Quoting Head Coach Beth Launiere:

On The Season - "Looking at the regular season, to finish with 19 wins and third in the Mountain West, I think it was a big success for us. We experienced ups and downs along the way. However, that's to be expected with such a young team. But, as a whole, the regular season was very successful for us."

On The Tournament - "The Mountain West Conference Tournament is an exciting event. Everyone is playing for the championship and the league's automatic bid to the NCAAAs. However, we have our work cut out for us and we need to take this one match at a time. Our first match is against Wyoming. They are playing very well right now and played a very tough match against us two weeks ago. It's going to be a tough tournament."

Diggin' Up Some Dirt -The Utes put up 103 digs in the five-game win over UNLV last weekend. The two rivals combined for 207 digs in the match. The 103 digs was by far the most that Utah has posted in a single match this season. The next-best effort was an 83-dig effort in the four-game win over Missouri State (9/10/05). The last time Utah put 100 digs on the stat sheet was in last year's five-game upset victory over No. 6 UCLA (9/17/04).

Four Score and.... - While Utah tallied 103 digs in the win over UNLV, the bulk of the effort came from four different Utes. The foursome of Danielle Leichter, Shelly Sommerfeldt, Airial Salvo and Shannon Krug accounted for 84 percent of the team's digs that night. A libero, Leichter tallied a career- and match-high 28, both Sommerfeldt and Salvo had a career-high 20, while Krug had a career-best 19.

20-20 Vision - Shelly Sommerfeldt had a career night in leading Utah to a five-game over UNLV. She tallied 24 kills (on .297 hitting) and 20 digs. Both numbers are career highs for the senior co-captain. It was her fifth 20-kill match this season. She had a pair of 22-kill outings, against Santa Clara (9/17) and New Mexico (9/24), in addition to a 20-kill effort versus both Idaho (9/15) and San Diego State (11/19).

That 70's Show - Setter Shannon Krug dished out a career-high 75 assists in leading Utah to .256 hitting against UNLV. That's an average of 15 assists per game. The 75 assists are the most by an MWC setter this year. She finished the weekend averaging 13.56 assists per game and guiding the team to a .259 hitting percentage. For the year, Krug is averaging 11.59 assists per game while the team is hitting .230. Krug ranks third in the league in assists, and is the second-best freshman setter in the conference.

Weekend Warrior - Shelly Sommerfeldt had a stellar regular season finale in hitting .311 on 106 swings last weekend. She led the team in both kills per game (4.89) and digs per game (3.89). She had back-to-back 20-kill matches in the last two outings and had a 20-dig showing against UNLV. That was followed by a 15-dig outing against SDSU. Sommerfeldt averages 3.52 kills on .230 hitting for the year.

A Grand Total- Shelly Sommerfeldt has racked up 1,180 career kills during her four-year career. She ranks sixth among Utah's career-kills leader and is only one of nine Utes to record 1,000 career kills. She is having one of the best years of her career in averaging 3.52 kills on .230 hitting. Her best year was in 2003. As a sophomore, she netted 3.64 kills on .253 hitting. The all-time kills leader at Utah is Sommerfeldt's former teammate, Kim Turner (1,620).

See Emillie Play - Emillie Toone has been a thorn in side of opposing offenses, tallying five or more total blocks in seven of the last eight matches. During that span, she had four matches with seven-plus blocks and averages 1.72 blocks per game. Last weekend, the 6-7 middle had 14 total blocks in two matches and averaged 1.56 blocks per game.

Back Row Driver - Danielle Leichter stepped into the libero position midway through the season and has been a solid performer there as of late. She is averaging 4.10 digs per game over the last five matches. That span includes a pair of 20-dig outings and a career-high effort of 28 digs. She has upped her season average to a team-best 3.34 per game and ranks sixth in the league.

Defensive Duo - Emillie Toone and Lori Baird combine to form the first and biggest line of defense for Utah. Toone leads the team with 141 total blocks and a 1.50 blocks-per-game average. Baird is right behind her fellow middle with 128 blocks and a 1.29 per-game average. The duo has paired up to tally 269 total blocks or 73 percent of the team's total blocks. Moreover, the tandem averages 1.39 blocks per game. Toone ranks second in the league in blocks while Baird is fifth.

Two of a Kind - Aerial Salvo and Shelly Sommerfeldt are one of the most dangerous offensive duos in the conference. Salvo is the team's top outside hitter in netting 3.24 kills on .244 hitting. Her counterpart, Sommerfeldt, collects 3.52 kills at a .230 clip. The two have combined for 683 of the team's 1599 kills. That's 43 percent of the team's kill production. The tandem combines to hit .237 and averages 44 percent of the team's total attacks.

How the Utes Stack Up - In the Mountain West Conference: Utah is first in both blocks (3.45) and opponents' hitting (.151), third in both hitting (.230) and digs (14.65), fourth in kills (15.08), fifth in assists (13.70) and ninth in aces (1.25).

Shannon Krug is third in assists (11.59); Emillie Toone and Lori Baird are seventh in hitting (.288) while Toone is second in blocks (1.50) and Baird fifth (1.29); Shelly Sommerfeldt is eighth in kills (3.52) and ninth in digs (3.00); and Danielle Leichter is sixth in digs (3.34).

Team News and Notes: The Utes are 15-4 all-time in Las Vegas. They have won six straight in Vegas and haven't lost since a 3-0 setback to UNLV in the WAC tournament on Nov. 25, 1998 ... SDSU hit .333 versus Utah and was the first team this year to hit .300 against the Utes. It was only the sixth team to hit better than .200 on the season. The Utes are 1-5 when their opponents top the .200 hitting plateau. Santa Clara is the only team to lose to the Utes when hitting better than .200 ... only two teams have out-blocked Utah this season. They were BYU on 9/28 and Colorado State on 11/12 ... Utah is 2-3 against ranked teams this year. It beat No. 17 Santa Clara, 3-2, and No. 12 BYU, 3-0. It lost to No. 20 BYU (3-1), to No. 21 Missouri (3-0) and No. 9 Tennessee (3-0) ... the team is 11-1 at home but 9-7 when it leaves Crimson Court ... Utah is 3-3 in games that go to extra points ... the Utes are 6-2 in three-gamers, 10-3 in four-game matches, and 3-3 in five-game affairs ... looking at Utah's game wins by game, it is 16-11 in game one, 17-10 in each game two and three, 13-6 in game four and 3-3 in the fifth frame ... the Utes began

Team Notes

Utah in the Postseason

The Utes enter postseason play on the heels of their 17th MWC tournament match. They are 12-4 all-time in the league tournament and have won two tournament titles (2001, 2002). Only CSU owns a winning record against the Utes in conference tournament play. The Rams are 3-1 versus the Utes. Since joining the MWC, Utah is 18-11 in all postseason play (conference and NCAA tournaments). The Utes have won the league's automatic bid twice and have received five at-large NCAA tournament invites.

Turning It On When It Counts

The Utes finished non-conference play with an 8-3 mark and were hitting .215. They also allowed teams to hit .161 against them. Since conference play began, Utah went 11-5 and saw its numbers improve. It hit .241. It held opponents to a meager .145 hitting.

The Youth Movement

The Utes have invested in their youth this year. Three of their starters are freshmen (Lori Baird, Shannon Krug and Airial Salvo) while two others are only sophomores (Emillie Toone and Whitney Webb). The only upperclassman who starts is senior outside hitter Shelly Sommerfeldt.

Party Crashers

Utah continued its tradition of making waves on the national scene. This year, it beat two nationally-ranked teams. It scored a five-game win over then-No. 17 Santa Clara (9/17) and a three-game sweep over then-No. 12 Brigham Young. Both SCU and BYU were undefeated as the Utes dealt them their first blemishes of the season.

Red Storm

Crimson Court proved to be too menacing a place for visitors this season. The Utes went 11-0 at home before it dropped the last home match of the season, a 3-1 decision to Colorado State. CSU is the only MWC team to win on Crimson Court in each of the last two years. Conversely, on the road, Utah's record is just above .500 at 9-7.

Diaper Dandies

The University of Utah began the season with the No. 8-ranked recruiting class according to Volleyball Magazine. The freshman class consists of Lori Baird, Shannon Krug, Kathryn Lovell and Airial Salvo.

- Baird exceeded freshman-year expectations and turned into one of the top-hitting freshmen in the league and is second on the team in blocks.

- Krug started right away and sets the attack. She led Utah to a .230 hitting average this season. That average is identical to Utah's .230 efficiency last year when it ran a 6-2 with a pair of senior setters.

- Lovell is one of the first options off the bench and plays outside behind Shelly Sommerfeldt and Salvo.

- Salvo is an all-around athlete that can play anywhere on the court. As an outside hitter, she leads all MWC freshmen with 3.24 kills per game and is the most efficient outside hitter on the team at .244.

Big D

The University of Utah's success begins with its defense. The Utes hold their rivals to a league-low .151 hitting and are the MWC leaders with 3.45 blocks per game. Utah also ranks third in digs (14.65 per game). Only six opponents hit better than .200 on the Utes this year while only one of those hit better than .300 (.333 vs. San Diego State on 11/19). Utah was one of the top defensive teams in 2004 as well. It led the league in opponent hitting percentage (.146) and was second in both blocks (3.21) and digs (15.00).
