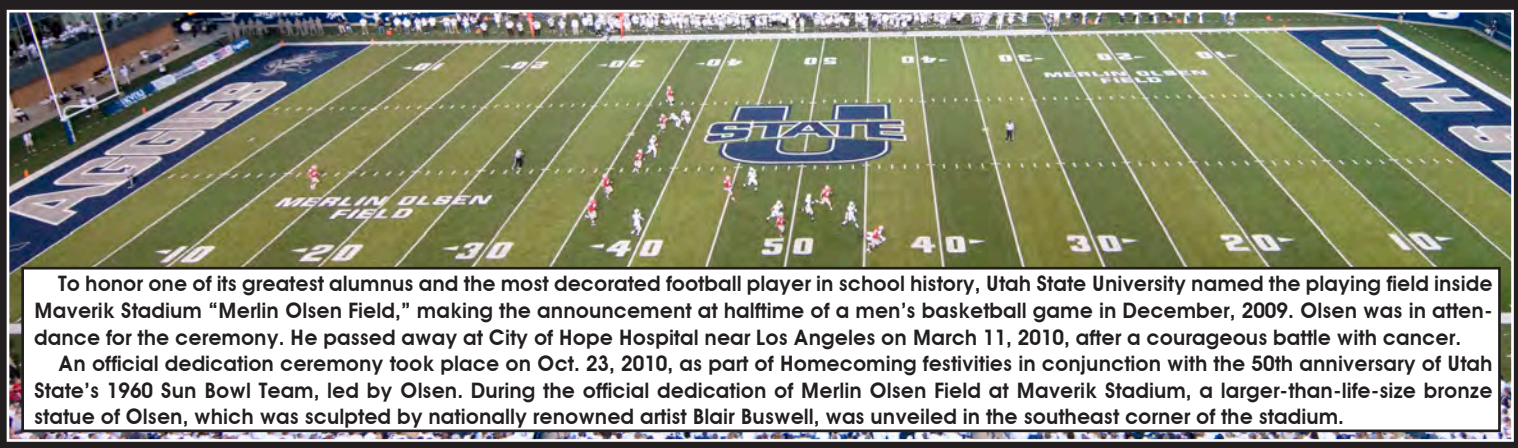
MERLIN OLSEN FIELD



To honor one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history, Utah State University named the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field," making the announcement at halftime of a men's basketball game in December, 2009. Olsen was in attendance for the ceremony. He passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer.

An official dedication ceremony took place on Oct. 23, 2010, as part of Homecoming festivities in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Utah State's 1960 Sun Bowl Team, led by Olsen. During the official dedication of Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium, a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Olsen, which was sculpted by nationally renowned artist Blair Buswell, was unveiled in the southeast corner of the stadium.

Utah State and Maverik, Inc., owners of convenience stores throughout the Intermountain West, jointly announced a long-term naming rights partnership to its football stadium, which was previously known as Romney Stadium, beginning in the 2015 season.

This new partnership with Maverik was the catalyst for a major renovation to the stadium, which focused on greatly improving the overall fan experience. On the west side, the West Stadium Center, a new four-story premium seating and press box structure was completed prior to the 2016 season, which includes a state-of-the-art media and game operations area, 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that will also be used to host a student-athlete training table. Major concourse work included significantly increased restrooms, upgraded concessions and an enlarged concourse for better pedestrian traffic flow.

Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system.

Maverik Stadium's original seating capacity through 1980 was 20,000. Thanks to a massive volunteer effort in 1980, approximately 10,000 seats were added to the southern bowl. Prior to the 1997 season, approximately 4,000 chairback seats replaced wooded bleachers on the west side of the stadium. The modifications made to accommodate this seating upgrade placed stadium capacity at 25,513 prior to the 2015 season. Following the renovations made to the stadium with the addition of the West Stadium Center prior to the 2016 season, the seating capacity is now 24,206.

Ahead of the 1999 season, new scoreboards were added at each end of the stadium and additional bleacher seats were installed, as well. New aluminum bleachers replaced wooden bleachers on the lower sections of the east side of the stadium in 2001. In 2003, that project expanded to the upper sections.

Prior to the 2005 season, a new south end entrance, improved concession stands and restroom facilities, as well as a widened concourse on the east side of the stadium were completed.

Immediately after the 2006 season, the old north end zone complex was torn down and replaced with the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex. The Laub Complex is a three-story, 69,000 square-foot facility that serves to meet the academic and athletic needs of all 16 Utah State University intercollegiate sports. The state-of-the-art facility houses the Dale Mildenberger Sports Medicine Complex and the Dr. John Worley Sports Medicine Research Center, the Steve Mothersell Hall of Honor, J. Ken "Kenny" Seamons Equipment Room, locker rooms, coaches offices, meeting rooms, luxury suites, a student-athlete academic center and the Dr. Randall and Julianne Stockham Student-Athlete Academic Hall of Honor.

In December of 2009, USU Athletics renamed the playing field inside Maverik Stadium "Merlin Olsen Field."

In the summer of 2012, the synthetic SprinTurf, which was installed in 2004, was replaced with a state-of-the-art AstroTurf. The SprinTurf was installed in 2004, replacing the existing bent bluegrass field. In 2013, new south end zone seating was installed, and in 2014 chairback seats were added to the south end zone.

The stadium was designed specifically for football with all seats, until the 1980 expansion, located between the 15-yard lines and all directed toward the 50-yard line. The first row of seats on the east, west and south sides are elevated eight-feet above the playing field and within 30 feet of the sidelines. Like most stadiums, the field runs north and south.

The stadium was financed by a student body which believed in athletics to the extent of underwriting a special bonding assessment for both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, which serves as home to USU's basketball and gymnastics teams.

The continuing growth of Utah State's campus prompted University planners to relocate the original Romney Stadium, which was built in 1927 on the grounds where the Health, Physical Education and Recreation building now stands. That facility was dedicated on Oct. 8, 1927, in recognition of legendary football and basketball coach, and athletics director, E. Lowell "Dick" Romney, who spent 29 seasons as the Aggies' athletics director and head football coach from 1919-48. Romney, who guided the Aggies to four conference championships (1921, 1935, 1936, 1946), compiled a 128-91-16 record (.579 winning percentage) in 29 seasons (1919-48).

That structure served as Utah State's home for 41 seasons (1927-67). USU played its final game in the old complex on Nov. 11, 1967, as the Aggies defeated Montana, 20-14.

Maverik Stadium was originally built in 1968 and officially dedicated on Sept. 27, 1969. The first game in Maverik Stadium history was Sept. 14, 1968, when Utah State defeated New Mexico State, 28-12. In 48 seasons, USU has posted a 135-99 (.577) record inside Maverik Stadium.

Utah State's largest crowd to witness a game in Maverik Stadium was 33,119 in a 45-17 loss to Brigham Young on Oct. 4, 1996.

AT MAVERIK STADIUM

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State's student section, known simply as The HURD, supports the Aggies' football team every home game. The HURD is Utah State's spirit club for all athletics. It is currently the largest club of Aggie students at Utah State. The HURD attends Coach's Shows, sports nights, tailgate parties, pre-, post- and away-game parties, pep-rallies, and even road trips are just some of the activities that The HURD provides at least once a week for all of its members.

Show 'Em Your "A"
In 1909, the first senior class gift was an "A" placed on the west side of Old Main tower. The "A," now on all four sides of the tower, can be seen throughout the valley, especially at night when lit in white. For special occasions and athletic wins, the "A" shines blue.

Utah State will be taking the field for the 119th season of football in 125 years in 2016. USU took the field for the first time on Nov. 25, 1892 and defeated intra-state rival Utah, 12-0.

GAME DAY

Utah State teams were nicknamed "Big Blue" by the Logan Journal as early as 1916, an apparent reference to the Blue Ox of Paul Bunyon stories. USU adopted the official school colors of Blue and White in a special meeting of USU faculty on Nov. 7, 1901.

The Utah State Spirit Squad, consisting of the Aggiettes Dance Team, the Cheer Squad and the Big Blue mascot, encourages enthusiastic student participation at Aggie athletic events, promoting USU pride through new ideas, traditions and activities. The USU Pep Band leads the Spirit Squad and the crowd with the "Hail The Utah Aggies," "The Scotsman" and other musical selections.

When USU athletics began, Utah State was known as the Utah Agricultural College. The first USU athletics teams were nicknamed the "Farmers." Aggies, a contraction of Agriculturalists, first appeared in the late 1890's.

HAIL THE UTAH AGGIES

Hail the Utah Aggies, we'll play the game with all our might.
See the colors flying, the Aggie blue and fighting white.
How they stir us onward; we'll win the victory all right.
Hail the Utah Aggies; we're out to win, so fight, fight, fight!
Utah State, Hey!
Aggies all the way!
Go Aggies! Go Aggies!
Hey! Hey! Hey!

"We lift together as position groups, working together for one common goal, to get better each and every day. The strength and conditioning staff cover all aspects of improvement, from lifting to conditioning to eating right, doing everything they can to help us get better."

Completed in June of 2013, Utah State's $6.5 million, 26,329 square-foot ICON Sports Performance Center features areas for weight training, cardiovascular workouts and speed and agility training, as well as offices for staff. Built on existing university property at the northwest corner of Maverik Stadium, the state-of-the-art multi-level facility alleviated overcrowding in the previous 5,800 square-foot strength and conditioning center and accommodates almost 400 student-athletes from 16 sports programs.

The ICON Sports Performance Center is the largest such facility in the Mountain West Conference and rivals any strength and conditioning complex in the country. Of the schools Utah State competes against in the MW, Fresno State currently has the second-largest strength and conditioning center(s) at 12,500 square feet, followed by Air Force (12,000 sq. ft.), Boise State (12,000 sq. ft.), Wyoming (11,100 sq. ft.), Hawai`i (10,000 sq. ft.), New Mexico (10,000 sq. ft.), Colorado State (10,000 sq. ft.), San José State (10,000 sq. ft.), UNLV (8,200 sq. ft.) and Nevada (8,000 sq. ft.).

HISTORY

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Utah State University honored one of its greatest alumnus and the most decorated football player in school history with the unveiling of a larger-than-life-size bronze statue of Merlin Olsen on Oct. 23, 2010, with a special ceremony on the South Plaza of Maverik Stadium prior to USU's Homecoming football game against Hawai'i. A large crowd attended the ceremony, featuring Olsen's family, friends, former teammates and former USU players among the dignitaries in attendance. Guest speakers for the ceremony included USU President Dr. Stan Albrecht, former USU Vice President and Director of Athletics Scott Barnes, Steven Perry from the National Football Foundation, the statue's sculptor Blair Buswell, Douglas Mayberry, who was one of Olsen's USU teammates, along with Olsen's widow, Susan. Perry noted that the Super Bowl Pro Football Hall of Fame Luncheon, held the Friday prior to the Super Bowl, will be named after Olsen, one of only two Hall of Fame events named after former players. Buswell singled out his time spent with Olsen while working on the statue, noting that Olsen wanted the sculpture to show his pride in Utah State and Logan. Mayberry told a story about Olsen's hospitality before nearly knocking off your chin strap, noting the only time he saw Olsen relax was when he scored a rushing touchdown. Susan Olsen thanked Olsen's former teammates, friends and the University for their support of the family. She also read a eulogy written by Merlin Olsen prior to his death that wasn't found until after his passing, which talked about Merlin's appreciation of the love and concern from his supporters, former teammates and family throughout his time growing up in Logan, at Utah State, in the NFL and his broadcasting and acting career.

Merlin Olsen's statue was created by nationally renowned Utah artist Blair Buswell and is 25 percent larger than Olsen's 6-foot-4 frame. When mounted on its base the statue is over 11 feet high. The statue depicts Olsen during his college playing days at Utah State, in full uniform and pads, with his helmet under his arm. The base of the statue is adorned with two plaques. One lists many of Olsen's accomplishments as a college and pro football player, as an actor and member of the media, and as a philanthropist and humanitarian. The other plaque lists Olsen's personal mission statement, an inspiring list of Olsen's personal priorities. Additionally, a list of all donors to the Merlin Olsen Field Campaign whose gifts were received prior to August 1, 2010, are mounted adjacent to the statue base. The statue, when set on its base, has at least one unique element. According to Google maps, Olsen's gaze directly faces toward the Olsen family home in Logan where he grew up, roughly two miles in a direct line from where the statue rests. In preparation for the statue to be installed a small courtyard was created with seating areas for contemplation. The block cement was used to convey Olsen's personal strength, and the vertical columns represent his personal mission to celebrate others.

NFL Hall of Famer Merlin Olsen, the greatest athlete in Utah State University history, passed away at City of Hope Hospital near Los Angeles on March 11, 2010, after a courageous battle with cancer. Olsen was a three-year letterman on the offensive and defensive lines for Utah State's football team from 1959-61, earning All-American honors during both his junior and senior seasons. During his senior season in 1961, he won the Outland Trophy as the nation's outstanding interior defensive lineman. Olsen also was a three-time academic All-American at Utah State and graduated Summa Cum Laude and Phi Kappa Phi in 1962 with a degree in finance.

HOME OF MERLIN OLSEN

Utah State University's Athletics Department unveiled the Steve Mothersell Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor on Sept. 26, 2009. In all, approximately 150 Aggie alumni and friends donated to the 1,800 square-foot Hall of Honor, including 115 former student-athletes. The Hall of Honor is housed on the first floor of the Jim and Carol Laub Athletics-Academics Complex, which is located in the north end zone of Maverik Stadium. Inside Utah State's Aggie Athletics Hall of Honor, fans will find various displays and trophy cases celebrating over 100 years of Aggie sports history. Among the items displayed within the venue are trophies from the 1978 national championship volleyball team, and the 1980 and 1981 national championship softball teams. Other items on display include the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl championship trophy, the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl championship trophy, the 2012 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl championship trophy, the 2012 Western Athletic Conference championship trophy, the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl II championship trophy, the 1961 Outland trophy presented to Merlin Olsen as the nation's top defensive lineman and a discus donated by L. Jay Silvester from the 1968 Summer Olympics held in Mexico City. As fans tour the Hall of Honor, they will see exhibits displaying Utah State's 16 current sports, a display honoring its past sports and a display highlighting some "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics. Fans will also see a display paying tribute to those select few former Aggie Greats who are now members of USU's Hall of Fame, the most prestigious honor afforded an Aggie athlete. Another key feature within the venue are two interactive video displays that will give fans an opportunity to watch video highlights of "Great Moments" in Aggie Athletics, as well as highlights of members of USU's Hall of Fame.

MEDIA COVERAGE

THIS IS UTAH STATE...

Plain and simple, people who have been to Utah State University love it. No other place provides the complete package quite like USU: top-notch academics, nationally recognized research, Division I athletics, and more than 200 student clubs and organizations, all on the oldest residential campus in the state. And the mountains. USU, located in Logan, Utah, is just 15 minutes from two mountain ranges and within a half day's drive of six national parks, including Yellowstone. It has big-school opportunities with a small-school feel, and it's all for a great value. In fact, USU is the No. 2 public university in the West (and top three in the nation) for lowest tuition on Forbes' list of America's Top Colleges (2013).

CAMPUS

The Cache Valley, a fertile green valley with lakes and streams, is surrounded by the Wellsville Mountains on the west and the Bear River Range on the east. Just east of Logan is the Wasatch-Cache National Forest, accessed by Logan Canyon Scenic Byway (Hwy. 89). Logan Canyon is filled with geological wonders, including vertical rock formations, caves and wind tunnels. Thirty minutes from Logan, Beaver Mountain Ski Resort is a popular winter getaway. Fifteen minutes beyond Beaver Mountain, the summit of Logan Canyon is a breathtaking view of turquoise-colored Bear Lake.

KENT MYERS

FALL PREVIEW

After playing in a school-record fifth-straight bowl game to conclude the 2015 campaign, Utah State football continues to be one of the top programs in the Rocky Mountain region as it has won 41 games over the last five seasons.

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Matt Wells, the 2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year, expectations will once again be high in 2016 as Utah State looks to contend for a conference championship.

To accomplish its goals in 2016, Utah State will have to replace 21 seniors who graduated as the second-winningest class in school history with 36 victories. Fortunately, USU returns 12 starters (O-9, D-3) as part of 38 returning letterwinners (O-20, D-15, S-3) from last year's team that finished tied for second in the Mountain Division of the Mountain West with a 5-3 mark.

Offensively, Utah State returns one of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in the conference in Kent Myers. The junior earned honorable mention all-MW honors a year ago and is 10-4 as the Aggies' starting quarterback during his first two years in the program.

Utah State also returns three other all-conference performers on offense from a season ago in senior OT Austin Albrecht, senior OT Jake Simonich and senior OC Austin Stephens, as all three players were named to the honorable mention team.

Defensively, Utah State has two all-Mountain West players returning in junior CB Jalen Davis and senior FS Devin Centers. Davis earned honorable mention honors in 2015 and Centers was named to the honorable mention team in 2014.

In 2015, USU's defense ranked among the top 45 in the nation in 10 categories, including finishing 12th in passing defense (180.5 ypg) and 17th in total defense (332.5 ypg).

Having won 41 of its last 60 games, including 29 of its last 35 league games, to go along with winning 23 of its last 26 games at home, Utah State has plenty of momentum heading into its 2016 campaign.

QUARTERBACKS

Utah State returns two players who saw time at the quarterback position a season ago in juniors Kent Myers and Damion Hobbs. Myers, who has played in 16 games during his first two seasons at USU, is 200-of-318 passing (.629) for 2,459 yards with 21 touchdowns and just six interceptions in his career, and his completion percentage ranks tied for second all-time in school history. Furthermore, Myers was named the Offensive MVP of the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl as he helped USU to a 21-6 win against UTEP.

As a sophomore, Myers earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as he was 121-of-199 passing (.608) for 1,593 yards with 16 touchdowns and three interceptions. Myers, who also rushed for 356 yards on 85 carries (4.2 ypc) and three touchdowns a year ago, did not see his first action until the Mountain West opener against Colorado State, a game where he set the school record for rushing yards by a quarterback as he gained a career-high 191 yards on 16 carries to be named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week. Myers also showcased his passing abilities later that season at Air Force as he was 25-of-47 for 364 yards with four touchdowns, all of which are career highs.

Utah State's other returning quarterback with experience is Hobbs, who played in seven games a season ago and completed 4-of-5 passes (.800) for 73 yards with one touchdown, while adding 110 rushing yards on 20 carries (5.5 ypc) with another score.

Another returner at this position is sophomore DJ Nelson, who appeared in all 13 games last year as the team's holder.

Utah State has two more quarterbacks with experience in the program in redshirt freshman Cade Smith and true freshman Jordan Love, who joined the team in January and participated in spring drills.

Not returning here is the second-winningest quarterback in school history in Chuckie Keeton, who graduated with 20 career wins, and ranks first all-time in school history in both touchdown passes (62) and total offense (8,808 yards), second all-time in completions (672), attempts (1,068) and passing yards (7,393), tied for second in completion percentage (.629), tied for 11th in rushing touchdowns (16), and 14th in rushing yards (1,415), which are the most by an Aggie quarterback ever. In his career, Keeton recorded seven 300-yard passing games, which ranks fourth all-time in school history, and had five touchdown passes in a game three times, ranking first all-time at USU.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Despite losing three seniors here, Utah State returns a quartet of wide receivers who combined to play in 48 games with 18 starts a year ago in seniors Andrew Rodriguez and Kennedy Williams, junior Braelon Roberts and sophomore Zach Van Leeuwen. Rodriguez ranked second on the team a year ago with 27 receptions and fourth overall with 281 receiving yards (10.4 ypr), while Roberts caught 17 passes for 150 yards (8.8 ypr), and Van Leeuwen and Williams both had six catches for 61 yards.

Two other players with experience return

DEVANTE MAYS

AUSTIN STEPHENS

here in junior Jaren Colston-Green and sophomore Tyler Fox. Colston-Green played in nine games in his first season at USU and caught two passes for 54 yards (27.0 ypr) and one touchdown, while Fox appeared in all 13 games and had five receptions for 75 yards (15.0 ypr).

Other Aggies who will have an opportunity for playing time at wide receiver in 2016 include junior Ethan Cortazzo, who did not play last season, along with three freshmen, who redshirted a year ago, in Chad Artist, Gerold Bright and Hudson Conrad.

In addition to the 11 returning players here, Utah State has added several newcomers who could make immediate contributions, including a pair of junior college transfers in juniors Alex Byers and Connor McGuire, sophomore Ron'Quavion Tarver, along with freshmen Rayshad Lewis, Jordan Nathan and Hartman Rector.

Even with its depth at wide receiver, Utah State must replace NFL free agent signee Hunter Sharp (Philadelphia) and Devonte Robinson. During his two years at USU, Sharp caught 137 passes for 1,774 yards (12.9 ypc) and 16 touchdowns, while Robinson caught 44 passes for 552 yards (12.5 ypr) and four touchdowns. Sharp finished his career ranking ninth all-time at USU in receptions and receiving touchdowns, and 14th in receiving yards.

TIGHT ENDS

Utah State returns its top three tight ends from a year ago in seniors Wyatt Houston and Landon Horne, along with sophomore Dax Raymond. Houston, who has played in 33 career games with 20 starts, has caught 51 passes for 603 yards (11.8 ypr) and seven touchdowns during his career. As a junior, Houston ranked third on the team with 307 receiving yards and was fourth with his 25 receptions, while tying for second on the team with three receiving touchdowns. Raymond caught four passes for 72 yards as a true freshman, and Horne played in 12 games.

Another player returning here with experience in the program is senior Joe Palange, who did not play during his first year at USU.

Newcomers who could emerge here include one junior college transfer in sophomore Matt Nelson, along with freshmen Travis Boman and Derek Hastings.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Utah State returns plenty of depth and experience up front as it brings back three starters who all earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors a year ago in senior OT Austin Albrecht, senior OT Jake Simonich and senior OC Austin Stephens.

Albrecht, Simonich and Stephens each started all 13 games a season ago, and Simonich has played in 41 games with 28 starts during his Aggie career, both of which rank first on the team. Stephens has started all 27 games he has played in at USU, and Albrecht has 15 career starts and 26 career games played during his Aggie career.

Other returning players with in-game experience here include senior OT Jude Hockel, junior OG Jarom Ioane, junior OG Brandon Taukeiaho, sophomore OT Cody Boyer and sophomore OG KJ Uluave.

In all, the Aggies' offensive line returns eight players who have played in a combined 120 games with 78 starts.

Utah State also returns five other players with experience in the program in senior Dalton Forsythe, juniors Preston Brooksby and Andrew Chen, and freshman Roderick Smith.

Newcomers who could emerge here in the fall include junior college transfer Sean Taylor, redshirt freshman transfer Colby Kerns and true freshmen Demytrick Ali'ifua, Viliamu McMoore and Ty Shaw.

RUNNING BACKS

For the second straight season, Utah State returns its leading rusher as senior RB Devante Mays is back after gaining 966 yards on 165 carries (5.9 ypc) with nine touchdown in his first year in the program. Mays' average per carry ranks tied for seventh all-time in school history. USU also returns junior QB Kent Myers, who rushed for 356 yards on 85 carries (4.2 ypc) with three touchdowns a year ago, and junior RB LaJuan Hunt, who rushed for 338 yards on 106 carries (3.2 ypc) with five touchdowns last season.

Utah State also returns six others who carried the ball last season, including senior WR Kennedy Williams, junior QB Damion Hobbs, junior RB Tonny Lindsey, Jr., sophomore RB Justen Hervey, sophomore WR Tyler Fox and sophomore QB DJ Nelson.

Two newcomers who could see time here include freshmen Dionte Simon and Morian Walker, Jr.

Two players not returning include QB Chuckie Keeton and LB Nick Vigil. Keeton rushed for 181 yards on 50 carries (3.6 ypc) a season ago and finished his career rushing for 1,415 yards on 322 carries (4.4 ypc) with 16 touchdowns, which ranks tied for 11th all-time at USU, while his 1,415 rushing yards rank 14th all-time and are the most-ever by an Aggie quarterback. Vigil carried the ball six times for 17 yards in 2015 and rushed for 169 yards on 47 carries (3.6 ypc) and four touchdowns during his three-year career.

ANTHONY WILLIAMS

DEFENSIVE LINE

For the fourth time in as many years, Utah State's front seven spearheaded one of the best overall units in the nation as it ranked among the top 45 nationally in 10 categories in 2015, including 12th in passing defense (180.5 ypg) and 17th in total defense (332.5 ypg). USU also ranked 11th nationally in fumbles recovered (12), 21st in opponent's third down conversion percentage (.338) and 22nd in first downs allowed (17.6 pg).

Heading into the 2016 season, Utah State will once again boast an experienced and productive defensive line as it returns six letterwinners, highlighted by senior DE Ricky Ali'ifua, who has played in 39 games with 11 starts and has recorded 70 career tackles, which includes 4.5 sacks and 10.0 tackles for loss. As a junior, Ali'ifua posted 24 tackles, including 3.0 sacks and 4.0 tackles for loss.

Also returning here are a pair of senior defensive ends in Edmund Faimalo and Siua Taufa. Taufa has played in 26 games during his career and has 32 tackles and 4.0 tackles for loss, to go along with one sack. As a junior, he produced 18 tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, while Faimalo had 11 tackles as a junior.

Also returning is junior DE Ian Togiai, who has played in 26 career games with four starts and 13 career tackles, including 12 a season ago, while sophomore NG Gasetoto Schuster recorded six tackles in 2015.

Also returning up front is redshirt senior NG Travis Seefeldt, who has played in 39 career games at Utah State with two starts and has 54 career tackles, which includes 4.0 sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss. As a junior in 2014, Seefeldt recorded 35 tackles, which included 2.0 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss, to go along with two fumble recoveries. Seefeldt redshirted the 2015 season due to injuries.

Utah State returns three other players here with experience in the program in sophomore Adewale Adeoye, and redshirt freshmen Christopher 'Unga and Jacoby Wildman, who was named the Scout Team's Defensive MVP last season.

Newcomers who could vie for playing time here include sophomore transfer DE Jake Templeton, and freshmen DE Caden Andersen, DE Ritisoni Fata, DE Troy Murray, DE Jake Pitcher and NG Mohelika Uasike.

Utah State must replace a pair of all-Mountain West players here in NG David Moala and DE Jordan Nielsen, as both earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors in 2015. Moala recorded 50 tackles, including 4.5 sacks and 12.5 tackles for loss as a senior, while Nielsen had 55 tackles, which included 3.0 sacks and 5.5 tackles for loss. For his career, Nielsen played in a school-record 54 games and had 178 career tackles, which included 12.0 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss. Another player lost to graduation is DE John Taylor, who played in 27 career games with three starts, and recorded 25 career tackles, including 17 during his senior season.

LINEBACKERS

Traditionally, Utah State's linebacker corps has been among the most talented positions on the field. For that to happen in 2016, some new and unproven players will have to step up and produce at a high level.

Five returning letterwinners who will get that chance to provide an immediate impact include redshirt senior Anthony Williams, senior Brock Carmen, junior Alex Huerta, and sophomores Chasen Andersen and Derek Larsen.

Williams, who redshirted during the 2015 season, played in all 13 games with one start in 2014, and finished the year with 10 tackles. Andersen had 13 tackles and Carmen added 12 stops, to go along with one interception in their first year in the program, while Huetra had four tackles and Larsen added one stop.

Utah State also returns four players who redshirted in 2015 in freshmen Mason Gajkowski, who was named the Scout Team's Offensive MVP at tight end a year ago, along with Dalton Baker, Braden Harris and Mason Tobeck, and all four will compete for playing time this fall. Other players with experience in the program include senior Leki Uaskie, and sophomores Chase Christiansen and Dillon Filiaga.

Newcomers who will get opportunities during fall camp for playing time include junior college transfer Patrick Miranda, and freshmen Logan Lee, Dustin Matthews, Kevin Meitzenheimer, Justus Te'i and David Woodward.

Players not returning include all four starters from a year ago in Kyler Fackrell, LT Filiaga, Torrey Green and Nick Vigil. Fackrell (Green Bay) and Vigil (Cincinnati) were both selected in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft, while Green signed an NFL free agent contract with Atlanta.

Fackrell concluded his career by earning fourth-team All-America honors from Phil Steele's Magazine, as he recorded 82 tackles as a senior, which included 4.0 sacks and 15.0 tackles for loss, to go along with a nation-best five fumble recoveries. For his career, Fackrell started all 41 games he played in and had 253 tackles, which included 12.0 sacks and 36.0 tackles for loss, while adding seven fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles and four interceptions.

season, was a two-time first-team all-Mountain West linebacker as he played in 40 career games with 30 career starts. In his three years, Vigil recorded 324 tackles, which included 15.5 sacks and 38.5 tackles for loss. As a junior, he led the team and ranked sixth nationally with his 144 tackles, which included 3.0 sacks and 13.5 tackles for loss.

Filiaga played in 23 games at Utah State with 22 career starts, and had 139 tackles, including 1.0 sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss. As a senior, he had 78 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. Green played in 32 career games with 11 starts and 90 career tackles, which included 7.0 sacks and 20.5 tackles for loss. As a senior, he made 48 stops, including 4.0 sacks and 11.5 tackles for loss.

Utah State also graduated three other linebackers with multiple years in the program in Jarom Baldomero, La'Bradford Harold and Michael Okonkwo, as the trio combined to play in 111 games.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Utah State returns a plethora of talent and depth in the back end of its defense for the 2016 season, highlighted by a pair of multiple year starters in senior safety Devin Centers and junior cornerback Jalen Davis.

Davis earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors following his sophomore season as he finished the year with 51 tackles, which included 1.0 sacks and 3.0 tackles for loss, while adding eight pass breakups, three interceptions and one forced fumble. In all, Davis has started all 26 games he has played in at USU, and has 112 career tackles, 15 career pass breakups and five career interceptions, as he was named a 247Sports.com True Freshman All-American in 2014.

For his career, he has appeared in 39 games with 14 starts, and has 123 career tackles, which includes 3.0 sacks and 6.5 tackles for loss, to go along with 12 pass breakups, four interceptions, three forced fumbles and two defensive touchdowns.

Utah State also returns six other proven players here in senior cornerbacks Austin Cheney, Daniel Gray and Jentz Painter, senior FS Marquan Ellison, and sophomore safeties Jontrell Rocquemore and Aaron Wade. Gray has played in 25 games and made nine starts during his first two years at USU, and has recorded 42 tackles, to go along with six pass breakups and one forced fumble. Painter has played in 27 games in two seasons at USU with one start, and has 17 career tackles. Ellison has played in 25 career games and has three tackles. Cheney played in nine games in 2014, before missing the 2015 season due to injury. Rocquemore and Wade both played in all 13 games as redshirt freshmen last fall, as Rocquemore recorded 27 tackles, to go along with one pass breakup, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery, and a defensive touchdown, while Wade had three tackles.

Utah State also welcomes back four players who redshirted last year in junior CB Wesley Bailey, junior safety Dallin Leavitt, sophomore safety Gaje Ferguson and freshman CB Cameron Haney, along with junior CB Kevin Ogwu, who did not play in his first year at USU.

Newcomers who could emerge during fall camp include freshmen cornerbacks Jay Brown, Makiah Gilmer and Dayshawn Littleton, as well as freshmen safeties Baron Gajkowski, Braxton Gunther, Chance Parker and Zach Swenson, who both participated in spring drills.

2016 UTAH STATE FOOTBALL

MATT WELLS

HEAD COACH
UTAH STATE, 1996

2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year

Fourth Season as Utah State Head Coach (25-16 Overall,18-6 Mountain West)
Sixth Season Overall at Utah State

Matt Wells has wasted little time putting his stamp on the Aggie football program as its head coach as Utah State is 25-16 during his three years at the helm, including an 18-6 Mountain West record. Those 25 wins are a school record by a USU coach in his first three seasons and he already ranks as the seventh-winningest coach in school history, while his 61.0 winning percentage ranks sixth all-time.

Utah State has also recorded three wins against top-25 opponents during Wells' first three years as head coach, one more than the program won in its previous 115 seasons.

During his five years at Utah State, which includes two years as an assistant, Wells has been part of a program that has played in a school-record five-straight bowl games, while posting a 43-24 record. USU has also won at least six games and five conference games in each of the past five seasons, both of which are school records.

In all, Wells is the first head coach in program history to lead the Aggies to three bowl games and the only head coach with multiple bowl wins.

In 2015, Wells led Utah State to six wins and its fifth-straight bowl game as the Aggies had 12 players earn various all-Mountain West honors, which were the third-most in the conference. Furthermore, senior linebacker Kyler Fackrell was named a fourth-team All-American by Phil Steele's Magazine.

Utah State also had five players invited to postseason All-Star games/camps, while three Aggies participated in the NFL Combine in Fackrell, Hunter Sharp and Nick Vigil. Furthermore, USU has two players selected in the 2016 NFL Draft in Vigil and Fackrell, both in the third round, while six other Aggies signed free agent contracts and two more were invited to rookie mini-camps.

During the 2014 season, Wells led Utah State to 10 wins to rank as the second-most in school history behind the 2012 team that finished with an 11-2 record. USU also played in its fourth-straight bowl game in 2014 and won its third-straight bowl.

In his second year as Utah State's head coach, Wells mentored 15 players who earned 16 all-Mountain West honors, which were the most in the league and tied for the third-most in school history. Wells also mentored two All-Americans in 2014 in Zach Vigil and Jalen Davis. Vigil was named an All-American by four different publications, including being named a USA Today Sports second-team All-American, while Davis was named a true freshman All-American by 247Sports. Along with earning All-American honors, Vigil was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as head coach, Wells led Utah State to the inaugural Mountain West Championship game after winning the Mountain Division of the conference with a 7-1 record in 2013. Wells also led Utah State to just its third-ever bowl victory as it posted a 21-14 win against No. 24 Northern Illinois in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

For his efforts, Wells was named the 2013 Mountain West Coach of the Year as he set the school record for wins by a first-year head coach. The Aggies finished the season with a 9-5 record, tying the 1960 and 1961 teams for the second-most wins in school history at the time.

Overall, Wells is the fifth USU coach in school history to garner conference coach of the year honors along with Bruce Snyder (1978), Chuck Shelton (1991), John L. Smith (1997) and Gary Andersen (2012). Wells is also the fourth individual to earn MW Coach of the Year honors in his first season along with BYU's Gary Crowton (2001), Utah's Urban Meyer (2003) and Air Force's Troy Calhoun (2007).

During his first year as Utah State's head coach, Wells mentored 14 Aggies who earned various all-Mountain West honors, including three All-Americans as Tyler Larsen was named a second-team All-American by USA Today Sports, Nevin Lawson was named a third-team All-American by College Sports Madness, and Fackrell was named an honorable mention Sophomore All-American by College Football News.

Wells also coached a school-record four players who were invited and participated in the 2014 NFL Combine in Larsen, Lawson, Maurice Alexander and D.J. Tialavea, while a total of 16 players from the 2013 and 2014 rosters were invited to NFL/CFL camps, including Alexander (St. Louis Rams) and Lawson (Detroit Lions), who were both selected in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

Wells, who is one of 18 coaches to lead his alma mater, is just the second Utah State graduate to be appointed its head football coach joining Chris Pella, who graduated from USU in 1965 and coached the Aggies from 1983-85.

Prior to being named the head coach at his alma mater, Wells spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at Utah State, including serving as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT MATT WELLS...

Zach Vigil, Linebacker, Miami Dolphins:
"Coach Wells is a true family man. You can see that in the way he treats his immediate family, coaches and his players."

Ken Niumatalolo, Navy Head Football Coach:
"It doesn't surprise me at all how well Matt is doing as a head coach. I knew Matt when he first started coaching almost 20 years ago, and I knew then that he had a very bright future in this profession. Sustained success in any profession or business is hard, especially in the ultra competitive world of DI college football. Not only has Utah State continued their success under Matt's leadership, they have gotten better and are a legit MWC title contender every year now under Matt."

the 2012 campaign. In 2011, Wells coached USU's quarterbacks and was the team's recruiting coordinator.

As offensive coordinator in 2012, Utah State concluded its most successful season in school history as it went 11-2 and set school records for wins (11) and home wins (6), while being nationally ranked in The Associated Press poll for three-straight weeks for the first time in school history. USU also won its first outright conference championship since 1936 during the 2012 campaign and just its third in school history joining the 1921 and 1936 teams that both won Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference titles. All-time, Utah State has won or shared 11 league championships.

As offensive coordinator in 2012, Wells directed an Aggie offense that set single-season school records for total points (454), total offense (6,108 yards), completions (285) and total yards per game (469.8), while ranking second in points per game (34.9) and total passing yards (3,445).

Nationally, Utah State's 2012 offense ranked second in the Western Athletic Conference and 23rd in the country in total offense (469.8 ypg), second in the WAC and 18th in the nation in passing efficiency (153.21), second in the WAC and 25th in the nation in rushing offense (204.8 ypg), third in the WAC and 31st in the nation in sacks allowed (1.38 pg), third in the WAC and 33rd in the nation in scoring offense (34.9 ppg), and third in the WAC and 39th in the nation in passing offense (265.0 ypg).

Under Wells, Utah State finished the 2012 season scoring 38 or more points in each of its final seven games, bettering the previous school record of 38-plus points in three-straight games accomplished six times and most recently in 2000.

In 2012, Wells coached former Aggie quarterback Chuckie Keeton, who earned first-team all-WAC honors after setting single-season school records for touchdown passes (27), passing yards (3,373), completion percentage (.676), completions (275) and total offense (3,992 yards). Keeton also earned WAC Offensive Player of the Week honors four times in 2012, which is a single-season school record.

Under Wells' tutelage, Keeton emerged as one of the top quarterbacks in the nation and ranks first all-time in school history in career touchdown passes (62), first in career total offense (8,808 yards), second in career completions (672), second in career passing yardage (8,695), second in career passing attempts (1,068), tied for second in career completion percentage (.629) and 14th in career rushing yards (1,415).

As the quarterbacks coach in 2011, Wells helped Utah State's offense establish then-school records for total offense (5,945 yards), rushing yards (3,675), total points (437) and total touchdowns (60).

Wells, a former Aggie quarterback and three-year letterwinner from 1994-96, was a member of two conference championship teams as a student-athlete as he was a redshirt freshman in 1993 when Utah State tied for first in the Big West Conference and defeated Ball State, 42-33, in the Las Vegas Bowl II for its first-ever bowl win. As a senior in 1996, Wells helped USU to another share of the Big West Conference title.

Wells, who has been a part of nine bowl teams and two conference championships during his coaching career, came to Utah State after two coaching stints at New Mexico, serving as the Lobos' wide receivers and kickoff return unit coach in 2010 and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 2007 to 2008. In 2009, Wells served as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator at Louisville.

Prior to his first stint at New Mexico, Wells spent five years (2002-06) as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa and five years at the U.S. Naval Academy (1997-2001) as its quarterbacks coach, fullbacks coach and wide receivers coach, while also serving as the junior varsity head coach and offensive coordinator for three years.

Wells, a native of Sallisaw, Okla., received his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Utah State in 1996, graduating cum laude. He and his wife Jen have two daughters, Jadyn (13) and Ella (10), and one son, Wyatt (7). His brother, Luke, is Utah State's co-offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator.

Mike Canales, who has 31 years of coaching experience, including 23 years as an offensive coordinator, is in his first season as Utah State's assistant head coach, running backs coach and tight ends coach.

Canales is a 1984 graduate of Utah State and played quarterback for the Aggies from 1981-83.

Canales comes to Utah State after spending the past six seasons as the associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Texas. During portions of the 2010 and 2015 seasons, Canales also served as the interim head coach for the Mean Green.

During his six years at North Texas, Canales mentored 20 players who earned all-conference honors, while also helping the Mean Green win just their third bowl game in school history during the 2013 season as they posted a 36-14 victory against UNLV in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

Under Canales, quarterback Derek Thompson won the Heart of Dallas Bowl MVP award and led the Mean Green to a nine-win season in 2013 as he finished the year ranking second all-time in school history in passing yards (2,896), completions (251), completion percentage (64.4) and total offense (3,053 yards).

Thompson finished his career with 7,457 passing yards and 42 touchdown passes, which included a career-high 2,649 yards in 2012, which ranks fourth all-time in school history. Thompson also broke the school record for single-game completion percentage in 2012 at No. 14 Kansas State when he completed 25-of-28 passes (.893).

The leadership of Canales took the North Texas offense to record-breaking heights in 2013 as it scored 414 points, the second-most in school history and the most since 1951, and it averaged 31.8 points a game, topping the 30-point mark for only the third time in school history. The North Texas offense scored over 30 points in seven games during the 2013 season, the most since returning to FBS football in 1995.

Overall, the Mean Green offense churned out over 4,000 yards for the sixth-straight year in 2013, which is a school record and the fourth-straight under Canales, as the 4,751 total yards of offense is the fourth-most in school history. The Mean Green also rushed for over 2,000 yards for third time under Canales. In fact, UNT rushed for over 300 yards three times in 2013, which is the most in a single season since 1959.

Along with its 31.6 points per game average in 2013, North Texas averaged 27.2 points in 2014, marking the highest scoring stretch in school history since 1968-69. In 2014, Canales oversaw a Mean Green offense that was the best in the nation in red-zone scoring at 94.3 percent.

Canales also guided a North Texas offense in 2011 that featured its third-straight 1,000-yard rusher in Lance Dunbar, who also rushed for a single-game school record 313 yards. Dunbar became only the sixth player in NCAA history to have 4,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in a career.

During the 2010 season at North Texas, Canales was promoted from offensive coordinator to interim head coach and UNT averaged 33.8 points a game under Canales, after averaging 16.9 points in the first seven games of the season. He also helped improve the team's total offense from 348.7 yards per game to 412.4 yards per game and the rushing offense from 173.4 yards per game to 242.4 yards per game as he amassed a 2–3 record as interim head coach.

Prior to coming to North Texas, Canales was the offensive coordinator at South Florida for three years, leading the Bulls to the Sun, St. Petersburg and International bowls. In 2008, Canales' offense led the Big East Conference in scoring and finished second in total offense. He helped his team reach a national ranking as high as No. 2 during the 2007 season and No. 10 during the 2008 season. Under his leadership, South Florida quarterback Matt Grothe became the Big East career leader in total offense.

From 2004-06, Canales was the offensive coordinator at Arizona, where he coached true freshman quarterback Willie Tuitama to honorable mention All-America status in just five games. Between 2004 and 2005, Canales developed an offense that improved by 60 yards per game and the average in Tuitama's appearances was 402.6 yards per outing.

In 2003, Canales joined Herm Edwards' staff with the New York Jets, working as the wide receivers coach. With the Jets, Canales worked with Santana Moss, who finished among the top 15 NFL receivers that season with 74 catches for 1,105 yards and 10 touchdowns. His touchdown catches tied him for fourth most in the NFL as he was selected as an alternate for the Pro Bowl that year.

From 2001-02, Canales was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Carolina State, where he helped develop Phillip Rivers, who is currently an All-Pro quarterback for the San Diego Chargers of the NFL.

While at North Carolina State, Canales' offense finished in the top-10 nationally in passing as Rivers was a two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference player and Heisman Trophy candidate. The Wolfpack made two bowl games with Canales, playing in the Champ Sports Bowl and Gator Bowl.

Prior to North Carolina State, Canales spent five seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at South Florida and was the quarterbacks coach for one season (1995) at Pacific. He also spent eight years (1987-94) at Snow College, where he was offensive coordinator with special emphasis on receivers and quarterbacks, and had a top-10 nationally-ranked offensive unit in seven of his eight years. While at Snow College, Canales also coached the softball team for seven years, leading the team to six region titles.

Canales began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Brigham Young, where he learned from legendary offensive coach Norm Chow.

During his career, Canales has coached five different quarterbacks that have earned All-America recognition, and he was named the National Offensive Coordinator of the Week while at Arizona in 2006.

Canales, who played quarterback at Utah State from 1981-83, graduated from USU in 1984 with a degree in speech communication. He also earned his master's degree in professional leadership from BYU in 1986.

Canales has four children, Christopher, Tyler, Dakota and Cameron, and three grandchildren, Micah, Ofelia and Cy.

Bouknight concluded his college career ranked No. 20 in NCAA history in both career receiving yards (3,626) and career receptions (250). After graduating from Wyoming in the spring of 2006, Bouknight signed an NFL free agent contract with the Carolina Panthers and went to camp with the Panthers in the summer of 2006. He later played in NFL Europe in the summer of 2007, before signing as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

During his senior season at Wyoming, he was one of 15 semifinalists for the 2005 Biletnikoff Award, which honors the nation's top college receiver each season. He also earned honorable mention All-America honors from College Football News, along with earning first-team all-Mountain West honors. The College Football News also selected him to its all-Mountain West first-team. Stacy Collins, who has 18 years of coaching experience, including 13 years as a coordinator and four years as a head coach at the collegiate level, is in his first year as Utah State's special teams coordinator.

Collins comes to Utah State after spending four seasons as the head coach and special teams coordinator at Division II South Dakota School of Mines.

As head coach at South Dakota School of Mines from 2012-15, Collins led the Hardrockers to winning seasons in 2013 and 2015, the last being just its third in the past 30 years. During his four years at SDSM, Collins notched 16 victories to become the sixth-winningest coach in program history, which began playing football in 1895.

Under Collins' direction in 2014, South Dakota School of Mines set single-season school records with 5,282 total yards, 3,540 passing yards and 286 first downs and led all of college football in red zone efficiency. SDSM also set single-game school records with 674 total yards vs. William Jewell, 481 passing yards vs. Northwestern and 34 first downs vs. Southwest Baptist in 2014. Furthermore, South Dakota School of Mines set the single-season school record for points scored with 386 during the 2013 campaign.

As members of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference in 2014 and 2015, South Dakota School of Mines had 14 all-conference honorees under Collins, highlighted by quarterback Trent McKinney, who twice earned first-team honors and was named the conference's Newcomer of the Year in 2014. During his first season at SDSM, McKinney set single-game school records with 535 total yards, 481 passing yards and 36 completions vs. Azusa Pacific, as those 535 total yards were also a GNAC single-game record.

McKinney also rushed for a school-record 206 yards by a quarterback and passed for 297 yards in setting a then-GNAC single-game record for total offense with 503 yards in a 62-44 win vs. William Jewell in 2014 as he rushed for four touchdowns and threw for two more.

Along with his single-game records, McKinney also set single-season school records with 3,666 total yards, 2,974 passing yards, 242 completions and 24 touchdown passes in 2014.

Collins also mentored a pair of record-setting kickers at South Dakota School of Mines in Devon Jones and Kolten Jelden. In 2013, Jones set single-season school records with 42 extra points made and 72 points scored, and made a school-record 53-yard field goal. In 2012, Jelden set the single-season school record for punting average at 41.6 yards per kick.

Along with all the success South Dakota School of Mines had on the playing field under Collins, the Hardrockers were just as successful in the classroom as seven players earned GNAC All-Academic Honors following the 2015 season.

Prior to his head coaching stint at South Dakota School of Mines, Collins served as the assistant head coach and special teams coordinator at Portland State in 2011, where he coached placekicker Zach Brown, who was named a first-team All-American by The Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the American Football Coaches Association and the Sports Network.

During the 2011 season, Brown made 24-of-27 field goals (.889) and ranked first in the nation in field goals made per game (2.18) and tied for eighth nationally in points per game (9.18). Brown was also named the Big Sky Conference Special Teams Player of the Week twice in 2011, as he set the single-season school record for field goals made with 24 and ended his PSU career as the all-time leader in field goals made (63).

Along with Brown, Collins also coached punter Thomas Duyndam to honorable mention all-Big Sky Conference honors in 2011.

Prior to Portland State, Collins spent three seasons at Central Washington as the special teams coordinator and linebacker/defensive line coach. In his three seasons with the Wildcat program (2008-10), Collins coached an All-American and two-time first-team all-GNAC kicker in Garrett Rolsma, as well as first-team all-conference kick returners Courtney Smith (2008) and Jerome Williams (2009).

Collins has also had coaching stops at Southern Oregon in 2007 (defensive coordinator), Idaho State from 2005-06 (linebackers coach), Western Washington from 2003-04 (linebackers coach), South Dakota School of Mines in 2002 (defensive/special teams coordinator) and Western Oregon from 1998-2001 (special teams coordinator and linebackers coach).

In addition, he spent time in Europe on the coaching staff of the Vienna Vikings (Austria) European League football team as the defensive coordinator and interim head coach from 1999-2001.

While the special teams coordinator at Western Washington from 2003-04, Collins coached punter Mike Koenen, who went on to play for 10 seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Collins played college football at Western Oregon from 1993-97 as a linebacker, graduating with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1998 and then a master's degree in education in 2001.

Collins, a native of Sutherlin, Ore., and his wife, Mandi, have four daughters, Kayla (13), Mackenzie (11), Kylee (5) and Mackenna (3).

Luke Wells is in his fourth season as Utah State's co-offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator, and first year as the program's quarterbacks coach after working with the tight ends for the past three seasons.

In his first three years at Utah State, the Aggies have posted a 25-16 record, including an 18-6 Mountain West mark, and notched bowl wins against No. 24 Northern Illinois (21-14) in the 2013 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl and against UTEP (21-6) in the 2014 Gildan New Mexico Bowl, along with playing in three-straight bowl games.

During the 2015 season, Wells mentored junior tight end Wyatt Houston, who caught 25 passes for 307 yards (12.3 ypr) with three touchdowns, as those 25 receptions are the most by an Aggie tight end since the 2012 season.

In 2014, Utah State's tight end combination of senior Jefferson Court and Houston combined to catch 25 passes for 204 yards (8.2 ypr) with five touchdowns. Houston finished the year ranking fifth on the team in both receptions (19) and yards (178), while Court ranked tied for second on the team in receiving touchdowns (3).

Following the 2014 season, Court was the 37th player selected in the 2015 Canadian Football League Draft by the Ottawa Redblacks.

During the 2013 season, Wells was part of an Aggie offense that set school records for pass completions (297), total offensive plays (1,073), touchdown passes (30) and first downs (310), while its 445 points scored and 481 pass attempts both rank second all-time. Furthermore, USU's 56 total touchdowns rank third all-time and its 31.7 points per game average ranks fifth all-time in school history.

Utah State's tight ends also set the single-season school record for touchdown receptions in 2013 with nine as D.J. Tialavea and Keegan Andersen each had three, while Houston had two and Kyler Fackrell had one. The previous record was seven set in 1993.

As tight ends coach, Wells mentored Tialavea, who was invited and participated in the 2014 NFL Combine and signed a free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL despite missing the final eight games of the season due to injury. Tialavea is currently with the Atlanta Falcons in the NFL.

Prior to joining Utah State's staff, Wells spent four seasons at Iowa State (2009-12), working with the tight ends for two years after coaching the wide receivers during his first two seasons. Wells also helped the Cyclones to back-to-back bowl games as they played in the 2011 New Era Pinstripe Bowl against Rutgers and the 2012 Auto Zone Liberty Bowl against Tulsa.

At Iowa State, Wells mentored Cyclone tight end Ernst Brun, who earned honorable mention all-Big 12 honors as he caught 26 passes for 330 yards (25.4 ypg) with six touchdowns. Brun was also named ISU's Offensive Player of the Game at the Auto Zone Liberty Bowl as he had four receptions for 102 yards, which included a 69-yard touchdown. Brun was invited to the Oakland Raiders camp following his senior season.

As wide receivers coach at Iowa State during the 2009 and 2010 seasons, Wells coached wide receivers Darius Darks and Darius Reynolds, who finished their careers combining for 208 receptions for 2,396 yards and 16 touchdowns. Wells also coached Josh Lenz who had 96 receptions for 1,213 yards and 10 touchdowns during his ISU career. Lenz is now with the Houston Texans in the NFL.

Prior to his stint at Iowa State, Wells spent six years at Louisiana-Monroe serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2003 before being elevated to a full-time assistant coach from 2004-08. During his last two years at ULM, Wells served as the Warhawks' recruiting coordinator, as well as wide receivers coach, and helped bring in the highest-rated recruiting classes in school history.

The Louisiana-Monroe offense posted the highest scoring average in the school's NCAA FBS history in 2008 as Warhawk wide receiver Anthony McCall set a school record for freshman touchdown receptions that season.

Wells took over the wide receivers at ULM in 2007 and mentored all-Sun Belt second-team selection LaGregory Sapp, who led the league in yards per reception with 19.6 on 40 catches for 784 yards. In all, Warhawk receivers caught 16 touchdown passes that year.

In 2004 and 2005, Wells worked with the tight ends and all-Sun Belt first-teamer Joey Trappey, who was the top receiving tight end in the conference with 42 receptions for 425 yards.

Prior to ULM, Wells coached wide receivers at Denton High School in Texas, helping his team win the 2002 bi-district title.

Before that, Wells was a student assistant at Oklahoma from 1999-2001 as the Sooners won the 2000 Big 12 Conference crown and national title.

Wells earned his bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in secondary education in 2002 and did graduate work at ULM. He is married to the former Coby Groves and the couple has one son, Walker (9), and one daughter, Kinsley (7). His brother, Matt, is USU's head football coach.

Additionally, opposing quarterbacks posted a passing efficiency of just 116.6 in 2014.

Steve Farmer, who has 17 years of coaching experience including nine seasons as an offensive coordinator, is in his first season as Utah State's offensive line coach.

Prior to his appointment at Utah State, Farmer spent the past six seasons as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Louisiana-Monroe, coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

During his six years at Louisiana-Monroe, Farmer mentored 17 offensive players who earned various all-Sun Belt Conference honors including quarterback Kolton Browning, who was named a College Football News Freshman All-American in 2010 and the Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year as a junior in 2012, as he helped the Warhawks to eight wins and an appearance in the Independence Bowl, their first since transitioning to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level in 1995. During the 2012 season, Louisiana-Monroe set or tied 45 school records.

As a freshman, Browning tied the Louisiana-Monroe record for touchdown passes in a game (5) and consecutive games with 200-plus yards passing (8). Browning finished his career ranking first all-time in school history in passing yards (10,263), pass completions (951), pass attempts (1,577) and touchdown passes (81).

Prior to his six years at Louisiana-Monroe, Farmer spent the 2009 season as the offensive coordinator at Illinois State.

From 2004-08, Farmer also coached at Louisiana-Monroe as the offensive line coach for three seasons and as the offensive coordinator during his final two years. In Farmer's first season at the helm of the ULM offense (2007), the Warhawks posted their highest points-per-game average (23.5) since moving to NCAA FBS status in 1994. ULM also posted the sixth-highest yards-per-game average (385.7) in school history. The Warhawks finished the season ranked 16th in the NCAA in rushing (209.0 ypg) and 31st in fewest sacks allowed (1.5 pg).

Farmer led one of the best offensive lines in the history of the Louisiana-Monroe football program in 2007 as they paved the way for Calvin Dawson, a two-time Sun Belt Conference rushing champion and ULM's all-time rushing leader with 3,378 yards, to his best season as a Warhawk as he rushed for 1,414 yards.

In 2006, the Louisiana-Monroe offensive line ranked fifth nationally, and first in the Sun Belt Conference, with only 13 sacks allowed on the year. The 2005 Warhawk offensive line allowed quarterback Steven Jyles the opportunity to earn Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year honors and led ULM to a Sun Belt Conference Championship. ULM allowed just eight sacks on the season, which ranked third nationally, and only one in Sun Belt Conference action.

In 2004, Farmer's first season with the Warhawks, ULM added 41 yards per game to its offense and only allowed seven sacks, the lowest total in the Sun Belt Conference and second-fewest in the nation.

Farmer came to Louisiana-Monroe from Eastern Michigan, where the offensive line helped tailback Anthony Sherrell run for 1,531 yards, setting an EMU single-season rushing record.

Prior to Eastern Michigan, Farmer was the offensive line coach at Eastern Illinois, where in two years his lines allowed just 17 quarterback sacks and helped EIU average over 35 points per game. He tutored eight all-Ohio Valley Conference linemen in those two seasons as the Panthers won the 2001 and 2002 OVC titles and advanced to the NCAA I-AA playoffs both seasons.

Farmer spent four years at Illinois State, two as a player and two more as an assistant coach. He coached the ISU defensive tackles in 1999 and tight ends in 2000. In 1999, ISU reached the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Semifinals.

Farmer played center for Illinois State from 1997-98, and was a member of the Redbirds' 1998 FCS Playoff team. He earned first-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors in 1998 and graduated from ISU in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Farmer began his collegiate playing career at one of the most successful junior college programs in the country, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M.

David Kotulski (Ka-tell-ski), who has 37 years of coaching experience including 22 years as a defensive coordinator, is in his first season as Utah State's linebackers coach.

In all, Kotulski has been part of five conference championships during his career, including four-straight during a four-year period at Lehigh (2010-11) and Stanford (2012-13) as he helped the Cardinal to back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances.

This is Kotulski's second stint at Utah State as he served as the Aggies' defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach in 2003 and 2004 under then head coach Mick Dennehy.

Most recently, Kotulski spent the 2014 season as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Vanderbilt. Prior to that, he spent two seasons as the inside linebackers coach at Stanford.

At Vanderbilt, Kotulski coached a pair of all-Southeastern Conference linebackers in Nigel Bowden, who was named to the all-freshman team in 2014, and Zach Cunningham, who went on to earn third-team All-America and first-team all-SEC honors in 2015.

At Stanford, Kotulski's interior linebackers helped produce one of the nation's top defense for a program that captured back-to-back Pac-12 crowns and made consecutive Rose Bowl appearances.

In 2013, the Cardinal defense was one of five nationally to allow opponents less than 100 rushing yards per game, ranking third in the NCAA at 89.4 yards allowed per game. The 2013 unit also ranked 10th in scoring defense (19.0 points) and 16th in total defense (343.1 yards), and was among the nation's best in producing plays for negative yardage with 44 quarterback sacks and 109 tackles for loss.

In 2012, Kotulski's linebackers were key to Stanford's 57 quarterback sacks, a school record. That season, the Cardinal also paced the Pac-12 in scoring defense (17.2 points), total defense (336.2 yards) and rushing defense (97.0 yards).

While at Stanford, Kotulski mentored two highly productive inside linebackers in Shayne Skov and A.J. Tarpley. Skov was Kotulski's most decorated player, becoming a two-time All-America recipient, two-time all-Pac-12 honoree and 2012 Butkus Award finalist. Tarpley earned all-Pac-12 honorable mention recognition in 2013.

Prior to joining the Stanford staff, Kotulski spent six years directing one of the Patriot League's top defense's at Lehigh. In 2011, Lehigh ranked in the top three in six defensive categories in the conference, including total defense (315.7 yards), rushing defense (102.8 yards), interceptions and sacks. The Mountain Hawks also finished in the top-20 nationally in both total defense and rushing defense.

After winning its second straight Patriot League title in 2011, Lehigh defeated Towson in the second round of the Football Championship Series (FCS) playoffs before falling to eventual national champion North Dakota State in the quarterfinals. In 2009, Kotulski's Lehigh unit led the nation with 39 sacks.

Before joining Lehigh, Kotulski was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Holy Cross in 2005 and at Utah State in 2003-04.

Following his first season as defensive coordinator at Utah State, the Aggies produced the second-best turnaround in college football as it ranked 111th in total defense (allowing 471.1 yards per game) the year before he arrived and improved that to 45th nationally in his first season (allowing 360.1 yards per game).

Under Kotulski, former Aggie linebacker Robert Watts earned second-team all-Sun Belt Conference honors as a junior in 2003 and was named the league's defensive player of the week once during the 2004 season, as he returned an interception 100 yards for a touchdown against UNLV, a mark that ranks second all-time in school history. Overall, Watts led the Aggies in tackles as both a junior and senior with 118 and 74 stops, respectively.

Kotulski also has experience as a defensive coordinator at Bucknell (1995-2002) and Saint Mary's (1990-94), and spent 12 years on staff at Utah coaching linebackers and the defensive line. During the 2002 season at Bucknell, Kotulski served as the Bison's interim head coach.

Kotulski's coaching career began at St. Paul (Calif.) High School, where he helped the team to a 34-5 record and three Angelus League Championships.

An Illinois native, Kotulski earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1974 from New Mexico State, where he lettered as a linebacker and center for the Aggies.

Kotulski and his wife, Cissy, are the parents of two children, David and Carey.

However, USU senior NG David Moala blocked the ensuing extra-point try and senior LB Torrey Green returned it for a two-point conversion, making it 6-2.

Junior PK Brock Warren made the first field goal of his Utah State career when he drilled a 30-yarder with 4:59 left in the first quarter, trimming Southern Utah's lead to 6-5.

The Thunderbirds answered with a field goal of their own with four seconds left in the first half as Keita Calhoun converted from 36 yards out to give Southern Utah a 9-5 lead at halftime. The score remained the same until Rodriguez's game-changing punt return for a touchdown with 4:54 left in the fourth quarter.

The Aggies (4-2, 3-0 MW) forced a school-record-tying eight turnovers, including seven in the first half, with five interceptions and three fumbles, turning them into 35 points.

This was the Aggies' first home win against an Associated Press-ranked team since defeating No. 25 Fresno State 20-19 in 1991. However, USU is 3-3 against top-25 opponents over the past three years under head coach Matt Wells.

Sophomore QB Kent Myers completed 17-of-24 passes for 157 yards and a career-high-tying three touchdowns as the Aggies extended their home winning streak to 12 in a row. Myers also tied for the team high in rushing with 63 yards and a score on 14 carries.

Redshirt senior RB Kelsey Young rushed for 60 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries for Boise State (5-2, 2-1), while freshman QB Brett Rypien completed 25-of-50 passes for 299 yards and three interceptions.

Junior RB Devante Mays also rushed for 63 yards and a touchdown for the Aggies, who outgained the Broncos 334 to 333. Senior WR Hunter Sharp caught seven passes for 42 yards and two touchdowns to help Utah State snap a 12-game losing streak to Boise State dating back to the 1997 season.

Junior LB Nick Vigil led the Aggies on defense with 14 tackles, including 2.0 sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss. He also had two quarterback hurries, a fumble recovery and forced fumble. Senior LB Kyler Fackrell added 11 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss, two fumble recoveries, two quarterback hurries and a forced fumble.

The Broncos, who were the last team to defeat the Aggies at Maverik Stadium (34-23 on Oct. 12, 2013), struck first courtesy of a 46-yard field goal by junior PK Tyler Rausa.

Utah State answered as Myers threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to junior TE Wyatt Houston on fourth down, giving the Aggies a 7-3 lead with 7:33 left in the quarter. The score was set up by a career-long 51-yard reception by sophomore RB LaJuan Hunt.

The Aggies made it 10-3 the very next time they touched the ball as junior PK Jake Thompson drilled a career-long-tying 52-yard field goal with 3:22 remaining in the first quarter.

Utah State's defense set up the next two scores. A fumble recovery by Fackrell turned into a 10-yard touchdown pass from Myers to Sharp, making it 17-3 late in the first. On Boise State's next possession, senior DE Jordan Nielsen recovered a fumble at the Broncos' 15. Four plays later, Hunt scored from four yards out to give Utah State a 24-3 lead early in the second quarter.

Following a 1-yard touchdown run by Young, Utah State scored 21 points in the final 1:25 of the first half, capped by a 90-yard interception return by senior SS Marwin Evans. The defense, again, set up the other two scores as Vigil and senior CB Bryant Hayes each recovered a fumble. Myers then turned the turnovers into a 39-yard touchdown run and a 21-yard touchdown pass to Sharp.

The Aggies and Broncos traded touchdowns in the third quarter as Mays scored on a 1-yard run to give the hosts a 52-17 lead at the end of the quarter.

Sophomore CB Jalen Davis and senior LB Torrey Green also had interceptions for the Aggies and USU finished with 10.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks.

Junior LB Nick Vigil (41) had 14 tackles, which included 2.0 sacks and 2.5 tackles for loss, against Boise State. Vigil also forced a fumble and recovered a fumble against the Broncos, and added two quarterback hurries.

Sophomore QB Kent Myers (2) was 8-of-19 passing for 93 yards with one touchdown and one interception in Utah State's 48-14 loss at San Diego State. Myers also rushed for 22 yards on 11 carries against the Aztecs.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Utah State junior RB Devante Mays rushed for 88 yards and a touchdown on a career-high 15 carries, but it still wasn't enough in a 48-14 loss to San Diego State on Oct. 23, 2015 at Qualcomm Stadium.

Aztecs junior RB Donnel Pumphrey rushed for 181 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries against the Aggies, who had a difficult time stopping the run without the services of starting senior NG David Moala, who missed his first game of the season due to an injury suffered against Boise State a week ago.

Both teams came into the game unbeaten in Mountain West play and leading their respective division with a 3-0 league mark, but the Aztecs took control early and never looked back en route to defeating the Aggies for the ninth straight time, including the eighth consecutive time at home.

San Diego State (5-3, 4-0 MW) scored on six straight possessions in the first half and finished with 429 yards of total offense, compared to just 239 by Utah State (4-3, 3-1). The Aggies committed four turnovers, which the Aztecs turned into 17 first-half points. Conversely, Utah State did not force a turnover for the third time this year after forcing 18 turnovers in its last four games.

Chase Price nearly gave San Diego State a second 100-yard rusher in the game as the senior RB rushed for 97 yards and a touchdown on 21 carries. The Aztecs rushed for 336 yards and five touchdowns on 61 carries (5.5 ypc).

Senior WR Hunter Sharp scored the Aggies' other touchdown on a 45-yard pass from sophomore QB Kent Myers in the second quarter. Sharp finished with four catches for 63 yards, while Myers completed 8-of-19 passes for 93 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

San Diego State scored the first 24 points of the game and never looked back. After the two teams traded punts to begin the game, the Aztecs scored on their second series when senior QB Maxwell Smith threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to sophomore WR Mikah Halder to make it 7-0 with 9:35 left in the first quarter.

Less than a minute later, San Diego State was on the board again. Following a fumble recovery by junior LB Calvin Munson at the Utah State 14-yard line, the Aztecs needed just two plays to find the end zone as Smith scored on a 1-yard run for a 14-0 lead.

San Diego State made it 17-0 late in the first courtesy of a 41-yard field goal by Donny Hageman. The senior placekicker was also good from 21 yards out with 1:29 left in the opening half to give the Aztecs a commanding 34-7 lead at the break.

Pumphrey scored on touchdown runs of 4 and 62 yards, respectively, in the second quarter. The second one came right after Sharp's 45-yard touchdown pass from Myers that pulled the Aggies within 24-7 with 5:14 remaining until halftime.

Utah State took the second-half kickoff and went 65 yards in six plays, capped by a 26-yard touchdown run by Mays to pull within 34-14.

San Diego State tacked on two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter courtesy of a 1-yard run by Price and a 7-yard run by sophomore RB Rashaad Penny.

Senior LB Kyler Fackrell and junior LB Nick Vigil led Utah State's defensive effort with 10 tackles apiece, while senior DE Jordan Nielsen added a career-best nine stops.

Junior LB Nick Vigil (41) had 10 tackles against the Aztecs.

LOGAN, Utah - Junior RB Devante Mays rushed for a career-high 176 yards and two touchdowns on a career-best 22 carries as Utah State bounced back from its first Mountain West loss of the season with a 58-27 victory against Wyoming on Oct. 30, 2015 on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium.

Sophomore QB Kent Myers completed his first 10 passes of the game and finished 14-of-17 passing for 246 yards and a career-high-tying three touchdowns for Utah State (5-3, 4-1 MW), which defeated Wyoming (1-8, 1-4) for the fourth straight time.

Sophomore RB Brian Hill finished with 201 yards rushing and one touchdown on 26 carries for the Cowboys, who lost for the second time in a row.

The Aggies, who were held to just 239 yards in a 48-14 loss at San Diego State last weekend, finished with 592 yards (296 rushing and 296 passing) of total offense against Wyoming, its most since gaining 646 yards against Louisiana Tech in 2012 and the 14th-most in school history.

Wyatt Houston had his best game as an Aggie. The junior TE caught a career-high-tying four passes for a career-best 66 yards and a career-high two touchdowns, the final a 25-yarder with 9:52 left in the game that gave Utah State a 51-21 lead.

Junior LB Nick Vigil led the Aggies' defensive effort as he recorded 13 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Senior SS Marwin Evans added seven tackles, to go along with a career-high two pass breakups.

The Aggies scored points every time they touched the ball in the first half as Mays scored on runs of 11 and 2 yards, respectively, while Houston caught an 8-yard touchdown pass from Myers. In addition, junior PK Brock Warren booted a 22-yard field goal.

Of Utah State's 11 offensive possessions on the night, seven ended with a touchdown and one ended with a field goal. The Aggies only punted once on the night.

Utah State capped the first-half scoring when junior LB Brock Carmen blocked a punt, which redshirt freshman FS Jontrell Rocquemore recovered in the end zone to give the hosts a 30-14 lead at the break. It was Rocquemore's second touchdown of the season as he also returned a fumble 97 yards for a score at Washington on Sept. 19.

Wyoming's two touchdowns during the first 30 minutes of action came courtesy of a 9-yard pass from redshirt freshman QB Nick Smith to junior WR Jake Maulhardt and a 47-yard run by Hill that pulled the Cowboys within 21-14 with 6:54 left in the second quarter.

Maulhardt finished with four catches for 30 yards and two touchdowns. Smith was 10-of-18 passing for 83 yards and the two touchdowns.

Sophomore QB Kent Myers (2) was 13-of-24 passing for 213 yards with one touchdown in Utah State's 14-13 loss at New Mexico. Myers also rushed for five yards on 10 carries against the Lobos.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Sophomore QB Kent Myers was 13-of-24 passing for 213 yards and a touchdown, but missed opportunities proved to be Utah State's undoing in a 14-13 loss at New Mexico on Nov. 7, 2015.

The Aggies (5-4, 4-2 Mountain West) had a golden opportunity to possibly win the game at the end, but junior PK Brock Warren's 41-yard field goal attempt was wide right with less than a minute remaining in the fourth quarter. Earlier in the fourth, he had hit a career-long 41-yarder to pull Utah State within 14-13.

Lobos QB Lamar Jordan was 2-of-5 passing for 97 yards, including an 86-yard touchdown pass to Delane Hart-Johnson that gave New Mexico (5-4, 3-2) a 7-0 lead in the second quarter.

The Aggies lost two fumbles that the Lobos turned into seven points. Utah State also turned it over on downs two out of the first three times it touched the ball. On the game's opening possession, the Aggies had it second-and-goal from the New Mexico 2-yard line, but managed to gain just one yard as Myers threw an incomplete pass on fourth down.

A penalty with less than five minutes remaining in the game also proved costly for Utah State. Myers hit sophomore RB LaJuan Hunt out of the backfield on a screen pass that turned it into a 61-yard gain. However, the play was nullified due to a holding call on the Aggies, who eventually had to punt the ball away.

Hunt did finish with two catches for 67 yards, including a career-best 63-yard reception on a first-quarter screen. Senior WR Hunter Sharp had five catches for 38 yards for Utah State, which was held to 294 yards of offense, including a season-low 78 yards rushing.

Defensively, Utah State limited New Mexico to only 236 yards of offense and 10 first downs, both season-lows for the Lobos. Junior LB Nick Vigil had nine tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, to lead the Aggies, who had won two straight against UNM.

Playing in his first game back since suffering a knee injury against Boise State three games earlier, senior NG David Moala recorded two tackles for loss, a sack and a forced fumble on back-to-back plays in the second quarter. Moala finished with five total tackles, to go along with his first career pass breakup.

Following a scoreless first quarter, New Mexico cracked the scoreboard on the 86-yard touchdown pass from Jordan to Hart-Johnson. It was the longest play from scrimmage allowed by the Aggies since a 92-yard touchdown run by Oklahoma in 2007. Utah State answered back on its ensuing possession courtesy of a 25-yard field goal by Warren.

The second half started promisingly for the Aggies as the defense forced the Lobos to go three-and-out on their first possession. However, junior WR Andrew Rodriguez fumbled the ensuing punt return and New Mexico recovered it at the USU 3-yard line.

One play later, the Lobos cashed in on the turnover when Richard McQuarley scored on a run right up the middle to give the hosts a 14-3 lead with 13:20 left in the third.

Utah State pulled within 14-10 with 5:55 remaining in the third when Rodriguez made a spectacular diving 24-yard touchdown catch in the end zone. It was the first touchdown reception of his career.

Following an interception by junior FS Devin Centers, who returned it 45 yards, the Aggies pulled even closer when Warren drilled his 41-yarder, making it 14-13 with 11:47 remaining.

Junior LB Nick Vigil (41) had nine tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, against the Lobos.

Senior WR Hunter Sharp (4) caught a career-high 13 passes for a career-best 193 yards, including a career-high three touchdown receptions from 41, 48 and 39 yards in Utah State's 35-28 loss at Air Force.

USAFA, Colo. - Utah State's struggles on the road continued as Air Force used a surprising passing attack in a 35-28 victory against the Aggies on Nov. 14, 2015 at Falcon Stadium.

The Falcons (7-3, 5-1 Mountain West) racked up 580 yards in beating the Aggies (5-5, 4-3). Senior QB Karson Roberts was 11-of-13 passing for 271 yards and one touchdown.

The loss spoiled a career day by Utah State's Kent Myers. The sophomore QB was 25-of-47 passing for 364 yards and four touchdowns. His completions, attempts, yards and touchdown passes were all career highs.

Myers' favorite target was senior WR Hunter Sharp, who caught 13 passes for 193 yards and three touchdowns, all career highs. Sharp's receptions are the most by an Aggie since Kevin Curtis also caught 13 passes against Middle Tennessee in 2002.

Junior LB Nick Vigil led the Aggies, who fell to 1-5 on the road this season, with 20 tackles, which is tied for the fourth-most stops by a Football Bowl Subdivision player this season.

Roberts' favorite target on the day was senior WR Jalen Robinette, who caught seven passes for a career-high 210 yards and a touchdown.

Trailing 35-28, Utah State got the ball at its own 25-yard line following a punt with 2:45 remaining in the game. Myers marched the Aggies down the field, picking up a key fourth-and-2 on a five-yard pass to Sharp that gave Utah State a first down at the Air Force 45.

The Aggies eventually moved the ball to the Falcons' 11-yard line, where they had it first-and-10. But that's where the drive stalled as Myers got sacked once and threw three incomplete passes. The final incompletion was on fourth-and-17 from the 18.

After the Falcons forced the Aggies to go three-and-out on the game's opening possession, the two teams proceeded to trade touchdowns on the next four series.

Air Force got a 30-yard touchdown run from junior RB D.J. Johnson and a 1-yard score from junior RB Jacobi Owens. Myers and Sharp accounted for both of Utah State's touchdowns as the duo hooked up from 41 and 48 yards, respectively. The second of those touchdowns knotted the score up at 14-apiece at the end of the first quarter.

The Falcons took a 21-14 lead into halftime when Roberts scored on a 5-yard touchdown run with 40 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

Air Force opened up a two-touchdown lead less than two minutes into the second half as Roberts threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Robinette, making it 28-14.

However, the Aggies pulled within 28-21 with 4:27 left in the third when Sharp turned a screen from Myers into a 39-yard touchdown.

The Falcons opened a 35-21 lead on Owens' second rushing touchdown of the game, this time from three yards out. Owens finished with 58 yards on 17 carries.

Utah State answered right back, though, and ended the third quarter with a bang as Myers threw a 44-yard touchdown pass to senior WR Devonte Robinson to pull the Aggies within seven again.

Air Force missed out on a golden opportunity to open up another two-score advantage early in the fourth quarter. Facing a fourth-and-1 play from the Aggies' 10-yard line, the Falcons elected to go for it, but Owens was stopped for no gain.

Redshirt freshman P Aaron Dalton punted seven times for an average of 50.3 yards, including a long of 57 and had two punts downed inside the 20-yard line.

Junior LB Nick Vigil (41) had a career-high 20 tackles, including 2.0 tackles for loss, against the Falcons.

Junior RB Devante Mays (32) rushed for 133 yards on a career-high-tying 22 carries and scored a pair of touchdowns on runs of five and two yards in Utah State's 31-27 come-from-behind win against Nevada.

LOGAN, Utah - Junior RB Devante Mays rushed for 133 yards and two touchdowns, while senior LB Kyler Fackrell recovered a fumble in the end zone for a touchdown, to help Utah State rally from 20 points down in the third quarter and stun Nevada, 31-27, on Merlin Olsen Field at Maverik Stadium on Nov. 21, 2015.

Utah State's 20-point comeback is its largest since rallying from 21 down to beat Hawai'i 35-31 on Nov. 5, 2011, as USU extended its home winning streak to 14 straight games.

Senior WR Hunter Sharp had 160 all-purpose yards, including a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, as the Aggies (6-5, 5-3 Mountain West) became bowl eligible for the fifth consecutive season. USU finished the game with 313 total yards and held the Wolf Pack to 264, including just 111 in the second half.

Redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton replaced an injured Kent Myers in the first quarter and completed 14-of-27 passes for 109 yards and one interception against the Wolf Pack (6-5, 4-3). Keeton added 52 yards on the ground on 14 carries.

Sophomore RB James Butler rushed for 139 yards and two touchdowns for Nevada, which had its three-game winning streak snapped. Junior QB Tyler Stewart was 8-of-18 passing for 55 yards and had a rushing touchdown, but his fourth-quarter fumble helped Utah State take the lead for good.

A 37-yard punt by Utah State redshirt freshman P Aaron Dalton was downed at the Nevada 1-yard line by junior CB Jentz Painter. Just one play later, Stewart couldn't handle the snap in the end zone and Fackrell recovered it for a touchdown, tying the score at 27-apiece with 6:55 remaining in the game. Junior PK Jake Thompson then gave the Aggies their first lead of the night, 28-27, with the subsequent extra point. Thompson capped the wild comeback by drilling a 42-yard field goal with 35 seconds remaining.

For Fackrell, it was his nation-leading fifth fumble recovery this year and the seventh of his career. He added 10 tackles, including 0.5 tackles for loss, and two quarterback hurries.

For the 10th time in 11 games this season, junior LB Nick Vigil led the Aggies in tackles with 13, including 1.0 tackles for loss, one quarterback hurry and a fumble recovery. Senior SS Marwin Evans added a career-high 11 tackles.

Nevada took a 7-0 lead with 7:36 remaining in the first quarter when senior LB Jordan Dobrich intercepted a pass by Myers and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown.

The Wolf Pack turned another interception into points in the second quarter. Freshman LB Riley Brand picked off a pass by Keeton and returned it 14 yards to the Aggies' 21-yard line. Four plays later, Stewart scored on a 2-yard keeper to give Nevada a 14-0.

Sharp gave the Aggies some life on the ensuing kickoff as he returned it 96 yards for a touchdown, pulling Utah State within 14-7 with 8:07 left until halftime. The return is tied for the sixth-longest in school history.

The Wolf Pack took a 21-7 lead into the break following a 33-yard touchdown run by Butler.

Nevada opened up a 20-point lead just 50 seconds into the second half when Butler scored on a 60-yard touchdown run. But, Utah State senior NG David Moala blocked the extra point to leave the score at 27-7.

The Aggies answered on the ensuing possession when Mays scored on a 5-yard run to make it 27-14 with 9:05 remaining in the third.

After Utah State forced Nevada to go three-and-out, the Aggies pulled even closer on another touchdown by Mays, this time from 2 yards out.

Senior LB Kyler Fackrell (9) had 10 tackles, including tackles 0.5 for loss, and recovered a fumble in the end zone in the fourth quarter for the game-winning score against the Wolf Pack.

Senior QB Chuckie Keeton (16) was 20-of-45 passing for 243 yards with one touchdown in Utah State's 51-28 loss to BYU. Keeton also rushed for 54 yards on nine carries, including a 52-yard touchdown run.

LOGAN, Utah - Redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton set a Utah State record for career touchdown passes, but it still wasn't enough as the Aggies closed out the regular season with a 51-28 home loss to BYU on Nov. 28, 2015.

Keeton, who completed 20 passes on a career-high 45 attempts for 243 yards, eclipsed Jose Fuentes on the career touchdown list when he hit senior WR Hunter Sharp with a 24-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies (6-6) a 21-10 lead with exactly three minutes left in the first half.

Keeton, who also rushed for 54 yards and a touchdown on nine carries, entered the game tied with Fuentes at 60 career touchdown passes. It was Keeton's 19th career 200-yard passing game.

Sharp finished with a game-best seven receptions for 100 yards, marking his second 100-yard receiving game this year and the sixth of his career.

BYU freshman QB Tanner Mangum completed 16-of-30 passes for 284 yards and four touchdowns. His favorite target on the afternoon was senior WR Mitch Mathews, who caught six passes for 158 yards and two touchdowns for the Cougars (9-3).

Keeton gave the Aggies a 7-0 lead less than three minutes into the game when he kept the ball on an option read and ran untouched into the end zone from 52 yards out.

Utah State's early lead was short-lived, though. BYU junior RB Algernon Brown scored on an 8-yard touchdown run to tie it at 7-all with 10:08 remaining in the first. The Cougars then took their first lead when senior PK Trevor Samson booted a 41-yard field goal to make it 10-7 late in the quarter.

The Aggies moved back in front when sophomore RB LaJuan Hunt scored on a 6-yard touchdown run to make it 14-10 with 7:05 remaining in the second quarter. After Sharp caught Keeton's record-setting touchdown pass, the game turned in favor of the Cougars.

BYU answered right back on the very first play of the ensuing possession. Mathews got behind the Utah State secondary and Mangum hit him in stride for a 72-yard touchdown pass, pulling the Cougars within 21-17.

Disaster struck again for the Aggies right before the end of the half. While scrambling out of the pocket, Keeton fumbled the ball and BYU sophomore DE Tomasi Laulile picked it up and rumbled 37 yards into the end zone, giving the Cougars a 24-21 lead at the break.

BYU tacked on two more touchdowns in the third quarter to make it 38-21 before junior LB Nick Vigil stopped the bleeding with a 2-yard touchdown run early in the fourth, making it 38-28. It was Vigil's first rushing touchdown of the season and the fourth of his career.

But that's as close as the Aggies, who had two field goals blocked and had another hit off the uprights during the game, would get.

Mangum threw a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown passes to give the Cougars their final margin of victory.

Senior SS Marwin Evans led Utah State with a career-high 14 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss. Vigil added nine stops for the Aggies.

Utah State finished the game with 445 total yards (243 passing, 202 rushing), while BYU finished with 358 total yards (284 passing, 74 rushing). The Aggies won the time of possession battle as they had the ball for nearly 33 minutes.

Senior SS Marwin Evans (24) had a career-high 14 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, against the Cougars.

Junior RB Devante Mays rushed for 124 yards on 12 carries in Utah State's 23-21 loss to Akron, including a career-long 61 yard run. Mays' 124 rushing yards are the 11th-most in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history.

BOISE, Idaho - In his final game as an Aggie, redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton set another school record, but it still wasn't enough for Utah State (6-7) to overcome three turnovers and several missed opportunities in the red zone in a 23-21 loss to Akron (8-5) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 22, 2015 at Albertsons Stadium.

With the loss, the Aggies had their school-record three-game bowl winning streak snapped. Utah State was playing in its school-record fifth consecutive bowl game.

Keeton completed 14-of-25 passes for 109 yards with one touchdown and one interception. With his 108 yards of total offense against the Zips, the native of Houston, Texas, became the school's all-time leader in total offense with 8,803 career yards.

Keeton's lone touchdown pass came with 1:12 remaining in the game, a 2-yarder to senior WR Brandon Swindall that pulled Utah State to within 23-21. Overall, Keeton's 62 career touchdown passes are also a school-best.

After a failed on-side kick, Utah State forced an Akron punt and took over on their own 12-yard line with six seconds remaining in the game. Keeton completed an 8-yard pass to senior WR Hunter Sharp, but the clock ran out following a couple of backward laterals.

Sophomore QB Thomas Woodson was 14-of-29 for 168 yards and one interception for Akron, which won its first-ever bowl game.

Like Keeton, sophomore QB Kent Myers also completed 14 passes on 20 attempts for 123 yards and two touchdowns as USU had two quarterbacks each throw for 100 yards in the same game for the first time since 1996.

Sharp caught a Utah State bowl record 11 passes for 93 yards and a touchdown, while Devante Mays led all rushers in the game with 124 yards on 12 carries.

Defensively, the Aggies were led by senior LB LT Filiaga and senior NG David Moala, who had eight tackles apiece. Moala, who also had a career-best 2.5 tackles for loss and 0.5 sacks, tied his career high with those eight stops. Sophomore CB Jalen Davis recorded USU's lone turnover of the day when he intercepted a pass in the second quarter.

The Aggies took their only lead of the game as they marched 64 yards to paydirt in seven plays to start the third quarter. Sharp capped the drive with a 19-yard touchdown reception from Myers, giving Utah State a 14-13 lead. Myers set up the score with a 27-yard run on third-and-17 from the Zips' 46.

Akron cashed in on USU's third turnover and went in front for good on a 2-yard touchdown run by senior RB Donnell Alexander, making it 20-14 with 5:43 to go in the third.

The Zips increased their lead to 23-14 with 8:15 to go in the fourth when Robert Stein booted a 46-yard field goal, capping a 14-play drive that ate up nearly seven minutes.

Akron struck first on a trick play when redshirt junior WR Tyrell Goodman threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Woodson for a 7-0 lead just 4:22 into the first quarter.

The Zips made it 10-0 with 2:53 remaining in the second quarter courtesy of a 33-yard field goal by Stein.

However, the Aggies fought back on the ensuing possession when Myers threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to senior Swindall to pull the Aggies within 10-7 with 1:32 left in the half.

Akron added a 29-yard field goal on the last play of the half, following a USU fumble, to make the score 13-7.

In the first half, Utah State twice reached the red zone only to come away empty-handed as Keeton was intercepted and later muffed a snap on a 35-yard field goal attempt.

Senior NG David Moala tied his career-high with eight tackles and had a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss, which included 0.5 sacks to go along with one pass breakup against the Zips.

EMMETT WHITE'S NCAA RECORD-SETTING DAY

On Nov. 4, 2000, Utah State running back Emmett White produced one of the greatest single-game performances in NCAA history. The then-Aggie junior not only broke the NCAA single-game all-purpose yardage record, he demolished it.

The national record of 435 yards held by Brian Pruitt of Central Michigan, set against Toledo in 1994, was broken by an astonishing 143 yards as White accumulated 578 yards against New Mexico State.

White rushed 34 times for a school-record 322 yards, added 134 yards on seven receptions, had one punt return for two yards and four kickoff returns for 120 yards. That added up to 578 yards on 46 touches of the football that November night.

Not only did White amass all of those yards, he scored four touchdowns, including the game-winner, a nine-yard run, with just :28 left in the game as USU won the contest in Las Cruces 44-37.

He finished the season as the nation's all-purpose yardage leader averaging 238.9 yards per game (39 yards more per game than NCAA runner-up LaDainian Tomlinson of TCU). That average is still the sixth-best average in NCAA history.

White's 120.2 yards per game rushing that year ranked 13th in the country and his 322 yards on the ground against NMSU were the second most in a game in Big West history, as well as the most in USU history by 30 yards.

FRESNO, Calif. - A powerful San José State college grid team shut out Utah State, 20-0, in the second annual Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif.

San José State devastated the Aggies, 16-7, in first downs, 177-74 in yards rushing, and 110-49 in yards passing.

The Bearcats also controlled the ball for 42:17 as it converted on 14-of-22 (.636) third downs, while USU had the ball for just 17:43 as it converted just 2-of-10 (.200) third downs. In all, Cincinnati ran 40 more plays (90-50) in the game as it averaged 4.6 yards per play as compared to 6.3 yards per play for USU.

Utah State did not practice outdoors until the two days prior to the game as the Aggies worked out in the USU fieldhouse for the month between the end of the regular season and the bowl game. That rustiness was evident as USU went scoreless in the first half as Cincinnati put up a 21-0 halftime advantage.

Cincinnati's first touchdown of the game was on a 14-yard pass from Chad Plummer to Cornelius Bonner with 4:03 to play in the first quarter. Bonner caught another 14-yard pass, this time from Deontey Kenner, just 48 seconds into the second quarter. The Bearcats final touchdown of the first half was on a 1-yard run.

After Cincinnati extended its lead to 28-0 with 8:39 to play in the third quarter on a 15-yard run by Plummer, Utah State warmed up, scoring three touchdowns in an eight minute span, but the Aggies were controlled by a bigger, stronger Cincinnati team. USU's first score came on a 75-yard pass from senior QB Matt Sauk to senior WR Steve Smith with 7:31 to play in the third quarter. USU scored again late in the third quarter on a 3-yard run by senior RB Melvin Blue, and its final touchdown of the game came with 14:18 to play in the game on a 10-yard fumble return by freshman LB Brent Passey.

Cincinnati's final touchdown of the game was with 2:28 to play in the third quarter on a 7-yard touchdown run by Orlando Smith to make the score 35-7, before USU scored the final 12 points of the game.

Smith earned USU MVP honors as he had four receptions for 136 yards and a 75-yard touchdown, while also returning two punts for 26 yards and two kickoffs for 58 yards. The game was the final one for head coach John L. Smith, who had announced that he had taken the head coaching job at Louisville immediately after the final regular season game at North Texas.

Sauk finished the game 12-of-30 passing for 253 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions. Kenner passed for 124 yards as he completed 10-of-16 passes with one touchdown, while Plummer was selected as the Bearcats' MVP in the game after rushing for 53 yards, passing for 62 yards and catching four passes for 64 more yards. Sophomore RB Demario Brown was the Aggies' top rusher as he carried the ball 12 times for 56 yards, and senior WR Nakia Jenkins added 80 receiving yards on four receptions.

Junior LB Tony D'Amato led Utah State with 12 tackles, while junior CB Johndale Carty and junior LB Craig Miller each posted nine stops.

Senior RB Michael Smith (20) rushed for a career-high 157 yards on just 12 carries and scored two touchdowns in Utah State's 24-23 loss to Ohio in the 2011 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Smith, who added one receptions for 10 yards, was named Utah State's MVP.

BOISE, Idaho - In a season full of close finishes, the outcome at Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was no different for Utah State (7-6, 5-3 WAC) as Ohio scored with 13 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter to earn a 24-23 win against the Aggies on Dec. 17, 2011 at Bronco Stadium in Boise.

After much deliberation on the two plays earlier to get to the goal line, Ohio quarterback Tyler Tettleton scored on a 1-yard touchdown run with 13 seconds left to tie the score at 23-23. The ensuing extra point from Matt Weller gave the Bobcats their first and only lead of the game.

In the Aggies' first bowl game since 1997, senior RB Michael Smith ran for a career-high and USU bowl record 157 yards, scoring both of Utah State's rushing touchdowns. Junior RB Robert Turbin recorded his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 101 yards.

Utah State ended its historic season with a 7-6 record, which is its first seven-win season since 1993. The loss snaps the Aggies' five-game winning streak, and gave the Bobcats their first ever bowl win in their sixth bowl appearance, improving to 10-4.

The Aggies jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first quarter after Tettleton fumbled in the end zone with 9:23 remaining in the first quarter.

USU expanded its lead to 9-0 later in the first quarter when junior QB Adam Kennedy connected with senior TE Tarren Lloyd for a 3-yard touchdown pass to give the Aggies the 9-0 lead after the first quarter. The USU defense pitched its fourth first-quarter shutout this season, and second in a row.

Ohio cut that lead to 9-7 early in the second quarter when Derek Roback scored on a 26-yard pass from Tettleton with 4:40 to play in the half. It would be the only score of the second quarter as USU entered the locker room with a 9-7 advantage.

Smith and the Aggies wasted no time getting on the board in the third quarter when Smith broke off a 63-yard run with 12:19 remaining to put USU up 16-7. It was the longest rush allowed by the highly-touted Ohio defense during the season.

Less than three minutes later, the USU defense was able to hold the Bobcats to a field goal when Matt Weller drilled a 32-yard field goal to cut the Blue and White lead to 16-10.

The high-scoring third quarter continued with Smith scoring his second touchdown of the game with an 11-yard scamper and sophomore PK Josh Thompson booted his third extra point of the night to put USU up 23-10 with 5:51 left in the third stanza. The frenzied third-quarter scoring wasn't done as Tettleton hit Ohio's MVP Brazill with a 44-yard scoring strike to pull the Bobcats within 23-17 at the 3:45 mark of quarter number three.

Kennedy was injured late in the third quarter, and freshman QB Chuckie Keeton returned under center for the first time since Nov. 5 after starting USU's first eight games of the season but getting injured himself in the Hawai'i game. Keeton ran for a 10-yard gain on his first play, but the drive later stalled at midfield.

On USU's first drive of the fourth quarter, Kennedy returned and the Aggies again reached midfield, but couldn't get into scoring territory. The USU defense held Ohio, but Bobcat punter Paul Hershey boomed a 59-yard punt, pinning the Aggies at the USU 7. Utah State couldn't get a first down and had to punt it away to Ohio, and the Bobcats began their winning drive with 2:02 left.

Senior LB Kyle Gallagher (43) had nine tackles, including 0.5 for loss, against the Bobcats.

Junior RB Devante Mays rushed for 124 yards on 12 carries in Utah State's 23-21 loss to Akron, including a career-long 61 yard run. Mays' 124 rushing yards are the 11th-most in Famous Idaho Potato Bowl history.

BOISE, Idaho - In his final game as an Aggie, redshirt senior QB Chuckie Keeton set another school record, but it still wasn't enough for Utah State (6-7) to overcome three turnovers and several missed opportunities in the red zone in a 23-21 loss to Akron (8-5) in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Dec. 22, 2015 at Albertsons Stadium.

With the loss, the Aggies had their school-record three-game bowl winning streak snapped. Utah State was playing in its school-record fifth consecutive bowl game.

Keeton completed 14-of-25 passes for 109 yards with one touchdown and one interception. With his 108 yards of total offense against the Zips, the native of Houston, Texas, became the school's all-time leader in total offense with 8,803 career yards.

Keeton's lone touchdown pass came with 1:12 remaining in the game, a 2-yarder to senior WR Brandon Swindall that pulled Utah State to within 23-21. Overall, Keeton's 62-career touchdown passes are also a school-best.

After a failed on-side kick, Utah State forced an Akron punt and took over on their own 12-yard line with six seconds remaining in the game. Keeton completed an 8-yard pass to senior WR Hunter Sharp, but the clock ran out following a couple of backward laterals.

Sophomore QB Thomas Woodson was 14-of-29 for 168 yards and one interception for Akron, which won its first-ever bowl game.

Like Keeton, sophomore QB Kent Myers also completed 14 passes on 20 attempts for 123 yards and two touchdowns as USU had two quarterbacks each throw for 100 yards in the same game for the first time since 1996.

Sharp caught a Utah State bowl record 11 passes for 93 yards and a touchdown, while Devante Mays led all rushers in the game with 124 yards on 12 carries.

Defensively, the Aggies were led by senior LB LT Filiaga and senior NG David Moala, who had eight tackles apiece. Moala, who also had a career-best 2.5 tackles for loss and 0.5 sacks, tied his career high with those eight stops. Sophomore CB Jalen Davis recorded USU's lone turnover of the day when he intercepted a pass in the second quarter.

The Aggies took their only lead of the game as they marched 64 yards to paydirt in seven plays to start the third quarter. Sharp capped the drive with a 19-yard touchdown reception from Myers, giving Utah State a 14-13 lead. Myers set up the score with a 27-yard run on third-and-17 from the Zips' 46.

Akron cashed in on USU's third turnover and went in front for good on a 2-yard touchdown run by senior RB Donnell Alexander, making it 20-14 with 5:43 to go in the third.

The Zips increased their lead to 23-14 with 8:15 to go in the fourth when Robert Stein booted a 46-yard field goal, capping a 14-play drive that ate up nearly seven minutes.

Akron struck first on a trick play when redshirt junior WR Tyrell Goodman threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Woodson for a 7-0 lead just 4:22 into the first quarter.

The Zips made it 10-0 with 2:53 remaining in the second quarter courtesy of a 33-yard field goal by Stein.

However, the Aggies fought back on the ensuing possession when Myers threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to senior Swindall to pull the Aggies within 10-7 with 1:32 left in the half.

Akron added a 29-yard field goal on the last play of the half, following a USU fumble, to make the score 13-7.

In the first half, Utah State twice reached the red zone only to come away empty-handed as Keeton was intercepted and later muffed a snap on a 35-yard field goal attempt.

Senior NG David Moala tied his career-high with eight tackles and had a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss, which included 0.5 sacks to go along with one pass breakup against the Zips.

STAN ALBRECHT

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

BYU, 1966 • 12th Year

Stan L. Albrecht was named Utah State University's 15th president and assumed his new position on Feb. 1, 2005.

At the time of the announcement, Albrecht was serving as executive vice president and provost at Utah State, a position he held since 2001. He previously served as its dean of the College of Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences from 1998-2001.

Albrecht celebrated ten years of education, innovation and growth at the university during the 2015-16 school year. Since taking the helm, he has seen the university through many changes and successes.

Madelyn Fife, a Utah State honors student and Huntsman Scholar double-majoring in economics and political science, was one of only 54 students nationwide to win a 2016 Harry S. Truman Scholarship. Fife is only the fourth USU student to receive this prestigious scholarship in the last 36 years.

Utah State students succeed because of dedicated faculty and researchers who work hard to carry out USU's mission. The faculty is involved in innovative research projects that often include opportunities for undergraduate students to be involved. A total of more than $220 million of new sponsored awards funding was granted in fiscal year 2014 — the highest level of external support ever recorded. And the excellence continues across our campus. For example, the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services was ranked 33rd in the nation overall against all graduate college of education by U.S. News and World Report in the 2016 edition of "America's Best Graduate Schools."

Utah State's Year of Water was in 2015, a year in which the university highlighted its water expertise and leadership across disciplines. USU's water specialists today, in fact, are among the nation's and the world's leading experts on many water-related issues, particularly in the areas of management, ecosystems, climate, water education and society's understanding of this precious resource.

There are also many physical changes on the campus as well. The Huntsman Hall, the state-of-the-art addition that wraps around the George S. Eccles Business Building, was opened in the spring of 2016. Students were also excited that the USU Student Recreation & Wellness Center building opened in the fall of 2015. Those attending Aggie football games will be able to observe first-hand the major renovation the newly named Maverik Stadium. Across the state new classroom buildings were opened at our campuses in Price, Tooele and Brigham City.

Prior to his arrival at Utah State, Albrecht served as an administrator and professor at the University of Florida from 1993-98. He also served for 18 years at Brigham Young University (1974-92), including three years as academic vice president and associate provost. He began his career as an assistant professor of sociology at Utah State University in 1970 through 1974.

A sociologist, Albrecht has written extensively, including as a co-author of the textbooks Social Psychology and Social Science Research Methods, both published by Prentice-Hall. He has authored numerous scholarly papers on a wide range of topics, including the environment, energy development and rural health.

Albrecht received his doctorate from Washington State University in 1970, a master's degree from Washington State University in 1968 and bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University in 1966. All three degrees were in sociology.

He is a member of the Science Committee for the Minerals Management Service of the U.S. Department of Interior. He has served as a council member of the Society for Human Ecology and as vice president of the Rural Sociological Society.

Albrecht is married to Joyce Albrecht, Utah State's Director of Stewardship Programs.

JOHN HARTWELL

VICE PRESIDENT / ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Citadel, 1987 • Second Year

Since being named Vice President and Director of Athletics at Utah State on June 2, 2015, John Hartwell has cast his vision for Aggie Athletics, which embodies maximum effort socially, academically and athletically to ensure success in both the classroom and on the fields of competition.

Hartwell has also focused on maximizing and increasing the department's revenue streams, along with planning for future facility renovations to both Maverik Stadium and the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum.

In his brief time at Utah State, Hartwell has already rebranded the fundraising arm of Utah State Athletics with the creation of Aggies Unlimited, which puts all giving under one umbrella.

Additionally, Hartwell has overseen the completion of the $36 million, 85,000 square feet West Stadium Center on the west side of Maverik Stadium, which includes 24 luxury suites, 20 loge boxes, over 700 covered club seats and a premium club area that will also be used to host a student-athlete training table. Renovations also included new video boards on both the north and south ends of the stadium, along with a new public address system, while major concourse work significantly increased restrooms and upgraded concessions.

Under Hartwell's leadership, Utah State saw unparalleled athletic success during the 2015-16 academic year as its men's tennis program won the school's first-ever Mountain West Championship, the men's indoor and men's outdoor track & field programs both finished second at its conference championships, and its football program played in its school-record fifth-straight bowl game.

Furthermore, Utah State's softball program concluded its best season in 20 years, posting a 26-25 overall record while going 12-12 in Mountain West action, as its 26 wins and 20 league wins are its most since 1996. The Aggies finished the 2016 campaign in a three-way tie for third place in the league standings, their highest conference finish since the 1993 squad claimed a share of the Big West title.

Even more impressive was Utah State's continued successes by its student-athletes in the classroom as they have an 87 percent graduation success rate and a cumulative 3.15 grade-point average. During the 2015-16 academic year, USU had 171 student-athletes earn academic all-Mountain West honors, while 102 were named Mountain West Scholar Athletics. Additionally, USU recognized 202 student-athletes at its annual Joe E. and Elma Whitesides Luncheon for earning a 3.2 or better GPA.

Hartwell came to Utah State after spending the three years as the Athletics Director at Troy, where he laid the groundwork for the future of Trojan Athletics by spearheading several significant upgrades to its athletic facilities, including the addition of a new $2 million practice facility for the golf teams, a $3 million renovation and expansion of the softball facility and a $2.1 million improvement to Veterans Memorial Stadium, while also securing funding for lights to be installed at the soccer and track complex. Hartwell also unveiled the North End Zone Project for Veterans Memorial Stadium, a $20 million project that will be the new home for Trojan football.

During the 2014-15 academic year, five Troy programs competed in postseason play, highlighted by a pair of Sun Belt Conference championships by the women's golf and men's tennis teams, while the women's basketball team won 20 games for the first time since 1996-97 and made just its second postseason appearance in school history. Within the past year, three of Hartwell's new coaching hires - Beth Mullins (softball), Scott Kidd (men's tennis) and Bart Barnes (women's golf) - have been named Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, including back-to-back awards by Barnes.

Under Hartwell, Troy Athletics saw a significant enhancement in fundraising and external relations as he completely overhauled Troy's External Affairs division of the Athletics Department to increase revenues and enhance the fan and game day experience. As part of this makeover was the creation of a new external model, which included the addition of a Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs; bringing corporate sponsorships in house with a partnership with Rockbridge Sports Group; and the development of the Troy Affinity Program to further engage Troy students in athletics.

Hartwell's strong business background also proved to be valuable at Troy as he negotiated a new footwear and apparel deal with Adidas, while also securing home-and-home football games with Duke and North Carolina State in addition to yielding a home basketball game with Mississippi. Hartwell's tenure at Troy also saw a record number of student-athletes earn a 3.0 grade-point-average, an upward trend in APR scores and additional staff positions in Troy's academic support department. During the 2014-15 academic year, Troy student-athletes finished with a 3.01 cumulative grade-point-average and over 57 percent of Troy's student-athletes had a 3.0 GPA or higher.

At Troy, Hartwell served on the NCAA Division I Basketball Issues Committee, the Division I-A Board of Trustees Executive Committee, and the NCAA Division I Council as the Sun Belt Conference representative. He has also been an instructor at the Division I-A Institute for aspiring athletic directors the past two years.

Prior to being the Director of Athletics at Troy, Hartwell spent nine-plus years at the University of Mississippi, where he was the Senior Executive Associate Athletics Director, serving as the number two administrator in athletics.

Hartwell served as the Treasurer and Chief Operating Officer of the Mississippi Athletic Association Foundation, a 501 (c)(3) organization that generated over $17 million annually for the Ole Miss Athletics Department through priority seating and major gifts.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 18th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 17 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year's Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Broncos defeated then 10th-ranked Arizona 38-30 in the VIZIO Fiesta Bowl. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean, while the addition of the women's soccer program at Colorado College gives the MW an additional presence in the Rocky Mountains.

HISTORY OF THE MOUNTAIN WEST

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcaster exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2016 season, the MW has six contracted bowl affiliations – the Las Vegas Bowl, San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, Hawai'i Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, Gildan New Mexico Bowl and NOVA® Home Loans Arizona Bowl. The league also has a secondary agreement with the Cactus Bowl.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.
