1938 SUN BOWL

EL PASO—Predicted as the most even match-up of the 1938 bowl season, Utah blasted the forecasters and New Mexico, 26-0, on Jan. 2. Utah, the old Big Seven champion, struck early. Tom Pace capped a 58-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run off a lateral from Ray Davis midway through the first quarter. With a minute remaining in the period, Ray Peterson intercepted a Lobo pass on the Ute 40-yard line and returned it for a second score. Peterson crossed the goal line again in the second quarter, on a fourth-down, 1-yard plunge.

New Mexico's highly-touted aerial attack never advanced past Utah's 40-yard line. As for the Utes, halfback Clarence Gehrke finished their scoring with a 10-yard dash. New Mexico, co-champion of the old Border League, gained just 153 yards of total offense to Utah's 384.

1946 PINEAPPLE BOWL

HONOLULU—Utah drew first blood, when quarterback Cannon Parkinson found Ralph Olsen for a 24-yard touchdown play in the first quarter. But Hawaii bounced back in the final three stanzas to claim a 19-16 win in the Pineapple Bowl.

Utah entered the game as the nation's top rushing team, but couldn't get the job done against the smaller, faster Islanders. The game soon shaped up as a passing duel, with Sol Kaulukukui of Hawaii pitted against the Utah quarterback combo of Milton Smith and Parkinson.

After falling behind 19-6, late in the fourth quarter, the "Redskins" closed the gap with a TD run by Smith and an extra point kick. Hawaii, holding a slim 19-14 lead and backed up against its own goal line, then opted for a safety, narrowing the gap to 19-16.

But Utah would come no closer, with Melvin Abreu knocking a pass out of the hands of Utah's Morris Ficklin in the end zone as the gun sounded.

1964 LIBERTY BOWL

ATLANTIC CITY—Utah never trailed in its 32-6 victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl—the first indoor major bowl game ever held. A national television audience and 6,059 fans in the Convention Center watched Utah score first on a 29-yard field goal by All-American Roy Jefferson. Jefferson, who also booted a 32-yard field goal, left the game in the first half after separating his shoulder.

But Utah had plenty of firepower left. Halfback Ron Coleman sprinted 53 yards for a touchdown on a day which saw him lead all rushers with 154 rushing yards. Andy Ireland added another long TD dash for the Utes—his went for 47 yards—while quarterback Pokey Allen contributed an 11-yard touchdown run.

The Ute offense, featuring a two-quarterback attack, closed its scoring with a 33-yard touchdown strike from Richard Groth to Bill Morley. In all, the Utes totaled 466 yards of offense.

The Utah defense also did its job holding the Mountaineers scoreless until the waning minutes of the third quarter. West Virginia's Allen McCune hooked up with receiver Rich Juriga with 5:30 to play for the Mountaineers' sole touchdown. Utah's backfield intercepted five McCune passes.

The Liberty Bowl win capped a 9-2 season for coach Ray Nagel and the Utes. It would stand as the most wins ever by a Ute team for 30 years.

UTE RALLY FALLS JUST SHORT IN 1992 COPPER BOWL

TUCSON—In the early going, Utah played the part of a team that hadn't gone "bowling" for 28 years. But the Utes made up for lost time quickly and nearly upset favored Washington State in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season. After jumping to a 21-0 first-quarter lead, WSU barely held on for a 31-28 win in the Weiser Lock Copper Bowl.

The Utes, who seemingly gave the game away in the first quarter, became acclimated to postseason play in the second and third stanzas, roaring back to tie the score at 28-28. Defense ruled in the fourth quarter and a WSU field goal proved the game winner.

Frank Dolce hit Sean Williams for Utah's first score, a 10-yard pass play. Six minutes later, Keith Williams scampered into pay dirt from 25 yards out to narrow the gap to 21-14. After a 48-yard touchdown pass by Washington State's Drew Bledsoe, Dolce countered with a 49-yard strike to Henry Lusk, who plucked the ball from a defender's hands in a leaping end zone catch.

Henry Lusk won this end zone battle against a Washington State defender. Lusk's 49-yard touchdown catch was one of many thrilling plays in the 1992 Copper Bowl.

An 8-yard TD run by Pierre Jones tied the score and a successful two-point conversion from Dolce to Scott Murry tied things up at 28, but only for 20 seconds. Washington State responded with 22-yard field to take a 31-28 lead. Utah's Chris Yergensen's 20-yard field goal attempt with 3:19 remaining in the game was wide left and the Utes came up short.

1993 FREEDOM BOWL

UTES NEARLY UPSET USC IN 1993 FREEDOM BOWL

ANAHEIM—On paper, the Freedom Bowl match-up looked mismatched—the tri-champion of the Pacific-10 Conference (Southern California) against the Western Athletic Conference’s fourth-place finisher (Utah). On the field the pairing looked even worse, a least for two quarters.

Then Utah came alive. When USC jumped to a 28-0 halftime lead, Utah appeared headed for a lopsided loss. Offense? The Utes managed just 101 yards of total offense and failed to cross midfield in the first half. Defense? The Utes gave up 296 yards and four touchdowns. Over? No way.

Led by eventual Freedom Bowl Offensive MVP Henry Lusk, the Utes charged back to within a touchdown of the Trojans, with the ball and a chance to win at the end. Lusk caught six second-half passes for 140 yards and a 59-yard touchdown to help the Utes climb within seven (28-21). In the meantime, Utah’s defense slammed the door on USC’s vaunted offense, holding the Trojans scoreless in the second half. Junior defensive end Luther Elliss had a huge game for the Utes, with five tackles for lost yardage, two sacks (12 yards) and two pass breakups. Former Trojan Adam Swaney had a career day as a Ute, with four tackles for loss and three sacks (16 yards).

Quarterback Mike McCoy’s Hail Mary pass with 0:08 was picked off as time ran out, averting Utah’s upset bid.

NATIONALLY RANKED UTES WIN 1994 FREEDOM BOWL

ANAHEIM—In a remarkable ratio of points to yards, Utah won the Freedom Bowl over Arizona, 16-13, despite accumulating just 75 net yards against Arizona's famed Desert Swarm defense. Utah, which managed just five first downs and six rushing yards all night, seemed doomed to its second straight Freedom Bowl defeat when quarterback Mike McCoy found himself in the grasp of a Wildcat defender on fourth-and-goal. But McCoy made a desperation heave on his way to the ground and freshman Kevin Dyson streaked through a crowd of Wildcats to make a game-winning catch with 3:34 left.

Ironically, the hero's mantle and the game MVP award went to neither of the above. Freshman Cal Beck took an Arizona kickoff and sprinted 72 yards to the Ute 5-yard-line with 4:00 remaining. McCoy and Dyson punched it in from there.

Equal credit should go to the U. defense, which limited Arizona to two field goals and a touchdown, for the first Utah bowl win in 20 years. The Wildcats gained only 184 total yards against the Luther Elliss-led Ute defense and converted on just 3-of-13 third down attempts. They failed to score in the second and third quarters and their sole TD came on a deflected pass in the first quarter.

RED ZONE WOES DOOM UTES IN 1996 COPPER BOWL

TUCSON—The ballyhooed battle between the nation’s two biggest collegiate running backs never materialized, as Utah lost star runner Chris Fuamatu-Ma’afala to a first-quarter ankle injury. Wisconsin’s Ron Dayne held up his end of the bargain, however, rushing for 246 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-10 Wisconsin win.

Offensively, the Utes rang up more net yards (430-365) and more first downs (26-16) than the Badgers, moved inside UW’s 5-yard line twice and inside the 20-yard line another three times, but four interceptions spelled their doom. In his final game, U. quarterback Mike Fouts completed 27 of 49 passes for 327 yards, but was picked off four times. Terence Keehan and Kevin Dyson had big receiving nights—catching six passes each for 100 and 95 yards, respectively. Juan Johnson scored Utah’s only TD of the day on a 1-yard run late in the third quarter. Johnson accounted for 88 of Utah’s 103 rushing yards.

Utah’s defense held Wisconsin to just 16 passing yards on 2-of-6 passing, but could not stop the run—allowing 349 yards.

Juan Johnson led Utah’s rushers with 88 yards, but the Utes had no answer for Badger running back Ron Dayne in a loss to Wisconsin in the 1996 Copper Bowl.

Mike Anderson set a Las Vegas Bowl record by rushing for 254 yards and was named bowl MVP.

UTES SHUT DOWN FRESNO STATE IN 1999 LAS VEGAS BOWL

LAS VEGAS—Senior running back Mike Anderson and a punishing defensive effort led to the first bowl win for the new Mountain West Conference, courtesy of Utah. The Utes, tri-champions in league’s inaugural season, beat Western Athletic Conference co-champion Fresno State, 17-16, in the first bowl game of the year.

On paper, Utah trounced its former conference foe, piling up 548 total yards to just 279 for the Bulldogs. But a spate of special teams breakdowns, including a 75-yard blocked field goal returned for a touchdown by FSU, kept it close.

Anderson and running mate Omar Bacon stole the show in their final collegiate game. Anderson set a Las Vegas Bowl rushing record with 254 yards and scored both of Utah’s touchdowns. He also had the day’s most impressive run—a 76-yard sprint from the line of scrimmage on Utah’s first offensive down. While Anderson was named the game’s MVP, Bacon would have surely won Super Sub had there been such an award. Bacon rushed for 91 yards on just eight carries.

T.D. Croshaw started the game at quarterback, but left with a shoulder injury after just one quarter with the game tied 7-7. Darnell Arceneaux relieved and led Utah to victory, completing 8 of 15 passes for 94 yards.

Cletus Truhe, who had two previous field goal attempts blocked, made the game-winner, a 33-yarder with 5:03 left in the game. Fresno State got the ball back only to have its last drive stopped by Andre Dyson’s pass breakup on fourth and seven. Kautai Olevao and Kimball Christianson each had seven tackles for Utah.

2001 LAS VEGAS BOWL

STIFLING DEFENSE LEADS UTAH PAST USC IN 2001 LAS VEGAS BOWL

LAS VEGAS—Utah scored on its second drive in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl, then relied on an incredible defensive effort to beat favored USC for the first time since 1916.

Ryan Kaneshiro finished Utah's scoring with a 26-yard field goal at the end of the first half, which proved more than enough. That's because USC, winner of its last four games, including a 27-0 win over No. 20 UCLA, was helpless against Utah's defense. The Trojans netted just one yard rushing and 150 total yards. USC logged its only TD on its first drive of the second half before the Sheldon Deckart-led U. defense slammed the door again.

Deckart had six tackles, two for a loss, and two sacks to lead a ferocious Ute pass rush that resulted in four sacks and nine tackles for loss.

Adam Tate closed his career with a 103-yard rushing day and Dameon Hunter (94 yards) was the game's MVP.

Senior running back Dameon Hunter (94 yards) was the Las Vegas Bowl MVP.

1994 UTES FINISH IN THE TOP-10

A 16-13 win over Arizona in the Freedom Bowl capped a record-breaking 10-2 season for the 1994 Utes, who basked in the national limelight like no previous Utah gridiron team. The Utes, who opened the season as Sports Illustrated's No. 20 preseason pick, would break into both the Associated Press and USA Today-CNN Coaches polls before the season's midpoint. They climbed as high as ninth in the AP poll and finished the year at No. 10. Utah was even better according to the coaches, securing a No. 8 final ranking in the Coaches Poll.
