HEAD COACH

Kyle Whittingham

HEAD COACH | 15TH YEAR

Kyle Whittingham, the longest-tenured coach in the Pac-12 Conference and the third-longest tenured head coach at the same school in the NCAA FBS, is preparing for his 15th season at the helm at Utah, where he boasts a 120-61 record. Including 11 seasons as a Ute assistant coach, he has contributed to more victories (205) than any coach in program history.

His many accomplishments include National Coach of the Year recognition in 2008—when Utah was declared the national champion by an NCAA major selector while finishing No. 2 in the Associated Press poll—and the 2018 Pac-12 South Division title.

Legendary for his postseason success, Whittingham boasts the second-best bowl win percentage in NCAA history (84%). His 11 bowl wins (11-2) ties him for second among active coaches and ranks in the top-10 all-time (including ties). His glossy bowl record includes a 2-0 mark in College Football Playoff New Year's Six bowls, with wins over Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl as co-head coach and Alabama in the 2009 Sugar Bowl.

The Utes appeared in every weekly CFP ranking for the first three years of the system (2014-16) and have finished in the CFP top-25 four seasons: No. 22 in 2014 and 2015, No. 19 in 2016 and No. 17 in 2018. The Utes have made the final AP top-25 five times and the final Coaches' poll six times under Whittingham. Their AP top-25 finishes were No. 2 (2008), No. 18 (2009), No. 21 (2014), No. 17 (2015) and No. 23 (2016). Utah was No. 23 in the final 2010 Coaches' poll.

Whittingham's teams have also performed well against AP top-25 teams, recording 14 wins against them, including victories over No. 4 Alabama (2009), No. 5 Stanford (2013) and No. 8 UCLA (2014).

He has enjoyed great success against Power Five conferences, producing winning records against the ACC (7-1), Big Ten (4-1), Big 12 (5-3) and SEC (1-0). The Utes have also fared well in eight years in the Pac-12, winning or sharing two Pac-12 South Division titles and registering wins against every school.

Now in his 26th year overall at Utah, Whittingham began his Ute career as the defensive line coach in 1994. He served as the defensive coordinator from 1995-2004 and became the school's 20th head coach on December 8, 2004. His first victory came three weeks later as the co-coach (with Urban Meyer) in Utah's 2005 Fiesta Bowl win over Pittsburgh. His first regular-season victory was against Arizona in the 2005 season opener.

In 2008, Whittingham engineered the best season in Utah football history. The Utes went 13-0—concluding the season with a 31-17 Sugar Bowl rout of Alabama, a team that had spent five weeks at No. 1. Utah was declared the national champion that season by major selector Anderson/Hester and was ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll. Whittingham was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards committee.

As the country's only undefeated FBS team in 2008, Utah beat four top-25 teams, including two that finished in the top 10. In addition to his national awards, Whittingham was named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year.

His success has continued in the Pac-12 Conference where Utah won the South Division title outright in 2018 and shared it with USC in 2015. The Utes have finished in the top three in the South four times (2011, 2015, 2016, 2018) in their eight seasons as conference members and have won five bowl games in that period.

A four-time semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award (2014-16, 2018), Whittingham has coached 15 All-Americans, including six consensus picks. He has coached the only major national award winners in Utah football history with three Ray Guy Award winners (2014-16), a Lou Groza Award winner (2017) and a Ted Hendricks Award winner to his credit.

Individually, Whittingham has had 15 players make major All-America teams (those determining the NCAA's consensus team). They are Luther Elliss (1994, consensus defensive lineman), Eric Weddle (2006, consensus defensive back), Louie Sakoda (2007, punter; 2008, unanimous consensus place kicker), Zane Beadles (2009, offensive line), Shaky Smithson (2010, punt returner), Star Lotulelei (2012, defensive tackle), Reggie Dunn (2012, kick returner), Nate Orchard (2014, defensive end), Kaelin Clay (2014, returner), Tom Hackett (2014, consensus punter; 2015, unanimous consensus punter), Mitch Wishnowsky (2016, unanimous consensus punter) and Matt Gay (2017, consensus kicker).

Second-team All-Americans on major teams during Whittingham's time include Morgan Scalley (2004, defensive back), Caleb Schlauderaff (2010, offensive line), Hunter Dimick (2016, defensive end) and Wishnowsky (2017-18, punter), Gay (2018, kicker) and Chase Hansen (2018, linebacker).

In addition to his head coaching responsibilities, Whittingham coaches Utah's punters and kickers. Hackett (2014 and 2015) and Wishnowsky (2016) won the Ray Guy Award three years running and Gay was the Lou Groza Award winner the following year. Orchard was Whittingham's other national award winner, capturing the 2014 Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end in 2014.

Whittingham's players have won a total of 81 first-team all-conference awards, including 30 in Utah's eight seasons of Pac-12 play. Utah led the Pac-12 in first-team all-conference players in 2018 with nine selected. Two of his players were three-time first-team All-Pac-12 honorees—Hackett from 2013-15 and Wishnowsky from 2016-18—and another two were two-time recipients (Lotulelei in 2011-12 and Gay in 2017-18). Utes have also captured the Morris Award three times (DT Lotulelei in 2011, DE Orchard in 2014 and OL Isaac Asiata in 2016). The Morris Award recognizes the Pac-12's best lineman as voted on by the starting linemen on the other teams.

Prior to joining the Pac-12, Whittingham coached a Mountain West Conference MVP in five-straight seasons: Defensive Players of the Year Scalley (2004) and Weddle (2005 and 2006), Special Teams Player of the Year Sakoda (2006, 2007, 2008), and Offensive Player of the Year Brian Johnson (2008).

One reason behind his success is Whittingham's reputation for developing NFL talent. A school-record eight NFL draft picks from Utah in 2017 led the Pac-12 and tied for third in the country. In 2010, six Utes were drafted, which tied for fourth nationally. As an assistant or head coach, 78 of Whittingham's players have signed contracts with NFL teams (45 draft picks, including 12 first or second-round selections, and 33 undrafted free agents).

Utah has also excelled academically under Whittingham. Since he became head coach in 2005, his players have earned four Academic All-America citations and 255 academic all-conference awards. The American Football Coaches Association gave Utah a 2017 Academic Achievement Award for recording a perfect 100-percent NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR).

Whittingham began his coaching career in 1985-86 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Brigham Young. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at the College of Eastern Utah in 1987, before a six-year stint at Idaho State from 1988-93.

A linebacker for BYU from 1978-81, Whittingham earned first-team all-WAC and WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1981. He played in the first four Holiday Bowls and was named Defensive MVP of the 1981 game. In 2009, he was inducted into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. After his senior season, Whittingham played in the Hula and Japan Bowls. He played professionally with the Denver Broncos (1982 training camp) and the U.S. Football League's (USFL) Denver Gold (1983) and New Orleans Breakers (1984). He played on the Los Angeles Rams' replacement squad in 1987.

Whittingham graduated from BYU in 1984 and added a master's degree from the school in 1987. Born Nov. 21, 1959, he was raised in Provo, Utah. He is married to the former Jamie Daniels. They have four children: Tyler, Melissa, Alex and Kylie, and three grandchildren. Tyler and Alex both played for the Utes.

ASSISTANT COACHES

2019 SPRING PROSPECTUS

MORGAN SCALLEY

Defensive Coordinator
Safeties
12th Year

In his 12th year overall, Morgan Scalley is in his fourth season as Utah's defensive coordinator. He has coached the safeties his entire time on the staff, was the recruiting coordinator from 2009-15 and the special teams' coordinator in 2015. Scalley has coached three All-Americans, eight first-team all-conference players and two Freshman All-Americans. Utah finished second in the Pac-12 in total defense and scoring defense in 2018 and the 2016 Utes led the conference in sacks (43) and tackles for loss (101).

ANDY LUDWIG

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks
1st/5th Year

Andy Ludwig, the offensive coordinator and QB coach during the best season in Utah football history, has returned after 10 years away. Since helping lead Utah to a 13-0 record in 2008 and a Sugar Bowl win over Alabama, he has served as the offensive coordinator at California (2009-10), San Diego State (2011-12), Wisconsin (2013-14) and Vanderbilt (2015-18). In 2008, Ludwig was a finalist for FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year. He was a 2001 Broyles Award finalist.

JIM HARDING

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Line
6th Year

Entering his sixth season as the offensive line coach, Jim Harding has also served as Utah's assistant head coach (2017-present) and co-offensive coordinator (2015-16). He has coached three first-team All-Pac-12 selections, a Morris Award winner and five NFL picks, including four members of the 2016 offensive line. Harding's linemen have blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in the last five seasons. He came to Utah after five seasons at Wyoming as an offensive line coach and co-offensive coordinator (2013).

SHARRIEFF SHAH

Cornerbacks
Special Teams Coordinator
8th Year

Sharrieff Shah, now in his eighth season coaching the cornerbacks, was promoted to special teams coordinator in January after three years as the co-coordinator. Shah coached two All-Pac-12 cornerbacks in 2018 and has sent four cornerbacks to the NFL. He also has a first-team All-America punt returner and a Freshman All-America punt returner to his credit. Shah was cited by ESPN.com in 2014 as one of "10 coaches who adapt and thrive." He was a practicing attorney before becoming a coach at Utah.

FREDDIE WHITTINGHAM

Tight Ends
Recruiting Coordinator
4th Year

Now in his fourth season as Utah's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator, Freddie Whittingham has helped develop Utah's roster for the past seven years. Before moving to the sidelines, Whittingham was Utah's director of player personnel from 2012-15, managing all aspects of recruiting administration and organization, directing camps and clinics and serving as the program's NFL liaison. He is the younger brother of Utah head coach Kyle Whittingham.

GUY HOLLIDAY

Wide Receivers
4th Year

Fourth-year Utah wide receivers coach Guy Holliday is a 26-year veteran of college coaching, including more than two decades coaching receivers and six years as an offensive coordinator. Holliday has had 22 wide receivers sign with NFL teams, among them former Ute Tim Patrick. Holliday's previous FBS coaching stops were at BYU (2013-15), Western Michigan (2000-02), Mississippi State (2003-06) and UTEP (2008-12). He also coached at Clark-Atlanta, Tuskegee, Alabama State and Cornell.

KIEL MCDONALD

Running Backs
3rd Year

Third-year running backs coach Kiel McDonald has produced a 1,000-yard rusher in his first two seasons at Utah. Zack Moss rushed for 1,173 yards as a sophomore and 1,096 yards in just nine games in 2018, when he was named second-team All-Pac-12. Before coming to Utah, McDonald spent five years at Eastern Washington (2012-16), where he was also the co-special teams' coordinator. The Eagles made the FCS playoffs four times, advancing to the national semifinals in 2012, 2013 and 2016.

SIONE PO'UHA

Defensive Tackles
1st Year

Former Ute and NFL defensive tackle Sione Po'uha (pronounced see-oh-nee bo-oo-ha) returned to his alma mater as a full-time assistant coach in December of 2018. Po'uha coaches the defensive tackles—the same position he held at Navy last season. Po'uha's first game on the Ute coaching staff was the 2018 Holiday Bowl. He got his career start as a Utah student-assistant coach in 2015-16, becoming Utah's director of football player development in 2017 before landing his first full-time job at Navy.

LEWIS POWELL

Defensive Ends
5th Year

Lewis Powell is in his fifth season as a Ute assistant coach and his fourth working with the defensive line. His primary responsibility is the defensive ends. Powell has coached an All-American, three All-Pac-12 defensive linemen and four NFL players since his return to Utah, where he was a graduate assistant from 2009-10 and an administrative assistant in 2011. Utah led the Pac-12 in rushing defense in 2016 and 2018 and led the league in sacks and tackles for loss in 2016.

COLTON SWAN

Linebackers
1st Year

Linebacker Colton Swan joined the Utah staff in January after coaching 15 seasons under five head coaches at Weber State. Swan worked with the linebackers seven of his years at Weber. He was the Wildcats' co-defensive coordinator from 2009-11 and a special teams coordinator from 2014-18. He also coached the safeties (2006-08) and tight ends (2014-16). Weber State won Big Sky championships in 2017-18 and made the FCS playoffs from 2016-18, advancing to the quarterfinals in 2017 and 2018.

2019 SPRING PROSPECTUS

GAME 1 - August 30

Weber State	10	Salt Lake City
Utah	41	Rice-Eccles Stadium (45,988)

SALT LAKE CITY—Two early turnovers led to a 10-0 Weber State lead before Utah reeled off 41 unanswered points to run away with a 41-10 win before a standing room crowd of 45,988 at Rice-Eccles Stadium. The Wildcats clawed out just 59 yards of total offense (36 through three quarters against the first string defense)—the third fewest by a Utah opponent in program history. Zack Moss rushed for 150 yards, including an 86-yard touchdown run that was the fourth-longest rush in Utah history. In his return to action after a two-year absence, Britain Covey finished with 79 receiving and 38 rushing yards. True freshman tight ends Cole Fotheringham and Brant Kuithe scored on their first college receptions. John Penisini had a team-high six tackles, including three of Utah's 12 tackles for loss.

GAME 2 - September 8

Utah	17	DeKalb, Ill.
Northern Illinois	6	Huskie Stadium (16,762)

DEKALB, Ill.—Utah scored 10 points in the final 4:38 to pull away for a 17-6 road win over Northern Illinois. Leading by just a single point (7-6) down the stretch, the Utes got some breathing room when Matt Gay drilled a 40-yard field goal for a 10-6 lead. Two minutes later, Chase Hansen intercepted a pass and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown. Hansen also made the play that ended the game with his tackle for loss on fourth down. Other than Britain Covey's career-tying 129 receiving yards, Utah's offense struggled. However, the Huskies couldn't solve a Ute defense that allowed just 228 total yards and two field goals. Cody Barton (12) and Hansen (12) had double-digit tackles to pace the Utes and Hansen's final line also included an interception, 2.0 sacks (2.5 tackles for loss) and a fumble recovery.

GAME 3 - September 15

Washington (#10)	21	Salt Lake City
Utah	7	Rice-Eccles Stadium (47,445)

SALT LAKE CITY—Utah held No. 10 Washington to just 327 total yards of offense—nearly 200 below its season average—but fell 21-7 before the sixth-largest crowd (47,445) in Rice-Eccles Stadium history. Cody Barton and Chase Hansen each had 11 tackles to lead the Ute defense and defensive tackle Pita Tonga returned his first career interception 21 yards to the Husky 11-yard line. The Utes, who were 1-of-3 inside the red zone, couldn't capitalize on Tonga's pick, turning the ball over on downs with a dropped pass on the 2-yard line. It was one of numerous drops on a night when Tyler Huntley completed 20-of-38 passes for 138 yards (1 INT). Britain Covey had his third-straight 100-yard all-purpose game with 133 yards (54 receiving, 77 punt return, 2 rushing).

Washington State	28	Martin Stadium (30,088)

PULLMAN, Wash.—Zack Moss rushed for 106 yards and a touchdown and Tyler Huntley added 88 rushing yards and two touchdowns in a 28-24 loss at Washington State. The Utes held the Cougars to zero rushing yards, although the nation's second-ranked passing team produced 445 yards through the air. Matt Gay's 41-yard field goal in the third quarter gave Utah a 27-24 lead that held until WSU scored with 4:14 remaining. The Utes advanced to the Cougar 36-yard line on their final series before backpedaling from two penalties and turning the ball over on downs. Corrión Ballard had an interception, three tackles and two pass breakups and Chase Hansen contributed a team-high seven tackles.

Utah	40	Stanford, Calif.
Stanford (#14)	21	Stanford Stadium (37,244)

STANFORD, Calif.—Behind four takeaways, a 160-yard rushing game by Zack Moss and 4-of-4 field goal kicking by Matt Gay, Utah beat No. 14 Stanford 40-21 for its first Pac-12 win of the season. The Utes, who improved to 4-0 all-time in Stanford Stadium, jumped to a 21-0 lead and led 24-7 at the half. The Cardinal closed within six points (27-21) in the third quarter before Utah pulled away with a 13-0 fourth-quarter run. The Utes scored 17 points off turnovers, including a 100-yard interception return for a touchdown by Jaylon Johnson. Tyler Huntley's 17-of-21 passing for 199 yards included a 57-yard touchdown bomb to Samson Nacua that gave Utah a 16-point cushion (37-21) with 7:12 remaining. Stanford's last two drives ended in lost fumbles, caused by Bradlee Anae and Javelin Guidry.

Utah (#16)	20	Tempe, Ariz.
Arizona State	38	Sun Devil Stadium (46,445)

TEMPE, Ariz.—Utah lost the game at Arizona State, 38-20, and lost quarterback Tyler Huntley for the season to an injury. Huntley played the first down of Utah's last scoring drive—a field goal by Matt Gay that cut ASU's lead to 21-20 in the third quarter—before leaving with the injury. Backup Jason Shelley came in to complete 4-of-11 passes (2-of-2 on the scoring drive) for 59 yards and an interception. The Sun Devils outscored Utah 17-0 in the fourth quarter. Zack Moss reached 1,000 rushing yards for the second year in a row with 128 yards (all in the first three quarters when he had 17 of his 18 carries) and a touchdown. Corrian Ballard and Cody Barton had 12 tackles each and Jaylon Johnson made an interception.

GAME 10 - November 10

Oregon	25	Salt Lake City
Utah	32	Rice-Eccles Stadium (46,275)

SALT LAKE CITY—In his first career start, redshirt freshman Jason Shelley completed 18-of-31 passes for 262 yards with no interceptions and rushed for both of Utah's touchdowns in a 32-25 win over Oregon. Armand Shyne, in his first start since 2016, rushed for a career-high 174 yards on 26 carries and averaged 6.7 yards per carry. Matt Gay set a school record for making six field goals (6-of-6) and tied the school record for kick-scoring points in a game with 20. He made a 55-yarder to end the first half and give Utah a 19-7 lead. Chase Hansen led the defense with 13 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for a loss (1.0 sack). Cody Barton had 11 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss (1.0 sack) and a forced fumble.

GAME 11 - November 17

Utah (#21)	30	Boulder, Colo.
Colorado	7	Folsom Field (39,360)

BOULDER, Colo.—After spotting Colorado a 7-0 lead in snowy, cold conditions, the Utes reeled off 30 straight points in a 30-7 victory to clinch the Pac-12 South division title. Former high school teammates Jason Shelley and Jaylen Dixon connected for 125 yards and a 47-yard touchdown through the air. For the game, Shelley passed for 221 yards and two touchdowns (no interceptions), and rushed for 29 yards. Matt Gay made his first three field goals (33, 31, 51 yards) to move his school record for consecutive field goals to 21 before missing from 56 yards. Colorado accumulated just 196 total yards (34 rushing) against a dominating Ute defense that totaled 16 tackles for loss and six sacks. Francis Bernard led the way with 10 tackles and 3.0 TFL. Jaylon Johnson and Marquise Blair had interceptions.

GAME 12 - November 24

BYU	27	Salt Lake City
Utah (#18)	35	Rice-Eccles Stadium (46,107)

SALT LAKE CITY—Down 20-0 at halftime, Utah exploded for 35 points in the second half (21 in the fourth quarter) for its eighth straight win against BYU, 35-27. The 20-point swing was the second-largest deficit overcome for a win in school history. Armand Shyne rushed for back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter to give Utah its first lead of the game, 28-27. After the defense stopped BYU on downs, Jason Shelley tacked on an insurance touchdown with a 33-yard rush with 1:43 remaining. Again, the Utes stopped BYU on downs, allowing Shelley to take a knee and run out the clock. In addition to holding the Cougars to 110 yards and seven points in the second half, the defense initiated Utah's rally with Julian Blackmon's pick six in the third quarter. Chase Hansen tied his career high with 13 tackles (3.0) and added a pass breakup.

GAME 13 - November 30

Utah (#17)	3	Pac-12 Championship Santa Clara, Calif.
Washington (#11)	10	Levi's Stadium (35,134)

SANTA CLARA, Calif.—An unfortunate bounce and a questionable no call at the end of the game helped No. 10 Washington escape No. 17 Utah 10-3 in the Pac-12 Championship game. In a battle between the league's two best defenses, the Huskies eked out a 3-0 halftime lead and Utah tied it up in the third quarter on a 53-yard field goal by Matt Gay. The only touchdown of the game came late in the third period when a pass bobbled by Siosa Mariner caromed off his leg and was retrieved in the air by Byron Murphy, who ran it back for a pick six. John Penisini prevented the Huskies from another score with his blocked field goal in the fourth quarter but Jason Shelley (17-of-27, 137 yards) threw his third interception of the game on the next series. Utah had one more shot, crossing midfield only to have a fourth-down pass fall incomplete after Mariner was prematurely wrapped up.

Northwestern (#22)	31	Holiday Bowl San Diego, Calif.
Utah (#17)	20	SDCCU Stadium (47,007)

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Utah jumped to a 20-3 first half lead only to commit a flurry of third-quarter turnovers that allowed Northwestern to charge back for a 31-20 win in the Holiday Bowl. All four of Utah's turnovers in the third quarter (2 interceptions, 2 lost fumbles) resulted in Wildcat touchdowns. Neither team scored in the fourth quarter. Jason Shelley finished the game 27-of-45 passing for a career-high 302 yards and two touchdowns, but turned the ball over three times on two interceptions and a fumble. Receiver Jaylen Dixon had 114 yards and a touchdown reception, but also lost a fumble in the third quarter. In their final game as Utes, senior safeties Corrión Ballard (10 tackles, 2.5 TFL, 1.0 sack) and Marquise Blair (9 tackles, 1 INT) led the defense.
