Big Red Hits the Road, But Stays in State

After putting an end to an early-season seven-game skid with a hard-fought, shorthanded victory the last time out, Lamar University (2-7) heads back out on the road for a three-game swing all within the state of Texas. The Cardinals will open the three-game stretch Saturday against UT Arlington. The Mavericks are 2-5 (.286) overall and similar to LU, snapped their own slide (four games) last time out with a 10-point victory at UC Santa Barbara. The Mavericks were slated to take on Nevada Tuesday in Arlington, but the game was canceled due to Nevada COVID Protocols. Saturday's game will tip off at 2 p.m. from the College Park Center and will broadcast live on Newstalk 560 KLVI. The game will also be streamed live on Newstalk 560 KLVI. Big Red will then travel to San Marcos, Texas, Wednesday, Dec. 15, for a showdown with Texas State. The Bobcats are off to a strong start in 2021-22 opening the year with a 6-2 (.750) overall record. Texas State enters the week having won five straight and will host Southwestern Sunday before the Cardinals come to town. The game against the Bobcats will tip off at 7 p.m. from Strahan Coliseum. It will be broadcast live on Newstalk 560 KLVI and streamed live on ESPN+.

LU vs. the Mavericks

Saturday's meeting between LU and UT Arlington will mark the 76th time the two programs have stepped on the court together, with the Cardinals holding a strong win percentage in the series. Big Red is 53-22 (.707) all-time in the series, with the majority of those decisions coming when the two programs were Southland Conference rivals. LU has won three of the past five games in the series, but Saturday marks the first time the two schools have met since the 2011-12 season which was won by the Mavericks, 91-82. The Cardinals have had a great deal of success against the Mavericks in Arlington posting a 22-14 (.611) record on the road.

LU vs. the Bobcats

An in-state rivalry that dates back to the 1951-52 season, the Cardinals will be facing Texas State for the 58th time with the majority of those competitions coming when both schools were part of the Southland Conference. The Cardinals have a slim one-game lead in the all-time series (29-28/.509). The Cardinals are 11-17 (.393) all-time in games played in San Marcos, with the last meeting coming in the opening round of the 2017 CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

LU in December

LU is 297-217 (.578) all-time in the month of December, and has posted better than a .500 record in the month 43 times. The Cardinals have notched a perfect record in the month four times. The record jumps to 198-42 (.825) during home game's in the year's final month.

Defending The Nest

LU has made the Montagne Center one of the toughest venues for opponents to play over the course of its 30-plus year history. The Cardinals are 356-174 (.672) all-time in the Montagne Center. LU recorded a program-best 15 home wins in 1987-88 season and is 2-1 (.667) at home this season.

A Rising Threat

With the Cardinals missing several key weapons over the past couple of weeks, senior C.J. Roberts has picked up the slack. After averaging just 8.0 points per game through the team's first four games, Roberts has now hit double figures in each of the past five games, and scored at least 20 in each of the previous three. Roberts is averaging 20.2 points per game in the team's previous five games, and 22.7 over the past three.

Seeing 20-20

Seniors Davion Buster and C.J. Roberts each scored 20 points at Texas Tech. It marks the first time two Cardinals have scored at least 20 points in the same contest since Mar. 2, 2019 (Nick Garth - 20 and Buster - 21).

Career High

Senior Lincoln Smith just missed his first career double-double against Our Lady of the Lake. The Columbus, Ga., native scored eight points and pulled down a career-high 13 points.

The Cardinal Rule

LU was one of the Southland's more dominant teams before making the transition to the WAC this past offseason. LU won 52 percent of the league games and had more NCAA tournament appearances than any of the current SLC schools (6), and their five NIT berths were also tops in the league. LU had 81 players earn All-SLC honors, including 32 first-team selections. Six players were named league newcomer of the year, there were four MVP selections and a conference defensive player of the year. Five former Cardinals had also been named SLC tournament MVP.

LU Men's Basketball Game Notes

Alvin Brooks

Head Coach

2-7/First Season at LU

56-91/Sixth Season Overall

One of the all-time great players in Lamar University Cardinal basketball history, Alvin Brooks was named the program's 12th head coach on April 1, 2021. Brooks returns to the program that he led to the 1980 NCAA Sweet 16 as a player, and where his coaching career began.

A college coaching veteran with 37 years' experience on the sidelines, Brooks has participated in 23 postseason tournaments as a coach or student-athlete – including most recently serving as an assistant on a Houston squad that advanced to the 2021 Final Four in Indianapolis. During his career, Brooks has helped coach teams to seven conference championships, including two with LU (1982-83 and 1983-84). The list of conference titles that Brooks has been a part of includes the 1983 and 1984 Southland Conference (LU), 1992 Southwestern Conference Co-Champions and SWC Classic Champions (Houston), 2004 WAC Co-Champions (UTEP) and the 2019 and 2020 American Athletic Conference titles (Houston).

Brooks' players have also reaped the benefits of his guidance as he coached 17 players who competed in the NBA with a dozen more playing professionally overseas. The list of players Brooks has guided to the NBA includes Greg Anderson, Randy Brown, Damyean Dotson, Rolando Ferreira, Anthony Goldwire, Carl Herrera, Damon Jones, Sam Mack, Bo Outlaw, Alvaro Teheran, Craig Upchurch, Rickie Winslow, Andre Emmett, Acie Law IV, Antoine Wright, Fili Rivera and Tom Sewall.

A former All-Southland Conference guard for the Cardinals in the early 1980s, Brooks returns to the Golden Triangle after spending the previous 11 seasons with the Cougars. During his time in Houston, Brooks has helped build the program back to national prominence.

The Cougars have finished either first or second in the American Athletic Conference standings in each of the past four seasons, and have won at least 20 games in each of the previous six seasons – including a 33-win campaign in 2018-19. The consecutive seasons of at least 20 wins is the most successful six-year stretch in program history. The 2020-21 season also marked the fourth consecutive season the Cougars have finished ranked among the top 25, which is also a program first.

The list of program firsts doesn't stop there. In 2018-19, Houston posted a school-record 33 wins and posted the program's first outright AAC regular-season championship. That season, the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 for the first time since 1984.

Before joining Kelvin Sampson's staff, Brooks spent five seasons as the Cougars' head coach from 1993 to 1998, becoming one of the nation's youngest head coaches at the time, and Houston first African-American head coach in program history.

Before rejoining the Cougars' program, Brooks spent two seasons as the director of operations at Kentucky (2007-09). Brooks' coaching career has also consisted of stops Texas A&M, UTEP, North Texas, Texas Tech and LU.

Brooks' coaching career began at his alma mater in 1981 where he would serve as an assistant to Cardinal Hall of Honor head coach Pat Foster for the next five seasons. During that stretch, the Cardinals won 109 games, posted a .712 winning percentage (109-44), made four postseason NIT appearances, won two Southland Conference regular-season titles and advance to the 1983 NCAA Championships where they advanced to the second round of the tournament.

Fans of the Red and White will always remember Brooks for his time as the Cardinals' point guard from 1979 to 1981. A two-year letterwinner who played for legendary coaches Billy Tubbs and Foster, Brooks guided the Cardinals to 47 wins – including three NCAA tournament wins, consecutive SLC titles and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance.

A 1981 All-Southland selection, Brooks was a 10th-round selection of the San Antonio Spurs in the 1981 NBA draft. Selected by the Beaumont Enterprise as one of the five greatest players in LU history, Brooks was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Honor in 2019.

In just two short seasons with the Cardinals, Brooks became the school's all-time leader in assists with 432 – a mark which still ranks second in program history. Brooks averaged better than 10 points per game during his senior season and set the school single-season record with 249 assists.

A 1982 graduate of LU, Brooks and his wife, Richelle, have five children – daughter, Andree, and sons Casey, Julian, Vincent and Alvin III. Alvin has followed in his father's footsteps and is currently an assistant coach at Baylor.
