OFF THE TEE

Fresh off the team and individual titles this past week, the Utah men's golf team is set to compete at the N.I.T this Monday and Tuesday, March 18-19. Hosted by Arizona, the N.I.T will be played at the OMNI Tucson National Golf Club in Tucson, Ariz. The team event will be played on the Catalina Course, while individuals competing will play on the Sonoran Course.

THE FIELD

Utah will compete in a field of 16 teams at the N.I.T. The field is: Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado, Colorado State, Iowa State, New Mexico, North Texas, Oklahoma, San Diego, San Diego State, UNLV, USC, Utah, UTEP, Washington State, and Wyoming.

UTAH'S LINE-UP

The Utes' five-man team for the Bandon Dunes Championship is: senior Kyler Dunkle, sophomore Blake Tomlinson, freshman Axel Einarsson, sophomore Tristan Mandur, and junior Jordan Costello. Juniors Mitchell Schow and Peyton Hastings will be competing as individuals on a different course than the team event.

TOURNAMENT DETAILS

The first 36 holes of the event will be played on Monday, March 18, with the first round of play beginning at 8 a.m. MST in a shotgun start format. The final round of the event will start at the same time the next day and will also be a shotgun start. Live scoring for the entire tournament can be found at GolfStat.com.

The individuals playing in the Sonoran Showdown will also have 36 holes on the first day, followed by the second round on Tuesday. The shotgun start will begin at 7:30 a.m. MST both days.

WINNER WINNER

The Utes left the Bandon Dunes Championship last week with the second team title this season, as well as the team's third individual tournament title. Now in his third year as the head coach of the Utes, Garrett Clegg has tabbed three tournament titles. Utah had gone without a team win since 2009.

Blake Tomlinson picked up his first career tournament title at the Bandon Dunes Championship in just his second season. Tomlinson got off to a great start in the event, being one of two golfers to go under par in the first round. After the second round he was tied for the lead and on the final day he was able to capture the win by edging the second-place golfer by one stroke.

TOUR TIME

During Utah's time between competition, Kyler Dunkle traveled to San Antonio this past week to compete in the PGA Mackenzie Tour Q-School event. Dunkle had a stellar four-round tournament and finished tied for sixth place with a score of 6-under par (69-70-72-71=282) in the field of 120 golfers. With his sixth-place finish, Dunkle qualified for the PGA Tour Canada, which is a series of tournaments across Canada.

EAGLE EYES

Utah has recorded 14 eagles throughout the season which ranks ninth in the nation. Mitchell Schow is currently tied for sixth in the nation with six eagles on the year, while Kyler Dunkle is tied for 14th with five eagles. Axel Einarsson is tied for 39th in the nation with four eagles.

In Utah's spring opener at the Amer Ari Invitational, they finished first in the event with five eagles. Dunkle and Schow both sank two eagles, while Tomlinson added one during the first round at the Amer Ari Invitational.

TAP-INS

- Dunkle is tied for 13th in the nation with 91 birdies on the year. Dunkle also ranks tied for 63rd in the nation in subpar strokes per round with an average of 4.21 strokes, while Utah is 42nd in subpar strokes per round at 3.38 strokes.
- Tomlinson has recorded 83 birdies which ranks tied for 44th in the nation.
- Utah is tied for ninth with the most eagles recorded at 14 on the year.
- Utah is 43rd in the country on par 5 scoring average with a 4.78 stroke average on par 5's.

LAST TIME OUT

Tomlinson and Utah's five-man team picked up wins at the Bandon Dunes Championship in an event where the team battled the weather elements and came out on top. Utah shot 12-over par (876) to win the event by six strokes and notch the second team victory of the season.

Tomlinson shot a season-low 212, which included a season low round of 69, to finish the event at 4-under par and earn his first career first place finish. Tristan Mandur also had his best tournament of his career and tabbed his first career top-five finish. Mandur finished at even par (216) to place in a tie for 3rd overall. Competing as an individual, Jordan Costello broke the Bandon Dunes Course record in the second round with 64, which is a career-best round for the junior. Costello finished in the top-10 in a tie for ninth place.

FLASHBACK TO FALL

The Utes picked up a tournament title in their inaugural event, Showdown in the Rockies, after being led by Dunkle who tabbed the event's individual title following three straight rounds under par to finish at 13-under par. The event win was the second under Clegg after the Utah men's golf team had gone without a team win since 2009. This was Clegg's eighth team title as a head coach after totaling six during his five years at Washington State.

The next weekend at the Mark Simpson Invitational, Dunkle won his third career individual title to become Utah's most winning golfer in school history after finishing tied for first place at 9-under par and then going on to win the playoff hole. Utah's five-man team also went on to finish second overall in the event.

Costello, Mandur, and Schow all recorded top-10 finishes during the fall campaign to highlight the Ute performances. Schow placed fifth at the Showdown in the Rockies, competing as an individual, to record his first top-10 finish since his freshman year. Costello also had his best finish at Utah's event where he placed tied for ninth overall and finished the fall second in scoring average on the team behind Dunkle. Competing as an individual, Mandur tabbed ninth place at the Mark Simpson Invitational. Axel Einarsson also saw action in all five fall events as a true freshman.

DÉJÀ VU

Senior Kyler Dunkle claimed his second straight individual title after tying for first place at the Mark Simpson Colorado Invitational and then winning the playoff hole to take home the hardware. Not only did Dunkle win his second straight individual title after finishing first place at the Showdown in the Rockies as well, the Utah senior also repeated as the Mark Simpson Invitational individual winner.

BACK NINE BIRDIES

In the last nine holes of the Showdown in the Rockies, the Utes controlled the course as four Utes combined to shoot 16-under in the final nine holes of the event to pull away from the rest of the field. Dunkle shot five-under on the back nine, Einarsson went 3-under, Jordan Costello carded four-under, and Tristan Mandur notched four-under on the final nine to push the Utes to victory.

The Colorado native won last year's Mark Simpson Invitational to pick up Utah's first regular season individual title since 2006. Now adding in two additional individual titles, Dunkle has become the all-time leader in Utah golf history with three individual wins.

UP NEXT

The Utes will head to the Redhawks Invitational on Monday and Tuesday, April 1-2, before their last regular season meet of the year. The two-day tournament will be held at Chambers Bay Golf Course in University Place, Wash.
