GAME NOTES

A WIN WOULD...

- ★ Keep Little Rock's record above .500.
- ★ Register Joe Foley's 825th career win as a head coach.
- ★ Give Joe Foley his 369th win as head coach of the Trojans.
- ★ Be better than a loss.

CONTROLLING THE PLAY

Little Rock opponents are finding it hard to move the ball against the Trojans (this really is no surprise to us here in The Rock). Trojan opponents are averaging just 9.9 assists per game, a mark that ranks 19th in the nation for Little Rock's defense. This is notable considering UT Arlington ranks 59th nationally in assists per game (15.2) and is fifth in the league and 106th nationally in total assists (258).

WE DON'T SHARE WELL WITH OTHERS

Little Rock doesn't like to share with others. That is why opponents are finding out it is difficult to get their hands on the ball. Little Rock opponents are averaging just 5.9 steals per game, a mark that ranks Little Rock 24th in the nation. Meanwhile opponents are recording just a 7.3% steal rate, a mark that ranks 25th in the nation.

MAYRA RANKS 10TH

After her five-assist performance against App State on Jan. 15, Mayra Caicedo (in just her second season with Little Rock's Team) moved into 10th place all-time at Little Rock in career assists (235). She enters this game ranking 10th and needing just 19 assists to move into a tie for ninth. Next up on the list and ranking ninth is Ka'Nesheia Cobbins, who recorded 271 assists from 2011-15.

HOME, SWEET, HOME

Little Rock is fond of the Jack Stephens Center and it isn't a place at which teams prefer to play. That's because the Trojans are 5-3 so far this season and have won five of the last seven. That's a remarkable stretch considering talented teams like Auburn, Coastal Carolina and Memphis have all left the Jack disappointed.

LITTLE ROCK STANDS ALONE...

as the only team from the state of Arkansas to win at Vanderbilt's Memorial Gym this season. The Trojans shut the Dores down in a 56-40 win on Nov. 12. Overall this season (men and women combined), Vanderbilt is 2-1 against teams from Arkansas with both the Commodore men and women registering wins in league play.

LAST TRIP AROUND THE SUN

With great fanfare, Little Rock Athletics announced on Dec. 9 that the Trojans would be moving to the Ohio Valley Conference on July 1, 2022. This will take Little Rock's Team from the far-flung Sun Belt and move the Trojans into a more regionally-aligned and geographically focused conference where there is only one institution further than a six hour drive. Only five of the soon-to-be 15 Sun Belt schools are located within a six hour drive with six schools located more than 10 hours away.

Once it joins the league this July, Little Rock will become the league's ninth institution, joining Eastern Illinois, Morehead State, Murray State, Southeast Missouri State, SIU Edwardsville, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin, and will become just the 22nd member the 74-year old conference has had.

EFFECTIVE DEFENSE...

Little Rock opponents often get frustrated when facing the Trojans and it's not hard to see why. In conference play this season, the (real) Trojans lead the Sun Belt by allowing just 59.4 ppg. The next best scoring defense in league play this season is App State, who is allowing 63.0 ppg.

...IT'S WHAT LITTLE ROCK PLAYS

Defense does still exist in the Sun Belt and it usually comes with "Little Rock" written across the chest. Trojan opponents are averaging 59.4 points per game (ranking 75th in the nation) while UTA is allowing an average of 67.1 ppg, ranking 235th in the nation.

FINISHING .500 IN SEC PLAY

Little Rock ended the early part of its schedule by going .500 in games against Southeastern Conference opponents with wins over Auburn and Vanderbilt while falling to Arkansas and Texas A&M.

LITTLE ROCK STANDS ALONE...

...as the only non-P5 team this season to record multiple wins over Southeastern Conference opponents. While some other teams have managed to claim wins against the competitive league, Little Rock is the only team to have found repeated success against the SEC. Two wins just means more than one. Coincidentally, the two wins came over Vanderbilt and Auburn and marks more wins over SEC foes than those two teams had combined last season.

ABOUT THE OPPONENT

ABOUT UT ARLINGTON

- ★ The Mavericks enter Saturday's game with a 12-5 mark, 6-2 in Sun Belt play.
- ★ UT Arlington ranks 39th nationally and leads the Sun Belt in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.11).
- ★ UTA ranks 41st in the nation in turnovers per game (13.7), a mark that leads the Sun Belt.

On the other end, Milton is averaging 11.9 points per game on .476 shooting to go with 3.7 assists per game, and 2.4 steals per game.
- ★ Starr Jacobs ranks 15th in the nation and leads the Sun Belt with an average of 20.4 ppg.

IF YA CAN'T BEAT 'EM...

Watch them leave? As Little Rock embarks on its final season of Sun Belt Conference play, the other teams must be releasing a sigh of relief. That is because since the Jack Stephens Center opened (2005-06 season), Little Rock (men and women combined) has won more Sun Belt Championships (regular season, tournament and combined) than any other Sun Belt program over that time frame. That includes other programs that have already left the Sun Belt Conference.

TOP 110 RPI

It comes as no surprise that in the RPI ratings (as released by WarrenNolan.com), Little Rock is ranked in the top 110 nationally and third in the Sun Belt. Trailing only UT Arlington (No. 75), Troy (No. 92) and Louisiana (No. 127), Little Rock is ranked 132nd in the most recent RPI ranking of all 344 Division I programs.

The Sun Belt as a conference ranks 20th of all the Division I conferences (dropping two spots in the past week), while the Ohio Valley is close behind at No. 22.

NOTHING BUT NET

While we're on the subject of no surprises, Little Rock enters this game with one of the highest NET rankings of any Sun Belt school. The Trojans come in at No. 161 which ranks third among the 12 Sun Belt schools, behind only Troy (No. 111) and UTA (No. 141). The Sun Belt has five teams ranked in the top 200 of the latest NET ratings.

TROJANS ON THE BOARDS

The Trojans are relentless on the glass. That is why Little Rock ranks 190th in the nation in offensive rebound rate (30.8%), which measures the percentage of offensive rebound opportunities actually rebounded. The Trojans also rank 147th in the nation in offensive rebounds per game (12.1).

Little Rock extends its efforts to total rebounds as the Trojans' total rebound rate of 49.8% ranks 177th in the nation.

LIMIT THE MISTAKES

With an average of just 16.0 turnovers per game, Little Rock is in the top tenth in the nation - ranking 171st overall - in the fewest turnovers it is committing per game. That also includes an 19.5% turnover rate, a mark that ranks 175th in the country. The turnover rate is the percentage of plays where a turnover is committed. Both of those statistical numbers dropped AFTER playing at No. 17/15 Texas A&M.

YOU CAN'T STOP THE LIQUE

Angelique Francis will not be denied. The junior forward is in the top 10% in the country in all manners of rebounding, particularly in total rebounds and defensive rebounds. Additionally, her turnover rate of 0.7 per game is among the Sun Belt's best. She has also worked on her offensive statistics, becoming one of the national leaders in total offensive rating, field goal percentage and points per play. You can try going up against her for the ball, but we don't advise it.

SUNNY SIDE OF SALI

Sali Kourouma got off to a hot start this season and it's drawing all sorts of attention. As conference play has gotten underway, Kourouma is drawing more attention from other teams' defenses than the paparazzi spends on Jennifer Aniston's relationships, finally causing her points per game average to dip below 20.0. Still one of the most prolific scorer's in the Sun Belt and in the country, Kourouma remains a hot hand and someone to keep an eye on.

VALUE ADD

Sali Kourouma joining Little Rock's team has been one of the most impactful additions to any Sun Belt team this year, scoring 20 or more points in three of her first five games and instantly becoming a difference maker on the court.

Not just that, her 38.9% Usage Percentage - detailing the percentage of plays during her time on the floor that a player used by either shooting, getting to the line or committing a turnover - leads in the nation and the Sun Belt Conference. Additionally, Kourouma ranks in the top 10% in the nation in Player Efficiency Rating (19.0) which is an advanced statistic that estimates the per minute value of a player from the box score stats.

DEATH. TAXES. JOE FOLEY'S DEFENSE.

If there's one thing coaches don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense. If there's two things they don't want to face, it's Joe Foley's defense twice in the same weekend. That is because Little Rock and Joe Foley have set the standard when it comes to the Trojans defensive efforts, ranking in the top two of the conference in 10 of the past 11 years in scoring defense while ranking in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense in nine of past 11 years.

The 2021-22 season is shaping up to be no different as Little Rock is second in the Sun Belt and ranks 72nd in the nation in scoring defense entering this game.

A FIRST FOR THE SEASON

With a 68-66 win on Jan. 20 at Troy, Little Rock recorded a first for the season. That marked the first time this season Little Rock had rallied back from a halftime deficit for a win. Little Rock trailed 26-20 at halftime and trailed 45-40 through three quarters before out-scoring Troy, 28-21, in the final frame.

YOU DIDN'T REALIZE MAYRA WAS THIS FAST

Mayra Caicedo is fast, really fast. But she set a new standard for speed becoming the fastest player in Little Rock history to record 200 career assists. Caicedo recorded her 200th career assist in a 57-49 win over Auburn on Nov. 24, 2021, her 31st game played in the Maroon & Silver. That was faster than Heather Morris recording her 200th career assist in her 47th game played.

EFFECTIVE DEFENSE - PART II

Little Rock often is effective in their defense but that was really on display in the Trojans' win over Central Arkansas on Dec. 4. The Maroon & Silver held UCA to just one assist while forcing 27 turnovers.

GAME NOTES

IT WASN'T THE FIRST...

When Little Rock beat Auburn on Nov. 24, that win was big but wasn't necessarily be a first. With the win over Vanderbilt already on the books, the Trojans victory over Auburn marked the third time in program history that Little Rock has registered multiple wins over Power 5 teams in a single season. It first happened in 2008 (Oklahoma State, at Ole Miss) and then again in 2014 (at LSU, Oklahoma).

SALI WENT BACK-TO-BACK

Little Rock forward Sali Kourouma repeated as the Sun Belt's Player of the Week in the first two weeks of play. Kourouma averaged 28.0 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as the Trojans claimed a pair of wins over Memphis and Arkansas-Pine Bluff. She scored 56 points in all, including a career-high 32 points in Little Rock's 55-50 win over Memphis. The redshirt sophomore shot an impressive 43.2% (19-for-44) and a dominating 78.9% (15 of 19) from the charity stripe on the week while averaging 28.0 minutes per game. She recorded five steal and one block, helping the Trojans prevent Memphis from hitting a field goal in the final six-plus minutes of the game last Thursday.

POWERFUL DUBS

Little Rock's 57-49 win over Auburn on Nov. 24 was nothing new for the Trojans. That is because it is the 13th time that Little Rock's Team has claimed a win over a Power 5 program. On Nov. 12, Little Rock made Vandy the fourth Power 5 program to lose to the Trojans on multiple occasions, joining the likes of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State and Texas A&M.

ANCHOR UP?

With a dominating 56-40 win over the Commodores on Nov. 12, Little Rock registered a sweep of the home-and-home series between the Trojans and Vanderbilt. That marked the second straight year Little Rock has topped Vandy and brings Little Rock's all-time record against the 'Dores to 2-0.

WELCOME TO THE ROCK

It didn't take long for some of the newcomers to get acclimated to their place within the program as the 2021-22 season go tunderway. After just one game in a Trojans uniform, Raziya Potter (16 points), Sali Kourouma (15 points) and Amari Conn (7 points) showed they have the ability to make a difference on the court. Even more impressive, they did that against a Missouri State team that has been to back-to-back Sweet 16s and is the preseason pick to win the Missouri Valley Conference.

MY-OH-MAYRA

Mayra Caicedo has been etching her name in the Little Rock record book but on Jan. 29, 2021, she wrote her name in the Sun Belt record book as well. With a 17-assist performance in Little Rock's 71-36 win over ULM last season, Caicedo tied the Sun Belt (overall) record for most assists in a game, matching the 17 assists recorded by UAB's Kitty Price against Alabama-Huntsville on Feb. 6, 1986.

It also set a record for the most assists in a Sun Belt Conference game, surpassing the 16 assists by Kortni Jones (Middle Tennessee) against Troy on Jan. 25, 2012. For her efforts, she was named the Mid-Major National Player of the Week by College Sports Madness. Yet the speedy point guard is still searching for her first Sun Belt Player of the Week honor... Regardless, we're thankful for the national honors.

OFFENSIVE GLASS

Krystan Vornes is becoming a relentless worker in the paint. The Trojan fifth-year senior ranks 10th all-time in Little Rock history with an average of 2.2 offensive rebounds per game. Vornes will look to improve upon that number when the Trojans face Vanderbilt Friday evening.

Last season, Vornes averaged 3.4 offensive rebounds per game - a mark that ranks second in school history. Her average of 8.9 rebounds throughout the season ranks third in program history.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Krystan Vornes made the most of her senior year and was a cause for concern for Little Rock opponents. With her engine kicked into high gear in her "final" season, Vornes has churned out nine double-doubles. This is notable as Vornes had not recorded a double-double prior to the 2020-21 season.

Now she can try to pick up where she left off as she returns for her "Covid" year, a welcome opportunity after suffering a season-ending knee injury in the first four minutes of the Sun Belt Conference Tournament last season.

NOT HER FIRST ACTION IN THE NATURAL STATE

After two seasons at New Mexico and in the Mountain West Conference, Azaria Robinson has joined Little Rock's Team. But when the Trojans tip off the season on Nov. 9, it won't be her first action in the Natural State. As a member of the Lobos, Robinson played at Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Dec. 17, 2020 and saw six minutes of action. She'll see the Golden Lions once more on Nov. 16 when UAPB visits the Jack Stephens Center.

FIRST OPPONENTS, NOW TEAMMATES

Azaria Robinson is not the only Mountain West player to transfer so she could be part of Little Rock's Team. Raziya Potter spent three seasons at San Jose State (albeit the Spartans only played four games in a COVID-shortened 2020-21 season) and faced off against Robinson in Mountain West play. Now the tandem will have to work together as part of the Trojans roster.

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Standing at 5-foot-11, Little Rock forward Angelique Francis may not be the tallest player on the floor but she casts an imposing figure. With her muscles bulging out of her sleeveless jersey, there is little doubt who is the most physical player on the court. But look closely at those sleeveless arms and you will see the fading scars of a past that gives a glimpse at the adversity she is still overcoming to this day.

Those scars tell the story of a past that has been focused on survival between abusive relationships and multiple suicide attempts. It is a story she is just now coming to terms with in order to tell others, refocusing her life from merely trying to survive to wanting to help others mired in the darkness from which she has broken free. GAME NOTES

FOLEY CLAIMS WIN NO. 800

Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley is just the fifth active Division I head coach - and 16th coach overall - to surpass the 800 career wins mark. Already a Hall of Fame coach, he is continuing to cement his name as one of the best coaches in the game.

AND RANKS AMONG THE BEST

Joe Foley is currently fourth on the active coaches list in terms of all-time wins as the GOAT consistently builds a winning program year-in and year-out at Little Rock. That puts the Trojans leader among the top names the sport has to offer.

THE GOAT IS A SUN BELT RECORD HOLDER

Joe Foley has won 221 games in Sun Belt Conference play over the course of his 19 years at Little Rock, holding the record for the most wins in conference play in the league. Additionally, he has a .704 winning percentage (221-94) in Sun Belt games, a mark that is the highest of any active Sun Belt head coach and ranking 10th all-time in Sun Belt history.

JOE FOLEY

Head Coach | 19th Season | Central Arkansas (1979)

Joe Foley, the 2010, 2011, 2015, 2017 and 2018 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year and 2010 Russell Athletic/WBCA Regional Coach of the Year, has led the Little Rock Women's Basketball program to 20-win seasons 11 of the last 14 years, outright Sun Belt Conference West Division titles in the final six years the Sun Belt had divisions, three Sun Belt regular-season championships, post-season appearances in 10 of the last 12 years – including five NCAA berths – and Sun Belt Conference Tournament titles in 2011, 2012, 2015 and 2018. Foley has recorded an 816-285-274 (.741) career record and a 345-193 (.638) record at Little Rock as he begins his 19th season in 2021-22. He has led the Trojans to the semi-finals of the Sun Belt Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years.

The Hall of Fame coach reached a remarkable milestone during the 2019-20 season when he recorded his 800th career victory – one of only five active head coaches to reach that plateau. In that season, Kyra Collier claimed first team All-Sun Belt honors marking the seventh consecutive year a Trojan has been represented on the first team. Little Rock has placed a Trojan on the league's all-conference teams list every single season Foley has guided Little Rock's Team.

Foley earned his 700th career victory in the NCAA Tournament's first round in 2015, and he signed a contract extension in April 2015 that will keep him as the Trojans' head coach through the 2023-24 season.

In his tenure at Little Rock, Foley has compiled the most overall wins (29) and conference victories (18) in a season while producing the school's first All-Sun Belt Conference selection in Alicia Cash in 2004. He also recruited back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year winners in Renee Renz (2006) and Kim Sitzmann (2007). No other Sun Belt Conference school has achieved this feat. Foley also coached the school's first-ever Honorable Mention All-America honoree in Chastity Reed in 2010. His Trojan student-athletes have earned 23 All-Conference selections.

Foley began his coaching career at the high school level as both the boys and girls basketball coach at Oxford (Ark.) High School from 1979-81, and then at Morrilton High School as an assistant for the boys team until 1984.

Foley has earned many personal accolades during his career. He has been named national coach of the year twice, region or district coach of the year seven times, chosen to be on the 1994 United States Olympic Festival coaching staff and was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame as a member of the class of 2002.

Foley earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Central Arkansas in 1979. He is married to the former Chris Fields of Alpena, Ark. The couple has two children, C.J. and Miranda.

"I'd rather be audited by the IRS, have a colonoscopy and a dentist appointment on the same day than play against a team coached by Joe Foley."
- Mike Neighbors, Arkansas Head Coach

The above quote was from the 2019 game. After last year's contest, which Arkansas won 80-70, Neighbors said "I'd like to add going to the DMV to the list."

2021-22 RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

1 MISSOURI STATE 76, LITTLE ROCK 62

Nov. 9, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 1,743

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Missouri State averaged over 103 points in its two exhibitions and entered Tuesday's season-opener looking to prove it belonged in the Top 25 polls after back-to-back Sweet 16 runs. They left thankful for a fourth-quarter run that prevented the Lady Bears from being another victim of Little Rock's suffocating defense.

The host Trojans (0-1) threatened an early-season upset with a late third quarter lead but eventually fell to the near unanimous choice to win the Missouri Valley Conference in a 76-62 battle Tuesday night in front of 1,743 at the Jack Stephens Center.

For Little Rock, it was an all-out effort that saw the Maroon and Silver challenge Missouri State from the opening tip. The Lady Bears only briefly flirted with a double-digit lead a couple times before Little Rock would battle back and bring the Bears back to the reality that is Trojan Basketball.

But after losing two starters to injury in the fourth quarter - both Dariel Johnson and Mayra Caicedo are expected to return for Little Rock's next game at Vanderbilt - Missouri State (1-0) was able to use numbers to its advantage and pull away for the win.

New faces led the way for the Trojans as Raziya Potter led Little Rock's Team with 16 points while Sali Kourouma added another 15. Krystan Vornes, making her first appearance since a season-ending knee injury in March, flirted with a double-double by scoring 10 points and grabbing eight boards.

Overall, Little Rock shot 40% (26-for-65) from the field and ended the game even with Missouri State in rebounds, 34-34. The Trojans refused to back down in a physical game that saw seven lead changes.

2 LITTLE ROCK 56, VANDERBILT 40

Nov. 12, 2021 • Nashville, Tenn. • 1,633

NASHVILLE - At the end of the first quarter, Vanderbilt was searching for answers on how to stop Little Rock's Sali Kourouma. Thirty minutes later, they were still had no solution.

Kourouma, in just her second game in a Little Rock uniform, scored 30 points and kept the host Commodores (1-1) at bay in a 56-40 win for the Trojans (1-1) at Vanderbilt. That included an 11-point outburst by Kourouma in the first quarter to go along with a 9-for-16 performance from the field and hitting 10 of 12 free throws in a dominating performance.

The win gives Little Rock a sweep of the home-and-home series with Vanderbilt that began with an 82-74 win last season in Little Rock. It marked the second straight day a Sun Belt team had toppled a program from the Southeastern Conference after Georgia Southern beat Auburn Thursday night. Auburn visits Little Rock on Nov. 24.

Little Rock shot 40 percent from the field for the second straight game but even more impressive was the Trojans defense which turned 20 Vanderbilt turnovers into 22 points. The Maroon and Silver further punished the Commodores, going to the line eight times and connecting on 13 of 16 free throw attempts (81.3 percent).

Kourouma scored 15 points in her Little Rock debut and doubled that output Friday night against Vanderbilt. She was perfect from the free throw line for three quarters, going 10 of 12 from the charity stripe overall.

Mayra Caicedo scored eight points and dished out five assists while Dariel Johnson and Krystan Vornes both scored six. Angelique Francis led the Trojans in rebounds with six. The tall Trojans controlled the pace of play in the paint, out-scoring Vandy 24-14 in that zone.

Nov. 16, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 747

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Little Rock utilized a 17-rebound advantage including a career-high 14 rebounds by Angelique Francis as the Trojans topped Arkansas-Pine Bluff, 73-63, Tuesday night at the Jack Stephens Center.

The Trojans (2-1) shot 40% or better for the third straight game this season and held a 41-28 halftime lead but it was the 48 rebounds that highlighted Little Rock's first meeting against UAPB since 2005. Francis' 14 rebounds led all players while Dariel Johnson added 10 boards.

"We won that game because of our rebounding," Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley said after the game.

Sali Kourouma once again led the offensive effort for Little Rock, scoring 24 points while also bringing down six offensive rebounds and swiping four steals. Tia Harvey scored 12 points for the Trojans.

Little Rock led by as much as 16 in the first half before UAPB challenged the Trojans with varying defenses in hopes of throwing the Trojans off-guard. That lead would get trimmed down to as little as six after Khadijah Brown scored a pair of baskets in the lane within 20 seconds of each other, but that would be as close as the Lions would get.

The Trojans responded with a 9-2 run that included a 3-pointer from Harvey to regain a double-digit lead at 48-37 late in the third quarter. With the lead trimmed back to single digits entering the fourth quarter, Little Rock used another 9-2 run to pull away. With the Trojans out-rebounding UAPB 12-6 in the final quarter, the Maroon and Silver kept UAPB at bay to clinch the win.

The Golden Lions (0-3) were led by Brown's 19 points while Zaay Green and Tyeisha Juhan both added 12 points each.

4 LITTLE ROCK 55, MEMPHIS 50

Nov. 18, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 763

Little Rock (3-1) held Memphis (2-1) without a field goal for the final six minutes of the game and closed things out on a 10-1 run as the host Trojans pulled out the 55-50 win.

It didn't come without drama. Memphis led by as much as six in the final quarter before the Trojans began to chip away at the lead. Sali Kourouma's second-chance jumper in the paint tied the game with 2:54 left as part of her 32-point night that went along with 10 rebounds as she recorded her first career double-double.

When Memphis sniffed at a chance for a comeback, the long arms of Dariel Johnson blocked any light of hope for the Tigers. A put back by Dariel Johnson with 22 seconds left made it a two-possession game. Her third block of the game came 10 seconds later and put to bed any hopes of a Memphis comeback on the night.

The Tigers, tired of seeing Johnson after five-rebound, three-block and two-steal night followed up on her 17-rebound and four-block performance against Memphis a year ago, had no solutions to get around the long arms on her 6-foot-1 frame.

That defensive position included providing enough pressure on Memphis that the Tigers only shot 10% (1-for-10) from the field in the fourth quarter. That came after a third quarter where UM shot 58.3% (7 of 12) and out-scored Little Rock, 20-15.

5 LITTLE ROCK 57, AUBURN 49

Nov. 24, 2021 • Little Rock, Ark. • 656

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Mayra Caicedo couldn't miss on Wednesday. Little Rock's senior point guard was 5-for-5 from the field, dished out eight assists and hit two critical free throws in the final minute as the Trojans topped Auburn, 57-49, for their second win over a Power 5 program this season.

Prior to Caicedo's trip to the line with 58 seconds to play, Little Rock (4-1) had struggled from the charity stripe, shooting just 38% at the time. But in that final minute, everything changed. Caicedo drilled her two shots, the Trojans hit 5 of 6 down the stretch and Little Rock turned a one-possession game into a nearly double-digit win.

It marked the second straight game the Maroon and Silver used a lock down defense to shutdown a comeback attempt after preventing Memphis from scoring a field goal in the final six minutes last week. This time, Auburn (2-3) fell prey to the defensive efforts orchestrated by Little Rock Head Coach Joe Foley. That defense made up for what the team described as an offensive effort that still needed work.

"We got the win but we know we have to be better," Caicedo said. "We will learn from this and use it to get better. I'm glad we got the win and thought we played well in some areas."

Despite the desire to improve, Little Rock shot 45.8% from the field, forced 17 turnovers and blocked three shots. But the Trojans entered the final minute of play having allowed Auburn to creep back within reach after leading by as much as 13 earlier in the half.

Krystan Vornes was a big part of the outcome for Little Rock, registering her first double-double of the season as she recorded 14 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Sali Kourouma, the nation's fourth-leading scorer, led all players with 16 points and shot over 58% from the field.

TULSA, Okla. – Krystan Vornes fell one rebound shy of her third straight double-double but cold shooting in the second and third quarters led to a 74-56 loss at Oral Roberts Sunday afternoon.

Vornes scored 13 points and brought down nine rebounds in nearly 31 minutes on the court while Mayra Caicedo added 10 points. Angelique Francis scored a season-high seven points and matched Vornes' 3-for-4 effort at the charity stripe while also bringing down seven rebounds.

Little Rock (4-3) hit a season-high six 3-pointers and shot 31.6% behind the arc but committed 14 turnovers and was out-rebounded 40-34.

While Little Rock shot 33.8% (22 of 65) overall, the Trojans were just 7 of 32 (21.8%) from the floor over the middle two quarters and only scored 18 points in that time span. On the other side, Oral Roberts (2-4) put up 39 points and shot 55.6% in the same 20-minute period as it won its second consecutive game.

Little Rock trailed by just four at halftime, 30-24, and cut it to a one-possession game early in the third quarter when Vornes hit one of two free throws.

But that is when ORU turned on the pressure and the Trojans went cold as the Golden Eagles mounted a 13-0 run that put the game out of reach. Oral Roberts extended its lead to as much as 22 early in the fourth quarter.

Tirzah Moore and Katie Scott both had 13 points to lead Oral Roberts while Keni Jo Lippe scored 12 and Hannah Cooper added 11.

#17/18 TEXAS A&M 65, LITTLE ROCK 50

COLLEGE STATION, Texas – Raziya Potter scored a career-high 23 points and Little Rock out-scored No. 17/15 Texas A&M in the second half but the host Aggies held off a Trojans rally in a 65-50 decision Wednesday morning in front of 6,414 fans at Reed Arena.

Little Rock (4-4) trailed by as much as 21 before Daniel Johnson's drive to the basket and conventional three-point play early in the fourth quarter cut the Aggie lead to single digits. That capped a run where the Texas A&M (8-0) was held scoreless for over eight non-consecutive minutes in the third quarter as the Trojans slowly crept back into contention.

Potter and Sali Kourouma teamed up to score 16 of Little Rock's 18 points in the third quarter, a period in which the Trojans doubled up the Aggies in scoring and held A&M to just one made field goal. The Trojans went on an 11-0 run in the third quarter that even an A&M timeout midway through couldn't stop.

With the exception of the second quarter, Little Rock went shot-for-shot against the nationally-ranked Aggies. That quarter was detrimental and put the Trojans in a hole that proved to be too deep to overcome as Little Rock shot just 20% from the field and was limited to six points.

Texas A&M, the nation's best 3-point shooting team, proved why that notation was so by shooting 47.1% from behind the line by hitting 8 of 17 long-range shots. A&M shot 48.2% (24-for-52) from the field overall.

But the pesky Trojans continued to be a fly in the ointment of A&M, forcing 17 Aggie turnovers, blocking four shots – three by Johnson – and only trailing in rebounds by five, 38-33. Angelique Francis led the Trojans with nine boards.

LITTLE ROCK 62, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 38

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. – For 10 minutes, Central Arkansas went shot-for-shot with Little Rock. For the next 30 minutes, they struggled to get shots against the defensive-minded Trojans.

Little Rock (5-4) kept the visiting Sugar Bears (3-4) in single digits in each of the final three quarters and limited Central Arkansas to just 6 of 22 shooting (27%) during that stretch in a 62-38 shutdown in the most recent installment of the Governor's I-40 Showdown between the two teams.

The Trojan defense was so suffocating that UCA only made six field goals in the final three quarters after making six field goals in the first 10 minutes. UCA's struggles came in part as Little Rock forced 27 turnovers and allowed the Sugar Bears to dish out just one single assist.

On the other end of the court, Sali Kourouma was in routine form with 20 points, four rebounds and two steals. Amari Conn scored 14 points mostly from long-range while Raziya Potter added 12 points and four rebounds.

Daniel Johnson was relentless on the boards, grabbing seven rebounds and swiping three steals while adding six points.

Little Rock shot only 34.9% in the game on 22 of 63 shooting but was successful from long range as they hit 3-pointers at a 42.1% clip, dropping a season-high eight long-range shots on 19 attempts. Conn led that facet of the game as she drained a quartet of 3-pointers.

After limiting UCA to just nine points in the second quarter, Little Rock doubled up its opponent in the third frame for the second straight game, outscoring the Sugar Bears 16-8. The Trojans surged in the fourth quarter, shooting 45.5% in the final frame.

Dec. 12, 2021 • Fayetteville, Ark. • 3,451

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. - Little Rock was limited to just 26.3 percent shooting and couldn't recover from a Razorback 14-2 run to end the first half, dropping Sunday's first-ever meeting in Fayetteville, 73-39, in front of 3,451 fans at Bud Walton Arena.

Sali Kourouma and Raziya Potter each scored eight points to lead the Trojans but the pair combined for 5 of 29 shooting (17.2%) in the game as Little Rock (5-5) struggled from the field.

The Trojans actually held a 13-12 lead after the first quarter of play, limiting the Razorbacks (9-2) to 16.7 percent shooting. But the Hogs warmed up as the Trojans took cold and Arkansas used a 14-2 run at the end of the first half to take a 26-18 lead into intermission. Little Rock would not recover. Angelique Francis grabbed a team-leading nine rebounds – including six on the offensive side of the ball – and scored six points.

Even when the Maroon and Silver found a little bit of success, namely the third quarter when the Trojans upped their rate to a 36.4% field goal percentage, Arkansas upped the ante. The Razorbacks were 10 of 13 (76.9%) in that third frame, out-scored Little Rock 28-12 and kept the game out of reach. That was thanks to a handful of 3-pointers with nearly half of their game's 11 treys coming in that third quarter alone.

Overall, the Trojans committed 17 turnovers with only three assists and had four shots blocked. Arkansas was led by Sasha Goforth and Amber Ramirez, each of whom scored 14 points with the latter of the two hitting 4 of 8 from beyond the arc.

11 LITTLE ROCK 54, COASTAL CAROLINA 50

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Little Rock Head Women's Basketball Coach Joe Foley has spent most of his career preaching how important solid defense can be. Thursday night showed exactly why.

Playing a game for the first time in over a month, Little Rock's defense held Coastal Carolina scoreless over the final 2:36 and pulled out a 54-50 win Thursday night at the Jack Stephens Center.

The win kicks off Little Rock's final season of Sun Belt Conference play in a familiar fashion – the Trojans have won eight straight conference openers in Sun Belt play and marked their fifth straight win at home overall.

Little Rock (6-5, 1-0 Sun Belt) utilized a lock down defense in the final minutes to thwart a comeback attempt by the Chanticleers (12-3, 2-2) after the host Trojans led by as much as 11 midway through the third quarter. Coastal was held to a season-low 50 points, more than 26 points under their season average.

That double-digit lead came as Little Rock rallied back from an early deficit, using a 25-4 run over a combined 10 minutes of play on either side of the halftime intermission. That run turned a 10-point deficit into an 11-point advantage for the Trojans. Coastal Carolina would never regain the lead after that point.

The Trojans were led by the 23 points from Sali Kourouma, who posted her fifth game with 20-plus points this season. Krystan Vornes recorded her third double-double of the season with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

Mayra Caicedo dished out a season-high nine assists – more than double Coastal Carolina's eight total team assists – and added eight points with five rebounds.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - All good things must come to an end.

That statement rang true Saturday as Little Rock was upended by App State, 60-49, despite a double-double performance by Angelique Francis and a game-high 15 points from Sali Kourouma.

Little Rock (6-6, 1-1 Sun Belt) had cut a 14-point deficit to just five with less than two minutes to play but couldn't complete another comeback win in an arena that has already seen a few this season.

Kourouma scored 11 of her 15 points in the second half as the Mountaineers (7-8, 1-1) continually collapsed on the Trojan sophomore, forcing bad shots in a 6-for-22 shooting performance. She entered the game as the nation's 20th best scorer, leading the Sun Belt Conference, with an average of 20.3 points per game.

Francis posted her second career double-double and first since last year's Sun Belt Tournament with a season-high 11 points while grabbing 10 rebounds. But Kourouma and Francis were the only two in Maroon and Silver to reach double figures in scoring while the visiting Mountaineers had five players reach double digits, led by 14 points from Faith Alston.

For App State, it was a third quarter push that Little Rock struggled from which to respond. App shot nearly 55% after the intermission including hitting baskets at a 61.5% mark in the third quarter. Meanwhile, Little Rock committed a season-high 24 turnovers in the game.

13 LITTLE ROCK 68, TROY 66

Jan. 20, 2022 • Troy, Ala. • 1,801

TROY, Ala. - With six seconds and trailing by just two, Troy's Jasmine Robinson raced down the court and shot up a last-second chance for a tie and to send the game into overtime. That shot went straight into the outstretched arms of Dariel Johnson and secured the 68-66 win for Little Rock.

That registered Johnson's third block of the game - a season high - which came alongside a career-high 14 points while Raziya Potter dropped a career-high 24 points as Little Rock (7-6, 2-1 Sun Belt) claimed a win in its last trip to Troy. Meanwhile Troy (13-7, 4-2) fell from the top of the Sun Belt standings as they lost for the second time in three games.

It was more than just a block and a pair of career-highs to propel Little Rock to the win, however. Little Rock trailing 45-40 entering the fourth quarter and outscored Troy 28-21 over the final frame. Johnson and Tia Harvey each scored seven points in that quarter, hitting key shots in the clutch. Harvey was making her first appearance in a game since Dec. 1 having finally recovered from an ankle injury and finished with 11 points.

Mayra Caicedo dished out nine assists as Little Rock posted an 18-13 assist-to-turnover ratio while forcing 20 turnovers out of Troy, scoring 23 points off those turnovers.

That capped off a high-scoring second half, one that was the complete opposite of its predecessor. Little Rock out-scored Troy, 48-40, in the second half after the two teams scored a combined 46 points in the first half. Troy was led by Robinson's 16 points but seven of those came from the free throw line. She ended the night 4 of 10 from the field, with the last of her 10 shots going straight into Johnson's block.

14 LITTLE ROCK 74, SOUTH ALABAMA 52

Jan. 22, 2022 • Mobile, Ala. • 315

MOBILE, Ala. - Little Rock had three players score a game-high 15 points and led wire-to-wire in a dominant 74-52 win at South Alabama Saturday afternoon at the Mitchell Center.

Angelique Francis, Sali Kourouma and Mayra Caicedo each dropped 15 on the box score while Dariel Johnson added 10 points as the Trojans (8-6, 3-1 Sun Belt) remained atop the Sun Belt standings after sweeping the week's action in Alabama. South Alabama (8-9, 2-2) lost their seventh straight home game against Little Rock.

The Trojans used a 39-26 rebounding advantage and scored 40 points in the paint to control the game in the lane on both ends, grabbing 17 offensive rebounds in the process. Raziya Potter, whose nine points and eight rebounds barely missed out on a double-double, grabbed six offensive boards.

Little Rock started out red-hot from long range, hitting 4 of 7 shots from beyond the arc including a trio from Caicedo. Then entering the second half and holding a 13-point lead after the intermission, the Trojans worked an inside game with 11 of their 14 made baskets in the second half coming in the lane. The Jaguars couldn't stop the Trojan attack from any point on the floor.

All nine Trojans that dressed out scored points, including Hailey Hohenacker registering her first career collegiate points on a layup late in the game.

Francis tied a career-high with her 15 points while also drawing two of the four charges the Jaguars were called for. Caicedo set new career-highs in points (15) and 3-pointers made (3). Kourouma, who was limited to one point at Troy on Thursday, returned to her regular form with her 15-point performance.
