MEDIA INFORMATION

COVERING UTAH STATE

TO THE MEDIA

The 2015 Utah State football guide has been prepared to assist you in covering the Aggies this season. Additional information is available by contacting the Athletic Media Relations Office at (435) 797-3714 or through USU's website at www.UtahStateAggies.com.

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Monday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on the Utah State athletic website at www.UtahStateAggies.com. This release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service on Monday.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Head coach Matt Wells will hold a press conference each Monday during the season at 11:30 a.m. (contact the USU Athletic Media Relations Office for locations). Selected players will also be available at the press conference. Quotes and video from the press conference will be available on USU's website (www.UtahStateAggies.com) each Monday afternoon and will also be e-mailed per request.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS

Utah State provides broadcast-quality video of Monday press conferences. Game highlights are also available upon request. Contact the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office for more information.

LIVE STREAMING

Live streaming of all of Utah State's weekly press conferences and home post-game press conferences can be found on USU's Aggie Digital Network at www.utahstateaggies.com/videos.

INTERVIEWS

All requests for interviews with Utah State players and coaches should be made directly through the Athletic Media Relations Office (435) 797-3714 and should be made at least one day in advance. The best time for player interviews is after practice, while head coach Matt Wells should be available in the mornings as well as before or after practice. Player interviews will be conducted through Wednesday each game week.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

PARKING

Credentialed media will be allowed access to the parking lot on the east side of the stadium (Blue Lot). A parking pass is required for admittance to that area and should be requested at least one week in advance of the game.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Access to the press box is limited to those with working credentials. A pregame meal will be served approximately one hour prior to kickoff.

Game programs, game notes and flip cards will be provided prior to the game. Statistics and play-by-play information will be provided during the game. At the conclusion of the game a complete statistical book, typed quotes and postgame notes will be available.

Final game statistics, notes and quotes will be e-mailed to media requesting the service.

Wireless internet will be available to media at the game. A limited number of telephones will also be available in the press box on a first-come, first-serve basis. Requests for personal phones should be made through USU Telephone Services at (435) 797-3201 at least one week prior to the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' ACCESS

Photographers are allowed to shoot on the sidelines outside the team bench area (team bench areas are between the 25-yard lines). Photographers must remain outside of the team bench area. Team rosters are provided in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Utah State locker room is closed to the media on game days. Postgame interviews will take place after a brief cooling off period in the Spetman Auditorium, located on the second floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Spetman Auditorium has wireless internet, so media and photographers can file from there or return to the press box.

ELECTRONIC SERVICES

ON THE AIR

Utah State football games are broadcast on KVNU (610 AM/102.1 FM) and KLZX (95.9 FM) in Logan, KZNS (1280 AM) in Salt Lake City, KVEL (920 AM) in Vernal, KRPX (95.3 FM) in Price, and KLZX (105.3 FM) in Montpelier, Idaho, as well as on the internet at www.UtahStateAggies.com. Al Lewis serves as the play-by-play announcer while Craig Hislop serves as the analyst.

MATT WELLS ON THE AIR

The Matt Wells radio show, hosted by Al Lewis, and held at various locations each week will be broadcast on Wednesdays on KVNU from approximately 7-8 p.m.

ON THE INTERNET

Select Mountain West Conference games are available to view live via the internet on USU's Aggie Digital Network at www.utahstateaggies.com/videos.

GAMETRACKER

Aggie fans will be able to follow Utah State home games through the USU website at www.UtahStateAggies.com, via GameTracker, a program that documents each play and updates statistics.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Aggie fans can stay up-to-date with the latest USU Athletics information via its various social media platforms:

- Web UtahStateAggies.com
- Facebook USUAthletics/USU Football
- Twitter USUAthletics/USU Football

DIRECTIONS TO LOGAN

Logan, Utah is home to Utah State University and is located approximately 80 miles north of Salt Lake City, Utah. From Salt Lake International Airport: Take I-80 East out of the airport to 215 North, which will run into I-15 North. Follow I-15 North to exit 362 (Highway 89-91) at Brigham City. Follow Highway 89 into Logan, where it becomes Main Street. Stay on Main Street until you reach 1000 North and turn right. Turn left at 800 East and the football stadium will be on your right. The parking lot is located on the west side of the stadium just off 800 East.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials for media members are issued at the discretion of the Utah State Athletic Media Relations Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Daily newspapers regularly covering Utah State University, the current opponent or another Mountain West school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
2. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
3. Officially recognized Utah State University student publications or student electronic media outlets.
4. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
5. Non-originating radio and television.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

- ▶ Utah State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information.
- ▶ Credentials will be issued to websites that are affiliated with websites for national or regional television and news media organizations, e.g. USA Today Online, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBSsportsline.com, etc., non-conference opponents and for the Mountain West Conference.
- ▶ Websites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
- ▶ Utah State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- ▶ All credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

MERLIN OLSEN FIELD

To honor one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history, Utah State University named the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field," making the announcement at halftime of a men's basketball game in December, 2009. Olsen was in attendance for the ceremony. He passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010 after a courageous battle with cancer.

An official dedication ceremony took place on Oct. 23, 2010 as part of Homecoming festivities in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Utah State's 1960 Sun Bowl Team, led by Olsen. During the official dedication of Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium, a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Olsen, which was sculpted by nationally renowned artist Blair Buswell, was unveiled in the southeast corner of the stadium.

Utah State and Maverik, Inc., owners of convenience stores throughout the Intermountain West, jointly announced a long-term naming rights partnership to its football stadium, which was previously known as Romney Stadium, beginning in the 2015 season.

This new partnership with Maverik was the catalyst for a major renovation to the stadium, which will focus on greatly improving the overall fan experience. On the west side, a new four-story premium seating and press box structure will be built to include a state-of-the-art media and game operations area, 24 luxury suites, 20 lodge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that will also be used to host a student-athlete training table. Major concourse work will include significantly increased restrooms, upgraded concessions and an enlarged concourse for better pedestrian traffic flow.

Renovations will also include new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system, with all renovations planned for completion prior to the 2016 season.

The additional expansion of Maverik Stadium's seating capacity, which is currently at 22,044 due to construction, is also planned for the future.

Maverik Stadium's original seating capacity through 1980 was 20,000. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, approximately 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl. Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chairback seats replaced wooded bleachers on the west side of the stadium. The modifications made to accommodate this seating upgrade placed stadium capacity at 25,513 prior to the 2015 season.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003, that project expanded to the upper sections.

Prior to the 2005 season, a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north end zone complex was torn down and replaced with a three-story, 69,000 square foot facility. The Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex serves to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility houses the Dale Mildenerger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Hall of Honor, J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room, locker rooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms, luxury suites, a student-athlete academic center and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor.

In December 2009, USU Athletics renamed the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field."

In the summer of 2012, the synthetic Sprinturf, which was installed in 2004, was replaced with a state-of-the-art AstroTurf. The Sprinturf was installed in 2004 replacing the existing bent bluegrass field. In 2013, new south end zone seating was installed, and in 2014 chairback seats were added to the south end zone.

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball and gymnastics teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of legendary football and basketball coach, and athletics director, E. Lowell "Dick" Romney, who spent 29 seasons as the Aggies' athletics director and head football coach from 1919-48. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships (1921, 1935, 1936, 1946), compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). USU played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Maverik Stadium was originally built in 1968 and officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Maverik Stadium history was Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12. In 47 seasons, USU has posted a 130-98 (.570) record inside Maverik Stadium.

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Maverik Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's student section, known simply as The HURD, supports the Aggies football team every home game. The HURD is Utah State's spirit club for all athletics. It is currently the largest club of Aggie students at Utah State. The HURD attends Coach's Shows, sports nights, tailgate parties, pre-, post- and away-game parties, pep-rallies, and even road trips are just some of the activities that The HURD provides at least once a week for all of its members.

Show 'Em Your "A"
In 1909, the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

Utah State will be taking the field for the 118th season of football in 124 years in 2015. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892 and defeated intra-state rival Utah, 12-0.

GAME DAY

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories. USU adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggiettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities. The USU Pep Band leads the Spirit Squad and the crowd with the "Hail The Utah Aggies," "The Scotsman" and other musical selections.

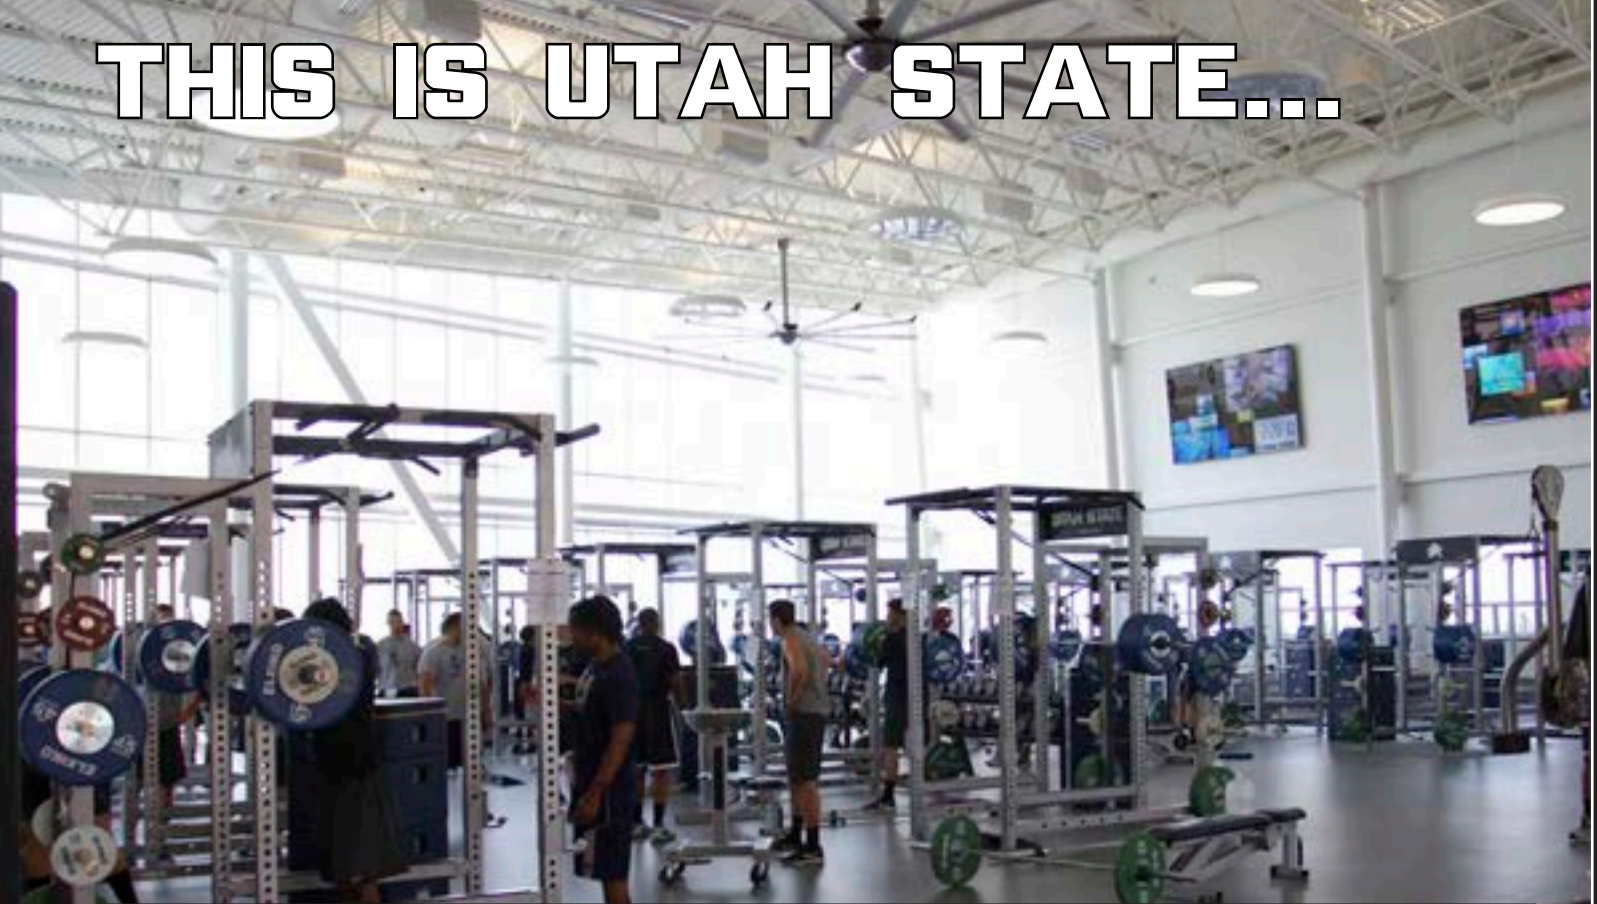

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890's.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
 See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
 How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
 Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
 Utah State, Hey!
 Aggies all the way!
 Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
 Hey! Hey! Hey!

UTAH STATE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING MISSION STATEMENT:

"The Mission of the Utah State Strength and Conditioning Program is to utilize the latest methods in the field of strength training, energy system training and nutrition in order to enhance the athletic development of each student-athlete. The strength and conditioning department will strive to support the academic and athletic success in every way possible, while following the rules and guidelines set forth by the NCAA. "

- Dave Scholz, Strength & Conditioning Head Coach

SR NG TRAVIS SEEFELDT
Peoria, Ariz.

"Our weight room along with our strength and conditioning services are great. The staff does a great job of keeping us motivated and mixing things up with different workouts. They inspire us to compete against ourselves to improve and get bigger, faster and stronger."

"We lift together as position groups, working together for one common goal, to get better each and every day. The strength and conditioning staff cover all aspects of improvement, from lifting to conditioning to eating right, doing everything they can to help us get better."

Completed in June 2013, Utah State's new $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot ICON Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The ICON Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West Conference and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai'i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

The three-story, 69,000 square-foot, Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex is a state-of-the-art multi-purpose facility that meets all of the athletic and academic needs of Utah State's 16 sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Within the facility, which was completed in the summer of 2008, is the 11,000 square foot Dale Mildenerger Sports Medicine Complex and Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Athletics Hall of Honor and the 7,000 square-foot J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room. Also located on the first floor is locker rooms for football. The second floor houses coaches offices and meeting rooms for football, including a 120-seat auditorium, and the student-athlete academics center is located on the third floor which includes numerous study hall and tutor areas, a computer lab and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academics Hall of Honor.

LAUB ATHLETICS-ACADEMICS COMPLEX

The Dale Mildenerger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center is one of the finest in the nation with over 11,000 square feet to provide maximum service to Utah State's 16 intercollegiate sports and 400-plus student-athletes. Among the many amenities are 24 treatment tables, a 2,000 square foot physical therapy and rehabilitation center, and three hydrotherapy pools for non-weight or partial weight-bearing rehabilitation to enhance recovery. The Sports Medicine Complex also houses office space for four full-time staff members and 12 graduate assistants, a team physician examination room and physical therapy office.

With the addition of the new facilities and the continued cooperation between Utah State Athletics, Intermountain HealthCare and HPER/ Exercise Science, Utah State University is becoming one of the foremost sports medicine research institutions in the intermountain west.

SR WR BRANDON SWINDALL
Oklahoma City, Okla.

"Our athletic training staff is fantastic. Throughout the recovery from my injury, they worked with me a lot with physical therapy and treatments. They stay on top of student-athletes and are as dedicated to taking care of us as the coaches are. They'll call us and remind us about our appointments and treatments. They're very on top of things."

"They helped me a lot during my recovery from my injury and got me back on my feet running and working out and were there for me with anything and everything I needed."

"The athletic training facilities are among the best around. They have everything that athletes need to recover and get back to playing faster. The water pool is fantastic. It's fun and you get a rehab workout in at the same time. They're always updating things and staying up with the different treatments. They're top notch."

Utah State University's football team revealed its full line of Nike uniforms along with the school's new logos on Saturday, April 28, 2012 as part of the athletic department's new brand and identity program. In all, Utah State will have nine different jersey and pant combinations manufactured by Nike, to go along with two different helmet options for a total of 18 different uniform combinations. Along with its traditional Blue and White uniforms, a new 'Pewter' uniform was also unveiled. Two helmet options were displayed as well including a new diamond pattern blue and black helmet with a black face mask, along with its traditional white helmet with a blue face mask. Utah State's helmets, which feature the new 'U-State' logo are manufactured by Schutt and Riddell.

Home uniform options feature a traditional combination of blue jersey with blue or white pants, as well as an option of blue jersey and pewter pants. Road uniform combinations can be built around the newly-designed pewter jersey or the traditional white jersey. The road pewter jerseys can be combined with pewter, blue or white pants, while white jerseys can be worn with white, blue or pewter pants.

Both helmet options will also be utilized with the various uniform combinations for both home and away games.

The new "UTAH STATE" wordmark is featured in Pewter letters on the home jersey, while blue letters are displayed on the white and pewter jerseys. All jerseys feature the distinctive Nike "Swoosh" on the left front shoulder. All pants feature the Nike "Swoosh" at the top of the right leg, while Utah State's new secondary bull mark is displayed at the top of the left leg.

Student-Athlete Services is designed to assist student-athletes with academic, vocational and social development. Dr. Brian Evans and his staff provide services including study sessions, tutoring, registration, academic advising and career counseling.

The Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor opened in September of 2010. Inside the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor are four permanent displays to feature CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Award winners, current academic all-Mountain West honorees and current Aggie Athletics Endowed Scholarships donors and recipients.

Exercise Science Major
Three-time Academic All-WAC/MW (2012, 2013, 2014) - one of 30 players in USU history to be a three-time academic all-conference selection

"The Student-Athlete Services offices provides student-athletes with all the help that we need to have success in the classroom. They provide us with tutors and help for every class. They do a great job of keeping up with everything and making sure that we take care of our business in the classroom. The staff is tremendous and they give us a ton of support and make sure that we succeed academically. It's something that we as Utah State student-athletes and Utah State football players are very privileged to have."

During the 2014-15 academic year, Utah State ranked second in the Mountain West in number of academic all-league honorees as the Aggies had 250 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence as 153 student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while 97 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Utah State's student-athletes traditionally rank among the best in the Mountain West with an 87 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.15 grade-point average. Additionally, Utah State's athletics department recognized 185 student-athletes for achieving a 3.2 grade point average at the 21st annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Scholar-Athlete Luncheon. To be eligible for the honor, student-athletes must have a cumulative 3.2 grade point average or have posted a 3.2 GPA during the last two semesters. In all, approximately 53 percent of USU's student-athletes earned a 3.2 GPA to qualify for the awards.

The third floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex houses the academic center for student-athletes. This center consists of a 24-unit computer center, a spacious study center, and several individual one-on-one tutor rooms. Additionally, there are three smaller classrooms that can be used for group study sessions, group tutoring, tutor meetings, and general meeting and study needs. Two of the classrooms can be opened to create one larger classroom. All classrooms have television monitors installed and have data connectivity for PowerPoint, internet and other useful presentations. The study center is completely wireless for student-athletes to connect to the internet anywhere in the facility, but also has sub-floor electrical and data connections throughout. The student-athlete services staff offices are also housed within the academic center.

STUDENT-ATHLETE SERVICES

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

The Utah State Student-Athlete Services office administers USU's NCAA Student-Athlete Affairs: Life Skills program and coordinates Aggie Ambassadors, Utah State's student-athlete outreach program. Additionally, the office works with USU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and Student-Athlete Mentors Program (SAMs). USU's NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills program has guest speakers who address student-athletes, as well as several community service projects and group activities throughout the year, including working with local elementary schools.

SR QB CHUCKIE KEETON
Houston, Texas

"I think it is extremely important to do community service and do things to help the community. They're behind us supporting us as a team so it is great to give our support back to them. It's nice to be able to show them that we're regular people and do regular things, and what kind of character our team has. At the same time, it is always nice to talk football with people, especially little kids."

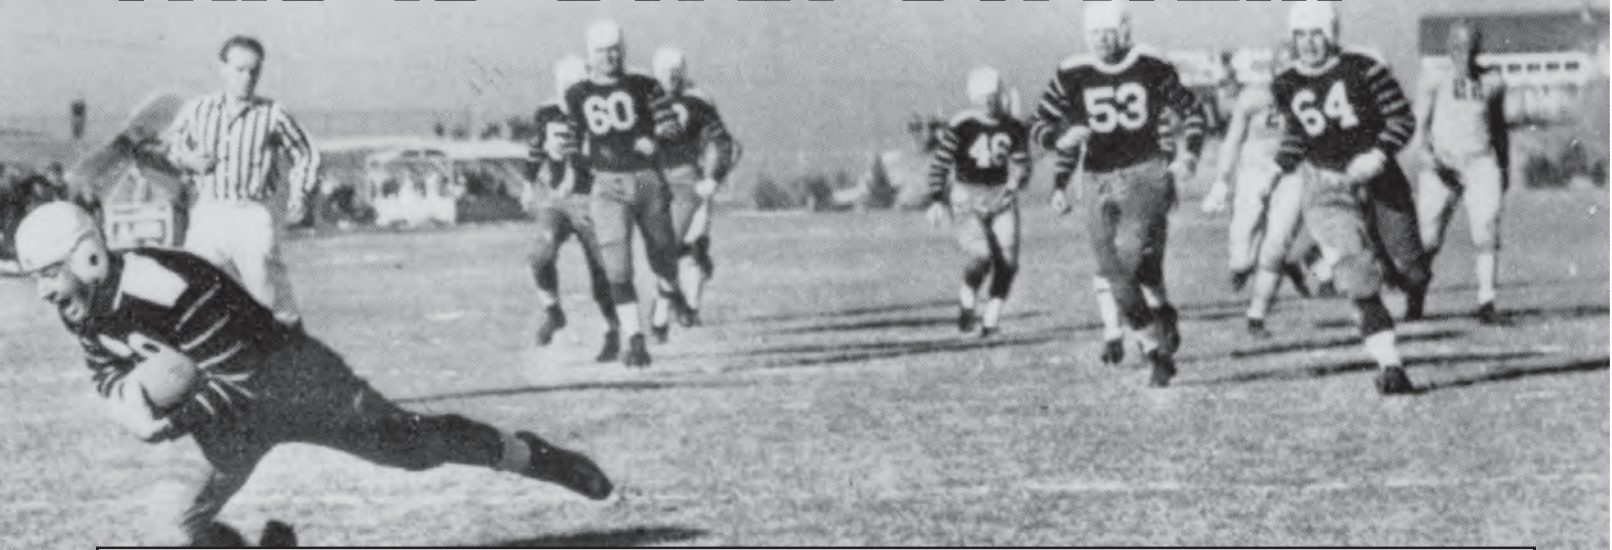

SR LB TORREY GREEN
Riverside, Calif.

"It is very important to me to give back to the community, and help people that need to be helped. I think it is great that we are able to support the people that support us and show our appreciation for their support."

Utah State University honored one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history with the unveiling of a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Merlin Olsen on Oct. 23, 2010 with a special ceremony on the South Plaza of Maverik Stadium prior to USU's Homecoming football game against Hawai'i. A large crowd attended the ceremony, featuring Olsen's family, friends, former teammates and former USU players among the dignitaries in attendance. Guest speakers for the ceremony included USU President Dr. Stan Albrecht, former USU Vice President and Director of Athletics Scott Barnes, Steven Perry from the National Football Foundation, the statue's sculptor Blair Buswell, Douglas Mayberry, who was one of Olsen's USU teammates, along with Olsen's widow, Susan. Perry noted that the Super Bowl Pro Football Hall of Fame Luncheon, held the Friday prior to the Super Bowl, will be named after Olsen, one of only two Hall of Fame events named after former players. Buswell singled out his time spent with Olsen while working on the statue, noting that Olsen wanted the sculpture to show his pride in Utah State and Logan. Mayberry told a story about Olsen's hospitality before nearly knocking off your chin strap, noting the only time he saw Olsen relax was when he scored a rushing touchdown. Susan Olsen thanked Olsen's former teammates, friends and the University for their support of the family. She also read a eulogy written by Merlin Olsen prior to his death that wasn't found until after his passing, which talked about Merlin's appreciation of the love and concern from his supporters, former teammates and family throughout his time growing up in Logan, at Utah State, in the NFL and his broadcasting and acting career.

Merlin Olsen's statue was created by nationally renowned Utah artist Blair Buswell and is 25 percent larger than Olsen's 6'4" frame. When mounted on its base the statue is over 11 feet high. The statue depicts Olsen during his college playing days at Utah State, in full uniform and pads, with his helmet under his arm. The base of the statue is adorned with two plaques. One lists many of Olsen's accomplishments as a college and pro football player, as an actor and member of the media, and as a philanthropist and humanitarian. The other plaque lists Olsen's personal mission statement, an inspiring list of Olsen's personal priorities. Additionally a list of all donors to the Merlin Olsen Field Campaign whose gifts were received prior to August 1, 2010 are mounted adjacent to the statue base. The statue, when set on it's base, has at least one unique element. According to Google maps, Olsen's gaze directly faces toward the Olsen family home in Logan where he grew up, roughly two miles in a direct line from where the statue rests. In preparation for the statue to be installed a small courtyard was created with seating areas for contemplation. The block cement was used to convey Olsen's personal strength, and the vertical columns represent his personal mission to celebrate others.

NFL Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, the greatest athlete in Utah State University history, passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010 after a courageous battle with cancer. Olsen was a three-year letterman on the offensive and defensive lines for Utah State's football team from 1959-61, earning All-American honors during both his junior and senior seasons. During his senior season in 1961, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior defensive lineman. Olsen also was a three-time academic All-American at Utah State and graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Kappa Phi in 1962 with a degree in finance.

HOME OF MERLIN OLSEN

Utah State University's Athletics Department unveiled the Steve Mothersell Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor on Sept. 26, 2009. In all, approximately 150 Aggie alumni and friends donated to the 1,800 square-foot Hall of Honor including 115 former student-athletes. The Hall of Honor is housed on the first floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex, which is located in the north end zone of Maverik Stadium. Inside Utah State's Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor, fans will find various displays and trophy cases celebrating over 100 years of Aggie sports history. Among the items displayed within the venue are trophies from the 1978 national championship volleyball team, and the 1980 and 1981 national championship softball teams. Other items on display include the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl championship trophy, the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl championship trophy, the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl championship trophy, the 2012 Western Athletic Conference championship trophy, the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl II championship trophy, the 1961 Outland trophy presented to Merlin Olsen as the nation's top defensive lineman and a discus donated by L. Jay Silvester from the 1968 Summer Olympics held in Mexico City. As fans tour the Hall of Honor, they will see exhibits displaying Utah State's 16 current sports, a display honoring its past sports and a display highlighting some "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics. Fans will also see a display paying tribute to those select few former Aggie Greats who are now members of USU's Hall of Fame, the most prestigious honor afforded an Aggie athlete. Another key feature within the venue are two interactive video displays that will give fans an opportunity to watch video highlights of "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics as well as highlights of members of USU's Hall of Fame.

HALL OF HONOR

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's annual Pro Timing Day regularly draws a number NFL scouts, monitoring and evaluating the Aggies' pro prospects.

In the last 12 years, Utah State has had 12 players selected in the NFL Draft, while nearly four dozen more have signed free agent contracts. In 2014, S Maurice Alexander was selected in the fourth round (110) by the St. Louis Rams and CB Nevin Lawson was chosen in the fourth round (133) by the Detroit Lions. In 2013, CB Will Davis was selected in the third round (93) by the Miami Dolphins, while RB Kerwynn Williams was taken in the seventh round (230) by the Indianapolis Colts. In 2012, Utah State had three players selected in the NFL Draft as LB Bobby Wagner was chosen in the second round (47) by the Seattle Seahawks, RB Robert Turbin was selected in the fourth round (106) by the Seattle Seahawks and RB Michael Smith was taken in the seventh round (212) by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2011, CB Curtis Marsh was drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in the third round with the 90th overall selection. Two Aggies were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft, in Shawn Murphy and Kevin Robinson. Murphy, an offensive guard, was picked by Miami in the fourth round as the 110th overall selection, while Robinson, a wide receiver and kick returner, was selected by Kansas City in the sixth round with the 182nd pick overall. TE Chris Cooley was the 81st overall pick by Washington in 2004. In 2003, WR Kevin Curtis was the 74th overall pick, going to St. Louis in the third round.

MEDIA COVERAGE

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

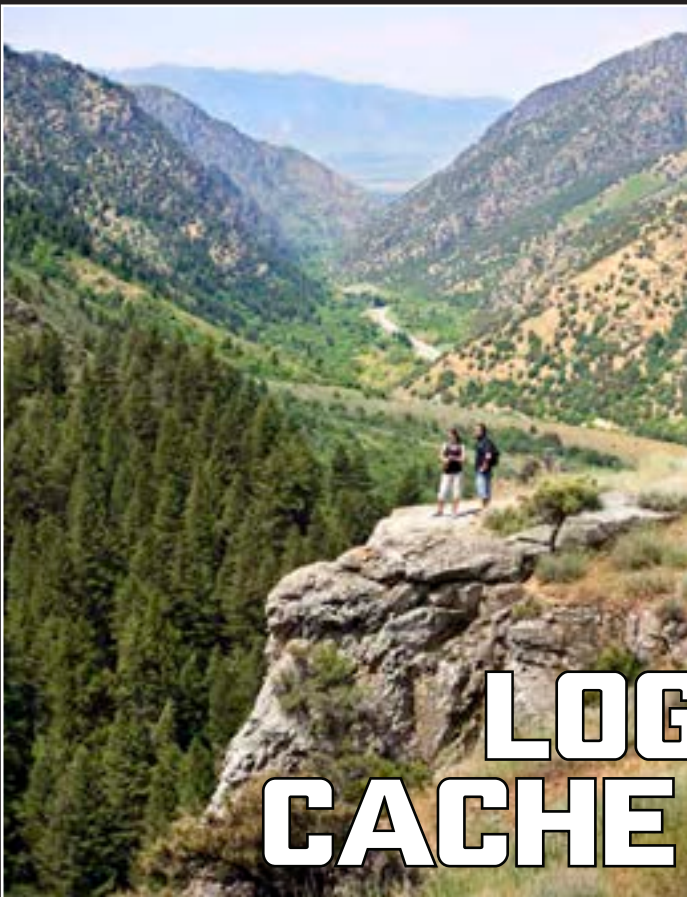

Plain and simple, people who have been to Utah State University love it. No other place provides the complete package quite like USU: top-notch academics, nationally recognized research, Division I athletics, and more than 200 student clubs and organizations, all on the oldest residential campus in the state. And the mountains. USU, located in Logan, Utah, is just 15 minutes from two mountain ranges and within a half day's drive of six national parks, including Yellowstone. It has big-school opportunities with a small-school feel, and it's all for a great value. In fact, USU is the No. 2 public university in the West (and top three in the nation) for lowest tuition on Forbes' list of America's Top Colleges (2013).

CAMPUS

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

FALL PREVIEW

After winning back-to-back-to-back bowl games and playing in four-straight bowls for the first time in school history, Utah State football has established itself as one of the top programs in the Rocky Mountain region.

And under the direction of third-year head coach Matt Wells, the 2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year, expectations will once again be high in 2015 as Utah State looks to reclaim its Mountain Division title from two years ago and compete for the Mountain West Championship after playing in the inaugural Mountain West Championship game in its first year in the conference in 2013.

To accomplish its goals in 2015, Utah State will have to replace 20 seniors who graduated as the winningest class in school history with 37 victories. Fortunately, USU returns 15 starters (O-8, D-7) as part of 39 returning letterwinners (O-12, D-25, S-2) from last year's team that finished with a 10-4 record, including a 21-6 win against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, marking just the second time in school history that USU has won double-digit games.

Offensively, Utah State returns two of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in the Mountain West in senior Chuckie Keeton and sophomore Kent Myers. Keeton led USU to an 11-2 record in 2012 and a 41-15 win against Toledo in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl as he earned first-team all-Western Athletic Conference honors. Myers went 5-1 as a starter in 2014 helping the Aggies to a 10-4 record, including a 21-6 win against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl as he was named the game's Offensive Most Valuable Player.

Utah State also returns three other all-Mountain West performers on offense from a season ago in senior WR Hunter Sharp, junior OT Jake Simonich and junior OC Austin Stephens, as all three players were named to the honorable mention team.

Defensively, Utah State has three all-Mountain West players returning, including junior LB Nick Vigil, who earned first-team honors a year ago, while senior DE Jordan Nielsen and junior FS Devin Centers were both named to the honorable mention team.

In 2014, USU's defense ranked among the top 30 nationally in five categories, including finishing 12th in scoring defense (19.7 ppg), 24th in rushing defense (130.7 ypg) and 30th in total defense (356.1 ypg).

Having won 35 of its last 47 games, including 24 of its last 27 league games, to go along with winning 18 of its last 20 at home, Utah State football has plenty of momentum heading into its 2015 campaign.

C. Keeton

QUARTERBACKS

Utah State returns a pair of proven starters at the quarterback position in senior Chuckie Keeton and sophomore Kent Myers. Keeton, who has missed 19 games over the last two seasons with a knee injury, has started 30 games in his career and ranks first all-time in school history with a career completion percentage of 65.4 percent. Keeton also ranks second all-time at USU in touchdown passes (58), second in completions (568), third in total offense (7,621 yards), third in passing yards (6,387), fourth in passing attempts (869) and 20th in rushing yards (1,234).

Myers played the final seven games as a true freshman in 2014 and finished the year completing 79-of-119 (.664) passes for 866 yards with five touchdowns and three interceptions, while adding 310 rushing yards on 56 carries (5.5 ypc) with a team-leading five touchdowns. In his first career start at Hawai'i (11/1), Myers set a school and Mountain West record by completing 14-of-15 passes for 186 yards and three touchdowns as USU posted a 35-14 win. Overall, Myers won his first four starts and ended the season by being named the Offensive MVP of the Gildan New Mexico Bowl in helping USU to a 21-6 win against UTEP.

Utah State has two more quarterbacks with experience in the program in sophomore Damion Hobbs, who sat out last season after transferring from Oregon where he redshirted during his freshman season in 2013, and freshman DJ Nelson, who redshirted a season ago.

Not returning here is Darell Garretson and Craig Harrison. Garretson started 11 games during his two years in the program, completing 217-of-344 (.631) passes for 2,586 yards with 18 touchdowns, while Harrison played in 19 games over three seasons at USU and completed 61-of-118 (.517) passes for 746 yards with five touchdowns.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Utah State is set up to have plenty of depth at wide receiver this year as it returns two of its top four wideouts from last season in seniors Devonte Robinson and Hunter Sharp, to go along with fellow senior Brandon Swindall, who missed the final 12 games of the 2014 campaign due to injury.

Sharp led Utah State a year ago with 66 receptions for 939 yards (14.2 ypc) with seven touchdowns as a junior college transfer, ranking tied for ninth all-time in school history in single-season receptions. Robinson caught 24 passes for 226 yards (9.4 ypc) with two touchdowns in his first season at USU.

As a sophomore in 2013, Swindall ranked

2015 SEASON PREVIEW

first on the team with six touchdown receptions as he caught 29 passes for 285 yards (9.8 ypr) and started five of the 13 games he played in.

Other Aggies who will have an opportunity for playing time in 2015 include redshirt junior Andrew Rodriguez, sophomore Braelon Roberts, redshirt freshmen Tyler Fox and Zach Van Leeuwen, and true freshmen Chad Artist and Gerold Bright.

Even with its depth here, Utah State must replace a pair of proven playmakers at wide receiver in Ronald Butler and JoJo Natson. During his two years at Utah State, Butler caught 60 passes for 824 yards (13.7 ypc) with five touchdowns. Natson started 19 of the 39 games he played in and finished his Aggie career with 127 receptions for 1,031 receiving yards (8.1 ypc) with five touchdowns, while also carrying the ball 80 times for 611 yards (7.6 ypc) with six touchdowns.

TIGHT ENDS

Utah State returns its top tight end from a year ago in junior Wyatt Houston along with junior Landon Home, who missed every game last season due to injury before starting in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Houston finished the year catching 19 passes for 178 yards (9.4 ypc) with two touchdowns in eight starts.

One player not back due to graduation is Jefferson Court, who caught six passes for 26 yards with three touchdowns a year ago.

Three players who will be looking for playing time this fall are junior Chris Copier, who transferred from Snow College, and true freshmen Dalton Baker and Dax Raymond.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Despite losing its most experienced player here to graduation in senior OT Kevin Whimpey, who started 40 straight games during his Aggie career, Utah State returns plenty of depth and experience up front as it brings back four starters from a year ago in senior OG Taani Fisilau, junior OT Jake Simonich, junior OC Austin Stephens and sophomore OG Tyson Mosley.

Fisilau played in all 14 games a year ago, including 12 starts, and has played in 26 games during his Aggie career. Both Simonich and Stephens started all 14 games a year ago at center and right tackle, respectively, as the duo were both named to the honorable mention all-Mountain West team. Overall, Simonich has started 15 games in his career and played in 28, while Mosley started the final 11 games a year ago at left guard and played in all 14.

Other returning players with in-game experience include junior OG Austin Albrecht and sophomore OG Brandon Taukeiaho as Albrecht made two starts and played in 13 games as a sophomore, while Taukeiaho appeared in three games a year ago.

A. Stephens

In all, the Aggies' offensive line returns six players who have played in a combined 98 games with 54 starts.

Utah State also returns five other players with experience in the program in sophomores Andrew Chen (center) and Jarom Ioane (guard), and redshirt freshmen Cody Boyer (tackle), Logan Rice (tackle) and KJ Uluave (tackle).

Newcomers who could emerge here during the fall include four-year transfer Ben Wysocki (tackle), and a pair of junior college transfers in Preston Brooksby (tackle) and Jude Hockel (guard).

RUNNING BACKS

For the first time in seven seasons, Utah State returns its leading rusher as sophomore RB LaJuan Hunt returns after gaining 540 yards on 111 carries (4.9 ypc) with one touchdown as a true freshman a year ago. USU also returns sophomore QB Kent Myers, who rushed for 310 yards on 56 carries (5.5 ypc) with a team-leading five touchdowns a year ago, and junior LB Nick Vigil rushed for 152 yards on 41 carries (3.7 ypc) with three touchdowns last season.

Utah State also returns four other players who carried the ball last year, including senior QB Chuckie Keeton, junior RB Kennedy Williams, senior WR Devonte Robinson and senior WR Hunter Sharp.

Highlighting this group of players is Keeton, who ranks 20th all-time in school history and second among quarterbacks with 1,234 career rushing yards on 272 carries (4.5 ypc) with 15 career rushing touchdowns.

Utah State has three other running backs who will see time this fall, including a pair of redshirts from last season, in sophomore Tonny Lindsey and freshman Justen Hervey, along with junior college transfer Devante Mays.

Three players not returning who carried the ball a season ago include RB Joe Hill, RB Rashad Hall and WR JoJo Natson. Hill finished second on the team with 507 rushing yards on a team-best 118 carries (4.3 ypc) with four touchdowns. For his career, Hill rushed for 1,052 yards on 221 carries (4.8 ypc) with 13 touchdowns. Hall rushed for 203 yards on 49 carries (4.1 ypc) with two touchdowns in 2014, and Natson gained 498 yards on 50 carries (10.0 ypc) with three touchdowns.

OFFENSIVE NOTABLES

- Utah State returns two players on its active roster who started at QB and led their team to a bowl victory in senior Chuckie Keeton and sophomore Kent Myers.

- Utah State returns its leading rusher in sophomore RB LaJuan Hunt (540 rushing yards) and leading receiver in senior WR Hunter Sharp (939 receiving yards). The last time USU returned its leading rusher and receiver from the previous season was in 2006 when it returned sophomore FB Ryan Bohm (340 rushing yards) and senior WR Tony Penningman (741 receiving yards).

- Sophomore RB LaJuan Hunt was the first Aggie freshman to lead the team in rushing since 2007 when Derrvin Speight gained 504 yards on 129 carries (3.9 ypc). In fact, Hunt's 540 rushing yards on 111 carries (4.9 ypc) is the most by a true freshman in school history and the third-most by a freshman all-time trailing Abu Wilson, who rushed for 795 yards on 164 carries (4.8 ypc) in 1992 and Demario Brown, who rushed for 700 yards on 119 carries (5.9 ypc) in 1996.

- Utah State has won 17 straight games when it has a 100-yard rusher, with its last loss coming against Ohio (24-23) in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. USU has also won 19 of its last 20 contests when rushing at least 40 times in a game, including its 21-6 win against UTEP (12/20) as USU rushed the ball 40 times for 279 yards.

- Utah State returns three players who earned all-conference honors a year ago as senior WR Hunter Sharp, junior OT Jake Simonich and junior OC Austin Stephens were all named to the honorable mention team. Furthermore, redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton earned first-team all-Western Athletic Conference honors as a sophomore in 2012.

- Utah State senior QB Chuckie Keeton set USU single-season school records in touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,992), total offense (3,392 yards), completions (275) and completion percentage (.676) as a sophomore in 2012.

- Utah State senior WR Hunter Sharp led the nation a year ago with four touchdown receptions of at least 70 yards (81, 72, 75, 70) and is one of just two Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) players in the last five years to accomplish this feat along with USC's Marqise Lee in 2012. Sharp also had four-straight 100-yard receiving games in 2014, which were the most by an Aggie since 2001.

DEFENSIVE LINE

For the third time in as many years, Utah State's defensive line spearheaded one of the best overall units in the nation as it ranked among the top 30 defenses in five categories in 2014, including fourth in sacks (3.57 pg), 12th in scoring defense (19.7 ppg), 17th in passing efficiency defense (111.4), 24th in rushing defense (130.7 ypg) and 30th in total defense (356.1 ypg). USU's defense also ranked fourth nationally in tackles for loss (8.1 pg), eighth nationally in interceptions (19), tied for ninth in the nation with its five defensive touchdowns, and tied for 11th nationally in turnovers forced (30).

Utah State does have to replace two all-league players here from a year ago in DE B.J. Larsen and NG Elvis Kamana-Matagi, as Larsen was named to the Mountain West's first-team and Kamana-Matagi earned honorable mention honors. During his career, Larsen played in a school-record 52 games with 27 starts and recorded 94 total tackles, which included 17.0 sacks and 26.5 tackles for loss. Kamana-Matagi played in 40 career games with 23 starts and had 35 career tackles, which included 5.0 tackles for loss.

Despite the loss of these two proven players, Utah State returns six letterwinners along its defensive line, highlighted by senior DE Jordan Nielsen, who started all 14 games a year ago and earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors after recording 53 tackles, which included 2.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss. Nielsen, who also earned second-team all-WAC honors as a redshirt freshman in 2012, has played in 41 career games with 15 starts and has career totals of 123 tackles, 9.0 sacks and 17.0 tackles for loss.

Also returning up front is senior NG Travis Seefeldt who has played in 39 career games at Utah State with two starts and has 54 career tackles, which includes 4.0 sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss. As a junior, Seefeldt recorded 35 tackles, which included 2.0 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss, to go along with two fumble recoveries.

Another player with multiple years in the program is junior DE Ricky Ali'ifua, who has played in 27 games and has recorded 46 tackles, which includes 1.5 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss. As a sophomore, Ali'ifua posted 22 tackles, including 2.0 tackles for loss.

Three other returners here include senior NG David Moala, senior DE John Taylor and junior DE Siua Taufa. Taufa had 14 tackles, which included 1.0 sack and 2.5 tackles for loss a year ago as he played in 13 games with one start. Taylor had nine tackles, which included 0.5 sacks, playing in 14 games. And Moala recorded eight tackles, which included 0.5 sacks and 1.5 tackles for loss, playing in 11 games. Another returning letterwinner here is sophomore Ian Togiai, who played in 13 games a year ago as a true freshman as a linebacker.

N. Vigil

Newcomers who will vie for playing time here include three players who redshirted a year ago in junior DE Edmund Faimalo and freshmen DE Adewale Adeoye, and freshman NG Gasetoto Schuster, along with two other players who did not play last year in junior DE Eric Bernston and sophomore DE Clark Jeppesen. USU also has two newcomers who will be in the mix for playing time in freshmen DE Christopher Unga and Jacoby Wildman.

LINEBACKERS

Traditionally, Utah State's linebacker core has been among the most talented positions on the field and 2015 should be no different despite losing one of its most productive players in school history to graduation in Zach Vigil. During his four-year career, Vigil played in 45 career games, making 41 starts, and ranks fifth all-time in school history with 389 tackles, which included 16.5 sacks and a school record 43.5 tackles for loss. As a senior, Vigil was named an All-American by four different publications, including being a second-team All-American by USA Today Sports along with being named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year.

Despite the loss of Vigil's leadership and production, Utah State returns seven players who have played games in the program, including two all-league performers in junior Nick Vigil and senior Kyler Fackrell.

Vigil earned first-team all-Mountain West honors a year ago as he ranked second on the team with 123 tackles, which included 7.0 sacks and 16.5 tackles for loss. In his first two years at USU, Vigil has played in 27 games with 17 starts and has recorded 180 tackles, which includes 12.5 sacks, 25.0 tackles for loss, five forced fumbles and two interceptions.

Fackrell, who played in just one game last year after suffering a season-ending knee injury at Tennessee, has started all 28 games he has played in during his Aggie career and has recorded 171 tackles, which includes 8.0 sacks and 21.0 tackles for loss to go along with four interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. As a sophomore in 2013, Fackrell earned second-team all-Mountain West honors and was an honorable mention Sophomore All-American by College Football News. As a redshirt freshman in 2012, Fackrell earned first-team all-WAC honors and was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

Two other proven players returning include seniors LT Filiaga and Torrey Green. Filiaga started nine games and played in 11 during his first year at USU before missing the final four games due to injury. As a junior, Filiaga ranked sixth on the team with 61 tackles, which included 1.0 sack and 4.5 tackles for loss to go along with two fumble recoveries. Green started seven games a year ago and played in 12 as he finished the season with 35 tackles, which included 3.0 sacks and 8.0 tackles for loss.

Utah State returns four more seniors with in-game experience in Jarom Baldomero, La'Bradford Harold, Michael Okonkwo and Anthony Williams, who have combined to play in 92 career games.

Newcomers who will look for playing time here include redshirt junior Leki Uasike, sophomore Alex Huerta, redshirt freshmen Chase Christiansen, Dillon Filaga, Derek Larsen and Chasen Andersen, and true freshmen Braden Harris, Joe Riggins and Mason Tobeck.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Utah State must replace two all-league players here from a year ago in senior safeties Brian Suite and Frankie Sutera, but it also returns plenty of experience with 10 letterwinners, including three players who started a total of 26 games a year ago.

Sutera earned first-team all-Mountain West honors as a senior as he led the team and was tied for seventh in the nation with his seven interceptions, and ranked third on the team with 87 tackles, while adding 4.5 sacks and 6.5 tackles for loss. For his career, Sutera played in 51 games, making 14 starts, and posted 139 total tackles, including 5.5 sacks, 7.5 tackles for loss and eight interceptions.

Suite earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as both a junior and senior and finished his career starting 40 of the 41 games as he recorded 226 total tackles and eight interceptions. As a senior, Suite ranked fourth on the team with 76 tackles and was second overall with his nine pass breakups.

Highlighting Utah State's 10 returning letterwinners here is junior FS Devin Centers, sophomore CB Jalen Davis and junior CB Daniel Gray. Centers, who has played in 26 games in his first two years at USU with six starts, earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as a sophomore as he ranked fifth on the team with 74 tackles, which included 3.0 sacks and 6.5 tackles for loss. He also led the team with 10 pass breakups and three fumble recoveries, two of which he returned for touchdowns. Davis started the first 13 games of the year and finished the season with 61 tackles, which included 1.0 sack and 4.0 tackles for loss, to go along with two interceptions and seven pass breakups. At season's end, Davis was named a true freshman All-American by 247Sports. Gray played in 13 games in his first year of eligibility at USU and started seven games as he finished the season recording 29 tackles and five pass breakups.

Other returning letterwinners in the defensive backfield for Utah State include senior CB's

J. Thompson

Bryant Hayes, Deshane Hines and Tyler Floyd, junior CB's Austin Cheney and Jentz Painter, senior SS's Marwin Evans and Kelvin Lee, and junior FS Marquan Ellison.

Highlighting this group is a quartet of seniors in Evans, Hayes, Hines and Floyd as Hayes and Hines each recorded 20 tackles in their first seasons at USU, while Evans and Floyd both had 10 tackles. Hines added two interceptions during the season, while Hayes recorded 4.0 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss as part of his 20 total tackles, to go along with five pass breakups, and Floyd finished the season with one interception.

Newcomers who could emerge during fall practice include two safeties who redshirted a year ago in freshmen Jontrell Rocquemore and Aaron Wade, as well as sophomore CB Myron Turner.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Utah State must replace a pair of all-conference kickers from a year ago as PK Nick Diaz and P Jaron Bentrude both graduated.

Diaz earned second-team all-Mountain West honors as a senior after leading the team in scoring with 81 points as he was 12-of-17 (.706) on field goals and 45-of-48 (.938) on extra points. For his career, Diaz played in 43 games and was 39-of-53 (.736) on field goals and 136-of-140 (.971) on extra points. For his career, Diaz ranks first all-time in school history in extra points made (136) and attempted (140), second in field goal percentage (.736), tied for second in field goals made (39), third in points scored (253), and tied for fifth in both field goals attempted (53) and extra point percentage (.971).

Bentrude played in 44 games during his Aggie career and punted 158 times for an average of 40.2 yards, with 63 of his punts downed inside the 20-yard line. As a senior, Bentrude earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as he punted 83 times for an average of 40.8 yards, with 32 of his punts downed inside the 20-yard line, which ranked 22nd nationally.

Utah State's two returning specialists include senior long snapper Salanoa Galea'i and junior K Jake Thompson. Galea'i played in all 14 games for USU a year ago and recorded two special teams tackles. Thompson also played in all 14 games as a sophomore as he kicked off 66 times for an average of 61.1 yards with 26 touchbacks. Thompson has also attempted seven field goals in his first two years at USU and has punted once.

Another kicker with experience in the program is junior PK Brock Warren, who played in two games as a true freshman in 2013, while redshirt freshman P Aaron Dalton will battle Thompson for punting duties.

DEFENSIVE NOTABLES

- Utah State's defense finished the 2014 season ranking among the top 30 in the nation in 10 categories, including ranking 12th in scoring defense at 19.7 points per game. USU also ranked fourth nationally in both sacks (3.57 pg) and tackles for loss (8.1 pg), eighth in passes intercepted (19), ninth in defensive touchdowns (5), 11th in turnovers forced (30), 17th in passing efficiency defense (111.42), 24th in rushing defense (130.7 ypg), 25th in opponents third down conversion percentage (.358), and 30th in total defense (356.1 ypg).

- Utah State has forced at least one turnover in 34 of its last 37 games, including 30 turnovers last season with 19 interceptions and 11 fumbles. In all, USU has forced 77 turnovers in its last 37 games.

- Utah State has intercepted 36 passes in its last 24 games, including multiple interceptions in 12 of those 24 games, and has at least one interception in 16 of its last 20 games.

- Utah State scored five defensive touchdowns last season and has scored eight defensive touchdowns in its last 22 games.

- Utah State returns three defensive players who earned various all-Mountain West honors in 2014 as junior LB Nick Vigil was named to the first-team, while senior DE Jordan Nielsen and junior FS Devin Centers were both named to the honorable mention team. USU also returns senior LB Kyler Fackrell, who earned second-team all-Mountain West honors and was named a Sophomore Honorable Mention All-American by College Football News in 2013. USU also returns sophomore CB Jalen Davis, who was named a True Freshman All-American by 247Sports last season.

HEAD COACH
UTAH STATE, 1996

2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year

Third Season as Utah State Head Coach (19-9 Overall, 13-3 Mountain West)
Fifth Season Overall at Utah State

Matt Wells has wasted little time putting his stamp on the Aggie football program as head coach, as Utah State is 19-9 during his two years at the helm, including a 13-3 Mountain West record. Those 19 wins are a school-record by a USU coach in his first two seasons and he already ranks as the 11th-winningest coach in school history, while his 67.9 winning percentage ranks second all-time in school history with a minimum of 15 games coached.

During his four years at Utah State, which includes two years as an assistant, Wells has been part of a program that has played in four-straight bowl games and won three-straight bowls, both of which are school records, while posting a 37-17 record.

Furthermore, Utah State is one of just four programs to win 30 games and record three bowl victories in the past three seasons joining Clemson, Michigan State and Oregon.

During the 2014 season, Wells led Utah State to 10 wins to rank as the second-most in school history behind the 2012 team that finished with an 11-2 record. USU also played in its fourth-straight bowl game in 2014 and won its third-straight bowl.

In his second year as Utah State's head coach, Wells mentored 15 players who earned 16 all-Mountain West honors, which were the most in the league and tied for the third-most in school history. Wells also mentored two All-Americans in 2014 in Zach Vigil and Jalen Davis. Vigil was named an All-American by four different publications, including being named a USA Today Sports second-team All-American, while Davis was named a true freshman All-American by 247Sports. Along with earning All-American honors, Vigil was also named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as head coach, Wells led Utah State to the inaugural Mountain West Championship game after winning the Mountain Division of the conference with a 7-1 record in 2013. Wells also led Utah State to just its third-ever bowl victory as it posted a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

For his efforts, Wells was named the 2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year as he set the school record for wins by a first-year head coach. The Aggies finished the season with a 9-5 record, tying the 1960 and 1961 teams for the second-most wins in school history at the time.

Overall, Wells is the fifth USU coach in school history to garner conference coach of the year honors along with Bruce Snyder (1978), Chuck Shelton (1991), John L. Smith (1997) and Gary Andersen (2012). Wells is also the fourth individual to earn MW Coach of the Year honors in his first season along with BYU's Gary Crowton (2001), Utah's Urban Meyer (2003) and Air Force's Troy Calhoun (2007).

During his first year as Utah State's head coach, Wells mentored 14 Aggies who earned various all-Mountain West honors, including three All-Americans as Tyler Larsen was named a second-team All-American by USA Today Sports, Nevin Lawson was named a third-team All-American by College Sports Madness, and Kyler Fackrell was named an honorable mention Sophomore All-American by College Football News.

Wells also coached a school-record four players who were invited and participated in the 2014 NFL Combine in Larsen, Lawson, Maurice Alexander and D.J. Tialavea, while a total of 16 players from the 2013 and 2014 rosters were invited to NFL/CFL camps, including Alexander (St. Louis Rams) and Lawson (Detroit Lions), who were both selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Wells, who is the 17th-youngest head coach at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level and one of 14 coaches to lead his alma mater, is just the second Utah State graduate to be appointed its head football coach joining Chris Pella, who graduated from USU in 1965 and coached the Aggies from 1983-85.

Prior to being named the head coach at his alma mater, Wells spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Utah State, including serving as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2012 campaign. In 2011, Wells coached USU's

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT MATT WELLS...

Gary Andersen, Oregon State Head Football Coach:

"I'm very happy for Coach Wells and the success that Utah State has continued to have under his leadership. He takes care of kids both on and off the field and has surrounded himself with a staff that does the same. I look forward to seeing more of the same out of the Aggies in the future."

Zach Vigil, Linebacker, Miami Dolphins:

"Coach Wells is a true family man. You can see that in the way he treats his immediate family, coaches and his players."

Ken Niumatalolo, Navy Head Football Coach:

"It doesn't surprise me at all how well Matt is doing as a head coach. I knew Matt when he first started coaching almost 20 years ago, and I knew then that he had a very bright future in this profession. Sustained success in any profession or business is hard, especially in the ultra competitive world of DI college football. Not only has Utah State continued their success under Matt's leadership, they have gotten better and are a legit MWC title contender every year now under Matt."

quarterbacks and was the team's recruiting coordinator.

As offensive coordinator in 2012, Utah State concluded its most successful season in school history as it went 11-2 and set school records for wins (11) and home wins (6), while being nationally ranked in the Associated Press poll for three-straight weeks for the first time in school history. USU also won its first outright conference championship since 1936 during the 2012 campaign and just its third in school history joining the 1921 and 1936 teams that both won Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference titles. All-time, Utah State has won or shared 11 league championships.

As offensive coordinator in 2012, Wells directed an Aggie offense that set single-season school records for total points (454), total offense (6,108 yards), completions (285) and total yards per game (469.8), while ranking second in points per game (34.9) and total passing yards (3,445).

Nationally, Utah State's 2012 offense ranked second in the Western Athletic Conference and 23rd in the country in total offense (469.8 ypg), second in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (153.21), second in the WAC and 25th in the nation in rushing offense (204.8 ypg), third in the WAC and 31st in the nation in sacks allowed (1.38 pg), third in the WAC and 33rd in the nation in scoring offense (34.9 ppg), and third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in passing offense (265.0 ypg).

Under Wells, Utah State finished the 2012 season scoring 38 or more points in each of its final seven games, bettering the previous school record of 38-plus points in three-straight games accomplished six times and most recently in 2000.

In 2012, Wells coached current Aggie senior quarterback Chuckie Keeton, who earned first-team all-WAC honors after setting single-season school records for touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,373), completion percentage (.676), completions (275) and total offense (3,992 yards). Keeton also earned WAC Offensive Player of the Week honors four times in 2012, which is a single-season school record.

Under Wells' tutelage, Keeton has emerged as one of the top quarterbacks in the nation and currently ranks first in school history in career completion percentage (.654), second in career touchdown passes (58), second in career completions (568), third in career total offense (7,621 yards), third in career passing yardage (6,387), fourth in career passing attempts (869) and 20th in career rushing yards (1,234).

As the quarterbacks coach in 2011, Wells helped Utah State's offense establish then-school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

Wells, a former Aggie quarterback and three-year letterwinner from 1994-96, was a member of two conference championship teams as a student-athlete as he was a redshirt freshman in 1993 when Utah State tied for first in the Big West Conference and defeated Ball State, 42-33, in the Las Vegas Bowl for its first-ever bowl win. As a senior in 1996, Wells helped USU to another share of the Big West Conference title.

Wells, who has been a part of eight bowl teams and two conference championships during his coaching career, came to Utah State after two coaching stints at New Mexico, serving as the Lobos' wide receivers and kickoff return unit coach in 2010 and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 2007 to 2008. In 2009, Wells served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Louisville.

Prior to his first stint at New Mexico, Wells spent five years (2002-06) as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa and five years at the U.S. Naval Academy (1997-2001) as its quarterbacks coach, fullbacks coach and wide receivers coach, while also serving as the junior varsity head coach and offensive coordinator for three years.

Wells, a native of Sallisaw, Okla., received his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Utah State in 1996, graduating cum laude. He and his wife Jen have two daughters, Jady (12) and Ella (9), and one son, Wyatt (6). His brother, Luke, is Utah State's co-offensive coordinator, tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

MARK WEBER

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE
CAL LUTHERAN, 1980

Third Season at Utah State

Mark Weber, who has 35 years of collegiate coaching experience and has been involved in 16 bowl games, is in his third year as Utah State's offensive line coach and associate head coach.

In his first two seasons at Utah State, the Aggies have posted a 19-9 record, including a 13-3 Mountain West mark, and notched bowl wins against No. 24 Northern Illinois (21-14) in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and against UTEP (21-6) in the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

At Utah State, Weber has coached six offensive linemen who have earned all-Mountain West honors in Tyler Larsen (first team), Jamie Markosian (honorable mention) and Eric Schultz (honorable mention) in 2013, and Kevin Whimpey (first team), Jake Simonich (honorable mention) and Austin Stephens (honorable mention) in 2014. Larsen was also named a second-team All-American by USA Today Sports and was one of six finalists for the Rimington Trophy, honoring the nation's best collegiate center. Larsen is currently in the NFL with the Washington Redskins, while Whimpey is with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Schultz spent the 2014 season in the CFL with the Ottawa Redblacks.

During the 2014 season, Utah State's offensive line spearheaded an attack that rushed for 2,521 yards, marking the sixth-straight year that USU has rushed for at least 2,000 yards, which is a school record. Furthermore, USU had three Aggies rush for at least 450 yards in 2014, marking just the second time in school history that feat has been accomplished.

In his first season at Utah State, Weber coached an Aggie offensive line that paved the way for USU's fourth 1,000-yard rusher in the past five seasons as Joey DeMartino finished the year with 1,221 rushing yards.

Overall, Utah State's offense set school records for pass completions (297), total offensive plays (1,073), touchdown passes (30), and first downs (310) in 2013, while its 445 points and 481 pass attempts both rank second all-time. Furthermore, USU's 56 total touchdowns rank third all-time and its 31.7 points per game average ranks fifth all-time in school history.

Prior to joining Utah State, Weber spent six years as the offensive line coach at BYU (2007-12) and helped the Cougars to six bowl appearances and the 2007 Mountain West Championship. During his time at BYU, Weber coached six first-team all-Mountain West offensive linemen, including two All-Americans in Dallas Reynolds and Matt Reynolds.

Prior to his stint at BYU, Weber spent one season at North Carolina (2006) and two years at Fresno State (2004-05), where he mentored All-American Logan Mankins, a first-round pick of the New England Patriots and Cole Popovich, who was a Freshman All-American, along with Ryan Wendell, who is the starting center for New England.

Weber spent seven seasons at UCLA (1997-2003) prior to his stint at Fresno State, helping guide the Bruins to five bowl appearances, including the 1999 Rose Bowl and a pair of Pac-10 titles. At UCLA, he coached two first-team All-Americans, including Kris Farris, who won the 1998 Outland Trophy. He also mentored three Freshmen All-Americans and six players who garnered all-Pac-10 honors.

Before coaching at UCLA, Weber was UNLV's assistant head coach and offensive line coach from 1994-96 and helped the Rebels win the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl. He also served in the same capacity at Nevada in 1992-93, and coached Oregon State's offensive line from 1987-90 under Aggie alum Dave Kragthorpe, who is a former USU Athletics Director and current Special Assistant to the Head Coach at Utah State.

Weber got his coaching start as an assistant at Los Angeles Valley College in 1979 before spending two seasons as a graduate assistant at Idaho State from 1980-81, as the Bengals captured the 1981 NCAA Division I-AA national championship under Kragthorpe. He has also made coaching stops at Snow College (1982), Eastern New Mexico (1983-84), West Texas A&M (1985-86) and Missouri Western State College (1991).

The 57-year old Weber is a 1980 graduate of Cal Lutheran and earned a master's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981. He played offensive guard for two seasons at Cal Lutheran and was named an honorable mention Small College All-American at guard.

Weber and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Allie and KaCee.

JOSH HEUPEL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS
OKLAHOMA, 2001

First Season at Utah State

Josh Heupel, who has 10 years of coaching experience including four as a coordinator, is in his first year as Utah State's assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In all, Heupel has coached in 12 bowl games, including three BCS National Championship games, during his professional career and has been a part of six conference championships. He also was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy and led Oklahoma to the 2000 BCS National Championship as a senior quarterback.

Heupel comes to Utah State after spending the last nine years coaching at his alma mater, including serving as the Sooners' co-offensive coordinator, play-caller and quarterbacks coach the past four seasons, and their quarterbacks coach during his first five years.

During his time at Oklahoma, Heupel mentored numerous quarterbacks including Sam Bradford, who won the 2008 Heisman Trophy and was the No. 1 pick in the 2010 NFL Draft. Heupel also coached Landry Jones, who won the Sammy Baugh Award as the nation's top college passer in 2010, and Trevor Knight, who was the 2014 Sugar Bowl Most Valuable Player.

This past season, Oklahoma's offense led the nation in fewest sacks allowed (0.69 pg), and led the Big 12 and ranked 10th nationally by averaging 261.2 rushing yards per game, which is the best output by OU since 1991. OU also ranked third in the Big 12 and 20th in the nation in scoring (36.4 ppg), and fifth in the Big 12 and 23rd nationally in total offense (464.7 ypg), marking the eighth straight year the Sooners topped the 400-yard barrier.

With Heupel calling the signals of a balanced Oklahoma offensive attack in 2013, the Sooners led the Big 12 by averaging 223.9 rushing yards per game and averaged 423.0 yards of total offense. Despite three different quarterbacks seeing action over the course of the season, the Sooners registered an 11-2 campaign, culminating with a 45-31 win against Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. Oklahoma finished the 2013 campaign with a plus nine turnover differential and was plus 72 in points off turnovers in 2013, while also leading the Big 12 in time of possession (32:18).

In 2012, Oklahoma ranked fifth in the nation in passing (336.5 ypg) and 12th in total offense (497.9 ypg) as Jones became the Big 12's all-time leader in passing yards and total offense. Jones also finished his career third all-time in passing yards (16,646) and fifth all-time in touchdowns (123) in FBS history.

In 2011, Heupel's unit finished fourth nationally in both total offense (512.3 ypg) and passing offense (349.4 ypg). Jones ranked third in the nation in total offense in 2011 after finishing second in the nation in passing yards in 2010 when he won the Sammy Baugh Award as the nation's top college passer. Jones led all FBS freshmen with 26 touchdowns after Bradford was lost to injury in the 2009 season opener.

In 2008, Heupel tutored Bradford, who won the Heisman Trophy, Davy O'Brien and Sammy Baugh Awards, after throwing for 4,720 yards and 50 touchdowns with just eight interceptions and leading the nation in passing efficiency. Heupel also presided over an NCAA-record five straight 60-point games during the season.

Prior to being a full-time assistant at Oklahoma, Heupel spent the 2005 season as the tight ends coach at Arizona as the top two tight ends for the Wildcats combined for 31 receptions for 346 yards and eight touchdowns that season.

Heupel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma as he helped the Sooners to the 2004 (Sugar Bowl) and 2005 (Orange Bowl) national championship games.

Heupel, who prepped at Aberdeen (S.D.) High School, began his collegiate playing career at Weber State where he redshirted in 1996 and played in four games as a freshman in 1997. He then spent his sophomore season at Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he earned All-American honors as he passed for 2,308 yards and 28 touchdowns.

Heupel then spent his junior and senior seasons at Oklahoma, as he was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy as a senior in 2000 and led the Sooners to an undefeated regular season and a national championship victory against Florida State in the 2001 Orange Bowl. As a senior, Heupel was named the Associated Press Player of the Year, the Walter Camp Award winner, the Archie Griffin Award winner and a consensus All-American. Overall, Heupel was OU's first consensus All-America quarterback and first Oklahoma quarterback since 1971 to earn All-America honors.

During his two years at Oklahoma, Heupel posted a 20-5 record as the starting quarterback as he passed for 7,456 yards with 53 touchdowns. Overall, Heupel still ranks among the top three quarterbacks all-time in school history in passing yards (7,456), completions (654) and touchdowns passes (53) despite playing just two seasons.

Following his collegiate career, Heupel was drafted in the sixth round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Heupel earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Oklahoma in 2001. Heupel and his wife Dawn have one daughter, Hannah (7), and one son, Jace (5).

KEVIN CLUNE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / LINEBACKERS

CAL STATE FULLERTON, 2000

Sixth Season at Utah State Overall / First as Defensive Coordinator

Kevin Clune, who has 23 years of coaching experience, including seven as a coordinator, is in his first year as Utah State's defensive coordinator and sixth year overall with the program.

Clune spent the 2014 season as the defensive coordinator at Hawai'i as the Rainbow Warriors defense gave up 26.8 points and 418.2 yards per game, an improvement from the 2013 season, when Hawai'i allowed 38.8 points and 494.7 yards a game.

Clune previously spent five years at Utah State (2009-13) as its linebackers coach, helping the Aggies to three-straight bowl games and a 2012 Western Athletic Conference championship.

As Utah State's linebackers coach, Clune mentored all-conference linebackers Bobby Wagner, Jake Doughty, Kyler Fackrell and Zach Vigil. Wagner was a three-time first-team all-WAC selection and concluded his career with 446 tackles, ranking first all-time in league and school history.

During the 2013 season, Utah State's defense ranked first in the Mountain West and seventh in the nation in scoring, allowing just 17.1 points per game, the second-fewest by an Aggie defense since 1971. USU also ranked first in the MW and eighth in the nation in rushing defense (106.7 ypg), its fewest allowed since 1968, first in the MW and 12th in the nation in total defense (330.9 ypg), and first in the MW and 15th in the nation in passing efficiency defense (113.2).

Utah State's 2013 defense also ranked sixth in the nation in the red zone, allowing opponents to score just 68.9 percent of the time, including just 19 touchdowns, to rank second nationally. Furthermore, USU's defense ranked seventh in the nation in forcing three-and-outs with 5.6 per game, while its 7.6 tackles per loss per game ranked 10th nationally. USU's defense also ranked 11th nationally in third-down conversions at 32.6 percent.

Utah State's defense finished the 2013 season holding five of its final seven opponents to 14 or fewer points and did not give up more than 24 points in its last seven games. USU was also the only team in the nation not to allow a touchdown run of 10 or more yards in 2013, and allowed just two 100-yard rushers, while limiting its opponents to just 13 points following 16 turnovers.

During the 2012 season, Clune helped Utah State's defense rank among the top 15 in the nation in five different statistical categories, including being ranked first in the Western Athletic Conference and seventh in the nation in scoring defense (15.38 ppg). USU also ranked second in the WAC and tied for sixth nationally in sacks (3.23 pg), first in the WAC and 10th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (104.43), second in the WAC and 13th in the country in rushing defense (113.77 ypg), first in the WAC and 15th in the nation in total defense (322.08 ypg), and first in the WAC and 32nd in the nation in passing defense (208.31 ypg).

Utah State's defense also led the WAC and ranked second in the nation in red zone efficiency at 63.6 percent allowing just 13 touchdowns and 15 field goals on 44 trips inside the 20. USU's defense also ranked eighth in the nation forcing 5.08 three-and-outs per game in 2012, while ranking 21st nationally in third down efficiency at 32.88 percent (73-222).

In 2011, Clune helped Utah State lead the WAC in total defense (366.2 ypg), as well as ranking second in the league in both rushing defense (127.7 ypg) and tackles for loss (5.9 pg). The rushing defense also ranked 31st in the nation, an improvement of 57 spots from 2010, while the total defense's ranking was an improvement of 52 spots from its 2010 national ranking. The Aggies also were second in the WAC in opponent third-down conversions at 35.4 percent (69-of-195).

Clune came to Utah State after four years as Weber State's defensive coordinator (2005-08), helping the Wildcats to a share of the 2008 Big Sky Conference title and advancing to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs.

During the 2008 season, Clune's defense was fourth in the Big Sky in total defense (363.9 ypg), as well as leading the Big Sky in pass defense (208.4 ypg). Weber State also led the league in pass efficiency defense (109.4), which ranked 17th in FCS.

Under Clune, Weber State's defense was ranked second in the Big Sky in both 2006 and 2007. The 2007 Wildcat defense yielded an average of just 348.4 yards per game. WSU also ranked first in the league in pass defense (212.2 ypg) and third in rushing defense (136.2 ypg). During his tenure at WSU, Clune coached 15 all-Big Sky Conference winners, including nine in 2008 and a second-team All-America in 2005 in Brady Fosmark.

Clune also served as defensive coordinator at Southern Utah in 2003 and 2004. While at SUU, Clune mentored outside linebacker Nick DiPadova, who was a second-team All-American in 2004 and earned honorable mention honors in 2003, while Marques Harris earned third-team All-American accolades in 2004.

Clune was a graduate assistant coach on the Utah staff in 2001 and 2002 working with both the running backs and linebackers. He also spent time on the football staffs at Occidental College and Fullerton Junior College coaching the defensive line and linebackers, as well as the special teams coordinator. Clune also coached at Dos Pueblos High School and Palma High School in California.

Clune was a defensive lineman at Fullerton JC for one year and spent one season at the University of San Diego. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Cal State Fullerton in 2000.

DAVE UNGERER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR / RUNNING BACKS

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE, 1980

Third Season at Utah State

Dave Ungerer, who has 28 years of coaching experience and has been involved in seven bowl games, is in his third season as Utah State's special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

In his first two seasons at Utah State, the Aggies have posted a 19-9 record, including a 13-3 Mountain West mark, and notched bowl wins against No. 24 Northern Illinois (21-14) in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and against UTEP (21-6) in the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

At Utah State, Ungerer has coached one of the best punt returners in the nation in former Aggie wide receiver JoJo Natson, who returned four punts for touchdowns, which is tied for the Mountain West and USU record. This past season, Natson ranked tied for third nationally with two punt returns for touchdowns and 10th in punt returns (11.7 ypr) as he earned first-team all-league honors.

Over the past two years, Utah State's special teams have been among the best in the country with five blocked kicks, while ranking second nationally in punt return defense (1.30 ypr) and fifth in kickoff return defense (17.58 ypr) in 2013 and 12th nationally in both punt return defense (3.45 ypr) and kickoff return defense (17.55 ypr) in 2014.

During his first season at Utah State, Ungerer coached running back Joey DeMartino and Natson to honorable mention all-Mountain West honors. DeMartino finished the 2013 season rushing for 1,221 yards, to rank 12th all-time in school history, marking the fourth time in five years that USU had a 1,000-yard rusher.

In 2014, Utah State had three players rush for at least 450 yards in freshman LaJuan Hunt (540), senior Joe Hill (507) and Natson (498), marking just the second time in school history that feat has been accomplished. USU also went over 2,000 yards rushing collectively for the sixth-straight year under Ungerer as it finished the season with 2,521 yards on the ground.

Prior to joining Utah State's staff, Ungerer was the special teams coordinator and running backs coach at Washington State in 2010 and 2011. During his first season at WSU, he improved the Cougars' kickoff coverage unit from ranking 120th to first nationally.

Prior to Washington State, Ungerer spent the 2009 season at Elon University. As special teams coordinator, his units ranked among the top 50 in four categories, including fifth in kickoff coverage (17.06 ypr).

From 2007-08, Ungerer served as the special teams coordinator at Oregon State and helped the Beavers to back-to-back bowl appearances in the Emerald and Sun Bowls.

In his first season at OSU, he worked with all-conference placekicker Alexis Serna, who ended his career as the school's all-time leading scorer and the Pac-10 record-holder with 144 consecutive extra point conversions. Furthermore, the Beaver kickoff coverage team ranked first in the Pac-10 and fifth nationally. In 2008, he coached all-league first-team punt returner Sammie Stroughter and second-team kick returner James Rodgers. As a unit overall, the Beavers ranked first in the conference in kickoff coverage (18.7 ypr) and third in kickoff returns (23.4 ypr).

While at Oregon State, Ungerer coached Johnny Hekker who is the punter for the St. Louis Rams and recruited Ryan Allen, who was a two-time Ray Guy Award winner and All-American at Louisiana Tech, and is currently the punter for the New England Patriots.

Prior to Oregon State, Ungerer spent four seasons at Alabama (2003-06) as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach helping the Crimson Tide finish the 2005 season ranked eighth in the final AP Poll with a 10-2 record, which included a Cotton Bowl win. During his tenure at UA, the Crimson Tide blocked 13 kicks and returned five punts and two kickoffs for touchdowns. While at Alabama, he coached all-Southeastern Conference punt returners Javier Arenas and Tyrone Prothro.

Ungerer's first stint in the Pac-10 came in 2002 when he spent one season as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at California. At Cal, kickoff returner LaShaun Ward ranked third in the nation in average returns, while Mike McGrath and placekicker Mark Jenkins earned all-conference honors. In addition, Cal's kickoff return team was third in the nation.

Ungerer also spent five years at Maryland (1992-1996), where he coached 1993 honorable mention All-American punter Scott Milanovich. He began his Maryland career as the strength coach before becoming special teams coordinator and running backs coach, a position he held for three years.

Ungerer was at Holy Cross from 1988-91, where the program won three-straight Patriot League titles and compiled a 39-4-1 record, including a perfect 11-0 ledger in 1991.

Ungerer has also coached at Davidson (1986-87), Northeastern (1985) and served as a graduate assistant at Rutgers (1983-84).

The Edison, N.J., native is a 1980 graduate of Southern Connecticut State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health. Ungerer has three sons, Dominic, David and Dante.

LUKE WELLS

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / TIGHT ENDS / RECRUITING COORDINATOR
OKLAHOMA, 2002

Third Season at Utah State

Luke Wells is in his third season as Utah State's co-offensive coordinator, tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

In his first two seasons at Utah State, the Aggies have posted a 19-9 record, including a 13-3 Mountain West mark, and notched bowl wins against No. 24 Northern Illinois (21-14) in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and against UTEP (21-6) in the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

In 2014, Utah State's tight end combination of senior Jefferson Court and sophomore Wyatt Houston combined to catch 25 passes for 204 yards (8.2 ypr) with five touchdowns. Houston finished the year ranking fifth on the team in both receptions (19) and yards (178), while Court ranked tied for second on the team in receiving touchdowns (3).

Following the 2014 season, Court was the 37th player selected in the 2015 Canadian Football League Draft by the Ottawa Redblacks.

During the 2013 season, Wells was part of an Aggie offense that set school records for pass completions (297), total offensive plays (1,073), touchdown passes (30) and first downs (310), while its 445 points scored and 481 pass attempts both rank second all-time. Furthermore, USU's 56 total touchdowns rank third all-time and its 31.7 points per game average ranks fifth all-time in school history.

Utah State's tight ends also set the single-season school record for touchdown receptions in 2013 with nine as D.J. Tialavea and Keegan Andersen each had three, while Houston had two and Kyler Fackrell had one. The previous record was seven set in 1993.

As tight ends coach, Wells mentored Tialavea, who was invited and participated in the 2014 NFL Combine and signed a free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL despite missing the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL despite missing the final eight games of the season due to injury.

Prior to joining Utah State's staff, Wells spent four seasons at Iowa State (2009-12) working with the tight ends for two years after coaching the wide receivers during his first two seasons. Wells also helped the Cyclones to back-to-back bowl games as they played in the 2011 New Era Pinstripe Bowl against Rutgers and the 2012 Auto Zone Liberty Bowl against Tulsa.

At Iowa State, Wells mentored Cyclone tight end Ernst Brun, who earned honorable mention all-Big 12 honors as he caught 26 passes for 330 yards (25.4 ypg) with six touchdowns. Brun was also named ISU's Offensive Player of the Game at the Auto Zone Liberty Bowl as he had four receptions for 102 yards, which included a 69-yard touchdown. Brun was invited to the Oakland Raiders camp following his senior season.

As wide receivers coach at Iowa State during the 2009 and 2010 seasons, Wells coached wide receivers Darius Darks and Darius Reynolds, who finished their careers combining for 208 receptions for 2,396 yards and 16 touchdowns. Wells also coached Josh Lenz who had 96 receptions for 1,213 yards and 10 touchdowns during his ISU career. Lenz is now with the Cleveland Browns in the NFL.

Prior to his stint at Iowa State, Wells spent six years at Louisiana-Monroe serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2003 before being elevated to a full-time assistant coach from 2004-08. During his last two years at ULM, Wells served as the Warhawks' recruiting coordinator, as well as wide receivers coach, and helped bring in the highest-rated recruiting classes in school history.

The Louisiana-Monroe offense posted the highest scoring average in the school's NCAA FBS history in 2008 as Warhawk wide receiver Anthony McCall set a school record for freshman touchdown receptions that season.

Wells took over the wide receivers at ULM in 2007 and mentored all-Sun Belt second-team selection LaGregory Sapp, who led the league in yards per reception with 19.6 on 40 catches for 784 yards. In all, Warhawk receivers caught 16 touchdown passes that year.

In 2004 and 2005, Wells worked with the tight ends and all-Sun Belt first-teamer Joey Trappey, who was the top receiving tight end in the conference with 42 receptions for 425 yards.

Prior to ULM, Wells coached wide receivers at Denton High School in Texas, helping his team win the 2002 bi-district title.

Before that, Wells was a student assistant at Oklahoma from 1999-2001 as the Sooners won the 2000 Big 12 Conference crown and national title. Wells worked under several outstanding coaches during his time at OU including Bob Stoops, Mike Leach and Mark Mangino.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in secondary education in 2002 and did graduate work at ULM. He is married to the former Coby Groves and the couple has one son, Walker (8), and one daughter, Kinsley (6). His brother, Matt, is USU's head football coach.

JOVON BOUKNIGHT

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR / WIDE RECEIVERS
WYOMING, 2006

Seventh Season at Utah State

Jovon Bouknight (Juh-vonn Bo-night) is entering his seventh season with Utah State and his sixth year as wide receivers coach after serving as the team's offensive graduate assistant in 2009. Bouknight was named USU's passing game coordinator in 2014.

During his last four years at Utah State, Bouknight has been part of a Utah State program that has played in four-straight bowl games and won three-straight bowls, both of which are school records, while posting a 37-17 record.

In 2014, Bouknight coached a pair of all-Mountain West receivers in juniors JoJo Natson and Hunter Sharp as both players earned honorable mention honors. Sharp finished the season with 66 receptions, which ranks tied for ninth all-time in school history for a single-season, for 939 yards, which is the most by an Aggie receiver since 2002. Furthermore, Sharp had four-straight 100-yard receiving games as a junior, which is the most by an Aggie since 2002. Natson added 51 catches for 504 yards to give him 127 career receptions for 1,031 yards as he ranks 11th all-time in school history in receptions and 32nd in receiving yards.

During the 2013 season, Bouknight was part of an Aggie offense that set school records for pass completions (297), total offensive plays (1,073), touchdown passes (30) and first downs (310), while its 445 points scored and 481 pass attempts both rank second all-time. Furthermore, USU's 56 total touchdowns rank third all-time and its 31.7 points per game average ranks fifth all-time in school history.

In 2012, Bouknight mentored two all-Western Athletic Conference performers in Matt Austin and Chuck Jacobs as Austin earned second-team honors and Jacobs earned honorable mention accolades. Jacobs is currently in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers.

During the 2012 season, Bouknight helped coach an Aggie offense that set single-season school records for total points (454), total offense (6,108 yards), completions (285) and total yards per game (469.8), while ranking second all-time in points per game (34.9) and total passing yards (3,445).

Nationally, Utah State's 2012 offense ranked second in the WAC and 23rd in the country in total offense (469.8 ypg), second in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (153.21), second in the WAC and 25th in the nation in rushing offense (204.8 ypg), third in the WAC and 31st in the nation in sacks allowed (1.38 pg), third in the WAC and 33rd in the nation in scoring offense (34.9 ppg), and third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in passing offense (265.0 ypg).

In 2011, USU's offense was statistically one of the best in the country as it led the WAC and ranked sixth in the nation in rushing offense (282.69 ypg). USU also ranked first in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (151.8), first in the WAC and 23rd in the nation in scoring offense (33.62 ppg), and second in the WAC and 20th in the nation in total offense (457.31 ypg).

Bouknight came to Utah State after one season at his alma mater of Wyoming, where he was an offensive graduate assistant, working with UW's wide receivers.

Bouknight concluded his college career ranked No. 20 in NCAA history in both career receiving yards (3,626) and career receptions (250). After graduating from Wyoming in the spring of 2006, Bouknight signed a NFL free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers and went to camp with the Panthers in the summer of 2006. He later played in NFL Europe in the summer of 2007, before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers later that summer and attended camp with Tampa Bay in 2007.

During his senior season at Wyoming, he was one of 15 semifinalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the nation's top college receiver each season. He also earned honorable mention All-America honors from College Football News in 2005, along with earning first-team all-Mountain West honors. The College Football News also selected him to its all-Mountain West first-team. For the 2005 season, he ranked No. 9 in the NCAA in average receiving yards per game (101.45 ypg), No. 15 in total receiving yards (1,116), No. 10 in all-purpose yards (160.45), No. 12 in average receptions per game (7.00), and No. 11 in kickoff returns (27.75). He concluded his career ranked No. 2 in Mountain West history in both receptions (250) and receiving yards (3,626).

In Wyoming school history, Bouknight ranks No. 3 in career receiving yards behind former All-Americans Marcus Harris (No. 1 with 4,518 receiving yards from 1993-96) and Ryan Yarbrough (No. 2 with 4,446 from 1990-93). Harris was the 1996 Biletnikoff Award winner. Bouknight ranks No. 2 in school history in career receptions (250), trailing only Harris with 259. Bouknight also completed his career as Wyoming's all-time all-purpose yardage leader (5,921 yards) and career kickoff return leader (2,016 yards). He caught at least one pass in 47 consecutive games, which was also every game of his college career and a UW school record up until 2014. He actually caught at least two passes in each of those 47 career games.

A native of Denver, Colo., Bouknight was an outstanding quarterback at Manual High School in Denver. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and health promotion from Wyoming in 2006.

Bouknight is married to the former Jeanine Hernandez, who is a former USU softball player.

JOE LORIG

SAFETIES
WESTERN OREGON, 1997

Second Season at Utah State

Joe Lorig, who has 18 years of coaching experience, including eight years as a defensive coordinator and two years as a special teams coordinator, is in his second season at Utah State and first year as safeties coach after coaching the Aggie linebackers in 2014.

In his first season at Utah State, Lorig helped Utah State to the second-most wins in school history with its 10-4 record and its third-straight bowl win with a 21-6 victory against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

During the 2014 season, Lorig coached a pair of Aggie linebackers to first-team all-Mountain West honors in Zach Vigil and Nick Vigil. Zach Vigil was also named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and a second-team All-American by USA Today Sports, as well as earning All-America honors from three other organizations. Zach Vigil concluded his senior season with 156 tackles, which included 9.0 sacks and 20.5 tackles for loss as he ranked seventh nationally in tackles (11.1 pg) and 13th in tackles for loss (1.46 pg).

Utah State's defense finished the 2014 season ranking among the top 30 in the nation in 10 categories, including ranking first in the Mountain West and 12th in the nation in scoring defense at 19.7 points per game. USU also ranked first in the MW and fourth nationally in both sacks (3.57 pg) and tackles for loss (8.1 pg), second in the MW and eighth in the nation in passes intercepted (19), second in the MW and ninth in the nation in defensive touchdowns (5), second in the MW and 11th in the nation in turnovers forced (30), second in the MW and 17th nationally in passing efficiency defense (111.42), first in the MW and 24th in the nation in rushing defense (130.7 ypg), second in the MW and 25th in the nation in opponents third down conversion percentage (.358), and second in the MW and 30th nationally in total defense (356.1 ypg).

Lorig came to Utah State after spending two seasons at Arizona State where he served as the Sun Devils' special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach.

In 2013, Lorig coached two cornerbacks who earned various Pac-12 accolades, in Robert Nelson (first team), who finished the year ranking 19th in the nation in interceptions (0.4 pg), and Osahon Irabor (second team). The ASU defense finished the season ranking third in the nation with 21 interceptions.

Lorig also coached placekicker Zane Gonzalez to Freshman All-American honors in 2013. Gonzalez finished the season ranking first in the Pac-12 and fifth in the nation in field goals per game (1.8) and 29th in the nation in field goal percentage (.833), while his 25 made field goals tied the NCAA freshman record.

In 2012, Lorig coached a pair of Pac-12 honorable mention cornerbacks in Irabor and Deveron Carr as the duo combined for 21 passes defended helping Arizona State rank third in the nation in pass defense (167.9 ypg).

Under Lorig, punter Josh Hubner set the school record, led the Pac-12 and was second in the nation for yards per punt (47.1) in 2012. Hubner was named to numerous All-America teams, including Lindy's (third team) and Sports Illustrated (honorable mention).

Prior to joining the Sun Devils staff, Lorig was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Central Washington for four seasons (2008-11).

During his time at Central Washington, the Wildcats posted a 34-12 record and won three Great Northwest Athletic Conference Championships, to go along with two appearances in the NCAA Division II playoffs. Lorig, whose Wildcat defense routinely placed among the top 10 nationally in total defense, was named the 2010 American Football Coaches Association Division II Assistant Coach of the Year.

In 2009, his defense led the NCAA Division II in scoring defense (11.9 ppg), ranked third nationally in rushing defense (58.6 ypg) and fourth in total defense (249.3 ypg), earning him a spot as a finalist for the FootballScoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year. His efforts helped the Wildcats finish the year at 12-1, earn a No. 1 national ranking and advance to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

In 2007, Lorig served as the linebackers coach at UTEP. Prior to UTEP, Lorig spent eight seasons as an assistant at Idaho State, including serving as defensive coordinator from 2003-06.

Lorig's coaching career began as an assistant at Western Oregon, where he helped guide his alma mater to the 1997 Columbia Football Association Championship and a berth in the NAIA postseason.

A two-time all-Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges honoree at cornerback at Walla Walla Community College, Lorig played his final two years at Western Oregon, where he was a team captain.

During his coaching career, Lorig has mentored several professional players, including Jared Allen, an NFL All-Pro defensive end; Pago Togafau, who has been a member of four NFL teams; Jeff Charleston, who has been a member of three NFL teams; Adam Bighill, a Division II All-American who was a rookie for Grey Cup champion British Columbia in 2011; Deveron Carr, who played for Tampa Bay in 2013 and Robert Nelson who plays for Cleveland.

Lorig earned both his bachelor's degree in law enforcement (1995) and his master's degree in correctional administration (1997) from Western Oregon. A native of Edmonds, Wash., his family includes his wife, Becky, and children: son, Tyler (6), and daughters, Jordan (8) and Emma (4).

IKAIKA MALLOE

DEFENSIVE LINE
WASHINGTON, 1996

Second Season at Utah State

Ikaika Malloe (ee-KEYE-ka ma-LOY), who has 14 years of coaching experience including three years as a defensive coordinator and six years as a special teams coordinator, is in his second season as Utah State's defensive line coach.

In his first season at Utah State, Malloe helped Utah State to the second-most wins in school history with its 10-4 record and its third-straight bowl win with a 21-6 victory against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

During the 2014 season, Malloe coached three defensive linemen to all-Mountain West honors in B.J. Larsen (first team), Jordan Nielsen (honorable mention) and Elvis Kamauna Matagi (honorable mention).

Utah State's defense finished the 2014 season ranking among the top 30 in the nation in 10 categories, including ranking first in the Mountain West and 12th in the nation in scoring defense at 19.7 points per game. USU also ranked first in the MW and fourth nationally in both sacks (3.57 pg) and tackles for loss (8.1 pg), second in the MW and eighth in the nation in passes intercepted (19), second in the MW and ninth in the nation in defensive touchdowns (5), second in the MW and 11th in the nation in turnovers forced (30), second in the MW and 17th nationally in passing efficiency defense (111.42), first in the MW and 24th in the nation in rushing defense (130.7 ypg), second in the MW and 25th in the nation in opponents third down conversion percentage (.358), and second in the MW and 30th nationally in total defense (356.1 ypg).

Malloe came to Utah State after spending two seasons at Portland State, where he served as the Vikings' special teams coordinator and defensive tackles coach.

During the 2013 season at Portland State, Malloe helped coach a Vikings defense that held seven teams to less than 100 yards rushing, and recorded 91.0 tackles for loss and 27.0 sacks. Malloe also mentored a pair of honorable mention all-Big Sky Conference defensive tackles in Joe Lopez and Junior Alexis.

As special teams coordinator, Portland State's 2013 special teams featured the nation's top punter in All-American Kyle Loomis who averaged 46.5 yards per kick, and the Vikings led the nation in net punting (41.71 ypk). The Vikings also blocked seven kicks and punts, and held opponents to a Big Sky Conference low 14.9 yards per kick return, which ranked second in the nation. In addition, kick returner Nate Tago and special teamer Hayden Plinke earned honorable mention all-Big Sky accolades.

In 2012, Malloe's group of defensive tackles helped hold five Big Sky schools to 86 rushing yards or less, including zero rushing yards by national semifinalist Eastern Washington. Malloe also coached three players to honorable mention all-Big Sky honors in defensive tackle Dereck Jester, kicker Zach Brown and kick returner Nevin Lewis.

Prior to working at Portland State, Malloe spent three years as the defensive coordinator at Yale (2009-11).

In 2008, he was the special teams coordinator and defensive tackles coach at Hawai'i, helping the Rainbow Warriors to an appearance in the Sheraton Hawaii Bowl.

From 2004-07, Malloe served as the defensive line coach at UTEP, helping the Miners to the 2005 GMAC Bowl.

Malloe also spent three years as the special teams coordinator and defensive line coach at Western Illinois as he helped the Leathernecks win the 2002 Gateway Conference Championship along with back-to-back quarterfinal appearances in the FCS Playoffs.

Malloe began his coaching career at his alma mater, Washington, as a student assistant, graduate assistant and program coordinator.

A 1996 graduate of Washington, Malloe earned numerous awards as a Husky defensive back. He was named the 1992 Stapp Memorial Award recipient (most inspirational on team), earned the team's hardest hitter honor for three straight years, won the 1993 Jarvis Award, was named most improved defensive back in 1994 and was named player of the week by USA Today in 1995.

A native of Waimanaio, Hawaii, Malloe and his wife Tara have three children, sons Jordan and Isaiah, and daughter, Taylor.

KENDRICK SHAVER

DEFENSIVE PASSING GAME COORDINATOR / CORNERBACKS
MISSOURI STATE, 2002

Fifth Season at Utah State

Kendrick Shaver is entering his fifth season as cornerbacks coach at Utah State and was promoted to defensive passing game coordinator in 2014.

During his last four years at Utah State, Shaver has been part of an Aggie program that has played in four-straight bowl games and won three-straight bowls, both of which are school records, while posting a 37-17 record.

During the 2014 season, Shaver coached Jalen Davis, who earned True Freshman All-American honors from 247Sports.

Utah State's defense finished the 2014 season ranking among the top 30 in the nation in 10 categories, including ranking first in the Mountain West and 12th in the nation in scoring defense at 19.7 points per game. USU also ranked first in the MW and fourth nationally in both sacks (3.57 pg) and tackles for loss (8.1 pg), second in the MW and eighth in the nation in passes intercepted (19), second in the MW and ninth in the nation in defensive touchdowns (5), second in the MW and 11th in the nation in turnovers forced (30), second in the MW and 17th nationally in passing efficiency defense (111.42), first in the MW and 24th in the nation in rushing defense (130.7 ypg), second in the MW and 25th in the nation in opponents third down conversion percentage (.358), and second in the MW and 30th nationally in total defense (356.1 ypg).

In 2013, Shaver helped the Aggies' defense rank first in the Mountain West and seventh in the nation in scoring allowing just 17.1 points per game, the second-fewest allowed by an Aggie defense since 1971. USU also ranked first in the MW and eighth in the nation in rushing defense (106.7 ypg), its fewest since 1968, first in the MW and 12th in the nation in total defense (330.9 ypg), and first in the MW and 15th in the nation in passing efficiency defense (113.2).

Utah State's 2013 defense also ranked sixth in the nation in the red zone, allowing opponents to score just 68.9 percent of the time, including just 19 touchdowns, to rank second nationally.

Highlighting Utah State's defense in 2013 was senior cornerback Nevin Lawson, who was named a third-team All-American by College Sports Madness and a first-team all-Mountain West selection. Lawson was selected in the fourth round (133rd pick) of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions, while Tay Glover-Wright is currently with the Green Bay Packers after signing as a free agent with the Atlanta Falcons.

During his senior season, Lawson ranked third in the Mountain West and 25th in the nation with 1.21 passes defended per game and finished the season ranking first on the team with 13 pass breakups and second overall with four interceptions as he was named the Mountain West's Defensive Player of the Week twice.

Shaver, who was named FootballScoop.com's Co-Defensive Backs National Coach of the Year in 2012, mentored a pair of all-Western Athletic Conference defensive backs, including one All-American in Will Davis, who was named a third-team All-America by CBSsports.com, a fourth-team All-America by Phil Steele, and an honorable mention All-America by SI.com. Davis was selected in the third round (93rd pick) of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

During the 2012 season, Shaver helped Utah State's defense rank first in the WAC and seventh in the nation in scoring defense (15.38 ppg), second in the WAC and tied for sixth nationally in sacks (3.23 pg), first in the WAC and 10th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (104.43), second in the WAC and 13th in the country in rushing defense (113.77 ypg), first in the WAC and 15th in the nation in total defense (322.08 ypg), and first in the WAC and 32nd in the nation in passing defense (208.31 ypg).

Utah State's defense also led the WAC and ranked second in the nation in red zone efficiency at 63.6 percent allowing just 13 touchdowns and 15 field goals on 44 trips inside the 20.

During his first year at Utah State in 2011, Shaver's cornerbacks helped anchor an Aggie defense that finished the year ranking first in the WAC and 50th in the nation in total defense (366.23 ypg), second in the WAC and 31st in the nation in rushing defense (127.70 ypg), second in the WAC and 53rd nationally in tackles for loss (5.92 pg), third in the WAC and 48th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (125.58), and third in the WAC and 59th in the nation in sacks (1.92 pg).

Under Shaver, Utah State's cornerbacks had three of the top five tacklers on the team in 2011 led by Lawson and Jumanne Robertson, who ranked fourth and fifth on the team in stops with 73 and 48, respectively. Robertson ended the season leading the team with 12 pass breakups, while Lawson was second with 10. Lawson also had one interception and one fumble recovery in 2011.

Prior to joining Utah State's staff, Shaver spent four years (2007-10) as the secondary coach at Northern Colorado. Shaver was also the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M (2006), and defensive and special teams graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (2004-05). He began his coaching career at Hillcrest (Mo.) High School, where he coached defensive backs and wide receivers in 2002.

A native of Eufaula, Okla., Shaver played two seasons (1998-99) at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College before transferring to Missouri State, where he was a free safety and cornerback in 2000 and 2001. With 11 pass breakups in 2001, Shaver is presently tied for No. 6 on MSU's single-season pass defense list. Shaver spent the 2003 season playing for the Sioux Falls Storm of the NIFL before committing to coaching full-time.

Shaver, who graduated from Missouri State with a bachelor's degree in business in 2002 and went on to earn his master's degree in physical education in 2005 from Eastern Kentucky, served an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Oakland Raiders during their 2014 training camp.

WAQA DAMUNI

Assistant AD for Football Operations
Utah State, 1998
Third Year at Utah State

Waqa Damuni (Wonga Da-moo-knee) is in his third season at Utah State, serving as an Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations. In his current role, Damuni oversees the day-to-day operations of the football program.

His responsibilities include the overall management of the football budget, team travel, bowl game coordination and community outreach. Other duties include game day management, the coordination and planning of team events and special projects related to the football program.

Damuni, a former tight end and three-year letterwinner at Utah State from 1996-98, helped the Aggies win back-to-back Big West Conference championships, including a trip to the inaugural Humanitarian Bowl in 1997.

Damuni returned to Utah State after spending five years as the Director of Academic Support for Razorback student-athletes at Arkansas.

In all, Damuni spent 10 years in athletic academics at the Division I level at Arkansas, Colorado and Memphis, tracking NCAA initial and continuing eligibility, coordinating the academic affairs for student-athletes and assisting the coaching staff with on-campus recruiting and day-to-day operations.

Damuni was a counselor for the State of Utah Juvenile Justice Services in Logan from 1998-2001, serving in different capacities including detention, family crisis intervention and community outreach services. He also served as a liaison between the Juvenile Justice Services and the Hispanic community in the Cache Valley area. He is fluent in Spanish after serving an LDS Church Mission in Monterrey, Mexico.

Damuni, who began his collegiate career at Dixie State in St. George, Utah, earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees from Utah State, as he received his bachelor of arts degree in sociology in 1998 with minors in social work and Spanish. He went on to earn a master's degree in business information systems in 2005. He then graduated from the NCAA Ethnic Minority Leadership Institute in 2010.

A native of Laie, Hawaii, Damuni is married to the former Val Tonga of Millbrae, Calif. They have seven children - Emosi, Levani, Junior, Jovesa, Lavinia, Lusiana and Damien.

DAVE KRAGTHORPE

Special Assistant to the Head Coach
Utah State, 1954
Third Year at Utah State

Dave Kragthorpe is in his third season as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach at Utah State. Overall, Kragthorpe spent 10 years as a collegiate head coach at South Dakota State, Idaho State and Oregon State.

Kragthorpe began his coaching career as an assistant at Idaho Falls (Idaho) High School and later the head coach at Roosevelt (Mich.) High School. He also spent time as an assistant at the collegiate level at Montana, South Dakota State and BYU.

Kragthorpe's first head coaching job was at South Dakota State in 1969, before serving as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for LaVell Edwards at BYU from 1970-79.

Kragthorpe then spent the next three years as head coach at Idaho State where he compiled a 21-14 record. In 1981, he led the Bengals to a 12-1 record and Big Sky Conference Championship and the NCAA Division I-AA Football Championship as ISU outscored its opponents 422-172 during the season.

In 1983, Kragthorpe stepped away from coaching and became the Athletics Director at Utah State.

Kragthorpe returned to coaching in 1985 as the head coach at Oregon State and was named the Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1989.

In 1994, Kragthorpe was hired by the Utah State Alumni Association to resurrect the university's alumni chapters program.

Kragthorpe attended Utah State where he excelled as a two-way tackle for the Aggies from 1951 to 1954. In addition, he was also on the baseball team. Despite all his athletic obligations, Kragthorpe graduated with double bachelor's degrees in physical education and social science in 1955. A short time later, he returned to Utah State and earned his master's degree in secondary school administration.

Kragthorpe is a member of the Old Main Society, Alumni Sustaining Membership program, Big Blue Scholarship Fund Touchdown Club and the Emeriti Association. In 2005, he received the Distinguished Alumnus Award and in 2009, he was inducted into the Utah State Athletic Hall of Fame.

Kragthorpe and his wife Barbara have two sons, Kurt and Steve. Kurt is a sports writer with the Salt Lake Tribune, while Steve is a member of the football staff at LSU.

Oklahoma, 2008
First Year at USU

Joey Halzle (pronounced Halls-lee) is in his first year with Utah State's football program as a graduate assistant coach for the Aggies' offense. In his role, Halzle will assist the offensive coaches with daily operations.

Halzle comes to Utah State after spending the past six seasons working for Oklahoma's football program, where he helped the Sooners compile a 59-19 overall record and two Big 12 championships. Halzle was an offensive graduate assistant for OU from 2012-14, assisting former Sooners offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Josh Heupel, who is also in his first season at USU. From 2009-11, Halzle worked under former Oklahoma offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson as the Sooners' offensive quality control coach.

During his six seasons with the Sooners, Halzle's responsibilities included assisting in the development of quarterbacks, wide receivers and tight ends. He also assisted in the evaluation and recruitment of prospects, and in weekly game planning. Halzle created signals for new plays and schemes, observed defensive tendencies during games, broke down and evaluated opponent film and scripted defensive looks for offensive practices. In addition, he also ran defensive scout team meetings and practices, as well as special teams scout team practice.

While at Oklahoma, Halzle helped coach a number of players who were drafted by NFL teams, including wide receiver Ryan Broyles, running back DeMarco Murray, quarterback Sam Bradford, tight end Jermaine Gresham, wide receiver Kenny Stills and offensive tackle Lane Johnson.

Prior to joining the Sooners' coaching staff, Halzle was a three-year letterwinner and member of three Big 12 championships teams as a quarterback for Oklahoma from 2006-08. In his three seasons as a player, Halzle completed 53-of-83 pass attempts for 640 yards and four touchdowns.

As a senior in 2008, Halzle helped Oklahoma to a 12-2 record and appearance in the BCS National championship game.

Before joining the Sooners, Halzle threw for nearly 2,100 yards and 13 touchdowns in 10 games as a true freshman in 2005 at Golden West College in his hometown of Huntington Beach, Calif.

Halzle, who prepped at Oaks Christian High School in Westlake Village, Calif., graduated from Oklahoma in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in human relations. He then graduated from OU in 2014 with his master's degree in administrative leadership.

BRAD VONNAHME

Defense/Special Teams Administrative Assistant
Utah State, 2011
First Year at USU

Brad Vonnahme (Vuh-nah-me) is in his first season as an administrative assistant for Utah State and in his third year with the program. In his role, Vonnahme assists with the daily operations of the defense and special teams. Duties include film breakdown, compilation of reports, assisting defensive coordinator Kevin Clune, as well as special teams coordinator Dave Ungerer, and any other administrative duties as assigned by the head coach or position coaches.

Vonnahme comes to Utah State after spending one year as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i.

Prior to Hawai'i, Vonnahme was the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Midland University in Fremont, Neb. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning program. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant at Wayne State College in Wayne, Neb., from 2011-12.

Previously, Vonnahme spent two years at Utah State (2009-10) as the defensive/staff administrative assistant as his duties included film breakdown, preparing scouting reports, and running the scout teams.

From 2006-08, Vonnahme served as a student manager at Nebraska before transferring to USU, where he earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 2011. He also earned a master's degree in sport management from Wayne State in 2013.

Vonnahme is a native of Omaha, Neb., and his wife's name is Ashley. He played linebacker and running back at Mount Michael Benedictine High School.

MIKE BAIR

Director of Equipment Operations
Utah State, 1995
19th Year at Utah State

Entering his 19th year as the athletic department's supervisor of athletic equipment is Mike Bair, who joined the staff in August, 1997.

In his role, Bair services all 16 sports with athletic equipment, uniforms and clothing, while also supervising student managers for many of the sports. He served on the Schutt Sports Athletic Council from 2003-05.

In January, 2010, Bair was named the District 8 Athletic Equipment Managers of America (AEMA) Equipment Manager of the Year.

A native of Lewiston, Utah, Bair, who was born Aug. 20, 1966, graduated from Sky View High School in Smithfield, Utah, and Utah State with a business management degree in 1995.

Prior to coming to Utah State, Bair worked in the sporting goods industry doing retail and team sales.

He and his wife, the former Michelle Parker, have three children, Makayla (21), Nick (19) and Adelynn (11).

BILL GARREN

Video Coordinator
Idaho State, 2002
10th Year at Utah State

Bill Garren is in his 10th year as the video coordinator for the Utah State athletics department.

Garren is responsible for managing all aspects of athletic video and editing within the athletics department, which includes training and supervising a staff of student assistants to shoot all the football practices and games along with men's and women's basketball games. His responsibilities also include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the video room and assisting with the video needs of USU's 16 intercollegiate sports. Garren also provides technical support and training for coaches and support staff.

Garren has been voted the Video Coordinator of the Year a total of five times in the Mountain West (2013) and Western Athletic Conference (2009-12) by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA).

Prior to his current role at Utah State, Garren served as the video coordinator at Idaho State in 2000 and 2001, before moving to San Jose State for the 2002 season. He was then an assistant football and track coach at his high school in Montrose, Colo., in 2003 before spending the 2004 and 2005 seasons as video coordinator at Idaho State.

Garren earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 2005.

Garren, who was born April 3, 1976 in Grand Junction, Colo., was an all-conference football player at Montrose High School. He played two seasons at Ricks College (currently BYU-Idaho) and then one season at Idaho State before beginning his video career. He and his wife Melinda have three children: Maia (17), Milly (12) and Tyler (7).

DAVE SCHOLZ

Strength & Conditioning
Head Coach
UW-Milwaukee, 2004
Third Year at Utah State

Dave Scholz is in his third season as Utah State's strength and conditioning head coach and in his sixth year overall with the athletics department.

Scholz came to Utah State after spending the 2012 season in the National Football League as a strength, nutrition and conditioning assistant with the San Francisco 49ers. In that position, Scholz was responsible for the programming for quarterbacks and kickers, as well as all the nutritional aspects of the team, including meal planning. Scholz spent the 2011 season as the 49ers strength and conditioning intern.

Prior to joining the 49ers, Scholz served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Utah State for three years (2008-10), where he assisted in all matters of football and served as the head of sports nutrition. He also was the lead strength and conditioning coach for softball and volleyball.

From 2006-08, Scholz was a graduate assistant at Utah State, where he worked alongside current 49ers head strength and conditioning coach and former USU head strength and conditioning coach Mark Uyeyama. During the summer of 2006, Scholz was a strength and conditioning intern at Arizona State.

Scholz has also earned his CSCS Certification from the NSCA, Precision Nutrition Certification, ISSA Sports Nutrition Certification, BioSignature Modulation and PICP Levels I & II Certification.

Scholz, who played football at Wisconsin-Eau Claire from 2002-03, was also a national level powerlifter at the 275-pound class. He earned his bachelor's degree in exercise fitness from Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2004, and went on to earn his master's degree from Utah State in health, physical education and recreation in 2008.

Scholz is married to the former Kara Krupski.

Kevin Whimpey (#74) earned first-team all-Mountain West honors as a senior in 2014 as he helped Utah State win its third-straight bowl, while playing in its fourth-straight bowl game, both of which are school records. Whimpey ended his Aggie career as part of a USU senior class that won a school-record 37 games.

Hunter Sharp (#4) earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors during his junior season in 2014 as he ranked tied for second in the Mountain West and tied for 54th in the nation in receiving touchdowns (7), fourth in the MW and 66th in the nation in receiving yards (67.1 pg), and eighth in the MW and 84th in the nation in receptions (4.7 pg). In all, Sharp led the team in receptions (66), receiving yards (939) and receiving touchdowns (7), and was the only player in the nation with four receiving touchdowns of at least 70 yards. He also had four-straight 100-yard receiving games during the year, the most by an Aggie since 2002.

Senior QB Chuckie Keeton (16) was 18-of-35 passing for 144 yards with one touchdown in Utah State's 38-7 loss at Tennessee. Keeton also rushed eight times for 12 yards.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Utah State fell behind Tennessee, 14-0, in the first five minutes of the game and never recovered as the Volunteers rolled to a 38-7 win in the first-ever meeting between the two teams at historic Neyland Stadium on Aug. 31, 2014.

In his first action since a knee injury forced him to miss the final eight games of the 2013 season, senior QB Chuckie Keeton completed 18-of-35 passes for 144 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions, while adding 12 yards on the ground on eight carries. Junior WR JoJo Natson was USU's leading rusher as he had 47 yards on two carries, while adding three receptions for 18 yards. Fellow junior WR Brandon Swindall had a team-best five catches for 37 yards.

Utah State's only points in the game came early in the fourth quarter as Natson rushed for 38 yards and Keeton hit junior WR Hunter Sharp from 37 yards for the score to cap a 2-play, 75-yard drive that took all of 30 seconds.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil recorded a career-high 15 tackles, which included 1.0 sack and 2.0 tackles for loss to lead the Aggie defense. Senior LB Zach Vigil added 10 stops for his 12th career double-digit tackle outing and sophomore S Devin Centers posted a career-best nine tackles.

Utah State's defense took the field first and forced Tennessee into a three-and-out to start the game. However, USU followed with a three-and-out of its own on its first possession. UT then drove 70-yards in just six plays on its following possession for the first score of the game and then scored two plays later as the Aggies fumbled the ensuing kickoff at its own 12-yard line. Following the turnover, UT's Justin Worley connected with Brendan Downs for the 12-yard touchdown to make the score 14-0 early on.

Utah State's defense keep the Aggies in the game throughout the first-half as it held the Volunteers without any points during its next five drives before UT kicked a 36-yard field with 1:00 to play in the half for a 17-0 halftime advantage.

Utah State had its best drive of the game on its first possession of the second-half as it went 34 yards in nine plays, but was unable to get any points as sophomore PK Jake Thompson missed a 48-yard field goal.

Tennessee added another touchdown in the third quarter and then reached pay dirt again on the first play of the fourth quarter to push its lead to 31-0 before Utah State answered with its only touchdown of the game. UT finished the scoring with a final touchdown two series later to make the final score 38-7.

Utah State finished the game with 244 yards of total offense (144-passing, 100-rushing) as compared to 383 yards of total offense for Tennessee (273-passing, 110-rushing). In all, USU was just 3-of-14 on third downs, while UT was 8-of-18. USU was also 0-of-1 on fourth down.

Utah State also had three turnovers in the game that led to 17 Tennessee points, while the Volunteers did not turnover the ball over once. UT also controlled the clock as it had a 34:35 to 25:25 advantage.

Tennessee was led by senior QB Justin Worley who was 27-of-38 passing for 273 yards with three touchdowns, while sophomore linebacker Jalen Reeves-Maybin had 10 tackles and senior LB A.J. Johnson had nine tackles to go along with an interception and a forced fumble.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil (41) had a career-high 15 tackles against the Volunteers, which included 1.0 sacks and 2.0 tackles for loss.

True freshman CB Jalen Davis (13) recorded his first two career interceptions, including returning one 44 yards for his first career touchdown, in Utah State's 40-20 home win against Idaho State.

LOGAN, Utah - Utah State (1-1) scored 27-straight points spanning the second and third quarter to pull away from a 6-6 tie and open up a 33-6 lead en route to a 40-20 win against Idaho State (0-2) on Sept. 6, 2014 at Merlin Olsen Field at Romney Stadium.

Utah State finished with 427 yards of total offense (311-rushing, 116-passing) and ISU had 408 yards of total offense (307-passing, 101-rushing).

Senior QB Chuckie Keeton threw for 116 yards on 13-of-30 passing, while rushing for a team-high 74 yards on eight carries with a 10-yard scoring scamper. Junior RB Rashad Hall rushed for a career-best 69 yards on 11 carries with a 5-yard touchdown run, and senior RB Joe Hill also ran for 69 yards on 15 carries with a 1-yard score.

Junior WR JoJo Natson led Utah State's receiving corps with 59 yards on six catches, adding a 29-yard rush that would have been a touchdown but was called back due to a penalty. Natson did find the end zone on a 52-yard punt return.

Utah State's defense was led by sophomore S Devin Centers and junior LB LT Filiaga with 10 tackles apiece, with Centers posting one sack, while Filiaga was in on half of a tackle for loss. Freshman CB Jalen Davis snared two interceptions, including returning one 44 yards for a touchdown. Senior FS Brian Suite also added an interception.

Idaho State QB Justin Arias ended 23-of-47 passing for 307 yards with two touchdowns, while Xavier Finney finished with 88 yards on the ground with 23 carries. Mario Jenkins led the Bengal defense with 16 tackles.

Utah State took the opening kickoff and marched down the field to the ISU 37 before the drive was thwarted and sophomore PK Jake Thompson attempted a 54-yard field goal, but it was partially blocked by ISU's Hayden Stout.

Davis ended the Bengals' ensuing possession with his first interception, setting up the Aggies at the ISU 22. USU couldn't move the chains and settled for a 31-yard field goal by senior PK Nick Diaz for a 3-0 lead at the 10:13 mark of the first quarter. Diaz later drilled a 24-yarder with 1:16 to go in the first frame for a 6-0 Aggie advantage.

Idaho State opened the second quarter with a 21-yard field goal from Zak Johnson, and later evened the score at 6-all with another Johnson upright split, this time from 49-yards out with 9:59 to go in the half.

Hall broke up the field goal party with his 5-yard touchdown run with 2:33 left in the half for a 13-6 USU lead. The score stayed that way for just over a minute, as the Aggie defense limited the Bengals to a three-and-out, then Natson took the ISU punt and returned it 52-yards for his third career punt return for a touchdown for a 20-6 USU halftime lead.

Suite snared his interception on ISU's opening possession of the second half, giving USU the ball at the Bengal 17. Three plays later Hill darted around the right side and dove into the end zone, putting the Aggies ahead 26-6 as Diaz' extra point bounced off the upright.

Idaho State's ensuing possession lasted all of two plays as Davis snared an Arias pass, and took it 44-yards to the house on the pick-six for a 33-6 Aggie advantage with 12:09 to go on the third-quarter clock.

Following ISU's first touchdown of the night, Keeton scored on a 10-yard scamper for USU's final points.

ISU ended the game's scoring with a 52-yard pass, catch and run from Arias to KW Williams with 2:35 left and USU ran out the clock to seal its first victory of the season.

Senior QB Chuckie Keeton (16) was 13-of-30 passing for 116 yards against the Bengals, and added 74 rushing yards on eight carries, including a 10-yard touchdown run.

Junior WR Hunter Sharp (4) had a career-high 12 receptions for a career-best 138 yards in Utah State's 36-24 home win against Wake Forest, its first-ever win against an ACC opponent.

LOGAN, Utah - Behind a dominant defense that scored two touchdowns and limited Wake Forest (1-2) to negative 25 yards rushing, Utah State (2-1) rallied from an early 7-0 deficit with 29 unanswered points to beat the Demon Deacons, 36-24, for its first-ever win against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent on Sept. 13, 2014.

Along with its two touchdowns, Utah State's defense sacked Wake Forest quarterback John Wolford a total of six times, spearheaded by three from senior DE B.J. Larsen. The Aggies also intercepted Wolford twice, including once by senior LB Zach Vigil, who returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to open Utah State's scoring after Wake Forest had scored on a 72-yard interception return of its own. Sophomore S Devin Centers also had a defensive score, scooping up a fumble and darting 47 yards to the end zone. Senior SS Frankie Sutera had the other interception, snaring a Wolford pass at midfield and returning it 24 yards to the WF 26-yard line, which set up the Aggies for a 6-yard touchdown toss from senior QB Chuckie Keeton to senior TE Jefferson Court at the 4:46 mark of the second quarter for Court's first career score.

Sutera and sophomore LB Nick Vigil led Utah State with nine tackles apiece, with Nick Vigil logging 2.5 tackles for loss. In all, the USU defense posted a total of 14 tackles for loss.

Wake Forest finished with 232 yards, gaining 257 passing, as Wolford was 20-of-50 with two interceptions and two touchdowns. The negative 25 yards rushing allowed by USU is the third-best defensive performance in school history.

Utah State accumulated 391 yards of total offense with 331 through the air and 60 on the ground. Keeton was 20-of-27 passing for 166 yards with one touchdown, all in the first half, before not returning to action due to an injury. Sophomore QB Darell Garretson was 11-of-16 passing for 121 yards with one touchdown in relief.

Junior WR Hunter Sharp had 12 catches for 138 yards, both not only game-highs but career-bests as well, and were the most receptions by an Aggie receiver since Kevin Curtis in 2002. Junior WR JoJo Natson had six receptions for 78 yards with a touchdown on a 44-yard catch from senior WR Ronald Butler with 8:21 to go in the second quarter. Natson also led Utah State's rushing attack with 49 yards on eight carries.

Wake Forest scored the first points of the game on a 72-yard interception return only to see the Aggies counter-attack with Zach Vigil's oskie return for a score on WF's next possession to even the score at 7-7.

Utah State got its first offensive touchdown in the second quarter on Butler's 44-yard pass to Natson. On the Demon Deacons' ensuing possession, Wolford was sacked by Nick Vigil and fumbled, then Centers scooped up the loose ball and ran it back 47-yards to the end zone.

After Sutera's snare set up USU at the WF 26, Keeton connected with Court to cap the short Aggie drive for a 26-7 Aggie advantage. Senior PK Nick Diaz then added a 26-yard field goal as time expired to give the home team a 29-7 halftime lead.

Wake Forest closed to 29-21 after back-to-back third quarter touchdowns. The Aggies, however, countered with a 5-yard Garretson touchdown pass to sophomore TE Wyatt Houston.

Wake Forest added a 30-yard field goal with 1:01 left in the third quarter for the final scoring margin of 36-24 as neither team scored again.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had 2.5 tackles for loss as part of his four total tackles, to go along with four QB hurries and a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown against the Demon Deacons.

Junior WR Hunter Sharp (4) had nine receptions for 130 yards, including an 81-yard touchdown catch, in Utah State's 21-14 overtime loss at Arkansas State.

JONESBORO, Ark. - Utah State had a 38-yard field goal blocked at the end of regulation and failed to score in overtime as it lost on the road at Arkansas State, 21-14, on Sept. 20, 2014. Both teams are now 2-2 on the season.

Utah State had a chance to win the game in regulation as the Aggies' defense forced its fourth turnover of the game late in the fourth quarter as junior LB LT Filiaga recovered his second fumble of the night at the Arkansas State 38-yard line with 0:47 seconds remaining. USU then drove the ball down to the ASU 21-yard line and called timeout with 0:03 seconds to play, but had its 38-yard field goal blocked to send the game into overtime.

During the extra period, Arkansas State had the ball first and scored on its second play from scrimmage on a 24-yard pass from Fredi Knighten to Dijon Paschal for the Red Wolves first lead of the game. USU then got the ball and had a fourth-and-seven at the ASU 22-yard line, but was unable to pick up the first down, losing the game as the Aggies are now 6-5 all-time in overtime.

Utah State finished the game with 413 yards of total offense (268-passing, 145-rushing) as compared to 316 yards (190-passing, 126-rushing) for Arkansas State. USU also won the time of possession, 31:56 to 28:04, as well as the turnover battle as the Aggies forced three fumbles and one interception for four total turnovers, and committed just one turnover.

Sophomore QB Darell Garretson was 27-of-46 passing for Utah State for 268 yards with two touchdowns and one interception, while junior WR Hunter Sharp had nine receptions for 130 yards, including an 81-yard reception from Garretson, which is tied for the 13th-longest pass play in school history.

Arkansas State took the opening kickoff and drove 65 yards in eight plays before sophomore LB Nick Vigil forced a Red Wolves fumble at the USU 19-yard line that was recovered by Filiaga.

Two series later, Utah State scored the first points of the game on an 81-yard pass from Garretson to Sharp on the first play of the series to give the visitors a 7-0 lead.

Utah State's defense forced two more turnovers in the first-half, but the Aggie offense was unable to convert them into any points as Garretson threw an interception in the red zone and sophomore PK Jake Thompson missed a 46-yard field goal late in the second quarter as the Aggies went into the locker room with a 7-0 lead.

Arkansas State tied the game at 7-all midway through the third quarter as senior P Jaron Bentrude fumbled the snap on a fourth-down punt play that resulted in a turnover at the USU 13-yard line. Three plays later, ASU's J.D. McKissic scored on a 12-yard rush.

Utah State answered Arkansas State's touchdown on its next drive as senior WR Ronald Butler scored on a 41-yard touchdown pass from Garretson to cap an 8-play, 75-yard drive to give the Aggies a 14-7 advantage with 3:43 remaining in the third quarter.

Arkansas State tied the game at 14-all with 4:58 to play on a 4-yard run by Johnston White. USU then went three-and-out on its next offensive series before the Aggie defense forced its fourth turnover of the night to set up what would have been the game-winning field goal.

Utah State's defense was led by senior LB Zach Vigil who had a career-high 14 tackles, and tied his career-high with 3.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks. Sophomore FS Devin Centers added a career-high 11 tackles, while Filiaga tied his career-high with 10 stops to go along with his two fumble recoveries.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had a career-high 14 tackles against the Red Wolves, which included a career-high tying 2.0 sacks and a career-high tying 3.0 tackles for loss.

Junior WR Hunter Sharp (4) caught five passes for a career-best 173 yards in Utah State's 35-20 win at No. 18 BYU. Sharp also had a 72-yard touchdown reception against the Cougars.

PROVO, Utah - Sophomore QB Darell Garretson threw three touchdown passes in the first-half, and Utah State's defense forced four turnovers for the third time in its last four games, as the Aggies posted its first win at BYU in 36 years with a 35-20 victory on Oct. 3, 2014 in a nationally televised game on ESPN.

Utah State (3-2) also improved to 4-51 all-time against ranked opponents, including wins in three of its last four matchups. Overall, No. 18 BYU (4-1) is the highest ranked opponent USU has ever defeated bettering its 48-41 overtime win at No. 19 Louisiana Tech in 2012.

Utah State finished the night with a season-high 457 yards of offense as Garretson was 19-of-25 passing for a season-high 321 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions. Sophomore LB Nick Vigil led the Aggies' rushing attack as he carried the ball 16 times for 57 yards, and scored his first career touchdown on a 1-yard run in the third quarter, all of which are career-highs. Senior RB Joe Hill added 54 rushing yards as he tied his career-high with 18 carries and USU finished the night with 136 rushing yards on 46 carries.

BYU scored on its first possession of the game as Taysom Hill scored on an 11-yard run just 1:16 into the game as the Cougars drove 75 yards in just five plays. Hill, who was injured in the second quarter and did not return, was 8-of-11 passing for 99 yards with one touchdown and carried the ball seven times for 35 yards with another score.

On its opening possession of the game, Utah State drove the ball to the BYU 24-yard line before Garretson fumbled the snap and the Cougars recovered it at their own 36. USU eventually tied the score at 7-all late in the first quarter as Garretson connected with junior WR Devonte Robinson for a 7-yard touchdown to cap a 10-play, 85-yard drive.

BYU regained the lead early in the second quarter on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Hill to Mitch Mathews to make the score 14-7.

From there it was all Utah State, as the Aggies scored three second quarter touchdowns to take a 28-14 lead into the locker room. USU's first score of the second quarter came on a 5-yard run by Garretson to cap a 13-play, 88-yard drive that took 8:20 off the clock, its longest of the season in plays, yards and time of possession. Junior NG Travis Seefeldt then recovered a fumble on BYU's first offensive play of its next series and Garretson connected with Robinson again, this time for 22-yards out on its first play of the drive, to give the Aggies its first lead of the night at 21-14 with 4:27 to play in the half.

On its next drive, Utah State took possession of the ball on its own 13-yard line and drove 87 yards in just three plays, highlighted by a 72-yard touchdown pass from Garretson to junior WR Hunter Sharp. Sharp finished the night with five receptions for a career-high 173 yards for his third-straight 100-yard receiving game, marking the first time since 2002 that an Aggie has accomplished the feat.

BYU closed the gap to 28-17 in the third quarter on a 41-yard field goal only to see USU drive 76-yards in six plays and score another touchdown on a 1-yard run by Nick Vigil to push its lead to 35-17 late in the period.

BYU added a 24-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to cut its deficit to 35-20, but could get no closer.

Nick Vigil led the Aggie defense with nine total tackles, while freshman CB Jalen Davis had a career-high six tackles and senior SS Frankie Sutera had five tackles and intercepted his third pass of the season and fourth of his career. Sophomore FS Devin Centers and junior LB Torrey Green also added interceptions for USU.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil (41) recorded nine tackles and rushed for a career-high 57 yards on a career-best 16 carries, and scored his first career touchdown on a 1-yard run against the Cougars.

Junior WR Hunter Sharp (4) tied his career-high with 12 catches for 164 yards and had a career-best two touchdown receptions in Utah State's 34-16 home win against Air Force.

LOGAN, Utah - Senior LB Zach Vigil recorded a career-high 22 tackles, the most in the nation this year at the FBS level, and Utah State forced four first-half turnovers in posting a 34-16 Homecoming win against Air Force on Oct. 11, 2014 in USU's Mountain West opener.

Utah State (4-2, 1-0 MW) raced out to a 31-6 halftime advantage and limited Air Force (4-2, 1-2 MW) to just 155 rushing yards on 51 carries in posting the 18-point win. USU finished the game with 388 yards of total offense (311-passing, 77-rushing) as compared to 379 total yards (155-rushing, 224-passing) for the Falcons. AFA entered the game averaging 298.0 rushing yards per game to rank 10th in the nation, while the Aggies ranked eighth nationally in rushing yards allowed (93.4 ypg).

Utah State wasted little time getting on the board as sophomore QB Darel Garretson connected with junior WR Hunter Sharp for a 75-yard touchdown on its first offensive play and the extra point by senior PK Nick Diaz was good to give the Aggies the 7-0 lead.

Garretson and Sharp teamed up again for Utah State's next touchdown on its next series behind a 23-yard touchdown pass, putting the home side up 14-0 just 3:15 in the game following a fumble recovery from junior DE Jordan Nielsen at the AFA 43-yard line.

Utah State's defense ended the following offensive series by the Falcons, forcing the first of four turnovers during the game as freshman CB Jalen Davis forced a fumble on the USU 2-yard line. The ball rolled out of the back of the end zone, giving the Aggies the ball on the 20-yard line following the touchback.

Air Force put its first points on the scoreboard on its next series with just over three minutes remaining in the quarter via a 27-yard field goal to cap an 11-play, 69-yard drive. A second AFA field goal of 34 yards in the second quarter cut the USU lead to 14-6.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil, who made his first career start at running back, rushed into the end zone from eight yards out with 4:04 left in the half to give the Aggies a 21-6 lead. Vigil came back out on defense on the ensuing drive and picked off Air Force QB Nate Romine, returning it 19 yards to the Air Force 28-yard line. The turnover set up a season-long 46-yard field goal by Diaz, extending the lead to 24-6 for the Aggies.

The margin grew to 31-6 just before the half as Garretson rushed 17 yards in the waning seconds for his second rushing touchdown in as many games.

Utah State only managed a field goal over the final 30 minutes, but the Aggie defense did its part and only allowed the Falcons 161 yards during the third and fourth quarters. The Falcons scored their first touchdown of the game in the final seconds of the third to make the score at 31-13, and the teams traded field goals in the fourth quarter, leading to the 34-16 final.

Zach Vigil, who added a career-high 4.0 tackles for loss to go along with a half of a sack in the game, recorded the most tackles by an Aggie since Brent Passey has 23 stops against New Mexico State in 1999. Nick Vigil added 11 tackles and junior LB LT Filianga tied his career-high with 10 stops. Senior SS Frankie Sutera also tied his career-high with nine tackles and intercepted his fourth pass in as many games.

Garretson finished his night 20-of-29 passing for 298 yards and two touchdowns, both to Sharp, who tied his career-high with 12 receptions for 164 yards.

Diaz, who was 2-of-2 on field goals and 4-for-4 on extra points, set the USU record for PAT's made in a career with 110, passing Brad Bohn (1997-2000) who held the record with 107.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had a career-high 22 tackles, which included a career-best 4.0 tackles for loss, against the Falcons.

Senior RB Joe Hill (32) rushed for 64 yards on nine carries, including a 59-yard touchdown run, in Utah State's 16-13 loss at Colorado State. Hill also had one reception for six yards against the Rams.

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Colorado State's Jared Roberts hit a pair of 46-yard field goals in the final 1:50 to lift the Rams to a 16-13 home win against Utah State on Oct. 18, 2014 as the Aggies played the majority of the second-half without starting quarterback Darell Garretson who left the game early in the third quarter with an injured throwing arm.

Colorado State improves to 6-1 on the season and 2-1 in Mountain West play with the win, while Utah State falls to 4-3 overall and 1-1 in league play with the loss. USU entered the game having won six-straight Mountain West contests and 11 straight conference road games dating back to 2011.

Utah State finished the night with 260 yards of offense (160-passing, 100-rushing) and Colorado State had 318 total yards (243-passing, 75-rushing). CSU also had 11 penalties for 116 yards as compared to just six penalties for USU for 45 yards, but the Rams also dominated the time of possession, 35:45 to 24:15. USU was also just 2-of-12 on third downs, compared to 8-of-18 for CSU.

Garretson was 14-of-19 passing for 132 yards with one interception before getting hurt on Utah State's fifth offensive play of the second-half. Senior QB Craig Harrison played the remainder of the game and was 5-of-12 passing for 28 yards, while also rushing for 15 yards on one attempt.

Senior RB Joe Hill led the Aggies' rushing attack as he had 64 yards on nine carries, including a season-long 59-yard rush in the first quarter for Utah State's only touchdown. Junior WR JoJo Natson had a season-high six receptions for 28 yards, while senior WR Ronald Butler tied his career-high with five receptions for 46 yards.

Colorado State scored its only touchdown on its opening drive as Garrett Grayson connected with Rashard Higgins for a 69-yard completion on its first play of the game. Three plays later Dee Hart scored from 1-yard out to give the Rams an early 7-0 lead just 1:20 into the game.

Utah State answered two series later as Hill scored from 59-yards out on its second play from scrimmage to tie the score. USU added a 25-yard field goal from senior PK Nick Diaz on its next possession as it drove 64 yards in nine plays to take a 10-7 lead with 4:22 to play in the opening quarter.

Roberts tied the game late in the first-half on a 52-yard field and both teams went into the locker room tied, 10-10.

Utah State broke the 10-10 tie early in the fourth quarter on a 32-yard field goal by Diaz as the Aggies drove 56-yards in eight plays. CSU then tied the game with 1:50 to play as it drove 44-yards in 12-plays, taking 7:13 off the clock as Roberts hit from 46-yards out.

On Utah State's next possession, Harrison scrambled for 15 yards on its first play but was unable to convert its next set of downs and had to punt the ball with 0:42 remaining.

From its own 12-yard line, Colorado State gained three yards on its first play, and then had a 17-yard rush on its second, before Grayson hit Higgins for a 46-yard completion with just 0:11 to play, setting up Roberts game-winning 46-yard field goal.

Utah State's defense was led by senior LB Zach Vigil who had 13 tackles, while sophomore LB Nick Vigil had 10 tackles, including 3.0 TFL and 2.0 sacks to go along a forced fumble. USU also had a season-high eight sacks from eight different players.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil (41) had 10 tackles, which included 3.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks, to go along with two QB hurries and a forced fumbled against the Rams.

Senior QB Craig Harrison (12) was 13-of-23 passing for 221 yards and three touchdowns, all career-highs, in Utah State's 34-20 home win against UNLV. Harrison also rushed for 39 yards on nine carries, also career-highs, against the Rebels.

LOGAN, Utah - Junior WR JoJo Natson recorded a career-high 124 receiving yards on a season-high tying six receptions and Utah State's defense forced three turnovers to go along with 6.0 sacks and 10.0 tackles for loss in its 34-20 Mountain West home win against UNLV on Oct. 25, 2014. USU improved to 5-3 on the season and 2-1 in Mountain West play with the win and UNLV fell to 2-6 overall and 1-3 in league action with the loss.

Utah State finished the game with 444 yards of total offense as it notched 266 passing yards and 178 yards on the ground. UNLV finished the game with just 282 yards of total offense, including just 15 yards rushing and 267 yards passing.

Senior QB Craig Harrison was 13-of-23 passing for a career-high 221 yards in just his second career start for Utah State. Harrison, who also rushed a career-high nine times for a career-best 39 yards, also had a career-high three touchdown passes before leaving the game late in the third quarter with a leg injury.

Utah State scored the first touchdown of the game on a 1-yard pass from Harrison to senior TE Jefferson Court to cap an 8-play, 56-yard drive late in the first quarter.

Senior PK Nick Diaz added a 27-yard field goal early in the second quarter to give the home team a 10-0 lead as sophomore LB Nick Vigil forced a fumble that was recovered by junior NG Travis Seefeldt at the UNLV 17-yard line. UNLV then scored its first touchdown of the game on its next series as Blake Decker hit Kendal Keys with a 31-yard touchdown pass that was deflected by two different Aggie defenders.

Harrison threw his second touchdown pass of the game to Natson midway through the second quarter on a screen play that went 71-yards to give USU a 17-7 advantage. UNLV closed the half by driving 69-yards in seven plays that culminated in a 2-yard touchdown pass from Decker to Taylor Barnhill to make the score 17-13 for Utah State as Seefeldt blocked the extra point attempt.

Harrison continued his career game in the third quarter as he found senior RB Joe Hill on a swing pass that Hill took 69 yards into the end zone. Harrison then completed three of four passes on USU's next offensive series and Diaz hit a season-long 49-yard field goal to extend the Aggies' lead to 27-13 with 5:53 left in the third quarter. Hill finished the game with 117 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns.

Harrison left the game with 1:17 remaining in the third quarter when he fell awkwardly during a sack, fumbling the ball on the Utah State 21-yard line. The Rebels were unable to take advantage of the short field as a 43-yard field goal attempt was blocked by junior LB Michael Okonkwo, ending the quarter with the Aggies holding the 27-13 lead.

Freshman QB Kent Myers started the fourth quarter and led Utah State on a 9-play, 73-yard scoring drive that was punctuated by a 7-yard rush by Hill, giving the home side a 34-13 lead. Myers rushed for 18 yards and threw for another 41 during the drive that took 3:20 off the clock.

UNLV answered on its next series with a 10-play, 80-yard scoring drive that was capped by Decker's third touchdown pass of the day when he found Devonte Boyd for a 41-yard score to get the Rebels within 34-20.

Utah State's defense then responded with back-to-back interceptions from junior CB Deshane Hines and senior FS Brian Suite to seal the win.

Utah State's defense was led by junior LB LT Filiaga who had a team-high nine tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, while senior DE B.J. Larsen recorded 2.0 sacks in the game, while Vigil finished with 1.5 sacks.

Junior LB LT Filiaga (5) had nine tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, to go along with one QB hurry against the Rebels.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) set the Utah State and Mountain West single-game record for completion percentage (.933) as he was 14-of-15 passing for 186 yards with three touchdowns in his first career start in Utah State's 35-14 win at Hawai'i.

HONOLULU - Freshman QB Kent Myers threw for a career-high 186 yards and three touchdowns in his first career start and freshman RB LaJuan Hunt rushed for a career-high 145 yards to lead Utah State to a 35-14 road win at Hawai'i on Nov. 1, 2014.

Utah State (6-3, 3-1 MW) won its 12th-straight game in November and improved to 10-2 all-time in Mountain West play with the win against Hawai'i (2-7, 1-3 MW).

Myers completed his first 12 passes and finished the night 14-of-15 passing for 186 yards with three first-half touchdowns, all of which are career-highs, while Hunt carried the ball a career-high 34 times in posting the most rushing yards by an Aggie (145) since 2012 and the most by an Aggie freshman since 1992. Myers also set the Utah State and Mountain West record for completion percentage (.933) in a game.

Hunt added two receptions for 44 yards, including a 44-yard touchdown in the third quarter on a pass from senior WR Ronald Butler. Butler finished the game with a career-high six receptions for 79 yards with one touchdown, and was 1-of-1 passing for 44 yards and a touchdown, while junior WR Hunter Sharp had three receptions for 77 yards, including a pair of first quarter touchdowns.

Utah State finished the game with a season-high 465 yards of total offense, passing for 230 yards and rushing for another 235, its second-most in a game this season. Hawai'i had 454 yards of total offense (356-passing, 98-rushing), the most given up by USU this year.

Senior LB Zach Vigil led an Aggie defense that yielded a season-low 14 points as he finished the night with 12 tackles, including a career-high 3.0 sacks, while also forcing a fumble that was returned for a touchdown. In all, Utah State's defense finished the game with 6.0 sacks and forced three turnovers as senior SS Frankie Sutera intercepted two passes and sophomore SS Devin Centers recovered a fumble that he returned 10 yards for a touchdown. With his 12 tackles, Vigil moved into 10th place all-time in school history with 329 career tackles.

Both teams produced touchdowns on its first two drives of the game as USU scored on a 6-yard pass from Myers to Sharp to open the contest and then scored on a 70-yard pass from Myers to Sharp on its second series. Hawai'i scored its first touchdown on an 8-yard run by Diocemy Saint Juste and then scored on a 1-yard pass from Ikaika Woosley to Justin Vele to make the score 14-14 after the first quarter.

Utah State added two more touchdowns in the second quarter as Vigil's sack and forced fumble led to USU's third defensive touchdown of the season as Centers picked up the fumble and ran 10 yards for the score. Myers added his third touchdown pass of the first-half with 6:37 to play in the quarter as he connected with Butler for a 39-yard strike on a third-and-21 play to give the visitors a 28-14 halftime advantage.

The only points scored in the second half was on a 44-yard pass from Butler to Hunt to cap a 9-play, 98-yard drive that took 4:41 off the clock, a drive that was extended following a roughing the kicker penalty on Hawai'i as the Aggies were punting from their own end zone.

Woosley finished the game 26-of-46 passing for 356 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions for Hawai'i, while Stephen Lakalaka had 57 rushing yards on 11 carries.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had 12 tackles, which included a career-high 3.0 sacks, and forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown against the Rainbow Warriors.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) was 13-of-16 passing for 150 yards in Utah State's 20-3 win at Wyoming. Myers also carried the ball eight times for 25 yards against the Cowboys.

LARAMIE, Wyo. - Junior WR JoJo Natson scored a pair of touchdowns and Utah State's defense intercepted two fourth quarter passes in the red zone as the Aggies notched a 20-3 road win against Wyoming on Nov. 7, 2014 in a nationally televised game on ESPN2.

With the win, Utah State improves to 7-3 on the season and 4-1 in Mountain West play, and becomes bowl eligible for the fourth-straight year, a first in program history. Wyoming falls to 4-6 overall and 2-4 in league play with the loss. USU also won its 13th-straight November game dating back to 2011 and is now 11-2 all-time in Mountain West play.

With its two forced turnovers, Utah State has now forced 27 turnovers this season and 74 in its last 33 games, while its three points allowed are a season-low.

Utah State took the opening kickoff and drove down to the Wyoming 3-yard line before settling for a 20-yard field goal from senior PK Nick Diaz to take an early 3-0 lead.

After holding Wyoming to a three-and-out on its opening possession of the game, Natson returned the ensuing punt 80 yards for his second punt return for a touchdown this season and the fourth of his career to give the visitors a 10-0 lead just 5:27 into the game. With the punt return for touchdown, Natson tied Kevin Robinson (2004-07) for the school record and Utah's Steve Smith (1999-2000) for the Mountain West record with four punt returns for touchdown in a career.

After forcing another Wyoming punt on its next series, Natson struck again as he ran 66 yards for a touchdown to give Utah State a commanding 17-0 lead just 9:48 into the game.

Wyoming got its only points of the game late in the second quarter on a 37 yard field, and Utah State scored the only points of the second half on a 28-yard Diaz field goal to make the final score, 20-3.

During the fourth quarter, Utah State intercepted a pair of passes in the red zone as junior CB Deshane Hines picked off Wyoming's Colby Kirkegaard in the end zone and returned it 38 yards. On UW's next series, senior DE B.J. Larsen intercepted a Kirkegaard pass that was tipped by senior LB Zach Vigil at the USU 20-yard line.

Utah State finished the game with 356 yards of total offense (206-rushing, 150-passing) and Wyoming had 363 yards of total offense (212-passing, 151-rushing). The Cowboys finished the game running 25 more plays (75-50) and dominated the clock, 34:54 to 25:06. However, UW also had 10 penalties for 95 yards as compared to six penalties for 75 yards for USU.

Natson ended the contest with 181 all-purpose yards as he had a career-high 99 rushing yards on three carries, to go along with his one punt return for 80 yards and three receptions for two yards. Freshman QB Kent Myers had another efficient game for USU in his second career start as he was 13-of-16 passing for 150 yards, and junior WR Hunter Sharp had five receptions for 79 yards.

Defensively, senior SS Frankie Sutera and Vigil each had eight tackles, while freshman CB Jalen Davis tied his career-high with seven stops. Sutera also added 1.5 tackles for loss.

Kirkegaard finished the game 20-of-40 passing for 212 yards with two interceptions for Wyoming and Brian Hill had 122 rushing yards on 25 carries.

Senior SS Frankie Sutera (46) had eight tackles, which included 1.5 tackles for loss and 1.0 sacks, against the Cowboys.

LOGAN, Utah - Junior WR's JoJo Natson and Devonte Robinson each scored rushing touchdowns to help Utah State (8-3, 5-1) post a 28-21 Mountain West home win against New Mexico (3-7, 1-5) on Nov. 15, 2014.

Utah State rushed for 272 yards on the afternoon as part of its 422 yards of total offense as it also passed for 150 yards. New Mexico finished the game with 400 yards of total offense, with 246 yards rushing and 154 yards passing. The 246 rushing yards by the Lobos are the most allowed by an Aggie defense since 2010.

Freshman QB Kent Myers was 13-of-21 passing for Utah State for 150 yards with one touchdown and his first career interception, and added career-highs in both rushing attempts (10) and yards (39).

Natson rushed for 70 yards on five carries, including a 48-yard touchdown, and Robinson added a 59-yard touchdown run. Freshman RB LaJuan Hunt also scored a rushing touchdown from 1-yard out and finished the game with 55 yards on eight carries.

Redshirt freshman QB Lamar Jordan paced New Mexico with 80 rushing yards on 23 carries, while completing 8-of-18 passes for 154 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil had 13 tackles, while senior LB Zach Vigil had 10 stops. Senior SS Frankie Sutura added seven stops and intercepted his seventh pass of the season, which ranks tied for the third-most interceptions in a single-season in school history.

Hunt got Utah State on the scoreboard midway through the first quarter on a 1-yard run to give the home team a 7-0 lead. During the drive, Hunt recorded a career-long rush of 47 yards to set up the touchdown as the Aggies drove 49 yards in just four plays.

New Mexico tied the game late in the first quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run by David Anaya to cap a 6-play, 33 yard drive following Myers first career interception.

On the first play of the second quarter, Robinson rushed 59 yards for his first career rushing touchdown to give the home team a 14-7 lead. New Mexico answered right back on its next series as Romell Jordan scored on a 72-yard run on UNM's second play to tie the game at 14-14. For USU, that was the longest rushing play allowed dating back to the 2007 season.

Utah State regained the lead late in the second quarter as Myers hit sophomore TE Wyatt Houston from 10-yards out to cap a 9-play, 79-yard drive giving USU a 21-14 lead heading into halftime. Houston finished the game with three receptions for a career-high 54 yards.

Utah State scored the only points of the third quarter on Natson's 48 yard run to cap a 4-play, 91-yard drive to give USU its largest lead of the game at 28-14.

New Mexico finally got on the board in the second half late in the fourth quarter on a 59-yard touchdown pass from Lamar Jordan to Tyler Duncan to cap a 9-play, 99-yard drive that took 4:10 off the clock.

However, that would be the last time the Lobos would touch the ball as Utah State rushed nine times for 48 yards on its next drive to take the final 4:17 off the clock in posting the seven-point win.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil (41) had 13 tackles, including 1.0 for loss, against the Lobos.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) was 15-of-22 passing for 108 yards with one touchdown in Utah State's 41-7 home win against San José State. Myers also rushed for a career-high 92 yards on just four carries and scored three touchdowns on runs of 28, 60 and two yards against the Lobos.

LOGAN, Utah - Freshman QB Kent Myers accounted for four touchdowns and junior WR JoJo Natson rushed for a career-high 124 yards in leading Utah State (9-3, 6-1 MW) to a 41-7 Mountain West home win against San José State (3-8, 2-5) on Nov. 21, 2014.

Prior to the game, Utah State honored its 2014 senior class that has posted the best four-year stretch in school history with 36 wins, which includes back-to-back bowl wins and its upcoming fourth-straight bowl appearance this season.

Myers rushed for a career-high 92 yards on just four carries and scored three rushing touchdowns on runs of 28, 60 and two yards. Myers also threw one touchdown pass as he finished the game 15-of-22 passing for 108 yards as he recorded career-highs in both pass attempts and completions. Natson carried the ball just seven times in posting his career-high 124 rushing yards, which included a 56-yard touchdown run. Senior RB Joe Hill added 54 yards on 15 carries and freshman RB LaJuan Hunt had 43 yards on eight carries as USU rushed for a season-high 313 yards in the game.

Utah State finished the game with 421 yards of total offense (313-rushing, 108-passing) as it has now rushed for at least 200 yards in each of its last four games.

Tyler Ervin had 104 rushing yards on 22 carries for San José State as the Spartans had just 252 yards of total offense (191-rushing, 61-passing), including just 66 yards in the second-half.

Senior LB Zach Vigil led Utah State's defense as he recorded 19 tackles, which included 3.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks. Overall, it was Vigil's seventh double-digit tackle outing of the season and the 18th of his career. Sophomore LB Nick Vigil added 12 stops for his fifth double-digit tackle outing this season and of his career.

After forcing a three-and-out on defense on San José State's first drive of the game, Utah State drove 55 yards in seven plays, culminating in Myers 28-yard touchdown run for an early 7-0 lead.

San Jose State tied the game early in the second quarter on a 1-yard touchdown run by QB Mitch Ravizza.

Utah State's defense set up its second touchdown of the game as Zach Vigil denied the Spartans on a fourth-and-one at the USU 36-yard line and Myers scored on a 60-yard run two plays later to give the home team a 14-7 lead that it took into halftime.

Following a 44-yard kickoff return from freshman CB Jalen Davis to start the second-half, Natson ran 56 yards on the Aggies' first play from scrimmage to push its lead to 21-7. Myers then added his third rushing touchdown of the game late in the third quarter from 2-yards out to cap a 6-play, 68-yard drive to give USU a 28-7 lead.

Utah State scored 14 more points in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard pass from Myers to senior TE Jefferson Court and a 5-yard run by junior RB Rashad Hall to make the final score 41-7 as USU's PAT attempt following its last touchdown was no good.

In the second-half, Utah State limited San Jose State to just four first downs and 66 yards of total offense, while USU had 14 first downs and 256 yards of total offense, including 189 yards on the ground.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had 19 tackles, which included 3.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks, against the Spartans.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) was 16-of-28 passing for 159 yards in Utah State's 50-19 loss at No. 25 Boise State. Myers also rushed for 43 yards on 11 carries, including a 9-yard touchdown run.

BOISE, Idaho - Jay Ajayi rushed for a career-high 229 yards and scored five touchdowns in leading 25th-ranked Boise State (10-2, 7-1 MW) to a 50-19 home win against Utah State (9-4, 6-2 MW) on Nov. 29, 2014 to claim the Mountain Division of the Mountain West Conference.

Utah State, who had its five-game winning streak snapped, is now 4-52 all-time against Associated Press ranked teams, including a 2-2 record under current head coach Matt Wells. USU also lost its 12th-straight game to Boise State, including its seventh-straight in Boise.

Boise State finished the game with 498 yards of total offense, including 283 on the ground, both of which are season-highs for a Utah State opponent. USU had just 268 yards of total offense, with 159 yards passing and 109 yards rushing.

Ajayi rushed 27 times for his 229 yards and is the first back to rush for 200 yards against Utah State since Oklahoma's DeMarco Murray in 2010. In all, the 283 rushing yards allowed by the Aggies are its most since Nevada rushed for 387 yards in 2010.

Freshman QB Kent Myers led Utah State as he was 16-of-28 passing for 159 yards with one interception as he recorded season-highs in both pass attempts and completions. Myers also rushed a season-high 11 times for 43 yards and scored USU's only offensive touchdown of the game on a 9-yard run in the first quarter.

Senior SS Frankie Sutura led Utah State's defense with a career-high 15 tackles, including 1.0 sack, while sophomore LB Nick Vigil had 13 tackles, which included 2.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sack to go along with a forced fumble. Senior LB Zach Vigil added 12 stops and 1.0 sack, while senior DE B.J. Larsen and junior NG Travis Seefeldt also registered sacks in the game.

Utah State provided the first spark in the game as freshman RB LaJuan Hunt rushed for 55 yards on the first offensive play of the game. However, USU was unable to do anything else with its opening drive and eventually missed a 39-yard field goal.

Boise State then scored back-to-back touchdowns on a 9-yard run by Ajayi and a 2-yard pass from Grant Hedrick to Alec Dhaenens to take a 14-0 lead before Myers' 9-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter capped a 7-play, 75-yard drive to cut the deficit to 14-7.

Ajayi scored his second touchdown of the game on a 19-yard run just two minutes later, but the extra point was blocked by Seefeldt and freshman CB Jalen Davis took it the length of the field for a two-point conversion to make the score 20-9 after one period of play.

Boise State added two more touchdowns in the second quarter on an 8-yard run by Ajayi and a 24 yard pass from Hedrick to Thomas Spearbeck, while Utah State converted a 46-yard field goal from senior PK Nick Diaz to make the score 34-12 at halftime.

Following a scoreless third quarter, Boise State got two more touchdowns from Ajayi on runs of 62 and one yard, and added a safety to make the score 50-12. USU scored its final points of the game on a 50-yard fumble return for a touchdown by sophomore CB Daniel Gray that was forced by Nick Vigil to make the final score 50-19.

Sophomore LB Nick Vigil (41) had 13 tackles, which included 2.0 tackles for loss and 1.0 sacks, and forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown against the Broncos.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) rushed for 70 yards on a career-best 15 carries, including a 48-yard touchdown run, in Utah State's 21-6 win against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Myers, who was also 5-of-12 passing for 68 yards, was named the game's Offensive MVP.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Freshman QB Kent Myers rushed a career-high 15 times for 70 yards with one touchdown and Utah State gained 279 yards on the ground en route to its 21-6 Gildan New Mexico Bowl win against UTEP at University Stadium on Dec. 20, 2014.

With the win, Utah State has now won a school-record three-straight bowl games, and finished the season with a 10-4 record for the second-most wins in a single-season in school history. USU was playing in its fourth-straight bowl game, which is also a school-record.

Myers was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player of the game as he was 5-of-12 passing for 68 yards to go along with his 70 rushing yards and one touchdown.

Senior LB Zach Vigil was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player as he finished with 11 tackles, which included 1.0 tackle for loss, while adding one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry. With his 11 tackles, Vigil ends his career with 389 tackles to rank fifth all-time in school history. Vigil also ends his career as the school leader in tackles for loss with 43.5, while his 20.5 tackles for loss this season tie the Mountain West single-season record. Overall, it was Vigil's ninth double-digit tackle outing of the season and the 20th of his career.

Utah State finished the game with 347 yards of total offense, as its 279 rushing yards are its third-most in a game this season, while its 68 passing yards are a season-low.

Senior WR Ronald Butler rushed for a career-high 69 yards on just two carries, which included a career-long rush of 61 yards. Senior RB Joe Hill added 50 yards on six carries and one touchdown, while junior WR JoJo Natson had 40 rushing yards on five carries, and sophomore LB Nick Vigil gained 34 yards on eight carries with one touchdown.

Utah State had just two players make receptions in the game as junior WR Hunter Sharp caught three passes for 21 yards, while Natson had two catches for 47 yards. With his three receptions, Sharp finished the season tied for ninth all-time in school history with 66 catches, while Natson becomes the 32nd player in USU history with 1,000 career receiving yards.

UTEP was limited to just 275 yards of total offense, the third-fewest allowed by USU this season. The Miners finished with just 126 passing yards, which is the second-fewest allowed by Utah State this year. Aaron Jones led the Miners with 88 rushing yards on 25 carries.

UTEP scored the first points of the game on a 32-yard field goal by Jay Mattox late in the first quarter after it completed a 53-yard pass on a third-and-10 from its own 26-yard line.

Utah State answered UTEP's scoring drive on its next possession as Myers scored on a 48-yard run to cap a three-play, 75-yard drive that took just 1:18 off the clock.

Both teams had a chance to put points on the board late in the second quarter, but UTEP fumbled the snap on a 25-yard field goal attempt and USU missed a 28-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the half.

Utah State scored its second touchdown of the game on its opening drive of the third quarter as Nick Vigil scored on a 3-yard run to cap a seven-play, 75-yard drive.

UTEP's final points of the game came late in the fourth quarter on a Mattox 34-yard field goal following a 16-play, 54-yard drive that took 6:56 off the clock.

Utah State put the game away on the next series as it drove 65 yards in just four plays as Hill scored on an 11-yard run to seal the win.

Senior FS Brian Suite had 10 tackles for his fourth-career double-digit tackle outing, while junior CB Deshane Hines added a career-high six tackles, and fellow junior CB Tyler Floyd had a career-high four tackles and recorded his first career interception.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had 11 tackles, which included 1.0 tackle for loss, to go along with one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry against the Miners. Vigil was named the game's Defensive MVP.

Utah State's 1946 football team played in the school's first-ever bowl as it lost to San Jose State, 20-0, in the Raisin Bowl played in Fresno, Calif., on Jan. 1, 1947. USU finished the 1946 season with a 7-2-1 record and shared the Skyline Conference Championship with a 4-1-1 league mark.

FRESNO, Calif. - A powerful San José State college grid team shut out Utah State, 20-0, in the second annual Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif.

San José State devastated the Aggies, 16-7, in first downs, 177-74 in yards rushing, and 110-49 in yards passing.

Utah State's all-conference OC, Ralph Maughan, could not offset San Jose's HBs Bert Robinson and Babe Nomura. San Jose State did all of its scoring in the second and third quarters. Bill Schembel, a substitute halfback, passed to quarterback Bill Jackson for the opening touchdown, then took an aerial from Jackson for score number two. Bill Rhyne, another substitute halfback, crossed the goal line from the 1-yard line scoring the third touchdown.

Through the entire game, Utah State threatened to score twice, once in the first quarter when it reached the San José 1-yard line, and again at the end of the fourth quarter when the Aggies were again within a yard of the goal. Both attempts were denied and Utah State was confined to its own territory throughout most of the game.

Utah State's 1947 football team made it back-to-back bowl appearances as it lost to Pacific, 35-21, in the Lodi Grape Bowl. USU went 6-5-0 during the season and finished third in the Skyline Conference with a 3-3-0 record.

LODI, Calif. - All-American quarterback Eddie LeBaron led his Pacific Tigers onto victory, defeating the Utah State Aggies, 35-21, in Lodi's inaugural Grape Bowl football game.

Only six minutes into the game, Pacific fullback Harry Kane scored on a 72-yard run. Utah State answered with a 70-yard drive to land on Pacific's 1-yard line. Right HB John Worley fumbled, allowing halfback Bruce Orvis to recover the ball and run it back 99 yards for Pacific's second score. Early in the second quarter, LeBaron scored on a quarterback sneak from the one, and then threw for a 14-yard touchdown pass to left end John Rohde a few minutes later. Sub halfback Wayne Hardin completed all five conversion attempts.

Utah State came back from halftime facing a 28-0 deficit. QBs John Caputo and John Sorensen helped the Aggies with two touchdowns, and in the final period, HB Ernie Groll intercepted a long pass by LeBaron on the Pacific 42 and ran it back into the end zone. FB Buss Williams converted two of the three attempts.

Utah State ran up 15 first downs against the College of Pacific's 17. On the ground the Tigers gained 278 yards against the Aggies' 85.

The 1960 Utah State football team finished the season with a 9-2-0 record and won its first of two-straight co-Skyline Conference Championships.

EL PASO, TEXAS - New Mexico State, in winning its 15th-straight game, overcame Utah State, 20-13, in a bruising Sun Bowl football battle. USU owned a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when HB Tom Larscheid ran for 13 yards and a touchdown. The score was set up with a 53-yard punt return by Ernie Reese, which set a Sun Bowl record.

New Mexico State answered right back in the second quarter. Quarterback Charley Johnson's 3-yard pitch to Pervis Atkins along with Atkins' subsequent kick, tied the score in the second period.

USU then regained the lead by driving 80 yards in 15 plays with Dolph Camilli scoring from the 11. New Mexico State took the lead for the first time in the third quarter when Bob Gaitfers ran for a 32-yard touchdown. Johnson led the offense by completing 18-of-26 passes, including two for touchdowns.

Utah State's final effort for victory was denied in the fourth quarter when FB Doug Mayberry was stopped short of a first down on a fourth down play. New Mexico State then ran out the clock.

NMSU quarterback Charley Johnson threw for 190 yards and was tabbed the Sun Bowl's MVP for the second straight year. The NMSU defense held the nation's top offense to just 268 total yards.

Utah State's defense was equally as impressive. USU, led by future Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, held the NMSU offense to only 224 yards, including just 44 rushing yards on 32 carries.

The 1961 Utah State football team is the last team in school history to go undefeated during the regular season as they produced a 9-0-1 mark before losing to Baylor, 24-9, in the Gotham Bowl played at the Polo Grounds in New York City. Tackle Merlin Olsen was a consensus, first-team All-America and won the 1961 Outland Trophy as the country's top lineman.

NEW YORK, N.Y. - Converting four-of-five fumble recoveries into three touchdowns provided Baylor with the win over previously unbeaten Utah State, 24-9.

Baylor's Ronnie Bull, picked up a 15-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Quarterback Don Trull contributed a 2-yard scoring plunge and a 39-yard touchdown pass to end Tom Plumb. Carl Choate kicked all three conversions and added three points with his 22-yard field goal.

Utah State's first score came in the third quarter when Jim Turner kicked a 36-yard field goal. Midway through the final quarter, Ronnie Stanley's pass was intercepted by Utah State's Bob Novotny on the Baylor 16. In three plays, Utah State produced a touchdown with Bill Munson scoring from the four. An attempted conversion run failed.

Senior QB Anthony Calvillo (13) was named the MVP of the Las Vegas Bowl II as he was 25-of-39 passing for 286 yards and three touchdowns in leading Utah State to its first-ever bowl win with a 42-33 victory against Ball State. Calvillo also rushed for 50 yards on eight carries in the game.

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Senior QB Anthony Calvillo tossed three touchdown passes and junior RB Protail Grier ran for two scores as Utah State defeated Ball State, 42-33, in Las Vegas Bowl II on Dec. 17, 1993 in Las Vegas, Nev., marking Utah State's first bowl victory in its 96-year football history. For Utah State, it was just its fifth bowl game in school history and first since playing in the 1961 Gotham Bowl.

Utah State finished the game with 491 yards of total offense (205-rushing, 286-passing) as compared to 314 yards of total offense (73-rushing, 241-passing) for Ball State. USU recorded 27 first downs in the game and was 10-of-16 on third downs, while BSU had just 14 first downs and went 0-of-11 on third downs. USU also won the possession battle, 35:11 to 24:49.

Calvillo completed 25-of-39 passes for 286 yards to earn MVP honors. He also rushed for 50 yards on eight carries. Grier finished the game with 142 rushing yards on 33 carries to go along with his two scores, and caught two passes for 32 yards. Senior WR Tony Jenkins had five catches for 94 yards as eight different Aggies caught passes in the game.

Utah State scored on its first two possessions with drives of 73 and 82 yards, respectively. Calvillo, who completed his first seven pass attempts, hit senior WR Cotic McMahon from 22 yards out for the first score just 4:33 into the game. Eight minutes later, Grier reached the end zone on a 3-yard run capping a 13-play, 82-yard drive that took 5:26 off the clock. With 24 seconds remaining in the first half, senior WR Aubrey Thompson scored on a 3-yard pass from Calvillo to make the halftime score 21-0 for USU. On its last drive of the half, USU went 68-yards in 17 plays and used 7:43. The Aggie offense rolled up 329 total yards in the first half and produced 18 first downs.

Ball State scored 10 straight points to open the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown pass and a 31-yard field goal in the first three minutes, but Utah State got a 15-yard touchdown run from Grier and another touchdown pass from Calvillo, this time to senior WR Mike Lee good for 16 yards. USU's first touchdown of the third quarter was a 12-play, 75-yard drive that took 5:24, while its second was just a 3-play, 24-yard drive in 1:26.

Junior CB Donald Toomer iced the game when he returned an interception 32 yards for a score to give the Aggies a 42-19 lead with 11:34 left in the game. In all, Toomer had two interceptions in the game that he returned 39 yards.

Ball State scored the final 14 points of the game on a 2-yard run with 10:34 to play and a 2-yard pass with 5:07 remaining in the contest.

McMahon finished the game with four catches for 54 yards, while Thompson had four catches for 28 yards and Lee added four catches for 48 yards for USU.

Senior CB Damon Smith and freshman LB David Gill led Utah State with eight tackles apiece, while senior LB Jermaine Younger had seven tackles and senior DE Scott Moala finished with six stops.

Utah State players celebrate their Las Vegas Bowl II win with head coach Charlie Weatherbie.

Senior WR Steve Smith (4) earned Utah State MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards in Utah State's 35-19 loss to Cincinnati in the 1997 Humanitarian Bowl.

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State spotted Cincinnati a 28-point advantage before scoring 19 of the game's final 26 points as the Aggies fell 35-19 in the first Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, Idaho on Dec. 29, 1997.

The Aggies suffered through their second-lowest offensive output of the season in both scoring (16 at Oregon State) and yardage (283 vs. New Mexico) in the game.

Utah State finished the game with just 316 yards of total offense (63-rushing, 253-passing) as compared to 411 total yards (225-rushing, 186-passing) for Cincinnati. The Bearcats also controlled the ball for 42:17 as it converted on 14-of-22 (.636) third downs, while USU had the ball for just 17:43 as it converted just 2-of-10 (.200) third downs. In all, Cincinnati ran 40 more plays (90-50) in the game as it averaged 4.6 yards per play as compared to 6.3 yards per play for USU.

Utah State did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage.

Cincinnati's first touchdown of the game was on a 14-yard pass from Chad Plummer to Cornelius Bonner with 4:03 to play in the first quarter. Bonner caught another 14-yard pass, this time from Deontey Kenner, just 48 seconds into the second quarter. The Bearcats final touchdown of the first half was on a 1-yard run.

After Cincinnati extended its lead to 28-0 with 8:39 to play in the third quarter on a 15-yard run by Plummer, Utah State warmed up, scoring three touchdowns in an eight minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. USU's first score came on a 75-yard pass from senior QB Matt Sauk to senior WR Steve Smith with 7:31 to play in the third quarter. USU scored again late in the third quarter on a 3-yard run by senior RB Melvin Blue, and its final touchdown of the game came with 14:18 to play in the game on a 10-yard fumble return by freshman LB Brent Passey.

Cincinnati's final touchdown of the game was with 2:28 to play in the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown run by Orlando Smith to make the score 35-7, before USU scored the final 12 points of the game.

Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas.

Sauk finished the game 12-of-30 passing for 253 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions. Kenner passed for 124 yards as he completed 10-of-16 passes with one touchdown, while Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP in the game after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards. Sophomore RB Demario Brown was the Aggies' top rusher as he carried the ball 12 times for 56 yards, and senior WR Nakia Jenkins added 80 receiving yards on four receptions.

Junior LB Tony D'Amato led Utah State with 12 tackles, while junior CB Johndale Carty and junior LB Craig Miller each posted nine stops.

Junior LB Tony D'Amato (46) had a game-high 12 tackles, including one for loss, against the Bearcats.

Senior RB Michael Smith (20) rushed for a career-high 157 yards on just 12 carries and scored two touchdowns in Utah State's 24-23 loss to Ohio in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Smith, who added one reception for 10 yards, was named Utah State's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - In a season full of close finishes, the outcome at Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was no different for Utah State (7-6, 5-3 WAC) as Ohio scored with 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a 24-23 win against the Aggies on Dec. 17, 2011 at Bronco Stadium in Boise.

After much deliberation on the two plays earlier to get to the goal line, Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds left to tie the score at 23-23. The ensuing extra point from Matt Weller gave the Bobcats their first and only lead of the game.

In the Aggies' first bowl game since 1997, senior RB Michael Smith ran for a career-high and USU bowl record 157 yards, scoring both of Utah State's rushing touchdowns. Junior RB Robert Turbin recorded his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 101 yards.

Utah State ended its historic season with a 7-6 record, which is its first seven-win season since 1993. The loss snaps the Aggies' five-game winning streak, and gave the Bobcats their first ever bowl win in their sixth bowl appearance, improving to 10-4.

The Aggies jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first quarter after Tettleton fumbled in the end zone with 9:23 remaining in the first quarter.

USU expanded its lead to 9-0 later in the first quarter when junior QB Adam Kennedy connected with senior TE Tarren Lloyd for a 3-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies the 9-0 lead after the first quarter. The USU defense pitched its fourth first-quarter shutout this season, and second in a row.

Ohio cut that lead to 9-7 early in the second quarter when Derek Roback scored on a 26-yard pass from Tettleton with 4:40 to play in the half. It would be the only score of the second quarter as USU entered the locker room with a 9-7 advantage.

Smith and the Aggies wasted no time getting on the board in the third quarter when Smith broke off a 63-yard run with 12:19 remaining to put USU up 16-7. It was the longest rush allowed by the highly-touted Ohio defense during the season.

Less than three minutes later, the USU defense was able to hold the Bobcats to a field goal when Matt Weller drilled a 32-yard field goal to cut the Blue and White lead to 16-10.

The high-scoring third quarter continued with Smith scoring his second touchdown of the game with an 11-yard scamper and sophomore PK Josh Thompson booted his third extra point of the night to put USU up 23-10 with 5:51 left in the third stanza. The frenzied third-quarter scoring wasn't done as Tettleton hit Ohio's MVP Brazill with a 44-yard scoring strike to pull the Bobcats within 23-17 at the 3:45 mark of quarter number three.

Kennedy was injured late in the third quarter, and freshman QB Chuckie Keeton returned under center for the first time since Nov. 5 after starting USU's first eight games of the season but getting injured himself in the Hawai'i game. Keeton ran for a 10-yard gain on his first play, but the drive later stalled at midfield.

On USU's first drive of the fourth quarter, Kennedy returned and the Aggies again reached midfield, but couldn't get into scoring territory. The USU defense held Ohio, but Bobcat punter Paul Hershey boomed a 59-yard punt, pinning the Aggies at the USU 7. Utah State couldn't get a first down and had to punt it away to Ohio, and the Bobcats began their winning drive with 2:02 left.

Senior LB Kyle Gallagher (43) had nine tackles, including 0.5 for loss, against the Bobcats.

Senior RB Kerwynn Williams (25) rushed for a career-high 235 yards on just 18 carries and scored three touchdowns in leading Utah State to a 41-15 win against Toledo in the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Williams, who added two receptions for 34 yards, was named the game's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - Utah State (11-2, 6-0 WAC) concluded its most successful season in school history with a 41-15 rout of Toledo (9-4, 6-2 MAC) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 15, 2012 as senior RB Kerwynn Williams was named the game's Most Valuable Player as he ran for a career-best 235 yards and tied his career-high with three touchdowns on runs of 63, 5 and 25 yards, all in the fourth quarter.

Utah State led 13-6 heading into the final 15 minutes of play before Toledo cut it to 13-9 following a 29-yard field goal with 7:28 to play. From there it was all USU as Williams scored his first touchdown of the game on a 63-yard run to cap a 2-play, 70-yard drive. Following a three-and-out by the Rockets, Williams rattled off a 56-yard run and then scored from 5-yards out to give USU a 27-9 advantage. During the drive, Williams accounted for all 62-yards on three carries. Sophomore FS Brian Suite then picked off Toledo's Austin Dantin two plays later, which led to Williams' third touchdown of the quarter on a 25-yard run upping USU's lead to 34-9 following a 2-play, 39-yard drive. Toledo returned the ensuing kickoff 87-yards for a score, its only touchdown of the day, to cut the deficit to 34-15. Williams then rushed for 32 yards on USU's next offensive play and sophomore RB Joe Hill scored on the Aggies' next play with a 24-yard run for a 2-play, 56-yard drive making the final score 41-15 as the Aggies scored 28 points in just 5:15.

In the fourth quarter, Utah State gained 228 yards, including 221 on the ground, as Williams rushed for 198 yards on just seven carries to go along with his three touchdowns.

Williams, who end the game with 269 all-purpose yards, set the Western Athletic Conference record with 6,928 career all-purpose yards to rank 11th in NCAA history at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level. Overall, Williams' 235 rushing yards were the second-most in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history and the 19th-most in a single-game in school history.

Utah State finished the game with 582 yards of total offense (353-rushing, 229-passing) to rank as the third-most during the year and 14th-most in school history. USU's 353 rushing yards were a season-high and the 19th-most in a single-game in school history, while its 28 fourth quarter points are its most in any quarter since 2011 and tied for the most in any quarter in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history.

Toledo finished the game with 315 yards of total offense (173-passing, 142-rushing).

Sophomore QB Chuckie Keeton scored Utah State's first touchdown on a 62-yard run in the first quarter to give USU a 7-3 lead after Toledo scored the first points of the game on a 37-yard field goal on its opening series. In all, Keeton rushed for 92 yards on nine carries and added 229 yards through the air as he was 21-of-31 passing to set single season school records for both completions (275) and passing yards (3,373).

The only other points scored in the first half were on a pair of field goals as Toledo cut the lead to 7-6 early in the second quarter on another 37-yarder, while USU sophomore PK Nick Diaz connected from 27-yards out on the last play of the first half to send the Aggies into the locker room up 10-6.

Diaz added a 44-yard field goal on the Aggies' first possession of the third quarter to up its lead to 13-6 for the only score of the period, before the two teams combined for 37 fourth quarter points.

Senior LB Bojay Filimoeatu led USU's defense with 11 tackles, while redshirt freshman LB Kyler Fackrell recorded his third interception of the year in the third quarter in the red zone on a pass that was tipped by junior LB Jake Doughty.

In all, Utah State concluded the year with seven-straight wins.

Senior LB Bojay Filimoeatu (55) had 11 tackles, one sack and one pass breakup against the Rockets.

Senior RB Joey DeMartino (28) rushed for 143 yards on 23 carries and scored the eventual game-winning touchdown on a 1-yard run in the fourth quarter to lead Utah State to a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. DeMartino, who added one reception for eight yards, was named the game's Offensive MVP.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Behind 143 rushing yards from senior RB Joey DeMartino, Utah State (9-5) posted a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois (12-2) in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl here at Qualcomm Stadium on Dec. 26, 2013.

DeMartino was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player for his efforts, which included one touchdown and a 58-yard rush which is a new Poinsettia Bowl record. It was DeMartino's seventh 100-yard outing this season.

Senior LB Jake Doughty was named the Defensive MVP for his eight tackle, one forced fumble outing. Doughty added 1.5 tackles for loss in the game.

Utah State ended the game with 289 total yards, on 168 rushing yards and 121 passing yards, and Northern Illinois had a season-low 315 yards of total offense, tallying 216 yards passing a being limited to 99 yards rushing, also a season-low for the Huskies. The 14 points was also a season-low for NIU.

Freshman QB Darell Garretson was 17-of-28 passing for 121 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions for Utah State, while junior WR Ronald Butler and sophomore WR Brandon Swindall each had four catches, with Butler tallying 33 yards and Swindall amassing 28 yards and USU's lone touchdown catch.

Junior FS Brian Suite led the Aggies' defensive with a game-high 11 tackles, one interception and one fumble recovery. Junior LB Zach Vigil added nine stops, while redshirt-freshman LB Nick Vigil and junior SS Frankie Sutera had seven tackles apiece.

Utah State got on the board first with a 31-yard field goal by junior PK Nick Diaz for a 3-0 Aggie lead with 6:56 left in the first quarter. The field goal was set up by a fumble that was forced by Doughty and recovered by Suite.

Following a missed 37-yard field goal by Northern Illinois, Diaz connected on his second field goal of the game from 39 yards to tie the Poinsettia Bowl record for longest field goal and a 6-0 Aggie advantage just 51 seconds into the second quarter.

Northern Illinois got on the board with a 2-yard scamper by Jordan Lynch with 8:17 left in the second quarter for a 7-6 lead, which they held into halftime.

The Aggie defense made a sudden change on NIU's opening possession of the second half, as Suite intercepted Lynch on the first play from scrimmage, setting up the USU offense at the NIU 31. Later Garretson hit Swindall for a 5-yard touchdown and Diaz drilled the extra point for a 13-7 USU lead with 11:57 remaining in the third quarter.

Garretson was picked off early in the fourth quarter, giving the Huskies the ball at the USU 13, but the Aggie defense bowed up and held them to a field goal attempt, which they missed for their second miss of the night.

Utah State took over and drove 80 yards in 16 plays that culminated in a 1-yard touchdown run by DeMartino in a drive that took 7:19 off the clock. Garretson then hit sophomore WR JoJo Natson for the two-point conversion and a 21-7 Aggie advantage with 4:14 left.

Northern Illinois pulled to within 21-14 with 1:44 left following a 15-yard touchdown pass, but the ensuing on-side kick was recovered by Swindall to seal the win.

Lynch, who finished third for the Heisman Trophy, was 20-of-35 passing for 216 yards and one touchdown, but just 39 yards rushing on 18 carries, for his second-fewest rushing yards of the season. Lynch was also sacked twice by the Aggie defense, tying the most allowed by NIU on the year.

Senior LB Jake Doughty (51) had 1.5 tackles for loss as part of his eight total tackles and added a forced fumble against the Huskies as he was named the game's Defensive MVP.

Freshman QB Kent Myers (2) rushed for 70 yards on a career-best 15 carries, including a 48-yard touchdown run in Utah State's 21-6 win against UTEP in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Myers, who was also 5-of-12 passing for 68 yards, was named the game's Offensive MVP.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Freshman QB Kent Myers rushed a career-high 15 times for 70 yards with one touchdown and Utah State gained 279 yards on the ground en route to its 21-6 Gildan New Mexico Bowl win against UTEP at University Stadium on Dec. 20, 2014.

With the win, Utah State has now won a school-record three-straight bowl games, and finished the season with a 10-4 record for the second-most wins in a single-season in school history. USU was playing in its fourth-straight bowl game, which is also a school-record.

Myers was named the Offensive Most Valuable Player of the game as he was 5-of-12 passing for 68 yards to go along with his 70 rushing yards and one touchdown.

Senior LB Zach Vigil was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player as he finished with 11 tackles, which included 1.0 tackle for loss, while adding one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry. With his 11 tackles, Vigil ends his career with 389 tackles to rank fifth all-time in school history. Vigil also ends his career as the school leader in tackles for loss with 43.5, while his 20.5 tackles for loss this season tie the Mountain West single-season record. Overall, it was Vigil's ninth double-digit tackle outing of the season and the 20th of his career.

Utah State finished the game with 347 yards of total offense, as its 279 rushing yards are its third-most in a game this season, while its 68 passing yards are a season-low.

Senior WR Ronald Butler rushed for a career-high 69 yards on just two carries, which included a career-long rush of 61 yards. Senior RB Joe Hill added 50 yards on six carries and one touchdown, while junior WR JoJo Natson had 40 rushing yards on five carries, and sophomore LB Nick Vigil gained 34 yards on eight carries with one touchdown.

Utah State had just two players make receptions in the game as junior WR Hunter Sharp caught three passes for 21 yards, while Natson had two catches for 47 yards. With his three receptions, Sharp finished the season tied for ninth all-time in school history with 66 catches, while Natson becomes the 32nd player in USU history with 1,000 career receiving yards.

UTEP was limited to just 275 yards of total offense, the third-fewest allowed by USU this season. The Miners finished with just 126 passing yards, which is the second-fewest allowed by Utah State this year. Aaron Jones led the Miners with 88 rushing yards on 25 carries.

UTEP scored the first points of the game on a 32-yard field goal by Jay Mattox late in the first quarter after it completed a 53-yard pass on a third-and-10 from its own 26-yard line.

Utah State answered UTEP's scoring drive on its next possession as Myers scored on a 48-yard run to cap a three-play, 75-yard drive that took just 1:18 off the clock.

Both teams had a chance to put points on the board late in the second quarter, but UTEP fumbled the snap on a 25-yard field goal attempt and USU missed a 28-yard field goal attempt on the final play of the half.

Utah State scored its second touchdown of the game on its opening drive of the third quarter as Nick Vigil scored on a 3-yard run to cap a seven-play, 75-yard drive.

UTEP's final points of the game came late in the fourth quarter on a Mattox 34-yard field goal following a 16-play, 54-yard drive that took 6:56 off the clock.

Utah State put the game away on the next series as it drove 65 yards in just four plays as Hill scored on an 11-yard run to seal the win.

Senior FS Brian Suite had 10 tackles for his fourth-career double-digit tackle outing, while junior CB Deshane Hines added a career-high six tackles, and fellow junior CB Tyler Floyd had a career-high four tackles and recorded his first career interception.

Senior LB Zach Vigil (53) had 11 tackles, which included 1.0 tackle for loss, to go along with one pass breakup and one quarterback hurry against the Miners. Vigil was named the game's Defensive MVP.

STAN ALBRECHT

University President

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

Albrecht has had many successes during his tenure as president. Under his leadership, the university launched a comprehensive fundraising campaign that raised $500 million at its completion in October of 2012.

Undergraduate Kathryn "Katie" Sweet is a 2015 Goldwater Scholar and, for the second consecutive year, student David Griffin received honorable mention in a prestigious national competition that recognizes outstanding achievements in science and mathematics. With this year's honorees, USU boasts 24 Goldwater Scholars and 12 honorable mention recipients since 1998.

Changes on campus are happening as well. Ground was broken for the new, state-of-the-art Huntsman Hall, a $42 million, 117,000-square-foot addition that will wrap around the south and west sides of the George S. Eccles Business Building. Jon M. Huntsman, Sr. is the lead donor for the new building, scheduled to be completed in the fall of 2015. And Jon M. Huntsman School of Business alum Jeffrey Clark and his wife, Bonnie Clark, have provided a $6 million leadership gift to help establish the Jeffrey D. Clark Center for Entrepreneurship in that college.

Students will also be excited that construction is well under way on the USU Student Recreation & Wellness Center (SRWC) building. USU students voted in favor of a new recreation and wellness center in the spring of 2012, but the building has been a work in progress for nearly a decade. Students will have full access to the building in fall 2015, which is the anticipated completion date.

These many notable accomplishments indicate that USU is on par with some of the leading institutions for higher education in the nation and does not go unnoticed.

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Albrecht served as an administrator and professor at the University of Florida from 1993-98. He also served for 18 years at Brigham Young University (1974-92), including three years as academic vice president and associate provost. He began his career as an assistant professor of sociology at Utah State University in 1970 through 1974.

A sociologist, Albrecht has written extensively, including as a co-author of the textbooks Social Psychology and Social Science Research Methods, both published by Prentice-Hall. He has authored numerous scholarly papers on a wide range of topics, including the environment, energy development and rural health.

Albrecht received his doctorate from Washington State University in 1970, a master's degree from Washington State University in 1968 and bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University in 1966. All three degrees were in sociology.

He is a member of the Science Committee for the Minerals Management Service of the U.S. Department of Interior. He has served as a council member of the Society for Human Ecology and as vice president of the Rural Sociological Society.

Albrecht is married to Joyce Albrecht, Utah State's Director of Stewardship Programs.

JOHN HARTWELL

University Vice President/
Director of Athletics

John Hartwell was named Utah State's Vice President and Director of Athletics on June 2, 2015 by University President Stan L. Albrecht.

Hartwell comes to Utah State after spending the past three years as the Athletics Director at Troy, where he laid the groundwork for the future of Trojan Athletics by spearheading several significant upgrades to its athletic facilities, including the addition of a new $2 million practice facility for the golf teams, a $3 million renovation and expansion of the softball facility and a $2.1 million improvement to Veterans Memorial Stadium, while also securing funding for lights to be installed at the soccer and track complex. Hartwell also unveiled the North End Zone Project for Veterans Memorial Stadium, a $20 million project that will be the new home for Trojan football.

During the 2014-15 academic year, five Troy programs competed in postseason play, highlighted by a pair of Sun Belt Conference championships by the women's golf and men's tennis teams, while the women's basketball team won 20 games for the first time since 1996-97 and made just its second postseason appearance in school history. Within the past year, three of Hartwell's new coaching hires - Beth Mullins (softball), Scott Kidd (men's tennis) and Bart Barnes (women's golf) - have been named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, including back-to-back awards by Barnes.

Under Hartwell, Troy Athletics saw a significant enhancement in fundraising and external relations as he completely overhauled Troy's External Affairs division of the Athletics Department to increase revenues and enhance the fan and game day experience. As part of this makeover was the creation of a new external model, which included the addition of a Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs; bringing corporate sponsorships in house with a partnership with Rockbridge Sports Group; and the development of the Troy Affinity Program to further engage Troy students in athletics.

Hartwell's strong business background also proved to be valuable at Troy as he negotiated a new footwear and apparel deal with Adidas, while also securing home-and-home football games with Duke and North Carolina State in addition to yielding a home basketball game with Mississippi. Hartwell's tenure at Troy also saw a record number of student-athletes earn a 3.0 grade-point-average, an upward trend in APR scores and additional staff positions in Troy's academic support department. During the 2014-15 academic year, Troy student-athletes finished with a 3.01 cumulative grade-point-average and over 57 percent of Troy's student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or higher.

At Troy, Hartwell served on the NCAA Division I Basketball Issues Committee, the Division I-A Board of Trustees Executive Committee, and the NCAA Division I Council as the Sun Belt Conference representative. He has also been an instructor at the Division I-A Institute for aspiring athletic directors the past two years.

Prior to being the Director of Athletics at Troy, Hartwell spent nine-plus years at the University of Mississippi, where he was the Senior Executive Associate Athletics Director, serving as the number two administrator in athletics.

Hartwell served as the Treasurer and Chief Operating Officer of the Mississippi Athletic Association Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) organization that generated over $17 million annually for the Ole Miss Athletics Department through priority seating and major gifts.

He was responsible for the day-to-day administrative oversight of the football, men's basketball and baseball programs, along with sport oversight of the softball and men's and women's track & field and cross country programs. Hartwell also oversaw the Rebels' business office, ticket office, equipment room, merchandise sales, concessions and football scheduling. Hartwell scheduled several marquee football games for the Rebels, including a home-and-home series with Texas that began in 2012.

Hartwell managed the growth of the Ole Miss athletic budget from $26 million in the 2003 fiscal year to over $47 million in the 2012 fiscal year. He also chaired the search to hire men's basketball head coach Andy Kennedy in 2006. He was heavily involved in negotiations that increased revenues with contracts for apparel and footwear (Nike), merchandise sales (Sports Avenue/LIDS), concessions (Centerplate), wireless provider (C Spire) and video boards (Daktronics). He served on the Southeastern Conference Ticket Committee and started the annual SEC Chief Financial Officers Forum.

A 1987 graduate of The Citadel, the 50-year old Hartwell spent four-plus years as a certified public accountant with Ernst & Young before returning to his alma mater to serve as the Director of Internal Audit in 1991. From 1994 to 1997, he was in private business as the Chief Financial Officer for a $36 million beverage distributor on the South Carolina coast.

Hartwell's direct experience in athletics administration began as the Assistant Athletics Director for Business at Georgia State in 1997. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs in 1999, and his responsibilities expanded to include sport supervision for baseball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's track & field and cross country. He also had oversight over the Panthers' athletic facilities and game management in addition to his previous responsibilities of all financial aspects of the department. While at Georgia State, Hartwell earned a master's degree in sports administration.

Athletics has always been a big part of Hartwell's life, starting in high school where he was an all-state basketball selection at UMS-Wright in Mobile, Ala. The 6-foot-7 forward played alongside current North Carolina State head coach Mark Gottfried in high school. Hartwell went on to play collegiately at The Citadel, where he was a three-year starter, a four-year letterman and captain of the team as a senior in 1987. Current Tulane head coach Ed Conroy was a collegiate teammate of Hartwell.

Hartwell is married to Dr. Heather Seale Hartwell, and they have two daughters, Lauren (6) and Madison (3). Hartwell also has a 23-year old son, Hunter, a recent graduate of Vanderbilt who works for Deloitte Consulting.

COREY ANSFIELD

*Assistant Athletics Director
Annual Giving
Fourth Year at USU*

Beginning his fourth year as an Assistant Athletics Director and Executive Director of the Big Blue Scholarship Fund at Utah State is Corey Ansfield, who started in the department in March, 2012.

In his role, he is responsible for the operations and donor relations with the membership of the Big Blue Scholarship Fund. While trying to recruit new donors to the program, Ansfield also runs USU's Big Blue fund drive, the Jr. Aggie program, golf tournaments and the annual Aggie Auction. He also oversees the ticket office operations.

Ansfield came to Utah State after spending one year as a development assistant in the Rebel Athletic Fund at UNLV where he was responsible for increasing annual membership through priority seating and sport specific giving. Ansfield began his athletics career at Illinois State where he was involved in ticket operations.

A native of Oshkosh, Wis., Ansfield graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Marian (Wis.) University where he played baseball. He later received his master's degree in sports management from Illinois State.

LANDON DAY

*General Manager
Aggie Sports Properties
Ninth Year at USU*

Beginning his ninth year with the Utah State Athletics Department is Landon Day, who is entering his eighth year as the General Manager of Aggie Sports Properties (ASP), a property of Learfield Sports.

Prior to his current position, Day spent one year as an account executive with ASP. In his current role, Day oversees the multi-media rights for USU Athletics.

Before joining the Aggie family, Day spent four years at the U.S. Air Force Academy in the marketing department.

A native of Monticello, Utah, Day graduated from Utah State in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science. While at USU, he spent two years as an intern in the marketing office.

Day is married to Darci and the couple have five children, Jada (10), Brecka (8), Ledgen (5), Lehra (2) and Lakin (2).

JANA DOGGETT

*Executive Associate Athletics Director
External Operations/SWA
10th Year at USU*

Jana Doggett is entering her 10th year with the Utah State Athletics Department and fifth as Executive Associate Athletics Director after spending her first five years as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Operations. Doggett also serves as the department's Senior Woman Administrator.

Doggett, who was named one of the top 10 SWA's in the nation at the Division I level by College AD in 2015, served as Utah State's Interim AD during the summer of 2015.

With her current position, Doggett is the athletic department's second-in-command and oversees the department's external operations, which includes event management, media relations, new media, Aggie Sports Properties, licensing and Sodexo concession sales. She also supervises the sports of football, men and women's basketball and volleyball.

Doggett has also been the athletics department lead liaison with the construction of the Wayne Estes Center, USU's Olympic Sports Complex and the current renovations to the west side of Maverik Stadium.

Prior to her current position, Doggett spent 11 years in the athletics department at San Diego State, from 1993-2003, including six years as an Associate Director of Athletics. She also worked at the National Multiple Sclerosis Society San Diego Area Chapter.

At San Diego State, she supervised all 18 of the athletic department's head coaches as well as the ticket office, marketing and promotions, financial aid, academics, compliance, event management, video production, weight and equipment rooms, sports medicine and business services.

Doggett graduated with a degree in speech communication from San Diego State. She was raised in Nezperce, Idaho before moving to Visalia, Calif., for junior high and high school.

Doggett married current USU assistant men's basketball coach Tarvish Felton on May 28, 2011 and the couple has a 16-year old daughter, DeAubrey Ann Bowers and a 1-year old son, Deekan G. Felton.

DR. BRIAN EVANS

*Sr. Associate Athletics Director
Student-Athlete Services
16th Year at USU*

Beginning his 16th year in charge of Utah State's Student-Athlete Academic Services is Dr. Brian Evans, who was promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director in 2013. Evans joined the USU staff in July, 2000 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Athletic Academic Services at Texas Tech from 1997-

2000. Previously, he was the Academic Coordinator at Montana State from 1995-97.

Evans oversees the student-athlete academic services unit, directing academics and certification of initial and continuing eligibility of Utah State student-athletes. He directs a staff of three full-time assistants and two post-graduate interns, and has administrative oversight of the gymnastics program. Following the 2014 and 2015 gymnastics season, Evans was named the North Central Region Administrator of the Year as voted on by coaches in the region.

Under Evans' guidance, Utah State has led its conference in number of academic all-league honorees in nine of the past 11 years, as it finished second in the Mountain West during the 2014-15 academic year as the Aggies had 250 student-athletes recognized for academic excellence, as 153 student-athletes received academic all-Mountain West honors, while 97 were named Mountain West Scholar-Athletes. Overall, USU has led its conference in most academic all-league honorees 14 times in the last 17 years.

A native of Nebraska, the 1987 Colorado journalism graduate earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 1988 and a doctorate of higher education administration from Montana State in 2000.

JAKE GARLOCK

*Associate Athletics Director
Compliance
10th Year at USU*

Entering his 10th year at Utah State is Jake Garlock, who was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Compliance in July, 2013. In his position, Garlock is in charge of maintaining USU's compliance in accordance with the NCAA and Mountain West Conference rules. He also has administrative oversight of men's and women's track & field/cross country, men's and women's tennis and the men's golf programs, as well as the equipment room and strength and conditioning program.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Garlock spent one year as a practicing trial attorney.

Garlock, who is originally from Salem, Ore., graduated from Brigham Young with a bachelor's degree in psychology in 2002 and received his law degree from Willamette in 2005.

Garlock was born March 19, 1978 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He and his wife Jenny have four children, Grace (12), Sophia (9), Ben (7) and Caleb (2).

ATHLETICS STAFF

LEON JACKSON III

*Director of Ticketing & Customer Service
Fourth Year at USU*

Leon Jackson III is in his fourth year with the Utah State Athletics Department and second as its Director of Ticketing & Customer Service as he was appointed to his new position in November, 2014. In his current position, he oversees the ticket office operations for both athletic and campus events.

Previously, Jackson III spent one year as the assistant ticket manager at Utah State and was the Director of Event Operations for USU Athletics during the 2012-13 academic year. He also served as a graduate assistant in the athletics department assisting in external and internal operations from 2011-2012.

Jackson III was a four-year letterwinner in football for Utah State from 2004-07 and still ranks third all-time in school history in career completion percentage (.582), eighth in career pass completions (382), ninth in career pass attempts (656), ninth in total offense for a career (5,035 yards) and 10th in career passing yards (4,221). As a senior in 2007, Jackson III completed 65.4 percent of his passes (151-of-231) to rank third all-time at USU for a single-season.

Jackson III also earned second-team all-Western Athletic Conference honors as punter during his senior season in 2007 as he punted 62 times for 2,558 yards (41.3 ypk) with a long of 62 and 16 punts downed inside the 20-yard line. As a freshman in 2004, Jackson III punted 40 times for 1,694 yards for an average of 42.3 yards per punt, which still ranks tied for 10th all-time at USU for a single-season.

Following his collegiate career, Jackson III completed a five-month internship in Washington, D.C., on Capitol Hill. He then spent two years playing professional football overseas with the Aix-en Provence Argonautes in 2009 and for the Innsbruck Raiders in 2010, helping the Argonautes to the French semifinals and the Raiders to the Austria Football League Championship and European semifinals. Jackson III then spent the 2010 season as an offensive administrative assistant on the USU football team under then head coach Gary Andersen.

A native of South Central Los Angeles, Calif., Jackson III graduated from Utah State with a bachelor's degree in political science in 2007 and earned his masters of education from USU in 2012.

Jackson III is married to the former Nicki Felley who was a four-year letterwinner on USU's gymnastics team and the couple has one son, Josiah (2) and one daughter, Kyndal (3 mo.).

MAGGIE MCINERNEY

*Associate Athletics Director
Business Affairs
First Year at USU*

In her first year as Associate Athletics Director for Business Affairs at Utah State is Maggie McInerney, who joined the department in January, 2015.

Prior to joining the athletics department, McInerney spent a year and a half working for the Office of Research and Graduate Studies for Utah State.

Before working for Utah State, McInerney worked at Kohl's Corporation in Menomonee Falls, Wis., in a variety of rolls including financial planning, internal audit, external reporting and loss prevention financial analysis.

McInerney graduated from Marquette with a bachelor's degree in accounting in 2004 and obtained her Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license in 2005.

McInerney is married to Utah State's women's head tennis coach Sean McInerney and the couple have two children, Brayden (3) and Adley (10 mos.).

JIMMY MOORE

*Assistant Athletics Director
Special Projects
Fifth Year at USU*

Jimmy Moore is entering his fifth year in the Utah State Athletics Department, and third year as an Assistant Athletics Director for Special Projects, after joining the staff in July, 2011. In his first two years with USU Athletics, Moore oversaw financial aid for all of USU's student-athletes, monitored and ensured institutional compliance with NCAA rules, provided interpretations and education of NCAA and Mountain West Conference rules to both student-athletes and coaches, and directed the student-athlete mentoring program.

Moore began his affiliation with Utah State as a student-athlete on the men's basketball team from 1972-75, helping the Aggies to the 1975 NCAA Tournament. He finished his career with 1,164 points and 652 rebounds and still ranks 24th all-time in school history in scoring and 15th all-time in rebounding. In 2005, Moore was one of 16 Aggie greats named to USU's All-Century basketball team and in 2013 was inducted into USU's Athletics Hall of Fame as a member of its 11th class.

Following his collegiate career, Moore spent two years in the NBA with the Seattle SuperSonics and 10 years playing overseas before returning to Logan as an assistant basketball coach for Rod Tueller in 1987. Moore then spent four seasons (1989-92) on Kohn Smith's staff before beginning his administrative career on campus.

From 1992 to 2001, Moore served as the Associate Director of Admissions for Utah State before being promoted to the Director of Admissions and Scholarships, a capacity he served in for four years. He then spent one year as the Director of Outreach for Student-Services followed by four years as the Student Involvement Officer and one year as an associate director within the Access and Diversity Center.

A native of Leakesville, Miss., Moore graduated from Utah State with a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in education. He and his wife Debra are the parents of two sons, Grayson (21) and Jalen (19), who are both members of USU's men's basketball team.

KENT STANLEY

*Associate Vice President for Advancement
Athletics and Strategic Initiatives
Eighth Year at USU*

Kent Stanley is entering his eighth year at Utah State and serves as Associate Vice President for Advancement-Athletics and Strategic University Initiatives after joining the staff in July, 2008 as a Senior Associate Athletic Director. At USU, he is responsible for the overall administration, management and supervision of athletic development and fundraising efforts, and associated personnel for the athletics department. He also focuses on planning and executing capital and annual fund initiatives for athletics in conjunction with the University foundation. Recently he added oversight responsibilities for coordination of all university fundraising campaigns as part of his Associate Vice President role. In October of 2014 he also began to oversee the marketing, box office, and out-bound ticketing operations within the athletics department.

Stanley is a regular presenter at some of the industries' premier events including the National Association of Athletic Director's of Development Convention, and Paciolan's PACNet. He was also the keynote speaker at the 2014 Cache Valley National Day of Prayer breakfast. He was elected to the Cache Valley Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors in 2013, and serves as a consultant with a number of not-for-profit organizations in northern Utah.

In his first seven years at Utah State, Stanley has led the fundraising efforts on six capital campaigns. Currently he is concluding the fundraising for the $33M Maverik Stadium Redevelopment Project that began April 13, 2015 and will open in August of 2016. Other projects he led fundraising efforts for include the recently opened Wayne Estes Center ($9.7M), the ICON Sports Performance Center ($6.5M), the five-year $2.5M Football Competitive Excellence Initiative, the men's and women's basketball off-court facilities project, and the Merlin Olsen Field project. Stanley also conceptualized the Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor project, which opened in the Fall of 2010. Working with the Big Blue Scholarship Fund leadership, he has helped to bring additional focus to the BBSF's annual fund efforts with record growth in four of the past five years including this year with the largest dollars and largest membership in school history.

In the past five years, Utah State has also added 16 new endowments under Stanley, while also initiating the Merlin Olsen Fund for Football Competitive Excellence. The Olsen Fund is a hybrid fund, and is supporting Aggie football at over $500,000 annually.

Prior to joining Utah State, Stanley spent two years as the Director of Athletics at NCAA Division II Fort Lewis in Durango, Colo. While at Fort Lewis, Skyhawk teams had the most successful two-year span in school history with 12 teams making NCAA postseason play, while football won its first-ever postseason bowl game.

Stanley also increased the number of major gifts for athletics by 50 percent and increased revenue by 100 percent as he implemented a four-tiered corporate partnership model to increase partner options. He also increased licensing revenue 45 percent and increased scholarship funding for athletics by 25 percent.

Before being named Director of Athletics at Fort Lewis, Stanley spent five years at Eastern Washington as Associate Athletics Director for Development. At EWU, he oversaw record growth in external revenue while managing the annual fund, major gifts and corporate partnerships.

Stanley began his administrative career as the chief enrollment officer at Simpson University and Graduate School from 2000-01. He also spent eight years as a women's basketball coach at Fresno Pacific (1987-95) as his teams made five NAIA National Tournament appearances while winning four conference championships. He left Fresno Pacific with the most wins and highest winning percentage of any basketball coach in school history.

He also won consecutive NAIA National Championships (1999, 2000) as the head coach at Oklahoma City and was honored as NAIA National Coach of the Year both seasons.

Stanley earned his undergraduate degree in psychology and physical education from Trinity Western University and then earned his graduate degree from Fresno State in 1988 in athletic administration.

A native of Prince George, British Columbia, Canada, Stanley and his wife Hollie have been married 28 years and have two children, Zach (16) and Mikayla (13).

DERICK STOULLIL

*Assistant Athletics Director
Marketing and Promotions
Third Year at USU*

Beginning his third year as the Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Promotions at Utah State is Derick Stoullil, who joined in the department in August, 2013.

In his role, Stoullil is responsible for all marketing campaigns and promotions of USU's 16 intercollegiate sports.

Previously, Stoullil spent three years at Purdue University as Director of Fan Experience and Assistant Director of Promotions and Advertising. While at Purdue, he was responsible for marketing and promoting the 18 intercollegiate sports. He set numerous ticket sales, attendance and revenue records for the volleyball program as well as oversaw the marketing and promotions plan for the new baseball stadium, resulting in record season ticket, attendance and revenue numbers during the 2013 season.

Stoullil came to Purdue after spending two years in the athletics department at Fresno State, where he worked with the baseball, volleyball and women's basketball programs.

He spent two years as a marketing and promotions graduate assistant at Western Illinois. Prior to that, he worked two years for the Clinton LumberKings minor league baseball team

A native of Pocahontas, Iowa, Stoullil earned his bachelor's degree in accounting and marketing: sales and advertising emphasis from Northern Iowa in 2004 and a master's degree in sport management from Western Illinois in 2008.

MIKE WILLIAMS

*Associate Athletics Director
Head Athletics Trainer
17th Year at USU*

Entering his 17th year at Utah State and third as Associate Athletics Director/Head Athletics Trainer is Mike Williams, who was promoted from Assistant Athletics Trainer in April, 2013. In his role, Williams is responsible for the health of all of USU's student-athletes as well as teaching and supervising the graduate athletic training program.

As an athletics trainer at Utah State, Williams works primarily with the nationally ranked football program, while providing support for USU's other 15 NCAA Division I programs.

Williams, who was named the 2012-13 Athletic Trainer of the Year in the state of Utah, was also presented the Heartsaver Hero Award by the American Heart Association in 2013 as he began cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) and used an automated external defibrillator (AED) on men's basketball player Danny Berger after he collapsed unexpectedly during a USU practice on Dec. 4, 2012.

Williams was also honored at the 2013 USU Robins Awards as he received the Gerald R. Sherratt Award, which is given to a member of the university who has displayed superior leadership skills and abilities as well as unsurpassed dedication and service to others.

Prior to working at Utah State, Williams worked for Intermountain Health Care in Logan as an athletic trainer and served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Idaho Stampede of the Continental Basketball Association (CBA).

Williams began his athletic training career at Utah State where he received his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1996. He then attended Idaho and graduated with a master's of science degree in sports administration in 1997.

Fifth Year at USU*

Jeremy Winn is in his fifth year with the Utah State Athletics Department and third as an Assistant Athletics Director for Development/Major Gifts. In his role, Winn focuses on major gifts and specific fundraising projects for Aggie Athletics.

Prior to his current position, Winn spent the 2012-13 academic year as the Assistant Development Director for Utah State Athletics working with Aggie golf tournaments and the Aggie Auction. Winn also spent one year as a graduate assistant in the USU Ticket Office and was the ASUSU Athletics Vice President during the 2009-10 academic year.

A native of Taylorsville, Utah, Winn graduated from Utah State with a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 2010. He also received his master's of business administration from USU in 2012.

Winn is married to the former Laura Butterfield and the couple has one son, Boston (2).

ATHLETIC MEDIA RELATIONS

DOUG HOFFMAN
Associate Athletics Director
Media Relations
18th Year at USU

Doug Hoffman is in his ninth year as the Media Relations Director and 18th year with the Utah State athletics department as he joined the staff in December, 1998.

Hoffman, who was promoted to Associate Athletics Director in 2013 after serving as an Assistant Athletics Director for six years, spent eight years as the Associate Athletic Media Relations Director at Utah State.

As the Media Relations Director, Hoffman oversees the publicity of Utah State's 16-sport program, working closely with the media, USU staff, coaches and student-athletes, while serving as the football and men's golf contact.

Along with his duties as Media Relations Director, Hoffman is also the chair of USU's Athletics Hall of Fame Selection Committee and serves as the department's curator, which included the research and development of USU's Athletics Hall of Honor in 2009.

Hoffman came to Utah State after spending one year at Indiana State where he worked with volleyball and the nationally ranked baseball program. Prior to that, he was a graduate assistant in the media relations office at Wyoming from 1994-97.

Hoffman, who graduated from Wyoming in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in communications, was an all-conference basketball player during his senior season at Hot Springs County High School in Thermopolis, Wyo. A native of Mitchell, S.D., he and his wife Shellee have three sons: Chase (11), Davis (7) and Easton (1).

KYLE COTTAM
Assistant Athletics Director
Communications
Second Year at USU

Kyle Cottam is in his second year at Utah State as an Assistant Athletics Director for Communications after joining the department in October, 2014. In his current role, Cottam serves as the primary media contact for the men's basketball and women's volleyball programs, and oversees both tennis programs.

He also oversees statistical crews for numerous sports and assists in other areas of the office.

Cottam came to Utah State after spending close to eight years in the athletic media relations department at Southern Utah, where he served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations and as an Assistant Sports Information Director. Prior to that, Cottam was a member of the athletic media relations staff at Indiana State University.

While at Southern Utah, Cottam was the media relations chair at the 2007 and 2013 Western Athletic Conference Gymnastics Championships and helped to coordinate the media relations efforts for each of the Thunderbirds' 17 sports.

While at Indiana State, Cottam served as the media relations chair at the 2005 NCAA Cross Country National Championships and as the co-chair of the 2004 national championship.

Cottam is originally from Murray, Utah and graduated from Brigham Young University in 2004 with a degree in public relations. He and his wife Meaghan have two daughters, Molly (3) and Lucy (3 mo.).

MEGAN ALLEN
Assistant Media Relations Coordinator
Second Year at USU

Megan Allen is in her second year at Utah State as an Assistant Media Relations Coordinator after joining the department in July, 2014. Allen serves as the media contact for USU's women's basketball, soccer and softball programs, while assisting with a number of other sports. Allen also assists with the athletic department's various social media platforms and is involved in the statistical crews of numerous sports.

Prior to her current position, Allen spent three years working in the USU Athletic Media Relations Office, including two as its graduate assistant, as she served as the media contact for the Aggies' gymnastics program. Allen also worked on numerous stat crews for the Media Relations Office, including serving as the chief in-game statistician for women's basketball.

Allen, a native of Tucson, Ariz., earned her bachelor's degree from USU in journalism in the spring of 2012 and her master's degree from Utah State in physical education in the spring of 2014.

WADE DENNISTON
Assistant Media Relations Coordinator
First Year at USU

Wade Denniston is in his first year at Utah State as an Assistant Media Relations Coordinator after joining the department in March, 2015.

Denniston serves as the media contact for USU's cross country, track & field and gymnastics programs, as well as assisting with a number of other sports, including football.

In addition to game operations duties, Denniston will also assist with the daily operations of the athletic department's various social media platforms.

Prior to joining Utah State, Denniston spent 15 years as a sports writer at The Herald Journal in Logan, Utah. The native of Cache Valley was the newspaper's beat writer for Utah State's football, women's basketball and gymnastics programs.

Denniston graduated from Utah State in May of 2001 with a bachelor's degree in communications. During his time at USU, Denniston was a senior writer for the school newspaper and an intern for the athletic media relations office.

Denniston and his wife Annie are the parents of three sons, Carson (12), Colten (4) and Walker (1), and one daughter, Emma (13).

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 15th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements over its first 14 years of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

HISTORY OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Craig Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002. Entering the 2013 season, the MW has six contracted bowl affiliations — the Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego Country Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl, Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, Famous Potato Idaho Bowl and Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.
