, Idaho falls to 2-9 overall and 1-3 in WAC play on the season. After not playing in an overtime game since 2002, USU has now played in two this season with a 35-34 double overtime loss to Colorado State on Sept. 24. Turbin went over 3,000 yards for his career and broke USU's single-season rushing touchdown, single-season total touchdown, single-season scoring and the Aggies' career scoring records. His three touchdowns give him a total of 296 points for his career, breaking the USU career points record of 284 held by former placekicker Brad Bohn (1997-2000) with 284. Turbin also broke USU's single-season rushing touchdown record, as his three on Saturday give him 19 on the year, breaking away from a tie with Abu Wilson (1996) who had the previous record of 16. The three touchdowns also set a new USU single-season total touchdown record, as Turbin now has 21 on the season, breaking his own record of 18 he set in 2009. Furthermore, Turbin also broke his own USU single-season scoring record, now with 126 points, breaking his 2009 record of 110. Turbin also became just the fifth Aggie running back to rush for over 3,000 career yards, and the first since Demario Brown (1996-99), who is the school rushing record holder with 4,053. USU had 310 total rushing yards as part of 492 yards of total offense, as junior quarterback Adam Kennedy was 13-of-18 passing for 182 yards with two touchdowns. Idaho had 450 yards of total offense with 275 passing and 175 rushing. The Aggies opened a 21-10 lead in the first half, but Idaho rallied with 18 third-quarter points and another touchdown in the fourth, knotting the game at 35-all with 9:14 left in regulation, forcing overtime. Junior safety McKade Brady had a career-best 16 tackles, his second double-digit tackle outing in the last three games, while Wagner posted 11 stops, his eighth double-digit tackle outing of the season and 22nd of his career. Junior cornerback Will Davis posted 10 tackles. Senior running back Michael Smith rushed for two touchdowns and sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson was 7-of-7 on extra points extending his USU single-season PAT record, now with 48 on the year.

GAME #11

Nov. 26

at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium

UTAH STATE 21, NEVADA 17

LOGAN, Utah - Senior wide receiver Stanley Morrison's touchdown pass to junior running back Robert Turbin as time expired in the third quarter pushed the Utah State football team over Nevada, 21-17, as the Aggies celebrated Senior Day on Nov. 26 at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium by becoming bowl eligible with their sixth win of the season. The Aggies also captured their fourth-straight win to improve to 6-5 this season and 4-2 in WAC action. This is also USU's first six-win season since 1997. It is the Aggies' first four-game win streak since 2001, when USU also won four in a row, and Utah State has won four WAC games for the first time in the Aggies' seven years in the league and was USU's first four-game conference winning streak since 2000 in the Big West Conference. The win over the Wolf Pack was also the first for the Aggies since 1950, snapping a seven-game home losing streak to Nevada. It was USU's eighth game this season decided by one score. Nevada falls to 6-5 overall and 4-2 in WAC action. USU ended with 373 total offense yards, with 199 rushing and 174 passing, while Nevada accumulated an even 500 yards with 315 passing and 185 rushing, dominated the time of possession to the tune of 34:37-25:23. Junior running back Kerwynn Williams had 71 yards on nine carries with one touchdown, while Turbin had 18 rushes for 61 yards, including a four-yard gain on a crucial 4th-and-1 from the USU 44 with 1:41 left in the game. Turbin also had two catches for 36 yards, including the game-winning 34-yard touchdown. Junior wide receiver Matt Austin also had a touchdown catch, on a 21-yard snag in the back of the endzone. Junior quarterback Adam Kennedy was 7-of-14 passing for 140 yards with one touchdown pass. Nevada was led by Rishard Matthews with 12 catches for 205 yards with one touchdown, a 76-yard scoring play on a screen pass from Tyler Lantrip. Lampford Mark added 111 yards on 22 carries with one touchdown, a 35-yard scamper in the second quarter. Senior linebacker Bobby Wagner had a team-high 15 tackles, fellow senior linebacker Kyle Gallagher added 11 tackles and junior safety McKade Brady posted 10 tackles. Nevada jumped out a 10-0 lead on a 19-yard field goal by Jake Hurst with 5:44 in the first quarter. Mark opened the second stanza scoring for the Wolf Pack with a 35-yard run, capping a 9-play, 95-yard drive for Nevada with a touchdown. USU got on the board with 2:37 remaining until half on a 10-yard option run by Williams. The 89-yard drive was boosted by a big 53-yard pass play from Kennedy to senior wide receiver Eric Moats, which was Moats' career-long reception. Nevada tried to take a 13-3 lead into intermission, but Hurst's 31-yard field goal attempt was wide right as time expired, leaving the halftime score remaining 10-3 in Nevada's favor. Utah State took its first lead of the game with 1:48 left in the third quarter when Kennedy threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Austin in the back of the end zone. After Fajardo got hurt on Nevada's previous possession, Lantrip came on in the Wolf Pack's ensuing possession and hit Matthews with the screen pass, that he broke through and dashed off to the endzone, quickly re-gaining the lead for Nevada. The Aggies needed only five plays to march 77 yards, with Williams darting 25 yards for a first down, and then seven yards on the next play. USU took a timeout with two seconds left in the quarter, setting up the Morrison to Turbin pass play for the touchdown. Later in the fourth, Nevada drove down to the USU 12. Facing a 4th-and-1 from the 12, Lantrip ran an option play, but was stripped by senior defensive end Quinn Garner and Wagner recovered at the 11, ending the Wolf Pack's drive and getting the ball back for the Aggies. USU took over with 5:14 on the clock, and ate up the clock with 12 rushes, sparked by Turbin's fourth-down dash. After Nevada used all of its timeouts, the last coming on a 3rd-and-10 from the USU 48, Kennedy darted through a huge hole created by the offensive line for the first down. Kennedy took one knee as the clock wound down sparking the Aggies' celebration.

Dec. 3

at Aggie Memorial Stadium

UTAH STATE 24, NEW MEXICO STATE 21

LAS CRUCES, N.M. - For the first time since 1979, Utah State football has seven regular-season wins as the navy Aggies won another thriller with a 24-21 win at New Mexico State on Dec. 3. Junior quarterback Adam Kennedy hit junior wide receiver Matt Austin with an eight-yard touchdown toss with 35 seconds left. After a squib kick on the kickoff, sophomore cornerback Nevin Lawson intercepted NMSU quarterback Matt Christian's pass to seal the visiting Aggies' win. It is the first seven-win regular season for Utah State since 1979, and just the 21st time in 113 seasons of football of having at least seven wins. It was also USU's fifth WAC win of the season, the Aggies' most victories in their seven years in the league. It is Utah State's best conference mark since a 4-1 Big West record in 2000 and first five conference win season for USU since 1993. Saturday was Utah State's fifth win in a row overall, including third-straight road win, the first three-game win streak away from home since 1993. It is the Aggies' first three-game true road game win streak since 1989. The five-game win streak overall is the most wins in a row since 1993. It was Utah State's fourth win this season with less than a minute or no time on the clock, joining the Aggies' wins at Hawai'i, at Idaho and home vs. San Jose State. Utah State's offensive line played the way for the visiting Aggies' rushing attack to amass 392 rushing yards. The 392 rushing yards gives USU 3,330 rushing yards on the season, a new school record, bettering the previous mark of 3,120 set in 1960. USU ended the day with 515 yards of total offense, as Kennedy was 12-of-16 passing for 123 yards with a season-high three touchdowns. Senior running back Michael Smith had a career-best outing with 121 yards on 18 carries, while junior running back Robert Turbin had 98 yards on 25 rushes and Kennedy added a career-high 95 yards on 15 carries. Junior running back Kerwynn Williams also had 68 yards rushing. Austin ended the game with 32 yards receiving on five catches, while senior wide receiver Stanley Morrison had four receptions for 60 yards, extending his WAC-leading receptions streak to 36-straight games. NMSU, which lost its third-straight game to end the season with a 4-9 overall and 2-6 WAC mark, tallied 397 yards of total offense, as Christian was 17-of-40 passing for 252 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. It was a scoreless first quarter, in which USU had two chances inside the NMSU 10, going for it on fourth down both times, but not getting it either time. The visiting Aggies got on the board early in the second quarter, when Kennedy hit Turbin with a 21-yard touchdown toss for a 7-0 USU advantage with 8:52 on the second quarter clock. NMSU countered on its next possession, with Christian scrambling for a 16-yard touchdown run to tie it at 7-7 with 6:43 left in the half. USU took a 14-7 lead after a six-yard touchdown pass from Kennedy to Austin with 1:39 to go in the first half. NMSU drove the ball down the field as the first half clock wound down, getting down to the USU 2 with 18 seconds left. But on third-down, senior linebacker Kyle Gallagher snared his first career interception. Kennedy took a knee to end the half, sending the teams into the locker room with the scoreboard reading 14-7 in USU's favor. After a USU fumble at midfield on its opening drive of the third quarter, Christian hit Kemonte Bateman with a 51-yard touchdown pass to tie it at 14-14 with 13:22 remaining in the third stanza. Sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson gave USU a 17-14 lead with 9:46 left in the fourth with a 23-yard field goal, capping a 15-yard drive in which the navy Aggies ran every play, eating up 6:21 to go 75 yards. NMSU needed just three plays and 1:08 to march 66 yards, with Turner capping the drive with a three-yard touchdown run and the PAT gave NMSU a 21-17 lead with 8:29 left. After the teams traded punts, USU got the ball on its own 17 with 5:04 on the clock. After nine-straight running plays, the visiting Aggies reached the NMSU 14 with just under a minute left, facing a fourth-and-two. Kennedy ran an option play and had just long enough reach to get the first down just inside the 12. On the next play, Smith plowed ahead for a four-yard gain and on the following play, Kennedy hit Austin with a toss in the corner of the endzone for the game-winning touchdown with 35 seconds left.

GAME #13

Dec. 17

at Bronco Stadium (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl)

OHIO 24, UTAH STATE 23

BOISE, Idaho - In a season full of close finishes, the outcome at the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was no different for Utah State as Ohio University scored with 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a 24-23 win against the Aggies on Dec. 17 at Bronco Stadium in Boise. After much deliberation on the two plays earlier to get to the goal line, Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds left to tie the score at 23-23. The ensuing extra point from Matt Weller gave the Bobcats their first and only lead of the game. Ohio's LaVon Brazill had a catch and reached for the goal line, but was ruled down at the one after a lengthy review and convention of officials. The loss was USU's fifth this season by one score or less, and was the Aggies' 10th game decided by one score this season, the most in the nation. In the Aggies' first bowl game since 1997, senior running back Michael Smith ran for a career-high and USU bowl record 157 yards, scoring both of Utah State's rushing touchdowns. Junior running back Robert Turbin recorded his eighth 100-yard game of the season with 101 yards. Utah State ends its historic season with a 7-6 record, which is its first seven-win season since 1993. The loss snaps the Aggies' five-game winning streak, and gave the Bobcats their first ever bowl win in their sixth bowl appearance, improving to 10-4. The Aggies jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first quarter after Tettleton fumbled in the end zone with 9:23 remaining in the first quarter. USU expanded its lead to 9-0 later in the first quarter when junior quarterback Adam Kennedy connected with senior tight end Taren Lloyd for a three-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies the 9-0 lead after the first quarter. The USU defense pitched its fourth first-quarter shutout this season, and second in a row. Ohio cut that lead to 9-7 early in the second quarter when Derek Roback scored on a 26-yard pass from Tettleton with 4:40 left in the second quarter. It would be the only score of the second quarter as USU entered the locker room with a 9-7 advantage. Smith and the Aggies wasted no time getting on the board in the third quarter when Smith broke off a 63-yard run with 12:19 remaining in the third quarter to put USU up 16-7. It was the longest rush allowed by the highly-touted Ohio defense this season. Less than three minutes later, the USU defense was able to hold the Bobcats to a field goal when Matt Weller drilled a 32-yard field goal to cut the USU lead to 16-10. The high-scoring third quarter continued with Smith scoring his second touchdown of the game with an 11-yard scamper and sophomore placekicker Josh Thompson booted his third extra point of the night to put USU up 23-10 with 5:51 left in the third stanza. The frenzied third-quarter scoring wasn't done as Tettleton hit Ohio's MVP Brazill with a 44-yard scoring strike to pull the Bobcats within 23-17 at the 3:45 mark of quarter number three. Kennedy was injured late in the third quarter, and freshman quarterback Chuckie Keeton returned under center for the first time since Nov. 5 after starting USU's first eight games of the season but getting injured himself in the Hawaii game. Keeton ran for a 10-yard gain on his first play, but the drive later stalled at midfield. On USU's first drive of the fourth quarter, Kennedy returned, but the Aggies again reached midfield, but couldn't get into scoring territory. The USU defense held Ohio but Bobcat punter Paul Hershey boomed a 59-yard punt, pinning the Aggies at the USU seven. Utah State couldn't get a first down and had to punt it away to Ohio, and the Bobcats began their winning drive with 2:02 left.

Kevin Robinson (#6) set a new NCAA career all-purpose yards per play record with 16.16 during his time as an Aggie from 2004-07.

Kerwynn Williams (#25) set four NCAA FBS records in 2010 including single-season kickoff yards (1,444), most yards returned per game in a season (120.3 ypg) and career (112.0), along with most returns per game for career (4.26)

EMMETT WHITE'S NCAA RECORD-SETTING DAY

On Nov. 4, 2000, Utah State running back Emmett White produced one of the greatest single-game performances in NCAA history. The then-Aggie junior not only broke the NCAA single-game all-purpose yardage record, he demolished it.

The national record of 435 yards held by Brian Pruitt of Central Michigan, set against Toledo in 1994, was broken by an astonishing 143 yards as White accumulated 578 yards against New Mexico State.

White rushed 34 times for a school-record 322 yards, added 134 yards on seven receptions, had one punt return for two yards and four kickoff returns for 120 yards. That added up to 578 yards on 46 touches of the football that November night.

Not only did White amass all of those yards, he scored four touchdowns, including the game-winner, a nine-yard run, with just :28 left in the game as USU won the contest in Las Cruces 44-37.

He finished the season as the nation's all-purpose yardage leader averaging 238.9 yards per game (39 yards more per game than NCAA runner-up LaDainian Tomlinson of TCU). That average is still the sixth-best average in NCAA history.

White's 120.2 yards per game rushing that year ranked 13th in the country and his 322 yards on the ground against NMSU were the second most in a game in Big West history, as well as the most in USU history by 30 yards.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1946 RAISIN BOWL

San Jose State	20
Utah State	0

A powerful San Jose State college grid team shut out Utah State, 20-0 in the second Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif. San Jose devastated the Aggies 16 to seven in first downs, 177 to 74 in yards rushing and 110 to 49 in yards passing. Utah State's all-conference center, Ralph Maughan, could not offset San Jose's halfbacks Bert Robinson and Babe Nomura. San Jose did all of its scoring in the second and third quarters. Bill Schembel, a substitute halfback, passed to quarterback Bill Jackson for the opening touchdown, then took an aerial from Jackson for score number two. Bill Rhyne, another substitute halfback, crossed the goal line from the one yard line scoring the third touchdown. Through the entire game, Utah State threatened to score twice, once in the first quarter when it reached the San Jose one-yard line, and again at the end of the fourth quarter when the Aggies were again within a yard of the goal. Both attempts were denied and Utah State was confined to its own territory throughout most of the game.

1947 GRAPE BOWL

Pacific	35
Utah State	21

All-American quarterback Eddie LeBaron led his Pacific Tigers onto victory, defeating the Utah State Aggies, 35-21 in Lodi's first inaugural Grape Bowl football game. Only six minutes into the game, Pacific fullback Harry Kane scored on a 72-yard run. Utah State answered with a 70-yard drive to land on Pacific's 1-yard line. Right halfback John Worley fumbled, allowing halfback Bruce Orvis to recover the ball and run it back 99 yards for Pacific's second score. Early in the second quarter, LeBaron scored on a quarterback sneak from the one, and then threw for a 14-yard TD pass to left end John Rohde a few minutes later. Sub halfback Wayne Hardin completed all five conversion attempts. Utah State came back from halftime facing a 28-0 deficit. Quarterbacks John Caputo and John Sorensen helped the Aggies with two touchdowns, and in the final period, halfback Ernie Groll intercepted a long pass by LeBaron on the Pacific 42 and ran it back into the end zone. Fullback Buss Williams converted all three attempts. Utah State ran up 15 first downs against the College of Pacific's 17. On the ground the Tigers gained 278 yards against the Aggies' 85.

1960 SUN BOWL

Utah State	13
New Mexico State	20

New Mexico State, in winning its 15th-straight game, overcame Utah State, 20-13, in a bruising Sun Bowl football battle. USU owned a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when halfback Tom Larscheid ran for 13 yards and a touchdown. The score was set up with a 53-yard punt return by Ernie Reese, which set a Sun Bowl record.

New Mexico State answered right back in the second quarter. Quarterback Charley Johnson's three-yard pitch to Pervis Atkins along with Atkins' subsequent kick, tied the score in the second period.

USU then regained the lead by driving 80 yards in 15 plays with Dolph Camilli scoring from the 11. New Mexico State took the lead for the first time in the third quarter when Bob Gaiters ran for a 32-yard touchdown. Johnson led the offense by completing 18-of-26 passes, including two for touchdowns.

Utah State's final effort for victory was denied in the fourth quarter when fullback Doug Mayberry was stopped short of a first down on a fourth down play. New Mexico State then ran out the clock.

NMSU quarterback Charley Johnson threw for 190 yards and was tabbed the Sun Bowl's MVP for the second straight year. Johnson is the only player to earn the Sun Bowl's MVP honor twice.

The NMSU defense held the nation's top offense to just 268 total yards.

Utah State's defense was equally as impressive. USU, led by future Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, held the NMSU offense to only 224 yards, including just 44 rushing yards on 32 carries.

1961 GOTHAM BOWL

Baylor	24
Utah State	9

Converting four-of-five fumble recoveries into three touchdowns provided Baylor with the win over previously unbeaten Utah State, 24-9. Baylor's Ronnie Bull, picked up a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Quarterback Don Trull contributed a two-yard scoring plunge and a 39-yard touchdown pass to end Tom Plumb. Carl Choate kicked all three conversions and added three points with his 22-yard field goal. Utah State's first score came in the third quarter when Jim Turner kicked a 36-yard field goal. Midway through the final quarter, Ronnie Stanley's pass was intercepted by Utah State's Bob Novotny on the Baylor 16. In three plays, Utah State produced a touchdown with Munson scoring from the four. An attempted conversion run failed.

1993 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah State	42
Ball State	33

Anthony Calvillo tossed three touchdown passes and Profall Grier ran for two scores as Utah State defeated Ball State, 42-33 in Las Vegas Bowl II. It marked Utah State's first bowl victory in its 96-year football history. Utah State scored on its first two possessions with drives of 73 and 82 yards, respectively. Calvillo, who completed his first seven pass attempts, hit Cotie McMahon from 22 yards out for the first score. Eight minutes later, Grier reached the end zone on a three-yard run. With :24 remaining in the first half, Aubrey Thompson scored on a three-yard pass from Calvillo. The Aggie offense rolled up 329 total yards in the first half and produced 18 first downs. Ball State scored 10 straight points to open the third quarter, but Utah State got a 15-yard touchdown run from Grier and another touchdown pass from Calvillo, this time to Mike Lee good for 16 yards. Donald Toomer iced the game when he returned an interception 32 yards for a score to give the Aggies a 42-19 lead with 11:34 left. Calvillo completed 25-of-39 passes for 286 yards to earn MVP honors.

1997 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Cincinnati	35
Utah State	19

Utah State spotted Cincinnati a 28-point advantage before scoring 19 of the game's final 26 points as the Aggies fell 35-19 in the first Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, Idaho on Dec. 29, 1997. The Aggies suffered through their second-lowest offensive output of the season in both scoring (16 at Oregon State) and yardage (283 vs. New Mexico) in the game. USU did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage. USU warmed up in the second half, scoring three touchdowns in an eight minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. Steve Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas. Cincinnati's Chad Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP in the game after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards.

2011 FAMOUS IDAHO POTATO BOWL

Utah State	23

In a season full of close finishes, the outcome at the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was no different for Utah State as Ohio University scored with 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a 24-23 win against the Aggies on Dec. 17 at Bronco Stadium in Boise. After much deliberation on the two plays earlier to get to the goal line, Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton scored on a one-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds left to tie the score at 23-23. The ensuing extra point from Matt Weller gave the Bobcats their first and only lead of the game. In the Aggies' first bowl game since 1997, senior running back Michael Smith ran for a career-high and USU bowl record 157 yards, scoring both of Utah State's rushing touchdowns. Junior running back Robert Turbin recorded his eighth 100-yard game of the season with 101 yards. The Aggies jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first quarter after Tettleton fumbled in the end zone with 9:23 remaining. USU expanded its lead to 9-0 later in the first quarter when junior quarterback Adam Kennedy connected with senior tight end Taren Lloyd for a three-yard touchdown pass. Ohio cut that lead to 9-7 early in the second quarter when Derek Roback scored on a 26-yard pass from Tettleton. Smith broke off a 63-yard run with 12:19 remaining in the third quarter to put USU up 16-7. The high-scoring third quarter continued with Smith scoring his second touchdown of the game with an 11-yard scamper to put USU up 23-10. The frenzied third-quarter scoring wasn't done as Tettleton hit Ohio's MVP Brazill with a 44-yard scoring strike to pull the Bobcats within 23-17. OU then concluded the scoring with a late fourth-quarter touchdown for the win.

All-Time Homecoming Record: 49-30-2 (.617)

Aggie Homecoming Weekend: September 23-29, 2012 Once an Aggie, Always an Aggie!

Come back to campus and join with USU Alumni for many of your favorite Aggie traditions such as the Homecoming Breakfast, Homecoming Parade, and True Aggie Night. We are also excited to welcome back the Class of 1962 and the rest of the Golden Aggies!

In 2010 a new event was added that became an instant Aggie favorite: the All Aggie Homecoming Reception. This is the meeting place for all Aggies! Join fellow alums for food, entertainment and a no-host bar at Accolade (located at Hamilton's Steak & Seafood). Come meet up with classmates and meet this year's Homecoming honorees, then hit the town and visit favorite Logan hang-outs.

The Homecoming Football Game kicks off at 6 p.m. on Saturday against the UNLV Rebels. We hope you will join us for the pre-game party that starts at 3 p.m. and it is packed with food and activities for all ages!

2012 Homecoming Honorees:

Alumnus of the Year - Paul A. and Sylvia M. Jones
Distinguished Young Alumni - Tamara E. Mumford
Grand Marshals - Kevin Curtis

Registration for all of the Homecoming events is available.

We have listed events for university-wide events and smaller group reunions. If you are planning an event in conjunction with Homecoming or for more information on Homecoming, please contact the Alumni Relations office (alumni@usu.edu) at 800-291-2586 or on the web at usu.edu/homecoming/

STAN ALBRECHT

University President

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

Albrecht has had many successes during his tenure as president. Under his leadership, the university launched a comprehensive fundraising campaign that has, so far, raised $387 million of its $400 million goal by July of 2012.

Many impressive rankings in the last year call attention to USU's prowess as one of the two flagship research institutions in the state of Utah. The university is ranked second in the nation for research funding received for aerospace engineering by the National Science Foundation and is ranked 10th in the nation by U.S. News and World Report among colleges of education for external research funding.

Utah State launched its global presence generations ago, but its worldwide involvement is expanding so resolutely that it established an office of Global Engagement to coordinate both international research and international education opportunities. USU offers study abroad opportunities with more than 150 partner institutions around the world, and new Seed grants are now available for student experiences in Italy, China, Costa Rica, Japan, Slovenia, Thailand and Mexico.

In strengthening the land-grant mission, another major initiative under President Albrecht's direction has been to strengthen USU's regional campuses to reflect a stronger, more cohesive Utah State University system and provide greater access to higher education opportunities.

As the university's statewide presence continues to grow, exciting happenings on the Logan campus continue at a record pace under President Albrecht's leadership. A new College of Agriculture building on the east side of the Quad was dedicated in February 2012, a state-of-the-art interdisciplinary research and development facility at the Innovation Campus was built, and the Emma Eccles Jones Early Childhood Education and Research Center and the Dolores Doré Eccles Center for Early Care and Education were completed.

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Albrecht served as an administrator and professor at the University of Florida from 1993-98. He also served for 18 years at Brigham Young University (1974-92), including three years as academic vice president and associate provost. He began his career as an assistant professor of sociology at Utah State University in 1970 through 1974.

A sociologist, Albrecht has written extensively, including as a co-author of the textbooks Social Psychology and Social Science Research Methods, both published by Prentice-Hall. He has authored numerous scholarly papers on a wide range of topics, including the environment, energy development and rural health.

Albrecht received his doctorate from Washington State University in 1970, a master's degree from Washington State University in 1968 and bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University in 1966. All three degrees were in sociology.

He is a member of the Science Committee for the Minerals Management Service of the U.S. Department of Interior. He has served as a council member of the Society for Human Ecology and as vice president of the Rural Sociological Society.

Albrecht is married to Joyce Albrecht, Utah State's Director of Stewardship Programs.

SCOTT BARNES

Athletics Director

Since assuming the duties of Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Utah State University on April 1, 2008, Scott Barnes has worked tirelessly to improve the landscape of Aggie Athletics and has cast a vision that includes progress toward meeting many intercollegiate athletic priorities. And despite the instability within the American economy since his arrival at USU, Barnes' list of accomplishments has generated a newfound hope and excitement for Utah State Athletics.

That hope and excitement for Aggie Athletics was never more evident than during the 2011-12 academic year as Utah State participated in its first bowl game since 1997, introduced a program-wide athletics brand and identity program and accepted an invitation to compete in all of its sports in the Mountain West Conference beginning July 1, 2013.

During his tenure, Barnes has successfully negotiated several new initiatives and has created a new intercollegiate athletics-funding plan that has generated a significant increase in annual operating revenues since his arrival.

Among Barnes' many accomplishments at Utah State include a new student-fee referendum that will annually generate $2.1 million for Aggie Athletics. He has also overhauled USU's development operations which led to substantial increases in Big Blue Scholarship Fund membership and major gift fund-raising.

Another priority for Barnes during his first year on the job was overhauling Utah State's football program, which included the hiring of Gary Andersen and the creation of a Competitive Excellence Plan that calls for a new scheduling philosophy, increased operational support to the tune of $2.5 million, and further facility developments.

As for facilities, Utah State continues to see constant improvement under Barnes with its latest endeavor being a $6.4 million, 21,000 square foot strength and conditioning center that will be completed in the summer of 2013 after receiving the largest single gift in the history of USU Athletics.

Other facility improvements under Barnes' watch include the completed construction of the 69,000 square foot Jim & Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex in 2008. USU also opened the Steve Mothersell Athletics Hall of Honor in 2009 as well as its new off-court basketball facilities, which include the Nate and Heather Wickizer men's basketball and MerLynn Pitcher women's basketball locker rooms. In 2010, USU opened the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor and in 2011 a new synthetic turf was installed in the Stan Laub Indoor Training Center.

Along with upgrades to facilities and increased revenue under Barnes, Utah State also flourished athletically during the 2011-12 academic year as it claimed Western Athletic Conference team championships in men's cross country, women's soccer, and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, along with football finishing in second-place in the WAC and participating in its first bowl game in more than a decade. Overall, USU has won 17 WAC Championships in the past four years under Barnes.

Even more impressive than Utah State's athletic achievements during the past year are its continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom. Overall, USU's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the WAC with an 84 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.17 grade-point average. During the 2011-12 academic year, USU had 186 student-athletes earn academic all-WAC honors to lead the league and 197 were recognized at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Utah State has also been recognized nationally under the leadership of Barnes as it was named the most economically efficient athletics department in the nation in June, 2009 following a study done by Texas A&M's Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics and finished third nationally in 2010. Barnes himself has also garnered national attention as he has served on several NCAA committees including a recent appointment to the NCAA men's basketball committee. Barnes has been an active presenter at NACDA and has taught on the IA Athletic Directors Institute Faculty.

Prior to joining the Aggie Family, Barnes spent almost three years (2005-08) as senior associate athletics director for advancement at the University of Washington and was responsible for all external operations for the athletics department with specific emphasis on fundraising, ticket sales, multi-media rights management, marketing, event promotion and communications.

Prior to working at Washington, Barnes spent six years (1999-2005) as the athletics director at Eastern Washington University. During his tenure at EWU, the Eagles experienced unparalleled success, becoming the first athletics program in Big Sky Conference history to win championships in football, men's basketball, women's volleyball and women's soccer in one calendar year. While at Eastern Washington, he hired six head coaches and witnessed four of them earn Big Sky Coach of the Year honors.

Barnes also had tremendous success at Eastern Washington increasing operating funds for the athletics department by securing the single-largest gift for athletics in EWU history for football stadium renovations and a $3 million university soft drink contract. During his time at Eastern Washington, Barnes was recognized by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) as the Division I-AA West Region AD of the Year.

Barnes began his career in athletics as the director of athletic development at the University of San Diego from 1989-90. From 1990-94, Barnes held the position of executive director of the Pacific Athletic Foundation and associate athletics director at the University of the Pacific. Barnes then spent the next four years at Iowa State University where he served as the director of athletic development from 1994-95 and then associate athletics director for development and special projects from 1995-97. Following his stint at Iowa State, Barnes served as athletics director at Humboldt State in Arcata, Calif., from 1997-99.

Barnes, 50, received his bachelor's degree from California State University, Fresno in 1986, as well as his master's degree in 1993 in physical education with an emphasis in athletic administration. He and his wife, Jody, were both student-athletes at Fresno State, as he was a member of the basketball team, while she was a member of the track team.

Barnes played professional basketball in Germany from 1985-86. He has also coached basketball at the high school and club levels and was the general manager of the Fresno Flames of the World Basketball League from 1988-89.

Barnes was born June 23, 1962 in Spokane, Wash. He and his wife, Jody, have one daughter, Milanna (16) and one son, Isaac (14).

COREY ANSFIELD
*Assistant Athletics Director
Annual Giving
First Year at USU*

Beginning his first year as the Assistant Athletics Director and Executive Director of the Big Blue Scholarship Fund at Utah State University is Corey Ansfield, who started in the department in March, 2012.

In his role, he is responsible for the operations and donor relations with the membership of the Big Blue Scholarship Fund. While trying to recruit new donors to the program, Ansfield also runs USU's Big Blue fund drive, the Jr. Aggie program, golf tournaments and the annual Aggie Auction.

Ansfield comes to Utah State after spending the previous year as a development assistant in the Rebel Athletic Fund at UNLV where he was responsible for increasing annual membership through priority seating and sport specific giving. Ansfield began his athletics career at Illinois State University where he was involved in ticket operations.

A native of Oshkosh, Wis., Ansfield graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Marian (Wis.) University where he played baseball. He later received his master's degree in sports management from Illinois State University.

LANDON DAY
*General Manager
Aggie Sports Properties
Sixth Year at USU*

Beginning his sixth year with the Utah State Athletics Department is Landon Day, who is entering his fifth year as the General Manager of Aggie Sports Properties (ASP), a property of Learfield Sports.

Prior to his current position, Day spent one year as an account executive with ASP. In his current role, Day oversees the multi-media rights for USU Athletics.

Before joining the Aggie family, Day spent four years at the U.S. Air Force Academy in the marketing department.

A native of Monticello, Utah, Day graduated from Utah State University in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science. While at USU, he spent two years as an intern in the marketing office.

Day, who was born Oct. 29, 1977, is married to Darci and the couple have three children, Jada (7), Brecka (5) and Leden (2).

JANA DOGETT
*Executive Associate Athletics Director
External Operations/SWA
Seventh Year at USU*

Jana Doggett is entering her seventh year with the Utah State Athletics Department and second as Executive Associate Athletics Director after spending her first five years as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Operations.

With her new position, Doggett is the athletics departments' second-in-command. She will continue to oversee the department's external operations, which includes marketing, event management, media relations, Aggie Sports Properties and the ticket office. She will also continue to supervise the sports of softball, soccer and volleyball, along with the additions of men's and women's tennis, and continue in her role as Senior Woman Administrator.

Prior to her current position, Doggett spent 11 years in the athletics department at San Diego State, from 1993-2003, including six years as an associate director of athletics. She also worked at the National Multiple Sclerosis Society San Diego Area Chapter and for the City of San Diego in the Corporate Sponsorship and Development Program.

At San Diego State she supervised all 18 of the athletic department's head coaches as well as the ticket office, marketing and promotions, financial aid, academics, compliance, event management, video production, weight and equipment rooms, sports medicine and business services.

Doggett graduated with a degree in speech communication from San Diego State University. She was born and raised in Nezperce, Idaho before moving to Visalia, Calif., for her junior high and high school years.

Doggett married current USU assistant men's basketball coach Tarvish Felton on May 28, 2011 and the couple has a 13-year old daughter, DeAubrey Ann Bowers.

DR. BRIAN EVANS
*Associate Athletics Director
Student-Athlete Services
13th Year at USU*

Beginning his 13th year at Utah State as Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services is Dr. Brian Evans. Evans joined the USU staff in July, 2000 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Athletic Academic Services at Texas Tech from 1997-2000. Previously he was the Academic Coordinator at Montana State from 1995-97.

Evans oversees the student-athlete services unit, directing academics and certification of initial and continuing eligibility of Utah State student-athletes. He directs a staff of three full-time assistants and two post-graduate interns, and has administrative oversight of the gymnastics program.

Under Evans' guidance, Utah State has led the Western Athletic Conference in number of academic all-league honorees in each of its seven years in the league, including the 2011-12 academic year as the Aggies landed 185 student-athletes on the academic all-WAC teams. Overall, USU has led its conference in most academic all-league honorees 13 times in the last 14 years as it led the Big West Conference in 2000 and 2002-05. In 2001, the Aggies ranked second in the Big West.

The 1987 Colorado journalism graduate earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 1988 and a doctorate of higher education administration from Montana State in 2000.

JAKE GARLOCK
*Assistant Athletics Director
Compliance
Seventh Year at USU*

Entering his seventh year at Utah State as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance is Jake Garlock. In his position, Garlock is in charge of maintaining USU's compliance in accordance with the NCAA and Western Athletic Conference rules.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Garlock spent one year as a practicing trial attorney.

Garlock, who is originally from Salem, Ore., graduated from Brigham Young University with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2002 and received his law degree from Willamette University in 2005.

Garlock was born March 19, 1978 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He and his wife Jenny have three children, Grace (9), Sophia (6) and Ben (4).

JIMMY
MOORE
*Compliance Director
Second Year at USU*

Jimmy Moore is entering his second year as the Compliance Director with Utah State's Athletics Department after joining the staff in July, 2011. In his role, Moore oversees financial aid for all of USU's student-athletes, and monitors and ensures institutional compliance with NCAA rules. He also provides interpretations and education of NCAA and Western Athletic Conference rules to both student-athletes and coaches, and directs the student-athlete mentoring program.

Moore began his affiliation with Utah State as a student-athlete on the men's basketball team from 1972-75, helping the Aggies to the 1975 NCAA Tournament. He finished his career with 1,164 points and 652 rebounds and still ranks 24th all-time in school history in scoring and 15th all-time in rebounding. In 2005, Moore was one of 16 Aggie greats named to USU's All-Century basketball team.

Following his collegiate career, Moore spent two years in the NBA with the Seattle SuperSonics and 10 years playing overseas before returning to Logan as an assistant basketball coach for Rod Tueller in 1987. Moore then spent four seasons (1989-92) on Kohn Smith's staff before beginning his administrative career on campus.

From 1992 to 2001, Moore served as the Associate Director of Admissions for Utah State University before being promoted to the Director of Admissions and Scholarships, a capacity he served in for four years. He then spent one year as the Director of Outreach for Student-Services followed by four years as the Student Involvement Officer and one year as an associate director within the Access and Diversity Center.

A native of Leakesville, Miss., Moore graduated from Utah State with a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education. He and his wife Debra are the parents of two sons, Grayson (19) and Jalen (17).

*Assistant Athletics Director
Development/Major Gifts
First Year at USU*

Joel Moersch (pronounced More-sch) is in his first year as an Assistant Athletics Director for Development/Major Gifts for Utah State after joining the department in May, 2012. At USU, Moersch will focus on major gifts and specific fundraising projects.

Moersch comes to Utah State after spending the past two years as an Assistant Director for Major Gifts within the UCLA Athletics Department where he oversaw the regional fundraising efforts in Orange County and San Diego County. At UCLA, he maintained approximately 200 annual donors to the Wooden Athletic Fund, and secured several major gifts of $30,000-plus for the $136 million renovation of Pauley Pavilion.

Prior to UCLA, Moersch spent nearly two years (2008-10) as an Assistant Athletics Director for Development at Eastern Illinois University where he oversaw the Panther Club Board of Directors and all annual fund activities.

Moersch began his career in collegiate athletics as the Director of Marketing and Sports Information for one year at his alma mater, Eastern Oregon University, before spending nearly two years (2007-08) as the Marketing Coordinator and Executive Assistant to the Senior Staff at Oregon State University.

A native of Corvallis, Ore., Moersch graduated with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Eastern Oregon University in 2004 where he played baseball and was on the rodeo team. He also received his M.B.A. from Eastern Oregon in 2006.

ROB RUSNACK
*Associate Athletics Director
Business Affairs
Second Year at USU*

Entering his second year as Associate Athletics Director for Business Affairs at Utah State is Rob Rusnack who joined the department in April, 2011.

Rusnack comes to Utah State after spending four years as Associate Athletics Director for Budget and Planning/Chief Financial Officer at Columbia University where he oversaw the development and submission of the annual budget and monitored the financial performance of 31 sports programs.

Rusnack also worked for the Columbia University Management and Budget Office where he supervised the University's central administrative budget; over $600 million in operating revenues and expenses. He also managed the operations and budget submissions of 30 administrative units including the Athletics Department.

Prior to his arrival at Columbia University, Rusnack spent 12 years at the Weill Medical Center of Cornell University, where he served many roles including Director of Special Projects and analyst roles in the Medical Center's Budget Office.

A native of upstate New York, Rusnack attended Ithaca College and the University of Phoenix where he completed his undergraduate degree in finance and business administration.

Rusnack is married to the former Karen Hurley and the couple have two sons, Brendan (6) and Sean (4).

KENT
STANLEY
*Sr. Associate Athletics Director
Development
Fifth Year at USU*

Kent Stanley is entering his fifth year at Utah State as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Development after joining the staff in July, 2008. At USU, he is responsible for the overall administration, management and supervision of athletic development and fundraising efforts, and associated personnel for the athletics department. He also focuses on planning and executing capital and annual fund initiatives for athletics in conjunction with the University foundation. Stanley also oversees the men's and women's track & field/cross country programs at USU, along with men's golf.

In his first four years, Aggie Athletics has begun three capital campaigns under Stanley's leadership. These include a five-year $2.5M Football Competitive Excellence Initiative, the men's and women's basketball off-court facilities project, and the Merlin Olsen Field project. Stanley also conceptualized the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor project which opened in the Fall of 2010. Working with the Big Blue Scholarship Fund leadership, he has helped to bring additional focus to the BBSF's annual fund efforts with record growth in three of the past four years including this year with the largest dollars and largest membership in school history.

In the past three years, Utah State has also added 11 new endowments under Stanley, while also initiating the Merlin Olsen Fund for Football Competitive Excellence. The Olsen Fund is a hybrid fund, and is supporting Aggie football at just under $500,000 annually. USU also broke ground on its new 21,000 square-foot strength and conditioning center in 2012, which is the first athletics facility completely paid for through donor support.

Prior to joining Utah State, Stanley spent two years as the Director of Athletics at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colo. While at Fort Lewis, Skyhawk teams had the most successful two-year span in school history with 12 teams making NCAA postseason play, while football won its first-ever postseason bowl game.

Stanley also increased the number of major gifts for athletics by 50 percent and increased revenue by 100 percent as he implemented a four-tiered corporate partnership model to increase partner options. He also increased licensing revenue 45 percent and increased scholarship funding for athletics by 25 percent.

Before being named Director of Athletics at Fort Lewis College, Stanley spent five years at Eastern Washington as Associate Athletics Director for Development. At EWU, he oversaw record growth in external revenue while managing the annual fund, major gifts and corporate partnerships.

Stanley began his administrative career as the chief enrollment officer at Simpson University from 2000-01. He also spent eight years as a women's basketball coach at Fresno Pacific University (1987-95) as his teams made five NAIA National Tournament appearances while winning four conference championships. He left Fresno Pacific with the most wins and highest winning percentage of any basketball coach in school history.

He also won consecutive NAIA National Championships (1999, 2000) as the head coach at Oklahoma City University and was honored as NAIA National Coach of the Year both seasons.

Stanley earned his undergraduate degree in psychology and physical education from Trinity Western University and then earned his graduate degree from Fresno State in 1988 in athletic administration.

A native of British Columbia, Canada, Stanley and his wife Hollie have two children, Zachariah (13) and Mikayla (10)

2011-12 YEAR IN REVIEW

Heather Cairns
(Soccer)
Nine Years

In its seventh year as a member of the Western Athletic Conference, Utah State continued its overall athletic success as its 16 varsity sports combined to win four team championships (soccer, men's cross country, women's indoor track, women's outdoor track), while finishing second in four other sports (football, women's basketball, men's indoor track, men's outdoor track). Overall, USU student-athletes earned 181 all-WAC honors. Not only did Utah State prosper in athletic competition, but it also excelled in the classroom with 185 academic all-WAC honorees.

Men's & Women's Cross Country - Utah State's men won its sixth WAC Championship in the past seven years during the 2011 season, while the Aggie women finished third. Both teams also advanced to NCAA Regionals as the men finished seventh and the women placed eighth. Gregg Gensel was named the WAC Men's Coach of the Year, while senior Brian McKenna was named the WAC Male Athlete of the Year and earned all-region honors as well. McKenna concluded his career with a 63rd-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Other first-team all-WAC honorees include senior Daniel Howell and sophomore Kyle McKenna, while second-team all-WAC recipients include seniors Jessie Chugg, Ruth Hilton and Hunter Nelson, junior Kaylee Campbell and freshman Brittany Bushman. USU also had 15 student-athletes receive academic all-WAC recognition.

Football - Utah State finished the 2011 season with its first winning record (7-6) since 1996 and best conference finish (5-2/second) in its seven years in the WAC. USU also played in its first bowl game (Famous Idaho Potato Bowl) since 1997. Junior running back Robert Turbin was named the WAC Offensive Player of the Year, marking just the second time in school history that USU has had an offensive player of the year in its league. Overall, USU had six all-WAC players in 2011 as seniors Phillip Gapelu and Bobby Wagner were named to the first-team, along with Turbin and sophomore Tyler Larsen, while seniors Levi Koskan and Tarren Lloyd were both named to the second-team. USU also had 18 student-athletes receive academic all-WAC honors.

Volleyball - Utah State finished in fourth-place in the WAC with a 7-7 league mark and concluded the year with a 12-17 record after losing in the quarterfinals of the WAC Tournament. Senior Liz McArthur earned first-team all-WAC honors for the second-straight season, while junior Shay Sorensen was named to the second-team and Paige Neves was named to the WAC's all-freshman team. USU also had 11 student-athletes receive academic all-WAC honors.

Women's Soccer - In its 16th year, Utah State won its first-ever WAC Tournament and advanced to its first-ever NCAA Tournament as it finished the year with a 15-5-2 record, including a 5-1-1 league mark. Overall, USU has now won three of the last four regular season WAC titles. Those 15 wins for Utah State are a school record. Heather Cairns was named the WAC's Coach of the Year for the second time in her nine years at USU, while senior Shantel Flanary was named the WAC's Offensive Player of the Year, junior Natalie Norris was named the WAC's Defensive Player of the Year, and Taryn Rose was named the WAC's Freshman of the Year. Other players to earn first-team all-WAC honors include seniors Molli Merrill and Summer Tillotson, and sophomore Kendra Pemberton. Those named second-team all-WAC were senior Chandra Salmon-Christensen and Rose. Flanary and Norris also both earned all-region honors. USU also had 13 student-athletes receive academic all-WAC recognition, including four who garnered scholar All-West Region honors.

Men's Basketball - Utah State recorded its 13th straight 20 win season and advanced to its 13th straight postseason in 2012 as it finished the year with a 21-16 record, including an 8-6 WAC mark to place fourth. USU also won four post-season games for the first time in school history as it advanced to the championship game of the Collegelnsider.com Tournament. Sophomore guard Preston Medlin earned first-team all-WAC honors and is just the second sophomore in school history to be named first-team all-league joining Nate Harris (2004). Senior guard Brocketh Pane was named honorable mention all-WAC, while junior forward Kylean Reed was named to the league's all-newcomer team. USU also had three players named to the CIT's all-tournament team in Medlin, Pane and senior forward Morgan Grim, while three Aggies were named to the WAC's all-academic team.

Women's Basketball - Utah State advanced to postseason play for the second time in as many years as it participated in the Women's National Invitational Tournament (WNIT). During the 2011-12 season, USU won a school-record 21 games and recorded its first-ever 20-win season. Utah State also had its best-ever conference finish as it was second in the WAC with an 11-3 record. For the third time in the last four years, USU advanced to the semifinals of the WAC Tournament. Senior forward Ashlee Brown was named the WAC's Defensive Player of the Year, while Brown and junior guard Devyn Christensen were both named first-team all-WAC. It is the first time in school history USU has had a league's Defensive Player of the Year and two first-team all-conference selections. USU also had six student-athletes receive academic all-WAC recognition.

Following the reinstatement of the Utah State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006 with five inductees, The Hall welcomed six members in 2007, five in 2008 (including the first team to be inducted in the 1978 National Championship Volleyball team), seven in 2009, six in 2010 and five more in 2011, including the 1980 and 1981 National Championship softball teams.

In March, The Hall announced the Class of 2012 which will officially be inducted in September. The newest members to Utah State's Athletic Hall of Fame are Alfred Castro, Eric Hipple, Brian Jackson, Shae Jones-Bair, James Murphy, James Parker, Kristie Skoglund and Emmett White to increase the number of members to 69 individuals and three teams.

The Hall was founded in 1993 with 12 initial members. In 1994 the school added eight more members and in 1995, seven more honorees were selected.

The addition of any Hall of Fame selections was stopped until 2006 when five individuals were inducted.

After completing its 50th year of intercollegiate competition, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. Since 2000, a total of 43 football teams have been invited to bowl games, including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record-tying five. The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games three times since 2006. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 29 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women's basketball, Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three NCAA postseason tournaments during its history.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. In 2005, Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew. Boise State withdrew prior to the 2011-12 season. The current membership began on July 1, 2012 when the WAC added Denver, Seattle, UT-Arlington, UTSA and Texas State to replace withdrawing members, Fresno State, Hawai'i and Nevada.

The WAC has had just six commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94), Karl Benson (1994-2012) and current interim commissioner Jeff Hurd (2012-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.
