DIRECTIONS TO RICE-ECCLES STADIUM

From Salt Lake International Airport to Rice-Eccles Stadium:

Follow signs toward I-80 East out of the airport. In four miles, take Exit 121 for 600 South. Continue on 600 South for several blocks, then turn left onto 700 East. At the second light (400 South), turn right. Go up the hill as the street bends and becomes 500 South. Continue through the light at 1300 East and get in the left lane. Rice-Eccles Stadium is a half block up on the left. Take left turn into the parking lot west of the stadium.

Radio Coverage

UTAH SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

ESPN 700 (KALL-AM) has been the radio home to University of Utah Athletics since 1951. ESPN 700, which has a 50,000-watt daytime and signal, and a 10,000-watt nighttime signal, is one of three stations in the Utah Sports Radio Network, alongside the newly-added 92.1 FM and longtime affiliate KOAL 750 AM in Price. All of Utah's games on ESPN 700 AM/92.1 FM can also be heard live on the Internet at UtahUtes.com. They will also be carried by SiriusXM Satellite Radio as well as The Varsity Network app.

Managing the radio network is Utah Utes Partnerships, a division of JMI Sports, under general manager Matt Smith. Utah Athletics' most recent contract extension with ESPN 700 was a five-year agreement signed in the summer of 2024.

Handling the play by play for the Ute broadcasts is Bill Riley, who is in his 16th year as the "Voice of the Utes." Riley is a 31-year veteran of radio and television and has won numerous awards as both as host and play-by-play broadcaster, including three NSMA Utah Sportscaster of the Year honors (2012, '15, '22).

Riley is joined in the booth by former Ute quarterback Scott Mitchell, who is in his seventh season as the analyst. Mitchell played at Utah from 1987-89 and holds several of Utah's passing and total offense records. Mitchell then played in the NFL from 1990-2001, throwing for over 15,000 yards and 95 touchdowns. He was the head football coach at Springville High School from 2008-11. Former linebacker Steven Sylvester is in his fourth year as the sideline reporter. Sylvester played for the Utes from 2006-09 and was a first-team All-Mountain West selection as a senior.

Highlighting ESPN 700's game-day coverage are four hours of pre-game coverage and two-hour post-game shows that include live interviews with players and coaches and expert analysis. The Kyle Whittingham Show, hosted by Riley, airs on ESPN 700 every Tuesday during the regular season. The show is broadcast live from 6-7 p.m. MT.

A TOP 25 PROGRAM

Utah has finished in the Top 25 on 11 occasions since 2003, including three consecutive seasons from 2014-16. The Utes have gone 13-6 in bowl games since 2000.

Utah Athletics History

WINNING PROGRAM

- Averaged nine wins per season in years with a full schedule since 2003, including nine 10-win seasons: 10-2 in 2003, 12-0 in 2004, 13-0 in 2008, 10-3 in 2009, 10-3 in 2010, 10-3 in 2015, 11-3 in 2019, and 10-4 both in 2021 and '22.
- Ten finishes in the AP Top 25 poll since 2003: No. 21 in 2003, No. 4 in 2004, No. 2 in 2008, No. 18 in 2009, No. 21 in 2014, No. 17 in 2015, No. 23 in 2016, No. 16 in 2019, No. 12 in 2021 and No. 7 in 2022. Utah also was ranked No. 23 in the final 2010 Coaches Poll.

CONFERENCE PLAY WITH WHITTINGHAM

- Utah have won three conference championships since 2005 (Mountain West, 2008; Pac-12, 2021; Pac-12, 2022).
- The Utes played in the Pac-12 title game two other times after claiming the Pac-12 South Division outright in 2018 and '19. Also tied for the Pac-12 South title in 2015.
- Recorded its best Pac-12 record (8-1) in both 2019 and '21.
- Winning record in conference play 14 times since 2005, including in six straight.

CFP RANKINGS

- Finished in the College Football Playoff top 25 seven times: No. 22 in 2014, No. 22 in 2015, No. 19 in 2016, No. 17 in 2018, No. 11 in 2019, No. 11 in 2021 and No. 8 in 2022
- Appeared in the CFP ranking every week for the first three years of the system (2014-16), all six weeks in 2019 and '22, plus five weeks in 2018 and '21.

BOWL ROLL

- Nineteen bowl appearances since 2000 with a 13-6 record. Made nine consecutive bowl appearances from 2003-11 and have been bowl eligible for 10 straight seasons.
- Four appearances in what is now the CFP New Year's Six, defeating Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl and Alabama in the 2009 Sugar Bowl, also reaching the 2022 and '23 Rose Bowl.
- Won nine consecutive bowl games from 1999-2009 to tie for the second-longest bowl win streak in NCAA history.
- A member of the Mountain West Conference at the time, five of Utah's nine consecutive bowl wins were against Power Five conference teams: Alabama, California, Georgia Tech, Pittsburgh and USC.
- 17-9 all-time bowl record.

TOP COACH

- Kyle Whittingham, in his 20th year as Utah's head coach, is tied for the second-longest tenured coach in the nation at the same school. He is Utah's winningest coach with 162 victories.
- Whittingham has earned National Coach of the Year honors in two seasons, most recently winning the Dodd Trophy in 2019. In 2008, he was recognized by both the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards committee.
- Whittingham was named the Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year in 2019 and 2021.
- Whittingham's 11 bowl wins (11-6) ranks fourth among active coaches and ranks in the top-10 all-time (including ties).
- Whittingham has 23 wins over ranked teams, including seven in the top 10: No. 4 Alabama (2009), No. 5 Stanford (2013), No. 8 UCLA (2014), twice against Oregon in 2021 (No. 4, No. 10) and twice over USC in 2022 (No. 7, No. 4).

ALL-AMERICANS

- Twenty-five major First-Team All-American honors since 2002.
- Alex Smith (QB) was a Heisman Trophy finalist and earned two National Player of the Year Awards (Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News) in 2004.
- Tom Hackett (2014 and '15) and Mitch Wishnowsky (2016) swept the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter three consecutive years.
- Matt Gay won the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker in 2017.

- Eleven Academic All-America awards since 2000. First-team recognition was earned by Morgan Scalley (2003-04), Alex Smith (2004), Louie Sakoda (2008) and Britain Covey (2020).
- Louie Sakoda earned an NCAA Top VIII citation in 2008.
- Utah has eclipsed 93 percent Graduation Success Rate over the last six years; its 93% score for 2022 tied for fourth-highest among Power Five public institutions.

THE NEXT LEVEL

- Six NFL first round draft picks and 12 others going in the second round since 2000. In the last five NFL Drafts, eight Utes have gone in the first three rounds.
- Quarterback Alex Smith was the No. 1 pick in the 2005 NFL Draft.
- School-record eight NFL draft picks in 2017 led the Pac-12 and tied for third in the country. Seven Utes were selected in 2020.
- Fifty-one NFL Draft picks since 2009.

The University of Utah

The University of Utah is the state's flagship institution of higher education, with 18 schools and colleges, more than 100 undergraduate and 90 graduate degree programs, and an enrollment of more than 35,000 students. It is a member of the Association of American Universities—an invitation-only, prestigious group of 71 leading research institutions marked by excellence in academic expertise and research impact, student success, and securing resources in support of core missions. The U is also a member of the Big 12, one of the nation's premier athletic conferences.

With ready access to spectacular skiing, mountain biking and hiking and a vibrant array of cultural, culinary and entertainment venues in Salt Lake City, there is a lot going on just beyond campus. Yet what's happening within the university's 1,535-acre hillside campus is even more compelling. At the U, as it is affectionately called, you'll find world-class research, education and clinical care complemented by a lively social, cultural and athletic campus experience.

The U's success in achieving excellence in research and teaching reflects the values of Utah: An unparalleled work ethic and a spirit of entrepreneurship, innovation, collaboration and community service. These qualities have enabled the U to innovate across many fields and pioneer new programs with social impact; generate pathbreaking discoveries; fuel critical research; and inspire innovative approaches to education.

The U strives to be a model public university in delivering unmatched value in higher education and health care while making social, economic and cultural contributions that improve the quality of life throughout the state, the nation and the world. The U's reputation for excellence draws top-tier faculty and attracts motivated students from across the country and internationally.

With revenues in excess of $5 billion, the university is considered one of Utah's primary economic engines and is among the state's largest employers. The university received $641 million in FY21 in sponsored research project grants, an institutional record, and funding that has a direct impact on the state's economy. The university is a catalyst for a research corridor through northern Utah that is a hotbed for technology and development activities, colloquially known as Silicon Slopes.

As part of the university, University of Utah Health is the only academic medical center in the state of Utah and provides patient care for the people of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, western Colorado and much of Nevada. It also serves as the training ground for the majority of the state's physicians, nurses, pharmacists, therapists, and other health care professionals. U of U Health is comprised of six hospitals and 12 community health care centers. It is also home to ARUP Laboratories, one of the nation's largest reference laboratories, and numerous institutes and centers.

A TOP TIER UNIVERSITY

The U joined the prestigious Association of American Universities in 2019. Utah is now one of 71 AAU institutions, with only 36 of those members coming from Power 5 conferences.

About Salt Lake City

Utah Traditions

Time to "Light the U" and sing the school fight song with the MUSS after another Utah home victory.

The University of Utah officially adopted the nickname "Utes" for its athletic teams in 1972. The school uses the nickname with permission of the Ute Tribal Council.

"What is a Ute?" The Utes are an Indian tribe that originally settled Utah. Two of the more common definitions of Ute are "top of the mountains" and "people of the mountains." Other references have Ute defined as "land of the sun." The Utes refer to themselves as "Noochew," meaning "the People."

There are four Ute tribes: The Northern and White Mesa Tribes are based in Utah, while the Southern and Ute Mountain Tribes are in Colorado. The Northern Utes are most closely affiliated with the University of Utah and have a tribal membership of around 3,000. Many of them live on the Uintah and Ouray reservation. The Utes operate their own tribal government, oversee approximately 1.3 million acres of trust land and operate several businesses.

"The Pride of Utah" Marching Utes began in the 1940s as a military band. In the turbulent '60s, support for the band dwindled, and in 1969, the Associated Students for the University of Utah (ASUU) discontinued its funding. The band was revived in 1976, and since then, the "Pride of Utah" Marching Utes have performed at all home football games, as well as numerous NFL and college bowl games.

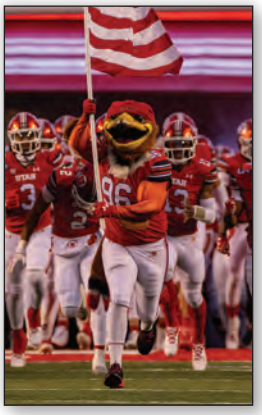
To the victor goes the Beehive Boot. The authentic pioneer boot has been awarded annually since 1971 to the Utah school with the best record against instate foes. The schools that compete for the boot are Utah, BYU and Utah State. In its 52-year history, the Beehive Boot has been awarded to Utah 18 times (1978, '88, '93, '94, '95, '99, 2002, '03, '04, '05, '08, '11, '13, '15, '16, '17, '18, '19), BYU 24 times and Utah State nine times.

The Block U (elevation 5,300 feet above sea level) was built on Mount Van Cott bordering the Utah campus in 1907. Originally built with limestone, the Block U was later replaced by a cement version. In 1969, the design was modified and 124 lights were installed. A fund-raising campaign in 2006 raised $400,000 to renovate the aging landmark. Slabs of concrete and steel rebar now reinforce the 5,000-square feet of surface area.

Another major improvement to the Block U was the installation of LED red and white lights, which are controlled through a wireless system. Lights on the 100-foot-tall landmark are illuminated primarily for athletic events and to notify people in the Salt Lake valley that the Utes are playing at home. After Utah victories, the football team gathers in front of the MUSS to Light the U and sing the school fight song.

SWOOP

Utah introduced its mascot in 1996. "Swoop" represents a red-tailed hawk, a bird indigenous to the state of Utah.



Meet Us in the MUSS

The MUSS, one of the most avid and vocal student fan clubs in the nation, is 8,000 strong at Ute home football games. It was named the Live Más Student Section of the Year by Taco Bell and ESPN in 2021, when it celebrated its 20th anniversary.

Originally known as the Student Fan Club and the Utah Fan Club, the group adopted the name MUSS for the 2002 football season. The name was originally derived from the school fight song lyrics (... No rival band of college fans dare meet us in the muss). Members now refer to MUSS as an acronym for "Mighty Utah Student Section."

MUSS members are easily identified by their customized t-shirts and their policy of standing throughout the entire game. They have a number of other traditions during football games, including the Third Down Jump, in which members jump around and make noise every time the opposing team prepares for a third down play. Other rituals include the U of U Chop, which occurs every time the band plays a specific percussion song and involves MUSS members forming a U with their hands and "chopping" to the beat of the music, and the First Down Chant (members raise their hands in unison, yelling "first down," and mimic the referees by pointing their arm in the direction of the first down).

The line of "5s" hanging in front of the MUSS section refers to the False Start Tally. Whenever the opposing team is charged with a false start, the MUSS hangs a numeral five in front of its section indicating a five-yard penalty.

Every time the Utes score, the band plays the school fight song, signaling the MUSS to sing along to the words of the Utah Fight Song. After every game, Ute team members congregate in front of the MUSS section and join in the singing of the Utah Fight Song.

Watch for the MUSS to regularly "Flash a U," a tradition that began at the Utah women's gymnastics meets in 2001 and soon caught on with all the Ute teams and fans. It involves forming the U mentioned in the U of U Chop and raising it toward the sky.

The MUSS currently sponsors fan clubs for the Utah football, men's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics teams. The football team began sporting a MUSS decal on the back of its helmets in 2004.

UTAH FIGHT SONG

VERSE
I am a Utah man/fan, sir, and I live across the green. Our gang, it is the jolliest that you have ever seen. Our students are the finest and each one's a shining star. Our yell, you hear it ringing through the mountains near and far.

CHORUS
Who am I, sir? A Utah Man or/Fan am I. A Utah Man or/Fan, sir, and will be 'til I die; Ki-yi!

VERSE
We're up to snuff; we never bluff, we're game for any fuss. No rival band of college fans dare meet us in the muss. So fill your lungs and sing it out and shout it to the sky, we'll fight for dear old Crimson, for a Utah Man or/Fan am I.

CHORUS (same)

VERSE
And when we prom the avenue, all lined up in a row, and arm in arm and step in time as down the street we go. No matter if a freshman green or in a senior's gown, the people all admit we are the warmest gang in town.

CHORUS (same)

VERSE
We may not live forever on this jolly good old sphere, but while we do we'll live a life of merriment and cheer. And when our college days are o'er and night is drawing nigh, with parting breath we'll sing that song: "A Utah Man or/Fan Am I." Go Utes!

With its striking design, stunning mountain backdrop and panoramic views, Rice-Eccles Stadium is recognized as one of the most beautiful college stadiums in the country. While the exterior scenery is captivating, the charged atmosphere inside Rice-Eccles Stadium makes it one of the 25 "toughest stadiums in the country" for opposing teams according to Bleacher Report.

That game day experience was greatly enhanced in the fall of 2021 with the completion of the Ken Garff Red Zone at Rice-Eccles Stadium, which added premium seating and increased capacity to 51,444. The $80 million south end zone project was funded in part by a lead gift of $17.5 million from the Ken Garff family, which is the largest donation in Utah Athletics history.

"The success of our student-athletes and our department relies on the extraordinary generosity of our supporters, and the Garff family has been instrumental in elevating Utah Athletics to unimaginable heights," said Director of Athletics Mark Harlan. "This transformational commitment from the Garffs will impact thousands of student-athletes, staff, coaches and fans for years to come, and we are forever grateful for their kindness and support of our University."

No state or taxpayer dollars were used for the project. The former south end zone structure, built in 1982, was the only piece of old Rice Stadium retained when the current structure opened on the same grounds in 1998. The project enclosed the stadium bowl by connecting the east and west concourses on the south end.

The official seating capacity was increased by 5,637 with the addition of several premium seating options and over 1,000 bleacher seats. The fan experience was greatly enhanced by the addition of luxury suites, loge boxes, ledge and rooftop areas. A field-level club and outdoor patio, recruiting lounge, and restaurant were also included in the new structure, as were additional points of sale for concessions and restrooms.

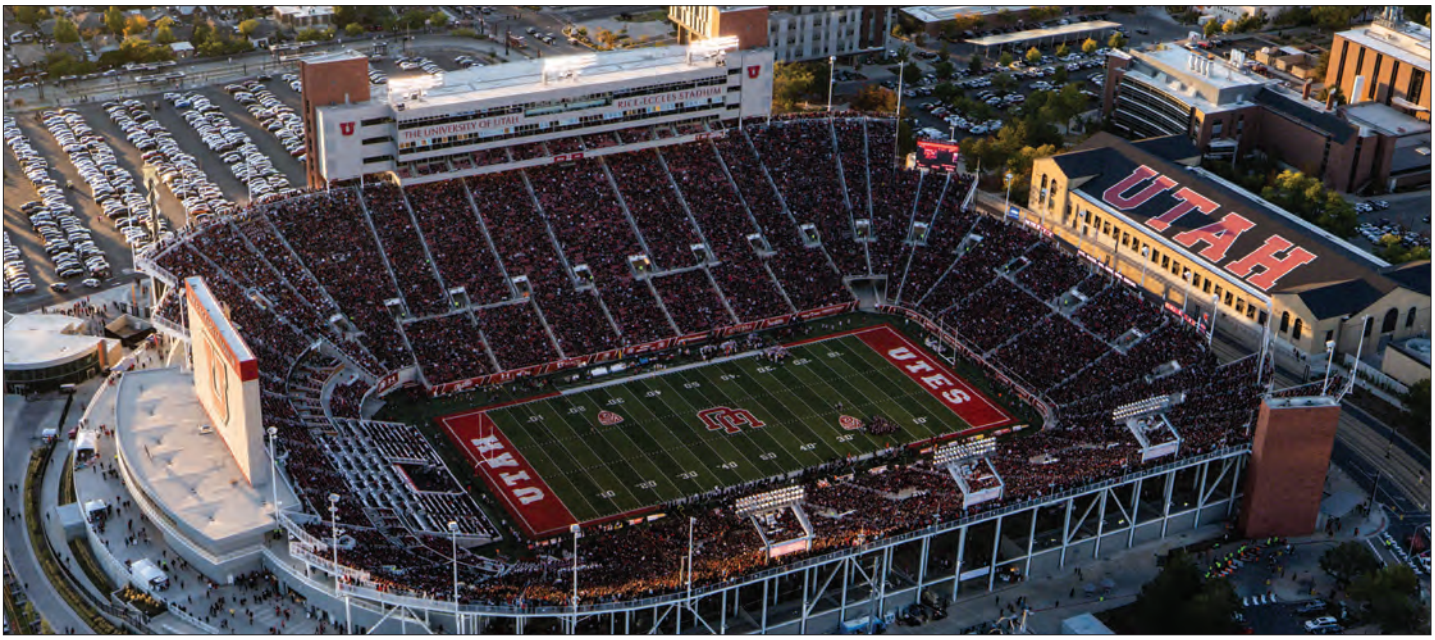
Addressing the need for improved game day operations, the Ken Garff Red Zone at Rice-Eccles Stadium included new team locker rooms and meeting rooms, as well as dedicated areas for coaches, officials, athletic training, equipment, press operations and the band. The 7,800-square foot south end zone videoboard remained in its current place.

Utah's tremendous fan support in recent years fueled the expansion. Entering the 2024 season, the Utes have played in front of 83-straight home sellouts (79 which exceeded the seating capacity) when fans were allowed to attend extending back to the 2010 opener. In its first 26 years, there have been 102 total standing-room-only crowds.

The top 17 crowds in stadium history were recorded during the last three seasons after ushering in the Ken Garff Red Zone; most recently a school-record average of 52,499 fans jammed into RES throughout 2023. The single-game facility attendance record sits at 53,644 from the season opening win over Florida in 2023.

Prior to the Ken Garff Red Zone, the venue's seating capacity was increased in 2014 from 45,017 to 45,807. As a result, the top 10 season attendance averages and the top 20 single-game crowds in Rice-Eccles Stadium history have been recorded over the last 10 seasons fans have been allowed to attend (excluding 2020). Dating back to its 13-0 Sugar Bowl campaign of 2008, Utah's average attendance has exceeded the stadium's capacity for 15 consecutive home campaigns.

Rice-Eccles Stadium



Opened in 1998 on the grounds of the old Ute (1927-71) and Rice (1972-97) stadiums, Rice-Eccles Stadium has continued to receive upgrades in ensuing years. The latest was a state-of-the-art video scoreboard completed in the summer of 2016. Measuring 122 x 64 feet and rising 137 feet above ground, it is one of the largest college football video boards in the country. It features a high definition display with a 16:9 aspect ratio. The enhanced software to run the board delivers some of the best special effects in the sports industry and synchronizes with the LED boards in the north end zone.

Another improvement in 2016 was a distributed sound system that enhances the sound quality in every section of Rice-Eccles Stadium while also reducing noise to the surrounding community.

Rice-Eccles Stadium has also hosted a number of other major sporting events, the most prominent being the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2002 Salt Lake Olympic Winter Games. Garth Brooks sold out the venue in 2021 and then returned to fill the place twice more in '22. The Rolling Stones and U2 are two more of the other prominent acts to play in RES.

The initial groundwork for Rice-Eccles Stadium began in 1996, when a fundraising campaign was initiated to replace an aging 32,500-seat structure. A lead gift of $10 million soon came in from the George S. and Dolores Dore Eccles Foundation, steered by former Ute All-America skier Spence Eccles. The total construction costs ran $50 million.

Preliminary construction work began in the summer of 1997. Two days after the final home game that fall, wrecking crews moved in and demolished Rice Stadium. Only the south end zone bleachers and the Rice name (Robert L. Rice contributed $1 million in the 1972 renovation) would carry over to the new venue. Rising from the rubble less than 10 months later was Rice-Eccles Stadium, an imposing concrete, steel and glass edifice that dominates the Salt Lake skyline.

Visible for miles is the stadium box, located 14 stories above ground and encased in a 400-square-foot expanse of tempered glass. The box is supported by twin towers containing four high-speed elevators. Occupants of the stadium box are treated to sweeping views of the Wasatch Mountains to the east and downtown Salt Lake City, the Great Salt Lake and the Oquirrh Mountains to the west.

The Cleone and Spence Eccles Scholarship Box on Level 4 seats 450 and has indoor-outdoor seating, along with eight suites. The Mezzanine on Level 5 provides another 17 suites.

Level 6 contains the John Mooney Working Press Area, named in honor of the late Ute football writer and Salt Lake Tribune sports editor, and booths for television and radio (among them the Bill Marcroft Radio Booth, named for the former longtime "Voice of the Utes"). The press, TV and radio sections open into the Varsity Reception area, which seats 400 for dining.

The stadium floor has also changed with the times. A Vertex CORE FieldTurf surface was installed in July of 2021, marking the fourth version of FieldTurf laid down in Rice-Eccles since 2002. Previous surfaces (dating back to Ute Field) were natural grass from 1927-71 and again in 2000-01, AstroTurf from 1972-95 and SportGrass from 1995-99.

Spence & Cleone Eccles Football Center

The Utes call home one of the premier training facilities in all of college athletics. The Spence and Cleone Eccles Football Center, a 150,000-square foot, $32 million, state-of-the-art building, was officially dedicated in August of 2013.

The Spence F. and Cleone P. Eccles Family Foundation supplied the lead gift for the facility, with additional major grants from the George S. and Dolores Doré Eccles Foundation and the Sorenson Legacy Foundation.

The Eccles Football Center is equally beautiful as it is functional. The three-story structure features two courtyards and large sweeping glass windows, which provide picturesque views of the Wasatch Mountains to the south and east, and downtown Salt Lake City and the Oquirrh Mountains to the west.

The facility includes a 6,500-square foot locker room, which underwent a full renovation in Summer 2023. Each of the program's 125 players is allocated a custom-crafted locker with roomy and ventilated space, and secure storage for personal belongings. Charging stations for portable electronic devices are also included.

A spacious 3,600-square foot players' lounge, featuring numerous large flat-screen HD televisions, billiard games, a hydration station and group study areas, spills out to a sprawling two-tiered observation deck overlooking the practice fields. With unparalleled views, the deck is a popular place for team get-togethers and alumni events.

The facility houses over 47,000-square feet of offices, meeting rooms and an auditorium. Each member of the coaching staff is provided with a professional and comfortable office, equipped with the latest technology for maximum efficiency. The building also features a new and expanded 6,500-square foot Utah Football Hall of Fame.

And, the building isn't just for football; the training, rehabilitation and nutritional needs of every Utah student-athlete have been enhanced greatly by the new facility. The Zane Beadles Athletic Training Room, a technologically advanced 17,000-square foot space, includes a dedicated hydrotherapy center and allows the Utah sports medicine staff to utilize cutting edge rehabilitation and therapy techniques. The building also houses a 250-seat cafeteria, serving meals tailored to the specific diets of student-athletes.

The Eccles Football Center is attached to the 19,000-square foot Alex Smith Sports Performance Center, which opened in the summer of 2009. The Spence Eccles Field House, a 74,000-square foot indoor training facility that opened in 2004, sits adjacent to the football center.

In terms of both amenities and size, the Utah football program is assured of having one of the finest training complexes in the nation well into the heart of this century.

STATE OF THE ART HOME OF THE UTES

- Includes 150,000-square feet of offices, meeting rooms, player and staff locker rooms, players' lounge, auditorium and two outdoor patios.
- The players' locker room underwent a full renovation in Summer 2023.
- All Utah student-athletes utilize the building's cafeteria and technologically advanced sports medicine and rehabilitation center.
- Attached to the 19,000-sqare foot Alex Smith Sports Performance Center.
- Within close proximity to the 74,000-square foot indoor Spence Eccles Field House.

Two-time All-Pac-12 selection and Pac-12 Championship MVP quarterback Cameron Rising is set to lead the Utes into a new era.

JIM HARDING ON O-BLOCK DEPTH

"Really excited about this group, I think we've got a collection of really talented guys, it's the same thing every spring, just a matter of putting the puzzle together. It's just different through the years, you look at the room initially – you don't see Keaton Bills, you don't see Sataoa Laumea – and there's a little bit of a realization that sinks in but then you look at the room we do have, we have a lot of talented guys, and I think we've got a chance to be pretty good."

QUINTON GANTHER ON MOTIVATED MICAH

"Micah Bernard knows the playbook better than I do. How much more does he want to learn? With him, he's definitely a coach in the room. There are a couple of tweaks in his game we worked on this spring. I made it very clear to him before the spring started that if he wants to go to the next level- these are the things he will have to correct and fix. The thing I love about him is that he's actually taken time to make those adjustments in his game."

COLTON SWAN ON THE LB TRADITION

"I've been blessed with good players and usually when you have good players, that makes you a good coach. One thing I always have to keep in mind is making good players even better. That's my coaching style, that's my strategy. You take a guy like Devin Lloyd, Francis Bernard, Nephi Sewell- you take guys like that, Mohamoud Diabate- very talented players. How can I make them better? I've been fortunate with a lot of really good players and finding little ways to fine-tune their skill set."

SHARRIEFF SHAH ON VALUABLE VAUGHN

"His level of erudition is really impressive. Zemaiah's the kind of ballplayer that sits in the meetings, and having been a former quarterback, he's asking me such in-depth questions. And I'm laughing, like, 'What are you doing? Are you looking at my book?' And he's like, 'Coach, I'm just paying attention.' He increases everybody else's awareness. He makes everybody study a little harder. He's answering questions before anybody. So Zemaiah does everything that you want."

MORGAN SCALLEY ON TAO'S SAFETY SWITCH

"Speed. He's got really good speed over the top. He's got great ball skills. We haven't necessarily had that over-the-top free safety in a minute. Since maybe Julian Blackmon. Cole and Sione were very good safeties and could play in the backend but Tao, just with his ability to cover ground is really pleasant to see back there. Day one had a nice interception over the top. Ball skills and speed- his athleticism is going to prove to be very beneficial to us."

Kyle Whittingham became Utah's winningest coach during the 2021 season and enters his 20th year with 162 wins.

COACHES AND STAFF

Head Coach

KYLE WHITTINGHAM

HEAD COACH | 20TH YEAR

Kyle Whittingham, who is tied as the second-longest tenured head coach at the same school in the NCAA FBS, will enter his 20th season at the helm and 31st overall season at Utah in 2024 as the Utes' all-time wins leader.

Beginning his first season in the Big 12 Conference, Whittingham ranks third among active Big 12 head coaches in all-time victories (162), also ranking 12th among all active FBS head coaches and fourth among head coaches at the same school.

- Including 11 seasons as a Ute assistant coach, he has contributed to more victories (247) than any coach in program history.
- He has coached in 367 games at Utah, including in 241 as the head coach.
- His 162 career wins passed Ike Armstrong (141-55-15 in 211 games from 1925-49) for the all-time wins number.
- Utah has finished with a winning record in 17 of his 19 years as head coach, including in 10 straight.
- The Utes have seven, 10-win seasons under Whittingham (2008, 2009, 2010, 2015, 2019, 2021, 2022).
- Legendary for his postseason success, his 11 bowl wins (11-6) ranks fourth among active coaches with his record including a 2-2 mark in New Year's Six bowls.
- He has wins over Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl (co-head coach) and Alabama in the 2009 Sugar Bowl.

Whether in the Pac-12 or the Mountain West, Whittingham's success in conference play has been unmatched as the Utes have gone 100-61 in conference games under Whittingham (.621).

- Utah won back-to-back Pac-12 titles in 2021 and 2022, also winning at least a share of the Pac-12 South four times (2015 – shared, 2018, 2019, 2021).
- The Utes also won the Mountain West in 2008 after going 8-0 in league play.
- He is a two-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year (2019, 2021) and was Mountain West Coach of the Year in 2008.
- He has won three National Coach of the Year awards – two in 2008 and one in 2019.
- He was the AFCA Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award winner in 2008, and the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Year in 2019.
- In 2019 he also won AFCA Regional Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the AFCA Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award.
- In 2021, Whittingham was a finalist for the Bear Bryant Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year award.

Since 2019, the Utes have produced some of the best offenses and defenses in program history, winning back-to-back Pac-12 Championships in 2021 and 2022, also finishing with its highest final CFP Poll ranking in program history in 2022 (10-4 overall, No. 8).

- The Utes became just the third team in Pac-12 Conference history to win back-to-back championship games.
- Utah finished the 2022 season leading the Pac-12 in eight different statistical categories, also finishing second in total defense and rushing offense.
- After starting the 2021 season 1-2 and having two student-athletes pass away less than 10 months apart from each other, "family on 3" truly came to life as Whittingham rallied the team together to win nine of its final 11 games of the season with the program's first-ever Pac-12 Championship game win and a trip to the Rose Bowl.
- Utah was awarded the 2021 Capital One Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award.
- Utah defeated three AP Top 25 opponents in 2021 (No.18 Arizona State, No. 4 Oregon, No. 10 Oregon), the most in a single-season since Utah's Sugar Bowl run in 2008.
- Utah's 8-1 Pac-12 record in 2021 tied for the single-season best for the Utes (also finished 8-1 in 2019).
- In similar fashion, the 2019 Utes finished the season 11-3 overall, the third-most wins in school history after winning their second-straight Pac-12 South Title, earning a spot in the Alamo Bowl.

The 2021 season was compared to Utah's Sugar Bowl year multiple times after Whittingham engineered one of the best seasons in Utah Football history. The Utes went 13-0 in 2008, concluding the season with a 31-17 Sugar Bowl rout of Alabama, a team that had spent five weeks at No. 1.

- Utah was declared the national champion that season by major selector Anderson/Hester and was ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll.

As he enters his 20th year at the helm of the Utah program, Kyle Whittingham is tied as the second-longest tenured head coach at the same school in the FBS.

Head Coach

- Utah was the only undefeated FBS team in 2008, beating four top-25 teams, including two that finished in the top 10.

The Utes appeared in every weekly CFP top-25 for the first three years of the system (2014-16) and have the eighth-most appearances of any school with 44 total.

- Utah has finished in the CFP top-25 in seven seasons: No. 22 in 2014 and 2015, No. 19 in 2016, No. 17 in 2018, No. 11 in 2019, No. 11 in 2021 and its highest-ever ranking at No. 8 in 2022.
- The Utes have also made the final AP top-25 eight times and the final Coaches' poll nine times under Whittingham.
- Whittingham's teams have also performed well against AP top-25 teams, recording 23 wins against ranked opponents, including top-10 victories over No. 4 Alabama (2009), No. 5 Stanford (2013), No. 8 UCLA (2014), No. 4 Oregon (2021, regular season), again when the Ducks were ranked No. 10 in the Pac-12 Championship game, vs. No. 7 USC (2022, regular season) and again against the Trojans when they were ranked No. 4 in the 2022 Pac-12 Championship game.

Head Coach

Individually, Whittingham has had 34 players make All-America teams during his time as head coach, including 17 that have made major All-America first-teams (those determining NCAA's consensus team) with 10 earning consensus or unanimous honors.

- Utah has had a consensus or unanimous All-American in six of the last eight years, including in three straight.
- Utah's consensus and unanimous All-Americans under Whittingham include Eric Weddle (2006), Louie Sakoda (2008), Tom Hackett (2014, 2015), Mitch Wishnowsky (2016), Matt Gay (2017), Bradlee Anae (2019), Devin Lloyd (2021), Clark Phillips III (Unanimous, 2022), Jonah Elliss (2023).
- He has also coached major national award winners in the Ray Guy Award (Tom Hackett, 2014, 2015; Mitch Wishnowsky, 2016), the Lou Groza Award (Matt Gay, 2017) and the Ted Hendricks Award (Nate Orchard, 2014).
- In 2019, Utah boasted a school-record five players that earned All-America status from one of the teams that determine the NCAA's consensus team.

Whittingham's players have also won a total of 100 first-team all-conference awards, including 55 in Utah's 13 total seasons of Pac-12 membership.

- Utah has had 34 first-team selections since 2018 with three players being three-time All-Pac-12 first-team selections (Tom Hackett, 2013-15; Mitch Wishnowsky, 2016-18; Britain Covey (2015-21).
- The Utes have also captured the Morris Trophy six times, which recognizes the Pac-12's best lineman, offensive and defensive, as voted on by the starting linemen on the other teams (Star Lotulelei, DT, 2011; Nate Orchard, DE, 2014; Isaac Asiata, OL, 2016; Bradlee Anae, DE, 2019; Nick Ford, OL, 2021; Mika Tafua, DE, 2021).
- With Whittingham at the helm, Utah has also had eight different players earn conference player of the year honors (Lander Barton, Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, 2022; Junior Tafuna, Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, 2021; Devin Lloyd, Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year, 2021; Ty Jordan, Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year, 2020; Zack Moss, Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year, 2019; Brian Johnson, MW Offensive Player of the Year, 2008; Louie Sakoda, MW Special Teams Player of the Year, 2006, 2007, 2008; Eric Weddle, MW Defensive Player of the Year, 2005, 2006).

In addition to Utah's in-season success, Whittingham also has a reputation for developing NFL talent on a yearly basis. Utah has had 30 selections in the seven drafts from 2017-24.

- Tight end Dalton Kincaid was drafted in the first round (25th overall) in 2023, marking the first time in program history the Utes have had back-to-back years with first round picks.
- In 2022, linebacker Devin Lloyd became Utah's ninth first round pick in school history, going 27th overall to Jacksonville. It was Utah's highest-drafted linebacker in program history.
- Seven Utes were drafted in 2020, the most in the Pac-12 and tied for fifth-most in the nation.
- Utah had a school-record eight NFL draft picks in 2017, which led the Pac-12 and tied for third in the country.
- In 2010, six Utes were drafted (tied for fourth nationally).
- In 2019, Utah had two special teams players (Mitch Wishnowsky, Matt Gay) drafted, the first time since 1985 that a punter and a kicker from the same school were drafted in the same year.
- As an assistant or a head coach, 108 of Whittingham's players have signed contracts with NFL teams (65 draft picks, including 16 first or second round selections, and 43 undrafted free agents).

Utah has also excelled academically under Whittingham. Since he became head coach in 2005, his players have earned six Academic All-America selections and 400 academic all-conference/academic honor roll awards.

- Britain Covey became Utah's first-ever Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2021 after being a two-time Academic All-American.
- Utah Football received public recognition from the NCAA for posting multi-year Academic Progress Report (APR) in the top 10 percent of all athletic teams in the country from 2016-20, including a perfect single-year APR score of 1000 in 2017-18.
- The AFCA also gave Utah an Academic Achievement Award for recording a perfect 100-percent single-year NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in 2017 and 2019.
- Utah has eclipsed 90-percent over the last six years and its 93-percent score for 2023 was second in the Pac-12.

Whittingham began his coaching career in 1985-86 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Brigham Young. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at the College of Eastern Utah in 1987, before a six-year stint at Idaho State from 1988-93.

A linebacker for BYU from 1978-81, Whittingham earned first-team all-WAC and WAC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1981. He played in the first four Holiday Bowls and was named Defensive MVP of the 1981 game. In 2009, he was inducted into the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame. After his senior season, Whittingham played in the Hula and Japan Bowls. He played professionally with the Denver Broncos (1982 training camp) and the U.S. Football League's (USFL) Denver Gold (1983) and New Orleans Breakers (1984). He played on the Los Angeles Rams' replacement squad in 1987.

Whittingham graduated from BYU in 1984 and added a master's degree from the school in 1987. Born Nov. 21, 1959, he was raised in Provo, Utah. He is married to the former Jamie Daniels. They have four children: Tyler, Melissa, Alex and Kylie, and eight grandchildren. Tyler and Alex both played for the Utes with Alex currently serving as a defensive quality control coach for the Kansas City Chiefs.

Kyle Whittingham began his career at Utah in 1994 as an assistant under Ron McBride.

Defensive Coordinator

MORGAN SCALLEY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SAFETIES | 17TH YEAR

Now in his 17th year overall as a Utah assistant coach, Morgan Scalley will begin his ninth season as defensive coordinator when the Utes enter the Big 12 Conference in 2024. He also continues to coach the safeties, as he has since joining the coaching staff in 2008.

Scalley previously served as Utah's recruiting coordinator from 2009-15 and special teams' coordinator in 2015. The former Ute All-America safety began his coaching career as an administrative assistant with the Utes in 2006, moving into a graduate assistant role in 2007.

Scalley, who owns a reputation as one of the brightest defensive minds in the business, was a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2019 when the Utes ranked second in the FBS in total defense. He has instilled the culture and identity of the Utah Defense known as RSNB – standing for Relentless, Smart, Nasty, Ballhawks.

- Utah finished in the top-half of the Pac-12 in total defense seven times in the past eight seasons, ranking second nationally and first in the league in 2019.
- Scalley directed the Pac-12's top rushing defense five times in his previous eight seasons as coordinator (2016 and 2018-21) —including top-five national rankings in 2018, '19 and '23.
- The Utes have finished atop the conference in sacks and tackles for loss three times under Scalley, most recently back-to-back in 2021 and '22. The team also finished the 2018 season ranked 11th nationally and first in the Pac-12 in sacks.
- Since 2019, Scalley's defense has held opponents to 15 points or fewer in 25 games; it is tied for ninth-most by a Power Conference program.

The "next man up" mentality was top-of-mind for the 2023 Utes as the squad battled the injury bug across all three phases. Nevertheless, Utah reached bowl-eligibility for the 10th straight season and put up some of the Pac-12's top defensive numbers along the way.

- Scalley's group ranked second in the Pac-12 and ninth among Power Conference programs with 307.2 yards allowed per game. It marked the seventh straight season that the Utes ranked in the top-three of the Pac-12 in total defense (and fifth time in the last six years ranking top-two in the league).
- In the run game, Utah allowed 82.8 yards per game—good for second in the conference and No. 4 nationally. A testament to the continued strength of the front seven, Utah posted a top-three rushing defense in the Pac-12 each year with Scalley as defensive coordinator. It includes leading the conference in four straight seasons from 2018-21.
- Opponents struggled mightily on third down against the Utes, converting just 29.5% of the time. It was the best percentage in the league and No. 8 in FBS. In turn, Utah allowed a Pac-12-low 199 first downs, fifth-fewest in FBS. It helped put the ball in the hands of the Utah offense for a nation-leading 34:04 time of possession per game.
- The Utes allowed 19.3 points per game—ranking 19th in the FBS—including seven games where the defense allowed 15 or fewer points.
- Consensus All-American defensive end Jonah Elliss, plus safeties Cole Bishop and Sione Vaki declared for the NFL Draft following the 2023 season, with Bishop and Vaki also earning invitations to the Reese's Senior Bowl. One of the most versatile players in recent program history, Vaki not only shined at safety but also saw time on offense in seven games during 2023.

Scalley's defense was a force during 2022, even after losing multiple upperclassmen to the NFL following the '21 campaign. It culminated with Utah's second straight league championship and Rose Bowl appearance.

- Utah allowed an average of 334.1 total yards per game—ranking No. 18 in the Power Five and just short of the Pac-12 lead. The Utes had six performances holding opponents under 270 total yards, contributing to the Pac-12's second-best scoring defense (21.4 points per game). In nine games the Utes held their foes to 21 points or less. It led the Pac-12 and was tied for seventh-most among Power Five programs during the 2022 campaign.
- The Utes were once again tough to solve on the ground; on paper the team had the Pac-12's best rushing defense for much of the season, ultimately finishing No. 2 in the Pac-12 and 18th nationally (111.4 yards per game).

Despite battling injuries in the secondary and on the defensive line throughout the 2021 season, the Utes lived up to the challenge on the way to the program's first-ever Pac-12 crown and ticket to the Rose Bowl.

- Utah allowed only 341.6 yards of offense per game, ranking third in the Pac-12, holding six different opponents to under 315 yards.
- The Utes held teams in their nine-game conference slate to just 332 yards on average – the fewest in the league.
- In 2021, the Utes ranked in the top-25 nationally and first in the league in rushing defense (119.4), sacks (3.00) and tackles for loss (6.9).
- Utah was 7-0 in games when only allowing only 100 rushing yards or less.

On an individual front, Scalley has coached 13 All-Americans (four consensus or unanimous), 19 first-team all-conference selections and five Freshman All-Americans.

- His defensive All-Americans are headlined by Jonah Elliss (consensus in 2023), Clark Phillips III (unanimous in 2022), Devin Lloyd (consensus in 2021) and Bradlee Anae (consensus in 2019).

Defensive Coordinator

- Additional Utes to collect All-America on his watch include Cole Bishop (2023), Sione Vaki (2023), Mika Tafua (2021), Jaylon Johnson (2019), Leki Fotu (2019), Julian Blackmon (2019), Chase Hansen (2018) and Hunter Dimick (2016) with Tom Hackett also being named a unanimous All-American in 2015 when Scalley served as special teams coordinator.
- Bradlee Anae (2019) and Mika Tafua (2021) were named Pac-12 Morris Trophy recipients, awarded to the league's top offensive and defensive linemen and voted on by the opposite side of the ball. Lloyd also became Utah's first Pac-12 Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year, taking the accolade in 2021.
- Linebacker Lander Barton was named the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year in 2022, highlighting a pair of Freshmen All-Americans for the Utes in Barton and defensive tackle Simote Pepa.
- In 2019 Utah placed five defensive players on the All-Pac-12 first team (Anae, Blackmon, Fotu, Johnson and Francis Bernard) and one on second team, with four more garnering honorable mention. That marked the second year in a row with 10 players honored, with 2018's haul including first-team picks Hansen, Anae, Fotu and Jaylon Johnson.
- Scalley's other first-team All-Pac-12 players include Hackett, Dimick and Marcus Williams. In addition, Robert Johnson was first-team All-Mountain West and Eric Rowe and Brian Blechen were both Freshman All-Americans.

In 2022, Scalley saw Lloyd become the highest-drafted linebacker in school history in the NFL Draft, going in the first round (27th overall) to Jacksonville. Thirty-one of his protégés have reached the NFL through the 2023 season.

- After leaving Utah as a second-round draft pick, Eric Rowe played in three Super Bowls with the New England Patriots (2016-18). Scalley has four other second-round draft picks to date: Williams (New Orleans) in 2017, safety Marquise Blair (Seattle) in 2019, cornerback Jaylon Johnson (Chicago) in 2020 and safety Cole Bishop in 2024 (Buffalo).
- Third-rounders include safeties Blackmon (Indianapolis) and Terrell Burgess (L.A. Rams) in 2020, and linebacker Cody Barton (Seattle) in 2019.
- Fotu was a fourth-round choice (Arizona) in 2020 and Anae (Dallas) a fifth-rounder. Robert Johnson played three seasons in the league as a fifth-round draft pick in 2010. Scalley sent a trio of sixth-round draft picks to the NFL in defensive linemen Pita Taumoepenu in 2017, Kylie Fitts in 2018 and John Penisini in 2020.
- Jaylon Johnson was selected to the NFC roster for the Pro Bowl Games in 2023.

PLAYING CAREER

Scalley lettered for the Utes from 2001-04 and was the 2004 Mountain West co-Defensive Player of the Year, a second-team All-American by the Associated Press and SI.com and a unanimous first-team all-conference safety. He was a second-team All-MWC defensive back in 2003 and an honorable mention All-MWC punt returner in 2001 and 2002.

As a senior, he captained Utah to 12-0 record, a Fiesta Bowl win over Pittsburgh and a No. 4 national ranking in a historic season in which Utah became the first non-BCS team to play in a BCS bowl game.

Scalley was a two-time first-team Academic All-American (2003-04), the 2004 Anson Mount Scholar Athlete of the Year and the 2004 MWC Scholar Athlete of the Year. He was awarded two post-graduate scholarships, including one from the NCAA.

Scalley was presented with the inaugural Pat Tillman award during the 2005 East-West Shrine Game, recognizing him for his character, intelligence, sportsmanship and service.

After graduating Magna Cum Laude from the U. with a 3.96 GPA, Scalley earned a master's degree in business.

Offensive Coordinator

ANDY LUDWIG

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS | 6TH / 10TH YEAR

Andy Ludwig is in the sixth year of his second full-time stint on the Utah football coaching staff in 2024. Ludwig, who served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the undefeated 2008 season, returned in 2019 and has helped lead the offense to heights unrivaled in recent history.

Ludwig had spent the 2015-18 seasons as Vanderbilt's offensive coordinator following a two-year run at Wisconsin (2013-14), two years at San Diego State (2011-12) and two years at California (2009-10), all since helping lead Utah to a 13-0 record in 2008 and a Sugar Bowl win over Alabama.

That capped a successful four-year period as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Utah (2005-08), which followed three years in the same role at Oregon (2002-04). During his four years as offensive coordinator at Vanderbilt, Ludwig also coached the Commodores' quarterbacks (2015), tight ends (2016-18) and running backs (2018).

In the five seasons since Ludwig's return, the Utah offense has eclipsed 450 yards of total offense in a game 26 times in 60 games, also scoring 30-or-more points in 38. Since 2019, Utah has only been held to under 300 yards of total offense in just six games.

- Ludwig is a proponent of a balanced offensive attack and has coached a 1,000-yard rusher 17 times in his FBS coaching career, including Utah's Quinton Ganther (1,120 in 2005), Darrell Mack (1,204 in 2007) Zack Moss (1,416 in 2019) and Tavion Thomas (1,108 in 2021).
- In his five seasons back with the Utes, Utah has finished in the top-three in the Pac-12 in passing efficiency twice (2019, 2021), including ranking eighth nationally and atop the league in 2019.
- In addition to a strong passing attack, Utah has ranked in the top-three in the Pac-12 in rushing offense in four of the last five seasons, including leading the league in 2019 and 2021.
- In the 60 games he has coached in, Utah has had 200-or-more rushing yards in 31.
- In two of the last three seasons (2021, 2022), the Utes have produced two of the highest rushing yard totals in school history with Utah's 3,047 yards in 2022 ranked second and its 3,035 yards in 2021 ranking third all-time.
- The Utes also broke the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season in 2022, punching in 38 after setting the record at 37 in 2021.

The 2023 season was plagued with injuries on the offensive side of the ball, going without starting quarterback Cameron Rising and All-American tight end Brant Kuithe – giving new meaning to Utah's "next man up" mentality.

- Despite injuries, Utah finished third in the Pac-12 and in the top-35 in the FBS in rushing offense (182.5).
- The Utes also ranked third in the league and 18th in the FBS in turnovers lost, only committing 13.
- In 2023, Utah was one of just three Power Five programs that started three different quarterbacks throughout the year with all three earning wins.
- He coached back-up turned starter, Bryson Barnes, to 1,572 passing yards and 265 rushing yards in 2023 with 15 total touchdowns (12 passing, 3 rushing).
- He also saw Barnes throw for 31 completions at Arizona in 2023, the most by a Utah quarterback since 2005 with his four passing touchdowns against Arizona State being the most by a Ute in a Pac-12 game since 2018.
- Utah's 55 points against Arizona State in 2023 was the most since scoring 63 at Colorado in 2022 and was the fifth time since Ludwig's return in 2019 that Utah had eclipsed the 50-point mark.

Ludwig was at the helm in 2022 to see the Utah offensive production continue to rise with the Utes winning their second-straight Pac-12 Championship with another Rose Bowl appearance.

- The Utes led the Pac-12 and ranked second in the FBS in first downs offense, producing 365 first downs and 26.1 per game.
- Utah also led the league in time of possession (33:40), ranking sixth in the country as well.
- Utah averaged 38.6 points per game in 2022, ranking 11th in the FBS, scoring 30+ points in 10 of its 14 games.
- Out of Utah's 80 scoring drives, the Utes had 36 touchdowns on drives that lasted 70 yards or longer.
- Utah's rushing offense finished the year ranked 11th in the FBS and second in the Pac-12, averaging 217.6 yards per game.
- The Utes' 38 rushing scores set the program record for single-game rushing touchdowns, also ranking fifth in the FBS in 2022.
- He also saw the offensive line hold opponents to just 1.07 sacks per game, which ranked 16th nationally.

He wrapped up his third year of his second stint in 2021, leading an offensive unit that went 8-1 in conference play with a Pac-12 Championship and Rose Bowl appearance under their belt.

- Utah led the Pac-12 in scoring offense (37.2), touchdowns scored (45), total offense (454.89), rushing offense (240.78) and passing efficiency (145.7) in league games.
- The Utes ranked No. 7 in the FBS in first downs offense (340), 13th in rushing offense (216.8) and 14th in the FBS in scoring offense (36.1).
- Utah scored 24 of its 37 rushing touchdowns in the final seven games of the season, recording a league best 34 rushing scores in Pac-12 play.
- The Utes scored 30-or-more points in 11 of its 14 games in 2021, the most in school history, including 35+ points in eight of its last nine.
- Of Utah's 61 offensive touchdowns in 2021, 32 came on drives of 70 yards or longer.
- Utah produced 45 points, 36 first downs and 567 yards on its game opening drives in 2021.
- He saw starting quarterback Cameron Rising finish the year as the highest-rated Pac-12 quarterback in ESPN's QBR Rating (84.2), ranking sixth overall after finishing the season ranked No. 3 in the Pac-12 in passing efficiency (145.74), passing yards per game (214.1), and was second in passing yards per completion (12.76).
- Running back Tavion Thomas ranked third in the FBS and first in the Pac-12 in total rushing touchdowns (21), setting the single-season record at Utah.

The return of Ludwig to Utah in 2019 sparked an offensive explosion that saw the Utes lead the Pac-12 in rushing yards (201.4), passing efficiency (174.05), completion percentage (72.6%) and third-down conversion rate (46.3%), en route to a second consecutive Pac-12 South title.

- The Utes ranked second in the FBS and broke the Pac-12 record for completion percentage, while ranking eighth in passing efficiency.
- Utah in 2019 topped the 500-yard mark for total offense five times, their most since 2005, also under Ludwig, and scored 30 or more points 10 times.
- He saw senior quarterback Tyler Huntley set Pac-12 records in completion percentage (73.1%) and passing yards per attempt (10.3).

Offensive Coordinator

- Moss became Utah's all-time leading rusher in 2019, also breaking five other career records that season.

In his time at Utah, Ludwig has coached 47 all-conference selections, including 16 first-teamers and the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year in Moss in 2019.

- In 2023, a trio of offensive linemen, Sataoa Laumea (second-team), Michael Mokofisi (honorable mention) and Keaton Bills (honorable mention) earned All-Pac-12.
- In 2022, Utah landed two offensive linemen on the first-team in Braeden Daniels and Sataoa Laumea with tight end Dalton Kincaid also getting a first-team nod.
- In 2021, Rising, Thomas and offensive lineman Nick Ford earned first-team All-Pac-12, tying for the most offensive first-team selections for the Utes since joining the league in 2011.
- After the 2020 season, Ford earned first-team all-conference honors with running back Ty Jordan being named Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year.
- In 2019, Huntley earned Pac-12 Co-Offensive Player of the Year by AP and All-Pac-12 first-team by the coaches, also earning All-America third-team by Pro Football Focus. • He was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and Manning Awards.
- Also in 2019, Ludwig saw Moss earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year along with AP (3rd team), Pro Football Focus (1st Team), CBS Sports (2nd Team) and FWAA (2nd Team) All-American. Offensive lineman Darrin Paulo also earned first-team All-Pac-12 in 2019.

A 37-year veteran of college coaching (including one year as a Utah graduate assistant), the Ogden, Utah, native has coached some prolific offenses, including during his first stint with the Utes.

- In 2008, Ludwig was a finalist for FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year after Utah led the Mountain West and ranked 15th nationally in scoring, averaging 36.9 points per game.

- In 2005, the Utes led the MWC in total offense (473.0 yards per game) and pass efficiency offense, with national rankings of 12th and 10th, respectively. In 2005 and 2006, Utah finished second in the league in passing offense and finished 12th in the nation in 2005.
- The 2007 Utes ranked second in the league in rushing offense.

Ludwig has coached a number of award-winning players, among them Utah quarterback Brian Johnson, the 2008 MWC Most Valuable Offensive Player and 2009 Sugar Bowl MVP, in addition to Huntley in 2019 and Jordan in 2020. He has coached two Heisman finalists—Wisconsin running back Melvin Gordon in 2014 and Fresno State quarterback David Carr in 2001. Gordon rushed for 2,587 yards in 2014, establishing the second-highest single-season rushing total in NCAA FBS history. Carr was the No. 1 overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, as well as the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm and Sammy Baugh award winner after leading the nation in passing yards (4,839) and touchdowns (46) in the 2001 season.

Before his return to Utah, Ludwig's protégé, Vanderbilt's Kyle Shurmur, became the school's all-time passing leader in 2018, throwing for 8,865 yards and 64 touchdowns in his career.

He coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers at Wisconsin in 2013 in Gordon (1,609) and James White (1,444), and in 2018 at Vanderbilt guided Ke'Shawn Vaughn to a 1,244-yard season. Ralph Webb finished his Vandy career in 2017 as the school's all-time career leader in rushing yards (4,173) and rushing touchdowns (32).

Ludwig's previous coaching experience came at Portland State, Idaho State, Augustana (S.D.), Boise State and Cal Poly-SLO. His son, Joe, joined the Utah football program as a tight end and fullback in January 2020 before graduating from Utah in 2021, transferring from Iowa where he spent three seasons with the Hawkeyes.

PLAYING CAREER

Ludwig played wide receiver at Snow College from 1982-83, then transferred to Portland State, where he lettered in 1985-86.

In the first indoor major bowl game, Utah capped off a nine-win season with a 32-6 victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl in Atlantic City, N.J.

Utah's defense piled all over Southern Miss with 10 tackles for loss and five sacks in a 17-0 shutout in the 2003 Liberty Bowl.

New Year's Six Bowl Seasons

Utah has received four invitations to New Year's Six bowl games, making back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances in 2022 and '23, after also reaching the 2009 Sugar Bowl and 2005 Fiesta Bowl. In 2008, the Utes were declared the National Champions by Anderson/Hester and finished No. 2 in the Associated Press Poll. Utah was voted No. 4 in the final AP Poll in 2004.

After winning the Pac-12 Conference Championship both in 2021 and '22, Utah made back-to-back appearances in the Rose Bowl. During the Bowl Championship Series era from 1998-2013, Utah was the original "BCS Buster" out of the Mountain West Conference, becoming the first school outside of the automatic-qualifying conferences to be invited to a BCS Bowl game in 2004. Four years later in 2008, the Utes became the first non-AQ school to make two BCS Bowl games and the first school from any conference to record multiple undefeated BCS Bowl seasons.

- No. 4 final national ranking by AP, No. 5 in the Coaches Poll.
- 12-0 record to finish as one of three undefeated FBS teams.
- Defeated Pittsburgh, 35-7, in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Ariz.
- First non-BCS conference school invited to a BCS Bowl when only four existed (a fifth was added in 2006).
- Head coach Urban Meyer earned the George Munger Award as the NCAA Division I coach of the year by Maxwell Football Club.
- Kyle Whittingham was the team's defensive coordinator and co-head coach for the Fiesta Bowl.
- Quarterback Alex Smith was a Heisman Trophy finalist before becoming the No. 1 NFL Draft pick.

Current Ute defensive coordinator Morgan Scalley (center) was a senior team captain when Utah rolled over Pittsburgh to win the 2005 Fiesta Bowl.

2008

- National Champion by major selector Anderson/Hester.
- No. 2 final ranking by AP, No. 4 in the Coaches Poll.
- Highest-ranked non-BCS conference team in history.
- 16 first-place votes in the final AP rankings.
- 13-0 record to finish as the only undefeated FBS team.
- Defeated Alabama, 31-17, in the 2009 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. The Crimson Tide were ranked No. 1 in the nation for five weeks that season and entered the game as double-digit favorites.
- Four wins over Top 25 teams that season, including two teams that finished in the top 10.
- Kyle Whittingham was recognized as the National Coach of the Year by the AFCA and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Awards committee.

Joe Dale, Mike Wright and Koa Misi (left to right) led a Ute defense that held Alabama to just 31 rushing yards and recorded eight sacks.

New Year's Six Bowl Seasons

2021

- No. 11 in the final College Football Playoff Poll, ranked No. 12 by AP and No. 12 in the Coaches Poll.
- 10-4 record to give Utah its fifth 10-plus win season under Kyle Whittingham and the eighth in school history.
- Won the Pac-12 South Division outright with an 8-1 record and defeated Oregon 38-10 in the Pac-12 Championship game.
- Fell to No. 6 Ohio State 48-45 in the 108th Rose Bowl, which was the third-highest scoring game in the bowl's history.
- 3-1 record againt Top 25 teams, including two wins over Oregon when the Ducks were ranked No. 3 and No. 10.

Cam Rising threw for 214 yards and a pair of touchdowns and ran 62 yards for a TD in Utah's 2022 Rose Bowl battle against Ohio State.

2022

- No. 8 ranking in the final College Football Playoff Poll was Utah's highest season-ending ranking since the CFP's inception in 2014.
- No. 10 in the final AP Poll and No. 11 in the Coaches' Poll.
- 10-4 record for the second straight season; the sixth season under Kyle Whittingham with 10-plus wins and ninth for Utah all-time.
- First consecutive 10-win seasons since 2008-10.
- Defeated USC twice, with the Trojans ranked No. 7 in the regular season and No. 4 in the Pac-12 Championship Game.
- Recorded the largest comeback victory (14 points) in the history of the Pac-12 Championship Game.
- Faced No. 11 Penn State in a return to the Rose Bowl, falling to the Nittany Lions by a 35-21 score.
- Dalton Kincaid was a first round pick (27th overall) by Buffalo in the following NFL Draft, highlighting three selections from Utah and becoming the highest drafted tight end in program history.

During the 2023 Rose Bowl vs. Penn State, wide receiver Devaughn Vele had Utah's first 100-yard receiving efffort in a bowl game since 2018.

The Utes circle the stands and high-five fans after defeating Alabama in the 2009 Sugar Bowl at the Louisiana Superdome.

El Paso, Texas - Jan. 2, 1939

Inside The Game
Utah finished the 1938 season with a 1939 bowl victory over New Mexico.

EL PASO–Predicted as the most even match-up of the 1938 bowl season, Utah blasted the forecasters and New Mexico, 26-0, on Jan. 2. Utah, the old Big Seven Conference champion, struck early. Tom Pace capped a 58-yard drive with a 15-yard touchdown run off a lateral from Ray Davis midway through the first quarter. With a minute remaining in the period, Ray Peterson intercepted a Lobo pass on the Ute 40-yard line and returned it for a second score. Peterson crossed the goal line again in the second quarter, on a fourth-down, 1-yard plunge.

New Mexico's highly-touted aerial attack never advanced past Utah's 40-yard line. As for the Utes, halfback Clarence Gehrke finished their scoring with a 10-yard dash. New Mexico, co-champion of the old Border League, gained just 153 yards of total offense to Utah's 384.

1964 LIBERTY BOWL

Utah	32
West Virginia	6

Atlantic City, N.J. - Dec. 19, 1964

Inside The Game
Utah beats West Virginia in the first indoor major bowl game.

ATLANTIC CITY–Utah never trailed in its 32-6 victory over West Virginia in the 1964 Liberty Bowl–the first indoor major bowl game ever held. A national television audience and 6,059 fans in the Convention Center watched Utah score first on a 29-yard field goal by All-American Roy Jefferson. Jefferson, who also booted a 32-yard field goal, left the game in the first half after separating his shoulder.

But Utah had plenty of firepower left. Halfback Ron Coleman sprinted 53 yards for a touchdown on a day which saw him lead all rushers with 154 rushing yards. Andy Ireland added another long TD dash for the Utes–his went for 47 yards–while quarterback Pokey Allen contributed an 11-yard touchdown run.

The Ute offense, featuring a two-quarterback attack, closed its scoring with a 33-yard touchdown strike from Richard Groth to Bill Morley. In all, the Utes totaled 466 yards of offense.

The Utah defense also did its job, holding the Mountaineers scoreless until the waning minutes of the third quarter. West Virginia's Allen McCune hooked up with receiver Rich Juriga with 5:30 to play for the Mountaineers' sole touchdown. Utah's backfield intercepted four McCune passes.

The Liberty Bowl win capped a 9-2 season for coach Ray Nagel and the Utes. It would stand as the most wins ever by a Ute team for 30 years.

1992 COPPER BOWL

Utah	28
Washington State	31

Tucson, Ariz. - Dec. 29, 1992

Inside The Game
Ute rally falls just short against Washington State in first bowl appearance since 1964.

TUCSON–In the early going, Utah played the part of a team that hadn't gone "bowling" for 28 years. But the Utes made up for lost time quickly and nearly upset favored Washington State in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season. After jumping to a 21-0 first-quarter lead, WSU barely held on for a 31-28 win in the Weiser Lock Copper Bowl.

The Utes, who seemingly gave the game away in the first quarter, became acclimated to postseason play in the second and third stanzas, roaring back to tie the score at 28-28. Defense ruled in the fourth quarter and a WSU field goal proved the game winner.

Frank Dolce hit Sean Williams for Utah's first score, a 10-yard pass play. Six minutes later, Keith Williams scampered into pay dirt from 25 yards out to narrow the gap to 21-14. After a 48-yard touchdown pass by Washington State's Drew Bledsoe, Dolce countered with a 49-yard strike to Henry Lusk, who plucked the ball from a defender's hands in a leaping end zone catch.

An 8-yard TD run by Pierre Jones narrowed the gap to 28-26, and a successful two-point conversion from Dolce to Scott Murry tied things up, but only for 20 seconds. Washington State responded with a 22-yard field goal to go ahead 31-28. Utah's Chris Yergensen's 20-yard field goal attempt with 3:19 remaining in the game was wide left and the Utes came up short.

1993 FREEDOM BOWL

Utah	21
USC	28

Anaheim, Calif. - Dec. 30, 1993

Inside The Game
Utes dominate the second half but run out of time against the USC Trojans.

ANAHEIM–On paper, the Freedom Bowl match-up looked mismatched with the tri-champion of the Pac-10 Conference (Southern California) facing the Western Athletic Conference's fourth-place finisher (Utah). On the field, the pairing looked even worse, at least for two quarters.

Then Utah came alive. When USC jumped to a 28-0 halftime lead, Utah appeared headed for a lopsided loss. Offense? The Utes managed just 101 yards of total offense and failed to cross midfield in the first half. Defense? The Utes gave up 296 yards and four touchdowns. Over? No way.

Led by eventual Freedom Bowl Offensive MVP Henry Lusk, the Utes charged back to within a touchdown of the Trojans, with the ball and a chance to win at the end. Lusk caught six second-half passes for 140 yards and a 59-yard touchdown to help the Utes climb within seven (28-21). In the meantime, Utah's defense slammed the door on USC's vaunted offense, holding the Trojans scoreless in the second half. Junior defensive end Luther Elliss had a huge game for the Utes, with five tackles for lost yardage, two sacks (12 yards) and two pass breakups. Former Trojan Adam Swaney had a career day as a Ute, with four tackles for loss and three sacks (16 yards).

Quarterback Mike McCoy's Hail Mary pass with 0:08 was picked off as time ran out, averting Utah's upset bid.

1994 FREEDOM BOWL

Utah	16
Arizona	13

Anaheim, Calif. - Dec. 27, 1994

Inside The Game
Touchdown pass on fourth down gives Utah a win over Arizona in a matchup of top-15 teams.

ANAHEIM–In a remarkable ratio of points to yards, Utah won the Freedom Bowl over Arizona, 16-13, despite accumulating just 75 net yards against Arizona's famed Desert Swarm defense. Utah, which managed just five first downs and six rushing yards all night, seemed doomed to its second straight Freedom Bowl defeat when quarterback Mike McCoy found himself in the grasp of a Wildcat defender on fourth-and-goal. But McCoy made a desperation heave on his way to the ground and freshman Kevin Dyson streaked through a crowd of Wildcats to make a game-winning catch with 3:34 left.

Ironically, the hero's mantle and the game MVP award went to neither of the above. Freshman Cal Beck took an Arizona kickoff and sprinted 72 yards to the Ute 5-yard-line with 4:00 remaining. McCoy and Dyson punched it in from there.

Equal credit should go to the U. defense, which limited Arizona to two field goals and a touchdown, for the first Utah bowl win in 30 years. The Wildcats gained only 184 total yards against the Luther Elliss-led Ute defense and converted on just 3-of-13 third down attempts. They failed to score in the second and third quarters, and their sole TD came on a deflected pass in the first quarter.

1996 COPPER BOWL

Wisconsin	38
Utah	10

Tucson, Ariz. - Dec. 27, 1996

Inside The Game
Red zone woes by the Utes, combined with too much Ron Dayne, led to loss to Wisconsin.

TUCSON–The ballyhooed battle between the nation's two biggest collegiate running backs never materialized, as Utah lost star runner Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala to a first-quarter ankle injury. Wisconsin's Ron Dayne held up his end of the bargain, however, rushing for 246 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-10 Wisconsin win.

Offensively, the Utes rang up more net yards (430-365) and more first downs (26-16) than the Badgers, moved inside UW's 5-yard line twice and inside the 20-yard line another three times, but four interceptions spelled their doom. In his final game, U. quarterback Mike Fouts completed 27 of 49 passes for 327 yards, but was picked off four times. Terence Keehan and Kevin Dyson had big receiving nights–catching six passes each for 100 and 95 yards, respectively. Juan Johnson scored Utah's only TD of the day on a 1-yard run late in the third quarter. Johnson accounted for 88 of Utah's 103 rushing yards.

Utah's defense held Wisconsin to just 16 passing yards on 2-of-6 passing, but could not stop the run–allowing 349 yards.

1999 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Fresno State	16
Utah	17

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 19, 1999

Inside The Game
Mike Anderson's big day led Utah to the first bowl win for the new Mountain West Conference.

LAS VEGAS–Running back Mike Anderson and a punishing defensive effort led to the first bowl win for the new Mountain West Conference, courtesy of Utah. The Utes, tri-champions in the league's inaugural season, beat Western Athletic Conference co-champion Fresno State, 17-16.

Statistically, Utah trounced the Bulldogs, winning the total offense battle 548-279. But a spate of special teams breakdowns, including a 75-yard blocked field goal returned for a touchdown by FSU, kept it close.

Anderson and running mate Omar Bacon stole the show in their final collegiate game. Anderson set a Las Vegas Bowl rushing record with 254 yards and scored both of Utah's touchdowns. He also had the day's most impressive run–a 76-yard sprint from the line of scrimmage on Utah's first offensive down. Bacon chipped in 91 rushing yards.

T.D. Croshaw started the game at quarterback but left with a shoulder injury after just one quarter with the game tied 7-7. Darnell Arceneaux relieved and led Utah to victory.

Cletus Truhe had two field goal attempts blocked, but made the game-winner, a 33-yarder with 5:03 remaining. Fresno State's final drive was stopped by Andre Dyson's pass breakup on fourth and seven. Kautai Olevao and Kimball Christianson each had seven tackles for Utah.

2001 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah	10
USC	6

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 25, 2001

Inside The Game

Utes ruin the Carson Palmer-led Trojans' Christmas by shutting down their offense.

LAS VEGAS–Utah scored on its second drive in the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl on Christmas Day, then relied on an incredible defensive effort to beat favored USC for the first time since 1916.

Ryan Kaneshiro's 26-yard field goal at the end of the first half completed Utah's scoring, but 10 points was enough for the swarming Ute defense. A year later, quarterback Carson Palmer would win the Heisman Trophy while leading USC to No. 4 final national ranking. But against the Utes on this day, the Trojans netted just one yard rushing and 151 total yards. USC logged its only TD on its first drive of the second half before the Sheldon Deckart-led U. defense slammed the door again.

Deckart's six tackles, which included two for a loss and two sacks, led a ferocious Ute pass rush that sacked Palmer five times and tallied nine tackles for loss.

Adam Tate closed his career with a 103-yard rushing day and the Utes' only touchdown. Dameon Hunter (94 yards) was the game's MVP.

2003 LIBERTY BOWL

Utah	17
Southern Miss	0

Memphis, Tenn. - Dec. 31, 2003

Inside The Game
MWC champion Utes shut out C-USA champion Southern Miss in the Liberty Bowl.

MEMPHIS—The Southern Mississippi defense received most of the hype coming into the Liberty Bowl, but it was Utah's defense that carried the day in a 17-0 victory. The blitzin' Utes teamed up for five sacks and 10 tackles for loss, causing first-string Golden Eagle quarterback Dustin Almond to lose his cool and backup Micky D'Angelo to leave the game with a concussion.

And, if holding the Conference USA champion to a paltry 11 first downs, 49 rushing yards and 213 total yards wasn't enough, the Ute defense also came to the rescue of its struggling offensive teammates. Late in the second quarter, safety Morgan Scalley sacked Almond, who fumbled. Ute Lewis Powell recovered the fumble on USM's 17-yard line to set up the only offensive touchdown of the game. Utah's other touchdown was scored by none other than Scalley, who scooped up a fumble forced by safety Dave Revill and returned it 74 yards for a touchdown with 1:36 remaining.

Although Utah never got untracked offensively, Brandon Warfield and Paris Warren both had memorable games. Warfield was named the Liberty Bowl offensive MVP after rushing for 91 yards and the game's first touchdown. Warren had 5 receptions for 72 yards to become Utah's single-season receiving record-holder (76 receptions in 2003). Bryan Borreson's 19-yard field goal in the fourth quarter gave Utah a 10-0 lead and some breathing room.

Ray Holdcraft led the defense with 8 tackles, 4 solo, and 2.5 tackles for loss. Revill had 2 sacks and Powell was the game's defensive MVP after recovering 2 fumbles.

2005 FIESTA BOWL - BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Pittsburgh	7
Utah	35

Tempe, Ariz. - Jan. 1, 2005

Inside The Game
The BCS busting Utes finish a perfect 12-0 season at the Fiesta Bowl on New Year's Day.

TEMPE—In the first BCS game ever for a non-BCS school, Utah steamrolled over Big East co-champion Pittsburgh, 35-7, in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. Led by offensive co-MVPs Alex Smith and Paris Warren, Utah jumped to a 28-0 lead before Pittsburgh's only score of the day.

Warren's 15 receptions, which went for 198 yards, was a Fiesta Bowl record. Smith was unstoppable, completing 29 of 37 passes for 328 yards and 4 touchdowns (no interceptions). Utah's marvelous Heisman Trophy finalist QB also led all rushers with 68 net yards.

Equally responsible for Utah's blowout victory was the defense, which set a bowl record with nine quarterback sacks. Nose guard Steve Fifita, the defensive MVP, had 5 tackles, 2 tackles for loss and a sack. Safety Eric Weddle led the defense with 11 tackles, a sack and a pass breakup and senior linebacker Tommy Hackenbruck had a monster game in his final Ute outing. Included in Hackenbruck's 10 total tackles were 3 sacks for 29 yards.

The Utes enjoyed a home field atmosphere as the vast majority of sold-out Sun Devil Stadium was red-clad. All estimates suggest it was the largest gathering of Ute fans ever to watch a Utah football game.

2005 EMERALD BOWL

Georgia Tech	10
Utah	38

San Francisco, Calif. - Dec. 29, 2005

Inside The Game
Utah erupts against the nation's 12th-ranked defense for an upset win over Georgia Tech.

SAN FRANCISCO—Brett Ratliff and Travis LaTendresse roasted the nation's No. 12-ranked defense and led Utah to a 38-10 upset win over No. 24 Georgia Tech in the Emerald Bowl.

The Utes jumped out to a 20-0 lead just minutes into the second quarter before Georgia Tech made a little run by scoring all 10 of its points. A field goal with 0:03 left in the first half would mark the end of Tech's scoring for the night, however.

Ratliff's 30 completions, 381 passing yards and four touchdowns shattered the Emerald Bowl records, as well as setting new school and Mountain West Conference bowl records. LaTendresse, the game's offensive MVP, burned the Georgia Tech secondary with a bowl-record 16 receptions for 214 yards and four scores.

Quinton Ganther rushed for 120 yards and a touchdown in his final game as a Ute. Utah's defense–every bit as dominating as the offense–was spearheaded by defensive MVP Eric Weddle's superb performance against Tech's All-America receiver Calvin Johnson. Weddle hounded Johnson into a two-catch, 19-yard game. Weddle rarely left the field–also playing quarterback and on special teams. Steve Tate led Utah with 10 tackles and picked off his first career interception, which he returned 45 yards.

2006 ARMED FORCES BOWL

Tulsa	13
Utah	25

Fort Worth, Texas - Dec. 23, 2006

Inside The Game
All-American Eric Weddle rushed for a TD and ended the game with an interception.

FORT WORTH, Texas—Utah extended its bowl win streak to six in a row with a convincing 25-13 victory over Tulsa. In his last game as a Ute, consensus All-America defensive back Eric Weddle showed why he was considered the most versatile player in the nation. Weddle rushed for the game's final touchdown and then intercepted a pass on the last play of the game. He finished with six tackles, a half sack, a fumble recovery and an interception, while rushing for 56 yards and a touchdown. He also held for Utah's four field goals.

As good as Weddle was, the MVP honors went to sophomore kicker/punter Louie Sakoda, who made all four of his field goal attempts and a PAT to account for 13 of Utah's 25 points. Sakoda, who made a career-long 45-yard field goal on his first try, also kept Tulsa on its heels with his punting: He averaged 47.3 yards per punt and placed two of his three punts inside the Tulsa 20-yard line.

Brett Ratliff engineered a Utah offense that out-gained Tulsa 405-254. He completed 23-of-34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown pass to Brent Casteel. Steve Tate led the defense with 10 tackles and a sack.

2007 POINSETTIA BOWL

Utah	35
Navy	32

San Diego, Calif. - Dec. 20, 2007

Inside The Game
Joe Dale gets a pick after Navy scores a TD in the final minute and recovers the onside kick.

SAN DIEGO—Poinsettia Bowl offensive MVP Brian Johnson put on a second-half passing clinic, defensive MVP Joe Dale made a game-saving interception with less than a minute remaining, and Utah edged Navy 35-32 in the first bowl game of the season.

Stymied on the ground in the first half, Utah turned to Johnson's arm after the break. He connected on 20 of his final 22 pass attempts including 11 straight completions. Johnson also rushed for 69 yards and a touchdown.

A 28-point second half rallied Utah to a 35-25 lead with 1:27 remaining in the game. But Navy struck back with a 58-yard pass play to narrow the gap to 35-32. The Midshipmen recovered their onside kick and advanced into Utah territory before Dale's first career interception on the 31-yard line sealed a Ute victory.

Dale finished with a career-high 12 tackles. Paul Kruger added 10 tackles and a sack. Darrell Mack rushed for 76 yards and two touchdowns.

2009 SUGAR BOWL - BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Utah	31
Alabama	17

New Orleans, La. - Jan. 2, 2009

Inside The Game
Utah scores on its first three possessions as it thumps favored Alabama.

NEW ORLEANS—No. 7-ranked Utah, playing in its second BCS bowl game in five years, stomped heavily favored and No. 4-ranked Alabama 31-17.

The Utes, who finished as the only undefeated FBS team in the nation, scored on their first three possessions to take a 21-0 first quarter lead. Alabama made a run in the second and third quarters, trimming Utah's lead to 21-17, but could not find the end zone for the final 25 minutes.

Sugar Bowl MVP Brian Johnson feasted on the nation's No. 3-ranked defense, completing 27-of-41 passes for 336 yards and three touchdowns. Freddie Brown had a career-high 125 receiving yards, and Bradon Godfrey, David Reed and Brent Casteel all caught TD passes.

The Ute defense was just as overpowering, sacking Alabama QB John Parker Wilson eight times (three by Stevenson Sylvester) and intercepting him twice (both by Robert Johnson). Utah also stymied a Tide run game that was averaging 196 yards per game, but could get just 31 against the Utes. Sylvester and Mike Wright had seven tackles each. Kepa Gaison and Sean Smith combined for 12 tackles and three sacks.

San Diego, Calif. - Dec. 23, 2009

Inside The Game
Trailing 14-0, Utes score 27 straight points and cruise to ninth-straight bowl win.

SAN DIEGO—After spotting Cal a 14-0 first-quarter lead, No. 23 Utah scored 27 straight points and cruised to a 37-27 victory in the Poinsettia Bowl. Utah extended the nation's longest active bowl win streak to nine games with the win.

Freshman quarterback Jordan Wynn initiated the comeback after throwing an interception that Cal returned for a touchdown. Wynn recovered quickly and finished with 338 passing yards, three touchdowns and the Offensive MVP trophy.

Defensive MVP honors went to Stevenson Sylvester, who led Utah with eight tackles, and whose interception and 27-yard return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter gave Utah a 37-21 lead and doused any Cal hopes for a comeback. Also intercepting a fourth-quarter pass was Robert Johnson. Utah's defense was in the Cal backfield for most of the night, recording four sacks and nine tackles for loss.

For the offense, David Reed set school records for receptions and receiving yards in a season by catching six passes for 103 yards, while freshman tight end Kendrick Moeai made two touchdown grabs.

2010 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah	3
Boise State	26

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 22, 2010

Inside The Game
Utes fall in battle of top 20 teams as bowl winning streak comes to an end.

LAS VEGAS—Utah's defense started fast, but the offense led by backup quarterback Terrance Cain couldn't keep pace and Utah lost 26-3 to 10th-ranked Boise State in the Las Vegas Bowl.

On the game's first drive, Lamar Chapman sacked Bronco quarterback Kellen Moore, jarring loose the ball, which was recovered by Neli A'asa at the BSU 20-yard line. Utah couldn't capitalize on its field position and first-team all-Mountain West Conference kicker Joe Phillips missed a 39-yard field goal—his first miss inside 40 yards all season.

Other key defensive plays in Boise's scoreless first quarter included forcing the Broncos to punt, stopping them on downs and an interception by Chaz Walker that he returned to the BSU 32-yard line. The interception set up Utah's only score of the day—a 44-yard field goal by Phillips. Utah would not score again while mustering just 200 yards in total offense. Walker led Utah with 10 tackles, an interception and a forced fumble, while Chapman added nine stops, a sack and a forced fumble.

2011 SUN BOWL

Georgia Tech	27
Utah	(OT) 30

El Paso, Texas - Dec. 31, 2011

Inside The Game
Utes win their first overtime bowl game after rallying from a 14-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

EL PASO, Texas—John White capped a record-setting season with an 8-yard touchdown run to lift Utah to a 30-27 overtime win over Georgia Tech in the Sun Bowl.

White, the game's MVP, rushed for 115 yards to raise his season total to 1,519 yards and break a school record set back in 1982.

Utah, which trailed 24-10 after three quarters, outscored Tech 14-0 in the fourth quarter to send the game into OT. Jon Hays hit Kendrick Moeai with a 3-yard pass for the first score and then found DeVonte Christopher for a 28-yard TD strike on fourth-and-14 for the game-tying touchdown. Christopher also was named Special Teams MVP for his 97 yards in kickoffs.

Sun Bowl Most Valuable Lineman Star Lotulelei had six tackles and a fumble recovery and Chaz Walker led Utah with 15 tackles and a TFL.

2014 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah	45
Colorado State	10

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 20, 2014

Inside The Game
Relentless ground game and stingy defense help Utes roll over a former league rival.

LAS VEGAS—Bowl MVP Travis Wilson passed for 158 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 91 yards and three scores to lead Utah to a 45-10 rout of Colorado State.

Devontae Booker rushed for 162 yards and a touchdown and Kaelin Clay led the receivers with 63 yards.

Utah's defense kept the Rams out of the end zone for the final three quarters, stuffed the CSU run game to the tune of 12 net yards and allowed just one third down conversion in 10 attempts. Jared Norris had eight tackles, while Jason Fanaika, Pita Taumoepenu and Nate Orchard all recorded sacks.

The win moved Utah head coach Kyle Whittingham to 8-1 in bowl games and tied him with John Robinson (8-1 at USC/UNLV) for the best bowl winning percentage (.889) in NCAA history (minimum 7 wins).

2015 LAS VEGAS BOWL

BYU	28
Utah	35

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 19, 2015

Inside The Game
Defense forces five turnovers and returns a pair of interceptions for touchdowns.

LAS VEGAS—Utah forced five-straight BYU turnovers in the first quarter—scoring touchdowns off all of them—and then held on to beat the Cougars 35-28.

Tevin Carter intercepted two passes during that stretch, returning one for a touchdown, and was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Also contributing to the flurry of BYU turnovers were Kylie Fitts and Gionni Paul, who forced and recovered a fumble on the first series of the game, Dominique Hatfield (interception), and Lowell Lotulelei and Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who forced and recovered the fumble that set up Utah's final touchdown.

Joe Williams rushed for 91 yards and two touchdowns and Travis Wilson scored on a 20-yard rush.

Santa Clara, Calif. - Dec. 28, 2016

Inside The Game
Andy Phillips boots four field goals to back up Joe Williams' 200-yard rushing effort.

SANTA CLARA, Calif.—Foster Farms Bowl MVP Joe Williams ran for 222 yards and a touchdown and Andy Phillips kicked a 27-yard field goal with 1:24 to play to lead Utah past Indiana, 26-24.

After Indiana took a 24-23 lead with 10:10 on the clock, Williams put the team on his back—rushing four times for 64 yards to set up Phillips' game-winning kick. Phillips, who was 4-of-4 in field goals, scored all of Utah's second-half points with makes of 48, 41 and 27 yards.

Utah forced three IU turnovers, including an interception by Marcus Williams. Kavika Luafatasaga had a career-high 12 tackles (2 TFL) and had a pass breakup on the final play of the game.

Dallas, Texas - Dec. 26, 2017

Inside The Game
Utah dominates as Zack Moss rushes for 150 yards and Julian Blackmon has two picks.

DALLAS—Utah pummeled West Virginia 30-14 in the Heart of Dallas Bowl, dominating every phase of the game. Zack Moss rushed for 150 yards—just three yards short of the Mountaineers' total yardage—and bowl MVP Julian Blackmon's two interceptions highlighted a big day by the Ute defense.

Moss erupted for a 58-yard touchdown run early in the first quarter for a 7-0 Ute lead. The Utes kept their foot on the gas in the second quarter on a Tyler Huntley TD run and a field goal by Lou Groza Award winner Matt Gay, who finished 3-of-3 on the day. Utah scored 13 points off four turnovers, which included Blackmon's picks and two fumble recoveries by Cody Barton.

The Utes emptied the bench late in the game and the Mountaineers scored their only touchdown with 1:58 remaining.

2018 HOLIDAY BOWL

Northwestern	31
Utah	20

San Diego, Calif. - Dec. 31, 2018

Inside The Game
Early lead slips away as turnovers derail Utah's bid for victory in first Holiday Bowl appearance.

SAN DIEGO—Utah jumped to a 20-3 first half lead only to commit a flurry of third-quarter turnovers that allowed Northwestern to charge back for a 31-20 win in the Holiday Bowl.

All four of Utah's turnovers in the third quarter (2 interceptions, 2 lost fumbles) resulted in Wildcat touchdowns. Neither team scored in the fourth quarter. Jason Shelley finished the game 27-of-45 passing for a career-high 302 yards and two touchdowns, but turned the ball over three times on two interceptions and a fumble. Receiver Jaylen Dixon had 114 yards and a touchdown reception, but also lost a fumble in the third quarter.

In their final game as Utes, senior safeties Corrion Ballard (10 tackles, 2.5 TFL, 1.0 sack) and Marquise Blair (9 tackles, 1 INT) led the defense.

San Antonio, Texas - Dec. 31, 2019

Inside The Game
Utes unable to find their stride while playing in second-straight New Year's Eve bowl game.

SAN ANTONIO—The Utes finished the year with 11 wins, the third-most in school history, but they didn't get the ending they wanted with a 38-10 loss to Texas in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Utah surrendered 438 yards of total offense to the Longhorns, including 231 rushing yards. On the other side of the ball, the Utes put up just 254 yards, converted 4-of-14 third down opportunities and allowed five sacks.

The Longhorns jumped out to a 17-0 lead early in the third quarter. Utah climbed back to within 14 points after Huntley threw a 4-yard touchdown pass to Demari Simpkins to make it 24-10 with 11:34 left in the game. However, Texas responded with two more touchdowns.

Quarterback Tyler Huntley was 15-of-23 for 126 yards and one touchdown. Running back Zack Moss finished the game with 71 all-purpose yards that included a team-high 57 rushing yards. Mika Tafua led Utah's defense with a career high eight tackles, which included 1.5 tackles for loss, and Javelin Guidry grabbed his first interception of the season.

2022 ROSE BOWL - NEW YEAR'S SIX

Utah	45
Ohio State	48

Pasadena, Calif. - Jan. 1, 2022

Inside The Game
Utah's first Pac-12 title season leads to inaugural Rose Bowl appearance.

PASADENA—It was a historic battle to end a historic season in the 108th Rose Bowl Game. The No. 11 Utes and No. 6 Ohio State combined for 12 touchdowns and 93 points, but Utah eventually fell on a late field goal, 48-45.

The 93 combined points was the third-most in Rose Bowl history, and Utah's 45 points matched its highest total in a bowl game as it rolled up 463 yards of offense, passing for 237 and running for 226. However, the defense, which was trying to overcome a rash of injuries in the secondary, surrendered 683 yards to the Buckeyes, including 573 yards through the air.

The Pac-12 champions jumped out to a 14-0 lead and regained a two touchdown advantage at 28-14 after Britain Covey had a 97-yard kickoff return midway through the second quarter. Cameron Rising, who threw for 214 yards yards and two touchdowns, had a 62-yard run to the end zone with 6:24 left in the first half to put Utah on top 35-21. The Buckeyes took their first lead on C.J. Stroud's sixth TD pass of the day, this time hooking up on a 30-yard strike to Jaxon Smith-Njigba, to put them ahead 45-38 with 4:22 remaining.

After Rising was forced to leave the game due to injury, Dalton Kincaid took a 15-yard pass from Bryson Barnes to the end zone with 1:54 remaining. OSU won the game on a 19-yard field goal by Noah Ruggles with nine seconds left.

2023 ROSE BOWL - NEW YEAR'S SIX

Penn State	35
Utah	21

Pasadena, Calif. - Jan. 2, 2023

Inside The Game
Utah heads back to Pasadena, but big plays lift Penn State over the Utes in a top-15 bowl matchup.

PASADENA—It was a battle between two top-15 ranked teams in the 109th Rose Bowl Game today, but big plays proved to be the difference in the game with No. 8 Utah Football falling to the No. 11 Penn State Nittany Lions, 35-21.

The Utes finished the game with 391 yards of total offense, including 207 passing yards and 184 on the ground. Despite holding Penn State to just 14 first downs in the game, chunk plays would be a thorn in the Utes' side with the Nittany Lions averaging 8.3 yards per play on offense, including 17.4 yards per completion.

After coming in during the third quarter for an injured Cameron Rising, quarterback Bryson Barnes finished the game 10-of-19 passing for 112 yards and a touchdown. Rising was also 8-of-21 for 95 yards and a touchdown, adding 10 rushes for 47 yards.

Ja'Quinden Jackson averaged 6.2 yards per carry on the ground, racking up 13 rushes for 81 yards and his ninth rushing touchdown of the season. Micah Bernard added 11 carries for 59 yards, averaging 5.4 yards per rush.

Through the air, Devaughn Vele recorded the first 100-yard receiving game of his career, notching exactly 100 yards on five catches (20.0 ypc) to push him over the 1,000 career receiving yards mark (1,096). Jaylen Dixon also finished with six receptions for 64 yards and a touchdown.

2023 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Utah	7
Northwestern	14

Las Vegas, Nev. - Dec. 23, 2023

Inside The Game
Defensive battle comes down to fourth quarter, but late TD lifts Northwestern over Utes.

LAS VEGAS— In a defensive battle, the University of Utah Football team came up short against the Northwestern Wildcats in the SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl, falling 14-7. Utah finished the season with an 8-5 overall record.

It was another season full of adversity for the Utes, but the culture of "next man up" rang true throughout 2023 with the program once again banding together as a family.

On defense, Utah was led by linebacker Levani Damuni, who racked up a career-high tying 12 tackles to give him five double-digit games to end the season. Cornerback Zemaiah Vaughn added a career-best eight stops (1.5 TFL) with safety Nate Ritchie also recording a career-high tying seven tackles in his third start of the year.

For the offense, quarterback Bryson Barnes finished the game 8-of-13 passing for 55 yards along with Luke Bottari going 1-for-1 with a career-long 18-yard pass. Running back Micah Bernard made his first appearance since week one, catching a team-high three passes for 24 yards along with nine carries for 31 yards and a rushing touchdown. Running back Ja'Quinden Jackson led the Utes on the ground with eight carries for 55 yards while Jaylon Glover contributed 16 carries for 49 yards.

In Utah's final drive of the game, Barnes, Bernard and Glover put together a gritty performance to get the Utes to the Northwestern 38-yard line, but were unable to convert on their final fourth down attempt. The Wildcats would get the ball back with 1:55 remaining, securing its bowl victory after converting on a third down with less than a minute to play, kneeling the remaining time on the clock.

One of Utah's first wins over a ranked team came against No. 8 Arizona State in 1973. In a Western Athletic Conference battle, the Utes took advantage of early turnovers to build a 30-3 first half lead and claim a 36-31 victory.

A top-five win for the Utes also earned the program some hardware when Utah defeated No. 4-ranked USC in the 2022 Pac-12 Championship.

Devin Lloyd's 34-yard pick-six energized the Utes and their fans early during the 2021 Pac-12 Championship.

Fans poured onto the field at Rice-Eccles Stadium after Utah defeated USC in an instant classic during the 2022 season.

THE UTAH FOOTBALL PROGRAM WAS MET WITH TWO TRAGEDIES WITHIN 10 MONTHS OF EACH OTHER IN 2020 AND 2021, BUT OUT OF THOSE TRAGEDIES, A LEGACY WAS BORN.

THE NUMBER 22 WAS OFFICIALLY RETIRED IN 2021 IN HONOR OF TY JORDAN AND AARON LOWE, BUT THE MEANING BEHIND THE NUMBER HAS LIVED ON IN THE FANS, THE COACHES AND THE PLAYERS.

TO BE INFECTIOUSLY OPTIMISTIC, TO BE 22-PERCENT BETTER EACH DAY, TO REMEMBER THEM AND ALL OF THOSE THAT WE HAVE LOST - AND TO SMILE.
