MANNY MARTINS

Head Coach • Cal Poly Pomona, 2006

Sixth Season • Career Record: 63-26-24

Manny Martins enters his sixth season as head coach at Utah State in 2026, after being named the fourth head coach in the program's history on May 24, 2021. He has led the Aggies to historic success during his tenure in Logan, being named the conference coach of the year twice and region coach of the year three times since arriving on campus.

The Aggies won their third-consecutive Mountain West Tournament title and punched their ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history in 2025, while Martins and staff were named the United Soccer Coaches Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the third-straight year. After replacing every defensive starter (including goalkeeper) from the previous year, USU started the year 3-4-4 with a difficult nonconference slate. The team then hit its stride in conference play, earning a result in eight of its final 10 regular season games before winning the MW Tournament with a 1-0 win over New Mexico, a 1-0 overtime win vs Air Force and a win in penalty kicks in the title game against host Boise State. Utah State then played to a 1-1 draw at BYU in the NCAA Tournament before falling 7-6 in penalties.

Utah State had perhaps the most successful season in program history under Martins' guidance in 2024, winning a program-record 18 games, repeating as conference tournament champions, and hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time in program history. The Aggies made their first ever appearance in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25 poll and climbed as high as No. 7 during a 12-0-2 start, tied with the 1960 men's basketball team for the highest-ever national ranking by any Utah State program in any sport. USU earned wins over three-straight Big 12 opponents, including reigning Big 12 champion Texas Tech and in-state foes Utah and No. 16 BYU. Utah State finished the season with just a single loss, going 18-1-5 overall and 7-1-3 in league play. In the conference tournament, the Aggies defeated Colorado State 2-0 in the semifinals then took down Boise State 2-1 to repeat as champions. They then earned a No. 8 seed in the NCAA Tournament to earn the right to host Washington, where they fell in penalty kicks after a 0-0 draw.

The Aggies set program records for goals (62), assists (65), points (189) and shutouts (15) in a season, out-scoring opponents by a combined 62-14 on the year to rank fifth nationally in goal differential, sixth in the NCAA in scoring offense and 10th in goals-against average. Defender Kaitlyn Richins was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and became the first All-American in program history as she earned third team recognition from Top Drawer Soccer. Goalkeeper Cora Brendle was named the Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and a program-record seven USU players were named to all-Mountain West teams, including five on the first team and two on the second team. Additionally, four Aggies earned spots on the league's all-newcomer team. A program-record five Utah State players also earned United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region accolades.

During his third season at the helm of the program in 2023, the team went 14-8-1 overall with a 9-2 record in conference play en route to its first-ever Mountain West title and third-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Led by Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year Kelsey Kaufusi, the Aggie defense posted a league-best .775 GAA, third-best in program history, while also leading the conference with 10 shutouts. In Mountain West play, USU out-scored opponents 18-6 while posting six shutouts before defeating Boise State 1-0 in extra time in the MW semifinals and defeating Colorado State 1-0 in the MW championship match. In addition to being named the league's coach of the year, Martins and staff were named the United Soccer Coaches Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Utah State defeated No. 1 BYU 1-0 at Chuck & Gloria Bell Field on Sept. 16, 2023 for the first win over a No.1-ranked opponent in program history and just the second overall in Utah State athletics history. Five players earned Mountain West honors as Kelsey Kaufusi and Kaylie Chambers were named to the all-conference first team, while Kylie Olsen and Diera Walton earned spots on the all-conference second team. Summer Diamond secured a spot on the league's all-newcomer team. Kaufusi was also a United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region Second Team honoree.

In the 2022 season, Utah State advanced to the Mountain West Tournament quarterfinals, reaching the conference tournament in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14. The Aggies led the league in total points scored (87), total assists (31), total shots (300), total shots on goal (141) and were tied for first in goals scored (28). USU landed three players on Mountain West all-conference teams as juniors Kelsey Kaufusi and Alex Day, plus freshman Kaylie Chambers, were all named second-team all-MW. Chambers also earned MW all-newcomer team honors.

In his first season in Logan, Martins led the Aggies to their most victories during the Mountain West era as Utah State opened the 2021 season with a 7-1-1 mark in non-conference play, the best record heading into conference play in school history. The non-conference slate included a 2-1 overtime victory at No. 18 BYU, the first win over a ranked opponent in USU history and the only loss for the Cougars at home in 2021. Under Martins, Utah State scored 30 goals, the most since the 2016 season as the Aggies set a school record with 34 total assists. Three members of the Utah State roster earned postseason conference honors as senior midfielder Ashley Cardozo was named first-team all-MW, junior keeper Diera Walton was named second-team all-MW and redshirt freshman defender Addy Symonds was named to the all-newcomer team.

In addition to league honors, Cardozo and sophomore defender Kelsey Kaufusi were named to the MW all-tournament team as the Aggies qualified for the tournament for the first time since 2016. The duo of Cardozo and Kaufusi were also recognized by the United Soccer Coaches with first- and third-team all-Pacific Region honors, respectively. Upon graduation, Cardozo signed a professional contract with FC Nantes in France.

Martins is the just the second minority head coach in USU history and the first since Marlon Sano led the volleyball program during the 1992 and 1993 seasons.

Martins joined the Aggies after seven years as a member of Oregon's coaching staff and brought 22 years of soccer coaching experience within the college ranks, as well as time with the United States' women's national team.

With the Ducks, Martins helped put together the highest-rated recruiting class in Oregon history in 2019, leading to one of the most successful seasons in UO history during the 2020 campaign. The class ranked No. 17 in the nation that year as freshman Ally Cook finished third in goals scored in 2019 before leading the team in goals scored in 2020. Martins also mentored a defense that set the Oregon goals-against-average as UO keeper Abby Steele broke the all-time career shutout record.

The Ducks were ranked as high as No. 14 in the country during Martins' tenure and individual players went on to find success in the professional ranks. Jazmin Jackmon became the first Duck to be selected in the NWSL draft, going in the third round to the Houston Dash. Marissa Everett became the first UO alum to score in an NWSL game when she found the net while playing for the Portland Thorns. And, Marlo Sweatman became the first Duck to appear in the FIFA World Cup after she helped Jamaica qualify for the world tournament for the first time in that country's history.

Martins has been associated with the U.S. women's national team since 2013 and was an analyst and opposition scout during the women's 2019 FIFA World Cup Championship run. Martins was also a member of the women's national team staff during the 2018 U20 World Cup and the 2016 U17 World Cup. In 2018, the women advanced to the finals of the CONCACAF Championships, while capturing the CONCACAF Championship in 2016.

Prior to his position at Oregon, Martins was a member of the UCLA women's soccer staff from 2011-13, helping the Bruins gather the top recruiting class in 2013. UCLA also had the No. 3 recruiting class in 2012. The Bruins enjoyed a wealth of success during Martins' tenure, capturing 15 or more victories each year and losing only one match at home over the course of the two years. With the Bruins, Martins coached a pair of No. 1 draft picks in women's professional soccer: Sydney Leroux (2012/Atlanta Beat/WPS) and Zakiya Bywaters (2013/Chicago Red Stars/NWSL). Martins also coached four NSCAA All-Americans during his stay in Los Angeles.

Martins was instrumental in developing various clubs in the Los Angeles area, serving as the director of coaching and player development for Los Angeles Premier FC, a member of the WPSL, and the Los Angeles Rampage. Martins served as head coach of both teams during his time with the clubs and was named the WPSL Coach of the Year in 2010.

Martins' first head coaching position came at Los Angeles Mission College, guiding the Eagles from 2006-11. Martins began his collegiate coaching career at LAMC, serving as an assistant from 2001-04, before spending three years as an assistant at Cal Poly Pomona from 2004-06.

Martins cut his coaching teeth at his alma mater of Sylmar High School, becoming the head coach in 1998 and leading the program to a 101-54-22 record in seven seasons.

Martins was born in Portugal and moved to San Fernando, California in 1993. He played soccer at Sylmar HS and LAMC. Martins earned a degree in kinesiology at Cal Poly Pomona in 2006 and holds a USSF A License and an NSCAA Director of Coaching diploma. He is fluent in Portuguese, Spanish, English and Creolo. Martins and his wife, Lorena, have three children: Isaiah, Emma and London.

ERIN CARRILLO-BAUTISTA

Associate Head Coach • Oregon, 2021

Sixth Season

Erin Carrillo-Bautista was named an assistant coach at Utah State in 2021 and will be in his sixth season with the Aggies in 2026. Carrillo-Bautista followed USU head coach Manny Martins from Eugene, where the duo served on the same coaching staff at Oregon and at Lane United in the USL League 2.

The Aggies won their third-consecutive Mountain West Tournament title and punched their ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history in 2025, while the coaching staff was named the United Soccer Coaches Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the third-straight year. After replacing every defensive starter (including goalkeeper) from the previous year, USU started the year 3-4-4 with a difficult nonconference slate. Utah State then played to a 1-1 draw at BYU in the NCAA Tournament before falling 7-6 in penalties.

Utah State had perhaps the most successful season in program history in 2024, winning a program-record 18 games, repeating as conference tournament champions, and hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever. The Aggies made their first ever appearance in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25 poll and climbed as high as No. 7 during a 12-0-2 start, tied with the 1960 men's basketball team for the highest-ever national ranking by any Utah State program in any sport. USU earned wins over three-straight Big 12 opponents, including reigning Big 12 champion Texas Tech and in-state foes Utah and No. 16 BYU. Utah State finished the season with just a single loss, going 18-1-5 overall and 7-1-3 in league play. In the conference tournament, the Aggies defeated Colorado State 2-0 in the semifinals then took down Boise State 2-1 to repeat as champions. They then earned a No. 8 seed in the NCAA Tournament to earn the right to host Washington, where they fell in penalty kicks after a 0-0 draw.

The Aggies set program records for goals (62), assists (65), points (189) and shutouts (15) in a season, out-scoring opponents by a combined 62-14 on the year to rank fifth nationally in goal differential, sixth in the NCAA in scoring offense and 10th in goals-against average. Defender Kaitlyn Richins was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and became the first All-American in program history as she earned third team recognition from Top Drawer Soccer. Goalkeeper Cora Brendle was named the Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and a program-record seven USU players were named to all-Mountain West teams, including five on the first team and two on the second team. Additionally, four Aggies earned spots on the league's all-newcomer team. A program-record five Utah State players also earned United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region accolades.

During his third season with the Aggies in 2023, USU captured the program's first ever Mountain West Tournament championship and third ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Utah State coaching staff was named the United Soccer Coaches Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the team to a 14-8-1 record and a 9-2 mark in conference play. This marked the most conference wins in program history, and was the second most overall wins in program history. Four different USU players earned all-conference accolades, including first-team honors by defender Kelsey Kaufusi and midfielder Kaylie Chambers and second-team honors by defender Kylie Olsen and goalkeeper Diera Walton. Additionally, Kaufusi was named the MW Defensive Player of the Year and earned a spot on the United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region Second Team. She then became the first player in program history to be selected in the NWSL Draft, as she was taken in the second round by the Portland Thorns.

In the 2022 season, Carrillo-Bautista helped Utah State advance to the Mountain West Tournament quarterfinals, reaching the conference tournament in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14. The Aggies led the league in total points scored (87), total assists (31), total shots (300), total shots on goal (141) and were tied for first in goals scored (28). USU landed three players on Mountain West all-conference teams as juniors Kelsey Kaufusi and Alex Day, plus freshman Kaylie Chambers, were all named second-team all-MW. Chambers also earned MW all-newcomer team honors. Utah State had six players receive academic all-district honors from the association of College Sports Communicators (formerly CoSIDA). Sophomores Bizzy Arevalo, Addy Symonds and Tenzi Knowles, juniors Kelsey Kaufusi and Kylie Olsen, and senior Sara Taylor all were awarded the honor.

In 2021 during his first season as part of head coach Manny Martins' staff, Carrillo-Bautista helped the Aggies to their most victories during the Mountain West era as Utah State opened the 2021 season with a 7-1-1 mark in non-conference play, the best record heading into conference play in school history. The non-conference slate included a 2-1 overtime victory at No. 18 BYU, the first win over a ranked opponent in USU history and the only loss for the Cougars at home in 2021. Under Martins, Utah State scored 30 goals, the most since the 2016 season as the Aggies set a school record with 34 total assists. Three members of the Utah State roster earned postseason conference honors as senior midfielder Ashley Cardozo was named first-team all-MW, junior keeper Diera Walton was named second-team all-MW and redshirt freshman defender Addy Symonds was named to the all-newcomer team.

Prior to his time in Logan, Carrillo-Bautista was an assistant coach under Martins with Lane United in Eugene, Oregon, during the 2021 season. He assisted with all aspects of the team, including training, scouting and day-to-day operations. Carrillo-Bautista was active at the club level in Eugene and was an assistant coach for the Eugene Timbers club program, coaching various age groups. He cultivated additional coaching experience as a volunteer assistant at Bushnell University, an NAIA program in Eugene.

Martins and Carrillo-Bautista first met at Oregon, where Carrillo-Bautista served as the team manager for the women's soccer program. There, he took part in team film sessions and gained valuable insights on tactical analysis, as well as oppositional analysis.

As a player, Carrillo-Bautista was brought up through Timbers Academy in Portland, Oregon, while also playing club soccer with the Washington Timbers. Carrillo-Bautista was recruited by several Division II and Division III programs before he stepped away from playing to focus on a degree at University of Oregon, graduating with a dual major in Spanish and sports business.

MEALII ODUM

Assistant Coach • Utah State, 2020

Third Season

Mealii Odum is in her third season as an assistant coach at Utah State in 2025 after joining the staff in July of 2024.

The Aggies won their third-consecutive Mountain West Tournament title and punched their ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in program history in 2025, while the coaching staff was named the United Soccer Coaches Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the third-straight year. After replacing every defensive starter (including goalkeeper) from the previous year, USU started the year 3-4-4 with a difficult nonconference slate. The team then hit its stride in conference play, earning a result in eight of its final 10 regular season games before winning the MW Tournament with a 1-0 win over New Mexico, a 1-0 overtime win vs Air Force and a win in penalty kicks in the title game against host Boise State. Utah State then played to a 1-1 draw at BYU in the NCAA Tournament before falling 7-6 in penalties.

During her first season on staff at Utah State in 2024, the team has perhaps its most successful season in program history in 2024, winning a program-record 18 games, repeating as conference tournament champions, and hosting an NCAA Tournament game for the first time ever. The Aggies made their first ever appearance in the United Soccer Coaches Top 25 poll and climbed as high as No. 7 during a 12-0-2 start, tied with the 1960 men's basketball team for the highest-ever national ranking by any Utah State program in any sport. USU earned wins over three-straight Big 12 opponents, including reigning Big 12 champion Texas Tech and in-state foes Utah and No. 16 BYU. Utah State finished the season with just a single loss, going 18-1-5 overall and 7-1-3 in league play. In the conference tournament, the Aggies defeated Colorado State 2-0 in the semifinals then took down Boise State 2-1 to repeat as champions. They then earned a No. 8 seed in the NCAA Tournament to earn the right to host Washington, where they fell in penalty kicks after a 0-0 draw.

The Aggies set program records for goals (62), assists (65), points (189) and shutouts (15) in a season, out-scoring opponents by a combined 62-14 on the year to rank fifth nationally in goal differential, sixth in the NCAA in scoring offense and 10th in goals-against average. Defender Kaitlyn Richins was named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year and became the first All-American in program history as she earned third team recognition from Top Drawer Soccer. Goalkeeper Cora Brendle was named the Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and a program-record seven USU players were named to all-Mountain West teams, including five on the first team and two on the second team. Additionally, four Aggies earned spots on the league's all-newcomer team. A program-record five Utah State players also earned United Soccer Coaches All-Pacific Region accolades.

Odum returned to her alma mater as a coach after spending the past four years coaching in Memphis, Tennessee, both at the club level with Lobos Rush, and at the prep level with Bartlett High School. At Bartlett HS, Odum began as an assistant coach and was later promoted to head coach.

Odum (formerly Enos) enjoyed a strong playing career as a defender at Utah State, playing under head coach Heather Cairns from 2016-19. During her career, she played 76 games with 74 starts, logging over 6,800 minutes on the pitch. Odum was a three-time COSIDA Academic All-District honoree, and earned Academic All-Mountain West and MW Scholar-Athlete honors all four years of her career. In addition, she was one of two nominees by the Mountain West for the NCAA Woman of the Year award in 2020.

Graduating from Utah State with a perfect 4.0 GPA, Odum earned Scholar of the Year honors from the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services and was the colleges' valedictorian. She earned undergraduate degrees in special education and communicative disorders.

Brandon DeNover

Assistant Coach • SUNY Old Westbury, 2008

First Season

Brandon DeNoyer is in his first season at Utah State as an assistant coach and goalkeeper coach in 2026.

DeNoyer came to Logan after spending the past six seasons at Syracuse. At Syracuse, DeNoyer oversaw the development of Shea Vanderbosch, a four-year starter with the Orange who finished her career as the program's career saves leader with 380. Vanderbosch accumulated 13 shutouts while playing in 67 games during her Syracuse tenure, including leading the ACC in both saves (93) and saves per game (5.17) as a senior in 2025.

He guided Lysianne Proulx during her time with the Orange. Proulx is a member of the Canadian Women's National Team and was rostered for the 2023 FIFA World Cup. Proulx has played for Torrense in Portugal and Bay FC in the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL). Proulx ranks second in career saves per game (5.3) and fourth in career saves (281) at Syracuse. DeNoyer also coached Sierra Giorgio, who competed with Canada in the 2020 FIFA U-20 World Cup.

Prior to his time at Syracuse, DeNoyer was an assistant coach at Richmond. There, he helped the team go from two wins in 2018 to seven in his second campaign. He worked with the Spiders' goalkeepers, who posted a combined four shutouts, a 1.46 goals-against average and a .771 save percentage.

Before his stint at Richmond, DeNoyer served as an assistant coach at Mississippi State for one season, helping the Bulldogs to a 9-5-4 mark. Under his tutelage, goalkeeper Catalina Perez earned All-America honors and Mississippi State allowed just 19 goals in 18 games.

DeNoyer, a native of Scotia, N.Y., also served as the top assistant at Siena from 2011-16. During his tenure, the Saints won the 2015 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference title and earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, DeNoyer mentored 2014 MAAC Goalkeeper of the Year, Taylor Booth.

Before his coaching career, DeNoyer played from 2004-08 at SUNY Old Westbury, where he earned a bachelor's degree in media communications and American studies. He stayed on at his alma mater for three seasons, serving as an assistant coach for the men's soccer squad and as a volunteer goalkeeper coach for the women's soccer program.

An experienced club coach, DeNoyer holds Regional, National, and Advanced National diplomas from NSCAA, and a United States Soccer Federation "D" License.

The Aggies won their first Western Athletic Conference Tournament title in 2011. USU opened the tournament with a 1-0 shutout against Idaho, following suit with the same score against host Fresno State in the championship game. Molli Merrill, Natalie Norris, Kendra Pemberton and Jade Tarver were named to the all-tournament team, while Merrill was named tournament MVP. The Aggies continued the season, traveling to Auburn for the first NCAA Tournament appearance in program history. The Tigers topped Utah State, 2-1, to advance.

Utah State won its second-straight WAC Tournament championship in 2012. The Aggies hosted the tournament, defeating Seattle, 2-1 in the opening match and topping Denver, 1-0, in the championship. Natalie Norris was named the 2012 tournament MVP. She was joined on the all-tournament team by Jennifer Flynn, Ashlyn Mulford, Taryn Rose and Jackie Tillotson. The first round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament was played in Provo, Utah, against the No. 2 BYU Cougars. After a weather delay pushed the game back a day, BYU defeated the Aggies, 2-1.

The Aggies won their first Mountain West Conference Tournament title in 2023. USU opened the tournament with a 1-0 win over Boise State in the semifinals with midfielder Whitney Lopez scoring the game-winning goal in the 94th minute, followed by a 1-0 shutout victory over Colorado State in the championship game. Lopez, Diera Walton, Addy Symonds-Weichers and Kaitlyn Richins were named to the all-tournament team, while Lopez was named tournament MVP. The Aggies continued the season, traveling to play 1-seed BYU in the first round of the NCAA Tournament where they fell 2-0.

Utah State defended its Mountain West Conference Tournament title in 2024, repeating as tournament champions. USU opened the tournament with a 2-0 win over Colorado State, followed by a 2-1 victory over Boise State in the championship game with both Aggie goals coming from forward Kaylie Chambers. Chambers was named the tournament MVP, while Alex Day, Addy Weichers and Ellie Ellie Hendrix were each named to the all-tournament team. The Aggies then earned an 8-seed in the NCAA Tournament where they hosted the first tournament game in program history, falling to Washington in penalty kicks after a scoreless draw.

Utah State made it back-to-back-to-back league tournament titles during its final season in the Mountain West Conference in 2025. USU defeated New Mexico 1-0 in the opening round, then took down Air Force 1-0 in overtime in the semifinals and defeated tournament-host Boise State in penalty kicks (4-2) after a 2-2 draw in the title game. Senior goalkeeper Taylor Rath earned tournament MVP honors after entering for PKs in the title game and making a pair of saves. Kaylie Chambers, Summer Diamond and Rine Yonaha also earned spots on the all-tournament team. USU went on to draw with BYU in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before falling 7-6 in penalty kicks.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Following the inaugural 1996 season for Utah State soccer, freshman Brenna Hansen, a midfielder from Boise, Idaho, tragically died in a plane crash in Idaho during a January snow storm. The following year, Utah State soccer retired the number 8 to honor Brenna's memory. Hansen appeared in 13 of the Aggies' 18 matches during the 1996 season, making one start against Mesa State on Oct. 13.
