TEAM NOTES

THE UTAH MAN

Head coach Kyle Whittingham is in his 21st year at the helm as the longest-tenured coach in the Big 12 and the second-longest tenured coach at the same school in the NCAA FBS. He is 174-88 overall at Utah, becoming the all-time wins leader at Utah in 2021. He passed Ike Armstrong (141-55-15 in 211 games) with Utah's historic win over No. 3 Oregon on Nov. 20, 2021 in Rice-Eccles Stadium. He has coached in 388 games at Utah (11 seasons as an assistant) and 262 as the head coach.

- He has contributed to more victories than any coach in program history (259), including his 11 seasons as an assistant coach (1994-2004).
- Whittingham leads active Big 12 head coaches in career victories at the FBS level (174), while ranking third among all active FBS head coaches and third among head coaches at the same school.
- Whittingham has coached the Utes to three conference titles (2008, MWC; 2021, Pac-12; 2022, Pac-12). The Utes also won at least a share of the Pac-12 South four times (2015 - shared, 2018, 2019, 2021).
- He has won three National Coach of the Year recognitions: AFCA Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award winner in 2008, and the Dodd Trophy Coach of the Year in 2019.
- Whittingham has been named conference coach of the year three times in his career (2008, MWC; 2019, Pac-12; 2021, Pac-12).
- He has had 35 players make All-America teams, including 17 that have made major All-America teams (those determining NCAA's consensus team) with 10 earning consensus or unanimous.

THE LEADERS

Utah team captains and the leadership council are voted on by the team during fall camp. The Utes picked two offensive and two defensive captains, along with a 12-person leadership council.

- Lander Barton (LB), Logan Fano (DE), Spencer Fano (OL) and Jaren Kump (OL) were voted as captains.
- Utah's leadership council includes Barton, L. Fano, S. Fano, Kump, Devon Dampier (QB), Levani Damuni (LB), Tao Johnson (S), Caleb Lomu (OL), Michael Mokofisi (OL), Nate Ritchie (S), Smith Snowden (CB) and Aliko Vimahi (DT).

U WERE, U ARE, UTAH

The notion of family has long been a hallmark of the Utah Football program, and the makeup of the coaching staff embodies that. Four members of the Utes' full-time coaching staff are alums of the program.

- Utah's four alums on the coaching staff include Luther Elliss (DT), Lewis Powell (DE), Morgan Scalley (DC/S) and Sharrieff Shah (STC/CB).
- In some capacity, head coach Kyle Whittingham directly tutored three of the four alums now on his staff (Elliss, Powell, Scalley).
- Morgan Scalley (18), Sharrieff Shah (14), Jim Harding (12), Lewis Powell (11) and Freddie Whittingham (10) all have been on the coaching staff for nine-plus seasons.

GRADUATE U

Utah Football has a storied tradition on the field, but it is also known for its strong success off the field. On the 2025 roster, 12 players have already received their degree.

- Defensive Line (1): Aliko Vimahi (Sociology)
- Linebackers (2): Moroni Anae (Family, Community & Human Development), Levani Damuni (Science, Technology & Society)
- Offensive Line (5): Alex Harrison (Communications), Jaren Kump (Health & Kinesiology), Michael Mokofisi (Criminology), Tanoa Togiai (Family, Community & Human Development), Zereoue Williams (Games)
- Running Backs (1): Bryce Duke (Interdisciplinary Studies)
- Safeties (1): Tao Johnson (Communications - Strategic Communication)
- Tight Ends (1): Otto Tia (Integrated Studies)
- Wide Receivers (1): Ryan Davis (BS - Business Management; MS - Business Administration)

HOME SWEET HOME

Utah is 124-42 (.747) in Rice-Eccles Stadium (1998-present) and is 96-31 in RES during the Kyle Whittingham era.

- Utah has five undefeated home seasons under Whittingham (2022, 6-0; 2021, 6-0; 2019, 7-0; 2009, 6-0; 2008, 6-0) with the Utes winning 33 of their last 40 home games, which included a streak of 18 in a row from Dec. 5, 2020 - Oct. 14, 2023.
- It was the second-longest streak in the Whittingham era with the longest streak taking place Sept. 15, 2007 - Oct. 23, 2010 (21 games).
- Utah has sold out Rice-Eccles Stadium in 94 consecutive games, dating back to the 2010 season opener.

THE MOMENT OF LOUDNESS

In 2021, the Utah Football program started a tradition to honor the legacy of Aaron Lowe and Ty Jordan with The Moment of Loudness, which takes place during the third quarter break of each home game. It is a tradition that has now turned into a way of life for the Utah family. To live the way that they did - to smile, to be infectiously optimistic, and to be 22-percent better every day.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

OBLOCK EXPERIENCE

Utah boasts one of the most experienced offensive lines in the country in 2025, led by Outland Trophy candidates and potential NFL first round draft picks at tackle in Spencer Fano and Caleb Lomu.

- Utah has been named the Big 12 Offensive Line of the Week three times so far this season, following the wins over UCLA, No. 21 Arizona State and Colorado.
- Utah is 65-of-122 on third down, the fourth-best conversion percentage in the nation (53.28%), and has scored on 37 of 41 red zone trips thanks to the stellar play in the trenches.
- Utah is averaging 267.1 rushing yards per game behind the big guys up front, the third-best mark in the nation and the best among non-service academies.
- Utah gained more than 490 yards of total offense in each of its first three games, the first time since 2005 that a Utah squad has done so in three consecutive outings; the Utes have gained 480-plus yards in seven of nine games and 400-plus in eight of nine, including the last five.
- OBLOCK allowed just three sacks in the first six games of the season, which tied for the fourth-best mark in the nation; the Utes allowed just seven sacks all year.
- The Utes return all five starters from 2024 along the interior with center Jaren Kump and guards Michael Mokofisi and Tanoa Togiai also back.
- Entering the campaign, Utah had a combined 234 games played and 115 games started among the group, with every game and every snap played as Utes. None of the five transferred to Utah.
- The 234 games played on the offensive line ranked ninth in the country, trailing just Virginia (334), UTSA (288), Florida State (265), Illinois (259), Oregon (253), Clemson (249), Auburn (236) and Texas A&M (235).
- Fano was named a Preseason First Team All-American by both the Associated Press and Walter Camp. The junior was also selected to the Preseason All-Big 12 Conference team and made both the Lombardi Award and Polynesian Player of the Year Watchlists.
- Lomu was also named to the Polynesian Player of the Year Watchlist, while Kump is on the Rimington Trophy Watchlist.

NEW ARM IN TOWN

Utah's offense has a new look with quarterback Devon Dampier at the helm, and it did not take long for QB1 to make an impact as a Utah Ute.

- Dampier has accounted for 20 total touchdowns in eight games (15 passing, five rushing).
- He is one of nine FBS quarterbacks with 1,550-plus passing yards and 500-plus rushing yards and the only such QB in the Big 12.
- His 66.4% completion rate entering Week 12 leads the Big 12 and ranks 35th nationally among qualified QBs; he has improved his completion percentage from 57.9% last year at New Mexico.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

STAMPEDING OFFENSE DOWNS COLORADO

The Utes dominated Colorado behind a suffocating rushing attack, leading to a 53-7 rout of the Buffaloes. Utah outgained Colorado, 587-140, behind a record-setting performance in the first career start by freshman Byrd Ficklin.

- The Utes rushed for 422 yards, the seventh-most in a single game in program history and the second-most under Kyle Whittingham.
- Ficklin threw for 140 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 151 yards and a score, becoming just the third Utah QB to both pass and rush for 100-plus yards in a game.
- His 151 rushing yards are the most by a Utah quarterback since at least 1996.
- Wayshawn Parker added a season-high 145 yards and a touchdown, marking the first time since 2021 that Utah had multiple 100-yard rushers in a single game.
- Ficklin (63), Parker (58) and Nate Johnson (56) all logged touchdown runs of 50-plus yards.
- Ficklin's 63-yard score was the longest by the Utes this season and the longest by a Utah QB since the 2008 campaign.

GROUND GAME DOWNS SUN DEVILS

The Utes notched their largest margin of victory against a ranked team since 2015 with a 42-10 rout of No. 21 Arizona State on a rain-soaked, storm-delayed game at Rice-Eccles Stadium.

- The Utes rushed for six touchdowns as a team for just the fifth time in program history. The last was in the game at Stanford during the 2021 season.
- The Utes put up 276 rushing yards; it was more than ASU had in total offense (259) and marked the third time this season that the team rushed for 250+ yards.
- Dampier rushed 10 times for 120 yards and three touchdowns, with his three scores tying a career-high and the most by a Utah player since Ja'Quinden Jackson in 2022.
- He also became the first Utah quarterback since Travis Wilson in 2015 to rush and pass for 100-plus yards in the same game.
- Dampier averaged 12 yards per carry, ranking sixth for a single-game in Utah's recorded history (min. 8 carries). Among quarterbacks, he trails only Darnell Arceneaux who averaged 14.38 yards per carry in a game against UTEP during the 1998 season.

COUNTRY ROADS

Utah secured its first Big 12 Conference win in 2025 with a dominant 48-14 victory on the road at West Virginia.

- Utah scored points on eight of its nine possessions in Morgantown (six touchdowns, two field goals) and did not punt once.
- Utah's 48 points were the most in a conference game since a 55-3 win over ASU in 2023.
- Dampier and Byrd Ficklin combined to complete 25-of-30 passes for 290 yards and five TDs.
- Ryan Davis brought in all seven of his targets for a season-best 107 yards.
- Utah scored double-digit points in all four quarters.

WRANGLING THE COWBOYS

After a slow start in the first half, Utah found its footing on the road at Wyoming, scoring four second-half touchdowns to improve to 3-0 on the season.

- Utah put up 541 yards of total offense and averaged 6.3 yards per play, including a season-high 311 yards on the ground.
- Devon Dampier completed 27-of-41 passes for 230 yards and two touchdowns while leading the team in rushing with 86 yards on 13 carries.

- Andrews also caught five passes for 44 yards. His rushes, rushing yards, receptions and receiving yards all marked new career-highs.

HOME COOKIN'

The Utes shined in front of their home crowd against Cal Poly, winning their 17th-straight home opener with fans in attendance.

- Utah as a team combined for 518 total yards of offense (245 pass, 273 rush). The passing and rushing numbers for the team were each more than Cal Poly had in total offense (223).
- Dampier had four completions of 15-plus yards, with a season-long 52-yard strike going to Wayshawn Parker for a touchdown. All told, Dampier's chunk completions totaled 120 yards.
- The Utes scored 40-plus points for the second game in a row, the first time since doing so in back-to-back outings during the 2022 campaign.
- It also marked the first time since 2014 that Utah has put up 40 or more points on the scoreboard in each of the first two games of the season.
- The win was Utah's 33rd consecutive home victory against a non-conference opponent. Utah last lost a non-conference game in front of its home crowd in 2006 and is 44-3 in such games since the turn of the century.

FIRST GAME, NO JITTERS

Utah came out of the gates firing on all cylinders to start the 2025 season, beating UCLA 43-10 to improve to 1-0.

- The Utes have now scored 40-plus points in back-to-back season openers; 43 points was the most scored by the Utes against an FBS opponent in Week 1 since Utah beat Texas A&M, 41-21, in 2004.
- Utah's offense put up 492 total yards to open the season (286 rushing, 206 passing). It was the most yards gained by a Utah offense since 2023, when Utah gained 513 yards against Arizona State.
- The Utes' 30 first downs were the most since Utah picked up 33 against Colorado in 2022.
- Utah's 82.35% conversion rate on third downs (14-for-17) is the third-highest among FBS teams entering Week 2. Utah had not posted a better third-down conversion percentage since going 13-of-16 on third-down tries against San Diego State in 2008.
- Utah scored a touchdown on all six of its red zone trips in Week 1.
- The Utes dominated time of possession, controlling the football for 37:28. That included a 20-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in the third quarter that wiped 9:44 off the clock.

DEFENSE TO OFFENSE

A trio of Utah defenders - LB Lander Barton, CB Smith Snowden and S Jackson Bennee - have made an impact on both sides of the ball early in 2025. All three etched their names in the box score both offensively and defensively in Utah's season-opening win and continued to contribute through the non-conference schedule.

- Snowden led all Utah receivers with six catches for 51 yards and rushed three times for 15 yards and a touchdown against UCLA. He entered the season with zero career catches and ranks third on the team with 13 receptions entering Week 8.
- Barton's first career catch was a 14-yard touchdown strike from Dampier in the second quarter at UCLA, while he also led the Utes with seven tackles on the night. He has caught one pass in each outing so far.
- According to StatsPerform, the last time an FBS team had two defensive players score offensive touchdowns in the same game was when UCLA did so in 2015.
- The last time a Utah defensive player scored an offensive touchdown was in 2023 when Sione Vaki did so against California, at USC and at Washington.
- Bennee hauled in one pass for 17 yards while making five tackles at the Rose Bowl.
- DT Semi Taulanga tallied two catches, including a 10-yard grab on his first collegiate touch, against BYU after lining up at fullback.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

In 2023 he coached an offense with 1,000-yard rusher LeQuint Allen and a school single-game record of 677 yards in a season opener.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

A UTAH MAN IS HE

Defensive coordinator Morgan Scalley, a Salt Lake City native and former All-American safety at the U, is in his 18th season on the Utah coaching staff and 10th as defensive coordinator.

- Athletics Director Mark Harlan announced on July 1, 2024 that Scalley has formally been designated as Utah's head coach in waiting.
- In addition to his coordinator duties, Scalley has coached the safeties since he first joined the staff in 2008. He was also the team's recruiting coordinator from 2009-15 and special teams coordinator in '15 as well.
- Scalley has coached 13 All-Americans (four consensus or unanimous), 20 first team All-Conference selections and five freshmen All-Americans. He has also seen 33 of his proteges reach the NFL, including Devin Lloyd—the highest-drafted linebacker in school history (Round 1, 27th overall in 2022).

• As a player, Scalley came to the Utes out of nearby Highland High School—less than four miles from Rice-Eccles Stadium—where Scalley won “Mr. Football” as the state's high school version of the Heisman Trophy. He arrived on campus in 2001 and captained the squad as a senior in 2004, earning All-America and Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year on the BCS Buster team that won that Fiesta Bowl.

• He has been part of four games known today as part of the “New Year's Six”: he had three tackles in Utah's Fiesta Bowl win over Pittsburgh (2004), the Sugar Bowl win over Alabama (2008) capped his first season as safeties coach, and he was on the sidelines for both of the Utes' Rose Bowl appearances.

• Both of Scalley's parents are alumni of the U, including his father, Ford “Bud” Scalley, who lettered as a halfback from 1960-62. His father's marquee moment, perhaps, came in November 1960 when he scored a late touchdown—the only one of the game—to beat a nationally-ranked and previously-undefeated Utah State team, 6-0. It came just a week after Bud Scalley was placed on a full scholarship.

R.S.N.B. – RELENTLESS, SMART, NASTY, BALLHAWKS

The long-standing culture of the Utah defense came with the Utes into the Big 12, with R.S.N.B. continuing as the identity of the group: relentless, smart, nasty, ballhawks. The 2025 Utah defense is made up of an experienced cast of returning veterans, along with newcomers ready when called upon—each bringing the physicality that Utah is renowned for.

• In Scalley's 10 seasons as DC, the Utes have averaged 326.6 total yards allowed per game; it leads the Big 12 and ranks ninth among Power Conference programs dating back to 2016. His defense has held opponents under 250 yards in 32 games and under 200 yards 18 times.

• Utah is 31-1 under Scalley when allowing 250 or less yards (won 16 straight) and 18-0 when holding an opponent to 200 or under.

• The Utes return from the bye week with a defense that ranks 16th in the country at 301.1 yards per game—it trails only Texas Tech (269.7) for the Big 12 lead. The Utes and Texas Tech are the only teams in the Big 12 to rank top-20 nationally both in total offense and total defense.

• Under Scalley, Utah is 19-0 against Power Conference teams when allowing 250 or fewer total yards of offense. Most recently, the Utes allowed 140 yards against Colorado (in contrast; the Utah offense racked up 587 yards (422 rushing, 165 passing).

• In Week 4 at West Virginia, the Mountaineers entered the game averaging 408 yards of total offense and ultimately netted 346; WVU also entered the game averaging 203 passing yards per game before the Utes surrendered just 85 yards throughout the air.

• On Oct. 18, Utah held BYU to 368 yards—a full 80 less than the Cougars' average coming into the rivalry matchup.

POINT TAKEN

- Utah's defense has been among the stingiest in the country when it comes to allowing points. Opponents have generally struggled to score against the Utes, netting just 14.2 points per game. It puts Utah eighth.
- Texas Tech (34) is the only team this season to rack up more than 24 points against the Utes.
- Utah is the only Big 12 team this season to hold three AP-ranked teams to 24 or fewer points. It includes No. 15 BYU (24), No. 17 Cincinnati (14) and No. 21 Arizona State (10). Nine total schools in FBS have accomplished the feat at least three times with Alabama and Auburn each doing it four times.
- Despite finishing last season with a 5-7 record, Utah had the second-best scoring defense in the Big 12, allowing 20.7 points per game. Dating back to the start of 2023, Utah has held 24 of its last 34 opponents to 23 points or less, with a shutout included in that span.
- Utah has finished each season since 2017 with a top-three scoring defense in its conference.

KEEPING THE BUFFALOES AT BAY

The Utah defense clicked on all cylinders in the Week 9 win over Colorado, putting on a lock-down effort all night as the Utes improved to 5-2 on the season. CU finished the night with 140 total yards, and sat at -18 total yards at halftime (-41 rushing, 23 passing).

- The 140 opposing total yards of offense were the fewest allowed by Utah since Nov. 4, 2023 against Arizona State (83).
- Colorado's 38 rushing yards on the night were the fewest allowed by Utah since the 2023 regular season finale (coincidentally, also against CU).
- For the evening, the Utah defense racked up 13 tackles for loss, the most since 2023 and tying for 10th most in a game in program history. The Utes' seven sacks were the most for the team since 2023 as well.

QUIET QUARTERS

Utah's success has in part been helped by strong defensive starts to halves. Combined through nine games, the team has allowed just 20 points in the first quarter and 24 points in the third quarter.

- Texas Tech (Week 4) is the only team to score a touchdown against Utah on a game-opening drive, while just three squads have put up points against the Utes on a second-half opening drive.
- For each of the first three quarters, Utah ranks in the top-three in the Big 12 in total yards allowed this season.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

CLEAR SKIES AHEAD

Scalley's defense has a history of causing havoc for opposing passing attacks, and the Utes again rank again this season as one of the toughest teams to throw against. Through nine games, opposing quarterbacks are throwing for 156.8 yards per game, putting the Utes atop the Big 12 and sixth across the country. Utah's 99.32 passing efficiency defense also places second in the league and third nationwide.

- Texas Tech and Cincinnati are the only Utah opponents so far this season to pass for more than 170 yards. Other than Utah, every Big 12 team has surrendered at least four passing attacks of 170-plus yards (the league average is 6.1).
- Stats Perform has counted 15 passing plays of 20-plus yards allowed by Utah this season; it is the fewest in the Big 12 and tied for fourth-fewest in the nation.
- Utah is tied for eighth in the conference with eight interceptions and places fourth in the league for interception return yards (154).
- Since the start of 2024, only four teams have passed for 250-plus yards against Utah. It makes the Utes one of 10 schools in the Power Conferences to allow four or fewer 250-yard passing games dating in that time.
- The Utes finished last year fourth in the Power Conferences for pass efficiency defense (112.20) and fifth in the Big 12 for passing yards allowed per game (200.3).

SACK LAKE CITY

The moniker "Sack Lake City" has often been used over the years to describe the physicality and grit of the Utah defensive line. As the Utes turn the page to the home stretch, defensive end John Henry Daley has made a compelling case to become the next mayor of Sack Lake City.

- Daley, a BYU transfer, is tied for sixth in FBS with 9.5 sacks and sits in a share of eighth with 14.0 TFL. Only David Bailey of Texas Tech has a higher total in the Big 12 for both statistics.
- He is the only Utah player in Kyle Whittingham's time as head coach (since 2005) to record at least an assisted sack in each of the first eight games of a season.
- Daley contributed a strip-sack in back-to-back games against Wyoming and Texas Tech, becoming the first Utah player since 2017 (Bradlee Anae) to accomplish that back-to-back feat.
- As a team, Utah ranks top-15 in FBS with 2.78 sacks per game. A testament to owning both sides of the trenches, Utah is the only Big 12 program to rank top-20 in the country both in most defensive sacks (14th; 2.78 per game) and fewest sacks allowed (7th; 0.78 per game).

RUSH HOUR SHUTDOWN

Rushing defense has long been a point of pride for Utah under Morgan Scalley; in his nine prior seasons as coordinator, Utah led the Pac-12 five times (2016, '18, '19, '20 and '21). It includes ranking third in the nation in 2019 when Scalley was a Broyles Award finalist.

- This season, Utah has held UCLA (84), Cal Poly (65) and Colorado (38) each under 100 rushing yards.
- Utah's performance against UCLA was the fifth time in the last six season openers that the Utes kept their opponent under 100 yards on the ground. It's a span that also includes lid-lifters against USC (93 yards in 2020) and Florida (13 yards in 2023).
- Since Scalley took on coordinator duties in 2016, the Utes have averaged 112.7 rushing yards allowed per game, ranking third among Power Conference teams. Utah's 121 rushing touchdowns allowed since 2016 place the team sixth for the fewest allowed by a Power Conference defense.

TWO-WAY STREET

Three members of the Utah defense have also contributed on offense; the trio includes linebacker Lander Barton, safety Jackson Bennee and cornerback Smith Snowden.

- Bennee is tied for the team lead with 43 tackles, which includes back-to-back games with a career-best eight stops (ASU, BYU). His three interceptions this season put him in a tie for fourth in the Big 12, while Bennee's 103 interception return yards lead the league and place him eighth in the country.
- He is the only Power Conference player this season to have multiple interceptions on defense and multiple receptions on offense. Against Cal Poly, he added three PBU and a pick-six, before following that with another interception at Wyoming.
- Snowden has started all nine games on defense, as well as on offense against UCLA and Cal Poly. He logged one tackle at UCLA—but perhaps made his biggest impact lining up at wide receiver. He scored Utah's second touchdown of the game on an eight-yard rush, while also catching all six of his targets for 51 yards. To date, he has eight rushes for 40 yards (1 TD) and 13 catches for 57 yards.
- Barton posted a team-leading seven tackles in the UCLA contest, while reeling in a 14-yard touchdown pass from Devon Dampier during the second quarter.
- Prior to the UCLA game, the last time a Utah defensive player scored an offensive touchdown was in 2023 when Sione Vaki accomplished the feat vs. California, at USC and at Washington. According to StatsPerform, the last time an FBS team had two defensive players score offensive touchdowns in the same game was when UCLA did so in 2015.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

NO THIRD CHANCES

Utah has built a reputation over the years as one of the toughest teams in the nation to convert against in third-down situations. The Utes enter Week 12 with a 31.5% opponent conversion rate, second in the Big 12 Conference and 15th across FBS.

- Partly a byproduct of having a stingy third-down defense, Utah has won the time of possession battle in 14 of its 21 games since the start of 2024. The Utes rank second in the Big 12 in TOP per game (32:32) after finishing last year second in the Big 12 in TOP.
- The Utes have held the ball in excess of 35 minutes in three games this season: the season opener at UCLA (37:28), in Week 3 at Wyoming (35:30) and in Week 10 vs. Cincinnati (40:02). The Cincinnati total was the team's highest possession time since Week 4 at Oklahoma State last season (42:26).
- In Week 9 against Colorado, the Utes shut down the Buffaloes on nine of their final 10 third-down conversion attempts, which included a safety. Overall for the game, Colorado was 3-for-16 on third down.
- The Utes' Week 8 performance on third down saw the team hold BYU without a successful conversion on its first seven tries and just three of 12 all night.
- In the season opener, UCLA was able to convert just two third-down opportunities out of 11 tries. The Bruins were 2-for-7 on conversion attempts in the first half and came up empty on four opportunities during the second half. In total, Utah limited the Bruins to 14 first downs on the night.
- In their inaugural Big 12 season of 2024, the Utes posted a 27.4% opponent conversion rate—leading the Power Conferences. That feat came after Utah finished atop the Pac-12 for third-down defense both in 2022 and '23.
- The Utes had a top-three (or better) third-down defense in the Pac-12 each year from 2018-23 and led the league four times in that span.

PICK-SIX CITY

Jackson Bennee's 46-yard interception return touchdown vs. Cal Poly extended Utah's nation-leading streak to 22 consecutive seasons with a pick-six (and Bennee nearly added another the following week at Wyoming). The streak dates back to 2004, when current defensive coordinator Morgan Scalley was a senior and played safety on the Utes' Fiesta Bowl-winning team.

- This run of annual pick-sixes is the longest known streak in FBS history, surpassing Arizona State (20 seasons from 2000-19) for the longest.
- During the 21-season span since 2004, Utah has totaled 49 interception return touchdowns, the most in FBS.
- Jonathan Fanene and Steve Fifita scored Utah's pick-sixes in 2004 to begin the streak.

NEXT STOP: SUNDAYS

The Utah defense has sent 12 players to the NFL over the last four seasons, breaking down to five draft selections and seven more Pro Utes reaching the league as undrafted free agents. At least one defensive player from Utah was selected in the top four rounds of each NFL Draft from 2022 through '24.

- Rookie DE-turned-LB Connor O'Toole (Seattle) and LB Karene Reid (Denver) each made their clubs' respective rosters this year after signing as undrafted free agents. Fellow rookies in DT Junior Tafuna (Houston) and CB Zemaiah Vaughn (Minnesota) each are on their respective practice squads.
- Safeties Cole Bishop and Sione Vaki are in their second season after being selected in the 2024 NFL Draft. Bishop was picked by Buffalo in the second round while Vaki is with Detroit as a running back after playing both ways at Utah.
- In 2022, Devin Lloyd became the highest-drafted linebacker in school history when he was taken in Round 1 (No. 27 overall) by Jacksonville. A consensus all-America selection in 2021, Lloyd was a Butkus Award finalist in both of his final two seasons at Utah. Lloyd is tied for the NFL lead with four interceptions.
- Cornerback Jaylon Johnson, who was with the Utes from 2017-19 as an all-American and two-time all-conference pick, is now in his sixth season with the Chicago Bears and is a two-time Pro Bowl selection.

THIRD DOWN STOPS

The Utah Athletic Communications staff tracks Third Down Stops (TDS) as an unofficial player statistic. A TDS is earned with a tackle, pass breakup, interception, forced fumble and/or fumble recovery that results in a failed third-down conversion for the opponent.

Third-down stops can be shared (0.5) with an assisted tackle, TFL or sack, or when two different players force and recover a fumble on a play.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

NEW FACES, SAME PRODUCTION

The Utes and Special Teams Coordinator Sharrieff Shah have a new-look group in 2025 following the departure of kicker Cole Becker, punter Jack Bouwmeester and long snapper JT Greep. The Utes brought in freshman Dillon Curtis and sophomore transfer Robert Petrich to join sophomore Joey Cheek as placekickers, while Orion Phillips comes to Utah after one season at Missouri and will look to continue the Utes' strong lineage of punters. After appearing in one game a season ago, junior Logan Castor will look to man the long snapping duties.

- Curtis leads the team in scoring with 72 points and his 45 made PATs are the most in the Big 12.
- The Murray native was a perfect 9-for-9 on PATs against Cal Poly, which tied for the third-most in a single game in program history and the most since 2022.
- Curtis connected on three field goals, including a 53-yarder, and six PATs for a career-high 15 points against Colorado.
- Curtis made an immediate impression in his first collegiate game, connecting from 54 yards on his first field goal try, the longest in program history by a freshman.
- He also became the first Utah kicker with multiple 50-plus-yard field goals in a season since Matt Gay in 2018 when he connected from 53 against Colorado.
- The freshman has 46 touchbacks on 60 kickoffs through nine games this season, the third-most in the conference
- Phillips is averaging 42.5 yards per punt through nine games.
- He has pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line 10 times on 24 total punts.
- Five of his 20 punts have been 50-plus yards, including a season-long 67-yarder against Colorado.
- Phillips has allowed just one return for positive yardage on his punts, a two-yard return at BYU.
- Logan Castor has provided the Utes with 82 total snaps this season after providing two in his three prior collegiate seasons.
- He snapped for Curtis' nine PATs and Phillips' three punts against Cal Poly.
- Against Cincinnati, Mana Carvalho took a punt back 75 yards for his first collegiate touchdown, Utah's first punt return TD since Britain Covey in 2021.
- Carvalho logged five punt returns for 60 yards against Colorado.
- Carvalho does not currently qualify for the national or conference leaderboard, but his average of 15.4 yards per runback would lead the Big 12 and put him seventh nationally.
- Rayshawn Glover rattled off a 51-yard punt return against Cal Poly, the longest return of his career.
- Smith Snowden started returning kicks in the BYU game last year, fielding three for 81 yards against the Cougars. He served as the primary return man for the final three games, and finished the season with the team lead in return yards (187). Snowden resumed his handling of this responsibility in 2025.
- Snowden tied for 14th nationally and ranked third in the Big 12 in kick return yards during the last four weeks of the season.

THE STANDARD IS THE STANDARD

Special teams have long been a focal point within the Utah program. From national award winners to record-setting performances, the Utes' prowess in the third phase of the game has been a defining trait of the Kyle Whittingham era.

- No school has won the Ray Guy Award, given annually to the nation's mobest collegiate punter, more than Utah. Utah is the only program to win the award three times, while Baylor, Georgia Tech and Louisiana Tech have each had two winners.
- Two Utes have taken home the award - Tom Hackett won in both 2014 and 2015 and Mitch Wishnowsky followed him by lifting the trophy in 2016. Hackett is one of only three punters to claim the accolade multiple times.
- Utah is one of only two programs, alongside Iowa, to have produced both a Lou Groza and Ray Guy Award winner after Matt Gay was selected as the nation's best kicker in 2017.
