Media Information

COVERING UTAH STATE

TO THE MEDIA

The 2007 Utah State football media guide has been prepared to assist you in covering the Aggies this season. Additional information is available by contacting the Athletic Media Relations Office at (435) 797-2066 or through USU's web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Sunday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on the Utah State University athletic web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com. This release will also be e-mailed and/or faxed to media requesting this service on Sunday.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Head Coach Brent Guy will hold a press conference in Logan each Monday during the season at The Copper Mill Restaurant (55 North Main) at 11:30 a.m. Selected players will also be available at the press conference. Quotes from the press conference will be available on USU's web site (www.UtahStateAggies.com) each Monday afternoon and will also be faxed and/or e-mailed per request.

WAC TELECONFERENCES

Each Monday during the season, the Western Athletic Conference will host a weekly media teleconference featuring the head coach from each team. Brent Guy will be on the call from 10:53 to 11 a.m. Contact the conference office at (303) 799-9221 for a complete schedule.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Utah State players and coaches should be made directly through the Athletic Media Relations Office (435) 797-2066 and should be made at least one day in advance. The best time for player interviews is before or after practice, while Head Coach Brent Guy should be available in the mornings as well as before or after practice. Player interviews will be conducted through Wednesday each game week.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

PARKING

Credentialed media will be allowed access to the parking lot on the west side of the stadium (Blue Lot). A parking pass is required for admittance to that area and should be requested at least one week in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Access to the press box is limited to those with working credentials. A pregame meal will be served approximately one hour prior to kickoff.

Game programs, game notes and flip cards will be provided prior to the game. Statistics and play-by-play information will be provided during the game. At the conclusion of the game a complete statistical book, typed quotes and postgame notes will be available in the press box.

Final game statistics will be faxed to media requesting the service.

Wireless internet will be available to media at the game. A limited number of telephones will also be available in the press box on a first-come, first-serve basis. Requests for personal phones should be made through USU Telephone Services at (435) 797-3201 at least one week prior to the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' ACCESS

Photographers are allowed to shoot on the sidelines outside the team bench area (team bench areas are between the 25-yard lines). Photographers must remain outside of the team bench area. Photographers may also shoot from the photo decks on top of or below the Romney Stadium press box. Team rosters are provided in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Utah State locker room is closed to the media on game days. Postgame interviews will take place after a brief cooling off period in a designated area.

ELECTRONIC SERVICES

ON THE AIR

Utah State football games are broadcast on KVNU (610 AM) and KLZX (95.9 FM) in Logan, Utah, KFAN (1320 AM) and ESPN Radio (1230 AM) in Salt Lake City, and KLZX (105.3 FM) in Montpelier, Idaho, as well as on the internet at www.UtahStateAggies.com. Al Lewis serves as the play-by-play announcer while Craig Hislop serves as the analyst.

ON THE INTERNET

All of Utah State's home games, along with every Western Athletic Conference game is available to view live via the internet at WAC.tv.

GAMETRACKER

Aggie fans will be able to follow Utah State home games through the USU web site at www.UtahStateAggies.com, via GameTracker, a program that documents each play and updates statistics.

BRENT GUY ON THE AIR

The Brent Guy radio show, hosted by Lewis, and held at various campus locations each week, will be broadcast on Thursdays on KVNU.

DIRECTIONS TO LOGAN

Logan, Utah is home to Utah State University and is located approximately 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. From Salt Lake International Airport: Take I-80 East out of the airport to 215 North, which will run into I-15 North. Follow 1-15 North to exit 362 (Highway 89-91) at Brigham City. Follow Highway 89 into Logan, where it becomes Main Street. Stay on Main Street until you reach 1000 North and turn right. Turn left at 800 East and the football stadium will be on your right. The parking lot is located on the west side of the stadium just off 800 East.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials for media members are issued at the discretion of the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Daily newspapers regularly covering Utah State University, the current opponent or another WAC school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
2. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
3. Officially recognized Utah State University student publications or student electronic media outlets.
4. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
5. Non-originating radio and television.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

- Utah State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information.
- Credentials will be issued to web sites that are affiliated with web sites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsportsline.com, etc., non-conference opponents, and for the Western Athletic Conference.
- Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
- Utah State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose web site is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- All credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

Named for E.L. "Dick" Romney, Utah State's all-time winningest football coach and former athletics director, Romney Stadium was officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Romney Stadium history came on Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12.

There has been one major stadium addition since 1969. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl which brought the capacity of the stadium to 25,513.

Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chairback seats replaced wooden bleachers on the west side of the stadium.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003 that project expanded to the upper sections.

In the summer of 2004, the bent bluegrass field was replaced with a state of the art synthetic turf by SprinTurf.

Prior to the 2005 season a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north endzone complex was torn down and replaced with a three-story, 55,000 square foot facility. The North Endzone Facility will serve to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility will house an extensively improved sports medicine department, new locker rooms, a Hall of Fame and a hospitality plaza on the first floor. The second floor will house coaches' offices and conference rooms, while classrooms, computer labs and tutoring rooms will reside on the third floor.

A future phase of improvement will include a new press box and luxury suites on the west side of the stadium.

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The glass-enclosed press box, located on the stadium's west side, was renovated in 1997 and features closed-circuit television monitors for replays. The press box can comfortably accommodate 36 writers with facilities for radio and TV broadcasters.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Romney Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball, gymnastics and volleyball teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of Coach Romney's lasting contributions to Utah State football. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships, compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). Utah State played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Over the past 39 seasons, Utah State has compiled a 102-80 mark (.560 winning percentage) in Romney Stadium. Only 12 times in the 39-year history of the stadium has Utah State experienced a losing record at home.

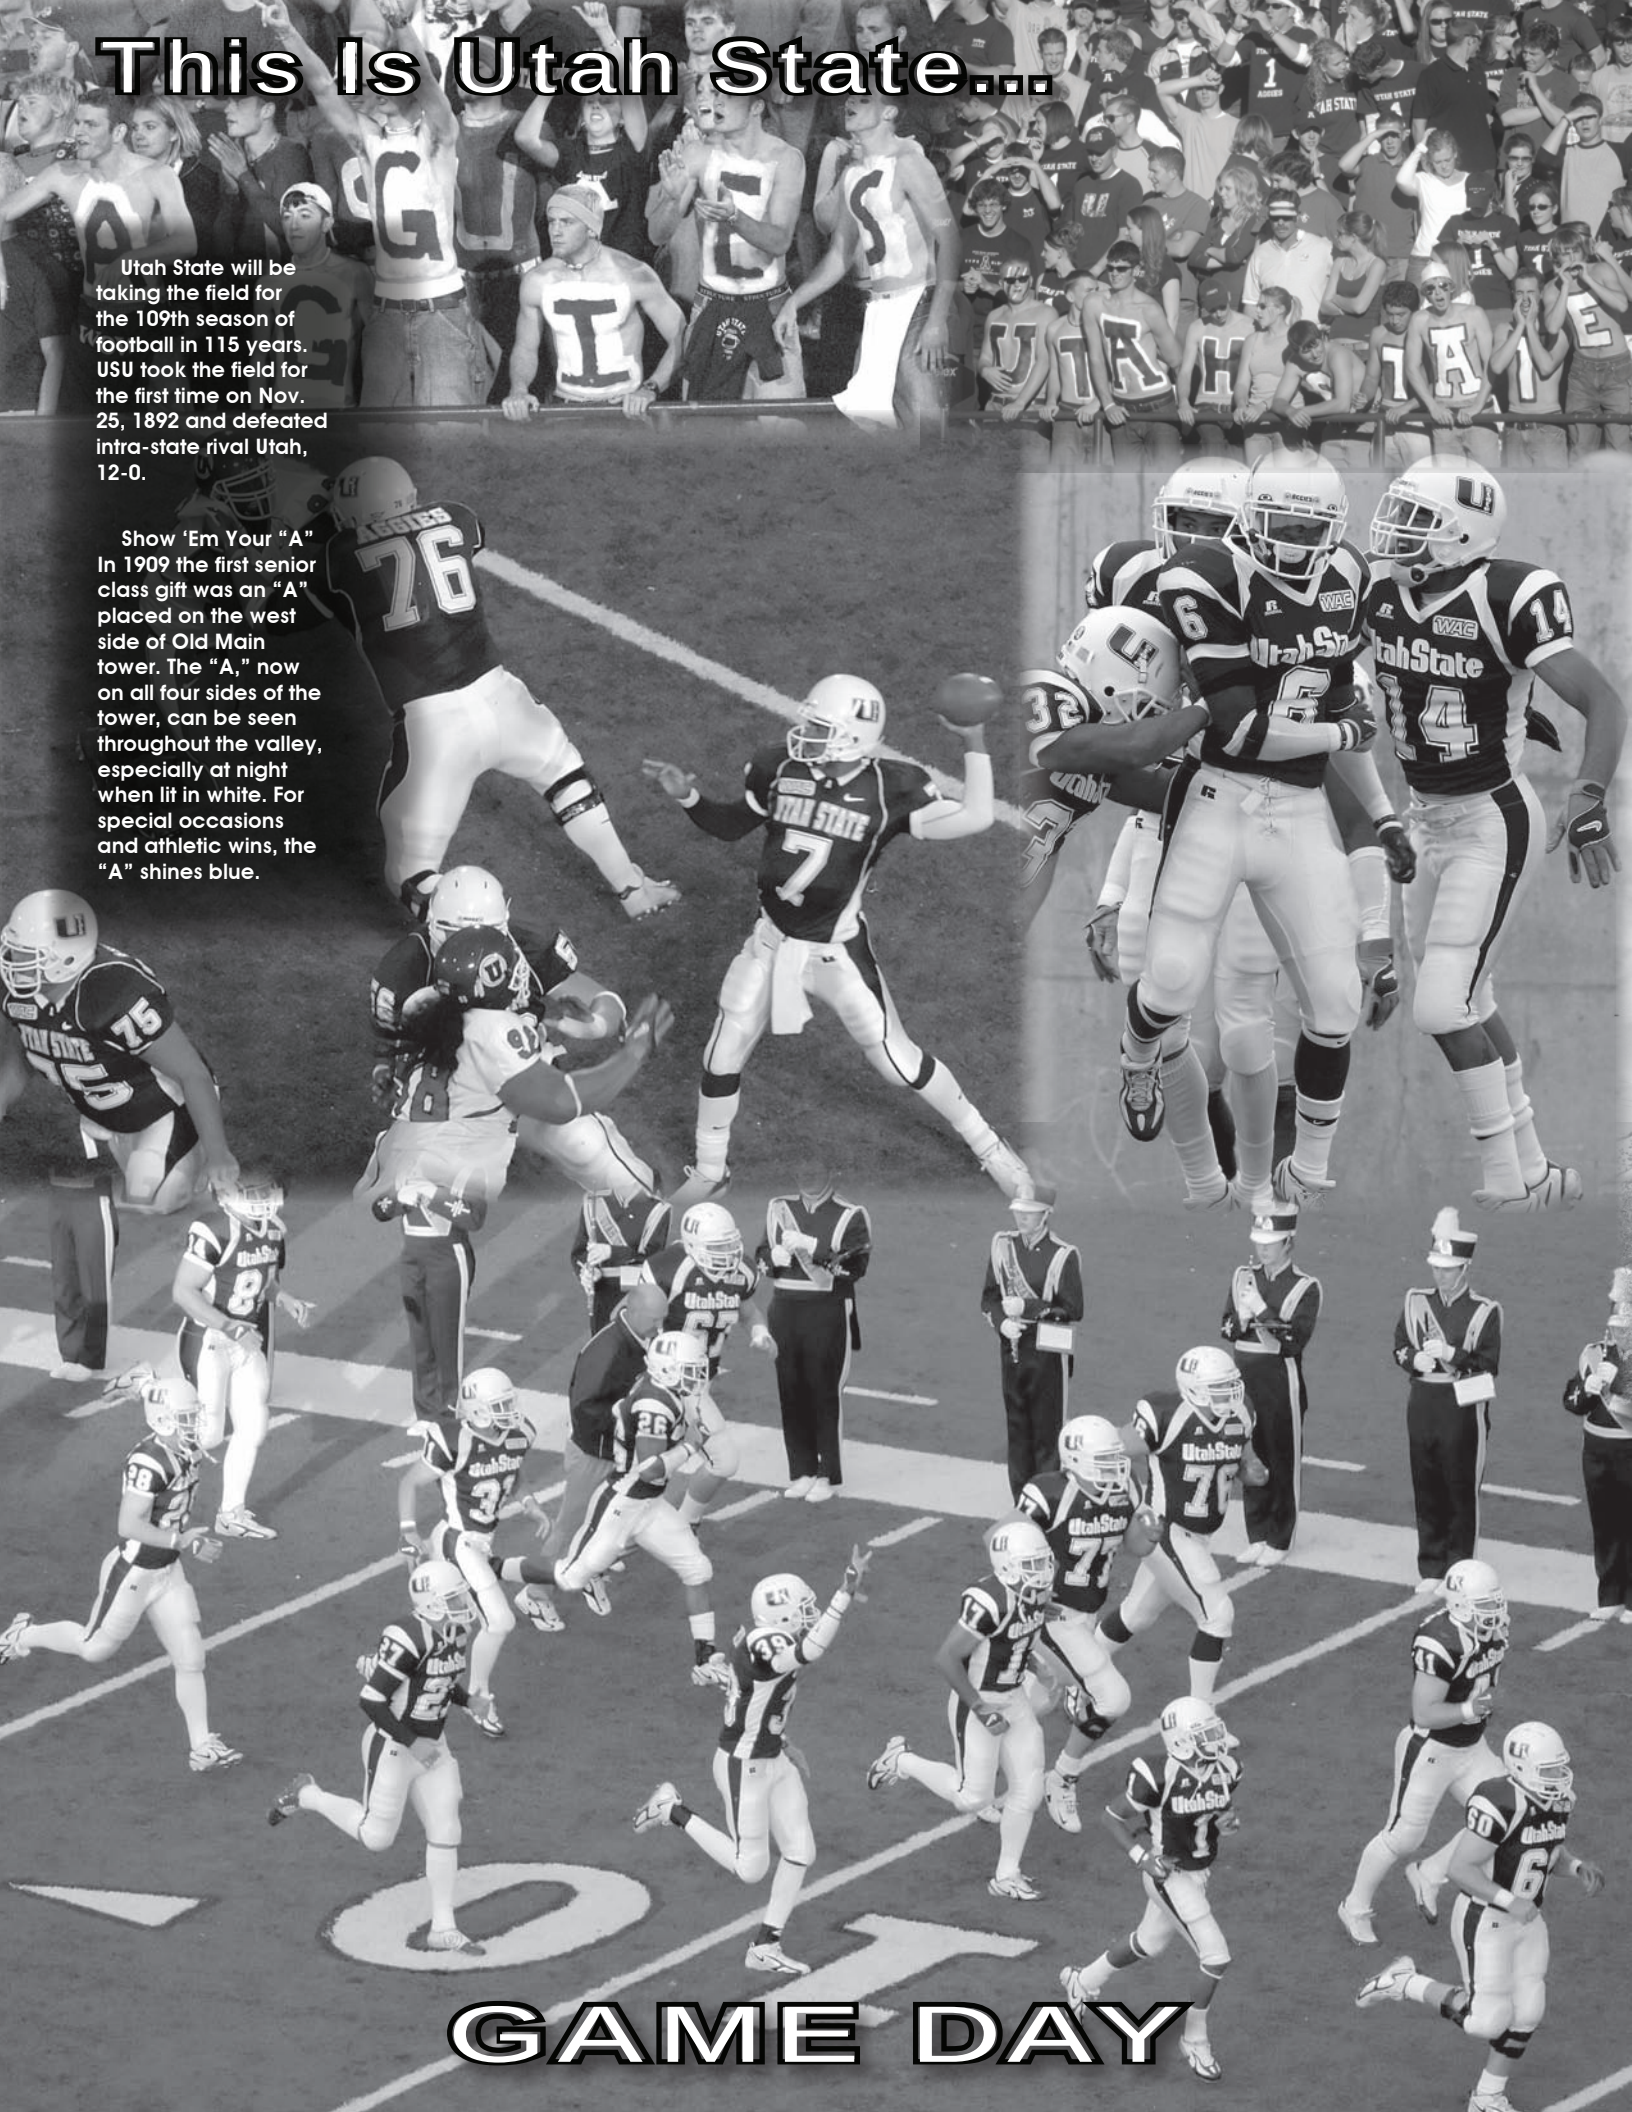

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Romney Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

Utah State will be taking the field for the 109th season of football in 115 years. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892 and defeated intra-state rival Utah, 12-0.

Show 'Em Your "A" In 1909 the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggiettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities.

"Meet the Challenge," a 2,500-pound bronze sculpture by former Utah State football player Mike Hamby is located across the street from Romney Stadium.

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories.

Utah State adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890's.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
Utah State, Hey!
Aggies all the way!
Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
Hey! Hey! Hey!

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration and academic advising, and career counseling.

Utah State had 115 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence and receive academic all-WAC accolades in 2006-07. Additionally, USU honored 148 student-athletes with a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better at its own Joe E. Whitesides luncheon. The number of student-athletes recognized at the luncheon has increased seven out of the last 10 years.

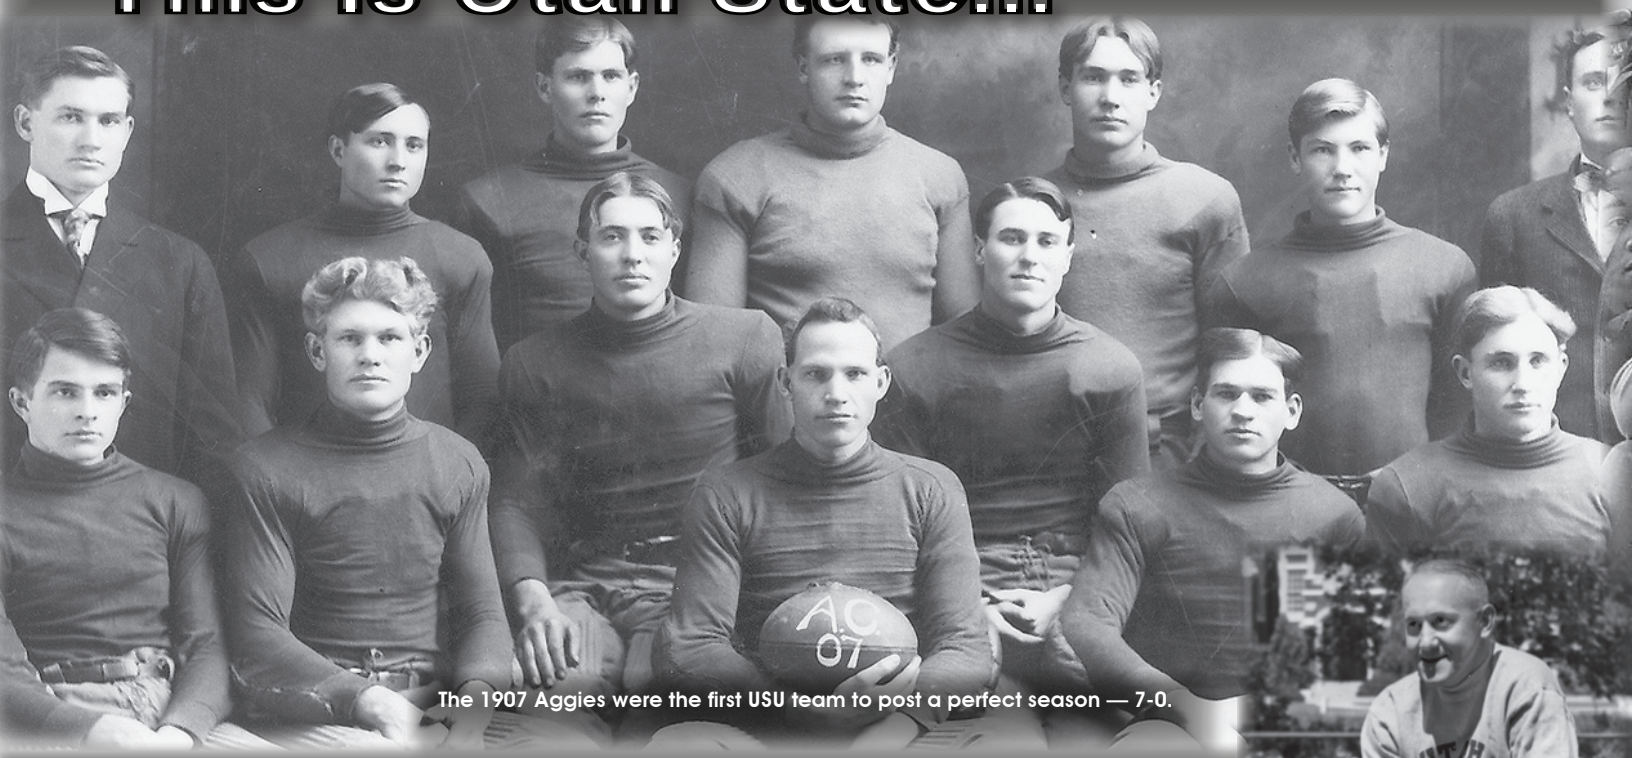

The office also administers USU's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program and coordinates Aggie Ambassadors, Utah State's student-athlete outreach program.

In addition to working with local elementary children and seniors' groups, the Aggie Ambassadors often appear at community events.

USU's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program has guest speakers, including former Syracuse All-American (football and track) and NFL player Don McPherson speak to student-athletes.

Cornell Green played basketball at USU, but was a five-time NFL Pro Bowl selection and played in two Super Bowls for the Dallas Cowboys.

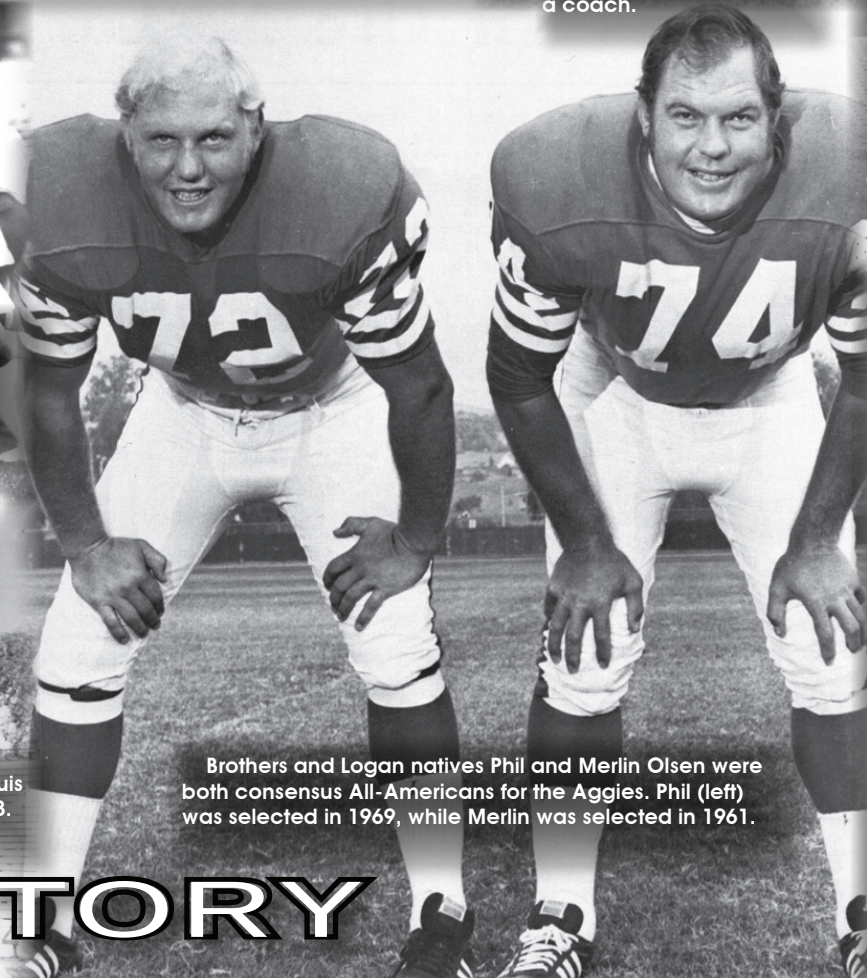

Greg Kragen played at Utah State from 1980-83. He played in Super Bowls XXI, XXII and XXIV with the Denver Broncos.

A 14-time Pro-Bowler, Merlin Olsen played for the Los Angeles Rams from 1962-76.

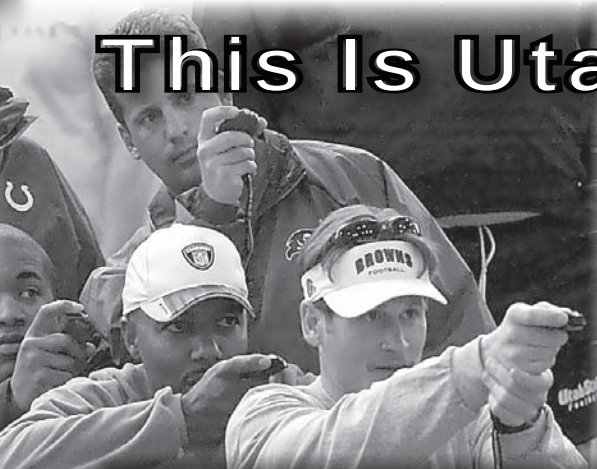

MacArthur Lane was the St. Louis Cardinals' first-round pick in 1968.

Brothers and Logan natives Phil and Merlin Olsen were both consensus All-Americans for the Aggies. Phil (left) was selected in 1969, while Merlin was selected in 1961.

HISTORY

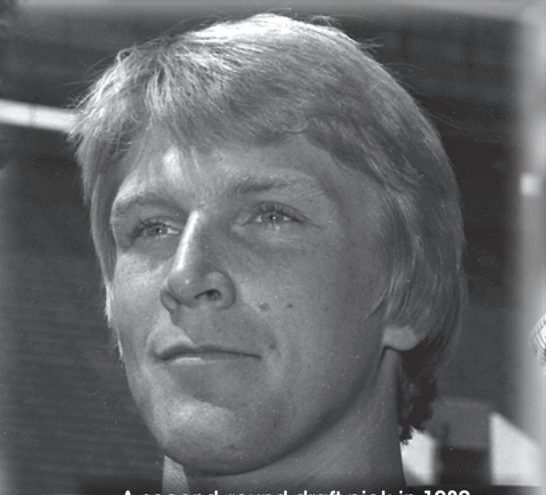

This Is Utah State...

In the last four years, more than a dozen Aggies have signed free agent contracts with NFL teams. In 2003, Kevin Curtis was the 74th overall pick, going to St. Louis in the third round. Chris Cooley was the 81st overall pick by Washington in 2004.

Nov. 26, 2006 was a notable day in the NFL for Utah State alums, as both Kevin Curtis and Chris Cooley caught game-winners. Curtis caught a game-winning five-yard touchdown pass with :27 remaining as St. Louis defeated San Francisco, 20-17. Cooley caught a game-winning touchdown with 4:26 left, scoring on a 66-yard pass as Washington defeated Carolina, 17-13.

A second-round draft pick in 1980, Rulon Jones played for the Denver Broncos from 1980-88, helping lead them to two Super Bowls. Jones earned Pro-Bowl honors in 1985 and '86, as well as an All-Pro selection in 1986. In his career, Jones recorded 73.5 sacks, ranking fourth on Denver's all-time list.

After four years with the St. Louis Rams, Kevin Curtis is entering his first season with the Philadelphia Eagles. Last year, Curtis had 40 catches for 479 yards with four TD's, while playing in 16 games. Curtis is one of only two players in NFL history to have two back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in the playoffs before ever recording one in the regular season.

Chris Cooley is entering his third season with the Washington Redskins. He was named third alternate to the Pro Bowl last season after making 57 catches for 734 yards with six TD's. In 2005, he established a new Redksins' franchise record for tight ends and H-backs with 71 catches for 774 yards and 7 TDs.

SEASON PREVIEW

2007 UTAH STATE FOOTBALL

Utah State will enter the third year of the Brent Guy era as a team, which is once again young, but has experience. The Aggies return 19 starters and 35 lettermen overall and will look to improve on last year's 1-11 overall record. USU went 1-7 in its second year in the Western Athletic Conference, finishing tied for eighth and Guy and the Aggies will look to continue their rebuilding progress.

Some old faces mixed with new ones will hopefully form a recipe of success for the Aggies. Senior WR/KR Kevin Robinson returns for what is expected to be a big senior campaign, while on the other side of the ball, junior DE Ben Calderwood has garnered a plethora of positive preseason prognostication with lots of early awards.

New offensive coordinator Darrell Dickey takes over the reigns of the USU offense. Dickey comes to Utah State after serving as head coach at North Texas for the previous nine seasons, including leading the Mean Green to four conference championships and four bowl games. Impact freshman Peter Caldwell joins Dickey as a new, but very high-expectation laden face. Caldwell will be looked upon to solidify a shaky kicking game.

As per usual, Utah State will face a daunting non-conference schedule, which features three straight road games at Wyoming, Oklahoma and Utah. USU's lone home non-conference game will be its season opener against UNLV. In all, the Aggies will meet three teams that finished last year in the top 25 in Boise State (fifth), Oklahoma (11th) and Hawai'i (24th).

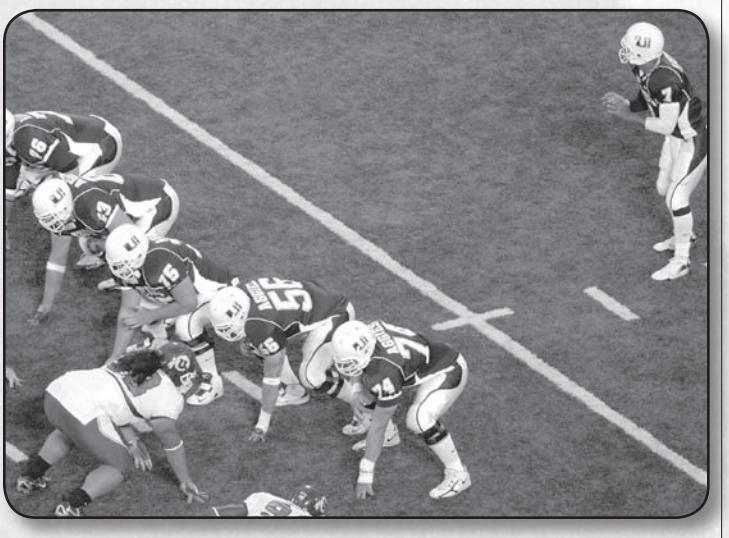

Boise State is the only one out of those three games that USU hosts at Romney Stadium, which is getting a bit of a face lift of sorts with the continuing construction of the North Endzone Facility. Along with its home opener against UNLV, USU will also have home games against WAC opponents San Jose State, Nevada and Louisiana Tech.

In addition to the Oklahoma and Hawai'i road trips, the Aggies also tangle with fellow Beehive State foe Utah at Salt Lake City. USU also returns to Wyoming for the second year in a row, as well as traveling to Fresno State, before wrapping up the season with consecutive road tilts at New Mexico State and Idaho, respectively.

Utah State faces its schedule led by a pair of highly-touted talents, in Robinson and Calderwood.

Robinson led the team with 36 receptions for 582 yards and five touchdowns, and produced two 100-yard receiving games with a career-best 141 at Louisiana Tech and 101 in the season finale against New Mexico State.

Calderwood earned second-team all-WAC honors in 2006, the only first or second-teamer for the Aggies defense. He also received WAC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance in Utah State's win over Fresno State with a career-high nine tackles for the most by an Aggie lineman since 2003.

*Malik Cin (4L)

* - indicates 2006 starter

Three starters return along the offensive line in guards Shawn Murphy and Pace Jorgensen, and Ryan Tonnemacher, who is moving from guard to center. Jorgensen has a team-best 27 career starts, while both Murphy and Tonnemacher started all 12 games a year ago. Tonnemacher was tabbed to the 2007 Rimington Trophy Watch List, given annually to the nation's most outstanding center in college football. In addition, Derek Hoke, who has started five games in the last two seasons, is expected to break into the lineup at one tackle position. One newcomer expected to contribute right away is redshirt freshman Spencer Johnson who is listed as a starting tackle heading into the fall.

Junior OC Ryan Tonnemacher (#56) and senior RG Pace Jorgensen (#63) were both starters in 2006.

The Aggies boast three players with experience at this position in Jimmy Bohm, Will Fausel and Rob Myers. Myers led the group with 10 catches for 125 yards last season, while Bohm, four catches for 16 yards and Fausel, no receptions, excelled as blockers. Both Bohm and Fausel are three-year letterwinners, while Myers has earned two letters.

Wide Receivers

Returning Lettermen

Xavier Bowman, So., 6-2, 195 (1L)
Nnamdi Gwacham, So., 6-3, 209 (1L)

Kevin Robinson, one of the WAC's biggest playmakers, leads a group of talented returnees at the wide receiver positions. The senior led the team with 36 receptions for 582 yards and five touchdowns, and produced two 100-yard games in the last half of 2006. Robinson enters the year with 123 career receptions (11th at USU), 1,845 yards (10th) and 16 touchdown receptions (eighth).

He will be joined by Otis Nelson, who was second on the team with 27 catches for 238 yards and one score, as well as Xavier Bowman (6-74), Omar Sawyer (5-51), and Nnamdi Gwacham (3-41), who all saw action last year.

Junior WR Otis Nelson (#14) was second on the team with 27 catches for 238 yards during the 2006 season.

Aaron Lesue, Sr., 5-10, 195 (1L)

Starters Lost

* - Marcus Cross (1L)

^ - moving from safety
* - indicates 2006 starter

For the second season in a row, Utah State has lost its previous season's rushing leader. Last year Marcus Cross showed signs of becoming a solid running back for the Aggies as he rushed for 650 yards. However, he decided to transfer to be closer to his wife and child in Texas and the tailback position is up for grabs. Redshirt freshmen Actkinson and Derrvin Speight and true freshman Curtis Marsh, appear to be the leaders in earning the starting position. Two returning players saw action here last year, but both were thrown in for emergency situations. Aaron Lesue, a wide receiver, was converted to tailback for the last two games and rushed 16 times for 51 yards. Chris Forbes, who led the Aggies in rushing in 2004, spent last season as a backup safety before playing in the season finale and carrying one time for a three-yard touchdown.

Quarterbacks

Returning Lettermen

Leon Jackson III, Sr., 6-1, 206 (3L)

Starters Lost

* - indicates 2006 starter

Leon Jackson III started the first five games at quarterback before being replaced by Riley Nelson, but Nelson has left on an LDS Church Mission and Jackson appears to be the leading contender to regain the position. Jackson completed 73 of 150 attempts for 694 yards and three touchdowns, but had seven interceptions. He also is the team's leading returning rusher with 105 yards last season. He came off the bench in the last four games, seeing extensive action in the season finale against New Mexico State. In that game, he hit 12-of-25 passes for 146 and two scores with no interceptions. Jackson was the starter in 2005 and threw for 1,547 yards and rushed for 328 more. He will be pushed this spring by junior college transfer Sean Setzer, who threw for 2,034 yards at Garden City (Kan.) JC last season. Mike Affleck and Jase McCormick could push for time as well as both were in the program a year ago.

Starters Lost – 0

Utah State returns 11 starters on defense as well as six other players who started at least three games last season. Even with last year's experience, the group is still very young with just five of the returning players listed as seniors this year. In 2006, USU faced four offenses that were ranked in the top 10 in total offense, as well as nine opponents whose offenses were in the national top 50.

Defensive Line

Lettermen Returning
Alan Bishop, So., 6-5, 277 (1L)

Starters Lost
None

* - indicates 2006 starter

Two seniors, both three-year letterwinners, will see plenty of action in the interior in Ben Childs and Frank Maile. Maile started eight games last year for Utah State, while Childs started six. Maile led the duo with 26 tackles, including 4.5 for loss, while Childs made 19 stops, including one sack. Alan Bishop, who saw action last year as well, will figure into the mix.

On the ends, Ben Calderwood, a second-team all-WAC selection last year, will lead a group which also includes Carl Singleton, Bevan Howard and Darby Golden. Calderwood missed two games with a hand injury, but still managed to record 44 tackles, including 6.5 for loss on the year. His 44 stops led the Aggie linemen and were eighth on the team. Singleton came on late last year and recorded two sacks, while Howard had 16 tackles in nine starts and Golden made 18 stops. Others that could figure in the mix include freshman Junior Keiaho as well as redshirts Brian Mason and Nathan Royster.

Linebackers

Lettermen Returning
*Derrick Cumbee, Jr., 6-1, 212 (1L)
*Daryl Fields, Jr., 5-7, 209 (2L)

This group battled injuries in 2006, but has gained experience in the last two years. Middle linebacker Jake Hutton, a third-team freshman All-America by The Sporting News in 2005, returns after missing two-thirds of last year with a foot injury. He had a team-best 87 tackles in 2005 and was leading the team through four games last year before being injured. Paul Igboeli was the WAC Freshman of the Year after registering 69 tackles, a figure that ranked first among all WAC freshmen and 15th overall. Igboeli also added eight tackles for loss, which ranked eighth in the WAC. Devon Hall, a two-year starter, was third on the team with 68 tackles, while recording 4.5 tackles for loss, one interception, three pass break ups and three fumble recoveries. Derrick Cumbee started five games in the middle of the season in his first year and finished with 48 tackles, while Daryl Fields started five games and had 45 stops.

Secondary

Lettermen Returning
James Brindley, So., 5-10, 191 (1L)

* - indicates 2006 starter

The entire starting secondary returns in tact and two others gained plenty of experience last year. Manning the corners are Marquise Charles and Kejon Murphy, with experienced players Drew Pearson (seven starts last year) and Joshua Taylor expected to see plenty of playing time. Charles recorded 36 tackles and four passes broken up, while Murphy, who started the final four games, had 21 tackles. Pearson started seven games and had 34 tackles, one interception and four passes broken up, while Joshua Taylor broke up two passes and made 17 tackles. Others that should see action at the corners include redshirts Sidney Allen and Geno Odong.

The safety positions boast Antonio Taylor and Caleb Taylor. Antonio Taylor became the first non-linebacker to lead USU in tackles in a season since 1978 as he recorded 74 stops a year ago. He also returned an interception for a touchdown against Wyoming and had six passes broken up on the year. Caleb Taylor was fourth on the team with 64 stops and led the team with two interceptions, while also forcing two fumbles. James Brindley also saw playing time, while USU will also look to highly touted junior college transfer Roy Hurst as well as redshirt Maxim Dinka and freshman Walter McClenton.

Returning Return Men

*Kevin Robinson, Sr., 6-0, 199 (3L)

* - indicates 2006 starter

Utah State features one of the nation's most dangerous return men in Kevin Robinson. In his Aggie career he has returned three punts and one kickoff for scores. In 2004 he earned freshman All-America honors as a return man by the FWAA and The Sporting News and was a first-team all-conference return specialist.

Senior WR/KR Kevin Robinson (#6) ranked fifth in the WAC in kickoff returns (20.7) and sixth in all-purpose yards (110.0) in 2006.

Utah State returns its punter from last year in quarterback Leon Jackson III, who averaged 37.7 yards per punt, placing 16 of his 74 boots inside the opponents 20-yard line. He also had eight 50-plus yard punts, including a season-long of 64 at Boise State. Jackson also handled the punting duties as a freshman in 2004 and averaged 42.3 yards per kick with a long of 67.

The place-kicking chores will be handled by a newcomer as Bryan Shields, who hit two-of-four attempts last year and Justin Hamblin, who was zero-for-one, are no longer on the team. USU signed Peter Caldwell from Davis High School in Kaysville, Utah, who was 15-of-16 on field-goal attempts, with a career-long of 57 yards.

2007 NOTE-ABLE

• Utah State's new North Endzone Facility will house new locker-rooms, a training room and a equipment room and will be ready prior to the start of the season.

• Brent Guy has played 36 freshmen in his first two years, including 20 in 2005 and 16 last season.

• Utah State returns 11 starters on defense, as well as six other players that started at least three games on that side of the ball.

• Utah State returns its top four tackle leaders from last season and all of them recorded at least 60 stops. In addition, 20 of USU's top 21 tacklers return.

• Utah State played four schools that finished the 2006 season ranked in the top 25 and will meet three in 2007 in Boise State (5th), Oklahoma (11th) and Hawai'i (24th).

• This season Utah State will meet six teams that played in bowl games in 2006 after playing seven that reached bowl games in 2005.

• Linebacker Paul Igboeli was named the WAC Freshman of the Year last season, as he averaged 8.1 tackles per WAC game.

• Kevin Robinson enters the year with 123 receptions (11th in USU history), 1,845 yards (10th) and 16 touchdown catches (eighth). His 21.86 career kickoff return average is seventh at USU and he has four returns for scores (three punt returns and one kickoff return).

• Utah State had a couple of jersey number changes prior to this season:
Xavier Bowman from 82 to 17
Derrick Cumbee from 40 to 12
Kejon Murphy from 10 to 9
Carl Singleton from 49 to 13

• Schedule Note-able - After not facing each other last season, Utah State meets UNLV for the third time in the last four seasons… USU won the last meeting in 2005, 31-24, at Logan, part of the Aggies' current three-game win streak in the series, as well as having won 10 of the last 12 meetings… UNLV, which is USU's only non-conference home game, is making repeat visits to Logan for the first time ever in the series, after USU made consecutive treks to Las Vegas for the 1995 and 2004 meetings… USU returns to Wyoming this season, marking the first time since 1977-78 that the Aggies and Cowboys have faced each other in back-to-back seasons… This is also the first time since 1968 and 1970 that USU has made consecutive trips to Laramie in the series and the first time since 1923-24 that the Aggies have played at Wyoming in successive seasons… USU's trip to Oklahoma marks the Aggies' first trip to Norman since 1991, USU is 0-3 all-time vs. OU… This is USU's first match-up with a Big XII opponent since 2003 when the Aggies lost at Nebraska… Overall, USU is 9-39-1 against the Big XII… USU beat San Jose State in the Spartans' last visit to Logan in 2005, snapping SJSU's four-game win streak on the Aggies' home field and the Spartans' eight-game win streak overall in the series... SJSU has won 10 of the last 12 match-ups with Utah State… USU and Utah own the 12th most played rivalry in college football as the teams will be meeting for the 107th time this season... The Aggies make their fifth trip across the Pacific to Hawai'i… USU is 2-2 on the island, losing in 2005 after winning in the Aggies' 1966 and 1959 trips... USU's first-ever game at Hawai'i was a loss in 1927… USU is on a five-game home losing skid vs. Nevada, as the Aggies' last home win against the Wolf Pack was in 1950… Last season's Nevada win was the first time in the last eight meetings that the home team won in the series… A two-game pattern is ongoing in the series between USU and Louisiana Tech, as the Aggies won the first two meetings in 1993 and 1994, before the Bulldogs won in 2005 and 2006… 1980 was the last time that USU won at Fresno, as the Aggies are 0-7-1 in their last eight trips… Boise State has claimed six straight wins against Utah State after the Aggies defeated the Broncos in both 1996 and 1997, the latter being at Logan… According to recent pattern, USU is due to win the next two vs. New Mexico State, as the northern Aggies have gone lose one, win two over the last seven meetings and USU lost to NMSU last year… The navy-clad Aggies have a 25-6 advantage in the series with the maroon-clad Aggies, USU's biggest advantage against a WAC foe… Idaho has won three of the last four and five of the last seven meetings to take a 16-15-2 lead in the series since the first meeting in 1916.

COACHING STAFF

BRENT GUY

Oklahoma State, 1983
Third Year at Utah State

With the motto "Better Than Before", Brent Guy took over a Utah State football program ahead of the 2005 season that needed to improve. While the first-year record of 3-8 in 2005 and the year two mark of 1-11 in 2006 may not seem like an improvement, the level of play and quality of athletes showed signs of being "Better Than Before."

In 2005, Guy played 20 freshmen and had 12 start at least one game. In 2006, USU played 16 freshmen, including nine who started at least one game. This season presents yet another difficult schedule for the Aggies, who feature 17 seniors, which is the most in the Coach Guy era.

When Utah State athletics director Randy Spetman went looking for a new head football coach in December of 2004, he wanted somebody who knew what it would take to rebuild a program, had a commitment to student-athletes both athletically and academically, and who wanted to live in Cache Valley.

Brent Guy fit that bill well and the 25th head football coach at Utah State University is guiding the Aggies as they enter their third season in the Western Athletic Conference.

Guy, a former Utah State assistant coach from 1992-94, spent the previous four seasons (2001-04) as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arizona State. He replaced Mick Dennehy, who was fired after posting a 19-37 record in five years at Utah State.

"Brent Guy has been involved in reviving some football programs that have become national-level programs in Boise State and Arizona State," Spetman said when he hired Guy. "He was here when Utah State won a bowl game and he understands our situation here.

"He is a family man and a quality individual," Spetman added. "He cares about the welfare of the student-athletes and he puts academics first."

Guy previously coached at Utah State from 1992-94, working with the linebackers under then head coach Charlie Weatherbie. In that time, the Aggies won a Big West Conference Championship and posted the only bowl victory in school history, winning the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl, 42-33, against Ball State.

While at Utah State, Guy coached two-time first-team all-Big West Conference selection Jermaine Younger as well as David Gill, who would go on to be named all-league first-team in 1995 and 1996.

"Obviously my family and I are excited to be able to live in Cache Valley," Guy said when he was hired on Dec. 10, 2004. "We liked living there so much our first time at Utah State and can't wait to return.

"I am excited about the opportunity to coach at Utah State at this time because there is a lot of excitement as we enter the Western Athletic Conference and build a new athletic complex," Guy added. "This will help us to become a competitive team and become a consistent winner, which is what we have to learn to be."

While serving as Arizona State's defensive coordinator for four seasons, Guy left the Sun Devils in great shape. In 2004, ASU went 9-3 and defeated Purdue in the Sun Bowl. That marked the Sun Devils' second bowl appearance in three years. ASU's defense finished 2004 ranked 28th nationally in rushing defense, 32nd in pass efficiency defense and 48th in both total and scoring defense.

In 2002, Guy's defense forced 40 turnovers, including 22 interceptions. Those totals ranked third and fourth in the country, respectively. In addition, ASU recorded an incredible 123 tackles for loss, including 52 sacks that season.

As the defensive coordinator at Boise State from 1998-2000, he helped the Broncos become the cream of the league as BSU won the 1999 and 2000 Big West Championships posting a 10-1 combined conference record in those two years. BSU then went on to win consecutive Humanitarian Bowls after those seasons.

Under his guidance, Boise State led the Big West in total defense, rushing defense, and scoring defense in both 1999 and 2000. In 1999, the Broncos ranked 28th in the nation in scoring defense allowing just 20.5 points per game.

Guy, who has been a part of nine bowl teams in his playing and coaching career, had two stints coaching at his alma mater of Oklahoma State. After serving as a graduate assistant (1986-87) and recruiting coordinator (1988) there, Guy coached the Cowboy linebackers from 1989-91 and then again from 1995-97.

Guy began his playing career at Oklahoma State as a walkon and became a starter at both defensive end and linebacker. As a senior in 1982 he started at linebacker and recorded 106 tackles to rank third on the team. He also had three tackles for loss, recovered one fumble, had one interception and broke up seven passes.

He started at defensive end as a junior in 1981 and registered 48 tackles. As a sophomore he was credited with 21 tackles.

Guy graduated from Oklahoma State with a degree in hotel and restaurant administration in 1983. He and his wife Shawn have two children, Madison and Riley.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING...

"Brent Guy has been involved in reviving some football programs that have become national-level programs in Boise State and Arizona State. He was here when Utah State won a bowl game and he understands our situation here. He is a family man and a quality individual. He cares about the welfare of the student-athletes and he puts academics first." - USU Director of Athletics Randy Spetman

"Brent is a dynamic leader of young men. His leadership skills are among the best I have seen in our profession. He was a major part of our 8-3 campaign (in 2004). I am very proud of him and I wish him well at Utah State University." - former Arizona State head coach Dirk Koetter

"He was a solid coach. He definitely knew what he was doing. He was energetic. He knew how to get his players excited for a game. He was a player's coach. He was strict and he instilled his game plan well. You had to know what you were doing, you had to know where to be. That was one of his big things. Regardless of how you play, you have got to know where to be." - Solomon Bates, former Arizona State and current NFL player.

DARRELL DICKEY

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Kansas State, 1984 - First Year at Utah State

Entering his first season as the offensive coordinator is Darrell Dickey, who will also direct the USU quarterbacks. Dickey replaces Mike Santiago who resigned after five games last season and was replaced by wide receiver coach Greg Stevens, who served as the interim coordinator the rest of the year.

Dickey comes to Utah State from North Texas, where he spent the previous nine seasons as the head coach, guiding the Mean Green to four consecutive conference championships between 2001-2004.

"Darrell brings a lot of Division I experience to the staff," USU head coach Guy said when Dickey was hired. "I have known him since our playing days in the old Big Eight Conference when he was the quarterback at Kansas State and I was at Oklahoma State."

Recently, Dickey was named the head coach of the Sun Belt Conference's 30th Anniversary Team.

"His success at North Texas speaks for itself," Guy added. "He has a great reputation in the state of Texas and we have already had good interaction with the high school coaches down there, so he will be a great asset for us in recruiting the state of Texas."

Dickey built a 42-64 overall record, annually playing one of the nation's more difficult non-conference schedules, as well as a 34-22 conference record. During North Texas' four-year conference reign, the Mean Green were 25-1 in league play. The Mean Green were 2-9 in 2005 and 3-9 last season and he was relieved of his duties.

Under his direction North Texas landed 70 players on all-Sun Belt Conference teams, including 39 first-team selections. Dickey guided the Mean Green to its first bowl win in 57 years as well as its first nine-win season in 26 years.

North Texas produced back-to-back NCAA rushing leaders as Patrick Cobbs led the nation in rushing in 2003 and the next year Jamario Thomas stepped in and repeated the feat.

"Darrell knows our situation, because it is the exact situation he had at North Texas," Guy said. "They played a difficult non-conference schedule and then got into conference play."

The offensive-minded Dickey has served as an offensive coordinator at Memphis (1988-89), UTEP (1994-96), and SMU (1997). He has also coached at Texas A&M, Mississippi State, and LSU.

"I am very excited to join the USU family," Dickey said. "I have talked to a number of people that have coached at Utah State and lived in Cache Valley and they were unanimous about what a great place it is to live and to work.

"Having coached against the Aggies in the past, I know the potential of the program and after lengthy discussions with Coach Guy, I strongly believe in how he is going about building the program," Dickey said. "I am looking forward to being a part of Utah State football."

The 47-year old Dickey was a quarterback at Kansas State, where he led the Wildcats to the 1982 Independence Bowl, the school's first ever bowl game.

Dickey is a 1984 graduate of Kansas State, earning his bachelor's degree in business administration.

Last season, Dickey suffered a heart attack on Oct. 13 and missed one game. He had his gal bladder removed, was diagnosed with diabetes, and suffered a heart attack all within nine months.

Named after University of Texas legendary head coach Darrell Royal, he is the son of Jim Dickey, Sr., who was a collegiate head coach at Kansas State, Florida and Southern Mississippi. Dickey and his wife, the former Tory Byrd, have a daughter, Meredith.

MARK JOHNSON

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
UC Davis, 1990 - Third Year at Utah State

Mark Johnson will enter his third season in Logan once again coordinating the Aggie defense and coaching the linebackers positions, as Utah State returns all 11 defensive starters from last season.

In his first year of serving as the defensive coordinator at Utah State in 2005, Johnson was charged with improving the Aggies' rushing defense. That year USU allowed an average of 144 yards per game, an improvement of 48 yards per contest from the previous season.

During that 2005 season, Utah State ranked among the top half of the Western Athletic Conference in rushing defense, passing defense and total defense.

Johnson oversaw a linebacking corp in 2005 that included walkon Jake Hutton, who led the team with 87 tackles, marking the first time in school history a freshman led the team in that category and Matt Wiser, who recorded 85 stops in his senior year.

In 2006, Johnson coached WAC Freshman of the Year Paul Igboeli, who was second on the team with 69 tackles, a mark that led all WAC freshman as well as ranking 15th overall. Igboeli also tallied eight tackles for loss, which was eighth in the WAC.

Johnson, who coached with Aggie head coach Brent Guy at Boise State in 1998 and 1999, has a number of years of experience coaching in the WAC as he was at San Jose State, Boise State and Nevada. He started his coaching career at his alma mater of UC Davis serving as the junior varsity head coach from 1990-94. He then spent one season as a graduate assistant at Oregon, where the Ducks went 9-2 and were ranked 12th in the country.

Johnson then coached running backs at San Jose State in 1996 before returning to UC Davis to work with the defensive line and linebackers for a season. He then met Guy at Boise State where he coached the defensive line in 1998 and 1999.

"Mark was instrumental in the first of our two conference championships at Boise State and he has great experience coaching in the Western Athletic Conference," Guy said. "He will provide great energy for our defense as our coordinator."

After his stint at Boise State, Johnson coached linebackers at Nevada for two seasons before returning to UC Davis to coach linebackers for the next three seasons.

Johnson was a middle linebacker at UC Davis, where he graduated in 1990. He earned a master's degree from Cal State Sacramento in 1994. He and his wife, the former Amy Mohrlang, have two children Cooper and Olivia.

Assistant Coaches

JEFF COPP

Safeties/Punt and Kickoff Coverage
Boise State, 2001 - Third Year at Utah State

Entering his third season as the safeties coach is Jeff Copp, who will also handle punt and kickoff coverage teams. Copp spent the 2004 season at Idaho State coaching defensive ends before coming to Logan.

The 2006 season saw one of his players, Antonio Taylor, lead USU in tackles with 74 stops which ranked 14th in the WAC, and was the first non-linebacker to lead USU in tackles in a season since 1978. Two others were in the top five on the team in Caleb Taylor (fourth with 64 tackles) and Terrance Washington (fifth with 58).

In 2005, three of his players were among USU's top six tacklers in Antonio Taylor (third with 65 stops), Terrance Washington (fourth with 60) and Andre Bala (sixth with 49).

A former all-conference defensive end as a player at Boise State when Brent Guy was as assistant coach there, Copp also worked with the Aggie head coach for three seasons at Arizona State.

Copp began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arizona State working with the safeties for three seasons from 2001-03. He spent one season as a full-time assistant at Idaho State in 2004 before joining the Aggie staff.

At Boise State, Copp was part of the Broncos' back-to-back league championship teams that advanced to the Humanitarian Bowl in 1999 and 2000.

"Jeff played at Boise State and was a member of two Big West Conference championship teams," Guy said when he was hired. "He is an outstanding young coach and will be a rising star in this business."

Born May 8, 1978, the 29-year old grew up in Idaho Falls, Idaho and played football, basketball and baseball at Skyline High School where he was a two-time all-state selection in both football and baseball. He earned his bachelor's degree in health sciences from Boise State in 2001 and a master's degree in higher education from Arizona State in 2003. He is married to the former Amanda Konzelman.

SHAUN JOHNSON

Running Backs/Kickoff Return
Utah State, 1995 - Second Year at Utah State

Utah State running backs coach Shaun Johnson is in his second year at his alma mater. In addition to directing the Aggie backs, Johnson will also coach the kickoff return unit.

In 2006, Johnson mentored Aaron Lesue's transition from wide receiver to running back, and Lesue enters the fall as the starting tailback. Johnson also coached kick returner Kevin Robinson, who enters his senior season with three punts and one kickoff returned for scores in his Aggie career.

Johnson, who played wide receiver at Utah State in 1993 and 1994, came to Logan after spending two seasons at Brown University where he coached the NCAA I-AA rushing leader in Nick Hartigan. Hartigan was a first-team All-America selection and was one of three finalists for the Walter Payton Award given to the top player at the I-AA level after rushing for 172.2 yards per game.

Brown won the Ivy League title in 2005 with a 9-1 record. The Bears averaged 409.2 yards of total offense to rank 22nd in the nation, including 219.3 yards rushing, a figure that ranked 16th in the country.

As a player at USU, Johnson was on the 1993 Aggie team that won the Big West Championship and the Las Vegas Bowl. In 1994 he played in all 11 games, catching 20 passes for 190 yards and two TDs.

Johnson, who graduated from USU with a degree in journalism in 1995, coached at Hampden-Sydney College (1998), Adams State College (1999-2000), Brown (2001, 2004-05) and Langston (2002-03), prior to coming to USU.

He is married to the former Marcia Halaufia and they have two children Kavika (10) and Makana (6). Johnson was born Oct. 3, 1970 in Bryan, Texas.

"Shaun is a Utah State grad who I have known for a long time and has been coaching the running backs at Brown, and they had a very successful year in 2005," Guy said. "He played on our championship team in 1993 and is a very experienced coach. He was also a coordinator at one time (Langston)."

Assistant Coaches

DANILO ROBINSON

Defensive Line/Recruiting Coordinator
Utah State, 1997 - Third Year at Utah State

In his third year at Utah State, Danilo Robinson will coach the defensive line, a position he excelled at as a player with the Aggies in the late 1990s. He will also serve as recruiting coordinator this season.

Last season, Robinson coached second-team all-WAC selection Ben Calderwood at defensive end. Calderwood led the Aggie linemen and ranked eighth on the team with 44 tackles, as well as second on the squad with six and a half tackles for loss.

In his first year at USU in 2005, Robinson coached the USU tight ends and worked with the kickoff return unit, which ranked 13th in the NCAA with a 24.06 per return average.

A former defensive lineman standout at USU from 1993-96, Robinson joined the USU staff after working two seasons (2003 and 2004) as linebackers coach at UL-Monroe, under former Aggie head coach Charlie Weatherbie. While at UL-Monroe, he coached second-team all-Sun Belt selection John Winchester.

After spending the 1997 season as a strength and conditioning coach at Utah State, Robinson began his coaching career at Navy under Weatherbie. From 1997-2001, Robinson worked at different times with the Midshipmen's linebackers, defensive line, offensive line and tight ends, while also serving as the junior varsity defensive coordinator.

He then spent the 2002 season as the offensive and defensive line coach at Northview (Calif.) High School before being promoted to head coach for 2003. However, he returned to the collegiate coaching ranks before coaching a prep game.

As a defensive end at Utah State, Robinson earned second-team all-Big West honors as a senior in 1996 after recording 103 tackles and 7.5 sacks. He still owns school records for single-game sacks with five vs. San Jose State in 1995, and tackles for loss in a game with six against the Spartans that day.

Born Jan. 4, 1975 in Colon, Panama, Robinson graduated from Utah State in 1997 with a degree in political science and a minor in history. He is working on a master's degree in education from Azusa Pacific.

He is married to the former Shelley Grupe who won back-to-back Big West Conference 400-meter titles while running on the USU track team. The couple have a son, Dylan.

JOHN RUSHING

Cornerbacks/Punt Returns
Washington State, 1995 - Fifth Year at Utah

Entering his fifth year at Utah State, John Rushing has become the dean of current Aggie football coaches in terms of consecutive years coaching at USU. He will once again be responsible for coaching the Aggie cornerbacks as well as working with the punt return unit.

Rushing has spent the past four seasons working with the Aggie secondary, and in 2003 he worked closely with Mark Estelle, who was USU's defensive MVP and played in the Rotary Gridiron Classic.

In 2004, the Aggie secondary was involved in the team allowing just 202.55 passing yards per game, which ranked 42nd in the nation.

In 2005, he coached Jarrett Bush, who was a first-team all-WAC cornerback and signed an NFL free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers. Bush ranked sixth in the NCAA in passes defended in 2005 with 1.36 per game.

Last season, Rushing coached cornerbacks Marquise Charles, who logged 36 tackles, as well as Drew Pearson (34 tackles) and the duo tied for third on the team with four passes broken up.

Rushing also coached the kickoff returns, and USU was second in the WAC in kickoff return yards. Individually, kick returner Kevin Robinson was fifth in the WAC with 20.7 yards per return.

Prior to coming to Utah State, Rushing spent three years at Montana State from 2000-02. While there he coached Kane Ioane, an unanimous all-conference selection, and All-American Joey Thomas, a third-round NFL draft pick.

He worked as a graduate assistant at Boise State in 1998 and 1999 when Guy was the team's defensive coordinator, and was part of the Broncos' Big West Championship team in 1999.

"I have known John for a long time," Guy said. "I like him personally and he is a good football coach."

Rushing also coached at Merced Union in 1995 and Willamette in 1996-97. While at Willamette the Bearcats won two conference titles and were the national runners-up in 1997.

Rushing was a four-year starter as a defensive back at Washington State and set a school record by starting 46 games. He earned honorable mention all-Pac 10 honors as a freshman and again as a sophomore. In 1991, he was named to The Sporting News Freshman All-America team.

His senior year at WSU, the Cougars ranked second in the NCAA in total defense allowing just 229 yards per game and second in the country in scoring defense at 12.1 points per contest.

Rushing grew up in Merced, Calif., and attended Merced High School. He graduated from Washington State with a degree in sociology in 1995 and finished a master's degree through Boise State in 2005.

Rushing's younger brother Kevin Robinson is a wide receiver at USU.

TRACY SMITH

Tight Ends
LSU, 2003 - Second Year at Utah State

Entering his second year at Utah State is Tracy Smith, who will oversee the Aggie tight ends. Smith came to USU prior to spring practice in 2006 and is beginning his second year as a full-time assistant coach.

All three of Smith's tight ends from last season return, with Rob Myers leading the group with 10 catches for 125 yards. Jimmy Bohm and Will Fausel also excel at the position.

Smith spent 2005 as the offensive graduate assistant at LSU. In his position he worked with the Tiger quarterbacks under the direction of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Jimbo Fisher.

The Tigers won the western division of the SEC with a 7-1 league record and were 11-2 overall, including a 40-3 win against Miami in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl.

In 2005, LSU had the nation's 43rd leading scoring offense at 29.5 points per game and the country's 60th-ranked total offensive unit with 374.0 yards per game. Tiger quarterback JaMarcus Russell ranked 69th in the nation in total offense with 201.0 yards per game.

Prior to coaching at LSU, Smith was a restricted earnings coach working with tight ends and serving as the team's video coordinator at Stephen F. Austin. While there he worked with current Aggie wide receivers coach Greg Stevens and former USU offensive coordinator Mike Santiago.

Smith is the son of Carl Smith, former offensive coordinator for the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL. Smith, who was born Feb. 23, 1982 in Beaumont, Texas, is married to the former Corey Guyott. He graduated from LSU with a business degree in the fall of 2003.

"Tracy is a young, bright mind, who is going to be an up and coming coach," Guy said. "He knows the offense because he has experience working with it at Stephen F. Austin."

GREG STEVENS

Wide Receivers
Eastern Oregon, 1992 - Third Year at Utah State

The wide receivers group is considered one of the top position groups at Utah State and for the third year will be coached by Greg Stevens. Stevens will be in charge of a group paced by honors candidate and one of the WAC's biggest playmakers in Kevin Robinson.

Last season Robinson led the team with 36 receptions for 582 yards and five touchdowns. Robinson enters his senior campaign with 123 career receptions (11th in USU history), 1,845 yards (10th) and 16 TD catches (eighth).

Stevens was also the interim offensive coordinator last season when Mike Santiago resigned after four games.

Stevens came to USU after spending three years as the offensive coordinator at Stephen F. Austin. In his time with the Lumberjacks, Stevens directed an offense that led the Southland Conference in passing in 2002 and 2003 and ranked 36th in the country in 2004.

Prior to coaching at SFA, he was the offensive coordinator at Arkansas-Monticello for three years and established an offense that set more than 30 school records and was ranked among the nation's top five units.

Other coaching stops for Stevens include Mesa (Colo.) State (1992-94), Eastern Arizona (1995-97) and Snow (Utah) Junior College (1998).

Stevens, who grew up in Ephraim, Utah, played quarterback at Snow Junior College as well as at Eastern Oregon. He was an all-conference selection at Snow in 1989 and earned team MVP honors at Eastern Oregon in 1991.

"Greg grew up in Ephraim and has been an offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach during his career," said USU head coach Brent Guy. "He is a great asset to us in recruiting the state of Utah."

The 1992 Eastern Oregon graduate is married to the former Amy Steadman and they have three children, Tyler, Ryan and Hannah.

VANCE VICE

Offensive Line
Oklahoma State, 1990 - Third Year at Utah State

Entering his third year coaching the offensive line, Vance Vice welcomes back three starters from last season.

Guard Pace Jorgenson has a team-best 27 career starts, while tackle Shawn Murphy and guard Ryan Tonnemacher started all 12 games last year. Tonnemacher is moving to center, and was tabbed to the 2007 Rimington Trophy Watch List, given annually to the nation's most outstanding center in college football.

In 2005, Vice coached Donald Penn who earned second-team all-WAC honors as a tackle, played in the Hula Bowl and then signed a free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

Vice came to Utah State after spending the past five seasons coaching the offensive line at Illinois State. He earned the title of assistant head coach during his last two years at ISU.

At Illinois State, three of his linemen earned All-America honors and eight garnered Gateway Conference honors. In 2003, the Redbirds established a school record with 248.1 yards per game rushing and allowed just five sacks on 367 pass attempts.

"Vance is a former player of mine that I have known since 1986," said USU head coach Brent Guy. "He is an up and coming young coach, who has been involved with the same style of offense that we want to run."

Vice started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Georgia from 1990-92 before working at Hart County (Ga.) High School from 1993-95. He returned to the collegiate level coaching tight ends at Clemson from 1996-98 and then spent one year at Murray State as the offensive line coach.

Vice was a defensive lineman and tight end at Oklahoma State, where he participated in three bowl games on teams that featured Thurman Thomas and Barry Sanders.

The three-time academic all-Big Eight selection graduated from Oklahoma State in 1990 with a degree in secondary education. He earned a master's degree in education administration from Georgia in 1993 as well as an EdS degree from Clemson in 1999.

He and his wife Kerry have one daughter, Savannah, and a son Brock.

TONY FLORES

Graduate Assistant/Offense and Kickers
Utah State, 2003 - Second Year at Utah State

In his second year as the offensive graduate assistant and working with the Aggie kickers is Tony Flores, who was a work study assistant for the football program in 2005. In his role, Flores will assist with the offensive line, help with scouting reports, break down film and work with the Aggie kickers.

This season, Flores will work with top signee Peter Caldwell, who was 15-of-16 on field-goal attempts, with a career-long of 57 yards.

Flores also coaches USU punter Leon Jackson III, who averaged 37.7 yards per punt last season, with eight 50-plus yard punts, including a season-long of 64 yards. Additionally, Jackson placed 16 of his 74 boots inside the opponent 20-yard line.

Flores spent the 2005 season as a work study assistant in the office and was moved to a graduate assistant position in 2006.

Prior to coming to USU, Flores helped coach the freshman football team at North Cache High School and the team was 27-0 in his three years working with the secondary.

After graduating from Grantsville (Utah) High School in 1989, Flores attended USU before joining the military for three years. He then worked in the real estate field before returning to school and coaching football.

He earned a bachelor's degree from Utah State in liberal arts and sciences in 2003.

Born Feb. 12, 1971 in Harbor City, Calif., he and his wife Taya have three children, Olivia, Katie and Gabe.

ERIC SANDERS

Graduate Assistant/Defense
UC Davis, 2005 - First Year at Utah State

Graduate assistant Eric Sanders is entering his first season at Utah State and will work with the defense and video editing.

Sanders comes to USU from UC Davis, where he was a full-time assistant for the last two seasons after spending the prior two years as a student assistant. After working as video coordinator at his alma mater, Sanders worked with linebackers and defensive line for two seasons and the offensive line and tight ends for one season. In 2005, UC Davis won a share of the Great West Football Conference Championship.

A native of San Francisco, Calif., Sanders was a utility player at Lowell High School. He was born August 2, 1983 in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and received his bachelor's degree from UC Davis in psychology with a biological emphasis in December of 2005.

Also in 2005, Sanders traveled to China for coaches clinics with the American Football in China Exchange Association.

Support Staff

MIKE BAIR

Supervisor of Athletic Equipment
11th Year at USU

Entering his 11th year as the athletic department's supervisor of athletic equipment is Mike Bair, who joined the staff in August of 1997.

Bair services all 16 sports with athletic equipment, uniforms and clothing, while also supervising student managers for many of the sports. He served on the Schutt Sports Athletic Council for the past two years.

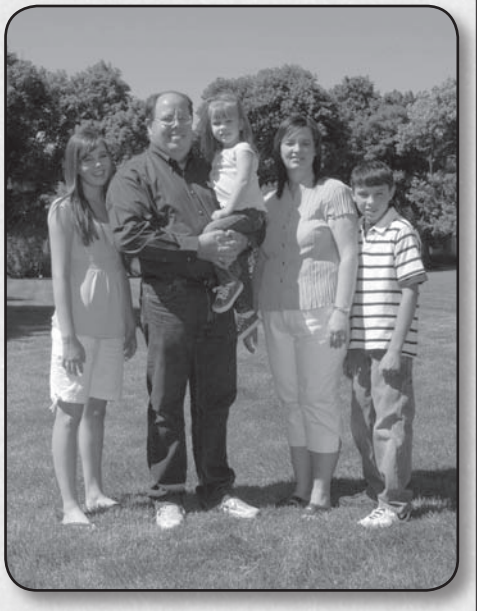

A Lewiston, Utah native, Bair, who was born August 20, 1966, graduated from Sky View High School in Smithfield, Utah and Utah State with a business management degree in 1995.

Prior to coming to USU, Bair worked in the sporting goods industry doing retail and team sales.

He and his wife, the former Michelle Parker, have three children, Makayla, Nick and Adelynn.

BILL GARREN

Video Coordinator
Second Year at USU

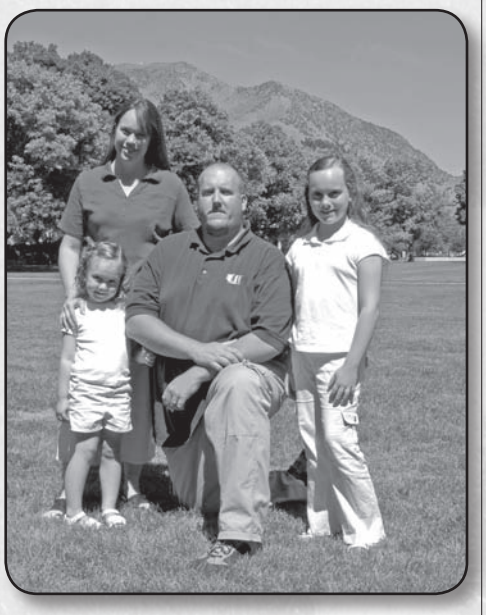

Bill Garren is in his second full year as the video coordinator for the athletics department.

Garren is responsible for video filming and editing of Aggie football and basketball practices and games.

He served as the video coordinator at Idaho State in 2000 and 2001 before moving to San Jose State for the 2002 season. He was an assistant football and track coach at his high school in Montrose, Colo., in 2003. He then spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as video coordinator at Idaho State before coming to USU.

He earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 2005.

Garren, who was born April 3, 1976 in Grand Junction, Colo., was an all-conference football player at Montrose HS. He played two seasons at Ricks College (currently BYU-Idaho) and then one season at Idaho State before beginning his video career. He and his wife Melinda have two daughters, Maia and Milly.

WYOMING 38, UTAH STATE 7

September 2, 2006 • Laramie, Wyo. • War Memorial Stadium

GAME ONE RECAP

While the Utah State offense struggled, the Aggie defense kept the team in the game before finally wearing out in the fourth quarter as Wyoming posted a 38-7 victory in the season opener for both teams. USU produced just 129 yards on just 48 plays during the game, while Wyoming ran up 460 yards on 78 plays. The Cowboys scored 21 points in the fourth quarter to put the game away. Despite Wyoming's statistical dominance, Utah State remained in the game thanks to Antonio Taylor's 45-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the second quarter which brought USU to within 10-7 at the half. The score remained 10-7 until the Cowboys scored with :24 left in the third period to push their lead to 17-7. That score was the first of four straight possessions Wyoming scored on (includes an interception for a score). The Aggie offense produced just one play longer than nine yards in the game, as Leon Jackson hit Kevin Robinson on a 33-yard pass in the fourth quarter. The Aggies threw for just 74 yards in the game, while rushing for just 55 more. Marcus Cross made his USU debut and rushed 11 times for 44 yards. Robinson was the receiving leader catching two for 41 yards. Defensively, Devon Hall and Jake Hutton each had nine tackles for USU.

NOTE-ABLE

Several Aggies made their first career starts in the game... On defense, CB Drew Pearson, S Caleb Taylor, LB Daryl Fields, and DE Darby Golden all started for the first time... On offense, it was TB Marcus Cross, OT Shawn Murphy and OT Taylor Wallace... Antonio Taylor's 45-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter was the first by an Aggie since Toriano Taulogo returned one 44 yards vs. New Mexico State in 2004... It was also Taylor's third career interception... USU's 129 yards of total offense was its fewest in a game since recording 82 yards at Illinois in 1989.

ARKANSAS 20, UTAH STATE 0

September 9, 2006 • Fayetteville, Ark. • Razorback Stadium

GAME TWO RECAP

Marcus Cross became just the third Utah State player to rush for 100 yards in the last 27 games, but it wasn't enough as the Aggies fell 20-0 at Southeastern Conference opponent Arkansas. Cross, a junior in his second game at USU, carried 29 times for 103 yards as the Aggies rushed for 135 yards on the night. USU also added 114 passing yards, but Arkansas produced 457 yards of total offense in getting the win. The Aggies kept Arkansas out of the endzone in the first quarter and in fact kept the Razorbacks off the board until 8:01 remained in the second quarter. The Razorbacks capped a 50-yard drive with the first of two Darren McFadden touchdown runs. After a late second quarter touchdown, Arkansas' only other score was a 72-yard run in the middle of the third quarter as McFadden burst through the line for the longest run allowed by the Aggies since 2002. USU threatened late in the game getting the ball inside the Arkansas 10-yard line on its final possession, but three straight incomplete passes finished USU's chances of not being shutout.

NOTE-ABLE

TB Marcus Cross became just the third Aggie to run for 100 yards in the last 27 games (Chris Forbes vs. New Mexico State in 2004 and Jerod Walker vs. New Mexico State in 2005)... DE Ben Calderwood recorded his first career sack as well as USU's first sack of the young season in the third quarter... USU was shutout in a game for the first time since getting blanked 21-0 at Middle Tennessee in 2004 (15 games in between shutouts)... USU did not commit a turnover for the first time since the Middle Tennessee game of 2004 (15 games in between).

UTAH 48, UTAH STATE 0

September 16, 2006 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME THREE RECAP

For the third game in a row the Utah State offense was shutout as the Aggies fell to Utah 48-0 in its home opener. The tone of the game was set on the first series as Aggie quarterback Leon Jackson was intercepted for the first time in seven appearances in Romney Stadium and had that throw returned 21 yards for a touchdown by Eric Shyne just 1:06 into the game. The Utes scored 17 first-quarter points after the Aggies had allowed just one field goal in the opening period of their first two games combined. By halftime the Utes had pushed the margin to 24-0 and at the end of the third quarter the Aggies were down 38-0. USU recorded just 98 offensive yards while Utah rolled up 401. Jackson completed just four-of-15 passes for 39 yards and two interceptions before giving way to a pair of backup quarterbacks in Bryan Black and Mike Affleck. Black, who made his first appearance for USU since playing as a freshman in 2003, was two-of-three, but fumbled once. Affleck was zero-of-two. In all, USU had six turnovers after committing just one in the first two games combined. In fact, the Aggies had not had more than one turnover in its previous five games dating back to last year. USU's rushing game produced 34 yards as the Aggies had 83 positive yards and 49 negative yards. USU's longest play on the day was a 23-yard pass from Jackson to Nnamdi Gwacham, who was playing in his first collegiate game, while the longest run was nine yards by Marcus Cross. Defensively, LB Jake Hutton recorded a game-high 10 tackles, while S Terrance Washington and DT E.J. Reid each added seven stops.

BRIGHAM YOUNG 38, UTAH STATE 0

September 23, 2006 • Provo, Utah • LaVell Edwards Stadium

GAME FOUR RECAP

Utah State's football team was shutout for the third straight game as the Aggies lost 38-0 at in-state rival Brigham Young. Marcus Cross led the USU offensive effort rushing for 127 yards and catching five passes for 38 yards. He became the first Aggie to record two 100-yard rushing games in a season since 2003. He also became the first USU player to lead the team in rushing and receiving yards in the same game since wide receiver Kevin Robinson led in both categories against San Jose State in the fourth game of last year. USU's defense was led by sophomore transfer Derrick Cumbee, who in his first collegiate start, recorded a game-high 11 tackles. BYU scored on each of its first four possessions to take a 24-0 lead midway through the second quarter. The Cougars added a touchdown in the third quarter on an interception return and then posted another score on its final drive of the day. USU reached the red zone twice in the game, but came away without a score both times. The Aggies produced 242 yards of offense, but allowed the Cougars 441 on the day. USU owned the time of possession advantage holding the ball for 34:10 to BYU's 25:50, but USU averaged just 3.5 yards per play while BYU gained 7.1 per attempt.

NOTE-ABLE

LB Derrick Cumbee made his first career start and recorded a game-high 11 tackles in the contest... DT Kerry Shepherd made his first career start in place of the injured Frank Maile... Leon Jackson recorded season-long 59 and 54-yard punts... TB Marcus Cross' 29-yard run in the third quarter was the longest rush by the Aggies this season (previous long was 16 yards by Cross at Arkansas)... USU was shutout for the third straight game marking the first time the Aggies have been scoreless in three consecutive contests since 1937.

IDAHO 41, UTAH STATE 21

September 30, 2006 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME FIVE RECAP

Utah State jumped out to a quick 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter, but gave up 41 consecutive points before adding a final touchdown en route to losing its Western Athletic Conference opener 41-21 to Idaho. Utah State, which had not scored an offensive touchdown in its first four games, took the opening kickoff and marched 71 yards in 10 plays to put its first offensive points of the year on the board. Marcus Cross capped the drive with a six-yard scoring run at the 11:10 mark. The Aggies added their second touchdown just three minutes later as they recovered a pooched kickoff at the Idaho 21-yard line. USU needed just five plays to get in the endzone when Leon Jackson hit tight end Jimmy Bohm for a one-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies a 14-0 lead at the 8:16 mark of the first quarter. After producing 92 yards in its first 15 plays of the game, the Aggies' next eight drives resulted in five punts, two interceptions and a fumble. In that stretch, USU had four three and outs. The Aggies did put together an 11-play, 66-yard drive midway through the second quarter, but after reaching the Idaho seven-yard line, Jackson's cross field pass was picked off by Stanley Franks and returned 98 yards for a Vandal score. Had USU scored on the drive it would have given the Aggies a 21-10 lead, but instead USU found itself behind 17-14. USU did produce a season high 306 yards, while holding Idaho to an Aggie opponent season-low 316 yards. Cross ran 16 times for 68 yards, while Jackson completed 16-of-24 attempts for 136 yards and one touchdown. However Jackson threw two interceptions after opening the game by hitting his first seven attempts.

UTAH STATE 13, FRESNO STATE 12

October 7, 2006 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME SIX RECAP

Freshman quarterback Riley Nelson guided Utah State to a thrilling 13-12 come from behind victory in his first collegiate start against Fresno State. Nelson found Fresno native Kevin Robinson on a 30-yard touchdown pass with :55 left in the game to boost the Aggies to just their second victory in their last 13 games. The Aggies drove 80 yards in 11 plays on the game-winning drive just after Fresno State extended its 9-7 lead to 12-7 with a field goal at the 3:56 mark. Nelson, who set several national records as a prep senior, including accounting for 84 touchdowns, was nine-of-19 passing for 120 yards and two touchdowns without an interception. Nelson had played the last two series in USU's previous game against Idaho. Nelson was six of six passing for 57 yards, while rushing three times for 34 more yards on the final drive. He had rushes of 16 and 21 yards on the final series and converted three third-down plays on the drive. Utah State took an early 7-0 lead as Marcus Cross scored on a 54-yard reception late in the first quarter. The Aggies held Fresno State scoreless in the first half, marking the first time the opponents did not score before the break since 2003. Fresno State evened the score at the 9:04 mark of the third quarter on a 60-yard pass to Chastin West, which was the longest pass allowed by the Aggies this season. Fresno State took the lead on a safety when an errant Utah State punt snap sailed back 30 yards into the endzone early in the fourth quarter. Leading 9-7, the visiting Bulldogs added a 29-yard field goal with 3:56 left in the game before USU's final drive. On the night Fresno State out-gained Utah State 319 yards to 267 behind 138 rushing yards from Dwayne Wright. The Aggies countered with 93 rushing yards by Cross, as well as 76 on the ground by Nelson.

NOTE-ABLE

Riley Nelson became the first quarterback to lead USU to a victory in his first start since Anthony Calvillo in 1992... USU produced its season longest rush (32 yards) and pass (54 yards), both by Marcus Cross.

SAN JOSE STATE 21, UTAH STATE 14

October 14, 2006 • San Jose, Calif. • Spartan Stadium

GAME SEVEN RECAP

San Jose State capped an 11-play, 81-yard drive with a Patrick Perry three-yard run with 3:56 remaining to post a 21-14 come-from-behind victory against Utah State. The Aggies jumped out to a 14-0 lead for the second time this season, only to fall once again. Two weeks ago, USU led Idaho 14-0 after its first two possessions before allowing 41 consecutive points in a 41-21 loss. Against the Spartans, the Aggies held their 14-0 advantage until midway through the second quarter. San Jose State scored on two long passes in the second and third quarters as Yonus Davis hauled in a 33-yard pass in the second quarter and James Jones scored on a 50-yard pass to tie the game with 2:01 left in the third period. Perry provided the game's final points with just under four minutes remaining. The Aggies had one last chance, just like its game last week against Fresno State, when USU marched 80 yards for the game-winning score with just :55 left after the Bulldogs had pulled ahead 12-7 with 3:56 left in that game. USU started its final drive at its own 24-yard line with 3:56 as Aggie quarterback Riley Nelson hit Ryan Bohm for a nine-yard gain and then broke a long run down the USU sideline on the next play. However, the Aggies were called for holding and the ball was set at the USU 35-yard line. Nelson then hit Xavier Bowman and Antraun McDaniel for gains of eight and four respectively before connecting with Kevin Robinson for 23 yards to get to the San Jose State 30-yard line. After USU gained seven yards on its next three plays, the Aggies faced fourth and three at the SJSU 23-yard line. Nelson threw a screen to Aggie tight end Rob Myers, who was tackled for a loss of three to end USU's chances of a come-back win. Nelson hit 21-of-24 attempts for a school record single-game pass percentage of .875. The previous mark was .823 by Travis Cox, who hit 23 of 27 against New Mexico State in 2004. The Aggies produced 301 yards for its second-best offensive output of the year, just four yards short of the 305 vs. Idaho.

LOUISIANA TECH 48, UTAH STATE 35

October 21, 2006 • Ruston, La. • Aillet Stadium

GAME EIGHT RECAP

Utah State fell behind 17-0 in the first quarter before responding with a season-high 35 points in a losing effort at Louisiana Tech. The Aggies dropped to 1-7 overall and 1-3 in the WAC with the 48-35 loss. Louisiana Tech improved to 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the WAC. A field goal and two long passes of 66 and 35 yards by the Bulldogs, put the home team up 17-0 in the first quarter. USU scored two of the game's next three touchdowns to pull within 24-14 at halftime. LTU opened the third quarter with consecutive touchdowns and led 38-14 en route to the victory. USU produced a season-best 373 yards in the game, but allowed Louisiana Tech 570 yards. Aggie quarterback Riley Nelson threw for a career-best 249 yards as he hit 12-of-28 attempts, but he was intercepted for the first time on the year. On USU's first play Nelson threw the first of his two interceptions in the game. Marcus Cross rushed for 70 yards and two scores, while Kevin Robinson recorded a career-best 141 yard receiving day. Robinson had six catches, including two touchdowns as he eclipsed his previous best yardage game of 131 which he set against Louisiana Tech during the 2005 season.

HAWAI'I 63, UTAH STATE 10

November 4, 2006 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME NINE RECAP

Utah State produced 362 yards, but just 10 points in suffering its worst loss since 1989 as the Aggies dropped a game to Hawai'i 63-10. The 53-point scoring margin was the worst for USU since it lost to Southern California by 56 points (66-10) in 1989. After Hawai'i scored a touchdown on its opening drive, Utah State responded with a scoring drive on its own, kicking a 46-yard field goal for its first made field goal of the season. The Aggies had been the only team in the nation without a field goal this season. However, Hawai'i scored the next three touchdowns of the half to take a 28-3 lead into the break. USU opened the third quarter with a seven-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with an Antraun McDaniel one-yard touchdown run to make the score Hawai'i 28-10. The visiting Warriors then added five more touchdowns the rest of the game as they compiled 572 yards, including 486 passing. USU's Kevin Robinson pulled in five balls for 84 yards to lead the Aggie offense, while quarterback Riley Nelson hit 17-of-29 passes for 225 yards and rushed for 65 yards on 15 carries. However, the freshman also threw one interception and fumbled twice in the contest. Defensively, Terrance Washington recorded the eighth interception of his career, while Devon Hall and Paul Igboeli each had a team-best five tackles.

NEVADA 42, UTAH STATE 0

November 11, 2006 • Reno, Nev. • Mackay Stadium

GAME 10 RECAP

Utah State suffered its fourth shutout of the season, as the Aggies were blanked by Nevada 42-0 at a rainy and snowy Mackay Stadium. In making his first start as an Aggie, junior tailback Antraun McDaniel rushed for a career-high 78 yards on 14 carries, as Utah State tallied only 207 yards of offense. Nevada had 342 yards of offense, as Luke Lippincott rushed for 144 yards on 25 carries and found the end zone twice, while Jeff Rowe was 12-of-19 passing for 140 yards and a TD, rushing for two TD's as part of his 37 yards rushing. The Wolf Pack's Dwayne Sanders took the opening kickoff 83 yards to the Utah State seven, and three plays later, Rowe hit Robert Hubbard with a four-yard pass and Brett Jaekle tacked on the PAT for a 7-0 Nevada lead at the 13:40 mark. The Aggies countered with a 73-yard drive, highlighted by a 25-yard run by McDaniel. After the drive reached second and goal at the Nevada goal line, Utah State was stopped on three-straight plays to turn the ball over on downs. Lippincott scored on a five-yard scamper with 3:20 left in the first half as Nevada took a 14-0 lead into halftime. The Wolf Pack erupted for 21 third-quarter points to open a 35-0 lead after three stanzas. Junior backup quarterback Leon Jackson III engineered a drive mid-way through the fourth quarter, leading the Aggies down to the Nevada 11, before again turning the ball over on downs. Starting freshman quarterback Riley Nelson was six-of-15 for 45 yards, with two interceptions, as well as being sacked twice and being held to negative two yards rushing. Jackson was three-of-six for 37 yards with an interception, while junior tailback Marcus Cross had 12 carries for 34 yards. Junior wideout Kevin Robinson had three receptions for 40 yards. Defensively, junior strong safety Antonio Taylor had a game-high eight tackles and one pass break up.

GAME 11 RECAP

Jared Zabransky completed 21-of-23 passing attempts for 236 yards and three touchdowns to lead 13th-ranked Boise State to a 49-10 victory against Utah State. The Broncos jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead and made it 21-0 just minutes into the second before Utah State's Bryan Shields kicked USU's second field goal of the season. Shields drilled a 31-yarder as the Aggies converted after USU's James Brindley forced and recovered a fumble at the BSU 46-yard line. BSU then scored 21 straight points before USU's defense put up its third score of the season. Linebacker Paul Igboeli recorded a sack and forced a fumble that Devon Hall picked up and ran 64 yards with for a score to make it 42-10. The Aggies produced just 188 yards of total offense in the game, while the Broncos, who entered the game with the 15th-ranked offense in the nation, produced 488 yards. USU quarterback Riley Nelson rushed for more yards (45) than he passed for (40) as the Aggies managed only seven first downs and were two-of-13 on third-down conversions. Leon Jackson III saw his most extensive playing time at quarterback since losing the starting job after five games. The junior hit three-of-four attempts for 58 yards, including a 43-yard toss to Kevin Robinson. Robinson finished the game with three receptions for 58 yards. Aaron Lesue added two catches for 20 yards as USU had just 98 receiving yards to go along with 90 rushing yards. Defensively the Aggies were led by Igboeli, who recorded a game-high 10 tackles, including the 13-yard sack. Daryl Fields, who made his second straight start at linebacker, had eight tackles. The Broncos scored on each of their first three possessions, while USU went three and out on each of its first three possessions.

NEW MEXICO STATE 42, UTAH STATE 20

November 25, 2006 • Logan, Utah • Romney Stadium

GAME 12 RECAP

New Mexico State scored 28 first quarter points en route to a 42-20 win at Utah State in the home team's season finale. USU was led by quarterback Leon Jackson, who came off the bench to throw for 146 yards and two scores in relief of Riley Nelson. Jackson connected with Kevin Robinson on a 27-yard scoring strike in the second quarter and then hit Otis Nelson from four yards out six minutes later to pull the northern Aggies to within 28-12 after a pair of missed two-point conversions. The teams traded touchdowns and USU trailed 35-20 with 4:18 left in the third quarter. Both of USU's final two possessions ended in downs, while NMSU added its final score with 4:24 left in the game. Robinson caught four passes for 101 yards and a score, while Jackson led the team in rushing with 48 yards on eight carries. The Aggies played without starting tailback Marcus Cross, who was injured. USU started wide receiver Aaron Lesue at tailback and he responded by rushing 11 times for 34 yards. Defensively linebacker Paul Igboeli and safety Terrance Washington each recorded 10 tackles. Igboeli had a tackle for loss, while Washington, a senior who was playing in his final game, forced a fumble. Caleb Taylor and Devon Hall each registered nine tackles. New Mexico State, which entered the game with the fifth-ranked offense in the country produced 491 yards, including 324 passing. USU had 332 yards of total offense, including 197 passing, its third-most this year. While jumping out to a 28-0 first quarter lead, NMSU gained 229 yards on just 15 offensive plays.

Emmett White's NCAA Record-Setting Day

On Nov. 4, 2000, Utah State running back Emmett White produced one of the greatest single-game performances in NCAA history. The then Aggie junior not only broke the NCAA single-game all-purpose yardage record, he demolished it.

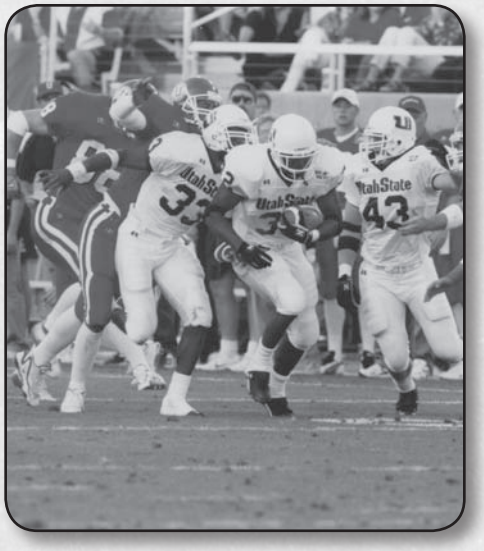

The national record of 435 yards held by Brian Pruitt of Central Michigan, which he set against Toledo in 1994, was broken by an astonishing 143 yards as White accumulated 578 yards against New Mexico State.

White rushed 34 times for a school-record 322 yards, added 134 yards on seven receptions, had one punt return for two yards and four kickoff returns for 120 yards. That added up to 578 yards on 46 touches of the football that November night.

Not only did White amass all of those yards, he scored four touchdowns, including the game-winner, a nine-yard run, with just :28 left in the game as USU won the contest in Las Cruces 44-37.

He finished the season as the nation's all-purpose yardage leader averaging 238.9 yards per game (39 yards more per game than NCAA runner-up LaDainian Tomlinson of TCU). That average is still the sixth-best average in NCAA history.

White's 120.2 yards per game rushing that year ranked 13th in the country and his 322 yards on the ground against NMSU were the second most in a game in Big West history, as well as the most in USU history by 30 yards.

Emmett White (#32)*

Bowl Game Summaries

1946 RAISIN BOWL

San Jose State	20
Utah State	0

A powerful San Jose State college grid team shut out Utah State, 20-0 in the second Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif. San Jose devastated the Aggies 16 to seven in first downs, 177 to 74 in yards rushing and 110 to 49 in yards passing. Utah State's all-conference center, Ralph Maughan, could not offset San Jose's halfbacks Bert Robinson and Babe Nomura. San Jose did all of its scoring in the second and third quarters. Bill Schembel, a substitute halfback, passed to quarterback Bill Jackson for the opening touchdown, then took an aerial from Jackson for score number two. Bill Rhyne, another substitute halfback, crossed the goal line from the one yard line scoring the third touchdown. Through the entire game, Utah State threatened to score twice, once in the first quarter when it reached the San Jose one-yard line, and again at the end of the fourth quarter when the Aggies were again within a yard of the goal. Both attempts were denied and Utah State was confined to its own territory throughout most of the game.

1947 GRAPE BOWL

Pacific	35
Utah State	21

All-American quarterback Eddie LeBaron led his Pacific Tigers onto victory, defeating the Utah State Aggies, 35-21 in Lodi's first inaugural Grape Bowl football game. Only six minutes into the game, Pacific fullback Harry Kane scored on a 72-yard run. Utah State answered with a 70-yard drive to land on Pacific's 1-yard line. Right halfback John Worley fumbled, allowing halfback Bruce Orvis to recover the ball and run it back 99 yards for Pacific's second score. Early in the second quarter, LeBaron scored on a quarterback sneak from the one, and then threw for a 14-yard TD pass to left end John Rohde a few minutes later. Sub halfback Wayne Hardin completed all five conversion attempts. Utah State came back from halftime facing a 28-0 deficit. Quarterbacks John Caputo and John Sorensen helped the Aggies with two touchdowns, and in the final period, halfback Ernie Groll intercepted a long pass by LeBaron on the Pacific 42 and ran it back into the end zone. Fullback Buss Williams converted all three attempts. Utah State ran up 15 first downs against the College of Pacific's 17. On the ground the Tigers gained 278 yards against the Aggies' 85.

1960 SUN BOWL

Utah State	13
New Mexico State	20

New Mexico State, in winning its 15th straight game, overcame Utah State, 20-13, in a bruising Sun Bowl football battle. USU owned a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when halfback Tom Larscheid ran for 13 yards and a touchdown. The score was set up with a 53-yard punt return by Ernie Reese, which set a Sun Bowl record.

New Mexico State answered right back in the second quarter. Quarterback Charley Johnson's three-yard pitch to Pervis Atkins along with Atkins' subsequent kick, tied the score in the second period.

USU then regained the lead by driving 80 yards in 15 plays with Dolph Camilli scoring from the 11. New Mexico State took the lead for the first time in the third quarter when Bob Gaiters ran for a 32-yard touchdown. Johnson led the offense by completing 18-of-26 passes, including two for touchdowns.

Utah State's final effort for victory was denied in the fourth quarter when fullback Doug Mayberry was stopped short of a first down on a fourth down play. New Mexico State then ran out the clock.

1961 GOTHAM BOWL

Baylor	24
Utah State	9

Converting four-of-five fumble recoveries into three touchdowns provided Baylor with the win over previously unbeaten Utah State, 24-9. Baylor's Ronnie Bull, picked up a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Quarterback Don Trull contributed a two-yard scoring plunge and a 39-yard touchdown pass to end Tom Plumb. Carl Choate kicked all three conversions and added three points with his 22-yard field goal. Utah State's first score came in the third quarter when Jim Turner kicked a 36-yard field goal. Midway through the final quarter, Ronnie Stanley's pass was intercepted by Utah State's Bob Novotny on the Baylor 16. In three plays, Utah State produced a touchdown with Munson scoring from the four. An attempted conversion run failed.

Bowl Game Summaries

1993 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah State	42
Ball State	33

Anthony Calvillo tossed three touchdown passes and Profail Grier ran for two scores as Utah State defeated Ball State, 42-33 in Las Vegas Bowl II. It marked Utah State's first bowl victory in its 96-year football history. Utah State scored on its first two possessions with drives of 73 and 82 yards, respectively. Calvillo, who completed his first seven pass attempts, hit Cotie McMahon from 22 yards out for the first score. Eight minutes later, Grier reached the end zone on a three-yard run. With :24 remaining in the first half, Aubrey Thompson scored on a three-yard pass from Calvillo. The Aggie offense rolled up 329 total yards in the first half and produced 18 first downs. Ball State scored 10 straight points to open the third quarter, but Utah State got a 15-yard touchdown run from Grier and another TD pass from Calvillo, this time to Mike Lee good for 16 yards. Donald Toomer iced the game when he returned an interception 32 yards for a score to give the Aggies a 42-19 lead with 11:34 left. Calvillo completed 25-of-39 passes for 286 yards to earn MVP honors.

1997 HUMANITARIAN BOWL

Cincinnati	35
Utah State	19

Utah State spotted Cincinnati a 28-point advantage before scoring 19 of the game's final 26 points as the Aggies fell 35-19 in the first Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, Idaho on Dec. 29, 1997. The Aggies suffered through their second-lowest offensive output of the season in both scoring (16 at Oregon State) and yardage (283 vs. New Mexico) in the game. USU did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage. USU warmed up in the second half, scoring three touchdowns in an eight minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. Steve Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas. Cincinnati's Chad Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP in the game after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards.

UNIVERSITY

University

Since its founding in 1888, Utah State University has evolved from a small, agricultural college to one that is nationally and internationally recognized for its intellectual and technological leadership in land, water, space and life enhancement. As Utah's land-grant and space-grant institution, the university has 850 faculty who provide education for more than 23,000 undergraduate and graduate students, including 10,000 in its continuing education sites located throughout the state of Utah.

With seven colleges, more than 200 majors and 130 research-related classes, student-centered, hands-on learning opportunities are plentiful as Utah State attracted more than $186 million in research revenue last year. These research dollars, along with stellar faculty mentors, have inspired more than 1,000 students to pursue their own research projects every year.

Located in the city of Logan in northern Utah's Cache Valley, Utah State is 80 miles northeast of Salt Lake City. The surrounding area, including ski resorts, lakes, rivers and mountains, makes Utah State one of the finest recreational environments in the nation. Beyond Logan Canyon and just another four hours north is Teton National Park and Yellowstone National Park.

The university is a place of diverse thought, where first-rate cultural offerings provided by talented professors and visiting artists benefit thousands of students and members of the community. For the past century, USU has fostered the arts on campus and throughout the Cache Valley area. Visitors and students at the university are treated to a vibrant art scene on the east corner of campus.

Utah State University is home to a world-class Performance Hall built in 2006, where the technical marvels of its cutting-edge acoustics are unmatched. The 20,000-square-foot building serves USU, the Cache Valley community and the Intermountain region and features a 400-seat performance hall, a stage for up to 22 performers and a lobby with glass windows overlooking a plaza. The hall's intimate scale is ideal for small acoustical performances such as chamber music, vocal and instrumental concerts, recitals, readings and lectures. For a list of upcoming performances visit the Caine School of Arts Web site, www.csa.usu.edu.

The Nora Eccles Harrison Museum of Art is located in the Fine Arts complex and houses the university's permanent art collection that includes some of the best contemporary art created west of the Mississippi River.

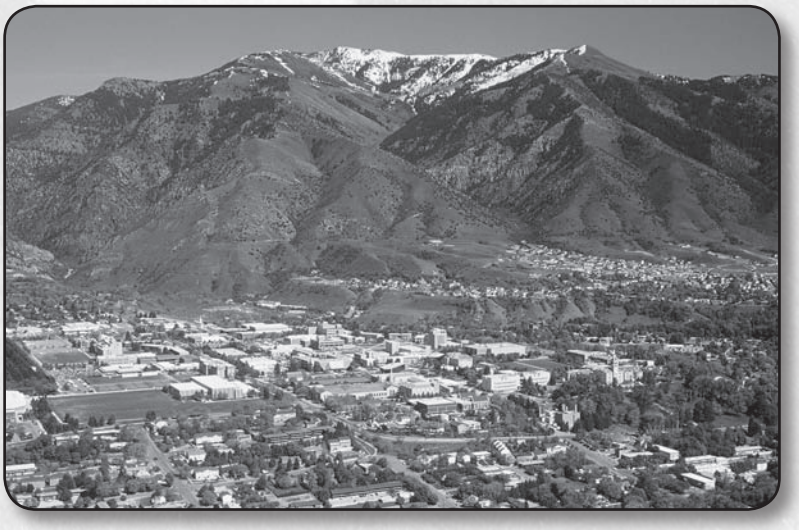

Utah State University is a safe place that provides a unique living-learning community and is the oldest and largest public residential campus in Utah. The largest public residential campus in Utah, USU offers a variety of living options to the nearly 14,000 students who live on or near campus throughout the year.

The many benefits of campus life, such as Theme Housing, activities, student involvement, location to classes and many others, are designed to create the ultimate college experience.

Utah State University has six fraternities and four sororities that involve nearly 300 students with opportunities for personal growth, networking, community service and respect for learning.

With the wide variety of classes, extracurricular clubs, activities and recreational opportunities at Utah State University, it is no wonder students look forward to returning to campus year after year.

Stan Albrecht

University President

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

During his tenure as President, Albrecht has announced a comprehensive fund-raising campaign with an official fund-raising goal of $200 million.

"The campaign will take its place among the most significant moments in Utah State University's history," said Albrecht. "This journey will be transformative in its long-term impact on the university."

Another major initiative under Albrecht's direction has been to strengthen USU's branch campuses to reflect a stronger, more cohesive Utah State University system and provide greater access to higher education opportunities.

As part of his commitment to USU students throughout the state, he helped secure funds to hire 40 faculty members from 2007 to 2009. Most of the faculty members will teach in rural communities served by the university.

"Many of our new professors were hired for our regional campuses and partnership institutions, and this will dramatically impact our ability to extend Utah State's academic reach throughout the state," said Albrecht.

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Albrecht served as an administrator and professor at the University of Florida from 1993-98. He also served for 18 years at Brigham Young University (1974-92), including three years as academic vice president and associate provost. He began his career as an assistant professor of sociology at Utah State University in 1970 through 1974.

A sociologist, Albrecht has written extensively, including as a co-author of the textbooks Social Psychology and Social Science Research Methods, both published by Prentice-Hall. He has authored numerous scholarly papers on a wide range of topics, including the environment, energy development and rural health.

Albrecht received his doctorate from Washington State University in 1970, a master's degree from Washington State University in 1968 and bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University in 1966. All three degrees were in sociology.

He is a member of the Science Committee for the Minerals Management Service of the U.S. Department of Interior. He has served as a council member of the Society for Human Ecology and as vice president of the Rural Sociological Society.

Albrecht is married to Joyce Albrecht, Utah State's Director of Stewardship Programs.

Randy Spetman

Athletics Director

Randy Spetman hit the ground running when he was named Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Utah State University on July 1, 2004. In his brief three-year tenure at the helm of the Aggies' program, Spetman has set out on a path that has seen the department prosper athletically and academically, as well as making sound financial decisions that have benefited both student-athletes and coaches.

Athletically, Utah State has claimed four Western Athletic Conference titles in its first two years in the league including team championships in men's and women's cross country, and men's track & field last year, along with trips to the NCAA Tournament in men's basketball in 2005 and 2006, and women's volleyball in 2005. Individually, Utah State produced three All-Americans in 2006-07, along with nine all-region and all-district honorees, and 110 all-WAC performers.

Even more impressive than Utah State's athletic achievements are the successes by Aggie student-athletes in the classroom under Spetman. Overall, USU's student-athletes lead the WAC with a 78 percent graduation rate, and have maintained over a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average. During the 2006-07 academic year, 94 student-athletes earned academic all-WAC honors, while 21 more earned academic all-freshmen/transfer honors. Utah State also had 148 student-athletes recognized at its annual Joe E. Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Under Spetman's leadership, Utah State has also moved forward with several facility projects. The most recognizable upgrades have been at Romney Stadium as the south entrance has been remodeled adding more restrooms, a new concession complex, a new ticket office and an enhanced entrance. Currently under construction is a $12.5 million North Endzone Facility, which will serve to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility will house an extensively improved sports medicine department, central equipment area, new locker rooms for football, women's soccer, women's track and softball, a Hall of Fame and a hospitality plaza on the first floor. The second floor will house offices, meeting rooms and a 123-seat auditorium, while a premier student-athlete academic area with tutor rooms, classrooms, computer labs and office space will reside on the third floor.

In 2007, Spetman also crafted a business partnership with Intermountain Health Care for medical coverage. This partnership will reduce medical costs, while providing enhanced coverage as well as advancement in the medical treatment area. A new marketing agreement has also been made with Learfield Sports Properties, which will guarantee marketing revenue to the department, while expanding its resources on a national level.

Spetman came to Utah State after a successful eight-year run (1996-2003) as Director of Athletics at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. During his tenure, he administrated the school's 27-sport intercollegiate program as well as the physical education and intramural programs. Under his command, athletics teams at the Academy enjoyed unmatched success as the football team participated in four bowl games, while the men's basketball team advanced to its first-ever NCAA Tournament.

Originally from Council Bluffs, Iowa, Spetman graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1976. His competitive spirit and warrior-like attitude earned him three varsity letters in football, the team co-captain as a senior, and two heavyweight Wing Open Boxing Championships.

Spetman's 28 and one-half year military career has taken him around the world and in a variety of positions. A command pilot with more than 3,000 hours of flight time, Spetman's range of positions has taken him from assistant football coach to a pilot and from the Chief of Bomber Planning in Desert Shield and Desert Storm to serving as Chief, Command and Control Division, Operations Directorate at the U.S. European Command in Stuttgart, Germany.

A graduate from Squadron Officer School, he attended the National War College and earned a master's degree in National Security Strategy. Spetman also holds a master's in management and supervision from Central Michigan University. He is currently the Western Athletic Conference's golf liaison and serves as the second Vice President of the National Assocation of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

He and his wife, the former Rebecca Luhring of Des Moines, Iowa, are the parents of two children, Brian and Kim.

Jeff Crosbie

Assistant Athletics Director
Business Manager
Sixth Year at USU

In his first year as Assistant Athletics Director for Business Operations and sixth year at Utah State is Jeff Crosbie. Crosbie joined the Aggie staff in June, 2003 as the Assistant Ticket Manager before being promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Ticket Operations in May, 2005. Crosbie served as USU's Ticket Manager for three years before being promoted to his current position in May, 2007.

A former Utah State quarterback from 1998-2002, Crosbie finished his career on the school's top-10 lists in passing yards, completions, attempts and touchdown passes. He threw for 3,408 yards, while starting at Utah State in the last half of 1998 and all of 1999.

An athletic quarterback, Crosbie threw for 311 yards in Utah State's 34-31 overtime loss to BYU, and ran for 77 yards in USU's 37-35 win at Nevada during the 1999 season.

Born Dec. 25, 1976 in Logan, Utah, Crosbie went to high school at Mountain Crest (Hyrum, Utah) and earned all-state honors in football and basketball. He earned his degree from Utah State in 2003.

He and his wife Amy, a former Utah State volleyball standout and current assistant academic coordinator at USU, have one daughter, Kiera (3).

Jana Doggett

Sr. Associate Athletics Director
External Operations
Second Year at USU

Jana Doggett is entering her second year as Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Operations at Utah State. In her role, she oversees the Big Blue Scholarship Fund, marketing, event management, media relations, Aggie Sports Properties and the ticket office, along with several sports.

Prior to her current position, Doggett spent 11 years in the athletics department at San Diego State, from 1993-2003, including six years as an associate director of athletics. She also worked at the National Multiple Sclerosis Society San Diego Area Chapter and for the City of San Diego in the Corporate Sponsorship and Development Program.

At San Diego State she supervised all 16 of the athletic department's head coaches as well as the ticket office, marketing and promotions, financial aid, academics, compliance, event management, video production, weight and equipment rooms, sports medicine and business services.

Doggett graduated with a degree in speech communication from San Diego State University. She was born and raised in Nezperce, Idaho before moving to Visalia, Calif., during her high school years.

Kevin Dustin

Associate Athletics Director
Director of Development
12th Year at USU

Kevin Dustin is in his second year as Associate Athletics Director for Development at Utah State and 12th year overall working in the athletics department. Prior to his current position, Dustin spent seven years as the Associate Athletics Director for External Operations. In his role he is responsible for major gifts and capital projects for the athletic department.

Dustin began his affiliation with Utah State in 1997 as an assistant basketball coach under Larry Eustachy, and served in that capacity for two years. In 1998 the Aggies won the Big West Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1988.

Prior to coming to Utah State, he was a high school basketball coach and teacher and led Sky View (Smithfield, Utah) High School to the 1994 state championship.

Dustin graduated from Utah State with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983, and a master's degree in education in 2000.

Born August 7, 1959 in Logan, Utah, Dustin attended North Rich High School in Laketown, Utah. He is married to Danene, who earned a master's degree from USU in 2007, and together have five children, Danielle (25), Scott (20), Shelby (17), Keaton (14) and Riley (12).

Dr. Brian Evans

Associate Athletics Director
Student-Athlete Services
Eighth Year at USU

Beginning his eighth year at Utah State as Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services is Dr. Brian Evans. Evans joined the USU staff in July, 2000 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Athletic Academic Services at Texas Tech from 1997-2000. Previously he was the Academic Coordinator at Montana State from 1995-97.

Evans oversees the student-athlete services unit, directing academics and certification of initial and continuing eligibility of Utah State student-athletes. He directs a staff of two full-time assistants, one graduate assistant and two undergraduate assistants.

The 1987 Colorado journalism graduate, earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 1988 and a doctorate of higher education administration from Montana State in 2000.

Jake Garlock

Compliance Coordinator
Second Year at USU

Entering his second year as Utah State's Compliance Coordinator is Jake Garlock. In his position, Garlock is in charge of maintaining USU's compliance in accordance with the NCAA and Western Athletic Conference. He also handles rule interpretations and maintains squad lists.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Garlock spent one year as a practicing attorney for family law and personal injury.

Garlock, who is originally from Salem, Ore., graduated from Brigham Young University with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2002. He then received his law degree from Willamette University in 2005.

Garlock was born on March 19, 1978 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He and his wife Jenny have two daughters, Grace (4) and Sophia (1).

Tom Hale

Assistant Athletics Director
Annual Giving
Fourth Year at USU

In his fourth year as the Assistant Athletics Director of Annual Giving at Utah State is Tom Hale, who started in the department in March, 2004. In his role, he is responsible for the operations and donor relations with members of the Big Blue Scholarship Fund. While trying to recruit new donors to the program, Hale also runs USU's fund drives, golf tournaments and the annual Aggie auction.

A Logan native, Hale worked at Al's Sporting Goods, Cache Valley Builders and Washington Mutual in Logan prior to coming to USU. He graduated from Logan High School and then Utah State with a degree in liberal arts in 1991. While at USU, he worked as an athletic media relations intern.

Born, Sept. 13, 1964 in Logan, Hale is married to Allison. He has five children, Alex (18), Paden (15), Madeleine (12), Mason (5) and Leah (4).

Jason Herbers

Assistant Athletics Director

Third Year at USU

Jason Herbers is in his third year as the Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Promotions at Utah State University after joining the staff in June, 2005. His duties include marketing campaigns and promotions of USU's 16 intercollegiate sports.

Herbers most recently was the Director of Marketing, Promotions and Ticket Operations at Eastern Washington University from July, 2001 to May, 2005.

Prior to working at EWU, Herbers was the Promotions Coordinator at Wisconsin from 1998-2001. He also worked for the La Crosse Bobcats of the Continental Basketball Association, the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, the Milwaukee Bucks and the Madison Mad Dogs.

Herbers graduated from Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1997 and has nearly completed his master's degree from Eastern Washington.

He was born in Monroe, Wis., on August 12, 1975 and attended Verona Area High School in Verona, Wis.

Dave Kragthorpe

Special Assistant to the AD
Third Year at USU

In his third year as Special Assistant to the Athletics Director is Dave Kragthrope, who has been at Utah State as an athlete, athletic director and Alumni Association officer. In his position, he is in charge of the Aggie Up fundraising program, while assisting in raising money for the North Endzone Project.

Prior to joining the athletic department, Kragthorpe worked in the USU Alumni Office for more than a decade.

Kragthorpe was a two-time all-conference selection as a football lineman at Utah State in 1953 and 1954 and was named to the school's all-century team in 1993. After graduation he played one year with the New York Giants.

Kragthorpe was an assistant football coach at Idaho Falls (Idaho) High School and head coach at Roosevelt (Mich.) High School. He then was an assistant at the college level at Montana, South Dakota State and Brigham Young, while also serving as head coach at South Dakota State and Idaho State.

While at Idaho State, he coached the Bengals to the NCAA I-AA national championship in 1981. He then served as the athletics director at USU from 1983-84 before returning to the collegiate coaching ranks at Oregon State and earning PAC-10 Coach of the Year honors.

In 2005 he received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Utah State.

He and his wife Barbara have two grown children in Kurt, who is a sports writer for the Salt Lake Tribune and Steve, who is the head football coach at the University of Louisville.

Ninth Year at USU

Entering his first year as the Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations and ninth year with the department is Doug Hoffman, who joined the staff in December, 1998. Prior to his current position, Hoffman spent eight years as the Associate Media Relations Director at Utah State.

As the Media Relations Director, Hoffman oversees the publicity of Utah State's 16-sport program, working closely with the media, USU staff, coaches and student-athletes, while serving as the men's basketball and women's volleyball contact.

Hoffman came to Utah State after spending one year at Indiana State University. Prior to that he was a graduate assistant in the media relations office at the University of Wyoming from 1994-97.

Hoffman graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in communications. He was born June 4, 1970 in Mitchell, S.D., and he and his wife Shellee have one son, Chase (3).

Zach Fisher

Assistant Media Relations Director
Second Year at USU

In his second year as Assistant Media Relations Director is Zach Fisher. Fisher serves as the media contact for Utah State's football and gymnastics teams, while assisting in a number of areas in the office.

He oversees statistical crews for football and basketball, while also working on USU's web site, and helping coordinate the day to day operations of the media relations office.

Fisher came to Utah State after spending three years as the Athletic Media Relations Director at West Texas A&M. Prior to that, he worked as an assistant at Pittsburg (Kan.) State for two years.

While at West Texas A&M, he received nine national awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America, including three "Best In The Nation" awards for his volleyball, men's soccer and women's soccer media guides in 2004.

In the spring of 2006, Fisher successfully placed one of West Texas A&M's student-athletes in the Faces In The Crowd section of Sports Illustrated magazine.

Fisher was born in Billings, Mont., on Feb. 23, 1978 and graduated from Carroll (Mont.) College in 2001 with a degree in communication studies and public relations. He attended Billings West High School where he competed in soccer, basketball and track.

Ashley McWilliams

Assistant Media Relations Director
First Year at USU

Ashley McWilliams is entering her first year as an Assistant Media Relations Director at Utah State. She will serve as the media contact for soccer, women's basketball and softball, be one of the chief statisticians for the department, and maintain the athletics web site.

McWilliams comes to Utah State after spending one year as a full-time intern at Harvard University where she worked with men's tennis and assisted with men's and women's basketball, football, and men's and women's ice hockey.

During the summer of 2006, McWilliams volunteered with the inaugural National Special Olympic Games held at Iowa State University, and was in charge of statistical services for golf.

McWilliams, who was born on Oct. 3, 1983, is a native of Manchester, Iowa, and graduated from Iowa State University in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in sports management. During her time at ISU, she spent two years in the athletic media relations office working with women's tennis and assisting with football, volleyball, and men's and women's basketball.

Ryan Talbot

Staff Photographer
Third Year at USU

Entering his third year as the staff photographer for the athletics department is Ryan Talbot. Along with his photo responsibilities, Talbot also produces media guide covers and posters for the department, along with providing computer tech support.

Prior to his current position, Talbot spent over three years as a photographer for the Utah Stateman. During his time with the Statesman, he was awarded a first-place and a second-place by the Utah News Photographer Association for sports photos among University students.

A native of Logan, Talbot earned his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering with a minor in mathematics from Utah State in 2006. He plans on pursuing a master's degree from USU as well in mechanical engineering.

In just its second season as a member of the Western Athletic Conference, Utah State continued its overall athletic success as its 16 varsity teams combined to win three team championships, while finishing second in three other sports. Overall, 110 USU's student-athletes received all-WAC honors. Not only did USU prosper in athletic competition, but it also excelled in the classroom with 115 all-academic selections.

Men's & Women's Cross Country - Utah State's cross country teams reigned supreme in 2006 as the Aggie men won their second straight WAC title, while the women claimed their second overall league championship. For his efforts, veteran head coach Gregg Gensel was named both the men's and women's Coach of the Year in the WAC. USU concluded its season at the NCAA West Regionals as the women placed ninth and the men 10th.

Football - Despite suffering through a 1-11 season (1-7 WAC), Utah State football laid the foundation for the future during 2006 as second-year head coach Brent Guy played 16 freshmen. Among all players who started at least one game, nine were freshmen, 15 were sophomore, and 15 were juniors. Individually, three players earned all-WAC honors in Ben Calderwood (second-team), Malik Cin (second-team) and Paul Igboeli (Freshman of the Year).

Volleyball - Under first year head coach Grayson DuBose, Utah State's volleyball team raced out to a quick start and was 3-1 in the WAC before injuries took its toll. Despite its 13-19 record, including a 6-10 league mark, USU's misfortunes should be short-lived as it played six underclassmen, five juniors, and just one senior. Two players were honored by the WAC at season's end in Amanda Nielson (second-team) and Melissa Larson (all-freshman team).

Women's Soccer - In its 11th year, Utah State's soccer program had a banner season with a 10-8-2 record, including a second-place finish in the WAC with a 5-0-2 mark. It's 10 wins tied for the most in school history, while its .550 winning percentage ranked second all-time. Individually, three players earned all-WAC honors in Charity Weston (first-team), Lindsey Smart (Freshman of the Year and second-team) and Dana Peart (second-team).

Men's Basketball - Led by All-American Jaycee Carroll, Utah State's men's basketball team recorded its eighth straight 20-win season (23-12) and advanced to postseason play for the eighth straight year as it played at Michigan in the National Invitation Tournament. After finishing fourth in the WAC during the regular season (9-7), USU advanced to the tournament championship game of its conference for the seventh time in the last eight years.

Women's Basketball - In its fourth season of reinstatement, Utah State's women's basketball continued its ascend in the WAC as the team finished sixth in the conference with a 7-9 league record. Overall, the team notched 11 wins during the year after winning just three times the previous season.

Gymnastics - Led by WAC Gymnast of the Year Jessica Parenti-Otte, Utah State had another outstanding season under veteran head coach Ray Corn. Following an 8-9 record during the regular season, Utah State finished in third-place at the WAC Championships. USU than participated in its 26th NCAA Regional appearance in school history, placing sixth.

Men's & Women's Tennis - Both of Utah State's tennis programs performed well during the year as the men finished with a 9-9 record, while the women were 9-10. At the 2007 WAC Championships, the women tied for fifth and the men tied for seventh. Individually, Courtney Anderson earned second-team all-WAC honors as she finished the season 13-3 at No. 1 singles.

Men's Golf - Utah State's golf team finished ninth at the 2007 WAC Championships after competing in eight tournaments and one dual during the season. Individually, Devin Daniels placed second at the championships, USU's highest individual finish since 1997.

Softball - In its first year under head coach Candi Letts, Utah State's softball team advanced to postseason play for the first time since 1990, earning the sixth-seed at the WAC Tournament. Overall, USU finished the season with a 17-36 record, including a 5-13 league mark, while Jamie Fife earned first-team all-WAC honors.

Indoor & Outdoor Track & Field - Utah State's track and field teams had an outstanding year as the Aggie men won the WAC's outdoor championship and placed second during the indoor season, while the women finished fourth during the indoor season and fifth at the outdoor championships. The highlight of the indoor season was Jennifer Twitchell becoming just the seventh athlete in school history to earn All-America honors as she placed fifth in the mile. Following the WAC's outdoor championship, USU sent 14 student-athletes to the NCAA West Region meet as the men finished 15th and the women 19th. Four of those qualifiers then advanced to the NCAA Championships. For his efforts, Gregg Gensel was honored for the third time during the year as he was named the league's men's Outdoor Coach of the Year.

USU Athletic Hall of Fame

Following the reinstatement of the Utah State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006 with five inductees, The Hall welcomed six more members in 2007 with the inductions of Ladonna Antoine-Watkins, Robert Broughton, Rulon Jones, John Ralston, Jay Van Noy and Nate Williams.

In April, 2007, The Hall also announced the Class of 2008 which will officially be inducted in February, 2008. The newest members to Utah State's Athletic Hall of Fame are MacArthur Lane, Chuck Mills, Max Perry, Kelly Smith, Jay Dee Harris, and the 1978 National Championship Volleyball Team, the first team to be inducted into the Utah State Athletics Hall of Fame, to increase the number of members to 43.

The Hall was founded in 1993 with 12 initial members. In 1994 the school added eight more members and in 1995, seven more honorees were selected.

The addition of any Hall of Fame selections was stopped until 2006 when Marvin Roberts, Al Smith, Kris Stano Lilly, John Clyde Worley and Dr. John Worley were inducted in February of that year.

In its 46th year, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and features some of the nation's best intercollegiate competition. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the nine schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success. Over the past five years, it has won 61.1 percent of its bowl games, the best winning percentage of any conference in the nation. In the past five seasons, the WAC has sent a total of 18 teams to bowl games (11-7). Boise State has won 66 games since joining the conference, tied for the most in the nation during that time span (2001-06). The Broncos earned a BCS invitation and trip to the 2007 Fiesta Bowl where they defeated Oklahoma in one of the most memorable bowl games of all time. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 23 of the past 24 seasons. Every current school in the WAC has competed in the NCAA Tournament since 1990. In women's sports, Fresno State softball has competed in every NCAA Tournament ever held while Louisiana Tech has played in all but one.

Current WAC alums have made their presence felt as well. David Carr (Fresno State) was the first player selected in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans. Cheryl Ford (Louisiana Tech) was named the WNBA Rookie of the Year and helped the Detroit Shock win the league's championship in 2003. And in 2004, the United States' softball team won the Olympic gold medal with former Fresno State players Laura Berg and Lovie Jung.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many sports including nearly every home football, volleyball and basketball game played during the season.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Rice was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2003.

Since that year, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. The current membership was established on July 1, 2005, when Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew.

WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The WAC has had just five commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94) and Karl Benson (1994-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

Karl Benson

WAC Commissioner

When Karl Benson was named the fifth commissioner in the history of the Western Athletic Conference on April 20, 1994, he brought with him a wealth of experience and a personal history of success to the position.

Since that time, Benson not only has laid a strong foundation for the WAC's future, he also steered the conference through unsettled times during the late 1990s and again a few years later when the defection of member institutions threatened the WAC.

Through his leadership and vision, it didn't take long for the WAC to regain its place among the nation's top Division I conferences. Benson has spearheaded conference expansion with the additions of Nevada, Boise State and Louisiana Tech a few years ago and an additional round of expansion with the invitations of New Mexico State, Utah State and Idaho two years ago.

Nationally, Benson has earned the respect of his peers after serving on the NCAA Management Council from 1999-2002, and a five-year term on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee from 2002-06.

Benson hit the ground running when he was hired in 1994 and initiated several programs that improved the conference's national position in virtually ever category. He was instrumental in developing multi-year agreements with the Holiday Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Copper Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Silicon Valley Football Classic, GMAC Bowl and currently, the Humanitarian Bowl, Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl and New Mexico Bowl.

In the summer of 2005, he implemented "Play Up" a new marketing campaign to improve the public and private perceptions of the WAC and its members through national, local and regional touch points. The conference officially added WAC.tv prior to the 2006-07 season, giving fans streaming video access to many of the sports offered by the WAC and nearly every home football, volleyball and basketball game.

In 1995-96, the WAC signed an exclusive multi-year agreement with ESPN for the unprecedented live telecast of its basketball and football. Included in that deal was a women's basketball contract, the first in conference history. Currently, a second agreement with ESPN and ABC has resulted in 63 football games being televised over the past four years.

Benson came to the WAC after four successful years as the commissioner of the Mid-American Conference. There, he implemented several innovative projects and was instrumental in the formation of the Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to taking the reins of the MAC, Benson served on the NCAA staff for more than four years where he was the director of NCAA championships when selected as MAC commissioner.

Benson joined the NCAA staff in January, 1986, as a compliance representative and was appointed assistant director of championships in June, 1987. He was promoted to director of championships in 1988. In that position, Benson actively supervised eight assistant directors in their administration of 68 NCAA championships.

A native of the state of Washington, Benson graduated from high school in Pullman in 1970, attended Spokane Falls Community College and then received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from Boise State University in 1975. He has also completed course work toward his master's degree in athletics administration at the University of Utah.

Benson played baseball at both Spokane Falls Community College and Boise State University before serving as the baseball coach at Fort Steilacoom Community College in Tacoma, Wash., for eight years and as the director of athletics at Fort Steilacoom from 1979-84. From 1984-86, he was an assistant baseball coach and an administrative assistant in the athletics department at Utah.

He received the Distinguished Alumni Award from Boise State in April of 2006.

Benson was born on December 1, 1951 and has one daughter, Jessie, 15.
