TEAM NOTABLES

COMING UP ON 25

Utah State needs just two more wins to secure its fourth-consecutive 25-win season. This would be the first time in program history the Aggies have won 25-plus games in four-straight years, and 13th time hitting the benchmark overall.

The team's 11 25-win seasons since 2000 rank tied for 10th most in Division I basketball and are the most among Mountain West teams. The only teams with more are Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, North Carolina, Saint Mary's, Arizona, Kentucky, Michigan State and VCU.

BRACKETOLOGY

With the start of March Madness just weeks away, Utah State is currently projected to be comfortably in the field of 68, which would be the team's sixth appearance in the past seven tournaments (not including the COVID-canceled 2020 tournament, which USU earned an automatic berth to).

According to BracketMatrix, the Aggies are projected as a 8-seed, with some experts placing them as high as 6-seed and none lower than a 9-seed.

IN THE HOMESTRETCH

With just four games left to play in the regular season, the Aggies are in the midst of their toughest schedule stretch of the year. USU's final five games of the regular season are against the teams currently sitting right behind at two through six in the Mountain West standings.

Each of USU's final five games currently stand as either Quad 1 (at Nevada, at San Diego State) or Quad 2 (Grand Canyon, at UNLV, New Mexico) opportunities. So far this year against Quad 1 and 2 opponents, the Aggies are 10-4.

DYNAMIC DUO

The point guard duo of Drake Allen and Elijah Perryman has been one of the top one-two punches at the position in the country.

They each rank top-three in the Mountain West in assist-turnover-ratio, Perryman ranking second at 2.33, Allen right behind in third at 2.21. USU is one of just two teams in the nation (along with Stetson) to have two players with a 30.0+ assist percentage in at least 15 minutes per game.

ALMOST TOURNAMENT TIME

The 2026 Mountain West Tournament is just around the corner, taking place at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas from March 11-14.

With a win on Saturday, the Aggies can guarantee a top-4 seed in the tournament, which ensures a first-round bye and automatic trip to the quarterfinal round. The championship game will take place Saturday, March 14, at 4 p.m. (MT).

SPREADING IT AROUND

• Utah State's offense has been a well-oiled machine this season, with the Aggies currently ranking 17th in the country in assists per game (17.8).

• USU has had more assists than its opponent in 24 of 28 games this season.

• The team's 17.8 assists per game are pacing just shy of the program record of 18.0, set in 2007-08.

LIGHTS OUT

• As a team, Utah State currently ranks ninth in the nation in field goal percentage (.506).

• Individually, Mason Falslev (.522) and MJ Collins Jr. (.507) rank two and three in the league in field goal percentage, respectively.

• The Aggie offense ranks ninth nationally in 2-point field goal percentage (.600) and 14th nationally in effective field goal percentage (.575).

• USU has shot 50 percent or better in 16 games this year.

AGGIES VS LOPES

Saturday's game will be just the second all-time meeting between Utah State and first-year league-mate Grand Canyon. The previous meeting came on Jan. 17 in Phoenix, an 84-74 win for the Lopes.

This will be GCU's first-ever trip to Logan.

EARLIER THIS SEASON

When Utah State and Grand Canyon met earlier this season in Phoenix, it was the Lopes coming out on top with an 84-74 win.

USU trailed for nearly 37 minutes, but kept GCU within arms reach the entire way, holding the deficit within 10 points throughout. Despite remaining in it, the team was never able to re-take the lead after the opening minutes. The Aggies were plagued by foul trouble, being whistled for a season-high 27 fouls while four players picked up four or more.

A heroic performance by Mason Falslev wasn't enough, as he tallied the fourth double-double of his career and his first of the season with 25 points and a career-high-tying 12 rebounds in the contest.

I'LL TAKE THAT

• As a team, Utah State currently ranks 22nd in the NCAA in steals, averaging 8.9 per contest. According to KenPom, the Aggies rank 15th in the nation in steal percentage at 12.8.

• USU's 8.9 steals per game are on pace to be a program record. The current record is 8.6, set last season.

• The duo of Drake Allen and Mason Falslev each rank among the nation's leaders in takeaways and rank first and second in the league, respectively — Allen ranks 37th in the country with 2.04 steals per contest, Falslev ranks 42nd with 2.00. This is one of just four duos in the country with two players averaging at least two steals per game.

• Against Davidson, the Aggies recorded a season-high 15 steals. This ranks tied for fourth-most in program history. The team has also recorded 14 steals twice this year (vs VCU, San José State).

FRESHMEN OF THE WEEK

Utah State players earned back-to-back Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors with Adlan Elamin doing so on Feb. 8, then Elijah Perryman on Feb. 15.

This is the first time USU has had two different players earn MW FOTW honors in a season, and the first time any player has earned the award for the Aggies since Mason Falslev in 2023-24.

TEMP-LINSANITY

In the past 12 games for Utah State, Karson Templin has been one of the team's top players on both ends of the court. The junior has scored in double-figures in eight of his past 12 outings, averaging 10.5 points and 4.3 rebounds while totaling 14 blocks and 13 steals during that stretch.

In the team's win over Memphis on Feb. 14, Templin went for a career-high 20 points, along with four rebounds, an assist, two blocks and a steal. Half of his points came from the free throw line, where he was 10-of-10.

THAT'S OFFENSIVE

While high-percentage shooting has led to few opportunities for offensive rebounds, the Aggies have done a nice job of cleaning the offensive glass when given the chance.

As a team, the Aggies lead the league and rank 56th nationally in offensive rebounding percentage at 34.7.

The forward duo of Garry Clark and Karson Templin are each among the nation's leaders in offensive rebound percentage - Clark ranking 25th at 15.3, Templin ranking 117th at 12.2.

LAST TIME OUT

Utah State dropped its second-straight road contest on Wednesday, falling at San Diego State 89-72.

In what was the largest margin of defeat for the Aggies this season, the Aztecs posted the highest-scoring performance by a USU opponent this year in the 17-point win. Utah State struggled to keep pace with hot shooting by SDSU, which shot 55 percent from the floor in the contest including 61 percent in the second half. The Aztecs also outrebounded the Aggies 38-30.

Leading Utah State's scoring efforts was MJ Collins Jr., who finished with 18 points on 6-of-13 shooting. Mason Falslev went for 1 points, five boards and two assists, while Adlan Elamin had 12 points, a team-best six rebounds and two steals.

SUFFOCATING DEFENSE

• Utah State's defense has improved in nearly every facet from last season to this season.

• Last season, the USU defense allowed 70.0 points per game, while opponents shot 44.1 percent from the field and 34.1 percent from deep. The Aggies forced 13.8 turnovers per game and ranked 150th in the country in defensive rating at 105.8.

• This season, USU has held opponents to 69.8 points per game, while shooting 41.7 percent from the field and 33.3 percent from deep. The Aggies have forced 14.3 turnovers per game and rank 41st in the country in defensive rating at 101.4.

LOCK 'EM DOWN

The Utah State defense has made life difficult for many of its opponents. This season, the Aggies have held five different opponents to their lowest-scoring output of the season (UTEP, Charlotte, Colorado State x2, Boise State), and an additional five opponents to one of their three lowest-scoring performances of the year (Davidson, South Florida, San Diego State, New Mexico, Nevada).

In two meetings with Colorado State, Utah State held the Rams to 58 points and 61

The Rams, which entered with the second-best record in the league (behind Utah State) and led the nation in both field goal percentage and 3-point percentage, were smothered defensively, shooting just 37 percent from the field and 30 percent from 3-point range. This was CSU's biggest loss since 2010.

PHENOMENAL FRESHMEN

Utah State welcomed in its highest-rated recruiting class in program history this season, a class which ranked No. 17 in the nation according to 247Sports. This class includes three of the six highest-ranked recruits in program history in Adlan Elamin (2nd), David Iweze (5th) and Kingston Tosi (6th).

CONTINUED SUCCESS

• Utah State is currently on its fourth head coach in the past six seasons, but the success has remained the same. Under the past four head coaches (Craig Smith, Ryan Odom, Danny Sprinkle and Jerrod Calhoun), USU has gone a combined 195-69 (.739). In the three years previous to this season with three different head coaches, the Aggies went 80-24 (.769) with three-straight 25-plus win seasons and three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

• USU became just the second team in NCAA history to qualify for three-straight NCAA Tournaments under three different non-interim head coaches last season (Southern Illinois, 2003-05).

• Utah State has played in five of the past six NCAA Tournaments (not including the COVID-canceled 2020 tournament, which the Aggies secured an automatic bid to). They are one of 24 teams in the country to do so, and one of just five to do so out of a non-power league, along with Colgate, Gonzaga, Saint Mary's and San Diego State.

• Of the 24 teams to make five of the past six NCAA Tournaments, only eight have done so with multiple head coaches. Just two others (Texas, Texas Tech) have done so with three or more coaches, while USU is the only to do so with four.

ALL WE DO IS WIN

In the past eight seasons (since 2018-19), Utah State is 195-69. The team's .739 winning percentage ranks ninth in all of Division I during that span.

GAME NOTES

A BUNCH OF SELL-OUTS

Utah State is on track for record attendance numbers this season at the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum. In addition to selling out season tickets for the first time in program history, the Aggies have had sell-out crowds for seven games (Colorado State, Nevada, Wyoming, San Diego State, Fresno State, Memphis, Boise State), with one more upcoming contest already sold out (Grand Canyon).

The eight sell-outs are the most in a season in program history, surpassing the previous mark of six in 2007-08 and 2009-10.

POSTSEASON APPEARANCES

• Utah State's 36 postseason qualifications are tied for the most among current Mountain West schools, tying New Mexico (36) and ahead of UNLV (30), Wyoming (29), Colorado State (24), San Diego State (23), Boise State (20), Nevada (18), Fresno State (17), Air Force (7) and San José State (6).

• Utah State's 25 NCAA Tournaments are the most by any member of the Mountain West, ahead of such schools as UNLV (19), New Mexico (17) San Diego State (17) and Wyoming (16).

SPECTRUM MAGIC

• The Aggies are in their 56th season in the 10,270-seat Dee Glen Smith Spectrum, in 2025-26 looking to continue a tradition of large crowds and home court wins.

• Utah State has had just one losing season at home in over half a century of play in the Spectrum. The Aggies have compiled a 653-158 (.805) record in 55 years, including a 369-62 (.856) record since 2000, the eighth-best home record in the nation during that span.

• Over the past four seasons, Utah State has gone 55-6 (.902) at home, the best home record among Mountain West programs. That home record ranks 12th in that nation during that span.

• According to KenPom, the Dee Glen Smith Spectrum ranks as the eighth-best home court advantage in the nation.

• During the past five seasons, Utah State has out-scored its opponents at home by an average of 82.5-67.4.

• Utah State's student section, known as The HURD, plays a key role in creating the game day atmosphere. The HURD takes up sections F through L, as well as half of section M.

WINNING TRADITION

• Since the year 2000, only 18 teams have recorded 20+ seasons with 20 or more wins and 13+ NCAA Tournament appearances (Utah State, Arizona, BYU, Creighton, Duke, Florida, Gonzaga, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Memphis, Michigan State, North Carolina, Ohio State, San Diego State, Texas, Wisconsin, Xavier).

• Utah State has only had one losing season in the past 32 years.

WEDDING BELLS

• Two Utah State players are married. Drake Allen got married in July of 2023 to his wife, Hallestyn. Mason Falslev got married this offseason in May to his wive, Elle.

• Luke Kearney will join the ranks of married players in the future, after getting engaged to his fiancee Caitlin in August.

FROM SEA TO SHINING SEA

Utah State's roster is made up of players from 12 different US states. Represented on the roster are Utah (3), Texas (2), Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Missouri, Oregon, South Carolina and Virginia.

This is the first time since 2013-14 that USU's entire roster is from the United States.

MR. UTAH

Utah State graduate guard Drake Allen is playing for his fourth team from the Beehive State, beginning his career at Snow College, then spending a season at Southern Utah and a season at Utah Valley.

ONE OF THE ORIGINAL EIGHT

Utah State was one of eight schools that participated in the first NCAA Tournament in 1939. The other teams were Oregon, Texas, Oklahoma, Villanova, Brown, Wake Forest and Ohio State. Of those eight teams, Utah State and Texas were the only teams in last year's field.

HEAD COACH JERROD CALHOUN

JERROD CALHOUN

Head Coach • 291-157 (14 Seasons) • Second Season at Utah State • Cincinnati (2004)

Jerrod Calhoun was named the head men's basketball coach at Utah State on March 30, 2024. Calhoun spent the previous seven seasons (2017-24) as the head coach at Youngstown State, where he logged a 118-106 (.527) record.

During his first season at the helm at USU in 2024-25, Calhoun had one of the strongest debut seasons by a coach in Utah State history as he coached the Aggies to a 26-8 record and an NCAA Tournament appearance. He became just the fourth USU coach to guide the program to the NCAA Tournament in his first season, and his 26 wins were the third-most by a first-year coach in program history.

During his last two years at YSU, Calhoun's teams posted a 46-20 (.697) record, which included a 29-11 (.725) league mark, as the Penguins posted consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in their Division I history. During his time at Youngstown State, Calhoun led the Penguins to the 2023 Horizon League regular season championship and three postseason appearances, including the 2023 National Invitation Tournament.

Calhoun also served as the head coach at Fairmont State for five seasons (2012-17), leading the Fighting Falcons to a 124-38 (.765) record and four appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament, including a national runner-up finish in 2017.

During his time at Youngstown State, Calhoun led the Penguins to five-straight winning seasons for the first time in their Division I era (since 1981-82) after posting a 22-10 mark in 2023-24. During his last three years, the Penguins won a Horizon League-best 41 conference games and a league-high 65 games overall. YSU also won 41 home games over the last three years, including a Division I school record 14 games in each of its last two seasons.

Calhoun coached 12 all-Horizon League selections in his seven seasons at Youngstown State, including eight in the last three years. He was also the first coach in Youngstown State's Division I history to take the program to multiple postseasons as it participated in the 2023 National Invitation Tournament and the 2022 Basketball Classic, along with qualifying for the 2020 CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament, which was canceled due to COVID-19.

Along with posting a 22-10 record during the 2023-24 campaign, Calhoun also guided the Penguins to a 14-6 Horizon League record and a second-place finish. Youngstown State averaged 81.2 points per game and allowed just 70.9, both of which ranked second in the conference. The Penguins also made 282 3-pointers to rank as the second-most in school history.

Calhoun was the first coach in program history to lead Youngstown State to a regular-season conference title after guiding the Penguins to a 24-10 record and a 15-5 league mark en route to the Horizon League Championship in 2022-23. The 24 wins tied the program record for victories and the 15 Horizon League wins set the record for conference victories. The Penguins' 24 wins were their most since 1963-64, while its 14 home wins were a Division I school record. For his efforts, Calhoun was named the 2023 Horizon League Men's Basketball Coach of the Year and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 12 Coach of the Year.

Prior to coaching at to Youngstown State, Calhoun, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, spent five seasons as the head coach at Fairmont State and accumulated an overall record of 124-38 (.765). He guided FSU to the NCAA Division II Tournament in each of his last three years and four times overall. The Falcons won at least 20 games in each of his five seasons and won nearly 80 percent of their conference games.

The 2017 Mountain East Conference Coach of the Year, Calhoun directed the Fighting Falcons to an overall record of 34-3 and the program's first national runner-up finish in 2016-17. Fairmont State won its first conference championship in 21 years with a 21-1 record and received its first NCAA Division II No. 1 ranking since 1976. The program also won 30 or more games for the first time since 1974-75.

Calhoun was a successful assistant coach at Walsh (2004-07) and at West Virginia (2007-12) under Bob Huggins. He spent four years at WVU as the director of basketball operations before serving as an assistant coach in 2011-12.
