Utes finish 1938 season with 1939 bowl victory over New Mexico.

EL PASO—Predicted as the most even match-up of the 1938 bowl season, Utah blasted the forecasters and New Mexico, 26-0, on Jan. 2. Utah, the old Big Seven champion, struck early. Tom Pace capped a 58-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run off a lateral from Ray Davis midway through the first quarter. With a minute remaining in the period, Ray Peterson intercepted a Lobo pass on the Ute 40-yard line and returned it for a second score. Peterson crossed the goal line again in the second quarter, on a fourth-down, 1-yard plunge.

New Mexico's highly-touted aerial attack never advanced past Utah's 40-yard line. As for the Utes, halfback Clarence Gehrke finished their scoring with a 10-yard dash. New Mexico, co-champion of the old Border League, gained just 153 yards of total offense to Utah's 384.

1947 PINEAPPLE BOWL

HAWAII 19, UTAH 16
Honolulu, Hawaii
Jan. 1, 1947

Utes close 1946 season with 1947 bowl loss to Hawaii on the Islands.

HONOLULU—Utah drew first blood, when quarterback Cannon Parkinson found Ralph Olsen for a 24-yard touchdown play in the first quarter. But Hawaii bounced back in the final three stanzas to claim a 19-16 win in the Pineapple Bowl.

Utah entered the game as the nation's top rushing team, but the game soon shaped up as a passing duel between Hawaii's Sol Kaulukukui and Utah's quarterback combo of Milton Smith and Parkinson.

After falling behind 19-6, late in the fourth quarter, the "Redskins" closed the gap with a TD run by Smith and an extra point kick. Hawaii, holding a slim 19-14 lead and backed up against its own goal line, then opted for a safety, narrowing the gap to 19-16.

But Utah would come no closer, with Melvin Abreu knocking a pass away from Utah's Morris Ficklin in the end zone as the gun sounded.

1964 LIBERTY BOWL

UTAH 32, WEST VIRGINIA 6
Atlantic City, N.J.
Dec. 19, 1964

Utah beats West Virginia in the first indoor major bowl game.

ATLANTIC CITY—Utah never trailed in its 32-6 victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl—the first indoor major bowl game ever held. A national television audience and 6,059 fans in the Convention Center watched Utah score first on a 29-yard field goal by All-American Roy Jefferson. Jefferson, who also booted a 32-yard field goal, left the game in the first half after separating his shoulder.

But Utah had plenty of firepower left. Halfback Ron Coleman sprinted 53 yards for a touchdown on a day which saw him lead all rushers with 154 rushing yards. Andy Ireland added another long TD dash for the Utes—his went for 47 yards—while quarterback Pokey Allen contributed an 11-yard touchdown run.

The Ute offense, featuring a two-quarterback attack, closed its scoring with a 33-yard touchdown strike from Richard Groth to Bill Morley. In all, the Utes totaled 466 yards of offense.

The Utah defense also did its job, holding the Mountaineers scoreless until the waning minutes of the third quarter. West Virginia's Allen McCune hooked up with receiver Rich Juriga with 5:30 to play for the Mountaineers' sole touchdown. Utah's backfield intercepted five McCune passes.

The Liberty Bowl win capped a 9-2 season for coach Ray Nagel and the Utes. It would stand as the most wins ever by a Ute team for 30 years.

1992 COPPER BOWL

1992 COPPER BOWL

WASHINGTON STATE 31, UTAH 28
Tucson, Ariz.
Dec. 29, 1992

Ute rally falls just short in first bowl appearance since 1964.

TUCSON—In the early going, Utah played the part of a team that hadn't gone "bowling" for 28 years. But the Utes made up for lost time quickly and nearly upset favored Washington State in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season. After jumping to a 21-0 first-quarter lead, WSU barely held on for a 31-28 win in the Weiser Lock Copper Bowl.

The Utes, who seemingly gave the game away in the first quarter, became acclimated to postseason play in the second and third stanzas, roaring back to tie the score at 28-28. Defense ruled in the fourth quarter and a WSU field goal proved the game winner.

Frank Dolce hit Sean Williams for Utah's first score, a 10-yard pass play. Six minutes later, Keith Williams scampered into pay dirt from 25 yards out to narrow the gap to 21-14. After a 48-yard touchdown pass by Washington State's Drew Bledsoe, Dolce countered with a 49-yard strike to Henry Lusk, who plucked the ball from a defender's hands in a leaping end zone catch.

An 8-yard TD run by Pierre Jones narrowed the gap to 28-26, and a successful two-point conversion from Dolce to Scott Murry tied things up, but only for 20 seconds. Washington State responded with 22-yard field to take a 31-28 lead. Utah's Chris Yergensen's 20-yard field goal attempt with 3:19 remaining in the game was wide left and the Utes came up short.

Henry Lusk won this end zone battle vs. Washington State for a 49-yard TD reception.

1993 FREEDOM BOWL

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 28, UTAH 21

Dec. 30, 1993

Utes dominate second half but fall short against favored Trojans

ANAHEIM—On paper, the Freedom Bowl match-up looked mismatched—the tri-champion of the Pacific-10 Conference (Southern California) against the Western Athletic Conference’s fourth-place finisher (Utah). On the field the pairing looked even worse, a least for two quarters.

Then Utah came alive. When USC jumped to a 28-0 halftime lead, Utah appeared headed for a lopsided loss. Offense? The Utes managed just 101 yards of total offense and failed to cross midfield in the first half. Defense? The Utes gave up 296 yards and four touchdowns. Over? No way.

Led by eventual Freedom Bowl Offensive MVP Henry Lusk, the Utes charged back to within a touchdown of the Trojans, with the ball and a chance to win at the end. Lusk caught six second-half passes for 140 yards and a 59-yard touchdown to help the Utes climb within seven (28-21). In the meantime, Utah’s defense slammed the door on USC’s vaunted offense, holding the Trojans scoreless in the second half. Junior defensive end Luther Elliss had a huge game for the Utes, with five tackles for lost yardage, two sacks (12 yards) and two pass breakups. Former Trojan Adam Swaney had a career day as a Ute, with four tackles for loss and three sacks (16 yards).

Quarterback Mike McCoy’s Hail Mary pass with 0:08 was picked off as time ran out, averting Utah’s upset bid.

Jamal Anderson’s 34-yard TD run highlighted a big second-half comeback by Utah.

1994 FREEDOM BOWL

1994 FREEDOM BOWL

UTAH 16, ARIZONA 13
Anaheim, Calif.
Dec. 27, 1994

Utes come up with a fourth-down score to beat Arizona.

ANAHEIM—In a remarkable ratio of points to yards, Utah won the Freedom Bowl over Arizona, 16-13, despite accumulating just 75 net yards against Arizona's famed Desert Swarm defense. Utah, which managed just five first downs and six rushing yards all night, seemed doomed to its second straight Freedom Bowl defeat when quarterback Mike McCoy found himself in the grasp of a Wildcat defender on fourth-and-goal. But McCoy made a desperation heave on his way to the ground and freshman Kevin Dyson streaked through a crowd of Wildcats to make a game-winning catch with 3:34 left.

Ironically, the hero's mantle and the game MVP award went to neither of the above. Freshman Cal Beck took an Arizona kickoff and sprinted 72 yards to the Ute 5-yard-line with 4:00 remaining. McCoy and Dyson punched it in from there.

Equal credit should go to the U. defense, which limited Arizona to two field goals and a touchdown, for the first Utah bowl win in 20 years. The Wildcats gained only 184 total yards against the Luther Elliss-led Ute defense and converted on just 3-of-13 third down attempts. They failed to score in the second and third quarters, and their sole TD came on a deflected pass in the first quarter.

Mike McCoy completed this pass on fourth down for the game-winning TD vs. Arizona.

1996 COPPER BOWL

WISCONSIN 38, UTAH 10

Tucson, Ariz.

Dec. 27, 1996

Red zone woes and run defense hurt Utes in matchup with Wisconsin.

TUCSON—The ballyhooed battle between the nation's two biggest collegiate running backs never materialized, as Utah lost star runner Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala to a first-quarter ankle injury. Wisconsin's Ron Dayne held up his end of the bargain, however, rushing for 246 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-10 Wisconsin win.

Offensively, the Utes rang up more net yards (430-365) and more first downs (26-16) than the Badgers, moved inside UW's 5-yard line twice and inside the 20-yard line another three times, but four interceptions spelled their doom. In his final game, U. quarterback Mike Fouts completed 27 of 49 passes for 327 yards, but was picked off four times. Terence Keehan and Kevin Dyson had big receiving nights—catching six passes each for 100 and 95 yards, respectively. Juan Johnson scored Utah's only TD of the day on a 1-yard run late in the third quarter. Johnson accounted for 88 of Utah's 103 rushing yards.

Utah's defense held Wisconsin to just 16 passing yards on 2-of-6 passing, but could not stop the run—allowing 349 yards.

Juan Johnson had 88 yards rushing but Utah could not shut down UW's ground game.

1999 LAS VEGAS BOWL

1999 LAS VEGAS BOWL

UTAH 17, FRESNO STATE 16
Las Vegas, Nev.
Dec. 18, 1999

Anderson's record-setting day leads Utah to victory over Fresno State.

LAS VEGAS—Senior running back Mike Anderson and a punishing defensive effort led to the first bowl win for the new Mountain West Conference, courtesy of Utah. The Utes, tri-champions in the league's inaugural season, beat Western Athletic Conference co-champion Fresno State, 17-16, in the first bowl game of the year.

On paper, Utah trounced its former conference foe, piling up 548 total yards to just 279 for the Bulldogs. But a spate of special teams breakdowns, including a 75-yard blocked field goal returned for a touchdown by FSU, kept it close.

Anderson and running mate Omar Bacon stole the show in their final collegiate game. Anderson set a Las Vegas Bowl rushing record with 254 yards and scored both of Utah's touchdowns. He also had the day's most impressive run—a 76-yard sprint from the line of scrimmage on Utah's first offensive down. While Anderson was named the game's MVP, Bacon would have surely won Super Sub had there been such an award. Bacon rushed for 91 yards on just eight carries.

T.D. Croshaw started the game at quarterback but left with a shoulder injury after just one quarter with the game tied 7-7. Darnell Arceneaux relieved and led Utah to victory, completing 8 of 15 passes for 94 yards.

Cletus Truhe, who had two previous field goal attempts blocked, made the game-winner, a 33-yarder with 5:03 left in the game. Fresno State got the ball back only to have its last drive stopped by Andre Dyson's pass breakup on fourth and seven. Kautai Olevao and Kimball Christianson each had seven tackles for Utah.

Bowl MVP Mike Anderson set a Las Vegas Bowl record by rushing for 254 yards.

2001 LAS VEGAS BOWL

UTAH 10, SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 6
Las Vegas, Nev.
Dec. 25, 2001

Utah ground USC's offense in Christmas Day bowl game.

LAS VEGAS—Utah scored on its second drive in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl, then relied on an incredible defensive effort to beat favored USC for the first time since 1916.

Ryan Kaneshiro finished Utah's scoring with a 26-yard field goal at the end of the first half, which proved more than enough. That's because USC, winner of its last four games, including a 27-0 win over No. 20 UCLA, was helpless against Utah's defense. The Trojans netted just one yard rushing and 150 total yards. USC logged its only TD on its first drive of the second half before the Sheldon Deckart-led U. defense slammed the door again.

Deckart had six tackles, two for a loss, and two sacks to lead a ferocious Ute pass rush that resulted in four sacks and nine tackles for loss.

Adam Tate closed his career with a 103-yard rushing day and Dameon Hunter (94 yards) was the game's MVP.

Utah sacked USC quarterback Carson Palmer five times and held the Trojans to one TD.

2002 LIBERTY BOWL

2003 LIBERTY BOWL

UTAH 17, SOUTHERN MISS 0
Memphis, Tenn.
Dec. 31, 2003

MWC champion Utes shut out Southern Miss in Liberty Bowl.

MEMPHIS—The Southern Mississippi defense received most of the hype coming into the Liberty Bowl, but it was Utah's defense that carried the day in a 17-0 Utah victory. The blitzin' Utes teamed up for five sacks and 10 tackles for loss, causing first-string Golden Eagle quarterback Dustin Almond to lose his cool and backup Micky D'Angelo to leave the game with a concussion.

And, if holding the Conference USA champion to a paltry 11 first downs, 49 rushing yards and 213 total yards wasn't enough, the Ute defense also came to the rescue of its struggling offensive teammates. Late in the second quarter, safety Morgan Scalley sacked Almond, who fumbled. Ute Lewis Powell recovered the fumble on USM's 17-yard line to set up the only offensive touchdown of the game. Utah's other touchdown was scored by none other than Scalley, who scooped up a fumble forced by safety Dave Revill and returned it 74 yards for a touchdown with 1:36 remaining in the game.

Although Utah never got untracked offensively, Brandon Warfield and Paris Warren both had memorable games. Warfield was named the Liberty Bowl offensive MVP after rushing for 91 yards and the game's first touchdown. Warren had 5 receptions for 72 yards to become Utah's single-season receiving record-holder (76 receptions in 2003). Bryan Borreson's 19-yard field goal in the fourth quarter gave Utah a 10-0 lead and some breathing room.

Ray Holdcraft led the defense with 8 tackles, 4 solo, and 2.5 tackles for loss. Revill had 2 sacks and Powell was the game's defensive MVP after recovering 2 fumbles.

Dave Revill had two of Utah's five sacks in a shutout for the MWC champions.

2005 FIESTA BOWL

UTAH 35, PITTSBURGH 7
Tempe, Ariz.
Jan. 1, 2005

BCS Busting Utes
 finish a perfect 12-0
 season at the Fiesta Bowl.

TEMPE—In the first BCS game ever for a non-BCS school, Utah steamrolled over Big East co-champion Pittsburgh, 35-7, in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Led by offensive co-MVPs Alex Smith and Paris Warren, who teamed up for 15 of Smith's 29 total completions, Utah jumped to a 28-0 lead before Pittsburgh's only score of the day.

Warren's 15 receptions, which went for 198 yards, was a Fiesta Bowl record. Smith was unstoppable, completing 29 of 37 passes for 328 yards and 4 touchdowns (no interceptions). Utah's marvelous Heisman Trophy finalist QB also led all rushers with 68 net yards.

Equally responsible for Utah's blowout victory was the defense, which set a bowl record with nine quarterback sacks. Nose guard Steve Fifita, the defensive MVP, had 5 tackles, 2 tackles for loss and a sack. Safety Eric Weddle led the defense with 11 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup and senior linebacker Tommy Hackenbruck had a monster game in his final Ute outing. Included in Hackenbruck's 10 total tackles were 3 sacks for 29 yards.

The Utes enjoyed a home field atmosphere as the vast majority of sold-out Sun Devil Stadium was red-clad. All estimates suggest it was the largest gathering of Ute fans ever to watch a Utah football game.

Paris Warren set a new Fiesta Bowl record with 15 receptions for 198 yards.
