Utes To Compete in the Baton Rouge Regional

The No. 6 Ute gymnasts will open NCAA tournament play on Friday, Apr. 5 in the Baton Rouge Regional second round. The Utes will compete at 2 p.m. CT/1 p.m. MT against No. 11 Minnesota, BYU and Arkansas in semifinal one in LSU's Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Friday's second semifinal features No. 3 LSU, No. 14 Auburn, Arizona State and the winner of a play-in between George Washington and Lindenwood. The top two teams from both semifinals will advance to the regional final on Saturday, Apr. 6 at 7 p.m. CT/6 p.m. MT. The semis and final will be televised on SECN+. In addition, ESPN 700 radio will broadcast Utah competition.

What's at Stake

Two teams from all four regional sites (Baton Rouge, Ann Arbor, Athens, Corvallis) will qualify for the NCAA Championships in Fort Worth, Texas, Apr. 19-20. The Utes are attempting to advance to a record 44th-consecutive national championship. Utah is the only program to qualify for the last 43 national championships, dating back to 1976 and including all 37 NCAA Championships (began in 1982).

Four on the Floor

This season marks the first time that the women's gymnastics tournament will feature a four-team format all the way through the NCAA Championship final. It is a change from the six-team format

All-Time All-American

With her four 2019 regular season All-America awards, MyKayla Skinner has become Utah's all-time leader in All-America awards with 22 (regular season and NCAA Championship combined). Skinner passed former Ute great Ashley Postell who was a 20-time All-American from 2005-08. All of Postell's awards were won at the NCAA Championships, where she earned the maximum number of 20 possible (the WCGA began awarding regular season All-America honors in 2013). Nineteen of Skinner's 22 All-America honors are first team (eight NCAA, 11 regular season) and the remaining three are second team. She has two NCAA individual championships (floor in 2017 and vault in 2018).

The Utes have hit 279-of-286 routines ... Gymnasts who have hit every routine without a fall are Skinner (45-45), Lee (44-44), Macey Roberts (24-24), Randall (21-21), Hunter Dula (10-10), Cristal Isa (7-7) and Shannon McNatt (6-6).

Ute Insider

MyKayla Skinner won floor (10.0) and vault at the Pac-12 Championship. She now has seven career Pac-12 golds (3 floor, 2 vault, 2 all-around), which is tied for second in conference history behind Oregon State's Joy Selig, who won nine titles from 1988-91 ... Skinner performs the most difficult vault and floor routines in NCAA gymnastics. Her vault is a Yurchenko double and her floor routine opens with a double twisting double back and ends with a full in. She also performs double back dismounts on both bars and beam and the difficult straddled Ray release move on bars—all rarities in college gymnastics ... MaKenna Merrell-Giles is wearing a half tennis ball taped to the top of her foot during her floor routine to prevent further aggravating an ankle injury ... Four Ute all-arounders have scored above a 39.500 this season: Skinner (39.750 high twice), MaKenna Merrell-Giles (39.650) and Kari Lee (39.550). They have combined to hit 136-137 routines this season ... Skinner was named the Pac-12 Gymnast of the Week four times, improving her all-time Pac-12 career record to 16.

Utah Co-Coaches

Megan Marsden and Tom Farden are in their fourth season as a co-head coaching tandem. It is Marsden's 10th year as Utah's co-head coach and her 35th year overall on the staff. Farden is in his fourth year as the co-head coach and his ninth year on the Ute coaching staff. Marsden, the Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 2014 and 2015 (with Greg Marsden), has a 217-76-3 career record as a co-coach. Farden is 85-29-1 at the Ute helm and has a career record of 156-77-1 that includes six years as the head coach at Southeast Missouri State from 2004-09.
