CREDENTIALS

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the exclusive discretion of the University of Utah Athletic Communications Office. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines.

1. State and local health guidelines.
2. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
3. Daily newspapers regularly covering University of Utah, the current game opponent or another Pac-12 Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
4. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.
5. Officially recognized University of Utah daily student publications or student electronic media outlets with daily sports reports.
6. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.
7. All digital-only media outlets will be evaluated based on: a.) purpose (e.g. news-gathering) b.) news process/operation and c.) traffic.

CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

Season media credentials will be issued to those outlets which cover Utah Athletics on a regular basis for the 2023-24 season. Game-by-game media credentials will be issued for all others wishing to cover Utah men's basketball game(s) at the discretion of the athletic communications office.

Credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to anyone but working members of a media outlet.

The University of Utah and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

All credential requests must be placed with John Vu (jvu@huntsman.utah.edu) by sports editors or sports directors at least five (5) days prior to the scheduled game if possible. Requests made less than 24 hours prior to the scheduled game under extenuating circumstances will be determined on a case-by-case basis. Media members should use the south entrance of the Huntsman Center, where a media seating will be located for all home games.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned each game and located inside the West Tunnel photo workroom and on the basket stanchion nearest to the shooting lane.

Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to court-side photo areas. No flash units, strobes or tripods of any kind are permitted.

Freelance photographers will be granted credentials upon availability of space and at the discretion of the Utah Athletic Communications office.

MEDIA SEATING

Media seating (located in Section A) will cater to working press on deadline. All other priority seating will be made at the discretion of the Utah Athletic Communications office.

INTERVIEWS

- The Utah locker room is closed to the media following the game. The team is allowed the customary 10-minute cooling off period and time with the coaching staff to meet with the team after each game. Players requested for interviews will be brought to the interview room or will be held in designated areas at Jon M. Huntsman Center.

THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Pac-12 Conference continues to renew its undisputed claim as the Conference of Champions®. Beyond the courts and fields, the Pac-12's accomplishments extend into the classrooms across 12 campuses, and outside its traditional geographic footprint into new corners around the world.

The only conference to win 500 NCAA Championships, the Pac-12 has captured 207 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000 and 370 since 1981-82, the start of women's sports sponsorship, for an average of over nine per year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 55 of the last 61 years (through the 2020-21 season), with the exceptions coming no lower than third. In 2020-21, the Pac-12 captured eight NCAA team titles with men's indoor track & field (Oregon), skiing (Utah), men's water polo (UCLA), women's basketball (Stanford), men's gymnastics (Stanford), beach volleyball (USC), women's water polo (USC) and women's outdoor track & field (USC).

The Pac-12 has won the most or tied for the most NCAA titles for 16 consecutive seasons (through 2020-21), winning at least six every year from 1999-2000 to 2018-19 and a record 14 in 1996-97. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA championships in a single year.

Spanning over a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 has claimed 537 NCAA Championships (308 men's, 197 women's, 32 combined), over 200 more than the next league.

Pac-12 members have won 308 NCAA team championships on the men's side, over 80 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools, 54 tennis titles, 47 outdoor track & field crowns and 29 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 51 NCAA titles in volleyball, 47 of 52 in water polo, and 25 swimming & diving national championships.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 40 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 32 occasions (through 2020-21), including every year since 2000-01 except the shortened 2019-20 campaign. Pac-12 teams have captured 197 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 24 softball titles, 24 tennis crowns, 17 volleyball titles, 19 in golf and 17 in swimming & diving.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,300 individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with over 1,300 by male student-athletes. Pac-12 women student-athletes have captured an unmatched 800+ NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season. Student-athletes have also captured over 180 individual titles at combined championships (i.e., skiing and fencing).

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield IMG College Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD won an unprecedented 25th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2018-19 to lead the Conference with at least five member institutions earning scores in the top 25 each year of the Directors' Cup program. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Directors' Cup was not awarded in 2019-20.

LEAGUE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back more than 100 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Imperial Hotel in Portland, Oregon. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon Agricultural College (now Oregon State University). All four are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premier league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009, when he was succeeded by Larry Scott who held the role from 2009 to June 30, 2021. Scott was succeeded by current Pac-12 Commissioner George Kliavkoff who was announced on May 13, 2021 and formally assumed the role on July 1, 2021.

The University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Conference became the Pac-12 and officially began competition on July 1, 2011.

It was during the 2010-11 academic year that Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. In addition to expanding to 12 teams, member institutions agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in the Conference's history, created two football divisions - the North and the South, and established a Football Championship Game for the first time. He also secured landmark media rights deals with ESPN and FOX that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, in addition to establishing Pac-12 Networks which guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 13 women's sports, with the most recent additions coming in the 2017-18 (women's lacrosse) and 2015-16 (beach volleyball) academic years. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two women's sports.

The Pac-12 announced on March 29, 2022 plans to forego a permanent headquarters in order to best support employees and deliver savings to member universities. Included in the announcement, the Pac-12 will determine a location for a production facility for continued broadcast production activities.

JON M. HUNTSMAN CENTER

Regarded as one of the top college arenas in the nation since opening its doors in 1969, the Jon M. Huntsman Center has provided an imposing home advantage for Utah teams. The storied venue celebrated its 50th anniversary season in 2019-20.

Since opening its doors in November of 1969, the Huntsman Center has been the home to some of the greatest moments in Utah basketball, gymnastics and volleyball history, as well several NCAA Championship events. Commencements for the University of Utah and area high schools, concerts and numerous other special events have also taken place inside the 15,000-seat arena.

More than eight million fans have watched the Runnin' Utes in the Huntsman Center, where the team is 644-162 (.799) all-time with winning records in 50 of the last 52 seasons—including eight undefeated campaigns. Utah averaged 13,053 fans per home game in 2015-16, its highest mark since 2000-01.

A CHAMPIONSHIP VENUE

The Huntsman Center ranks third among the nation's arenas for the most NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament games hosted, with 81 contests taking place in the facility. The JMHC played host to the 1979 NCAA Basketball Championship "Dream Match-Up" featuring Indiana State's Larry Bird and Michigan State's Magic Johnson. The men's NCAA regional tournament came to the Huntsman Center twice (1971 and '81). First and second round games took place 13 times (most recently in 2006). The JMHC has hosted NCAA women's basketball first and second round games twice (2001 and '11).

Also a famous women's gymnastics venue, the Huntsman Center has hosted a record nine national gymnastics championships—one AIAW and eight NCAA Championships (most recently in 2007). Utah has also hosted 14 regional meets (most recently in 2018) and two Pac-12 Championships (most recently in 2015).

Women's basketball has hosted NCAA tournament first and second round games in 2001 and 2011. The NCAA women's volleyball tournament visited the Huntsman Center for the first time in 2017 with the Utes winning the Salt Lake Sub-Regional.

MORE THAN JUST ATHLETIC EVENTS

Some of the more famous acts to perform in the building's early days are: Elton John, Steppenwolf, Burt Bacharach with a 37-piece orchestra, Kenny Rodgers, John Denver, The Carpenters, The Temptations, Jackson 5 and The Beach Boys. Comedian Dave Chappelle brought the house down in the 2000s and Brian Reagan is scheduled to perform in November.

Speaking engagements are still prevalent in the Huntsman Center to this day, with recent appearances by the Dalai Lama and Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor. Hubert H.

Humphrey and President Gerald Ford spoke in the arena in the 1970s.

DESIGN AND RECENT IMPROVEMENTS

Architecturally, the Huntsman Center was once well-known for its steel cloud, which hung from the arena's silver dome interior and held the center court scoreboard, sound and lighting systems. The roof support beams are made out of wood, which made the weight of the steel cloud vital to holding them in place. The building was designed with pristine acoustics in mind.

The Huntsman Center underwent a $6 million renovation in the summer of 2014. The original ceiling cloud was replaced with a super grid structure. Energy efficient LED arena lighting, which accommodates instant on and off, was installed. A new state-of-the-art sound system and ceiling mounted sound panels provide greater clarity.

The project also included a draping system, offering a more intimate setting in the arena's lower bowl for smaller events. New banners were hung to honor Utah's all-time greatest teams and retired jerseys, and a maple wood floor was installed with an updated graphics and color scheme. New LED concourse lighting has been put in and the walls of the lower bowl were wrapped with new graphics. A $1.3 million center-hung video board and scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2007. It features an LED ring by Optotech and four LCD video screens. The locker rooms have also been renovated in recent years, funded in part by donations from former Ute basketball All-Americans Andrew Bogut and Andre Miller totaling $325,000.

CRAIG SMITH

HEAD COACH 3RD SEASON AT UTAH

UTAH RECORD: 28-35 (2 YEARS)
OVERALL RECORD: 253-142 (12 YEARS)
OVERALL RECORD (DI): 181-114 (9 YEARS)

Craig Smith was named the 16th head coach of the Runnin' Utes men's basketball program on Saturday, March 27, 2021, and begins his third season at the helm in 2023-24.

In his first season on the Hill, Smith saw big man Branden Carlson earn All-Pac-12 Second-Team honors while Lazar Stefanovic garnered Pac-12 All-Freshman Team accolades. The veteran head coach saw the Utes start the year with five-straight victories — including the Sunshine Slam Tournament Championship behind a 72-58 victory over Tulsa in the title game.

The 2022-23 Runnin' Utes saw much improvement all-around and was highlighted by its 81-66 victory over then-No. 4/4 Arizona at home in early December. Utah started the Pac-12 slate 8-3 before finishing 10-10 in league play after the Utes were hit with the injury bug down the stretch. Carlson had a solid senior season earning himself All-Pac-12, Associated Press All-Pac-12 and NABC All-District accolades after averaging 16.4 points, 7.5 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 2.0 blocks with a .496 shooting percentage.

Smith came to Salt Lake City with some familiarity, having served as the head coach at Utah State the past three seasons up in Logan. The veteran head coach takes the helm of his third Division I program after leading both South Dakota and Utah State to multiple postseason tournament appearances.

During his time in Logan, Smith compiled a 74-24 record with the Aggies while leading USU to three-consecutive 20-plus win seasons, two Mountain West Conference Tournament Championships (2019, 2020) and a regular-season championship.

In 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 10 as a head coach, Smith has been to postseason play 13 times, while winning four regular-season and four postseason conference championships. He has earned four conference coach of the year awards (2006, 2007, 2017, 2019) in three different conferences and was named NAIA II National Coach of the Year Award in 2007, the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 12 Coach of the Year Award in 2017, and NABC District 17 Coach of the Year and USBWA District VIII Coach of the Year in 2019.

Smith saw immediate success in his first season at USU, leading it to an overall record of 28-7 — which was the most wins by a first-year head coach at USU and third-most wins overall in school history. The Aggies earned a spot in the Big Dance his first season after capturing the conference tournament crown and earned the No. 8 seed — which was the highest in program history.

His second year in Logan saw much of the same success, again winning the conference tournament and was just 1-of-12 programs to clinch a spot in the NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to COVID-19.

In a season unlike any other, Smith led the Aggies to their 22nd NCAA Tournament appearance in 2020-21 with an at-large berth after finishing second in the MWC with a 20-9 overall record — which earned it the 11 seed.

The Aggies thrived under the direction of Smith with Sam Merrill becoming the first player in MWC history to garner back-to-back conference tournament MVP honors. Merrill also went on to collect two First-Team All-MWC selections and a 2019 AP All-America Honorable Mention nod.

Neemias Queta also saw success at Utah State, collecting freshman of the year honors and defensive player of the year accolades at the end of the 2019 campaign. In addition, he was a three-time all-conference and all-defensive team selection. He had a breakout junior season, collecting a host of honors including, MWC Player of the Year (media), MWC Defensive Player of the Year, First-Team All-MWC, AP

HEAD COACH

Honorable Mention All-America, USBWA/NABC All-District Team, all-tournament team and Bleacher Report's Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to taking over the Utah State program, Smith spent four seasons (2015-18) at South Dakota and led the Coyotes to a 79-55 (.590) overall mark – including a 38-26 (.594) record in Summit League action. Smith guided USD to back-to-back postseason appearances in his final two season in Vermillion, S.D.

In his final season at USD, Smith led the Coyotes to a 26-9 record and CBI appearance. The 26-9 overall mark was the second-most wins in school history and best record in the program's 10-year existence at the Division I level. That 2017-18 team did not lose back-to-back games in the regular-season.

The 2016-17 season saw South Dakota go 22-12 overall and 12-4 in league play – which earned it a spot in the NIT. Smith was named the NABC District 12 Coach of the Year for his efforts after leading USD to just its second Division I conference championship.

Overall, Smith guided nine players who totaled 11 all-conference accolades – including Matt Mooney, a two-time first-team all-conference honoree and two-time NABC All-District 12 recipient.

Smith spent two seasons (2012-14) at Nebraska as an assistant coach after spending five seasons as an assistant at Colorado State (2007-12). During his time as an assistant,

Smith was part of two NCAA Tournament runs, guiding CSU to the Big Dance in 2012 and then the Cornhuskers in 2014.

Smith also served as the head coach at NAIA Mayville State from 2005-07, posting a 72-29 record and led them to the NAIA II National Tournament each year. He inherited a team that went 1-25 the previous season and led the Comets to the NAIA National Championship in his final season before departing for Colorado State. Smith was named the NAIA II National Coach of the Year when the Comets defended their regular season and tournament titles and advanced to the National Championship game in 2007. It also marked the first time any men's basketball team from North Dakota had ever played for a national title. Smith also earned DAC Coach of the Year honors in both 2006 and 2007.

He began his coaching career at Mayville State his first year out of college in 1997 before taking a graduate assistant position at Northern State the year after, and helped the Wolves advance to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Division II Tournament. Smith stayed within the Big Sky footprint and was as an assistant at Minot State from 1999-2001 before serving as an assistant coach under Tim Miles at North Dakota State (2002-04) – with whom he would later work at Colorado State and Nebraska.

Smith is a Stephen, Minn., native and a 1996 graduate of the University of North Dakota, where he earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education. He then earned his master's degree in teaching and learning from Northern State while he was a graduate assistant.

He was honored by the University of North Dakota with the Tom Clifford Award, which recognizes UND alumni who serve as athletic coaches on the high school or college level and have been notably successful in their sport the preceding year on Oct. 1, 2021.

Smith and his wife, Darcy, have three sons: Landon, Brady and Carson, and a daughter, Lauren.

3RD / 1ST SEASON AT UTAH

Tramel Barnes begins his third season with the Runnin' Utes men's basketball team and first as an assistant coach after being elevated to his new role in July of 2023. He served as the director of player personnel his first two years after reuniting with Craig Smith as part of his staff in May of 2021.

In his previous role with the Runnin' Utes, Barnes oversaw academics and recruiting among other things before picking up scheduling duties his second year on staff. Utah made improvements as program in 2023-24 – which was highlighted by it defeating then-No. 4/4 Arizona 81-66 at home. The Utes also started Pac-12 play 8-3 before key injuries down the stretch saw them finish 10-10 in conference action.

Barnes came to Salt Lake City after spending two seasons at South Dakota State (2019-21) as an assistant coach where he guided SDSU to a Summit League regular-season championship this past season. The Jackrabbits finished the 2020-21 campaign 16-7 overall and 9-3 in league action. Barnes helped a pair of all-league players in Baylor Scheierman and Douglas Wilson, who earned first-team and second-team honors, respectively. Scheierman also went on to earn NABC All-District Second-Team accolades after averaging 15.4 points, 9.2 rebounds and 3.9 assists with a .498 shooting clip.

In his first season with the Jackrabbits they went 22-10 overall and 13-3 in Summit League play – which gave them a share of the Summit League regular-season title. Barnes had immediate impact his first year with three Jackrabbits earning all-league honors. For his efforts, Barnes was named to Silver Waves Media's Top-50 Impactful Mid-Major Assistants.

Barnes' first post under Smith came during the 2018-19 season at Utah State, where he served as the director of basketball operations and player development. His first year in Logan saw the Aggies win the Mountain West regular-season and tournament titles as well as an NCAA Tournament berth. The NABC recognized Barnes for his efforts and named him to the 2019 Under Armour

30-Under-30 Team.

Prior to joining Smith in Cache Valley, Barnes spent six seasons at Southwest Minnesota State and gradually moved up the ladder to become the top assistant after starting out as a graduate assistant. While with the Mustangs, Barnes led them to a South Division Championship in the NSIC back-to-back years while going 53-15 in those two seasons – including a record-tying 28 victories in 2016-17. In total, Barnes saw six players reach all-conference status while 24 earned academic all-league honors during his time at SMSU.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Barnes finished his junior and senior year at SMSU after playing his first two seasons at Northern State University. He finished his career as the sixth-best free-throw shooter in school history with an .828 shooting clip from the line. At NSU, he saw action in 48 games for the Wolves.

Barnes received his bachelor's in sports management from Southwest Minnesota State in 2013 before earning his masters in physical education from SMSU. Barnes is married to his wife, Brittani Wiese - who was four-year letter winner at Minnesota Crookston.

ASSISTANT COACH

CHRIS BURGESS

2ND SEASON AT UTAH

Chris Burgess returned home to his alma mater in April of 2022 and begins his second season as an assistant coach with the Runnin' Utes in 2023-24.

His first season in SLC saw big man Brandon Carlson make a huge jump, averaging 16.4 points, 7.5 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 2.0 blocks. The Utah center also earned multiple accolades including First-Team All-Pac-12, Associated Press All-Pac-12 and NABC First-Team All-District honors. Burgess has also been instrumental in the development of Ben Carlson and Keba Keita his first year. His first season on staff also saw the Utes pick up their first marquee win under Craig Smith when Utah upended then-No. 4/4 Arizona at home 81-66 behind a game-high 22 points with five rebounds from Brandon Carlson and 11 points with six rebounds from Ben Carlson.

No stranger to the U, Burgess spent seven seasons alongside Mark Pope at BYU and Utah Valley where he helped guide the Cougars to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2021 and first since 2015 as the No. 6 seed. During that season, the Cougs ranked in the top-25 in defensive rebounds per game (5th, 29.7), rebounding margin (22nd, +6.7) and rebounds per game (25th, 39.19). Burgess also helped Matt Haarms become the first player in program history to earn WCC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2020-21.

The 2021-22 campaign saw the team down south finish 24-11 overall with a signature win over then-No. 12 Oregon with a trio of victories over NCAA Tournament teams. The Cougars also earned an NIT bid and advanced to the quarterfinals.

His first season in Provo saw the Cougars finish 24-8 overall with a final national ranking of #18/16 after the remainder of the season was shut down due to COVID-19. BYU saw three players earn All-WCC First-Team honors that season while the team led the nation in 3-point field-goal percentage (.422), second in assists/turnover ratio (1.57), third in field-goal percentage (.500) and fourth in total assists (556).

Burgess and Pope first linked up at Utah Valley when he joined Pope's staff in 2015. In his four seasons at UVU, the Wolverines went from a 12-win team his first year to a program record 25 wins in 2018-19. UVU saw plenty of success with Burgess on staff, recording back-to-back 20-win seasons from 2017-19 while also making three-consecutive postseason appearances (2017-19).

His development of post players saw Akolda Manyang named a WAC All-Defensive Team honoree in 2017-18 while Wyatt Lowell earned WAC Freshman of the Year in 2019.

Offensively, the Wolverines rewrote the school record books taking up the top-four spots in scoring average category led by a 78.1 scoring average in 2017-18. UVU also posted four of the top-five spots in the 3-point field goals made category – including a program best 300-made triples in 2016-17.

Burgess played two seasons under the late legendary head coach Rick Majerus from 2000-02 after sitting out the 1999-2000 due to NCAA transfer rules. The former No. 1 recruit in the country and McDonald's All-American out of Woodbridge High School started his collegiate career at Duke (1997-99) playing for hall of famer and now former head coach Mike Krzyzewski.

While in Durham, Burgess helped the Blue Devils to an Elite Eight run his freshman season (1998) before taking Duke to the National Championship game in 1999. After a solid start to his senior year on The Hill, Burgess tore his right plantar fascia vs. Texas, forcing him to miss the remainder of the year. At the point of his injury, Burgess was leading the Utes with 13.2 points, 7.2 rebounds, 1.2 blocks, and a .667 shooting clip while averaging 25.5 minutes a game. He finished his career at Utah guiding the Runnin' Utes to an NIT appearance in 2001 and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2002.

Burgess then went on to have an 11-year professional career in Turkey, Australia, the Philippines, South Korea, Ukraine, Puerto Rico, Poland and the UAE.

After hanging up his laces, Burgess returned to The Hill in 2013-14 and earned his undergraduate degree in speech communications while serving as a student assistant under former head coach Larry Krystkowiak.

He went on as a volunteer assistant coach at Salt Lake Community College in 2014 and then took the assistant coach job at Indian Hills Community College (2014-15) before joining Mark Pope's staff at Utah Valley (2015-19).

Burgess is married to his wife Lesa, a former Utah soccer player. They have three daughters, Kelli Jo "KJ", Zoey and Ava as well as two boys, Beckham and Zachary. Daughter KJ, who was a second-team AVCA High School All-American, is currently a sophomore middle blocker on the Utah Volleyball team and was named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team 2022.

ASSISTANT COACH

DEMARLO SLOCUM

ASSISTANT COACH
11TH / 3RD SEASON AT UTAH

DeMarlos Slocum returned the University of Utah for his second stint with the Runnin' Utes men's basketball program in 2021-22 and enters his third season on Craig Smith's staff, 11th overall.

Slocum, who spent eight seasons on the Hill (2011-19), returned after serving as an assistant coach at UNLV alongside TJ Otzelberger from 2019-21.

His first season back in SLC saw Slocum help development the younger guards, Gabe Madsen and Lazar Stefanovic. Stefanovic was later named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman team at seasons end after averaging 7.7 points and 3.3 rebounds in league play. The Utes also had early season success, starting the year 5-0 and capped it off winning the Sunshine Slam Tournament championship. The 2022-23 campaign saw much improvement from the guards with both Madsen (11.6ppg) and Stefanovic (10.3ppg) averaging double-digit points. The highlight of the season came in December when the Utes rolled past then-No. 4/4 Arizona 81-66 at home. Slocum recently served as a panelist at the annual Rising Coaches Conference in July of 2023 focusing on culture, recruiting and impacting winning as an assistant coach.

Silver Waves Media recognized Slocum in May of 2022 and named him one of the most impactful high major assistant coaches in Division I basketball.

A native of Las Vegas, Slocum helped his hometown team to a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference his first season – which was the best league finish in 12 years. In that same year, the Runnin' Rebels also handed fourth-ranked San Diego State its first loss of the season and gave UNLV its best true road victory since 1991.

The Runnin' Rebels were also fantastic in the classroom with 11 student-athletes posting a 3.0 GPA or greater in the spring of 2020.

During his first stint at Utah, Slocum was integral in the Runnin' Utes making five-straight postseason appearances – including back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths, a Sweet 16 appearance and an NIT runner-up finish. In addition, he was on staff when the Utes had a player selected in the first round of the NBA Draft in three-consecutive years (2015-17).

Of those three first-round draft picks, Slocum recruited Delon Wright and Kyle Kuzma to SLC. Wright, who was the 2015 Bob Cousy Award winner, became the first player in Pac-12 history to win the honor since the award's inception in 2003-04. He also led the Runnin' Utes in scoring and assists back-to-back years (2013-15), and finished his career at Utah with 1,022 points – which is good for 38th best in program history. Wright was a two-time All-Pac-12 First-Teamer (2014-15) while Kuzma was a first-team honoree in 2017. Wright was the 20th overall selection by Toronto Raptors in 2015 and currently plays with the Sacramento Kings while Kuzma was drafted 27th overall by the Brooklyn Nets before playing an integral role in the Los Angeles Lakers' championship run in 2020.

Prior to joining the Utes, Slocum spent four seasons at Colorado State where he worked alongside Smith under Tim Miles. Slocum was part of the revitalization process of the Rams' basketball program and went from winning seven games total his first year to 19 games his final year in Ft. Collins with two-straight postseason appearances.

Before joining Miles' staff, Slocum was an assistant coach at Idaho during the 2006-07 season after joining Tim Floyd's staff as the director of operations at Southern California (2005-06).

Slocum's coaching career began in at Georgia Southern where he finished his collegiate career, serving as a graduate assistant for the 2001-02 campaign. From there, he returned to his home state to become the head coach at Desert Pines High School from 2002-04. While leading the Jaguars, Slocum also founded the Las Vegas Prospects AAU program.

A student-athlete himself, Slocum spent two seasons at Dixie State before finishing out his career at Georgia Southern where he earned a degree in public recreation and kinesiology in 2001. As a junior at Georgia Southern, he was the team's second-leading scorer before finishing fourth in scoring as a senior. Slocum received his master's degree in educational leadership from Grand Canyon University in 2017.

Olson served as the primary day-to-day administrator within the Nebraska basketball office where he handled the program's budget, team travel, clinics, camps and daily office operations while also serving as the liaison with academics, life skills, HuskerVision and media relations departments.

Before joining Miles' staff at Colorado State, Olson was the lead assistant at Augustana College from 2007-10. The Vikings went 67-26 during his three seasons there and qualified for three-consecutive NCAA Division II Regional Tournaments. He was also integral in recruiting back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Freshman of the Year recipients at Augustana.

JUSTIN JOHNSON

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH 3RD SEASON AT UTAH

Justin Johnson enters his third year with the Utah men's basketball team as the special assistant to the head coach after serving on Smith's staff at Utah State (2018-21) in a similar capacity.

Johnson and Smith formed their relationship back in the late 90s when he played at Minot State. After playing three seasons (1997-2000) for the Beavers, he served as a student assistant for the 2000-01 season. Johnson then moved on to North Dakota State (2001-03) where he served as a student assistant alongside Smith, who was then an assistant coach under Tim Miles.

Prior to joining Smith at Mayville State as an assistant coach (2004-07), Johnson was an assistant coach at Berthold High School. During his time as an assistant coach under Smith, the Comets basketball program made the biggest turnaround in school history and went from 1-27 the year prior to earning a berth in the NAIA Division II National Tournament. The Comets would make the national tournament all three seasons they were at Mayville State together, culminating in an appearance in the NAIA Division II National Championship game. Along the way, the Comets won back-to-back regular-season and tournament championships their last two seasons.

Johnson then took over the Comets program after Smith departed for Colorado State from 2007-12. While at the helm, he guided Mayville State to a third-place finish in league play after losing 10 seniors from the national runner-up team a season prior. In his third season, Johnson led the Comets to an upset over Division I North Dakota – the first victory over a Division I team in program history. Johnson's teams were ranked in the top-five nationally in several categories throughout his tenure and coached six players to all-conference selections under his watch. Johnson was also the school's sports information director while he was the head coach.

After leading the Comets for five seasons, Johnson went into the private sector where he had a successful business career as well as becoming North Dakota's top-ranked racquetball player – winning 27 amateur tournaments in six years. Johnson also competed part-time on the International Racquetball Tour, racquetball's professional circuit, where he recorded an upset against the No. 17-ranked player in the world in September of 2017. He teamed up with Hall-of-Famer Sudsy Monchik in January of 2018 to win a doubles championship in his last pro event before reuniting with Smith at Utah State.

He received his bachelor's in mass communications at North Dakota State in 2003 before earning a master's in sport and recreation management at NDSU in 2006.

Johnson is married to Jaime Nett-Johnson and have a son, Alex.

TREVOR JAMESON

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE
25TH SEASON AT UTAH

Trevor Jameson is in his 25th year as an athletics trainer with the University of Utah heading into the 2022-23 season. In 2008, he also accepted the position of Director of Sports Medicine for the Utah Athletic Training program. His primary responsibility is working with the Runnin' Utes basketball team.

Before coming to Utah, Jameson spent four years as an assistant athletic trainer and instructor at DePauw University in Indiana. In addition to working with DePauw athletes, Jameson assisted in the development of the department's CAAHEP accredited athletic training education program and provided clinical instruction for students.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

MARK HARLAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
6TH YEAR

In his five years as Director of Athletics at the University of Utah, Mark Harlan has led the Utes' athletics programs to unprecedented success in the classroom, in competition and in the community, while elevating the overall student-athlete experience and raising the bar in fundraising. Harlan brought to Salt Lake City more than 20 years of intercollegiate athletics experience at five different universities and a deep history in the Pac-12 Conference when he began his tenure in 2018.

As he begins his sixth year at the helm in 2023-24, Harlan is guiding the Department of Athletics as it builds upon a record-setting 2022-23 school year in which Utah earned its highest finish ever in the LEARFIELD Director's Cup and Harlan was named Cushman & Wakefield Athletics Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. University of Utah President Taylor Randall, in June 2023, announced an extension of Harlan's contract through 2028, and in September of 2023 Harlan was appointed to the College Football Playoff Selection Committee.

During Harlan's tenure, Utah has won four national championships and 24 conference championships, 16 of which have come just in the past two years. In each of the past two competition years, the Utes have had a school-record eight teams qualify for NCAA championship competition or a bowl game. Among the successes: Football has earned back-to-back Pac-12 Championships and Rose Bowl berths; the ski team has won four consecutive NCAA championships; and gymnastics has earned three consecutive third-place NCAA Championships finishes.

The Utes claimed a school-record 10 conference championships in 2022-23 between regular season and tournament or championship games, and sent a record-tying eight teams to postseason competition. Among those, the Utes' football program played in the Rose Bowl as back-to-back Pac-12 champions, skiing won the NCAA championship, gymnastics placed third at the NCAA Championships, softball reached its first Women's College World Series since 1994 and women's basketball advanced to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 2006.

The Utes' remarkable 2022-23 athletics year followed what had been Utah's most successful year in 2021-22 since joining the Pac-12 in 2011. Seven of Utah's sport programs earned NCAA postseason berths and football played in yet another bowl game, the most Utah teams in postseason competition in the same year. The football team played in a New Year's Six Bowl, with its first Rose Bowl berth, and was one of four Utah teams to win a conference championship, along with gymnastics (Pac-12), skiing (RMISA) and lacrosse (ASUN regular season).

While the football program has risen to Pac-12 superiority with two conference championships and appearances in four of the past five Pac-12 championship games, six other Utah programs have claimed at least one conference championship over the last five years: skiing, gymnastics, lacrosse, women's basketball, men's tennis and softball. The Utah skiing program's four national championships (2019, '21-'23), have been achieved under the leadership of Director of Skiing Fredrik Landstedt, Harlan's first head coach hire in 2018.

In addition to success in competition, academic achievement has risen to new heights under Harlan's leadership, with Utah's student-athletes posting the top four semester GPAs on record, including a program-best 3.57 GPA in Spring 2020. In each of his first three years at Utah, the Utes' student-athletes broke the previous record for full-year GPA, including a top GPA of 3.407 in 2020-21, followed by a 3.315 average GPA for 2021-22 (fourth-best) and 3.355 for 2022-23 (third-best). Utah's 3.384 GPA for Spring 2023 ranked fourth all-time.

Utah recorded its fifth consecutive year with a 93-percent or higher NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in 2022, tying for second among Pac-12 universities behind only Stanford. This stretch includes a school-record 95-percent GSR in 2018, followed by 94-percent GSRs in 2019 and 2020 and 93-percent scores in 2021 and 2022.

Harlan has spearheaded fundraising efforts that have raised more than $60 million for capital projects, including the development of the $85 million Ken Garff Red Zone at Rice-Eccles Stadium, which opened in August of 2021 and expanded the stadium's capacity to 51,444 while also enclosing the stadium's south end. The expansion added new team locker room facilities, club spaces, suites and premium seating—all of which sold out prior to the grand opening. Plans for the project were unveiled in November 2018, and in April 2019, the Ken Garff family announced a donation of $17.5 million toward the project, the largest gift in Utah Athletics history.

Continued upgrades of Utah's athletics facilities under Harlan have also included the expansion of the Dumke Gymnastics Center, completed in 2023 to modernize and improve the home of the 10-time national champion Red Rocks program, as well as construction of the David S. Layton Golf Academy, the on-campus training facility for Utah's men's golf team, which opened in January 2021. Located on Guardsman Way, across from the Spence and Cleone Eccles Football Center, the 7,000-square foot, $2.9 million golf training facility provides state-of-the-art technology for Utah's student-athletes to enhance every aspect of their performance.

The health and wellness of student-athletes continues to be a priority for Harlan and has been reflected in his work with the Crimson Council and with Utah's Student-Athletic Advisory Committee, including enhancing mental health resources for students. In 2018, he added a third full-time member of the mental health team, serving student-athletes in the areas of psychology, wellness, and mental performance, and the staff now includes five full-time members.

Harlan has also overseen the continued development of the Ute Academy, which focuses on four pillars of student-athlete success: Leadership, Career, Personal and Community Service, and he has increased investment in the student-athlete U.T.A.H. Group (United Together Against Hate), which focuses on issues of racial and social injustice.

In June 2021, the Department of Athletics launched the Elevate U NIL program, in partnership with Utah's world-class Lassonde Entrepreneur Institute and the David S. Eccles School of Business, to support Utah's student-athletes as they seek to maximize their Name, Image & Likeness (NIL) opportunities under the NCAA's amended legislation. The program continues to expand through strategic partnerships with industry-leading providers INFLCR, The Brandr Group and Campus Legends, among others, including the launch in June 2022 of the Elevate U Exchange, in partnership with INFLCR, to create an NIL marketplace for Utah's student-athletes and interested businesses, collectives and individuals.

Entering the 2023-24 school year, seven of Utah's head coaches have been hired by Harlan including Landstedt, Ric Mortera (women's tennis), Craig Smith (men's basketball), Gary Henderson (baseball), Hideki Nakada (women's soccer), Andrew McMinn (lacrosse) and Jonas Persson (swimming and diving) who was promoted in 2022.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Harlan has significantly upgraded the strength and appeal of Utah's future football schedules with the addition of eight games since his arrival in 2018—four home-and-home series—against SEC and Big Ten opponents. Florida (2022, '23), Arkansas (2026, '29), Wisconsin (2028, '33) and LSU (2031, '32) with each opponent visiting Salt Lake City.

Harlan has been named to several influential committees throughout his career, and is currently serving on the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee, the latter of which began in 2022-23 after a three-year term on the Division I Football Oversight Committee that began in 2019. He is serving as chair of the Pac-12 A.D. Committee for 2023-24, and has previously held a lead role in the league's Football Working Group and served as the A.D. liaison to the league's football coaches in navigating the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. Previous NCAA committee appointments include the Division I Council Transfer Working Group and the Division I Competition Oversight Committee.

Prior to his arrival in Salt Lake City, Harlan spent four years as the Director of Athletics at the University of South Florida, where he spearheaded record competitive, academic and fundraising accomplishments while also negotiating new multimedia rights and apparel partnerships. The Bulls won 14 American Athletic Conference titles under his leadership and nine USF programs ranked in the Top 25 in 2015-16, when the Bulls led the American Athletic Conference in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings.

The USF football program appeared in three consecutive bowl games from 2015-17 and won a school-record 11 games in 2016. In the classroom, USF student-athletes set school marks for combined grade-point average and GSR, and fundraising success included a 300-percent increase in major giving, including the best fundraising year in school history in 2016-17 ($15 million). Harlan chaired the AAC's A.D. Committee in 2017-18 after serving as vice chair in 2016.

From 2010-14, Harlan served as senior associate athletics director for external relations at UCLA, with oversight responsibilities including the men's basketball program, development, communications, marketing, ticket sales, sponsorships, multimedia rights and alumni affairs.

While at UCLA, Harlan reorganized the structure of the major giving program and the annual fund, which resulted in a record number of donors and dollars raised in 2013. He successfully managed completion of a $137 million campaign to renovate iconic Pauley Pavilion in 2012. Harlan was also heavily involved in the negotiations with the City of Pasadena to enable a $200 million renovation of the Rose Bowl Stadium.

Harlan left for UCLA after four years as the senior vice president for central development at the University of Arizona Foundation from 2006-10. Under Harlan's direction, the Foundation posted two record years in the amount of funds raised and in the number of gifts processed on behalf of the university. He moved into central development at Arizona after over a decade working in the Wildcat athletics department. He held a variety of roles in athletics, serving as the assistant coordinator for football recruiting and operations (1992-94), program coordinator for event management (1994-97), director of operations (1997-2000), director of annual development (2000-02) and assistant athletics director for development and marketing (2002-04).

Harlan's background also includes one-year stints as senior associate athletics director for external operations at San Jose State (2005-06) and associate athletics director for external operations at Northern Colorado (2004-05). At SJSU, he launched a planned giving program that generated $8 million in estate gifts directed toward student-athlete scholarship endowments. At Northern Colorado, he played a key role in the school's transition to NCAA Division I and the Big Sky Conference.

Harlan, 53, earned a bachelor's degree in political science and a master's degree in education from the University of Arizona. He and his wife, Carolyn, have two children: Savannah (18) and Austin (15) along with Cali the Labradoodle (9).

THE BOB COUSY AWARD

DELON WRIGHT (2014-15)

Guard • 6-5 • 190 • Senior • Los Angeles, Calif.

Utah senior Delon Wright was named the 2015 recipient of the Bob Cousy Award on April 10, 2015, for the nation's top point guard. In addition to being the first Utah player to win the award, Wright was also the first Pac-12 player to win the honor, which has been handed out every season since 2003-04.

Wright follows 2014 NCAA Tournament MOP Shabazz Napier and 2013 Naismith Award winner and current member of the Utah Jazz Trey Burke as winners of the Cousy Award.

Wright was nominated along with AP Third Team All-American and West Coast Conference Player of the Year Kevin Pangos of Gonzaga, AP Honorable Mention All-American and 2015 NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player Tyus Jones of Duke and AP Honorable Mention All-Americans Fred VanVleet of Wichita State and T.J. McConnell of Arizona.

Wright won a number of accolades in 2014-15, including earning a spot on the John R. Wooden All-American Team, being named a Sporting News All-American, as well as an AP, USBWA and NABC Second Team All-American. He also captured the USBWA District VIII Player of the Year, made First Team All-Pac-12 and the conference's All-Defensive Team.

Wright led the Utes to the Sweet 16 where they fell to eventual national champion Duke. Utah also achieved its best season since joining the Pac-12, going 26-9, 13-5 in conference play.

Wright finished third all-time at Utah in steals despite only playing two seasons. He ranked second in the Pac-12 in assist-to-turnover ratio (26th nationally), third in steals (23rd nationally) and sixth in free-throw percentage. The senior also finished third in the league in assists and 10th in scoring. Wright finished his career with 1,022 points, 397 rebounds, 352 assists, 155 steals and 77 blocks.

Bob Cousy had an All-America career (1946-1950) at Holy Cross, leading the Crusaders to three NCAA tournaments and the 1947 title. He was named a Consensus First-Team All-American in 1950. His success continued at the professional level as a six-time NBA Champion (1957, 1959-1963), NBA Most Valuable Player (1957) and 13-time NBA All-Star (1951-63). In 1996, he was named a member of the NBA's 50th Anniversary All-Time Team.

THE KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR AWARD

JAKOB POELTL (2015-16)

Center • 7-0 • 245 • Sophomore • Vienna, Austira

Utah sophomore was named the 2016 recipient of the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award on April 8, 2016, for the nation's top center. In addition to being the first Utah player to win the award, Poeltl was also the first Pac-12 player to win the honor.

The sophomore out of Vienna, Austria, was presented with the award at the second-annual College Basketball Awards show at the NOVO in downtown Los Angeles.

"Getting this award is still kind of surreal to me," Poeltl said after the awards show. "It is a great honor to have my name associated with Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. He one of, if not the best center to ever play the game. He is the all-time scoring leader in the NBA. This really means a lot to me. It is a testament to all of the hard work that I have put in and all of the support that I received from both my family and my coaches."

A Second-Team Consensus All-American, Poeltl helped lead Utah to 27 wins and a second consecutive trip to the NCAA Championship Tournament in 2015-16. He led the team in scoring (17.2), rebounding (9.1), field goal shooting percentage (.646) and blocked shots (56). Poeltl scored 620 points on the season to become the first Utah player to eclipse the 600-point mark since Andrew Bogut tallied 715 points back in the 2004-05 campaign.

Poeltl won out over Purdue's A.J. Hammons, Providence's Ben Bentil, Gonzaga's Domantas Sabonis and Weber State's Joel Bolomboy.

The winner was decided by a combination of fan votes and input from the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame selection committee.

Jakob Poeltl was presented with the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar trophy from the center himself on Friday, April 8, 2016, at the annual College Basketball Awards show at NOVO in downtown Los Angeles.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1916 AAU CHAMPIONS

The 1915-16 Ute hoop squad started out as a team unsure of itself, but after a victory over Brigham Young in Provo and two close wins over Utah State the team knew it was pretty good. Utah had not considered sending a team to Chicago for the AAU National Championships, but after the Utes beat the defending national champion Olympic Club of San Francisco, 46-26, a groundswell of support raised enough money to send the team to the Windy City in search of a national title. After drawing a first-night bye, the Utes faced a rematch with the Olympic Club. The results were the same the second time around as Utah took a 52-40 victory to move into the championship game against the Illinois Athletic Club.

The title game was close throughout, and with just seconds to go Illinois had a one-point lead and the ball out of bounds under the Ute basket. Utah coach Nelson H. Nordgren set up a tight defense, and on the inbound pass Ute forward Clyde Packer knocked the ball to the ground. Packer picked up the ball and with just a "second or two left" threw the ball in the basket to give Utah a 28-27 win and its first national championship.

The Utes were invited to both the NIT and the NCAA Tournament at the end of the 1944 season, but chose the former. At the time, the NIT was a much better tournament financially, and the chance to play in New York's Madison Square Garden was something the Ute players, and especially coach Vadal Peterson, wanted to experience.

1944 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Kentucky was Utah's first opponent in the NIT and even though the young Utes played well, they couldn't overcome the experience of the Wildcats and fell 46-36. While the Utes were still seeing the sights of New York before heading home, Peterson received a phone call from the NCAA asking them to participate in their tournament as a late fill-in for Arkansas, which was involved in an automobile accident, making the team unable to play in the tournament. The Utes quickly accepted and headed to Kansas City, where they beat Missouri, 45-35, in the first round and Iowa State, 40-35, to advance to the championship game back in Madison Square Garden against Dartmouth.

The game was close throughout, with the lead changing hands six times in the last two minutes. At the end of regulation the two teams were tied at 36 and the game headed into overtime.

Arnie Ferrin, who scored 22 points that night, netted four points in the extra period. With the score tied at 40 with just three seconds left, Herb Wilkinson hit a one-hander from behind the free throw circle to give the Utes the win and the NCAA Championship. A few days later, Utah faced NIT winner St. John's in a Red Cross Benefit game in the Garden. Helped by a nine-point run in the second half, the Utes came away with a 43-36 victory.

Ferrin was the first freshman ever to be named MVP of the Final Four.

Head Coach Vadal Peterson (top row, left) led Utah to the NCAA Championship in 1944 and the first of two national titles in four seasons.

1947 NIT CHAMPIONS

Three years after accepting an NIT invitation that turned into an NCAA Championship, the Utes were again invited to the prestigious New York tournament. This time, the Utes helped the state of Utah celebrate its centennial by coming away with the 1947 NIT Championship.

The Utes won the three games in the tournament by a total of seven points, beating Duquesne, 45-44, West Virginia, 64-62, and sneaking by Kentucky, 49-45, in the championship game.

Arnie Ferrin, Wat Misaka and Dick Smuin, veterans of the '44 NCAA Championship run, were mainstays of this team, but center Vern Gardner garnered tournament MVP honors. Fred Weidner also played a major part in the championship.

The NIT crown was the last of the three major basketball championships to elude the Utes, making the University of Utah the only school in history to win the NCAA, NIT and AAU National Championships.

The starters from the 1947 NIT title team: Wat Misaka, Fred Weidner, Arnie Ferrin, Vern Gardner and Leon Watson.

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Founded in 1850, the University of Utah prepares students to live and compete in the global workplace. The U. encompasses 1,500 acres in the foothills of the Wasatch Mountain range.

With an enrollment of over 35,000, the U offers 100 undergraduate and more than 90 graduate level fields of study. In 2019, the University of Utah became one of the newest members of the prestigious Association of American Universities, which for more than 100 years has recognized the most outstanding academic institutions in the nation. Utah is now one of 65 AAU institutions, with only 33 of those members coming from Power Five conferences.

The U offers nationally-ranked programs in law, pharmacy, mathematics, business, biomedical engineering, family medicine, social sciences and humanities, fine arts, education, architecture, entertainment arts and engineering. It was rated among the top 45 public schools by U.S. News & World Report in 2022. The U has the lowest tuition among its Pac-12 and Big Ten public peers.

RESEARCH

A Tier 1 research university, the co-location of a comprehensive research university and an academic medical center makes the U one of fewer than 12 equivalent institutions in the country. Research funding continues to grow, totaling $641 million in fiscal year 2021 and was ranked No. 2 for innovation impact productivity by the George W. Bush Institute.

Geneticist Mario R. Capecchi received the 2007 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine for his work on gene targeting. Çağan Şekercioğlu, assistant professor of biology, won the Scientific and Technical Research Council of Turkey's highest prize for 2014. Peter J. Stang, distinguished professor of chemistry, received the 2013 Priestley Medal and 2011 National Medal of Science for his pioneering work in supramolecular chemistry.

TECHNOLOGY AND COMPUTER SCIENCES

The U's entertainment arts and engineering program has been regularly ranked among the top three in the U.S. over the last decade according to Animation Career Review. The University's computer science program, which earned a top 50 ranking in 2019, was founded in 1965 and began a pioneering legacy in computer graphics and visualization that continues today.

The College of Engineering was ranked No. 57 by U.S. News & World Report for 2023. The Scientific Computing & Imaging Institute is internationally recognized.
