TEAM NOTES
THE UTAH MAN
Head coach Kyle Whittingham is in his 20th year at the helm as the longest-tenured coach in the Big 12 and the second-longest tenured coach at the same school in the NCAA FBS. He is 166-83 overall at Utah, becoming the all-time wins leader at Utah in 2021. He passed Ike Armstrong (141-55-15 in 211 games) with Utah's historic win over No. 3 Oregon on Nov. 20, 2021 in Rice-Eccles Stadium. He has coached in 375 games at Utah (11 seasons as an assistant) and 249 as the head coach.
• He has contributed to more victories than any coach in program history (251), including his 11 seasons as an assistant coach (1994-2004). • His 166 career wins as the head coach of the Utes is fourth among active FBS coaches at the same school and is sixth among active FBS coaches overall. • Whittingham has coached the Utes to three conference titles (2008, MWC; 2021, Pac-12; 2022, Pac-12). The Utes also won at least a share of the Pac-12 South four times (2015 - shared, 2018, 2019, 2021). • He has won three National Coach of the Year recognitions: AFCA Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award winner in 2008, and the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Year in 2019. • Whittingham has been named conference coach of the year three times in his career (2008, MWC; 2019, Pac-12; 2021, Pac-12). • He has had 34 players make All-America teams, including 17 that have made major All-America teams (those determining NCAA's consensus team) with 10 earning consensus or unanimous.
U WERE, U ARE, UTAH
The notion of family has long been a hallmark of the Utah Football program, and the makeup of the coaching staff embodies that. Five members of the Utes' full-time coaching staff are alums of the program, the most in Power Four football in 2024 and the second-most in the FBS.
• Entering the 2024 season, the 10 Utah assistant coaches are averaging 7.4 seasons with the Utes with five different Utah assistants entering at least their eighth season on staff - the most within the same FBS program. • Utah's five alums on the coaching staff include Luther Elliss (DT), Quinton Ganther (RB), Lewis Powell (DE), Morgan Scalley (DC/S) and Sharrieff Shah (STC/CB). • In some capacity, head coach Kyle Whittingham directly tutored four of the five of the alums now on his staff (Elliss, Ganther, Powell, Scalley). • Morgan Scalley (17), Sharrieff Shah (13), Jim Harding (11), Lewis Powell (10) and Freddie Whittingham (9) all have been on the coaching staff for eight-plus seasons.
THE LEADERS
Each season, both the team captains and the leadership council are voted on by the team during fall camp. This season, the Utes picked two offensive and two defensive captains, along with a 12-person leadership council.
• Seniors Cameron Rising (QB), Brant Kuithe (TE), Junior Tafuna (DT) and Karene Reid (LB) were voted as captains during camp, with senior Micah Bernard (RB) being named a captain on Oct. 15. • Rising has been a team captain for four straight seasons with Kuithe following suit with three. Reid has also been named a captain in back-to-back years. • Utah's leadership council includes Bernard, Rising, Kuithe, Tafuna, Reid, Connor O'Toole (DE), Lander Barton (LB), Keanu Tanuvasa (DT), Zemaiah Vaughn (CB), Money Parks (WR), Levani Damuni (LB) and Miki Suguturaga (TE).
GRADUATE U
Utah Football has a storied tradition on the field, but it is also known for its strong success off the field. On the 2024 roster, 27 players have already received their degree.

THE MOMENT OF LOUDNESS

In 2021, the Utah Football program started a tradition to honor the legacy of Aaron Lowe and Ty Jordan with The Moment of Loudness, which takes place during the third quarter break of each home game. It is a tradition that has now turned into a way of life for the Utah family. To live the way that they did - to smile, to be infectiously optimistic, and to be 22-percent better every day.

NEW CONFERENCE, SAME TRADITION

Utah Football began a new era in 2024, joining the Big 12 Conference. The Utes have also been a part of the Rocky Mountain Conference (1910-1937), the Big Seven (1938-1947), the Skyline (1948-1961), the Western Athletic Conference (1962-1998), the Mountain West (1999-2010) and the Pac-12 (2011-2023).

- Utah is 446-264-19 all-time in conference games (.625), including its first win in the Big 12 against Oklahoma State (Sept. 21, 2024, W, 22-19).
- Utah is 32-14 in conference games since 2019.
- The Utes bring 28 conference championships with them to the Big 12.
- The Utes have won a conference championship in their first year in a new conference three times (1938, 1st in Big Seven; 1948, 1st in Skyline; 1999, tied for 1st in Mountain West).

CONTROL THE BALL, CONTROL THE GAME

It has been no secret that part of Utah's success on both sides of the ball in recent history has been winning the time of possession battle with 2024 being no different.

- Through eight games this season, Utah is holding the ball for an average of 33:29, which ranks first in the Big 12 and seventh in the FBS.
- The Utes have won the time of possession battle in six of the eight games this season.
- In the second and fourth quarters in 2024, Utah is holding the time of possession at 9:36 and 9:50 respectively. Utah has controlled the ball for 10+ minutes in eight quarters this season.
- Against Oklahoma State, Utah had a season-high 42:26 TOP with the Cowboys only holding the ball for 17:31.
- Utah has won the time of possession battle in six games this season, going over the 35:00 mark in two (42:26 at Oklahoma State, 37:18 at Utah State).

OFFENSIVE NOTES

OFFENSIVE DRIVES

Through eight games in 2024, Utah has scored 20 offensive touchdowns with the scoring drives ranging from 0-9 yards to 90-99.

- Out of Utah's 20 offensive touchdowns, 12 have come on drives of 60 yards or longer, including seven in the 70-79 range.
- The Utes have four touchdown drives this season that were just one-play drives, which leads all Power Four schools.

One-Play Scoring Drives	Qtr	Pl-Yd	TOP	Result
vs. Southern Utah	2	1-79	0:12	Rising to Stanley
vs. Southern Utah	4	1-20	0:07	Wilson to Lohner
vs. Baylor	1	1-3	0:13	Rising to Bernard
at OSU	4	1-45	0:10	Wilson to Kuithe

- Against Southern Utah, Utah's offense notched touchdowns on its first five drives, the first time they've accomplished that feat since they scored TDs on their first six possessions on Sept. 20, 1997 against UTEP.

BALANCING ACT

One of Utah's mainstays on offense is having a balanced attack, and through eight games, the Utes have recorded 1,207 yards on the ground and 1,800 through the air.

- In back-to-back games, Utah had 450+ yards of total offense and 200+ yards rushing (460/221 at Utah State, 456/249 at Oklahoma State).
- Against both Utah State and Oklahoma State, Utah had over 200 yards passing and 200 yards rushing (239/221 at Utah State, 207/249 at Oklahoma State). It was the first time that the Utes have had 200+ passing and 200+ rushing in back-to-back games since 2022.
- Utah has had 200+ passing yards and 200+ rushing yards in the same game 18 times since 2019.

THE QUARTERBACKS

OFFENSIVE NOTES

QUICK HITS ON THE QUARTERBACKS

In 2024, the Utah quarterback room consists of a five-star (Sam Huard), two four-stars (Cameron Rising, Isaac Wilson), a three-star (Brandon Rose) and a standout JUCO transfer (Luke Bottari), setting the Utes up for yet another electric season on the offensive side of the ball.

- True freshman Isaac Wilson was named the No. 2 QB on the depth chart toward the end of fall camp, officially being named the starter prior to Utah's game against TCU.
- He has started in five games, playing in seven and is 2-3 overall as the starter. He became the first true freshman QB in Utah history to earn a win against a ranked opponent on the road (No. 14 Oklahoma State).
- Wilson, a four-star recruit out of Corner Canyon HS, spent the spring with the Utes after earning Mr. Football by the Deseret News in 2023.
- Sophomore Brandon Rose, out of Temecula, Calif, is in his third season with the program, seeing action this season against Southern Utah and Houston. Elevating into the No. 2 QB spot on the depth chart entering Utah's eighth game, Rose was a three-star, pro-style QB from Murrieta Valley HS, Rose passed for 7,521 career yards and 74 touchdowns in high school.
- Senior Luke Bottari, who came in late in the 2023 season when the Utes were plagued with injuries, finished the year 1-0 as the starter after going 6-of-10 passing for 61 yards and two rushing touchdowns for the win against Colorado.
- Bottari played three seasons at College of San Mateo (2019-21), becoming the career passing touchdown record holder (46), throwing for 4,673 passing yards.
- Rising returned to the gridiron this season, starting three games (Southern Utah, Baylor, Arizona State) before suffering a season-ending injury against Arizona State. He has 20 wins as the starter, ranking fifth all-time.
- Sam Huard came out of Kennedy Catholic HS as the No. 1 pro-style QB in the country and a five-star recruit, playing in five games at Washington from 2021-22 and in nine games at Cal Poly (2023). The Bellevue, Wash., native was 184-of-303 passing last season at Cal Poly for 2,247 yards (18 TD). He unfortunately suffered a season-ending injury while playing on the scout team in 2024 at Utah.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

JIM'S GIANTS

Entering the 2024 season as one of the most experienced position groups on the field for the Utes, assistant head coach Jim Harding is leading the offensive line - or the O-BLOCK - for his 11th season with the program.

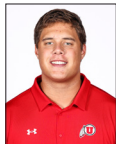

- Harding has coached eight first-team all-conference selections to date and has had six offensive linemen selected in the NFL Draft, including four in 2016.
- He coached Utah legend Garret Bolles, Utah's second-highest drafted offensive lineman in school history, who went in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft to Denver (20th overall).
- Harding's linemen have blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in seven of the last 10 seasons.
- Since 2019, Utah has only been allowing 1.5 sacks per game.
- In three of the last four seasons, Utah's offensive line has ranked in the top-25 nationally in sacks allowed, including ranking No. 4 in the FBS and No. 1 in the Pac-12 in 2021, only allowing 0.93 per game.
- Prior to Utah, Harding spent five seasons at Wyoming as the offensive line coach (co-coach his first four seasons) from 2009-13. He was promoted to co-offensive coordinator his final season in Laramie when the 2013 Cowboys finished 22nd in the country in total offense, averaging 472.8 yards per game.
- Harding played football at Toledo from 1997-2000 as an offensive tackle, setting the school record with 46 consecutive starts. He was a first-team All-Mid-American Conference selection.

THE O-BLOCK

Utah's 2024 offensive line has combined for 288 games played through eight games this season, ranking 14th in Power Four football and third in the Big 12. The group returns five players that have started at least two games in the past, which includes 100 total starts between them.

- Junior Jaren Kump (C in 2024) is in his fifth year with the program, starting at every position on the offensive line (43 career games, 25 total starts: 13 at C, 7 at RT, 3 at LT, 1 at RG, 1 at LG), one of just two players in the FBS that have accomplished the feat.
- Sophomore Spencer Fano (RT in 2024) is back with the Utes this fall, coming off a standout true freshman season in 2023 where he was one of just two true freshmen in the FBS to start at left tackle in the season opener. He has now played in 21 career games, starting 20 (12 at LT, 8 at RT), earning freshman All-America in 2023 and PFF Midseason All-America in 2024.
- On the left side of the ball, junior Tanoa Togiai (LG in 2024) and Caleb Lomu (LT in 2024) will hold things down. Togiai joined the program in 2020 and has played in 31 career games with 10 starts with Lomu starting all eight games at left tackle this season to earn The Athletic Midseason Freshman All-America.
- Junior Michael Mokofisi (RG in 2024) has played in 38 career games with 34 starts (33 at RG, 1 at LG). He started the first eight games of 2024 at right guard, but suffered a season-ending injury against TCU. Senior Falcon Kaumatule earned his first start of his career at Houston this season in Mokofisi's absence.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

In his ninth season as Utah's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator, Freddie Whittingham is set to keep the tradition of NFL-caliber tight ends coming through Salt Lake City. Freddie, the younger brother of head coach Kyle Whittingham, has been a part of the program for 12 years, serving as the director of player personnel from 2012-15.

- Out of the 14,711 receiving yards produced since 2019, Utah's tight ends have accounted for 31-percent as well as 57 total touchdowns in that time span.
- A tight end has led the Utes in receiving yards in three of the last five years.
- Whittingham has been integral in the development of All-Americans, all-conference selections and NFL draftees during his time at Utah, including first-round pick Dalton Kincaid.
- Between 2018-2023, Whittingham coached the trio of Brant Kuithe, Kincaid and Cole Fotheringham with Kincaid and Fotheringham playing in the NFL and Kuithe becoming a three-time all-conference selection.
- In 2022, Whittingham's tight ends accounted for 18 of Utah's 31 receiving scores with Kincaid, Kuithe and Thomas Yassmin combining for 1,397 yards and 17 touchdowns.
- Prior to becoming a coach, Whittingham worked in higher education, spending 20 years with McGraw-Hill companies and Simon & Schuster as a sales and marketing executive in the higher education publishing industry.
- He was a three-year starter at running back at BYU from 1987-89, leading the Cougars in rushing yards all three years.

TIGHT END U

What has quickly become one of the most successful position groups on the field, Utah's 2024 tight ends will look to continue the tradition into this fall. For the Utes, a tight end has now caught at least one pass in 91 of the last 92 games, which included a streak of 77 straight.

- Through eight games in 2024, Utah's tight ends have caught 40 passes, coming down with nine of Utah's 15 receiving scores (60%).
- In week one against Southern Utah, Tight End U combined for four of Utah's six receiving touchdowns with the TE room also catching two of Utah's four offensive TDs against Utah State.
- At least one tight end has caught a touchdown in five of the eight games this season (Brant Kuithe, 3 vs. Southern Utah; Caleb Lohner, 1 vs. Southern Utah; Lohner, 1 at Utah State; Carsen Ryan, 1 at Utah State; Kuithe, 1 at Oklahoma State; Lohner, 1 vs. Arizona; Kuithe, 1 at Houston).
- Kuithe returned to the field this season after 706 days of not playing the sport he loves due to injury. He leads all active FBS tight ends in career receiving yards (2,364), receptions (179) and touchdowns (21).
- Kuithe has caught a pass in 40 straight games that he has appeared in, which ranks first among tight ends and makes him just one of five players in the FBS that have 40-or-more straight games with a catch.

- The Utes also have a trio of transfer juniors in the tight end room in Dallen Bentley, Carsen Ryan and Landen King.
- Bentley and King are in their second year with the Utes after transferring from Snow College and Auburn, respectively. Bentley has played in 15 games for the Utes with five starts this season while King has played in 21 games with four starts (all in 2023).
- Ryan is in his first season with the Utes after playing in 17 games at UCLA from 2022-23, earning eight starts. He has played in all eight games at Utah in 2024, scoring his first touchdown as a Ute against Utah State.
- A common theme in the tight end room this fall is newcomers finding a new niche with both Miki Suguturaga and Caleb Lohner finding their home at tight end.
- Suguturaga had 25 starts on Utah's defensive line before making the switch to tight end in 2023.
- Lohner, who had not competitively played the sport of football prior to fall camp, joined the Utes after playing three seasons of Division I basketball at BYU (2020-22) and Baylor (2022-23). He has scored three touchdowns in 2024 on exactly three catches.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

WHITTED HAS THE WIDEOUTS

In his second season with the Utes as the wide receivers coach, Alvis Whitted is ready to set new standards and take the position group to new heights in 2024. Whitted spent three seasons at Wisconsin from 2020-22 prior to coming to Salt Lake City.

- In his first season with the Utes, Whitted coached a young group of WRs with three different receivers scoring at least two touchdowns.
- He coached 2024 NFL Draft pick Devaughn Vele to a standout senior season with Vele wrapping up his career with 1,689 yards and nine touchdowns.
- During his time at Wisconsin, Whitted developed Chimere Dike to finish in the top-10 in the Big Ten in total receiving yards (689) in 2022, also coaching Kendrick Pryor and Danny Davis to combine for 1,166 yards and six touchdowns in 2021.
- Before Wisconsin, Whitted coached with the Green Bay Packers in 2019, helping to develop Pro Bowl pick Devante Adams.
- He also spent seven seasons at Colorado State, mentoring All-Americans and Biletnikoff Award finalists Rashard Higgins and Michael Gallup.
- A graduate of North Carolina State, Whitted starred as a return specialist for the Wolfpack, racking up 1,929 kickoff return yards. He was a two-sport athlete, becoming a two-time All-American and five-time ACC champ in the 100, 200 and 400-meter dashes.
- Whitted finished sixth in the 200 meters at the 1996 U.S. Olympic Trials, competing in the final with U.S. greats Carl Lewis and Michael Johnson, who set the world record in the race.

RAC BOYZ

Utah's wide receivers bring versatility, speed and size to the field this fall, not only in the route-running sphere - but in the blocking game as well. Known as the RAC Boz (Run After Catch), the WR room is set to have a big, and successful season.

- The trio of seniors in Money Parks, Dorian Singer and Mykah Pittman bring a combined 172 career games of Power Four experience to the field this fall. Unfortunately for the Utes, senior Money Parks suffered a season-ending injury against Houston.
- Parks played in 47 career games at Utah, recording 24 starts. He had caught at least one pass in 32 straight games, breaking the 1,000 career receiving yards mark against TCU (1,013 total through 47 games).
- Singer, a senior from Saint Paul, Minn., has played in 37 career games at the Power Four level, seeing action in 17 at Arizona from 2021-22 and 12 at USC in 2023. He was All-Pac-12 at Arizona in 2022, finishing the season with 1,105 yards on 66 catches (6 TD).
- Also returning from injury this fall is senior Mykah Pittman, who played in Utah's first two games last season before suffering a season-ending injury. Pittman came to Utah after playing in 13 games at Florida State in 2022 and 22 games at Oregon for three seasons.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

A UTAH MAN IS HE

Defensive coordinator Morgan Scalley, a Salt Lake City native and former All-American safety at the U, is in his 17th season on the Utah coaching staff and ninth as defensive coordinator.

- Athletics Director Mark Harlan announced on July 1, 2024 that Scalley has formally been designated as Utah's head coach in waiting.
- In addition to his coordinator duties, Scalley has coached the safeties since he first joined the staff in 2008. He was also the team's recruiting coordinator from 2009-15 and special teams coordinator in '15 as well.
- Scalley has coached 13 All-Americans (four consensus or unanimous), 19 first team All-Conference selections and five freshmen All-Americans. He has also seen 29 of his proteges reach the NFL, including Devin Lloyd—the highest-drafted linebacker in school history (Round 1, 27th overall in 2022).
- As a player, Scalley came to the Utes out of nearby Highland High School—less than four miles from Rice-Eccles Stadium—where Scalley won "Mr. Football" as the state's high school version of the Heisman Trophy. He arrived on campus in 2001 and captained the squad as a senior in 2004, earning All-America and Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year on the BCS Buster team that won that Fiesta Bowl.
- He has been part of four games known today as part of the "New Year's Six": he had three tackles in Utah's Fiesta Bowl win over Pittsburgh (2004), the Sugar Bowl win over Alabama (2008) capped his first season as safeties coach, and he was on the sidelines for both of the Utes' Rose Bowl appearances.
- Both of Scalley's parents are alumni of the U, including his father, Ford "Bud" Scalley, who lettered as a halfback from 1960-62. His father's marquee moment, perhaps, came in November 1960 when he scored a late touchdown—the only one of the game—to beat a nationally-ranked and previously-undefeated Utah State team, 6-0. It came just a week after Bud Scalley was placed on a full scholarship.

R.S.N.B. - RELENTLESS, SMART, NASTY, BALLHAWKS

The long-standing culture of the Utah defense carries forward for the Utes into the Big 12, with R.S.N.B. continuing as the identity of the group: relentless, smart, nasty, ballhawks. With conference play on the home stretch, a slew of veterans are playing key roles while newcomers to the defense have stepped up when called upon—all bringing the physicality that Utah has become renowned for.

- In Scalley's eight-plus seasons as DC, the Utes have averaged 326.8 total yards allowed per game; it leads the Big 12 and ranks eighth among Power Conference programs during that time. His defense has held 28 opponents under 250 total yards of offense and 17 opponents under 200 yards.
- As the calendar turns to November, Utah ranks as the second-stingiest scoring defense in the Big 12 and top-nine in the Power Conferences, allowing just 16.5 points per game. Dating back to last season, the Utes have held nine of their last 10 opponents to 23 points or less, with a shutout included in that span.
- This season, Utah is allowing 303.5 total yards per game, the best in the Big 12 and 11th in the Power Conferences. In seven straight games, Utah has held its opponent under its average total offense entering the game.

- The Utes' defense has not given up a 400-yard game this season and has allowed only three by an opponent since the start of 2023 (one of which was a road win over USC).

- Utah finished in the top-half of the Pac-12 in total defense in seven of its final nine seasons in the league, including in 2019 where the team led the league and placed second nationally. The Utes have finished top-30 in FBS for total defense in six of the last seven seasons.

GUARDING AGAINST THE GROUND GAME

Yardage against Utah does not come easy via the run game—where R.S.N.B. football is arguably best on display. Rushing defense has long been a point of pride for Utah under Morgan Scalley; in his eight prior seasons as coordinator, Utah led the Pac-12 five times (2016, '18, '19, '20 and '21). It includes ranking third in the nation in 2019 when Scalley was a Broyles Award finalist.

- Since Scalley took on coordinator duties in 2016, the Utes have averaged 109.9 rushing yards allowed per game and 104 rushing touchdowns. The rushing defense in that time trails only Georgia (103.4) for the Power Conference lead.
- The 2024 Utes have allowed the fewest rushing touchdowns (5) in the Big 12. It ties Utah for fifth among the Power Conference teams.
- In Utah's 108 games since 2016, the Utes have 52 performances allowing 100 yards or less on the ground and are 43-9 in those games. Excluding the pandemic-altered 2020 season, the Utes defense held at least six opponents under 100 rushing yards each year from 2018-23. It includes both of the program's Pac-12 Championship victories against Oregon (74 yards in 2021) and USC (56 in 2022).

Fewest Rushing Yards Allowed Per Game (Power Conference teams, since 2016)

1.	Georgia	103.4
3.	Alabama	110.4
4.	Wisconsin	111.1

NO FLY ZONE

Scalley's defense has also brought havoc for opponents when throwing the ball, finishing five of the last seven seasons ranked in the top third of the Pac-12 both in passing yards allowed and pass efficiency defense. Utah led the league in pass efficiency defense both in 2019 (112.89) and 2020 (120.64), as well as passing yards allowed in 2019 (187.7).

- To date this season, the Utes rank third in the Big 12 in pass efficiency defense (107.92), a tally that places them seventh in the Power Conferences. Opposing offenses average 169.5 passing yards per game (second in the Big 12).
- Only TCU (Oct. 19, 2024) has passed for more than 250 yards against Utah in the last 10 games, dating back to 2023. The Utes have also kept Houston (61 yards) and Southern Utah (71 yards) under 100 yards through the air this season.
- Ten different Utes have at least one PBU this season, led by nickel back Smith Snowden (5) and cornerback Cameron Calhoun (4). Of the team's 42 total pass breakups last year, returners to the 2024 Utes accounted for 26 of them (61.9%).
- Along the same lines, seven different players have contributed at least 1.0 sack. Fillinger (5.5 sacks in 2024) leads the team and has already tied his single-season career-high, first set as a freshman during the 2021 season. He has started all eight games this season after missing parts of '22 and '23 due to injury.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

- Utah returned a group that combined for nearly 53% of the team's sacks from last year, with defensive ends Connor O'Toole (4.5) and Logan Fano (3.5) standing atop the 2023 returners despite missing time due to injury.

THIRD DOWN'S THE CHARM

Utah brings a reputation into the Big 12 as one of the toughest teams nationally to convert against on third down. The Utes lead the league in third-down defense (25.4%) and trail only Tennessee for the FBS lead, after finishing atop the Pac-12 in both 2022 and 2023.

- Opponents have gained 114 first downs against Utah through the first eight games, the fewest gained against a Big 12 team and third-fewest in Power Football. Utah has given up 15 or fewer first downs in six games, meanwhile the Utes' offense has eclipsed 20 first downs four times.
- Dating back to last season, the Utes have won the time of possession battle in nine of the last 11 games and 13 of the last 16. Partly a byproduct of having a stingy third-down defense, Utah is atop the Big 12 this season in TOP (33:29) and led the nation in the 2023 season (34:04).
- At Oklahoma State in Week 4, the Utes' third-down defense held OSU to a 4-of-15 clip; as a result Utah held the ball for 42:26 of game time. It was the most for the team against an FBS opponent since 2016.
- In Week 2 vs. Baylor, the Utah defense stopped the Bears on their first eight third-down conversion attempts. Throughout the game, five different Utes had at least 1.0 third-down stop.
- In 2023, Utah's 29.5% opponent third-down conversion rate ranked seventh among Power Conference teams. It correlated with Utah's 199 first downs allowed ranking as fewest in the Pac-12 and third-fewest in the Power Conferences.
- Utah's 199 first downs allowed during 2023 was the fewest for the defense for a full season (excluding 2020) in the program's Power Conference era.
- The Utes had a top-three (or better) third-down defense in the Pac-12 each year from 2018-23 and led the league four times in that span.

PICK-SIX CITY

The Utah defense is looking to extend a nation-leading streak of 20 consecutive seasons with an interception returned for a touchdown. It dates back to 2004, when current defensive coordinator Morgan Scalley was a senior and played safety on the Utes' Fiesta Bowl-winning team.

- This run of annual pick-sixes is the longest active streak in FBS football, and is tied with Arizona State (20 seasons from 2000-19) for the longest streak since 1996. There are no known, longer streaks; however, pick-six statistics are limited prior to 1996.
- During the 20-season span since 2004, Utah has totaled 45 interception return touchdowns, tying Alabama for the most in FBS in that span. Most recently, Lander Barton and Karene Reid each had a pick-six during the 2023 season.
- Jonathan Fanene and Steve Fifita scored Utah's pick-sixes in 2004 to begin the streak.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

LEADING THE GUYS UP FRONT

Imparting the culture of the Utah defense in the trenches are a pair of program alumni in defensive tackles coach Luther Elliss and defensive ends coach Lewis Powell. Elliss is in his third season with the program and played for the Utes from 1991-94, while Powell enters year 10 on the coaching staff after donning the Utah uniform from 2001-03.

- Powell has coached six first team All-Pac-12 players and two consensus All-Americans. He has sent nine Utes to the NFL, including six draft picks—most recently Jonah Elliss in 2024. Three more of his alumni of the defensive ends room signed with NFL teams as undrafted free agents.
- Luther Elliss' defensive tackles have picked up three All-Conference nods in his two previous seasons, as well as a pair of Freshman All-America awards. He returned to his alma mater after five seasons on the Idaho staff.
- Anchored by the defensive line, the Utes led the Pac-12 in TFL in their final three seasons, and led the league in sacks twice during that time. Utah's TFL totals during the 2021 season (98) and 2022 (90) rank among the top-nine in program history for a single season.
- In 2023, the Utah defensive line accounted for 77% of the team's sacks and 56% of the Utes' TFL total. It helped the team rank top-four in the Pac-12 both in sacks per game (2.77) and TFL per game (5.8), with the sack average also placing 16th in FBS.
- Luther Elliss, the 1994 WAC Defensive Player of the Year, was a consensus All-American defensive end in his final season. He was selected 20th overall in the 1995 NFL Draft and enjoyed a 10-year playing career.
- Powell was the 2003 Liberty Bowl Defensive Player of the Game in a 17-0 Utah victory over Southern Miss, capping off a 10-2 season for the Utes.

SACK LAKE CITY

The Utes entered the 2024 season having to replace the physicality and edge speed of fourth round NFL draft pick Jonah Elliss—but a veteran group of defensive line returners have picked up where Elliss left off as a Lombardi Award finalist. Van Fillinger (35 GS), Connor O'Toole (13 GS) and Logan Fano (9 GS) are leading the charge at defensive end, while Junior Tafuna and Keanu Tanuvasa bring a combined 59 starts to the defensive tackle spots.

- Fillinger, a member of the Lombardi Award Watch List, was a four-star recruit out of Corner Canyon HS and has earned 35 starts out of his 46 career games played. The Draper, Utah, native enters Week 10 tied for second in the Big 12 with 5.5 sacks—a testament to his resilience and determination after battling injuries throughout 2022 and '23.
- With 19 sacks in his career, Fillinger needs one more to break into the top-10 list in program history.
- The sophomore Fano has stepped up recently, starting the last six games in place of O'Toole—who returned from injury at Houston in a reserve role. Fano's career-high seven tackles at Arizona State led the defensive line. Fano returned to game action this season after an injury sidelined him for the final eight games of 2023. He started three games as a freshman last year, making 14 tackles (4.0 TFL, 3.5 sacks).

- The duo of Tanuvasa and Tafuna coined the nicknames "Dom" and "Nate," respectively—a play on the word "Dominate." It embodies the energy and physicality that both have brought to the defensive line for the last three seasons.
- Tafuna, a Preseason All-Big 12 pick and included on a plethora of watch lists, is one of three defensive linemen on the team totaling at least 19 tackles. A three-time All-Conference pick, Tafuna has started his last 42 games played dating back to his freshman season. The Taylorsville, Utah, native was thrust into a starting role early in 2021 and went on to win Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year. His career-highs in TFL (5.5) and sacks (4.5) both came in 2021.
- Sharing the load at defensive tackle is Tanuvasa, who had a pair of third-down stops at Oklahoma State and ranks third on the defensive line with 4.0 TDS this season. The Freshman All-American went from playing as a reserve in four games in 2022, to starting 17 of Utah's 21 games the last two seasons. His expanded role saw Tanuvasa rank second on the defensive line last year with 6.0 TFL, quadrupling his total from 2022.
- Also coming on the scene of late has been true freshman Dallas Vakalahi. Just months after returning from serving a church mission, Vakalahi has played in seven games with starts in the last three. Three of his five tackles at Houston were third-down stops—the most TDS by a Ute in a game this season.
- The group of Fillinger, O'Toole, Tafuna and Tanuvasa have each made gains in size since their arrival on campus. Tafuna sits at 305 pounds after beginning his career at 255 pounds in 2020, while O'Toole—a converted wide receiver—weighs in at 252 pounds, up nearly 40 from his true freshman season.
- Four defensive linemen are among Utah's 11 selections to the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Watch List. It includes Fano (DE), Simote Pepa (DT), Tafuna (DT) and Tanuvasa (DT).

LINEBACKERS AND LASSOS

Linebackers coach Colton Swan guides his group into a new era as Swan continues his sixth season in Salt Lake City. During Utah's time in the Pac-12, Swan's players were some of the most productive in the league earning seven First Team All-Conference selections and sending four Utah linebackers to the NFL.

- He helped Devin Lloyd become a finalist for the Butkus Award both in 2020 and '21, with Lloyd ultimately being selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the 27th pick in the 2022 NFL Draft. A consensus All-American at Utah, Lloyd is now in his third NFL season in 2024. Mohamoud Diabate (Cleveland) and Nephi Sewell (New Orleans) signed free agent contracts after working with Swan, while Francis Bernard spent two seasons in the NFL.
- A man of many talents, Swan initially attended Weber State on a rodeo scholarship before walking on to the football team and transforming into an All-Big Sky linebacker. Nevertheless, Swan maintains a passion for the sport of rodeo to this day and occasionally competes during the football offseason.

HOME IS WHERE THE UTES STAY

Local and returning talent dots the Utah linebacker room, with a pair of Butkus Award Watch List members serving as the leaders of the pack. Senior Karene Reid (39 GP, 35 GS) and junior Lander Barton (29 GP, 18 GS) are in their third year together at the position, with Barton returning from a season-ending injury in Week 7 last year. The pair combined for 101 tackles in 2023, with Barton (34) leading the linebacker room at the time of his injury.

- Both Barton (Cottonwood Heights) and Reid (American Fork) grew up within a 40-minute drive of Rice-Eccles Stadium.
- Barton is averaging 8.8 tackles over the last four games, leading the team with 52 total stops on the heels of four straight games with six-plus tackles. As a rookie in 2022, his 46 tackles, eight TFL and 4.5 sacks all led rookies on the team—putting him in place to win Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year and Freshman All-America honors. Barton started all seven games in 2023 before sustaining a season-ending injury in a game at USC.

- Reid has put on an eight-tackle performance (vs. TCU) and a seven-stop outing (at Houston) after missing the prior four games due to injury. His night vs. TCU (with 0.5 TFL) came after Reid entered the game with eight total tackles in his two games played. He was tabbed to the preseason watch list for the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award.
- Reid, a two-time All-Pac-12 pick, had three different nine-tackle games during the 2023 season, averaging 6.8 tackles per game in conference play. His four PBU last season led the linebacker room and ranked third on the team.
- A third in-state native, Sione Fotu of West Jordan, returned from injury for the Houston game. Fotu has made three starts this season with his seven tackles vs. Baylor tying a career-high. After playing in all five games during the COVID-altered 2020 season, Fotu departed on a church mission, returning in 2023 to play in 11 games last year. He contributed 18 tackles in '23.
- Converted safety Johnathan Hall tied his career-high with five tackles in the game at Arizona State. He had another five-tackle (1.0 TFL) performance and a third-down stop in Week 3 at Utah State, after Hall entered the game with four total tackles on the season. Hall's first career interception came in the Houston game, playing in his home state.

MOVIN' ON UP

Four Utah safeties have moved onto the NFL in the last five seasons after Cole Bishop and Sione Vaki were both selected in the 2024 NFL Draft. New faces are settling in as the featured safeties for the Utes in 2024, with returner Tao Johnson, Rabbit Evans and Stanford transfer Alaka'i Gilman at the top of the list.

- A do-it-all kind of player, Johnson has spent time at wide receiver (2022), nickel back (2023) and now safety in his three seasons at the U. He leads the secondary with 48 tackles (2.0 TFL), helped by two marquee games this season. Johnson made a career-best nine tackles plus an interception vs. Arizona, along with three other seven-tackle games: Baylor (2.0 TFL), Arizona State and TCU.
- Johnson has also been a key special teams contributor. He blocked a field goal attempt against TCU, while also scooping up a blocked field goal vs. Baylor and running it back for a 77-yard touchdown. The former No. 2-ranked prospect in Idaho is the only FBS player since 2012 to accomplish both of those in the same season. He earned spots on both the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List and Good Works Team Watch List.
- Gilman made the move to Salt Lake City after playing in 32 games (13 GS) with the Cardinal from 2020-23. He is tied for third on the team lead with 5.0 third-down stops, all in the last five games. In the game against Arizona, he made a career-best 2.0 TFL among eight total tackles.
- Gilman started all nine of his games played in '23 with Stanford, recording 50 tackles, three pass breakups and an interception.
- Evans has earned two starts, including Week 7 at Arizona State. That was a breakout night for the junior out of Blinn College, who turned in nine tackles plus a pass breakup for his most tackles as a Ute.

THE COMMON THREAD

Cornerbacks coach Sharrieff Shah is synonymous with the Utah defense, first playing safety with the Utes from 1990-93 and now in his 13th season coaching the cornerbacks. Shah also is in his sixth year as special teams coordinator, previously serving as co-coordinator from 2016-18.

- Named by ESPN in 2014 as one of "10 coaches who adapt and thrive," Shah has developed five cornerback converts into NFL players. Eleven of his players have been named All-Conference, highlighted by unanimous All-America choice and Jim Thorpe Award finalist Clark Phillips III in 2022.
- Shah was a captain while playing for former longtime head coach Ron McBride, going in the books as a three-year starter. Shah was an All-WAC honorable mention pick in 1991 and '92 and starred in indoor track.
- Before entering the coaching world, Shah took a unique path serving as a practicing attorney, certified agent through the NFLPA and as the Utes' sideline reporter on radio and television during the team's Mountain West era.

COVERED FROM CORNER TO CORNER

Beaumont, Texas native and 2023 All-Pac-12 selection Zemaiah Vaughn brings experience in the cornerback room with 32 starts as a Ute. Sophomore Elijah Davis and freshman Cameron Calhoun have emerged opposite Vaughn, with a talented group of freshmen and sophomores behind them and ready when their numbers are called.

- Vaughn, a former walk-on turned starter, came into the Big 12 with Preseason All-Conference honors after starting all 13 games last season. He has 3.0 third-down stops this season and defended 23 passes (2 INT, 21 PBU) in his career.
- A converted high school quarterback, Vaughn has started 27 consecutive games at corner, and averaged 3.8 tackles in Utah's last four games. His 53 total stops last year led the Utah cornerbacks room and was third among returners on the team this year. In addition, Vaughn's 5.0 TFL were the most at his position a year ago.
- Both Davis and Calhoun—the latter a Michigan transfer—have combined for seven starts. Davis went off for a career-best six tackles in the TCU game, also totaling two interceptions this season. Calhoun announced his arrival with a three-tackle game at Utah State as well as an interception (34 yards) in that win over the Aggies.
- With Tao Johnson's transition to safety, sophomore Smith Snowden is making strides at nickel back after playing in 11 games as a true freshman. Snowden leads the team both with five pass breakups this season and 6.0 third-down stops.
- Snowden's first career interception came in the Utah State win, where he led the secondary with a career-high six tackles (1.0 TFL) and a pass breakup. He followed that performance with a two-tackle, three-PBU outing at Oklahoma State.
- Snowden grew up in nearby Lehi, Utah, and was a four-star recruit after being named Utah's "Mr. Football" in 2022. He has logged three-plus tackles in four games this season. A three-time All-State and All-Region selection in high school, he was a four-star recruit and finished his high school career with 26 interceptions.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTEBOOK

The Utes and Special Teams Coordinator Sharrieff Shah saw the return of each of the program's top specialists in seniors JT Greep and Cole Becker at the snapper and kicker spots, respectively, and junior punter Jack Bouwmeester. Trey Coleman has helped shoulder Utah's kickoff duties.

- After joining the team in time for the start of the 2023 campaign, Becker had an immediate impact, piling up 73 points, the most by a Utah kicker since Jadon Redding had 86 in 2019.
- Becker converted on 83.3 percent of his field goal tries during his first year as a Ute, the highest rate by any Utah kicker with at least 10 attempts since Matt Gay in 2018.
- The 51-yard field goal Becker knocked through in Utah's 2023 opener vs. Florida was also the longest by a Ute in five years, as Gay hit from 55 in 2018.
- Becker's 12 made field goals so far in 2024 put him in a tie for fifth in the Big 12 and tied for 15th in the nation.
- Bouwmeester improved statistically across the board during his sophomore year, adding more than six yards to his average and logging 19 boots of 50 yards or better, the highest total by a Utah punter since Mitch Wishnowsky totaled 20 in 2018.
- Bouwmeester ranks second in the Big 12 in 50+ yard punts (9), is tied for fourth in fair catches forced (16), tied for sixth in punts dropped inside the 20 and seventh in punting average (44.2).
