LAST TIME OUT

JONESBORO, Ark. – Fifth year senior Isiah Small finished with 17 points and 10 rebounds for his first double-double of the season Saturday afternoon. However, Texas State fell 67-60 to Arkansas State in the First National Bank Arena.

With the loss, the Bobcats are now 12-5 on the season and 3-2 in the Sun Belt Conference while the Red Wolves improve to 13-4 overall and 4-2 in conference play.

ASU knocked down first two shots of the game for a 5-2 lead. Texas State followed by holding the hosts to just one made field goal over their next seven attempts to go on a 12-3 run that spanned 6:43.

A slow spot offensively saw the Red Wolves come back to take a 19-18 lead. After the teams traded baskets, an alley-oop slam by Isiah Small put TXST back in front by one and the team would hold it for nearly the rest of the half. The final five points of the period came from the Red Wolves to send the contest into halftime tied at 32.

Small hit a short jumper for the first bucket of the second half that put him in double-figures. It would be the last points for the Bobcats until Caleb Asberry knocked down a free throw at the 15:53 mark while ASU scored 12 straight points in that span.

The Bobcats were able to get within 52-49 after Nighael Ceaser and Small combined to score seven straight points. The Red Wolves responded with seven consecutive points of their own to go back up by double-digits.

Mason Harrell went on a personal 6-0 run over a 72 second span to get Texas State with four. That would be as close as the Bobcats would get over the final 1:19 of the game.

Only other player to reach double-figures was Ceaser as he finished with 13 points on 6-of-9 shooting and made his lone free throw attempt. Both Shelby Adams and Harrell finished with two steals apiece.

TEXAS STATE HEAD COACH T. J. JOHNSON

TERRENCE JOHNSON

Head Coach

Second Season as Head Coach

Seventh Season at Texas State

Southern, 2008

Terrence Johnson is in his second season as a head coach and seventh year at Texas State in 2021-22 after being named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and guiding the Bobcats to a Sun Belt Championship in his first year as a head coach.

Johnson was tabbed as an interim coach in 2020-21, and he led the Bobcats to an 18-7 record and 12-3 Sun Belt Conference mark despite the effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic and Winter Storm Uri.

His 18 wins in his first season are the most for a Texas State first-year head coach in the NCAA Division I era and second-most wins for a first-year head coach at Texas State behind Dan Wall, who had 20 wins in 1977-78.

Before being named interim head coach, Johnson served five seasons as an assistant coach for the Bobcats and was named one of the top assistant coaches in the Sun Belt Conference by national college basketball columnist Jeff Goodman in 2020.

He played an instrumental role in developing guard Nijal Pearson, who was Texas State's all-time scoring leader with 2,122 points and first All-American since the Bobcats transitioned to NCAA Division I. In addition, Pearson was Texas State's first Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and the first league MVP since 1999 when current assistant coach Donte Mathis was named the Southland Conference Player of the year.

Johnson arrived in San Marcos after coaching at Samford University and serving as an AAU coach in Houston.

While at Samford, Johnson coached three players to all-conference honors, including two players he recruited to the All-Southern Conference Freshman team in 2012.

Johnson has worked with some standout players, most notably Langston Galloway (Detroit Pistons), who played collegiately at St. Joseph's. The New York Knicks selected him in the NBA Draft, and he was named to the NBA All-Rookie Second Team for the 2014-15 season.

During his coaching career, Johnson conducted individual workouts with some of the best players in the region, including Kevin Brown (Louisiana), Antino Jackson (Akron/New Mexico), Mackie McKnight (Lehigh), Elridge Moore (Louisiana), Jonathan Mulmore (Georgetown) and Amos Olatayo (ULM).

Johnson was also regarded as one of the most notable AAU coaches in the Southern Region as his relationships, and strong ties stretch from Texas to Florida. He founded Hollis Price Elite AAU and was the head coach from 2006-10. During that time, his team won the 2008 Louisiana State Championship.

Johnson was the head coach of Texas PRO 17-U and coached standout players like McDonald's All-American and current Brooklyn Nets Jarret Allen (Texas), Galen "G" Robinson (Houston), Alex Hobbs (Boise State), Jarrey Foster (SMU), and TXST Bobcats such as Nijal Pearson and Marlin Davis.

Born in New Orleans, La., Johnson grew up in Sebastopol, La., located in St. Bernard Parish. As the son of a basketball coach, Johnson was taught the fundamentals of basketball and instilled with qualities of perseverance, dedication, and teamwork.

After graduating from high school, Johnson attended Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., earning a Bachelor of Science degree in microbiology and later receiving a master's in education administration from Prairie View A&M University.
