IN MEMORY OF TY JORDAN

Ty Jordan, a freshman running back from Mesquite, Texas, tragically lost his life on Dec. 25, 2020. The Utah Department of Athletics has established the Ty Jordan Memorial Scholarship in his honor. The football team wore a logo honoring Jordan on their helmets during the 2021 Spring Game with the letters LLTJ standing for: Long Live Ty Jordan.

In a shortened five-game debut season, Jordan earned the Pac-12's Offensive Freshman of the Year award by vote of the league's coaches and was named Pac-12 Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press. He also was named a Freshman All-American by The Athletic and 247Sports.

Pac-12 Networks was created in 2011 and features one national and six regional full-time native HD linear networks available to video programming operators, as well as a network of digital properties dedicated solely to the Pac-12. The networks televise 850 live events across 27 sports annually and provide 24/7 access to Pac-12 teams and universities.

A cable or live TV streaming subscription is needed to access live features, but with the mobile app, you can watch on the go, check scores and highlights, and tune in to your preferred Pac-12 Networks channel. The Pac-12 Now app is available on Amazon Fire TV, select Amazon Kindle and Fire devices, Apple TV, Google Chromecast, Android and iOS devices.

UTAH SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

ESPN 700 (KALL-AM) has been the radio home to University of Utah athletics since 1951. ESPN 700, which has a 50,000-watt evening and weekend signal, and a 10,000-watt daytime signal, is one of two stations in the Utah Sports Radio Network. The other is KOAL 750 AM in Price. All of Utah's games on ESPN 700 can also be heard live on the Internet at UtahUtes.com. They will also be carried by SiriusXM Satellite Radio as well as Tunein Radio.

Managing the radio network is Utes Sports Properties, a division of Learfield. Utes Sports Properties is in its fifth year as the multi-media rights partner for Utah Athletics and brokered the most recent contract extension with ESPN 700—a five-year agreement signed in the summer of 2017.

Handling the play by play for the Ute broadcasts is Bill Riley, who is in his 13th year as the "Voice of the Utes." Riley is a 28-year veteran of radio and television and has won numerous awards as both as host and play-by-play broadcaster, including twice being named Sports Broadcaster of the Year in Utah by the NSSA.

Riley is joined in the booth by former Ute quarterback Scott Mitchell, who is in his fourth season as the analyst. Mitchell played at Utah from 1987-89 and holds several of Utah's passing and total offense records. Mitchell then played in the NFL from 1990-2001, throwing for over 15,000 yards and 95 touchdowns. He was the head football coach at Springville High School from 2008-11. Former linebacker Stevenson Sylvester is in his first season as the sideline reporter. Sylvester played for the Utes from 2006-09 and was a first-team All-Mountain West selection as a senior.

Highlighting ESPN 700's game-day coverage are for hours of pre-game coverage and two-hour post-game shows that include live interviews with players and coaches and expert analysis. The Kyle Whittingham Show, hosted by Riley, airs on ESPN 700 every Tuesday during the regular season. The show is broadcast live from 6-7 p.m. MT.

Pac-12 Conference

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference continues to renew its undisputed claim as the Conference of Champions®. Beyond the courts and fields, the Pac-12's accomplishments extend into the classrooms across 12 campuses, and outside its traditional geographic footprint into new corners around the world.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 has claimed 537 NCAA Championships over 200 more than the next league. The only conference to win 500 NCAA Championships, that number includes 207 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000 and 370 since 1981-82, the start of women's sports sponsorship, for an average of over nine per year. In 2020-21, the Pac-12 captured eight NCAA team titles with men's indoor track & field (Oregon), skiing (Utah), men's water polo (UCLA), women's basketball (Stanford), men's gymnastics (Stanford), beach volleyball (USC), women's water polo (USC) and women's outdoor track & field (USC).

The Pac-12 has won the most or tied for the most NCAA titles for 16 consecutive seasons (through 2020-21), winning at least six every year from 1999-2000 to 2018-19 and a record 14 in 1996-97.

Pac-12 members have won 308 NCAA team championships on the men's side, over 80 more than the next closest conference. On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 40 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 32 occasions (through 2020-21), including every year since 2000-01 except the shortened 2019-20 campaign. Pac-12 teams have captured 197 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,300 individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with over 1,300 by male student-athletes. Pac-12 women student-athletes have captured an unmatched 800-plus NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season. Student-athletes have also captured over 180 individual titles at combined championships (i.e., skiing and fencing).

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford won an unprecedented 25th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2018-19 to lead the Conference with at least five member institutions earning scores in the top 25 each year of the Directors' Cup program. Stanford placed second in 2020-21, followed by four other teams in the top 25: USC (6), UCLA (13), Arizona State (20) and Oregon (25).

LEAGUE HISTORY

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference celebrated its Centennial year in 2015-16. The roots of the league go back to Dec. 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools—the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference. The Pac-12 Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years, and was succeeded by Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009. George Kliavkoff began his tenure as the Pac-12 Commissioner on July 1, 2021.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 13 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.

2021-22 Bowl Schedule

PAC-12 BOWL ARRANGEMENTS

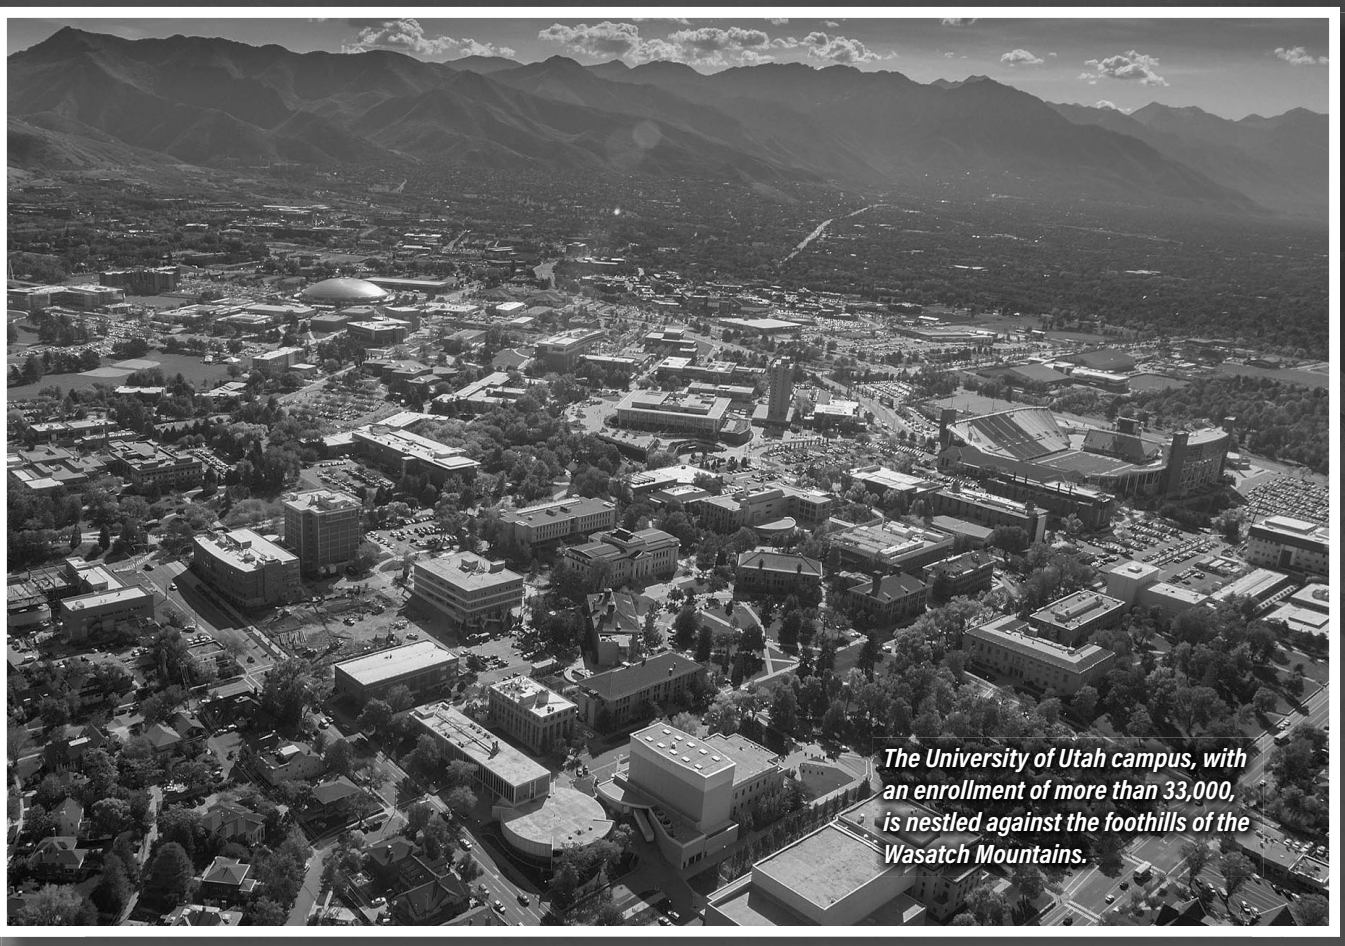

The Pac-12 Conference has agreements with seven bowl partners for the 2021 season. The lineup is led by the Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual on New Year's Day, which is the primary destination for the Pac-12 champion. However, in years when the Pac-12 champion is ranked in the top four of the College Football Playoff rankings and/or the Rose Bowl hosts one of the two national semifinal games, the Pac-12's top team could be sent elsewhere. A second Pac-12 team could also be selected for the College Football Playoff.

This year, the College Football Playoff semifinals will be hosted by the Capitol One Orange Bowl and the Goodyear Cotton Bowl on Dec. 31. The College Football Playoff Championship Game takes place in Indianapolis on Jan. 10.

In addition to the Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual, Pac-12 bowl partners include the Valero Alamo Bowl in San Antonio (No. 2 pick), the SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl (No. 3 pick), the San Diego County Credit Union Holiday Bowl in San Diego (No. 4 pick), the Tony the Tiger Sun Bowl in El Paso (No. 5 pick), the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl (No. 6 pick) and the Red Box Bowl in Santa Clara (No. 7 pick).

Utah Athletics History

Utah clinched the first of its back-to-back Pac-12 Conference South Division titles in 2018 with a win at Colorado.

The latest chapter in Ute athletics history began on July 1, 2011, when Utah officially became a member of the Pac-12 Conference. But Utah's reputation as an athletics power was established long before it joined the "Conference of Champions."

The move to the Pac-12 has fueled some of Utah's most successful seasons across a broad spectrum of sports in recent years. Skiing was crowned the NCAA Champion three of the last four years the event was staged in 2017, '19 and '21. Gymnastics has captured four Pac-12 Conference Championships as well as two regular-season league titles, and has advanced to four of the last seven NCAA finals. Football played in back-to-back Pac-12 Conference Championship games in 2018 and '19 after winning the South Division. Volleyball advanced to the NCAA regional semifinals for the second time in three years in 2019. In the fall of 2019, Utah had its highest ranking ever in the Learfield/IMG College Director's Cup at No. 18.

Baseball captured the 2016 Pac-12 Conference title—the school's first for a men's sport since joining the league—and softball made back-to-back NCAA Super Regional appearances in 2016 and '17. Soccer made the NCAA regional semifinals in 2016, while cross country made its third NCAA Championship appearance in five years in 2019. Men's tennis advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2018 and '19, and men's golf qualified for NCAA Regionals in 2021.

Utah claims 28 team national championships and 112 individual national titles in its history, including 78 in skiing and 29 in women's gymnastics.

Football has a 691-469-31 all-time record in 127 seasons. In the mid-1990s, the Utes evolved into a national force and won nine consecutive bowl games from 1999-2009, tying for the second-longest bowl winning streak on record. The original "BCS Buster," Utah has gone 2-0 in games that are now part of the CFP New Year's Six with wins in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl (Pittsburgh) and 2009 Sugar Bowl (Alabama). The Utes have finished in the Top 25 national polls 10 times, including a No. 2 ranking in 2008, No. 4 in 2004 and No. 10 in 1994. Utah has sold out every game fans have been allowed to attend in Rice-Eccles Stadium since the 2010 opener.

Men's Basketball has thrived throughout its history, winning an NCAA Championship in 1944 and finishing as the runner-up in 1998. The Runnin' Utes also won national championships in 1916 (AAU) and 1947 (NIT). Utah advanced to its 10th NCAA Sweet 16 in 2015. Utah ranks in the NCAA's top 25 in all-time victories (1,848) and winning percentage (.641). Utah's 29 NCAA Tournament appearances and 38 NCAA Tournament wins also rank in the top 30.

Women's Gymnastics boasts 10 national championships and finished as the runner-up for the ninth time in 2015. Utah is the only school to qualify for all 39 NCAA Gymnastics Championships and has captured the most All-America awards. The Red Rocks also claimed the school's first-ever Pac-12 Championship in 2014 and captured the postseason trophy again in '15, '17 and '21. Utah has captured the first two Pac-12 regular season titles in 2020 and '21. Utah holds every gymnastics attendance record, including highest single-meet attendance (16,019 in 2015) and highest season attendance average (15,273 in 2020). Utah has led the nation in gymnastics attendance 36 times and won its 10th all-women's sports attendance title in 2019-20.

Women's Basketball has averaged more than 20 wins a season since its start back in 1974-75 and ranks in the NCAA top 25 in all-time winning percentage (.665). The Ute women have received 17 NCAA Tournament invites since 1982, advancing to the Sweet 16 twice and the Elite Eight in 2006. They have won 22 conference championships.

The Men's and Women's Ski Team has captured 13 NCAA Championships and 14 national titles all time, the last coming in 2021. Volleyball has participated in 17 of the last 23 NCAA Tournaments with four Sweet 16 finishes. Softball has qualified for the postseason 21 times (16 NCAA Regionals, 2 Super Regionals) and has five College World Series appearances (four NCAA). Women's Soccer has played in the NCAA Tournament eight times since 2002. Baseball has advanced to NCAA Regionals twice since 2009, the last coming during its Pac-12 championship season in 2016.

Other Ute athletic highlights include: Men's Tennis (2018 and '19 NCAA Championships, 24 conference championships), Women's Tennis (three-consecutive NCAA appearances from 2010-12), Men's Swimming and Diving (No. 22 NCAA finish in 2015, 24 conference championships), Women's Swimming and Diving (2006 MWC champion), Women's Cross Country (2015, '16 and '19 NCAA Championships, and 1981 AIAW Division II National Champion) and Men's Golf (2021 NCAA Regionals)

SUCCESS IN THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Utah has captured three division titles in football, the 2016 baseball championship, two regular season and four postseason women's gymnastics titles since moving to the Pac-12 Conference in 2011.

Featuring the majestic 11,000-foot peaks of the Wasatch Mountains to the east, and the Great Salt Lake and Oquirrh Mountains to the west, Salt Lake City is surrounded by majestic views in all directions. U.S. News & World Report ranked Salt Lake City as one of the "top 15 best places to live" in recent years and graded Utah as the "No. 3 Best State" in 2021. Its metro area population of 1.1 million ranks in the top 50 in the United States.

LIVING IN SALT LAKE

Named one of America's top-five friendliest and most-attractive cities by Travel+Leisure magazine, Salt Lake is the largest city in the state with 200,544 residents. The population along the Wasatch Front, which includes Ogden and Provo, has grown exponentially the last six years to more than 2.4 million.

Its literacy rate, percentage of high school graduates, and percentage of college-educated citizens ranks among the best in the nation. Salt Lake has a moderate four-season climate, averaging 237 days of sunshine per year and 15% humidity.

With projects ranging from the renovation of historic buildings to the construction of new office towers, condominiums and apartments, a growing number of people not only work but live in the downtown area, and one in six residents is now in their 20s. Citing professional opportunities and quality of life, Rent.com ranked Salt Lake City the "most desirable place in the country for millennials to live" in 2020.

ENTERTAINMENT

Salt Lake City features a wide range of dining options, live music, two large modern malls, a diverse array of specialty stores, art galleries, professional symphony, opera, theater, dance, and cultural and ethnic festivals. It was rated as having the "No. 5 Best Downtown in America" by Livability.com in recent years.

The city played host to the 2002 Winter Olympics. The opening and closing ceremonies and the athletes' village were located on the U. campus. Salt Lake City annually joins forces with nearby resort town Park City to host the Sundance Film Festival.

Professional sports franchises in Salt Lake City include the Utah Jazz of the NBA, Real Salt Lake of Major League Soccer and Utah Royals of the National Women's Soccer League. Other franchises are the Salt Lake Bees (AAA baseball), Utah Grizzlies (hockey), Utah Warriors (Major League Rugby), the Real Monarchs (USL soccer).

OUTDOOR RECREATION

Some of the best skiing, fly fishing, hiking, mountain biking, rock climbing and river running found anywhere in the world is easily accessible. Eleven major ski resorts are within an hour drive from "Ski City" with Snowbird and Alta annually ranked among the "Top 10 in North America" by Forbes. Ten national parks are within a day's drive.

With so many recreational opportunities so readily available, Salt Lake was recognized as the eighth-fittest city in America by the Huffington Post and first for life expectancy by Livability.com.

BUSINESS

Forbes has named Utah the "Best State for Business and Careers" six times in the past 10 years, recognizing Salt Lake City as one of the major industrial banking, healthcare and transportation centers in the U.S. Utah's employment has expanded at the third-best rate in the U.S. over the past five years. Several publications have taken note of Salt Lake's high number of creative class workers—including artists, scientists, engineers, and others in technology fields—with the "Silicon Slopes" growing exponentially on the south end of the metro area. A study released by the Kem C. Gardner Policy Institute in the fall of 2019 rated Utah's tech job growth as the second fastest in the nation at 4.9 percent per year over the last 10 years. Amazon rated Utah the "Most Entrepreneurial State" in 2018. The Salt Lake Convention Center will add a new 740-room anchor hotel in the fall of 2022.

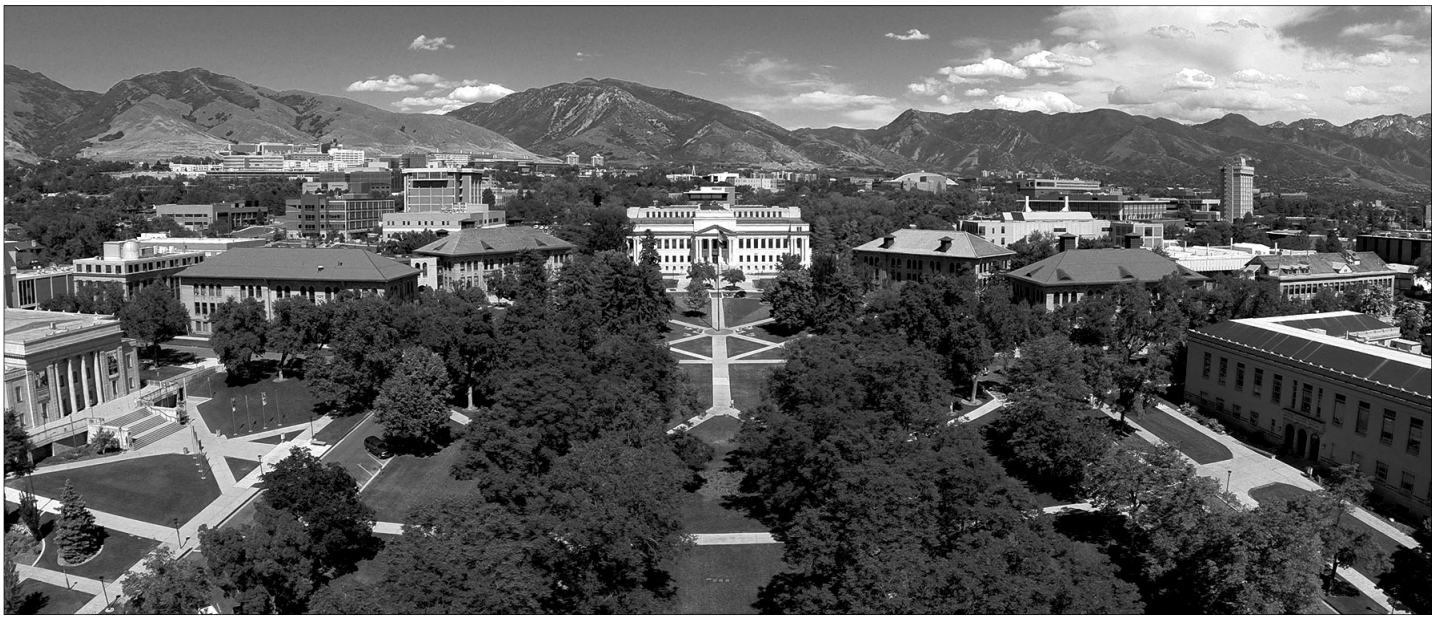

TRANSPORTATION

Salt Lake International, a Delta Airlines hub and one of America's best "on-time" airports, is located just 20 minutes from campus and has undergone a $3.6 billion redevelopment. It offers direct flights to 84 U.S. destinations and 11 international cities and handled 26.8 million passengers in 2019. TRAX light rail provides access to downtown Salt Lake, the University of Utah, the airport and many of the suburbs.

BEST CITY

The hub for one of Forbes' best states for business and careers, one of America's most livable downtowns, and the gateway to some of the best outdoor recreation anywhere, Salt Lake City has something for everyone.

The new Kahlert Village south campus housing development, featuring four theme communities and nearly 1,000 beds, opened in the fall of 2020.

A TOP TIER UNIVERSITY

The U joined the prestigious Association of American Universities in 2019. Utah is now one of 65 AAU institutions, with only 34 of those members coming from Power 5 conferences.

Utah Traditions

Time to "Light the U" and sing the school fight song with the MUSS after another Utah home victory.

The University of Utah officially adopted the nickname "Utes" for its athletic teams in 1972. The school uses the nickname with permission of the Ute Tribal Council.

"What is a Ute?" The Utes are an Indian tribe that originally settled Utah. Two of the more common definitions of Ute are "top of the mountains" and "people of the mountains." Other references have Ute defined as "land of the sun." The Utes refer to themselves as "Noochew," meaning "the People."

There are four Ute tribes: The Northern and White Mesa Tribes are based in Utah, while the Southern and Ute Mountain Tribes are in Colorado. The Northern Utes are most closely affiliated with the University of Utah and have a tribal membership of around 3,000. Many of them live on the Uintah and Ouray reservation. The Utes operate their own tribal government, oversee approximately 1.3 million acres of trust land and operate several businesses.

"The Pride of Utah" Marching Utes began in the 1940s as a military band. In the turbulent '60s, support for the band dwindled, and in 1969, the Associated Students for the University of Utah (ASUU) discontinued its funding. The band was revived in 1976, and since then, the "Pride of Utah" Marching Utes have performed at all home football games, as well as numerous NFL and college bowl games.

To the victor goes the Beehive Boot. The authentic pioneer boot has been awarded annually since 1971 to the Utah school with the best record against instate foes. The schools that compete for the boot are Utah, BYU and Utah State. In its 46-year history, the Beehive Boot has been awarded to Utah 18 times (1978, '88, '93, '94, '95, '99, 2002, '03, '04, '05, '08, '11, '13, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19), BYU 22 times and Utah State 10 times.

The Block U (elevation 5,300 feet above sea level) was built on Mount Van Cott bordering the Utah campus in 1907. Originally built with limestone, the Block U was later replaced by a cement version. In 1969, the design was modified and 124 lights were installed. A fund-raising campaign in 2006 raised $400,000 to renovate the aging landmark. Slabs of concrete and steel rebar now reinforce the 5,000-square feet of surface area.

Another major improvement was the installation of LED red and white lights, which are controlled through a wireless system. Lights on the 100-foot-tall landmark are illuminated primarily for athletic events and to notify people in the Salt Lake valley that the Utes are playing at home. After Utah victories, the football team gathers in front of the MUSS to Light the U and sing the school fight song.

SWOOP

Utah introduced its mascot in 1996. "Swoop" represents a red-tailed hawk, a bird indigenous to the state of Utah.

Meet Us in the MUSS

The MUSS, one of the most avid and vocal student fan clubs in the nation, is nearly 6,000 strong at Ute home football games. The name MUSS was originally derived from the school fight song lyrics (... No rival band of college fans dare meet us in the muss). Members now refer to MUSS as an acronym for "Mighty Utah Student Section."

The MUSS turns 20 years old this season. Originally known as the Student Fan Club and the Utah Fan Club, the group adopted the name MUSS for the 2002 football season.

MUSS members are easily identified by their customized t-shirts and their policy of standing throughout the entire game. They have a number of other traditions during football games, including the Third Down Jump, in which members jump around and make noise every time the opposing team prepares for a third down play. Other rituals include the U of U Chop, which occurs every time the band plays a specific percussion song and involves MUSS members forming a U with their hands and "chopping" to the beat of the music, and the First Down Chant (members raise their hands in unison, yelling "first down," and mimic the referees by pointing their arm in the direction of the first down).

The line of "fives" hanging in front of the MUSS section refers to the False Start Tally. Whenever the opposing team is charged with a false start, the MUSS hangs a numeral five in front of its section indicating a five-yard penalty.

Every time the Utes score, the band plays the school fight song, signaling the MUSS to sing along to the words of the Utah Fight Song. After every game, Ute team members congregate in front of the MUSS section and join in the singing of the Utah Fight Song.

Watch for the MUSS to regularly "Throw up a U," a tradition that began at the Utah women's gymnastics meets in 2001 and soon caught on with all the Ute teams and fans. It involves forming the U mentioned in the U of U Chop and raising it toward the sky.

The MUSS currently sponsors fan clubs for the Utah football, men's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics teams. The football team began sporting a MUSS decal on the back of its helmets in 2004.

UTAH FIGHT SONG

VERSE
I am a Utah man/fan, sir, and I live across the green. Our gang, it is the jolliest that you have ever seen. Our students are the finest and each one's a shining star. Our yell, you hear it ringing through the mountains near and far.

CHORUS
Who am I, sir? A Utah Man or/Fan am I. A Utah Man or/Fan, sir, and will be 'til I die; Ki-yi!

VERSE
We're up to snuff; we never bluff, we're game for any fuss. No rival band of college fans dare meet us in the muss. So fill your lungs and sing it out and shout it to the sky, we'll fight for dear old Crimson, for a Utah Man or/Fan am I.

CHORUS (same)

VERSE
And when we prom the avenue, all lined up in a row, and arm in arm and step in time as down the street we go. No matter if a freshman green or in a senior's gown, the people all admit we are the warmest gang in town.

CHORUS (same)

VERSE
We may not live forever on this jolly good old sphere, but while we do we'll live a life of merriment and cheer. And when our college days are o'er and night is drawing nigh, with parting breath we'll sing that song: "A Utah Man or/Fan Am I." Go Utes!

"Athletics opened the door for me to receive an education that otherwise would not have been accessible to me. To earn a degree and play football for the University of Utah has been an experience that brought countless memories and lessons learned. None of this would have been possible without the support of my Utah family."

With its striking design, stunning mountain backdrop and panoramic views, Rice-Eccles Stadium is recognized as one of the most beautiful college stadiums in the country. While the exterior scenery is captivating, the charged atmosphere inside Rice-Eccles Stadium makes it one of the 25 "toughest stadiums in the country" for opposing teams according to Bleacher Report.

It is also a venue that has taken on a significantly different look for this fall as an $80 million expansion and renovation was completed this past summer. The project was funded in part by a lead gift of $17.5 million from the Ken Garff family, which is the largest donation in Utah Athletics history. The new south end zone structure is named the Ken Garff Red Zone at Rice-Eccles Stadium.

"The success of our student-athletes and our department relies on the extraordinary generosity of our supporters, and the Garff family has been instrumental in elevating Utah Athletics to unimaginable heights," said Director of Athletics Mark Harlan. "This transformational commitment from the Garffs will impact thousands of student-athletes, staff, coaches and fans for years to come, and we are forever grateful for their kindness and support of our University."

No state or taxpayer dollars were used for the project. The former south end zone structure, built in 1982, was the only piece of old Rice Stadium retained when the current structure opened on the same grounds in 1998. The project encloses the stadium bowl by connecting the east and west concourses on the south end.

Seating capacity was increased from 45,807 to 51,444 with the addition of over 1,000 bleacher seats. The fan experience has been enhanced by the addition of premium seating options in luxury suites, loge boxes, ledge and rooftop areas. A field-level club and outdoor patio, recruiting lounge, and restaurant are also included in the new structure, as are additional points of sale for concessions and restrooms.

Addressing the need for improved game day operations, the Ken Garff Red Zone at Rice-Eccles Stadium includes team locker rooms and meeting rooms, as well as dedicated areas for coaches, officials, athletic training, equipment, press operations and the band. The 7,800-square foot south end zone videoboard remains in its current place.

Fueling the expansion has been Utah's tremendous fan support in recent years. Entering this season, the Utes have played in front of 64-straight home sellouts (60 which exceeded the seating capacity) when fans were allowed to attend extending back to the 2010 opener against Pittsburgh. In its first 23 years, there have been 83 total standing-room-only crowds.

The venue's seating capacity was increased from 45,017 to 45,807 in 2014, and as a result, the top six season attendance averages and 12 of the top 15 single-game crowds in Rice-Eccles Stadium history were recorded over the next six years. The Utes averaged a school-record 46,533 fans per game in 2015, when they also recorded their best single-game attendance mark of 47,825 vs. Michigan. Dating back to its 13-0 Sugar Bowl campaign of 2008, Utah's average attendance has exceeded the stadium's capacity for 12 consecutive years.

Opened in 1998 on the grounds of the old Ute (1927-71) and Rice (1972-97) stadiums, Rice-Eccles Stadium has continued to receive upgrades in ensuing years. The latest was a state-of-the-art video scoreboard completed in the summer of

Rice-Eccles Stadium

THIS FALL ...
Rice-Eccles Stadium has undergone an $84 million south end zone renovation and expansion that will open for the 2021 season.

2016. Measuring 122 x 64 feet and rising 137 feet above ground, it is one of the largest college football video boards in the country. It features a high definition display with a 16:9 aspect ratio. The enhanced software to run the board delivers some of the best special effects in the sports industry and synchronizes with the LED boards in the north end zone.

Another improvement in 2016 was a distributed sound system that enhances the sound quality in every section of Rice-Eccles Stadium while also reducing noise to the surrounding community.

Rice-Eccles Stadium has also hosted a number of other major sporting events, the most prominent being the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2002 Salt Lake Olympic Winter Games.

The initial groundwork for Rice-Eccles Stadium began in 1996, when a fundraising campaign was initiated to replace an aging 32,500-seat structure. A lead gift of $10 million soon came in from the George S. and Dolores Dore Eccles Foundation, steered by former Ute All-America skier Spence Eccles. The total construction costs ran $50 million.

Preliminary construction work began in the summer of 1997. Two days after the final home game that fall, wrecking crews moved in and demolished Rice Stadium. Only the south end zone bleachers and the Rice name (Robert L. Rice contributed $1 million in the 1972 renovation) would carry over to the new venue. Rising from the rubble less than 10 months later was Rice-Eccles Stadium, an imposing concrete, steel and glass edifice that dominates the Salt Lake skyline.

Visible for miles is the stadium box, located 14 stories above ground and encased in a 400-square-foot expanse of tempered glass. The box is supported by twin towers containing four high-speed elevators. Occupants of the stadium box are treated to sweeping views of the Wasatch Mountains to the east and downtown Salt Lake City, the Great Salt Lake and the Oquirrh Mountains to the west.

The Cleone and Spence Eccles Scholarship Box on Level 4 seats 450 and has indoor-outdoor seating, along with eight suites. The Mezzanine on Level 5 provides another 17 suites.

Level 6 contains the John Mooney Working Press Area, named in honor of the late Ute football writer and Salt Lake Tribune sports editor, and booths for television and radio (among them the Bill Marcroft Radio Booth, named for the former longtime "Voice of the Utes"). The press, TV and radio sections open into the Varsity Reception area, which seats 400 for dining.

The stadium floor has also changed with the times. A Vertex CORE FieldTurf surface was installed in July, marking the fourth version of FieldTurf laid down in Rice-Eccles since 2002. Previous surfaces (dating back to Ute Field) were natural grass from 1927-71 and again in 2000-01, AstroTurf from 1972-95 and SportGrass from 1995-99.

Spence & Cleone Eccles Football Center

The Utes call home one of the premier training facilities in all of college athletics. The Spence and Cleone Eccles Football Center, a 150,000-square foot, $32 million, state-of-the-art building, was officially dedicated in August of 2013.

The Spence F. and Cleone P. Eccles Family Foundation supplied the lead gift for the facility, with additional major grants from the George S. and Dolores Doré Eccles Foundation and the Sorenson Legacy Foundation.

The Eccles Football Center is equally beautiful as it is functional. The three-story structure features two courtyards and large sweeping glass windows, which provide picturesque views of the Wasatch Mountains to the south and east, and downtown Salt Lake City and the Oquirrh Mountains to the west.

The facility includes a 6,500-square foot locker room. Each of the program's 125 players is allocated a custom-crafted locker with roomy and ventilated space, and secure storage for personal belongings. Charging stations for portable electronic devices are also included.

A spacious 3,600-square foot players' lounge, featuring numerous large flat-screen HD televisions, billiard games, a hydration station and group study areas, spills out to a sprawling two-tiered observation deck overlooking the practice fields. Providing great views of the Salt Lake valley and Rice-Eccles Stadium, the deck has already proven to be a popular place for team get-togethers and alumni events.

The facility houses over 47,000-square feet of offices, meeting rooms and an auditorium. Each member of the coaching staff is provided with a professional and comfortable office, equipped with the latest technology for maximum efficiency. The building also features a new and expanded 6,500-square foot Utah Football Hall of Fame.

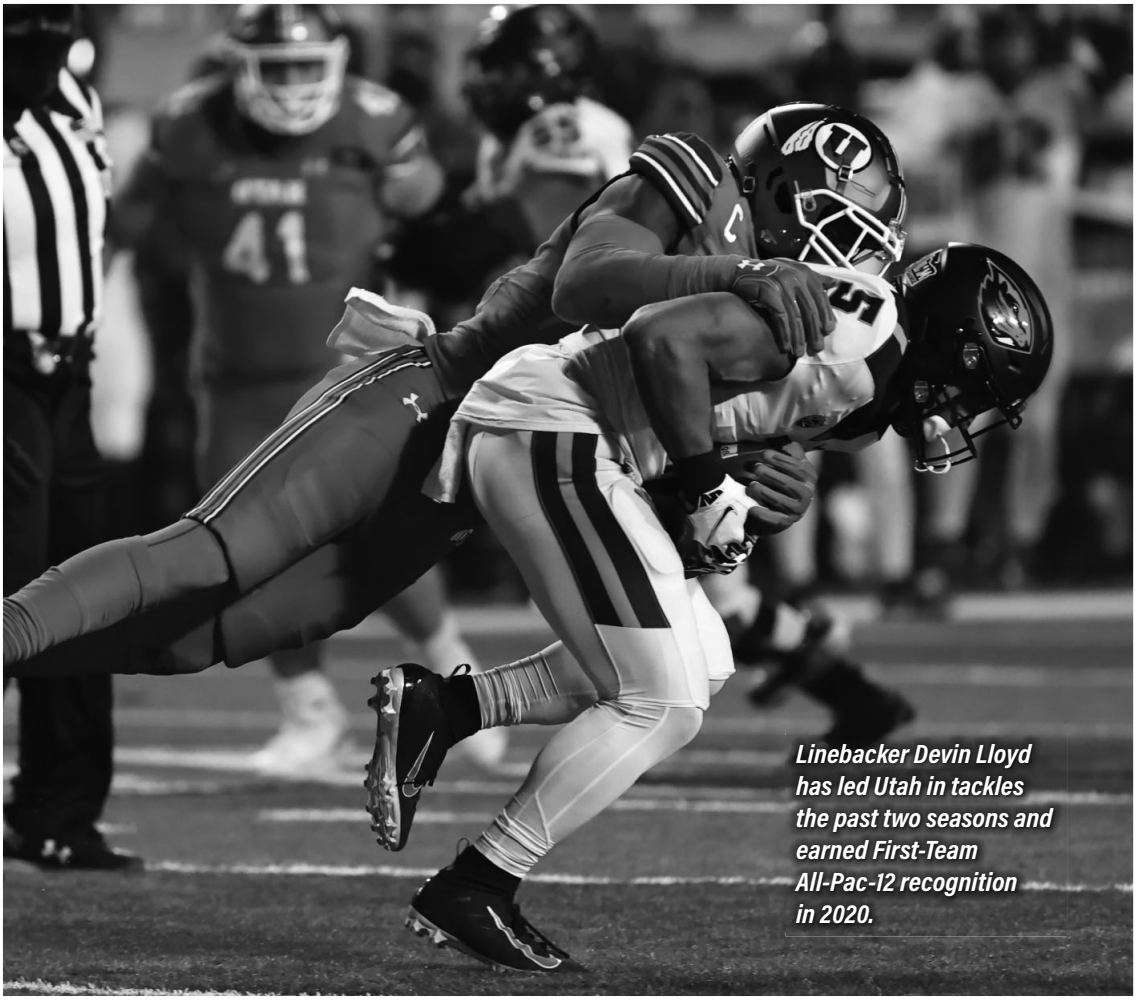

And, the building isn't just for football; the training, rehabilitation and nutritional needs of every Utah student-athlete have been enhanced greatly by the new facility. The Zane Beadles Athletic Training Room, a technologically advanced 17,000-square foot space, includes a dedicated hydrotherapy center and allows the Utah sports medicine staff to utilize cutting edge rehabilitation and therapy techniques. The building also houses a 250-seat cafeteria, serving meals tailored to the specific diets of student-athletes.

The Eccles Football Center is attached to the 19,000-square foot Alex Smith Sports Performance Center, which opened in the summer of 2009. The Spence Eccles Field House, a 74,000-square foot indoor training facility that opened in 2004, sits adjacent to the football center.

In terms of both amenities and size, the Utah football program is assured of having one of the finest training complexes in the nation well into the heart of this century.

STATE OF THE ART HOME OF THE UTES

- Includes 150,000-square feet of offices, meeting rooms, player and staff locker rooms, players' lounge, auditorium and two outdoor patios.

2021 Scouting Report

QUARTERBACK

THE LOWDOWN
For the second year in a row, the Utah quarterbacks will head into fall camp in a battle for the starting spot. With one returner and new faces that provide Power Five experience and young talent, the Utes are primed to lift their offense to a new level.

HEADLINERS RETURNING
After earning the starting spot in Utah's season opener in 2020, sophomore Cameron Rising suffered a season-ending injury on the first play of the second quarter. Through hard work and determination, Rising is set to return to the gridiron in fall camp to once again battle for the starting spot. Rising came to Utah after transferring from the University of Texas in 2019 where he signed as a four-star recruit and the No. 8 pro-style quarterback in the country.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT
The Texas quarterback connection on the current Utah roster is strong with the Utes adding graduate transfer Charlie Brewer (Austin, Texas/Baylor) and freshman transfer Ja'Quinden Jackson (Dallas, Texas/Univ. of Texas) in the spring. The duo competed in spring practices along with true freshman Peter Costelli (Redondo Beach, Calif./Mission Viejo HS), who was a four-star recruit and rated the No. 10 dual quarterback in the nation by 247Sports.

Quarterback Charlie Brewer, a transfer from Baylor, gave the Utes a veteran presence in the spring as Cameron Rising recovered from injury.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM SAYS
"Offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Andy Ludwig has continued to develop our quarterback position during his time here at Utah and this year will be no different. Each quarterback that will be competing in fall camp brings a different skill set to the table that can make our offense successful. Cameron Rising returns after earning the starting spot in 2020 before suffering a season-ending injury. There should be an intense competition between him and our talented newcomers in transfers Charlie Brewer and Ja'Quinden Jackson, and true freshman Peter Costelli."

OFFENSIVE LINE

THE LOWDOWN
The talent on the offensive line will run deep in 2021 with all five starters returning along with a mix of underclassmen that earned valuable playing time in 2020. The lineup includes two All-Pac-12 selections from a year ago that is headlined by one of the most versatile offensive linemen in the conference and in the nation.

HEADLINERS RETURNING
The Utes will be led by returning starters junior Nick Ford, sophomore Simi Moala, and freshmen Keaton Bills, Sataoa Laumea and Jaren Kump. Ford has been a steady staple for the Utah offensive line and will be one of just two linemen in FBS football in 2021 that has started at every position on the line. Senior Bamidele Olaseni and sophomore Braeden Daniels will also return in 2021 with starting experience with Daniels starting in 15 of the 19 games he has appeared in at Utah.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT
Utah signed two talented offensive linemen during the offseason in Michael Mokofisi (Woods Cross, Utah/Woods Cross HS) and Zereoue Williams (Phoenix, Ariz./Mountain Pointe HS). Both are three-star recruits with Williams earning all-city and all-region honors in football and all-state in basketball at Mountain Pointe and Mokofisi being named all-state and all-region at Woods Cross.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM SAYS
"We return starters at virtually every position on the offensive line this year and we are expecting this unit to take another step forward and become a strength for our offense. Nick Ford, who has started at every position on the line in his time at Utah, will lead a talented group that includes upperclassmen Simi Moala, Braeden Daniels and Bamidele Olaseni. In 2020, we had a talented bunch of newcomers earn valuable playing time with Jaren Kump, Sataoa Laumea and Keaton Bills all earning starts during the season, making this one of the deepest offensive lines we have had here at Utah."

WIDE RECEIVER

THE LOWDOWN
Strength, speed and size are three words that could be used to describe Utah's wide receiver group, providing weapons from sideline-to-sideline in 2021. Returning length on the outside, and a living and breathing video game in the slot will provide the Utah quarterbacks options all over the field, making opposing defenses struggle.

HEADLINERS RETURNING
Utah returns size in junior Solomon Enis and the dynamic duo of juniors Britain Covey and Jaylen Dixon in the slot this season. Enis and Dixon bring a wealth of experience, playing in 33 and 28 career games for the Utes, while Covey has proved to be one of the most electric players in the Pac-12. Covey is a four-time All-Pac-12 selection and has led the Utes in receiving yards three times (2015, 2018, 2020).

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT
Similar to the quarterback position, the Utah recruiting team went to work in the offseason to pick up key transfers and find young talent that will add immediate depth at the wide receiver position. True freshman Makai Cope (Culver City, Calif./Culver City HS) joined Utah during spring practices, while transfers Theo Howard (Westlake Village, Calif./Oklahoma) and Munir McClain (Atlanta, Ga./USC) will give Utah added Power Five experience in fall camp.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM SAYS
"We have a talented, athletic and savvy group of wide receivers this season that we believe will add an explosive dimension to our offense. Returning starters Britain Covey, Solomon Enis and Jaylen Dixon, mixed with Power Five experience from transfers Theo Howard and Munir McClain, will give our offense dynamic weapons at every wide receiver position on the field."

RUNNING BACK

THE LOWDOWN
While he can never be replaced, the Utah running back room will look to honor the legacy of Ty Jordan, who tragically passed away after the 2020 season. Utah has had a 1,000-yard rusher in six of the last seven years and the powerful talent representing the U. this season will look to continue that tradition in 2021.

HEADLINERS RETURNING
Utah will have a deep class of running backs in 2021, led by freshman Micah Bernard. Bernard showed his versatility as a back in 2020, playing in all five games with 15 carries and four catches. The dynamic running back played in four games on special teams in 2019 as a redshirt after coming to the Utes as an all-purpose player for Gahr HS.

2021 Scouting Report

Junior Brant Kuithe is a two-time All-Pac-12 selection at tight end.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT

Utah has once again found talent from all over the country, welcoming transfers TJ Pledger (Pacoima, Calif./Oklahoma) and Chris Curry (Fort Myers, Fla./LSU), and true freshman Ricky Parks (Tampa, Fla./Gaither HS). Pledger and Curry both bring College Football Playoff experience with Curry starting in LSU's National Championship game in 2019 while Parks was rated the No. 14 running back nationally as a four-star recruit.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM SAYS

"Utah Football has long been known for having a tough, physical run game year after year and this group is ready to prove that they can continue to carry on that tradition. Returner Micah Bernard showed his versatility in 2020 and will be joined by a group of newcomers that includes Power Five and College Football Playoff experience in Chris Curry and TJ Pledger, along with true freshman Ricky Parks who was highly recruited and considered one of the best high school running backs in the country."

TIGHT END

THE LOWDOWN

The tight end position is used in a variety of ways for teams across the country, but at Utah, they are the true definition of a hybrid. Size, versatility and tenacity describes Utah's tight end group for the 2021 season and they will look to make a lasting impact on the program through their play on the field this season.

HEADLINERS RETURNING

The three-headed monster of juniors Brant Kuithe, Cole Fotheringham and Dalton Kincaid gives Utah's blocking, rushing and receiving units an unmatched boost this season. Kincaid and Fotheringham's have shown their ability as strong blockers, while showing accurate route running, while Kuithe has proved he is a triple threat. The two-time All-Pac-12 tight end has led Utah in receptions in three straight seasons, has scored rushing and receiving touchdowns, and has been a leader on the blocking unit, making him extremely hard for opposing defenses to prepare for.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT

Utah's depth at tight end goes beyond its trio of talent, but also through seven returners who were on the roster in 2020. The Utes added three freshman tight ends during the offseason, including basketball star turned elite football player Isaac Vaha (Pleasant Grove, Utah/Pleasant Grove HS). Vaha joins the Utes after playing just two seasons of high school football, ranking as the No. 7 recruit in the state of Utah.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM

"Our tight end group should be a big part of our offense this season with the returning trio of Brant Kuithe, Cole Fotheringham and Dalton Kincaid. All three are elite tight ends not only in the Pac-12, but nationally, and will play a prominent role in Coach Ludwig's offense, providing a range of skills that will be hard for opposing defenses to match up with."

DEFENSE

THE LOWDOWN

Tradition is defined as customs or beliefs that are passed down from generation to generation – or to Utah fans, the Ute defensive line. Year after year, Sack Lake City is in full force because of the way that the Utah defensive staff has been able to reload the position with talent. The 2021 group will be a mix of veteran experience and incoming size that is eager to continue the tradition of the Utes leading the Pac-12 and the nation as a unit.

HEADLINERS RETURNING

The Utes are stacked with familiar faces that have been wrecking havoc in the Pac-12, including returning starters junior Mika Tafua, seniors Viane Moala and Hauati Pututau, and freshman Tennessee Pututau. Tafua, an All-America candidate this season, will lead the way from the edge after earning All-Pac-12 in back-to-back seasons as Utah's tackle leader on the line.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT

Utah had several true freshmen join the squad during spring practices, including Simote Pepa (South Jordan, Utah/Bingham HS), who was rated the No. 6 recruit in the state of Utah in 2017. The two-time all-state and all-region selection led Bingham to back-to-back state titles in 2016 and 2017, earning Deseret News 6A MVP in 2017.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM

"Our defensive line has been a trademark of our program for many years, consistently pumping out NFL caliber players each season and this year should provide more of the same. The size, speed and talent we return up front in starters Mika Tafua, Viane Moala, Tennessee Pututau and Hauati Pututau will mix well with transfer Devon Kaufusi and a host of underclassmen that gained valuable experience in 2020. True freshman Simote Pepa joined us in the spring, adding even more depth and talent to a formidable front line."

LINEBACKERS

THE LOWDOWN

Linebackers coach Colton Swan will return two All-Pac-12 selections from the 2020 season who are looking to create a legacy at Utah in 2021. The powerful dynamic of returning starters with four-star recruits making their debut as Utes promises that Utah's linebacker group will be an explosive unit for the defensive side of the ball this season.

HEADLINERS RETURNING

Junior Devin Lloyd, who is called "the general" of the defense, will return after earning first-team All-Pac-12 and Sporting News All-America in 2021, ranking in the Defensive lineman Mika Tafua was named All-Pac-12 Conference the last two years.

2021 Scouting Report

top-10 in the FBS in solo tackles per game and tackles for loss per game. The Butkus Award Finalist will line up next to junior Nephi Sewell after the duo finished first and second on the team in total tackles in 2020. Sewell earned All-Pac-12 in 2020 after racking up 40 tackles with a team-high tying two interceptions.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT

The Utes welcomed a trio of talented linebackers during spring practices in Ethan Calvert (Westlake Village, Calif./Oaks Christian HS), Trey Reynolds (Queen Creek, Ariz./Queen Creek HS) and Mason Tufaga (Honolulu, Hawaii/St. Louis HS). Calvert, a four-star recruit, was the No. 4 inside linebacker in the country while Tufaga was also a four-star recruit as the No. 2 rated recruit in the state of Hawaii. Reynolds was a standout prep in Arizona, rated the No. 9 recruit in the state as a two-time all-state selection.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM

"Devin Lloyd was our anchor and vocal leader on the defensive side of the ball last season and we will look to him to fill that role for us once again this year. Devin, one of the top linebackers in the nation, paired with Nephi Sewell make for an extremely productive tandem and should make life difficult for opposing offenses. Newcomers Trey Reynolds, Mason Tufaga and Ethan Calvert, among others, will add to the unit and should make this a solid position group for years to come."

CORNERBACKS

THE LOWDOWN

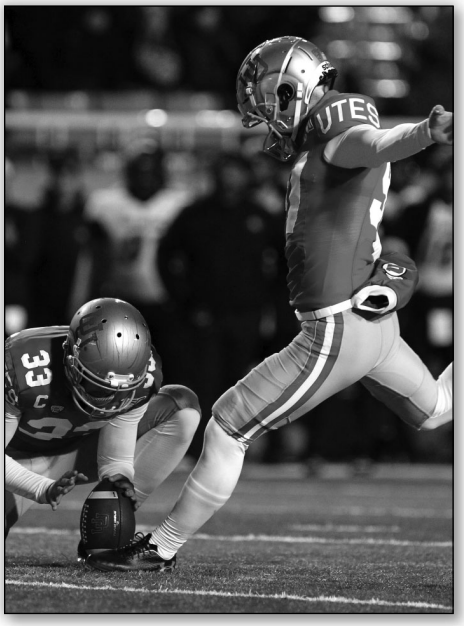

After the Utes were forced to replace All-Americans and NFL talent at both cornerback positions in 2020, a youthful surge of talent took the stage that is set to return with valuable experience under their belts for the 2021 season.

HEADLINERS RETURNING

Utah will return three starters in freshman Clark Phillips III and sophomores JaTravis Broughton and Malone Mataele, who played at nickel back in 2020. Broughton earned All-Pac-12 honors in 2020 after starting all five games at left cornerback, finishing second on the secondary with 26 tackles and a team-high four pass breakups. Phillips started in every game in his true freshman campaign which included 25 tackles and a streak-extending pick-six to end the season.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT

The Utes signed new talent during the early signing period in cornerback Elisha Lloyd (San Marcos, Calif./Mission Hills HS). The three-star recruit led the Mission Hills defense to allow just 13.5 points per game in 2019 as a junior, also being a strength for his high school track team with the fourth-fastest 60-meter dash time in the state.

Placekicker Jadon Redding earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors in 2020.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM

"With returning starters JaTravis Broughton and Clark Phillips III at the corners and Malone Mataele at nickel back, our secondary will be one of our most experienced groups on the field. Both Broughton and Phillips, starting every game in 2020 earning valuable minutes against the best talent in the Pac-12, will play large leadership roles on the defense this season as well. True freshman Elisha Lloyd, a standout track athlete in high school as well as a talent on the football field, will join us in the fall and should make an immediate impact on the defense."

SAFETIES

THE LOWDOWN

Just like the cornerbacks, Utah fans saw a new safety unit in 2020 after Julian Blackmon and Terrell Burgess found their homes in the NFL. With one starter leaving for a church mission, the Utes will look to a returning starter senior to welcome in a new crop of talented and athletic safeties to the program as the Utes continue producing NFL talent at the position.

HEADLINERS RETURNING

Senior Vonte Davis returns to the Utes after earning the starting free safety in 2020. The Rosenberg, Texas, native has the most playing experience in the safety room with 33 games with the Utes, finishing the 2020 season with 16 tackles and a team-high tying two interceptions and four passes defended. He is joined by freshman Kamo'i Latu who earned valuable experience as a true freshman last season, seeing action in all five games on special teams.

NEWCOMER SPOTLIGHT

The safety unit will have a combination of true freshman talent and Power Five transfer experience in the newcomer group this season. The Utes welcomed true freshmen Cole Bishop (Peachtree City, Ga./Starr's Mill HS) and Darrien "Bleu" Stewart (Las Vegas, Nev./Desert Pines HS) during spring practices with both showing early signs of competing for the starting strong safety spot.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM

"With starter Nate Ritchie leaving on his church mission, we will look to senior Vonte Davis to step into a larger leadership role on the defense this season after earning the starting spot in 2020 at free safety. The strong safety position should feature an intense competition with Kamo'i Latu, Darrien Stewart and Cole Bishop all battling for the starting job."

SPECIALISTS

THE LOWDOWN

While the Utes will be looking for a new starting punter, Utah returns All-Pac-12 performers at kicker, snapper and return specialist. With the combination of accuracy and versatility at all three positions, Utah will look to take a step forward in re-growing a special teams tradition that the Utes are known for.

HEADLINERS RETURNING

In the kicking game, sophomore Jadon Redding is coming off a first-team All-Pac-12 performance in 2020 where he tied for first in the FBS in field goal percentage while also leading the conference in field goals per game. Senior Keegan Markgraf also returns for one more season as Utah's starting snapper, earning a semifinalist spot in the Patrick Mannelly Award voting for the nation's best snapper in 2020. On kick and punt returns, a fully healthy Britain Covey will be expected to continue his ways as being one of the most versatile players in college football after earning first-team All-Pac-12 and Phil Steele All-America in 2020 as a return specialist.

COACH KYLE WHITTINGHAM

"Having a fully healthy Britain Covey as a return specialist gives our team a dynamic weapon on special teams, which will be complimented by placekicker Jadon Redding. Redding is coming off an All-Pac-12 first-team season in 2020 and we are expecting the same production out of him this fall. Returning long snapper Keegan Markgraf is one of the best in the country and will handle all the snapping duties for us in the upcoming season. There will be a competition in fall camp to solidify the starting punter spot."

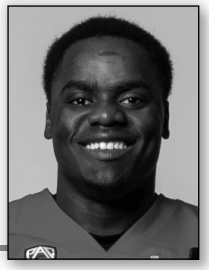

Brittain Covey was a Phil Steele honorable mention All-American in 2020.

COACHES AND STAFF

Head Coach

KYLE WHITTINGHAM

HEAD COACH | 17TH YEAR

Kyle Whittingham, the longest-tenured coach in the Pac-12 Conference and the third-longest tenured head coach at the same school in the NCAA FBS, is in his 17th season at the helm at Utah in 2021, where he boasts a 134-66 record. Including 11 seasons as a Ute assistant coach, he has contributed to more victories (219) than any coach in program history, and has coached in 326 games as either an assistant or head coach. Whittingham is the second-winningest head coach at Utah, entering 2021 just seven victories behind Ike Armstrong (141-55-15), and led the Utes to back-to-back Pac-12 South titles in 2018 and '19.

His many accomplishments include three National Coach of the Year recognitions—two in 2008 and one in 2019—and Pac-12 Coach of the Year in 2019. Whittingham was the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award winner in 2008—when Utah was declared the national champion by an NCAA major selector while finishing No. 2 in the Associated Press poll—and the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Year in 2019. In addition to his 2019 Pac-12 Coach of the Year honor, he earned AFCA Regional Coach of the Year while being named a finalist for the AFCA Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award in leading Utah to its second consecutive Pac-12 South title and reaching as high as fifth in the CFP rankings.

Legendary for his postseason success, Whittingham's 11 bowl wins (11-3) ties him for third among active coaches and ranks in the top-10 all-time (including ties), while his .786 bowl winning percentage is second-highest among active coaches with at least 10 games. His glossy bowl record includes a 2-0 mark in bowls currently part of the College Football Playoff New Year's Six, with wins over Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl as co-head coach and Alabama in the 2009 Sugar Bowl.

The Utes appeared in every weekly CFP ranking for the first three years of the system (2014-16) and are tied for the seventh-most appearances of any school with 30 total. Utah has finished in the CFP top-25 in five seasons: No. 22 in 2014 and 2015, No. 19 in 2016, No. 17 in 2018 and program-best No. 11 in 2019. The Utes have made the final AP top-25 six times and the final Coaches' poll seven times under Whittingham. Those final AP rankings include No. 2 (2008), No. 18 (2009), No. 21 (2014), No. 17 (2015), No. 23 (2016) and No. 16 (2019). Utah was No. 23 in the final 2010 Coaches' poll.

Whittingham's teams have also performed well against AP top-25 teams, recording 16 wins against ranked opponents, including victories over No. 4 Alabama (2009), No. 5 Stanford (2013) and No. 8 UCLA (2014).

He has enjoyed great success against Power Five conferences, producing winning records against the ACC (7-1), Big Ten (4-1), Big 12 (5-4) and SEC (1-0). The Utes have also fared well in 10 years in the Pac-12, winning or sharing three Pac-12 South Division titles and registering multiple wins against every school.

Now in his 28th year overall at Utah, Whittingham began his Ute career as the defensive line coach in 1994. He served as the defensive coordinator from 1995-2004 and became the school's 20th head coach on December 8, 2004. His first victory came three weeks later as the co-coach (with Urban Meyer) in Utah's 2005 Fiesta Bowl win over Pittsburgh. His first regular-season victory came against Arizona in the 2005 season opener.

In 2008, Whittingham engineered the best season in Utah football history. The Utes went 13-0—concluding the season with a 31-17 Sugar Bowl rout of Alabama, a team that had spent five weeks at No. 1. Utah was declared the national champion that season by major selector Anderson/Hester and was ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll. Whittingham was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by the AFCA and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards committee.

As the country's only undefeated FBS team in 2008, Utah beat four top-25 teams, including two that finished in the top 10. In addition to his national awards, Whittingham was named the Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year.

Whittingham's success has continued in the Pac-12 Conference where Utah won the South Division title outright in 2018 and 2019, and shared it with USC in 2015. The Utes have finished in the top three in the South six times (2011, 2015, 2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020) in their 10 seasons as conference members and have won five bowl games in that period.

A five-time semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award (2014-16, 2018-19), Whittingham has coached 25 All-Americans, including seven consensus picks. He has coached the only major national award winners in Utah football history with three Ray Guy Award winners (2014-16), a Lou Groza Award winner (2017) and a Ted Hendricks Award winner to his credit. The Utes boasted a school-record five All-Americans in 2019.

Individually, Whittingham has had 15 players make major All-America first teams (those determining the NCAA's consensus team). They are Luther Elliss (1994, consensus defensive lineman), Eric Weddle (2006, consensus defensive back), Louie Sakoda (2007, punter; 2008, unanimous consensus place kicker), Zane Beadles (2009, offensive line), Shaky Smithson (2010, punt returner), Star Lotulelei (2012, defensive tackle), Reggie Dunn (2012, kick returner), Nate Orchard (2014, defensive end), Kaelin Clay (2014, returner), Tom Hackett (2014, consensus punter; 2015, unanimous consensus punter), Mitch Wishnowsky (2016, unanimous consensus punter), Matt Gay (2017, consensus kicker) and Bradlee Anae (2019, consensus defensive end).

Ten second-team All-Americans on major teams during Whittingham's time include Morgan Scalley (2004, defensive back), Caleb Schlauderaff (2010, offensive line), Hunter Dimick (2016, defensive end), Wishnowsky (2017-18, punter), Gay (2018, kicker), Chase Hansen (2018, linebacker), Julian Blackmon (2019, safety), Leki Fotu (2019, defensive tackle), Jaylon Johnson (2019, cornerback), Zack Moss (2019, running back) and Devin Lloyd (2020, linebacker).

In addition to his head coaching responsibilities, Whittingham coaches Utah's punters and kickers. Hackett (2014 and 2015) and Wishnowsky (2016) won the Ray Guy Award three years running and Gay was the Lou Groza Award winner the following year. Orchard was Whittingham's other national award winner, capturing the 2014 Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end in 2014.

Whittingham's players have won a total of 93 first-team all-conference awards, including 42 in Utah's 10 seasons of Pac-12 membership. Utah led the Pac-12 in first-team all-conference players in 2018 with nine selected, and added eight more in 2019. Two of his players have been three-time first-team All-Pac-12 honorees—Hackett from 2013-15 and Wishnowsky from 2016-18—and another six have been two-time recipients (Lotulelei in 2011-12, Gay in 2017-18, Anae in 2018-19, Fotu in 2018-19, Johnson in 2018-19 and Covey in 2018 & '20). Utes have also captured the Morris Trophy four times (DT Lotulelei in 2011, DE Orchard in 2014, OL Isaac Asiata in 2016 and Anae in 2019). The Morris Trophy recognizes the Pac-12's best lineman, offensive and defensive, as voted on by the starting linemen on the other teams. In addition, Moss was named Utah's first Pac-12 Player of the Year in 2019, winning the offensive honor, while RB Ty Jordan was Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year in 2020.

Prior to joining the Pac-12, Whittingham coached a Mountain West Conference MVP in five-straight seasons: Defensive Players of the Year Scalley (2004) and Weddle (2005 and 2006), Special Teams Player of the Year Sakoda (2006, 2007, 2008), and Offensive Player of the Year Brian Johnson (2008).

One reason behind his success is Whittingham's reputation for developing NFL talent. Seven Utes were drafted in 2020 -- most in the Pac-12 and tied for fifth-most in the nation -- and the Utes' 21 selections in the five drafts from 2017-21 rank second among all Pac-12 schools. That period began with a school-record eight NFL draft picks from Utah in 2017, which led the Pac-12 and tied for third in the country. In 2010, six Utes were drafted, which tied for fourth nationally. Five Utes were drafted in 2019, including both Wishnowsky and Gay—marking the first time since 1985 that a punter and a kicker from the same school were drafted in the same year. As an assistant or head coach, 99 of Whittingham's players have signed contracts with NFL teams (57 draft picks, including 14 first or second-round selections, and 42 undrafted free agents).

Utah has also excelled academically under Whittingham. Since he became head coach in 2005, his players have earned four Academic All-America citations and 306 academic all-conference awards. Utah football received public recognition from the NCAA for posting a multi-year Academic Progress Report (APR) in the top 10 percent of all athletic teams in the country from 2016-20, including a perfect single-year APR score of 1000 in 2017-18. The American Football Coaches Association, in 2017 and 2019, gave Utah an Academic Achievement Award for recording a perfect 100-percent single-year NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR).

Whittingham began his coaching career in 1985-86 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Brigham Young. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at the College of Eastern Utah in 1987, before a six-year stint at Idaho State from 1988-93.

A linebacker for BYU from 1978-81, Whittingham earned first-team all-WAC and WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1981. He played in the first four Holiday Bowls and was named Defensive MVP of the 1981 game. In 2009, he was inducted into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. After his senior season, Whittingham played in the Hula and Japan Bowls. He played professionally with the Denver Broncos (1982 training camp) and the U.S. Football League's (USFL) Denver Gold (1983) and New Orleans Breakers (1984). He played on the Los Angeles Rams' replacement squad in 1987.

Whittingham graduated from BYU in 1984 and added a master's degree from the school in 1987. Born Nov. 21, 1959, he was raised in Provo, Utah. He is married to the former Jamie Daniels. They have four children: Tyler, Melissa, Alex and Kylie, and six grandchildren. Tyler and Alex both played for the Utes.

Defensive Coordinator

MORGAN SCALLEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SAFETIES | 14TH YEAR

In his 14th year overall as a Utah assistant coach, Morgan Scalley is in his sixth season as the defensive coordinator in 2021. He also continues to coach the safeties, as he has his entire time on the staff, and also served as Utah's recruiting coordinator from 2009-15 and special teams' coordinator in 2015.

The former Ute All-America safety began his coaching career as an administrative assistant with the Utes in 2006, moving into a graduate assistant role in 2007.

Scalley, who owns a reputation as one of the brightest defensive minds in the business, was a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2019 when the Utes ranked 2nd in the FBS in total defense. Utah has led the Pac-12 four times in his five seasons as defensive coordinator in rushing defense (2016, '18, '19 and '20) —ranking third in the nation in 2019 after ranking fifth in in 2018. The 2016 Utes led the conference in sacks (43) and tackles for loss (101) and ranked in the top 12 nationally in both. Over the past three seasons, Scalley's defense has held opponents to 10 points or fewer 12 times, second-most in all of FBS.

After returning just two defensive starters in 2020, Scalley's young defensive unit led the Pac-12 in rushing defense and pass defense efficiency, also ranking second in the league in total defense and third-down defense. The 2020 defense also plucked seven interceptions in just five games, second most per game (1.4) in the Pac-12, also ranking eighth in the FBS.

The 2019 Utah defense was one for the ages, leading the Pac-12 in total defense, passing defense, rushing defense, scoring defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed and third-down defense. Utah recorded the best statistical season by a conference team in the Pac-12 era in three categories: total yards (269.2), rushing yards (81.8) and points allowed (15.0). Scalley's unit recorded two shutouts, most by a Utah team since 2003, and held six opponents to seven points or fewer, most in a season by the Utes since 1969 (also 6). Utah held 10 of 14 opponents under 70 rushing yards, the most by an FBS team since 2006.

In 2018 the Utes finished second in the Pac-12 in total defense and scoring defense and finished in the top 20 in the nation in both. Utah's 2018 team ranked in the top three in the Pac-12 in every major defensive category (rushing defense, passing defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense).

Scalley fared well in his first coordinator assignment as well, with the 2015 Utes ranking first in the nation in net punting when he supervised the special teams.

On an individual front, Scalley has coached eight All-Americans, 14 first-team all-conference selections and two Freshman All-Americans, while seeing 25 of his protégés move on to the NFL. His first All-American came as the special teams' coordinator in 2015 when punter Tom Hackett was a unanimous consensus All-American and won the Ray Guy Award as the country's top punter. In 2016, defensive end Hunter Dimick earned a place on three of the consensus-eligible teams (second team Walter Camp and FWAA and third team AP) and seven total All-America teams. Dimick was a finalist for the Ted Hendricks award, which honors the nation's best defensive end. In his only season at linebacker (after three seasons at safety), Chase Hansen earned second-team All-America honors from the FWAA and Sporting News and made four total All-America teams. Scalley's 2019 troops included consensus All-America defensive end and Ted Hendricks Award finalist Bradlee Anae (first team Walter Camp, Sporting News, AFCA and FWAA; third team AP), the 2019 winner of the Morris Trophy as the Pac-12's best defensive lineman, voted on by the league's offensive linemen. Anae was joined as a 2019 All-American by safety Julian Blackmon (second team AP and AFCA), defensive tackle Leki Fotu (second team Walter Camp and FWAA; third team AP) and cornerback Jaylon Johnson (second team Walter Camp and AP) from Scalley's defense. In 2020, standout linebacker Devin Lloyd earned second-team Sporting News All-America, and Phil Steele honorable mention All-America.

In 2019 Utah placed five defensive players on the All-Pac-12 first team (Anae, Blackmon, Fotu, Johnson and Francis Bernard) and one on second team, with four more garnering honorable mention. That marked the second year in a row with 10 players honored, with 2018's haul including first-team picks Hansen, Anae, Fotu and Johnson. Scalley's other first-team All-Pac-12 players include Hackett, Dimick and Marcus Williams. In addition, Robert Johnson was first-team All-Mountain West and Eric Rowe and Brian Blechen were both Freshman All-Americans.

Johnson, Blackmon, Rowe, Blechen, Williams and Hansen all had Scalley as their position coach during points in their careers.

Since leaving Utah as a second-round draft pick, Rowe has played in three Super Bowls with the New England Patriots (2016-18). Scalley has three other second-round draft picks to date: Williams (New Orleans) in 2017, safety Marquise Blair (Seattle) in 2019 and cornerback Johnson (Chicago) in 2020. Third-rounders include safeties Blackmon (Indianapolis) and Terrell Burgess (L.A. Rams) in 2020, and linebacker Cody Barton (Seattle) in 2019. Fotu was a fourth-round choice (Arizona) in 2020 and Anae (Dallas) a fifth-rounder. Johnson played three seasons in the league as a fifth-round draft pick in 2010 and Scalley has a trio of sixth-round draft picks on current NFL rosters in defensive linemen Pita Taumoepenu in 2017, Kylie Fitts in 2018 and John Penisini in 2020. Blechen, Dimick, Pasoni Tasini and Dominique Hatfield made NFL rosters as undrafted free agents, while linebacker Chase Hansen and safety Corrion Ballard signed as free agents in 2019 and Bernard, Javelin Guidry and Josh Nurse signed as free agents in 2020.

Scalley is also widely respected as a recruiter and produced several highly-rated classes during his time as the recruiting coordinator. Rivals.com rated Utah's 2012 recruiting class as the country's 25th best. In 2011, Rivals described Scalley as one of the top recruiters in the Pac-12 and a "recruiting coordinator on the rise."

He was Rivals' non-BCS recruiter of the year in 2010 and one of the top 25 recruiters in the nation overall. Rivals ranked Utah's 2010 recruiting class as the best by a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference and 32nd overall.

PLAYING CAREER

Scalley lettered for the Utes from 2001-04 and was the 2004 Mountain West co-Defensive Player of the Year, a second-team All-American by the Associated Press and SI.com and a unanimous first-team all-conference safety. He was a second-team All-MWC defensive back in 2003 and an honorable mention All-MWC punt returner in 2001 and 2002.

As a senior, he captained Utah to 12-0 record, a Fiesta Bowl win over Pittsburgh and a No. 4 national ranking in a historic season in which Utah became the first non-BCS team to play in a BCS bowl game.

Scalley was a two-time first-team Academic All-American (2003-04), the 2004 Anson Mount Scholar Athlete of the Year and the 2004 MWC Scholar Athlete of the Year. He was awarded two post-graduate scholarships, including one from the NCAA.

Scalley was presented with the inaugural Pat Tillman award during the 2005 East-West Shrine Game, recognizing him for his character, intelligence, sportsmanship and service.

After graduating Magna Cum Laude from the U. with a 3.96 GPA, Scalley earned a master's degree in business.

Offensive Coordinator

ANDY LUDWIG

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS | 3RD / 7TH YEAR

Andy Ludwig is in the third year of his second full-time stint on the Utah football coaching staff in 2021. Ludwig, who served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the undefeated 2008 season, returned in 2019 and helped lead the offense to heights unrivaled in recent history.

Ludwig had spent the 2015-18 seasons as Vanderbilt's offensive coordinator following a two-year run at Wisconsin (2-13-14), two years at San Diego State (2011-12) and two years at California (2009-10), all since helping lead Utah to a 13-0 record in 2008 and a Sugar Bowl win over Alabama. That capped a successful four-year period as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Utah (2005-08), which followed three years in the same role at Oregon (2002-04). During his four years as offensive coordinator at Vanderbilt, Ludwig also coached the Commodores' quarterbacks (2015), tight ends (2016-18) and running backs (2018).

The return of Ludwig to Utah in 2019 sparked an offensive explosion that saw the Utes lead the Pac-12 in rushing yards (201.4), passing efficiency (174.05), completion percentage (72.6%) and third-down conversion rate (46.3%), en route to a second consecutive Pac-12 South title. The Utes ranked second in the FBS and broke the Pac-12 record for completion percentage, while ranking eighth in passing efficiency.

Utah in 2019 topped the 500-yard mark for total offense five times, their most since 2005, also under Ludwig, and scored 30 or more points 10 times, the most by a Utah team since the Ludwig-led 2008 offense. In the two seasons since Ludwig's return the Utah offense has eclipsed 500 yards of total offense in a game six times in 19 games.

Ludwig guided senior quarterback Tyler Huntley to a record-breaking 2019 season and Pac-12 co-Offensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. The first-team All-Pac-12 signal-caller recorded the third-best passing-efficiency mark in Pac-12 Conference history (177.6) and broke Pac-12 records for completion percentage (73.1%) and passing yards-per-attempt (10.3). Huntley was named third-team All-America by Pro Football Focus, was a finalist for both the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and the Manning Award, and was a semifinalist for the Walter Camp Award and Davey O'Brien Award.

Additionally, Ludwig's 2019 Utah offense featured All-America running back Zack Moss, named Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches and a third-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 2020. Moss became Utah's all-time leading rusher and broke five other Utah career records over the course of his senior season. Two other Utah offensive players earned All-Pac-12 honors, tackle Darrin Paulo (first team) and tight end Brant Kuithe (2nd team), while three received honorable mention (offensive linemen Nick Ford, Simi Moala and Orlando Umana).

In 2020, four offensive players earned All-Pac-12 with Ford garnering first-team plaudits and Kuithe, running back Ty Jordan and offensive lineman Sataoa Laumea making the second team. Britain Covey earned honorable mention recognition, Jordan was named Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and AP Pac-12 Newcomer of the Year.

A 34-year veteran of college coaching (including one year as a Utah graduate assistant), the Ogden, Utah, native has coached some prolific offenses. In 2008, Ludwig was a finalist for FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year after Utah led the Mountain West and ranked 15th nationally in scoring, averaging 36.9 points per game. In 2005, the Utes led the MWC in total offense (473.0 yards per game) and pass efficiency offense, with national rankings of 12th and 10th, respectively. In 2005 and 2006, Utah finished second in the league in passing offense and finished 12th in the nation in 2005. The 2007 Utes ranked second in the league in rushing offense.

Ludwig helped rewrite the Wisconsin record book in his two seasons with the Badgers, posting a 20-7 record from 2013-14 and making consecutive Jan. 1 bowl appearances. The 2013 Badgers averaged a school-record 480.8 yards per game, while averaging the third-most points in school history (34.8). The 2014 squad nearly matched those totals, averaging 34.6 points and 468.9 total yards.

As the Fresno State offensive coordinator, he was a 2001 Broyles Award finalist (awarded to the nation's top collegiate assistant coach) when the Bulldogs averaged 40.0 points and nearly 500 yards per game—ranking fourth in the nation in both categories. Fresno State was the first school in NCAA history to feature a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in a single season.

Ludwig has coached a number of award winning players, among them Utah quarterback Brian Johnson, the 2008 MWC Most Valuable Offensive Player and 2009 Sugar Bowl MVP, in addition to Huntley in 2019. He has coached two Heisman finalists—Wisconsin running back Melvin Gordon in 2014 and Fresno State quarterback David Carr in 2001. Gordon rushed for 2,587 yards in 2014, establishing the second-highest single-season rushing total in NCAA FBS history. Carr was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, as well as the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and Sammy Baugh award winner after leading the nation in passing yards (4,839) and touchdowns (46) in the 2001 season.

Before his return to Utah, Ludwig's most recent protégé, Vanderbilt's Kyle Shurmur, became the school's all-time passing leader in 2018, throwing for 8,865 yards and 64 touchdowns in his career.

Ludwig is a proponent of a balanced offensive attack and has coached a 1,000-yard rusher 16 times in his FBS coaching career, including Utah's Quinton Ganther (1,120 in 2005), Darrell Mack (1,204 in 2007) and Moss (1,416 in 2019). He coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers at Wisconsin in 2013 in Gordon (1,609) and James White (1,444), and in 2018 at Vanderbilt guided Ke'Shawn Vaughn to a 1,244-yard season. Ralph Webb finished his Vandy career in 2017 as the school's all-time career leader in rushing yards (4,173) and rushing touchdowns (32).

Ludwig's previous coaching experience came at Portland State, Idaho State, Augustana (S.D.), Boise State and Cal Poly-SLO. His son, Joe, joined the Utah football program as a tight end and fullback in January 2020, transferring from Iowa where he spent three seasons with the Hawkeyes.

PLAYING CAREER
Ludwig played wide receiver at Snow College from 1982-83, then transferred to Portland State, where he lettered in 1985-86.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's in exercise and sport science

Assistant Head Coach

JIM HARDING

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE | 8TH YEAR

Jim Harding is in his eighth season as Utah's offensive line coach in 2021, and in that time has firmly established the Utes' offensive line as one of the best in the country. He also has served in a key leadership role as Utah's assistant head coach since 2017, and prior to that spent two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator (2015-16).

Harding has coached five first-team All-Pac-12 selections to date and has had six offensive linemen selected in the NFL Draft, including four members of the 2016 offensive line.

Garett Bolles (2016), Jordan Agasiva (2018), Jackson Barton (2018), Darrin Paulo (2019) and Nick Ford (2020) were named to the All-Pac-12 first team and all were coached by Harding for their entire Ute careers. Yet another Harding protégé—Isaac Asiata in 2016—won the Morris Trophy, which honors the best offensive lineman in the conference by vote of the league's starting defensive linemen. In addition to Paulo's first-team nod in 2019, three Utes—Ford, Simi Moala and Orlando Umana—earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition as Utah led the Pac-12 in rushing.

Harding has had at least one offensive lineman selected in the NFL Draft in three of the past six years (2016-21), including Barton (Indianapolis) in 2019, while Paulo was signed as an undrafted free agent by New Orleans in 2020. Bolles highlighted Utah's four offensive linemen selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, going in the first round to Denver. Also drafted in 2017 were Isaac Asiata (Miami), J.J. Dielman (Cincinnati) and Sam Tevi (San Diego). In 2016, Jeremiah Poutasi was a third-round selection of the Tennessee Titans. As the co-offensive coordinator with oversight of the run game in 2015, Harding was instrumental in the career of another NFL draft pick in running back Devontae Booker (2016 to Denver).

Harding's linemen have blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in six of the last seven seasons: Booker in 2014 and 2015, Joe Williams in 2016 and Zack Moss in 2017, 2018 and 2019. Moss, the 2019 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year, became Utah's all-time rushing leader (4,067) and broke five other Utah career records while becoming the first Ute with three 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Williams set the school record for rushing yards per game in 2016 with his 156.3-yard average. Booker and Williams were drafted in the fourth round in back-to-back seasons (Booker by Denver in 2016 and Williams by San Francisco in 2017).

Before coming to Utah, Harding spent five seasons at Wyoming as the offensive line coach (co-coach his first four seasons) from 2009-13. In 2012, he served as the run game coordinator. He was promoted to co-offensive coordinator his final season in Laramie, when the 2013 Cowboys finished 22nd in the country in total offense, averaging 472.8 yards a game.

Wyoming allowed just 12 sacks in 2011, which ranked 11th in the nation, and center Nick Carlson was a three-time all-MWC selection (first team in 2012) under Harding.

Harding's college coaching career began at Missouri, where he was an offensive graduate assistant from 2002-04.

From 2005-08, he coached at Troy High School (Mich.). He was the head coach and defensive coordinator in 2008 after three seasons as the defensive coordinator.

PLAYING CAREER

A four-year starting offensive tackle at Toledo from 1997-2000, Harding set a school record with 46 consecutive starts. Harding was a first-team all-Mid-American Conference selection as a senior in 2000, when he captained a Toledo team that finished with a 10-1 record and a No. 25 ranking in the final Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches' polls. He was named the co-recipient of the Jim Nicholson Award, presented each year to the Toledo player who contributes the most toward the team's success. Toledo won or shared three MAC West Division titles in his four seasons, winning the 1997 and 1998 MAC West Division outright and finishing as co-champions of the MAC West in 2000.

CHAD BUMPHIS

WIDE RECEIVERS | 1ST YEAR

Chad Bumphis joined the Utah coaching staff in March 2021, appointed by head coach Kyle Whittingham to coach the wide receivers. Bumphis returned to Utah where he had been a graduate assistant coach in 2018, working with the wide receivers.

Following his one year at Utah, Bumphis was hired in 2019 to be the wide receivers coach at Austin Peay. He accepted a position as wide receivers coach at Central Michigan in Feb. 2021 before the opportunity emerged shortly after to return to Utah.

At Austin Peay in 2019, Bumphis was part of a coaching staff that helped the Governors to a record of 11-4 and an average of 34.5 points per game. His wide receivers played a key role in the team ranking 20th nationally in passing yards (3,208 passing yards). Under Bumphis's guidance, DeAngelo Wilson led the FCS in receiving yards (1,564) and earned second-team All-Ohio Valley Conference honors.

In his lone season at Utah, Bumphis helped the 2018 Utes win the Pac-12 South divisional title and compete in the Holiday Bowl. Current Utah wide receivers Britain Covey, Jaylen Dixon, Solomon Enis and Dylan Slavens were on the 2018 squad and were mentored by Bumphis.

Prior to his year at Utah, Bumphis served as an offensive graduate assistant at Buffalo in 2017 following his first coaching position as the wide receivers coach at Iowa Wesleyan in 2016.

A 2013 graduate of Mississippi State with a bachelor's degree in communication, Bumphis was Mississippi State's leading receiver three of his four seasons from 2009-12. He holds the school record for receiving touchdowns (24), ranks second in career receiving yards (2,270) and third in receptions (159). Bumphis was named to the Freshman All-Southeastern Conference team by the league's coaches in 2009 and was a second-team All-SEC receiver by the AP as a senior in 2012.

PLAYING CAREER

Bumphis signed as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins in 2013 and spent time with the practice squads of the Miami Dolphins, Denver Broncos and Jacksonville Jaguars before finishing his professional career with the Canadian Football League's Edmonton Eskimos in 2015. He is a native of Tupelo, Miss.

KIEL MCDONALD

RUNNING BACKS | 5TH YEAR

Kiel McDonald, in his fifth season as Utah's running backs coach in 2021, has progressively elevated the running game in each of his four seasons. Utah led the Pac-12 in rushing in 2019 as senior Zack Moss achieved his third consecutive 1,000-yard season and became Utah's all-time leading rusher.

The play of the running backs was key to Utah's highly successful 2019 season that saw the team win eight Pac-12 games in a row and earn a second consecutive Pac-12 title. Moss was named Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and earned All-America recognition from Pro Football Focus (1st team), FWAA (2nd team), CBS Sports (2nd team) and the AP (3rd team). He was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and the Doak Walker Award while setting six school records and tying two, and was selected in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft by Buffalo.

In addition to breaking Utah's all-time rushing record (4,067), which had stood for 31 years, Moss broke career records for carries (712), 100-yard rushing games (18), rushing touchdowns (38), total touchdowns (41) and all-purpose plays (778), and tied records for career 200-yard rushing games (2) and single-season rushing touchdowns (15). Utah's running backs scored 34 rushing touchdowns in 2019, two shy of the school record.

Under McDonald's guidance in his junior year, Moss broke the 1,000-yard mark despite playing in just nine games because of injury. Moss averaged 121.8 yards per game (sixth in school single-season history) and was named second-team All-Pac-12.

In a shortened 2020 season, McDonald saw the Utah running back crew finish the season ranked third in the Pac-12 in average yards per rush (5.1), led by Ty Jordan, who was named Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and all-Pac-12 second-team. Jordan, who tragically passed away after the 2020 season, also earned Freshman All-America honors by The Athletic after his 119.4 rushing yards per game ranked No. 1 among freshmen in the FBS (9th overall).

Before coming to Utah, McDonald spent five years at Eastern Washington from 2012-16, where he was also the co-special teams' coordinator. The Eagles made the FCS playoffs four times during his time there and advanced to the national semifinals in 2012, 2013 and 2016.

While best known for its passing attack (Eastern Washington averaged an FCS-best 401.0 passing yards per game in 2016), McDonald quickly shored up its run game. Inheriting a run game that averaged just 79.0 yards in 2011, McDonald led the rushing attack's improvement to 183.7 yards per game by his second season.

The EWU running backs also saw their yards-per-carry average jump from 3.0 in 2011 to 5.3 in 2013—the school's best figure in a dozen seasons. In 2014, McDonald coached senior Quincy Forte to second-team All-Big Sky Conference honors when he rushed for 910 yards and nine touchdowns. In 2015, three underclass running backs combined to average 4.9 yards per carry.

McDonald gained previous experience as a graduate assistant offensive quality control coach at Arizona State in 2011, preceded by one season as the defensive backs and strength coach at San Jose City College in 2010. He also interned with the San Francisco 49ers in 2010. His first name is pronounced Kyle.

PLAYING CAREER

McDonald's collegiate playing career started at Sacramento City College, where he was an honorable mention All-NorCal Conference cornerback as a sophomore. He transferred to Sacramento State, where he played in 2005, before graduating with honors (Cum Laude) in the spring of 2006. He finished his career at Idaho, tallying 31 tackles (two for loss), an interception and five pass breakups in 2006.

SIONE PO'UHA

DEFENSIVE TACKLES | 3RD YEAR

Former Ute and NFL defensive tackle Sione Po'uha (pronounced see-oh-nee bo-oo-ha) enters his third year as the defensive tackles coach in 2021. He made his return to the Utes in December of 2018 after spending the 2018 season as the defensive tackles coach at Navy.

Po'uha joined the Utah staff during preparations for the Holiday Bowl against Northwestern and coached in the game later that month.

In 2019 Po'uha was part of a defensive staff that led the Utes to one of the most successful seasons in school history. Utah ranked No. 2 in the FBS in total defense and held six opponents to seven points or fewer, most by an FBS team since 2006. The Utes, the No. 3 rushing defense in the FBS, recorded the best statistical season by a conference team in the Pac-12 era in three categories: total yards (269.2), rushing yards (81.8) and points allowed (15.0) in 2019. Under Po'uha's tutelage, defensive tackle Leki Fotu earned second-team All-America honors from Walter Camp and FWAA, and third-team from AP, while earning his second consecutive first-team All-Pac-12 nod. John Penisini earned second-team All-Pac-12.

The Utes also finished a shortened 2020 season leading the Pac-12 in rushing defense and second in the league in total defense, holding opponents to just 107.8 rushing yards per game.

The former NFL star has been successful in grooming future NFL talent, with Fotu drafted in the fourth round in 2020 by Arizona and Penisini selected in the sixth round by Detroit.

The Salt Lake City native spent two years as a Utah student-assistant coach in 2015-16 while completing his undergraduate degree in sociology. He was Utah's director of football player development in 2017 before leaving for his first full-time coaching position, with Navy.

PLAYING CAREER

A first-team all-Mountain West defensive lineman for Utah's undefeated Fiesta Bowl champion team in 2004, Po'uha earned four letters before embarking on an eight-year NFL career. He was selected in the third round of the 2005 NFL draft by the New York Jets and played in 106 games with 55 starts from 2005-12, accumulating 263 career tackles.

LEWIS POWELL

DEFENSIVE ENDS | 7TH YEAR

Lewis Powell is in his seventh season as a Utah assistant coach in 2021, and his sixth working with the defensive line. He coached the Utes' tight ends in 2015 before moving to the defensive line, a position he played for the Utes from 2001-03. His primary coaching responsibility is the defensive ends.

This is Powell's second stint on the Utah staff. He served as a graduate assistant coach from 2009-10 and an administrative assistant in 2011. Powell's apprenticeship at Utah landed him a full-time job at Hawaii as the defensive line coach from 2012-14. The Rainbow Warriors ranked third nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.3) in 2013.

Since Powell's return to Utah, the Utes have led the Pac-12 in rushing defense four times (2016, '18-20) and have ranked in the top 11 in the FBS each of the past three years (3rd in 2019, fifth in 2018 and 11th in 2020). In 2020 the Utes ranked second in the Pac-12 in yards-per-carry allowed (3.8). The 2019 Utah squad ranked No. 2 in the FBS in total defense and held six opponents to seven points or fewer, most by an FBS team since 2006. The 2019 Utes recorded the best statistical season by a conference team in the Pac-12 era in three categories: total yards (269.2), rushing yards (81.8) and points allowed (15.0). Nineteen of Utah's 33 sacks came from the defensive line, including 16 combined by defensive ends Bradlee Anae and Mika Tafua.

In 2016, the Utes led the conference in sacks (43) and tackles for loss (101) and finished in the top 12 nationally. In 2018, Utah was second in the Pac-12 in total defense and scoring defense, and ranked in the top 20 in the nation in both.

Lewis has coached three first-team All-Pac-12 players—Hunter Dimick in 2016 and Bradlee Anae and Leki Fotu in both 2018 and '19. Dimick was a second-team All-American and a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award as a senior in 2016 when he led the Pac-12 in sacks (14.5) and tackles for loss (20.0).

Anae led the conference in sacks in 2018 (8.0) before exploding in 2019 with a career-high 13.0 to become Utah's all-time leader (30.0) and earn consensus All-America status. Anae, a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award, ranked 8th in the FBS (2nd Pac-12) and was a first-team All-America choice by Walter Camp, Sporting News, AFCA and FWAA, and third-team by AP. He won the 2019 Morris Trophy as the Pac-12's best defensive lineman, voted on by the league's offensive linemen. Fotu earned second-team All-America honors from Walter Camp and FWAA, and third-team from AP. In addition, John Penisini earned second-team All-Pac-12 in 2018 and '19, and Mika Tafua earned second-team honors in 2020 and honorable mention in 2019 when he tied for the FBS lead with four fumble recoveries for the season.

Powell has had seven players advance to the NFL, including five draft picks: Pita Taumoepenu in 2017 (sixth round, San Francisco), Kylie Fitts in 2018 (sixth round, Chicago) and Fotu (fourth round, Arizona), Anae (fifth round, Dallas) and Penisini (sixth round, Detroit) in 2020. Dimick (Jacksonville) and Pasoni Tasini (Arizona) made NFL rosters as undrafted free agents in 2017.

PLAYING CAREER

Powell lettered from 2001-03 at Utah, playing on the defensive line. He was the 2003 Liberty Bowl Defensive Player of the Game in Utah's 17-0 victory over Southern Miss. Utah finished the season with a 10-2 record and was the MWC champion. Following his collegiate career, Powell signed a free agent contract and attended camp with the Cleveland Browns in 2004. He played in the Arena Football League as an offensive and defensive lineman for the Memphis Xplorers (2005) and Utah Blaze (2006-08).

SHARRIEFF SHAH

CORNERBACKS / SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | 10TH YEAR

Sharrieff Shah is in his 10th season coaching the cornerbacks in 2021 and in his third year as special teams coordinator after serving three years as co-coordinator.

Cited by ESPN.com in 2014 as one of "10 coaches who adapt and thrive," Shah has helped his players do the same, developing five cornerback converts into NFL players. Onetime safety Keith McGill was the first Pac-12 cornerback drafted in 2014—by Oakland in the fourth round. Eric Rowe, who also began his Ute career at safety, was a second-round pick of Philadelphia in 2015 before going to New England, where he played on three Super Bowl teams (2016-18), and now Miami. Receiver-turned-cornerback Brian Allen was drafted in the fifth round by Pittsburgh in 2017. Dominique Hatfield came to Utah as a receiver before moving to cornerback—later joining the L.A. Rams as an undrafted free agent—and Josh Nurse moved from wide receiver to safety to cornerback and was signed by Baltimore as an undrafted free agent in 2020.

Shah also coached cornerback Jaylon Johnson to All-America accolades in 2019 and a second-consecutive first-team All-Pac-12 nod. Julian Blackmon was an All-America and first-team All-Pac-12 safety in 2019 after playing previously playing cornerback under Shah and earning second-team All-Pac-12 in 2017 and '18 and MVP honors in the 2017 Heart of Dallas Bowl. Johnson was drafted in the second round in 2020 by Chicago while Blackmon was a 2020 third-round selection by Indianapolis. In addition, nickel back Javelin K. Guidry signed an NFL free agent contract with the New York Jets in 2020, and sophomore JaTravis Broughton earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 in 2020 in his first season as a starter.

The cornerbacks unit was instrumental in Utah ranking second in the Pac-12 in total defense in 2020 (365.0) and No. 1 in the conference (20th FBS) in pass efficiency defense (120.64). The defense totaled seven interceptions in five games, second-most per game in the Pac-12, and Shah's corners accounted for two of those, including the team's only pick-six, which extended the Utes' streak to 17 consecutive seasons with an interception returned for a touchdown. The Utah defense ranked second in the Pac-12 (20th FBS) in opponent third-down percentage (34.3) and led the Pac-12 (22nd FBS) in opponent first downs per game (18.2).

With Shah's highly-acclaimed cornerbacks playing a key lockdown role, Utah ranked third in the FBS in total defense in 2019, as well as No. 1 in the Pac-12 in passing yards allowed (187.4; 13th FBS) and pass efficiency defense (112.89; 10th FBS). Utah recorded the best statistical season by a conference team in the Pac-12 era in three categories: total yards (269.2), rushing yards (81.8) and points allowed (15.0). Johnson had two interceptions -- including a pivotal pick-six to spark a second-half comeback win at Washington -- and ranked third in the Pac-12 with 11 pass breakups. Blackmon flashed his tremendous cover skills, honed under Shah's guidance as a cornerback, tying for the Pac-12 lead with four interceptions from his safety position. Nickel back Javelin Guidry earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 for the second year in a row in 2019.

With Shah coaching the corners, Utah's pass defense has consistently ranked among the Pac-12 leaders. In addition to ranking No. 1in the Pac-12 in pass efficiency defense in 2020, the Utes finished ranked second in that category in 2017 when seven of their 14 total interceptions were by corners. Shah's position also accounted for half of Utah's interceptions in 2012 and 2015. The 2015 Utes led the Pac-12 with 22 interceptions, which ranked third nationally. Utah also led the Pac-12 in passes defended in 2015 with 88—38 of them from the cornerbacks.

In 2016, Utah's 18 interceptions (seven by the cornerbacks) ranked second in the Pac-12 and tied for ninth in the nation. The corners also contributed 26 of Utah's 71 passes defended to help Utah tie for 14th place nationally.

Shah was named "Defensive Backs Coach of the Week" by CoachingSearch.com after wins over Michigan and California in 2015. His corners had two interceptions against Michigan—returning one for a touchdown—and reeled in three of Utah's five picks against future NFL No. 1 overall draft pick Jared Goff of Cal.

Utah's return teams have also fared well under Shah's direction. Kaelin Clay was a first-team All-American and first-team All-Pac-12 return specialist in 2014, when he led the country in punt returns for touchdowns (3). Britain Covey was a Freshman All-American at punt returner in 2015 and first-team All-Pac-12 return specialist as a sophomore in 2018 and junior in 2020. Boobie Hobbs was a second-team All-Pac-12 return specialist in 2017 when he finished 12th in the nation in punt return average (11.2).

In 2015, Utah led the Pac-12 in total punt returns (30) and was second in punt return yards (325). In 2016, the Utes ranked third in the Pac-12 and 21st in the nation with a 23.4 kickoff return average, and in 2019 led the Pac-12 (31st FBS) in kickoff return defense (19.09). The 2020 team excelled on both return units, ranking second in the Pac-12 (8th FBS) in kickoff returns (28.3) and third (8th FBS) in punt returns (16.3). In addition, long snapper Keegan Markgraf was a semifinalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award, recognizing the nation's top snapper.

Shah took a unique path into coaching after an all-conference playing career at Utah. He spent 12 years as a practicing attorney, first as a commercial litigator with Parsons, Behle & Latimer (2001-06) and then as a trial attorney with Siegfried & Jensen (2006-11). He specialized in medical malpractice and catastrophic automobile accidents at Siegfried & Jensen, the largest personal injury law firm in the state of Utah.

During his career as an attorney, Shah stayed tethered to the game as a certified agent through the NFL Player Association (NFLPA) from 1996-2002. He also trained players for the NFL Combine, was a sideline reporter for Utah's flagship radio station ESPN 700 from 2000-11 and a sideline analyst for local television stations KUTV and KJZZ in their Ute broadcasts for three seasons.

As an agent, he negotiated multi-million dollar contracts and represented players in the NFL, CFL and NFL Europe. Among his clients was his brother Karim Abdul Jabbar (now known as Abdul Karim-Al Jabbar), a former running back for the Miami Dolphins, Cleveland Browns and Indianapolis Colts.

COLTON SWAN

LINEBACKERS | 3RD YEAR

Colton Swan is in his third season as linebackers coach for Utah in 2021. He joined the Utes' staff after the 2018 season from Weber State, where he was the longest-tenured coach on the Wildcats' football staff. Including two seasons as a graduate assistant, he coached 15 seasons under five head coaches at Weber State.

Swan's linebackers played a key role in helping Utah to lead the Pac-12 and rank 11th in the FBS in rushing defense in 2020, and allowed just 3.8 yards per carry (2nd Pac-12). Linebacker Devin Lloyd was a first-team All-Pac-12 choice, second-team All-America (Sporting News) and one of five finalists for the Butkus Award as a junior, while converted safety Nephi Sewell was an honorable mention All-Pac-12 choice under Swan's tutelage. Utah ranked second in the Pac-12 in total defense (365.0) with Lloyd tying for second in the nation in tackles-for-loss per game (2.0), 8th in solo tackles per game (8.8) and fifth in the Pac-12 in total tackles per game (9.6). Sewell led the team in takeaways (2 INT, 2 FR) and finished second on the team in tackles behind Lloyd.

In his first season with the Utes in 2019, Swan helped lead a unit that ranked No. 2 in the FBS in total defense and held six opponents to seven points or fewer, most by an FBS team since 2006. Utah led the Pac-12 in total defense, passing defense, rushing defense, scoring defense, red zone defense, first downs allowed and third-down defense, and recorded the best statistical season by a conference team in the Pac-12 era in three categories: total yards (269.2), rushing yards (81.8) and points allowed (15.0).

Under Swan's tutelage, senior Francis Bernard was named first-team All-Pac-12 while Lloyd earned honorable mention as a sophomore, each in his first year as a full-time starting linebacker. Lloyd led the Utes' record-setting defense in tackles (91), followed closely behind by Bernard (85). Lloyd ranked second on the team in sacks (6.5) and the pair recorded three interceptions between them, with each returning an interception 58 yards or longer for a touchdown. Bernard was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Dallas Cowboys in 2020.

At Weber State, Swan worked with the linebackers for seven years—the last two season as inside linebackers coach (2017-18). He served as the Wildcats' co-defensive coordinator for three seasons from 2009-11 and was the special teams coordinator for the final five years (co-coordinator in 2014). He also coached the safeties (2006-08) and tight ends (2014-16).

Weber State won back-to-back Big Sky championships for the first time in school history in 2017-18. The Wildcats made the FCS playoffs in each of his final three seasons—advancing to the quarterfinals in 2017 and 2018. The 2017 Wildcats won a school-record 11 games, including two FCS playoff games, and finished with a No. 5 national ranking. The 2018 team ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation—the best ranking in school history—and earned the No. 2 seed and a first-round bye in the FCS Playoffs before finishing with a 10-3 record.

One of the best defensive teams in the country over the 2017-18 seasons, the Wildcats ranked in the top 10 in interceptions, turnovers gained and red zone defense in 2017, while leading the Big Sky Conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, interceptions, pass efficiency defense, red zone defense and kickoff returns. In 2018, WSU led the Big Sky in scoring defense, rushing defense, total defense, sacks, tackles for loss, kickoff returns and punt return defense among others. Weber was No. 4 in the country in kickoff returns in 2018.

Swan coached eight All-Americans at Weber State, including two-time selections LeGrand Toia (linebacker), Rashid Shaheed (kick returner) and Brady May (special teams). Other All-America honorees under Swan as either a position coach or coordinator were safety Beau Hadley (2008), cornerback Josh Morris (2009), tight end Andrew Vollert (2016), kicker Trey Tuttle (2017) and punt returner Xequille Harry (2017). Tuttle was named a sophomore All-American in 2018. Swan's players also accumulated 15 first-team All-Big Sky honors during his time at the school.

In 2016, Swan helped lead Weber State to a 7-5 record, a third-place finish in the Big Sky Conference and WSU's first trip to the FCS Playoffs in seven years. The Wildcats were 10th in the nation in net punting and 12th in kickoff returns that season. In 2015, the Wildcats finished 6-5 for their first winning season in five years and led the Big Sky in kickoff coverage.

PLAYING CAREER

Swan was a second-team All-Big Sky Conference linebacker at Weber State as a senior in 2003 when he recorded 109 total tackles, three forced fumbles and an interception. He was honorable mention all-conference in 2002 and led the Wildcats with 89 total tackles. He initially came to Weber State on a rodeo scholarship, but walked on to the football team and was awarded a football scholarship the next year. He made the Big Sky Academic All-Conference team three seasons.

FREDDIE WHITTINGHAM

TIGHT ENDS / RECRUITING COORDINATOR | 6TH YEAR

Now in his sixth season as Utah's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator, Freddie Whittingham has helped develop Utah's roster for the past nine years. Before moving to the sidelines, Whittingham served as Utah's director of player personnel for four seasons, from 2012-15.

The Utah tight ends under Whittingham's tutelage have played an integral role in one of the most successful offensive stretches in recent program history, prompting the Utes to deploy a two-tight-end formation much of the time. Junior Brant Kuithe led the Utes in receiving in 2020 and he and fellow junior Cole Fotheringham combined to catch 29 passes (288 yds.) to account for 31 percent of the team's receptions for the year. Kuithe earned second-team All-Pac-12.

In 2019 Whittingham's tight ends played a key role for an offense that led the Pac-12 in rushing yards (201.4), passing efficiency (174.05), completion percentage (72.6%) and third-down conversion rate (46.3%) en route to a second consecutive Pac-12 South title. Utah topped the 500-yard mark for total offense five times, their most since 2005, and scored 30 or more points 10 times, the most since 2008. Kuithe earned second-team All-Pac-12 honors as a sophomore after leading the Utes in receptions (34), receiving yards (602) and receiving touchdowns (6) and scoring three more touchdowns on his six rushing attempts.

The Utes in 2019 started most games in a two-tight end formation with Fotheringham playing a key role, starting all 14 games and catching 16 passes with one touchdown. Between Kuithe, Fotheringham and senior Hunter Thedford, Whittingham's tight ends were instrumental in one of the most successful seasons in school history.

Whittingham's move into coaching runs in his bloodlines. His father, the late Fred Whittingham, Sr., was a 20-year veteran of NFL and college coaching, including six years at Utah. Brother Kyle is Utah's head football coach and brother Cary was a successful high school football coach.

Even before becoming Utah's recruiting coordinator in 2016, Whittingham played an important role in Utah's recruiting efforts as the director of player personnel. His duties in that position also included overseeing camps and clinics and serving as the program's NFL liaison. While he is a relative newcomer as a coach, Whittingham has been involved in higher education his entire career, spending nearly 20 years with the McGraw-Hill companies and Simon & Schuster as a sales and marketing executive in the higher education publishing industry. He directed McGraw-Hill Higher Education's West Sales Region, encompassing universities and colleges west of the Mississippi and accounting for annual sales revenues of $100 million.

PLAYING CAREER

Whittingham lettered as a freshman on BYU's 1984 national championship team and was a three-year starting running back from 1987-89. He served as BYU's team captain in 1989, a season in which he was also named a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American. He was BYU's leading rusher for three consecutive seasons (1987-89), a two-time academic all-Western Athletic Conference selection and BYU's Outstanding Senior Student-Athlete for all sports in 1990. He played on the Los Angeles Rams' practice squad in 1990 and in the World League of American Football in 1991 for the San Antonio Riders and as a member of the Team Dallas practice squad.

MARK HARLAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS | 4TH YEAR

In June 2021, Mark Harlan began his fourth year as director of athletics at the University of Utah. A veteran administrator with a deep history in the Pac-12 Conference, Harlan brought more than 20 years of intercollegiate athletics experience at five universities to Salt Lake City, including four years as director of athletics at the University of South Florida.

In his first three years at Utah, Harlan has overseen significant success in competition, in the classroom, in the community, and in fundraising, with marked improvements to the student-athlete experience. The skiing program has won two national championships (2019, 2021) and was the leader through two days of the 2020 NCAA Championships when the meet was canceled; the football program won back-to-back Pac-12 South championships in 2018 and '19, and played in the Holiday Bowl and Alamo Bowl; gymnastics finished third at the 2021 NCAA Championships, advanced to the 2019 NCAA semifinals and claimed both the 2021 Pac-12 Championship and the 2020 regular season Pac-12 title; and the volleyball program has competed in three consecutive NCAA tournaments with a Sweet 16 appearance in 2019.

In addition, the men's tennis, women's cross-country and men's golf programs have advanced to NCAA Championships competition as teams, and the Utes achieved their highest final fall ranking in the 2019 Learfield/IMG Director's Cup, ranking 18th, third among Pac-12 schools. That 2019 fall sports season saw all four of Utah's fall sports programs reach postseason play.

Academic achievement has risen to new heights under Harlan's leadership, with Utah's student-athletes posting the top three semester GPAs, including a program-record 3.57 in Spring 2020. In each of his three years at Utah, the Utes' student-athletes have broken the previous record for full-year GPA, including a GPA of 3.407 in 2020-21. That topped the previous record of 3.387 set in 2019-20, which had eclipsed the previous best of 3.25 in 2018-19, Harlan's first year at the U.

In addition, Utah's 95-percent graduation rate, according to the NCAA's November 2018 Graduation Success Rate report, was the highest in school history, and has been followed by back-to-back 94-percent rates in the 2019 and 2020 reports.

Harlan has spearheaded the development of the Ken Garff Red Zone at Rice-Eccles Stadium, which opened in 2021 and expands the stadium's capacity to 51,444, while adding new team locker room facilities, club spaces and premium seating. Groundbreaking took place in November 2019, and construction on the $80 million expansion began in early 2020 on the project that will also fully enclose the stadium's south end zone area. Harlan and University of Utah President Ruth V. Watkins unveiled plans for the project in November 2018, and in April 2019 announced the Ken Garff family's $17.5 donation, the largest gift in Utah Athletics history.

Continued upgrading of Utah's athletics facilities under Harlan's leadership also includes construction of the David S. Layton Golf Academy, the on-campus training facility for Utah's men's golf team, which opened in January 2021. Located on Guardsman Way, across from the Spence and Cleone Eccles Football Center, the new 7,000-square foot, $2.9 million facility provides state-of-the-art technology for Utah's student-athletes to enhance every aspect of their performance.

The health and wellness of student-athletes is a priority for Harlan and has been reflected in his work with the Crimson Council and with Utah's Student-Athletic Advisory Committee to improve mental health resources for students. In his first year, he added a third full-time member of the mental health team, serving student-athletes in the areas of psychology, wellness, and mental performance.

Harlan also has overseen the continued development of the Ute Academy, which focuses on four pillars of student-athlete success: Leadership, Career, Personal and Community Service, and increased investment in the student-athlete U.T.A.H. Group (United Together Against Hate), which focuses on issues of racial and social injustice. In addition, the Utah Athletics Department partnered with the U's David S. Eccles School of Business and the Lassonde Entrepreneur Institute to develop and launch Elevate U, the department's comprehensive program to prepare and equip student-athletes to maximize their opportunities to profit from their name, image and likeness.

Entering the 2021-22 school year, five of Utah's head coaches have been hired by Harlan in his three years at the helm. His first hire, Director of Skiing Fredrik Landstedt, came to Utah in July 2018 and has led the Utes to two national championships. He appointed Ric Mortera to lead the women's tennis program in the summer of 2019, and in the spring of 2021 hired three new leaders for Utah's athletics programs: Craig Smith (men's basketball), Gary Henderson (baseball) and Hideki Nakada (women's soccer).

Harlan has significantly upgraded the strength and appeal of Utah's future football schedules with the addition of eight games—four home-and-home series—against SEC and Big Ten opponents. Florida (2022, '23), Arkansas (2026, '29), Wisconsin (2028, '33) and LSU (2031, '32) each will visit Salt Lake City, and host the Utes, over the next 13 seasons.

Harlan has been named to several influential committees throughout his career, and is currently serving on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee. He also has held a lead role in the Pac-12 Conference Football Working Group and has served as the AD liaison to the league's football coaches in navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. Previous to that appointment, he also served on the NCAA Division I Council Transfer Working Group and the NCAA Division I Competition Oversight Committee.

Prior to his arrival in Salt Lake City, Harlan spent four years as the director of athletics at South Florida, where he spearheaded record competitive, academic and fundraising accomplishments while also negotiating new multimedia rights and apparel partnerships. The Bulls won 14 American Athletic Conference titles under his leadership and nine USF programs ranked in the Top 25 in 2015-16, when the Bulls led the AAC in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings.

The Bulls' football program appeared in three consecutive bowl games from 2015-17 and surged to a 21-4 record in his last two years, including a school-record 11 wins in 2016. The Bulls defeated bowl opponents from the SEC and Big 12 in 2016 (South Carolina) and 2017 (Texas Tech), and USF appeared in the final AP poll for the first time in 2016, when it ranked 19th in both the AP and Coaches' polls. Broad-based national success for USF Athletics under Harlan also included five programs earning NCAA Championships berths, including four NCAA Tournament appearances by the women's basketball program and three by women's soccer. Six Bulls teams earned Top-25 rankings during Harlan's tenure.

In the classroom, USF student-athletes set school marks for combined grade-point average and Graduation Success Rate (GSR).

Under Harlan's guidance, USF Athletics saw a 300 percent increase in major giving and had the best fundraising year in school history in 2016-17, attracting $15 million. His announcement of plans for a new $40-million on-campus football center was soon followed by an $8 million gift to athletics—the largest in program history.

He chaired the American Athletic Conference Athletic Directors Committee in 2017-18, and was appointed vice chair in 2016, playing a key role in developing the conference's strategic plan. As a former member of the Tampa Bay Sports Commission Executive Committee, Harlan assisted in bringing major events to Tampa Bay including the CFP National Championship, NCAA Women's Final Four and NHL All-Star Game.

From 2010-14, Harlan served as senior associate athletics director for external relations at UCLA, with oversight responsibilities including the men's basketball program, development, communications, marketing, ticket sales, sponsorships, multimedia rights and alumni affairs.

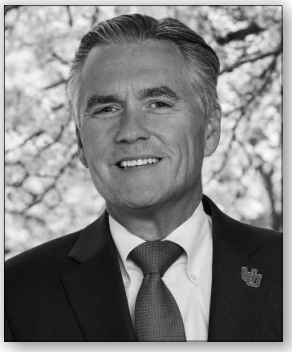

While at UCLA, Harlan reorganized the structure of the major giving program and the annual fund, which resulted in a record number of donors and dollars raised in 2013. He successfully managed completion of a $137 million campaign to renovate iconic Pauley Pavilion in 2012. Harlan was also heavily involved in the negotiations with the City of Pasadena to enable a $200 million renovation of the Rose Bowl Stadium.

Harlan left for UCLA after four years as the senior vice president for central development at the University of Arizona Foundation from 2006-10. Under Harlan's direction, the Foundation posted two record years in the amount of funds raised and in the number of gifts processed on behalf of the university. He moved into central development at Arizona after over a decade working in the Wildcat athletic department. He held a variety of roles in athletics, serving as the assistant coordinator for football recruiting and operations (1992-94), program coordinator for event management (1994-97), director of operations (1997-2000), director of annual development (2000-02) and assistant athletics director for development and marketing (2002-04).

Harlan's background also includes one-year stints as senior associate athletics director for external operations at San Jose State (2005-06) and associate athletics director for external operations at Northern Colorado (2004-05). At SJSU, he launched a planned giving program that generated $8 million in estate gifts directed toward student-athlete scholarship endowments. At Northern Colorado, he played a key role in the school's transition to NCAA Division I and the Big Sky Conference.

Harlan, 51, earned a bachelor's degree in political science and a master's degree in education from the University of Arizona. He and his wife, Carolyn, have two children: Savannah (16) and Austin (13) and Cali the Labradoodle (7).

In the first indoor major bowl game, Utah capped off a nine-win season with a 32-6 victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl in Atlantic City, N.J.

Utah's defense piled all over Southern Miss with 10 tackles for loss and five sacks in a 17-0 shutout in the 2003 Liberty Bowl.

New Year's Six Bowl Seasons

Utah earned a pair of invitations to games currently part of the New Year's Six bowls in 2004 and 2008. Utah was voted No. 4 in the final AP Poll in 2004. In 2008, the Utes were declared the National Champions by Anderson/Hester and finished No. 2 in the Associated Press Poll.

During the Bowl Championship Series era from 1998-2013, Utah was the original "BCS Buster" out of the Mountain West Conference, becoming the first school outside of the automatic-qualifying conferences to be invited to a BCS Bowl game in 2004. Four years later in 2008, the Utes became the first non-AQ school to make two BCS Bowl games and the first school from any conference to record multiple undefeated BCS Bowl seasons.

2004

- No. 4 final national ranking by AP, No. 5 in the Coaches Poll.
- 12-0 record to finish as one of three undefeated FBS teams.
- Defeated Pittsburgh, 35-7, in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz.
- First non-BCS conference school invited to a BCS Bowl when only four existed (a fifth was added in 2006).
- Head coach Urban Meyer earned the George Munger Award as the NCAA Division I coach of the year by Maxwell Football Club.
- Kyle Whittingham was the team's defensive coordinator and co-head coach for the Fiesta Bowl.
- Quarterback Alex Smith was a Heisman Trophy finalist before becoming the No. 1 NFL Draft pick.

2008

- National Champion by major selector Anderson/Hester.
- No. 2 final ranking by AP, No. 4 in the Coaches Poll.
- Highest-ranked non-BCS conference team in history.
- 16 first-place votes in the final AP rankings.
- 13-0 record to finish as the only undefeated FBS team.
- Defeated Alabama, 31-17, in the 2009 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. The Crimson Tide were ranked No. 1 in the nation for five weeks that season and entered the game as double-digit favorites.
- Four wins over Top 25 teams that season, including two teams that finished in the top 10.
- Kyle Whittingham was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by the AFCA and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards committee.

Current Ute defensive coordinator Morgan Scalley (center) was a senior team captain when Utah rolled over Pittsburgh to win the 2005 Fiesta Bowl.

Senior quarterback Brian Johnson torched the Crimson Tide's No. 3-ranked defense by throwing for 336 yards and three touchdowns.

Heisman Trophy finalist Alex Smith threw for 328 yards and four touchdowns and led all rushers with 68 yards in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl.

Joe Dale, Mike Wright and Koa Misi (left to right) led a Ute defense that held Alabama to just 31 rushing yards and recorded eight sacks.

El Paso, Texas - Jan. 2, 1939

Inside The Game
Utah finished the 1938 season with a 1939 bowl victory over New Mexico.

EL PASO–Predicted as the most even match-up of the 1938 bowl season, Utah blasted the forecasters and New Mexico, 26-0, on Jan. 2. Utah, the old Big Seven Conference champion, struck early. Tom Pace capped a 58-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run off a lateral from Ray Davis midway through the first quarter. With a minute remaining in the period, Ray Peterson intercepted a Lobo pass on the Ute 40-yard line and returned it for a second score. Peterson crossed the goal line again in the second quarter, on a fourth-down, 1-yard plunge.

New Mexico's highly-touted aerial attack never advanced past Utah's 40-yard line. As for the Utes, halfback Clarence Gehrke finished their scoring with a 10-yard dash. New Mexico, co-champion of the old Border League, gained just 153 yards of total offense to Utah's 384.

1964 LIBERTY BOWL

Utah	32
West Virginia	6

Atlantic City, N.J. - Dec. 19, 1964

Inside The Game
Utah beats West Virginia in the first indoor major bowl game.

ATLANTIC CITY–Utah never trailed in its 32-6 victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl–the first indoor major bowl game ever held. A national television audience and 6,059 fans in the Convention Center watched Utah score first on a 29-yard field goal by All-American Roy Jefferson. Jefferson, who also booted a 32-yard field goal, left the game in the first half after separating his shoulder.

But Utah had plenty of firepower left. Halfback Ron Coleman sprinted 53 yards for a touchdown on a day which saw him lead all rushers with 154 rushing yards. Andy Ireland added another long TD dash for the Utes–his went for 47 yards–while quarterback Pokey Allen contributed an 11-yard touchdown run.

The Ute offense, featuring a two-quarterback attack, closed its scoring with a 33-yard touchdown strike from Richard Groth to Bill Morley. In all, the Utes totaled 466 yards of offense.

The Utah defense also did its job, holding the Mountaineers scoreless until the waning minutes of the third quarter. West Virginia's Allen McCune hooked up with receiver Rich Juriga with 5:30 to play for the Mountaineers' sole touchdown. Utah's backfield intercepted four McCune passes.

The Liberty Bowl win capped a 9-2 season for coach Ray Nagel and the Utes. It would stand as the most wins ever by a Ute team for 30 years.

1992 COPPER BOWL

Utah	28
Washington State	31

Tucson, Ariz. - Dec. 29, 1992

Inside The Game
Ute rally falls just short against Washington State in first bowl appearance since 1964.

TUCSON–In the early going, Utah played the part of a team that hadn't gone "bowling" for 28 years. But the Utes made up for lost time quickly and nearly upset favored Washington State in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season. After jumping to a 21-0 first-quarter lead, WSU barely held on for a 31-28 win in the Weiser Lock Copper Bowl.

The Utes, who seemingly gave the game away in the first quarter, became acclimated to postseason play in the second and third stanzas, roaring back to tie the score at 28-28. Defense ruled in the fourth quarter and a WSU field goal proved the game winner.

Frank Dolce hit Sean Williams for Utah's first score, a 10-yard pass play. Six minutes later, Keith Williams scampered into pay dirt from 25 yards out to narrow the gap to 21-14. After a 48-yard touchdown pass by Washington State's Drew Bledsoe, Dolce countered with a 49-yard strike to Henry Lusk, who plucked the ball from a defender's hands in a leaping end zone catch.

An 8-yard TD run by Pierre Jones narrowed the gap to 28-26, and a successful two-point conversion from Dolce to Scott Murry tied things up, but only for 20 seconds. Washington State responded with a 22-yard field goal to go ahead 31-28. Utah's Chris Yergensen's 20-yard field goal attempt with 3:19 remaining in the game was wide left and the Utes came up short.

1993 FREEDOM BOWL

Utah	21
USC	28

Anaheim, Calif. - Dec. 30, 1993

Inside The Game
Utes dominate the second half but run out of time against the Southern California Trojans.

ANAHEIM–On paper, the Freedom Bowl match-up looked mismatched–the tri-champion of the Pacific-10 Conference (Southern California) against the Western Athletic Conference's fourth-place finisher (Utah). On the field, the pairing looked even worse, at least for two quarters.

Then Utah came alive. When USC jumped to a 28-0 halftime lead, Utah appeared headed for a lopsided loss. Offense? The Utes managed just 101 yards of total offense and failed to cross midfield in the first half. Defense? The Utes gave up 296 yards and four touchdowns. Over? No way.

Led by eventual Freedom Bowl Offensive MVP Henry Lusk, the Utes charged back to within a touchdown of the Trojans, with the ball and a chance to win at the end. Lusk caught six second-half passes for 140 yards and a 59-yard touchdown to help the Utes climb within seven (28-21). In the meantime, Utah's defense slammed the door on USC's vaunted offense, holding the Trojans scoreless in the second half. Junior defensive end Luther Elliss had a huge game for the Utes, with five tackles for lost yardage, two sacks (12 yards) and two pass breakups. Former Trojan Adam Swaney had a career day as a Ute, with four tackles for loss and three sacks (16 yards).

Quarterback Mike McCoy's Hail Mary pass with 0:08 was picked off as time ran out, averting Utah's upset bid.

1994 FREEDOM BOWL

Utah	16
Arizona	13

Anaheim, Calif. - Dec. 27, 1994

Inside The Game
TD pass on fourth down gives Utah the win over Arizona in a matchup between ranked teams.

ANAHEIM–In a remarkable ratio of points to yards, Utah won the Freedom Bowl over Arizona, 16-13, despite accumulating just 75 net yards against Arizona's famed Desert Swarm defense. Utah, which managed just five first downs and six rushing yards all night, seemed doomed to its second straight Freedom Bowl defeat when quarterback Mike McCoy found himself in the grasp of a Wildcat defender on fourth-and-goal. But McCoy made a desperation heave on his way to the ground and freshman Kevin Dyson streaked through a crowd of Wildcats to make a game-winning catch with 3:34 left.

Ironically, the hero's mantle and the game MVP award went to neither of the above. Freshman Cal Beck took an Arizona kickoff and sprinted 72 yards to the Ute 5-yard-line with 4:00 remaining. McCoy and Dyson punched it in from there.

Equal credit should go to the U. defense, which limited Arizona to two field goals and a touchdown, for the first Utah bowl win in 20 years. The Wildcats gained only 184 total yards against the Luther Elliss-led Ute defense and converted on just 3-of-13 third down attempts. They failed to score in the second and third quarters, and their sole TD came on a deflected pass in the first quarter.

1996 COPPER BOWL

Wisconsin	38
Utah	10

Tucson, Ariz. - Dec. 27, 1996

Inside The Game
Red zone woes by the Utes, combined with too much Ron Dayne, led to loss to Wisconsin.

TUCSON–The ballyhooed battle between the nation's two biggest collegiate running backs never materialized, as Utah lost star runner Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala to a first-quarter ankle injury. Wisconsin's Ron Dayne held up his end of the bargain, however, rushing for 246 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-10 Wisconsin win.

Offensively, the Utes rang up more net yards (430-365) and more first downs (26-16) than the Badgers, moved inside UW's 5-yard line twice and inside the 20-yard line another three times, but four interceptions spelled their doom. In his final game, U. quarterback Mike Fouts completed 27 of 49 passes for 327 yards, but was picked off four times. Terence Keehan and Kevin Dyson had big receiving nights–catching six passes each for 100 and 95 yards, respectively. Juan Johnson scored Utah's only TD of the day on a 1-yard run late in the third quarter. Johnson accounted for 88 of Utah's 103 rushing yards.

Utah's defense held Wisconsin to just 16 passing yards on 2-of-6 passing, but could not stop the run–allowing 349 yards.

1999 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Fresno State	16

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 19, 1999

Inside The Game
Mike Anderson's big day led Utah to the first bowl win for the new Mountain West Conference.

LAS VEGAS–Running back Mike Anderson and a punishing defensive effort led to the first bowl win for the new Mountain West Conference, courtesy of Utah. The Utes, tri-champions in the league's inaugural season, beat Western Athletic Conference co-champion Fresno State, 17-16.

Statistically, Utah trounced the Bulldogs, winning the total offense battle 548-279. But a spate of special teams breakdowns, including a 75-yard blocked field goal returned for a touchdown by FSU, kept it close.

Anderson and running mate Omar Bacon stole the show in their final collegiate game. Anderson set a Las Vegas Bowl rushing record with 254 yards and scored both of Utah's touchdowns. He also had the day's most impressive run–a 76-yard sprint from the line of scrimmage on Utah's first offensive down. Bacon chipped in 91 rushing yards.

T.D. Croshaw started the game at quarterback but left with a shoulder injury after just one quarter with the game tied 7-7. Darnell Arceneaux relieved and led Utah to victory.

Cletus Truhe had two field goal attempts blocked, but made the game-winner, a 33-yarder with 5:03 remaining. Fresno State's final drive was stopped by Andre Dyson's pass breakup on fourth and seven. Kautai Olevao and Kimball Christianson each had seven tackles for Utah.

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 25, 2001

Inside The Game

Utes ruin the Carson Palmer-led Trojans' Christmas by shutting down their offense.

LAS VEGAS–Utah scored on its second drive in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl on Christmas Day, then relied on an incredible defensive effort to beat favored USC for the first time since 1916.

Ryan Kaneshiro's 26-yard field goal at the end of the first half completed Utah's scoring, but 10 points was enough for the swarming Ute defense. A year later, quarterback Carson Palmer would win the Heisman Trophy while leading USC to No. 4 final national ranking. But against the Utes on this day, the Trojans netted just one yard rushing and 151 total yards. USC logged its only TD on its first drive of the second half before the Sheldon Deckart-led U. defense slammed the door again.

Deckart's six tackles, which included two for a loss and two sacks, led a ferocious Ute pass rush that sacked Palmer five times and tallied nine tackles for loss.

Adam Tate closed his career with a 103-yard rushing day and the Utes' only touchdown. Dameon Hunter (94 yards) was the game's MVP.

2003 LIBERTY BOWL

Utah	17
Southern Miss	0

Memphis, Tenn. - Dec. 31, 2003

Inside The Game
MWC champion Utes shut out C-USA champion Southern Miss in the Liberty Bowl.

MEMPHIS—The Southern Mississippi defense received most of the hype coming into the Liberty Bowl, but it was Utah's defense that carried the day in a 17-0 victory. The blitzin' Utes teamed up for five sacks and 10 tackles for loss, causing first-string Golden Eagle quarterback Dustin Almond to lose his cool and backup Micky D'Angelo to leave the game with a concussion.

And, if holding the Conference USA champion to a paltry 11 first downs, 49 rushing yards and 213 total yards wasn't enough, the Ute defense also came to the rescue of its struggling offensive teammates. Late in the second quarter, safety Morgan Scalley sacked Almond, who fumbled. Ute Lewis Powell recovered the fumble on USM's 17-yard line to set up the only offensive touchdown of the game. Utah's other touchdown was scored by none other than Scalley, who scooped up a fumble forced by safety Dave Revill and returned it 74 yards for a touchdown with 1:36 remaining.

Although Utah never got untracked offensively, Brandon Warfield and Paris Warren both had memorable games. Warfield was named the Liberty Bowl offensive MVP after rushing for 91 yards and the game's first touchdown. Warren had 5 receptions for 72 yards to become Utah's single-season receiving record-holder (76 receptions in 2003). Bryan Borreson's 19-yard field goal in the fourth quarter gave Utah a 10-0 lead and some breathing room.

Ray Holdcraft led the defense with 8 tackles, 4 solo, and 2.5 tackles for loss. Revill had 2 sacks and Powell was the game's defensive MVP after recovering 2 fumbles.

2005 FIESTA BOWL - BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Pittsburgh	7
Utah	35

Tempe, Ariz. - Jan. 1, 2005

Inside The Game
The BCS busting Utes finish a perfect 12-0 season at the Fiesta Bowl on New Year's Day.

TEMPE—In the first BCS game ever for a non-BCS school, Utah steamrolled over Big East co-champion Pittsburgh, 35-7, in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Led by offensive co-MVPs Alex Smith and Paris Warren, Utah jumped to a 28-0 lead before Pittsburgh's only score of the day.

Warren's 15 receptions, which went for 198 yards, was a Fiesta Bowl record. Smith was unstoppable, completing 29 of 37 passes for 328 yards and 4 touchdowns (no interceptions). Utah's marvelous Heisman Trophy finalist QB also led all rushers with 68 net yards.

Equally responsible for Utah's blowout victory was the defense, which set a bowl record with nine quarterback sacks. Nose guard Steve Fifita, the defensive MVP, had 5 tackles, 2 tackles for loss and a sack. Safety Eric Weddle led the defense with 11 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup and senior linebacker Tommy Hackenbruck had a monster game in his final Ute outing. Included in Hackenbruck's 10 total tackles were 3 sacks for 29 yards.

The Utes enjoyed a home field atmosphere as the vast majority of sold-out Sun Devil Stadium was red-clad. All estimates suggest it was the largest gathering of Ute fans ever to watch a Utah football game.

2005 EMERALD BOWL

Georgia Tech	10
Utah	38

San Francisco, Calif. - Dec. 29, 2005

Inside The Game
Utah erupts against the nation's 12th-ranked defense for an upset win over Georgia Tech.

SAN FRANCISCO—Brett Ratliff and Travis LaTendresse roasted the nation's No. 12-ranked defense and led Utah to a 38-10 upset win over No. 24 Georgia Tech in the Emerald Bowl.

The Utes jumped out to a 20-0 lead just minutes into the second quarter before Georgia Tech made a little run by scoring all 10 of its points. A field goal with 0:03 left in the first half would mark the end of Tech's scoring for the night, however.

Ratliff's 30 completions, 381 passing yards and four touchdowns shattered the Emerald Bowl records, as well as setting new school and Mountain West Conference bowl records. LaTendresse, the game's offensive MVP, burned the Georgia Tech secondary with a bowl-record 16 receptions for 214 yards and four scores.

Quinton Ganther rushed for 120 yards and a touchdown in his final game as a Ute. Utah's defense–every bit as dominating as the offense–was spearheaded by defensive MVP Eric Weddle's superb performance against Tech's All-America receiver Calvin Johnson. Weddle hounded Johnson into a two-catch, 19-yard game. Weddle rarely left the field–also playing quarterback and on special teams. Steve Tate led Utah with 10 tackles and picked off his first career interception, which he returned 45 yards.

2006 ARMED FORCES BOWL

Tulsa	13
Utah	25

Fort Worth, Texas - Dec. 23, 2006

Inside The Game
All-American Eric Weddle rushed for a TD and ended the game with an intercepetion.

FORT WORTH, Texas—Utah extended its bowl win streak to six in a row with a convincing 25-13 victory over Tulsa. In his last game as a Ute, consensus All-America defensive back Eric Weddle showed why he was considered the most versatile player in the nation. Weddle rushed for the game's final touchdown and then intercepted a pass on the last play of the game. He finished with six tackles, a half sack, a fumble recovery and an interception, while rushing for 56 yards and a touchdown. He also held for Utah's four field goals.

As good as Weddle was, the MVP honors went to sophomore kicker/punter Louie Sakoda, who made all four of his field goal attempts and a PAT to account for 13 of Utah's 25 points. Sakoda, who made a career-long 45-yard field goal on his first try, also kept Tulsa on its heels with his punting: He averaged 47.3 yards per punt and placed two of his three punts inside the Tulsa 20-yard line.

Brett Ratliff engineered a Utah offense that out-gained Tulsa 405-254. He completed 23-of-34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown pass to Brent Casteel. Steve Tate led the defense with 10 tackles and a sack.

2007 POINSETTIA BOWL

Utah	35

San Diego, Calif. - Dec. 20, 2007

Inside The Game
Joe Dale gets a pick after Navy scores a TD in the final minute and recovers the onside kick.

SAN DIEGO—Poinsettia Bowl offensive MVP Brian Johnson put on a second-half passing clinic, defensive MVP Joe Dale made a game-saving interception with less than a minute remaining, and Utah edged Navy 35-32 in the first bowl game of the season.

Stymied on the ground in the first half, Utah turned to Johnson's arm after the break. He connected on 20 of his final 22 pass attempts including 11 straight completions. Johnson also rushed for 69 yards and a touchdown.

A 28-point second half rallied Utah to a 35-25 lead with 1:27 remaining in the game. But Navy struck back with a 58-yard pass play to narrow the gap to 35-32. The Midshipmen recovered their onside kick and advanced into Utah territory before Dale's first career interception on the 31-yard line sealed a Ute victory.

Dale finished with a career-high 12 tackles. Paul Kruger added 10 tackles and a sack. Darrell Mack rushed for 76 yards and two touchdowns.

2009 SUGAR BOWL - BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Utah	31
Alabama	17

New Orleans, La. - Jan. 2, 2009

Inside The Game
Utah scores on its first three possessions as it thumps favored Alabama.

NEW ORLEANS—No. 7-ranked Utah, playing in its second BCS bowl game in five years, stomped heavily favored and No. 4-ranked Alabama 31-17.

The Utes, who finished as the only undefeated FBS team in the nation, scored on their first three possessions to take a 21-0 first quarter lead. Alabama made a run in the second and third quarters, trimming Utah's lead to 21-17, but could not find the end zone for the final 25 minutes.

Sugar Bowl MVP Brian Johnson feasted on the nation's No. 3-ranked defense, completing 27-of-41 passes for 336 yards and three touchdowns. Freddie Brown had a career-high 125 receiving yards, and Bradon Godfrey, David Reed and Brent Casteel all caught TD passes.

The Ute defense was just as overpowering, sacking Alabama QB John Parker Wilson eight times (three by Stevenson Sylvester) and intercepting him twice (both by Robert Johnson). Utah also stymied a Tide run game that was averaging 196 yards per game, but could get just 31 against the Utes. Sylvester and Mike Wright had seven tackles each. Kepa Gaison and Sean Smith combined for 12 tackles and three sacks.

San Diego, Calif. - Dec. 23, 2009

Inside The Game
Trailing 14-0, Utes score 27 straight points and cruise to ninth-straight bowl win.

SAN DIEGO—After spotting Cal a 14-0 first-quarter lead, No. 23 Utah scored 27 straight points and cruised to a 37-27 victory in the Poinsettia Bowl. Utah extended the nation's longest active bowl win streak to nine games with the win.

Freshman quarterback Jordan Wynn initiated the comeback after throwing an interception that Cal returned for a touchdown. Wynn recovered quickly and finished with 338 passing yards, three touchdowns and the Offensive MVP trophy.

Defensive MVP honors went to Stevenson Sylvester, who led Utah with eight tackles, and whose interception and 27-yard return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter gave Utah a 37-21 lead and doused any Cal hopes for a comeback. Also intercepting a fourth-quarter pass was Robert Johnson. Utah's defense was in the Cal backfield for most of the night, recording four sacks and nine tackles for loss.

For the offense, David Reed set school records for receptions and receiving yards in a season by catching six passes for 103 yards, while freshman tight end Kendrick Moeai made two touchdown grabs.

2010 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah	3
Boise State	26

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 22, 2010

Inside The Game
Utes fall in battle of top 20 teams as bowl winning streak comes to an end.

LAS VEGAS—Utah's defense started fast, but the offense led by backup quarterback Terrance Cain couldn't keep pace and Utah lost 26-3 to 10th-ranked Boise State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

On the game's first drive, Lamar Chapman sacked Bronco quarterback Kellen Moore, jarring loose the ball, which was recovered by Neli A'asa at the BSU 20-yard line. Utah couldn't capitalize on its field position and first-team all-Mountain West Conference kicker Joe Phillips missed a 39-yard field goal—his first miss inside 40 yards all season.

Other key defensive plays in Boise's scoreless first quarter included forcing the Broncos to punt, stopping them on downs and an interception by Chaz Walker that he returned to the BSU 32-yard line. The interception set up Utah's only score of the day—a 44-yard field goal by Phillips. Utah would not score again while mustering just 200 yards in total offense. Walker led Utah with 10 tackles, an interception and a forced fumble, while Chapman added nine stops, a sack and a forced fumble.

Utah	45
Colorado State	10

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 20, 2014

Inside The Game
Relentless ground game and stingy defense help Utes roll over a former league rival.

LAS VEGAS—Bowl MVP Travis Wilson passed for 158 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 91 yards and three scores to lead Utah to a 45-10 rout of Colorado State.

Devontae Booker rushed for 162 yards and a touchdown and Kaelin Clay led the receivers with 63 yards.

Utah's defense kept the Rams out of the end zone for the final three quarters, stuffed the CSU run game to the tune of 12 net yards and allowed just one third down conversion in 10 attempts. Jared Norris had eight tackles, while Jason Fanaika, Pita Taumoepenu and Nate Orchard all recorded sacks.

The win moved Utah head coach Kyle Whittingham to 8-1 in bowl games and tied him with John Robinson (8-1 at USC/UNLV) for the best bowl winning percentage (.889) in NCAA history (minimum 7 wins).

Inside The Game
Utes unable to find their stride while playing in second-straight New Year's Eve bowl game.

SAN ANTONIO—The Utes finished the year with 11 wins, the third-most in school history, but they didn't get the ending they wanted with a 38-10 loss to Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Utah surrendered 438 yards of total offense to the Longhorns, including 231 rushing yards. On the other side of the ball, the Utes put up just 254 yards, converted 4-of-14 third down opportunities and allowed five sacks.

The Longhorns jumped out to a 17-0 lead early in the third quarter. Utah climbed back to within 14 points after Huntley threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Demari Simpkins to make it 24-10 with 11:34 left in the game. However, Texas responded with two more touchdowns.

Quarterback Tyler Huntley was 15-of-23 for 126 yards and one touchdown. Running back Zack Moss finished the game with 71 all-purpose yards that included a team-high 57 rushing yards. Mika Tafua led Utah's defense with a career high eight tackles, which included 1.5 tackles for loss, and Javelin Guidry grabbed his first interception of the season.
